Chapter 87: Twenty Bottles of Ambergris!

The Colosseum was in chaos. It had been a joyous scene just a moment ago, but now it seemed to have turned into hell on Earth.

Levi was among the crowd, but he could not help but glance at the three grand Imights fighting.

On one side was the Unparalleled God of War, but he had been poisoned by the Fist of the Empire.

On the other side were the Empire's military minister and the foreign aid he had invited, the assassins of the Bird of Death's Voice.

"Pale Shadow. Isn't he Iron Mountain's superior?" Levi's heart skipped a beat.

D*mn it; the enemy was right in front of him. How could he stop? He wanted to go up and punch him.

However, after witnessing a grand knight's battle, Levi knew there was still a considerable gap between him and the opponent.

Although they might not have cultivated as many breathing techniques as Levi, their realms were beyond the realm of official knights. They did not have any obvious shortcomings.

This was especially true when facing someone in Levi's realm.

The rebel soldiers wearing gas masks took over the stadium.

"Sir, I'll retreat first. The current situation has already exceeded my expectations. I'm sorry. You can find me at the Shining Tavern if you successfully escape."

Then, the Wild Dog Knight disappeared into the crowd.

Levi did not mind. He drew out his White Wolf Mask and put it on before the poisonous gas swept over him.

"Phew." Levi looked at the chaotic Colosseum.

The crowd was running away from the blue circle, and the rebel army and the Fist of the Empire's military were fighting.

Some of the Bird of Death's Voice assassins were also among them, reaping people's lives.

"What bad luck. I shouldn't have watched the show," Levi cursed in his heart, but he was not too flustered.

With his strength, it would be easy for him to escape.

However, he wanted to do something before he escaped.

He looked at the Earthly Dragon Beast lying in a pool of blood in the Colosseum, his heart struggling and his expression hesitant.

He hid in the crowd, waiting for an opportunity to strike.

The three grand knights were fighting intensely, and the battle had climaxed.

Although the Fist of the Empire was mighty, he had just been exhausted by the Earthly Dragon Beast and had been poisoned. He was not sure of victory.

The military minister and Pale Shadow were also grand knights.

The two of them worked together, and the injured Fist of the Empire was exhausted.

Now was not the right time, as it was not safe enough. He had to wait until the three grand knights were far away from the Earthly Dragon Beast's corpse before he could act.

At this moment, a Fist of the Empire member charged over.

"Raise your hands and take off your mask. Otherwise, you will be treated as a rebel."

Levi ignored him, and that person directly slashed at Levi.

"You're courting death!" Levi easily dodged that person's attack.

Then, he smashed his head with both hands and blood splattered on the person beside him.

The scene was highly chaotic. Levi was at ease, waiting for the right time to strike.

At the same time, he looked at Myka, who was retreating under the cover of two high-level knights.

Now that the rebel army was in chaos, Myka would probably find a hiding place under the protection of his subordinates. He probably would not go to the mansion. Perhaps he could get the Ambergris statue this time and take Myka's head simultaneously.

After all, the Fist of the Empire was already too busy to care. How could it have the time to chase after Levi?

Finally, Levi realized that the Fist of the Empire had already suppressed the Pale Shadow and the military minister to a corner of the stadium. The two of them were in a pitiful state.

They did not expect that the Fist of the Empire, who was no longer at his peak strength, could suppress the two grand knights.

Seeing this, Levi formed a hand seal, grabbed the casting materials, and quickly climbed up the cage.

Then, he came to the Earthly Dragon Beast's side, opened its mouth, cut off its glands, and wrapped them in cloth. He did not care how much ambergris was inside and quickly climbed the iron fence.

When the Pale Shadow realized the thief, he was furious.

The Earthly Dragon Beast's corpse was one of his rewards!

Especially the ambergris, which was worth thousands of gold coins. Although he was a respected member of the Five Shadows, no one should rob him like this!

He cursed him.

A small dagger that seemed condensed from black gas flew out from the tip of Pale Shadow's finger, heading straight for the fleeing Levi!

Whoosh!

The dagger was like an arrow, breaking through the void and arriving in an instant!

Levi's spider sense activated, and his hair stood on end. A sense of danger that he had never felt before assaulted him!

"I must block it with all our strength!"

Just as the black dagger was about to plant itself in Levi's back, a faint white light barrier formed.

The light barrier was like a bubble and broke with a poke.

However, the strength of the dagger was weak.

The next moment, Levi's stacked armors began to take effect.

The cloth armor shattered, and even the tough dragon armor was destroyed. The chain mail also cracked a little. He had gathered almost all his black gas and concentrated them at his back to block the attack.

The dagger pierced deep into the black gas and was wrapped in it. Finally, it lost its strength and dissipated.

Levi also successfully escaped from the cage and disappeared into the crowd.

After the Pale Shadow threw out the black gas dagger, he thought his opponent would die.

He did not dare to be distracted for too long. After all, he was at a disadvantage in the battle.

However, when he noticed the thief had disappeared, he revealed a look of disbelief.

"How is that possible?"

Boom! The Fist of the Empire sent Pale Shadow flying. He crashed into the railing and landed on the ground in a miserable state. He spat out a mouthful of blood.

"You dare to be distracted while fighting me!"

"Who gave you the courage to be distracted?"

He abruptly leaped up and smashed toward Pale Shadow.

The military minister barely managed to block the Fist of the Empire.

Pale Shadow shouted, "Retreat!"

Then, he clutched his chest and quickly fled.

If this continued, he might be killed by the Fist of the Empire.

He had underestimated the strength of this Patronus.

The military minister was also unwilling, but he could only retreat.

Right now, the Holy City was in chaos. Although the Fist of the Empire had not died, the other arrangements had succeeded. No matter how powerful the Fist of the Empire was, he could only withstand it momentarily.

The Fist of the Empire was covered in wounds as he watched the two people escape. He was almost covered in blood. He was like a demon god, and black gas soared into the sky. He looked at the mess now, and his eyes were sorrowful.

Rebel soldiers surrounded him, but no one dared to move forward. Some shot arrows at him, and he allowed them to pierce through his bloody body and wounds.

He roared, "These pesticides!"

Countless arrows flew backward, and the rebel army was instantly injured and killed. They began to scatter.

It was too terrifying. It was impossible to kill this person without sacrificing thousands of lives.

Under the terrifying deterrence of the Fist of the Empire, no one dared to approach him.

The Fist of the Empire tore through the iron fence and leaped high. He stepped on the seats in the stands and quickly left the stadium. Like an absolute beast, he charged in the direction where the military minister had escaped!

At this time, Levi had already taken out all the ambergris in an empty alley. He estimated that there were a total of 20 bottles.

"Although this was amazing, I better avoid such danger in the future..." Levi reminded himself of the black dagger Pale Shadow had thrown at him..
