

Wizard 870

Chapter 870: Primordial Soul Ceremony (2)

Even some low-key and cautious wizards would hold a ceremony after breaking through the primordial soul realm and announce it to the public.

Even criminals like dark wizards would take the risk of being hunted down by the officials and hold a ceremony to invite some bad friends to participate.

It was for no other reason than to “receive gifts”. It was similar to the money from the wedding in his previous life.

After all, whether it was to befriend a primordial soul wizard or to save face, those who participated in the ceremony would bring some gifts. Some people who liked to compare and show off would even deliberately give some expensive gifts to show off their strength and status during the primordial soul ceremony. Of course, those who dared to do this were confident in themselves or had the support of a large organization’s wizard.

This seemingly vulgar atmosphere also existed in the Wizard World.

As long as there were people, there would always be ways of dealing with the world.

In the past few years, many organizations and wizards in the Star Sea had received invitations to Garcia’s primordial soul ceremony.

For Garcia, this was also an opportunity. It was not easy for him, a Black Pearl kid, to reach his current position. If he could make more friends during the ceremony and support each other on the path of wizardry, his future would be smoother.

"I don't seem to have any treasures on hand... They're all stolen goods. Forget it, I'll just pay." Levi smiled helplessly.

"Algerta, stay here and guard the house. I'm going out."

Levi stroked the white wolf girl's head. It was so comfortable.

"Yes, Master."

Algerta said obediently.

She was quite strong now, almost equivalent to a senior first-circle wizard. Tiga, who was once stronger than her, could only fight to a draw now.

As for the leopard and the lion brothers, unfortunately, they failed to break through to legendary.

They were already a little old and couldn't do much, so Levi let them retire in Alice's ring.

Levi strolled along Nether Capital.

Along the way, he saw many people selling their properties.

He came to the Witch's Family on the way, but Kelly was sleeping soundly on her books. When Celia saw Levi, she could not help but smile happily. "Mr. Levi, you look happy."

"I've made a small breakthrough in my cultivation. It's not worth mentioning. I'm still far from reaching the fourth circle," Levi said with a smile.

"Sigh, me too. It's so difficult to get a fourth-circle. My talent is average, and I can't afford potions. It's even more impossible for me to have a Truth Oddity... It's really troublesome," Celia said.

"Does Madam Triss have a mission for me recently?" Levi asked.

"Not for the time being. Madam Triss has gone to the Central Realm for a meeting and has been gone for a while."

"I see. By the way... Miss Celia, why are there so many wizard towers and mansions being sold in Nether Capital recently?" Levi asked curiously.

"It's just that some people heard rumors that Nether Capital doesn't have a primordial soul guarding it now, so it's not as safe as other wizard cities. Therefore, they sold their residences here and moved to other wizard cities," Celia said with a smile, clearly unconcerned with these rumors.

Levi exchanged pleasantries with Celia for a while before leaving.

"There's no primordial soul wizard guarding it?"

As far as Levi knew, the City Lord of Nether Capital was a primordial soul wizard. Other than that, there must be other primordial souls cultivating here.

Moreover, Nether Capital could lead directly to the Witch's Family's base camp, where primordial soul wizards were guarding.

If anything happened in the Nether Capital, there would be big shots there to save the situation.

"It's not a big problem."

Levi left Nether Capital and took out his Flying Shark. He sat inside and let Coulomb pilot it. The Flying Shark turned into a stream of light and disappeared into the horizon.

He seemed to be meditating with his eyes closed, but he was deep in thought.

Not long after Levi left, another figure appeared in the sky outside Nether Capital.

It was the Gray-Robed Wizard.

"This human is boring. It's been three years... He's finally willing to leave Nether Capital. However, no one can compare to Mind Flayers when it comes to patience," Mind Flayer Guillermo said with a contemptuous smile.

"I can feel that he seems to have become stronger. This is a good thing. If I can snatch his body, I can unleash my strength better."

Mind Flayers were a race that was good at spiritual force and mental cultivation. Their bodies could be said to be at the bottom among demons. This was the shortcoming of Mind Flayers.

However, they could use their innate possession ability to occupy a powerful body for their own use.

They were the hermit crabs of the Wizard World, always looking for stronger "shells".

Thinking of this, the Mind Flayer quickly followed.

The Flying Shark sailed quietly on the surface of the sea. The Mind Flayer relied on his powerful innate ability to hide his aura and gradually followed.

This place was desolate and uninhabited. It was the perfect place to attack.

"Most Fourth-Circle Wizards can't compare to my spiritual force. He's just a Third-Circle Wizard, so it's most suitable to use mental illusion to deal with him. This is also the safest way. With his spiritual force level, my illusion will definitely be able to trap him."

Before the Mind Flayer attacked, he liked to rely on his calm mind to analyze and choose the most suitable move.

This was different from many other demons who acted according to their instincts.

Of course, deep down, the Mind Flayer was still violent and murderous.

It was the same for all Abyss Demons.

"I wonder how this body-refining wizard's brain tastes?"