Chapter 877: Dark Ancient Tower! (4)

In the bedroom of Xavier's wizard tower.

"Ah... This feels good. You're amazing. How long have you been practicing this spell?" Xavier climbed up from the prostitute's limp body and leaned against the bed with a tired expression.

"Lord, it's been a hundred years." The prostitute leaned against Xavier's chest and said sweetly.

"Don't tempt me. I don't have a single drop left..."

As soon as Xavier finished speaking, he discovered that a Fifth-Circle Wizard had appeared in the bedroom. His simple restriction arrays were useless to him.

"Vice Principal!"

Xavier quickly put on his clothes and said seriously.

"Xavier, did you see a meteor fall nearby just now?"

The fifth-circle expert asked.

"What meteor?"

The fifth-circle expert observed for a while.

"It's fine. You can continue. I won't disturb you anymore... It hasn't been peaceful recently. You can stay on Starfire Island from now on."

He left the wizard tower and looked at the endless sea.

"There are traces of a big battle here. The wizard who escaped just now was also a Fifth-Circle Wizard... However, I've never seen that dark cloud-shaped Wizard Tool before. Otherwise, I could have deduced this person's identity. Forget it, I'll go back and report first. The key should have been taken by the person who escaped."

Xavier watched the vice principal leave, puzzled.

He was occupied just now. What happened then?

Only then did he realize that Levi was long gone, and he did not touch the accompanying witch.

"Could it be that Levi can't do it? I heard that some wizards will lose their desire and fertility after cultivating for a long time. Hahaha, Levi is inferior to me in this aspect!"

Xavier regained his confidence. He finally had a place to beat Levi.

Starfire Wizard Academy.

The vice principal came to the principal's office.

Garcia was talking to Jacob.

Jacob had also joined the Starfire Wizard Academy, but as an ordinary teacher.

"Hello, Principal. Hello, Lord Jacob."

"You didn't find it, Emeka?" Garcia asked.

"I'm sorry, Principal. That place is too far away from us. Someone has already beaten us to it. The other party should also be a Fifth-Circle Wizard and possess a very powerful Wizard Tool," said the vice principal named Emeka.

"It should have been taken by the wizards who participated in the ceremony this time. It's fine. Before the Dark Tower descends, keys will continuously fall into Nora's hands.

"This is just the beginning. There will still be opportunities in the future. It's a good thing that we didn't get it. After all, we weren't prepared... If we get it, it'll be a hot potato. The person who did it seems to know a lot about the Dark Tower and came prepared," Garcia said.

"Principal, what exactly is this Dark Ancient Tower?" asked Emeka. Even as a Fifth-Circle Wizard, he had never heard of this thing.

"Let Sir Jacob explain. I'm just a new primordial soul. I don't know much about such things," Garcia said with a smile.

"I've only heard about it from hearsay, but I've never seen it for myself... It's said that some civilizations call the Dark Ancient Tower the Chaos Ancient Tower.

It was an ownerless ancient pagoda that wandered in the boundless dark land. Because it had been too long, there were no historical records. No one knew when it was born. It could be from the ancient times, or it could be from the ancient times. It could also be from the recent ancient times.

The true form of the Dark Ancient Tower was forever wandering in the depths of the Land of Darkness, drifting with the currents. No one knew about it.

It was said that Nora's legendary wizards and the rulers of various planes had once seen the dark tower in the Land of Darkness and tried to subdue it. In the end... without exception, they failed. Since ancient times, no one had been able to subdue the ancient tower.

Every once in a while, the dark tower would throw some small pagodas, or keys, into the Multidimensional Plane. Not only Nora, but other planes might also appear. All of this was random.

"It's said that those who meet certain conditions can enter the ancient tower through the key. As for the specific conditions, I'm also studying them.

"It's said that there are many treasures in the ancient tower that exceed our imagination. These treasures have long gone extinct in the Wizard World and the Multidimensional Plane...

"Rare ores, precious herbs, magical creatures, and even endless knowledge, as well as Truth Oddities, can be found there. This is a true treasure trove that contains all possibilities.

"It was said that the Dark Ancient Tower had a total of ten floors. Each floor was a world, so it was also known as the Ten Realms Ancient Tower.

"Some Grand Wizards and Legendary Wizards in the history of the Wizard World had entered it when they were young and had gained a lot.

"Some fifth-circle wizards who were stuck in that realm entered the ancient tower and successfully returned. Not long after, they directly broke through to the primordial soul realm and became ancestors.

"Of course, there were also many wizards... who died and never returned."

Jacob said slowly.

"I've never heard of such a treasure trove," said Emeka, shocked.

A ten-story tower? A world on each floor? Even a Legendary Wizard couldn't do such a thing, right?
Could it be a divine creation?

"It's very normal. This is because the Dark Ancient Tower only appears in the Wizard World once every ten thousand years. Moreover, news about the Dark Ancient Tower is blocked by some big families and wizard organizations in the congress. This way, if a low-level wizard accidentally picks up the key to the Dark Ancient Tower and doesn't know what it's for, they can snatch it by force."
