Chapter 883: Dual Cultivation of Body and Magic! (4)

After all, Levi was the only one who had caused the Man-Faced Spider plan to fail.

After discussing the initial plan, Levi returned to the cabin to rest.

The three witches on the ship were chatting in Rose's cabin.

"Rose, is this the powerful person you mentioned? I feel like he is a very ordinary body-refining wizard," Lily Witch mumbled.

Because Rose often talked about how amazing Levi was in front of her, it had unknowingly raised her expectations.

She didn't have a partner herself, so she thought that she could get to know someone who was not bad.

After meeting Levi, she was slightly disappointed.

"You don't understand. Levi is very low-key. He looks burly, but he's not like that on the inside... Violet, you've seen him before. What do you think of him?" Rose asked.

"I think he's alright. He's quite reliable. At that time, we joined forces to defeat the dark wizard Boiling Beast Blood. Moreover, he seems to be like a master. He's also a human knight, and he's even a legendary knight." Violet smiled and said.

"Let's not talk about him. This is the first time I've seen Anya. He's actually a Three Talent Wizard. I wonder if he has a partner?" Lily asked.

"I don't know about that. To be able to become the external wizard of the Witch's Family as a male wizard, he must have something extraordinary about him."

"Alright, stop gossiping. Lily, you're just too ambitious. The people you like are often more outstanding than you."

"I'm going to be straight with you. It's unlikely that a proud son of heaven like Anya would fall for you. According to my observation of Sir Levi, he also has no interest in men and women... You'd better be more practical. The airship designer of the Seven Waters Sreepole I introduced to you last time is quite good..."

Rose scolded without hesitation. Lily pouted. Although Rose was telling the truth, it still hurt her heart.

While Levi and the others were hurrying on their way...

In the outer sea region, Area 7, Hot Wind Harbor.

Ninety years ago, this was the headquarters of the Hot Wind Harbor Wizard Alliance. Levi had even been certified as a first-circle pharmacist here.

However, because of the civil war between the Master of Flames and the Lush Forest Witch, this third-circle organization fell apart and later became a ruin.

Now, a black wizard tower stood there.

In the wizard tower, there were two fourth-circle wizards conversing.

One of them was the one who had been cheated on by the Lush Forest Witch and then sought refuge with Black Sun Adam, the Master of Flames, Clair!

He was a senior third-circle wizard, but he was chased by a fourth-circle wizard, Riemann, and he managed to escape.

After that, he joined the Black Sun Steeple. In order to take revenge on the Lush Forest Witch, the Master of Flames worked hard to complete the mission, snatch resources, and make contributions. In the end, he was appreciated by the higher-ups and successfully advanced to the fourth-circle realm.

After reaching the fourth circle realm, he took the initiative to apply to the organization to come to Area 7 to destroy Riemann and bring Area 7 under the Black Sun Steeple to expand its territory.

The organization naturally agreed. The Master of Flames was originally from here and was very familiar with Area 7.

The Master of Flames had spent 20 years. On one hand, he had sent his third-circle wizards to lead a team to destroy all the forces in Area 7. On the other hand, he had quietly hidden on a deserted island. He had liquefied all his spiritual force and smoothly passed the transition period.

Now, there were more than 200 drops of spiritual force dew in his body, and his spell power had exceeded 8,000 points. He had also mastered two fourth-circle spells. His strength was no longer the same as before.

He had been on the run for 90 years. Now, he was qualified to take revenge on the Lush Forest Witch and Riemann!

Opposite the Master of Flames was a confident dark wizard.

Black-Eyed Crow Modi.

Both of them were members of the Black Sun Steeple and seemed to be plotting something big at the moment.

After they finished conversing, the Black-Eyed Crow left the place in satisfaction.

The Master of Flames sat alone in the wizard tower.

"With Black-Eyed Crow dealing with Riemann, I can take down the Giant Tree Secret Realm in peace."

He made a deal with the Black-Eyed Crow. He paid a huge price to hire the Black-Eyed Crow to deal with Riemann and take his head.

He, on the other hand, was in charge of besieging the Giant Tree Secret Realm for a long time and finally taking it down. The ownership of the secret realm belonged to the Black-Eyed Crow, and the power to deal with the wizard and Lush Forest Witch belonged to the Master of Flames.

This was actually an unfair deal.

However, the Master of Flames had no choice. Although he was a fourth-circle wizard now, he was still no match for Riemann.

In this area, the only one who could defeat Riemann and take his head was the Black-Eyed Crow, who was in the top ten of the Dark List.

"With the Black Sun Demonic Flame bestowed by the organization, that b*tch will either die in the secret realm or come out to die." Master of Flames sneered inwardly.

The Giant Tree Secret Realm was in ruins.

Black demonic flames were rising from the primeval forest. The sky was filled with black flames, and it was no longer like the blue sky and white clouds.

Some wizards were trying their best to extinguish the black flames with the spells of the Ocean Faction, but it was futile.

This was the Black Sun Steeple's unique flame, [Black Sun Demonic Flame]. Wherever the demonic flame passed, everything would be destroyed, and the world would be dark.

Around the Lush Forest Tower, a protective shield was activated, blocking the poisonous black flames outside.

The Lush Forest Witch and Marlene looked at the wounded on the ground, and their hearts were filled with incomparable pain.

The Lush Forest Witch did not expect that the Giant Tree Secret Realm would still be exposed. The Master of Flames had long suspected her, so he had planted a spy beside her.

That spy often tipped Claur off, who was cultivating outside.

Some time ago, after the Master of Flames made preparations, the mole leaked the coordinates of the secret realm. While Riemann wasn't around, the Master of Flames personally led his men to open the secret realm passage and kill his way in.
