

Wizard 887

Chapter 887: Sudden Wealth, Undying Bird Fruit! (2)

The dark wizard's aura rose endlessly, almost reaching the strongest level before the fourth-circle.

He knew that he would be doomed in today's battle after encountering such an unreasonable money-making wizard. Therefore, he did not hesitate to burn his life and transform into a Black Sun to unleash his strongest voice in the new era!

In an instant, a golden greatsword shining with runes tore open the Black Sun and cut the dark wizard in half!

"You still want to self-explode? No way."

Levi skilfully took away the storage bags and heaved a sigh of relief.

"If you only attack and not defend, you won't live for long... No one can finish off the enemy with one strike forever."

As a Stacked Armor Style enthusiast, Levi could not help but comment on Anya's innate spell selection.

Anya didn't know what to say for a moment. He stared at this burly wizard in a daze. His full and round muscles were even inferior to the bosoms of witches.

"Thank you, but I can hold on." Anya couldn't help but be stubborn.

Levi did not say anything.

After all, when distributing the spoils of war, it depended on the person's head.

Therefore, he had no time to waste. He went to the witches' side and cooperated with them to deal with the other wizards.

"Sigh, with this bunch of rookies, I can't unleash my true strength... I'm still more suited to act alone."

After the battle ended, Levi's body was filled with storage bags. They were all held tightly by the Tentacles conjured by the Metal Voodoo and would not let go!

"I'll take the spoils of war first. After we complete the mission, we'll split them together. How about that?" Levi said calmly.

"Sure..." Lily said in a daze.

Although Levi's temperament was not as outstanding as Anya's and his spells were not elegant and handsome enough, his ability was indeed as Rose had said. He was not inferior to Anya.

"I'm fine. Let's save him first," Anya said as she stood beside Levi quietly.

Levi showed a few moves and completely stunned these team members.

After cleaning up the battlefield, Levi used her contact with the Lush Forest Witch to send a message and waited for them to open the door.

Not long after.

The door to the secret realm opened.

The Lush Forest Witch stood there fully armed, obviously worried that there was a trap.

After confirming that it was indeed Levi, she heaved a sigh of relief.

"I'm here on orders from the vice president of the Pharmacist Association, Triss," Levi said.

"Thank you." The Lush Forest Witch smiled bitterly.

Levi and the others entered the mystic realm and the door closed again.

As soon as he entered, he saw the terrifying black demonic flames filling the sky.

"Why do I feel traces of demonic aura... The things in this Black Sun Steeple are all very strange."

Levi suspected that the reason why Black Sun Adam was so arrogant might have something to do with the abyss.

He also saw the aging Ms. Marlene, Marko, Winnie, and so on.

Winnie was still in a coma, and Leah, the witch who had grown up, was taking care of her.

"Hurry up and arrange for people to board the airship. We'll leave this place immediately. I suspect that these Third-Circle Wizards are not the only enemies," Levi said.

The Rose Witch nodded and started to move the people from the secret realm with the other team members.

"Teacher, let's move to the Star Sea this time. Madam Triss has prepared an island for you. The Lush Forest Tower can still be rebuilt."

"Alright. Have you heard about Deep Blue Sage's Sky City?" Marlene looked into the distance.

"I heard. I believe in Deep Blue Sage's strength. The Tower Master and the others will be fine."

"I thought so too... I didn't expect an old woman like me to live to the end. Mr. Tim is dead. Sigh..."
Marlene couldn't help but sigh as she recalled her deceased companions.

Levi was silent. He came to Winnie's room.

"Senior, Senior Sister Winnie has been unconscious for a long time." Leah's eyes were a little uneasy. She was no longer familiar with Grandpa Keg.

"You've worked hard. Go and rest first." Levi secretly gave Leah some potions and told her to leave.

Leah nodded gratefully, closed the door, and left.

Levi looked at Winnie, who had her eyebrows tightly closed. In his memory, his senior sister was still a little inexperienced, but she didn't seem to have changed much now. She just had a hint of the charm of time.

Her face was red, as if she was having a fever. Levi pressed her hand on Winnie's chest and felt the scorching heat on her chest.

Then, his arm turned into a blood fog and entered.

Before long, a ball of squirming black flames appeared in his palm.

Pfft!

The flame was crushed by Levi and turned into stars.

He injected some potions into Winnie's small mouth.

"You should be fine now."

Levi left and looked at the crowd who were busy moving.

"I still remember when you first came. It's been more than a hundred years. I'm sure even the Tower Master, who thought highly of you, didn't expect your growth." A white-haired old man came to Levi's side. It was Mr. Marko.

Levi smiled. "Everything is changing."

All the people were settled in the airships by the members.

Levi could have them enter Alice's ring too, but that was his secret. Other than his servants or those who were very close to him, not everyone could go in and take refuge.

Besides, most wizards who were not familiar with Levi would not agree to enter someone else's Spatial Wizard Tool.

"I didn't expect Claur to still hate me so much after so long," the Lush Forest Witch said in a low voice beside Levi.

Levi thought to himself that it would be strange if Claur did not resent her for cheating on him.
