Chapter 893: Perfection! (2)

"Commander, everything is normal in the Dusk Holy Temple. However, some time ago, a Cave Wizard from the Forsaken Land of God tried to invade the holy temple and was killed by the grand array... Then, a top-notch grand knight went into seclusion some time ago and had a chance to break through to legendary."

"Cave Wizard?" Levi asked.

"Yes, this is a saying spread by the Church. They call those strange people who mastered spells in the Forsaken Land of the God 'Cave Wizards'. It's said that these wizards live deep underground in the continent and the sea on the other side of the Forsaken Land of the God all year round to avoid the corrosion of the power of darkness, so many of their organs are already different from ordinary wizards," the Blood Knight explained.

"It seems that some ancient wizards were left in the Forsaken Land of the God for some reason and did not enter the Realm of the Unbelievers..." Levi analyzed.

"Emperor Mu, what about you? Is there any news of the Land of Extreme Cold I asked you to find out?" Levi asked.

"Commander, as far as I know, in the Snow Capital of the Realm of Ice, there's a cold pool that doesn't freeze. It's called the Eye of the Ice Emperor. The water in the pool is abnormally cold. Even the defensive field of a Third-Circle Wizard can't stay in it for long. The frost elemental power is relatively strong, so it was occupied by the City Lord of the Snow Capital, a Fifth-Circle Wizard. He contracted it out and rented out the cultivation place at a high price to the outside world. He made a lot of money," Emperor Mu said.

"I got it."

To Levi, money was not a problem as long as that place could allow him to advance to the fourth-circle faster and more successfully.

Now that the Dark Ancient Tower was about to appear, both sides of the war between the dark and righteous wizards tacitly stopped the large-scale war.

Levi had already heard the news that the teleportation portals between the various Realms of the Unbelievers would gradually be unsealed in the future.

Some passages from the Realm of the Unbelievers to the human world had already been unsealed.

It was just that the Endless Sea had not been unsealed yet. After all, the dark wizards in the Endless Sea were relatively powerful.

After the meeting, Levi went offline.

In the following days, he cultivated in the Nether Capital as usual, waiting for his spiritual force to completely reach Perfection.

In the blink of an eye, a year had passed.

Holy Brilliance Calendar Year 1121, Month of Flowers.

It was the ninetieth year of the Great Expedition.

In the dark void, far away from Nora's plane.

There was a strange plane. Ordinary planes were all spheres.

However, this plane was like a huge well. The crystal wall formed the wall of the well.

To be precise, it was a funnel-shaped well in the Land of Darkness. One end was extremely narrow, and the lower it went, the thicker it became.

On the narrow end, a dark hole stretched out from the Land of Darkness and devoured everything around it.

This was one of the most powerful and terrifying places in the Multidimensional Plane.

For millions of years, war and blood, slaughter, and destruction had been the main theme here.

This was the Abyss!

Because it was layered and seemed endless, it was also called the Bottomless Abyss.

No one knew how many levels there were in the Abyss, not even the demons themselves.

The wizards tentatively set the Abyss to have 666 levels because Sauron had personally fought there before and finally stopped.

Demons were synonymous with destruction. They advocated chaos and hated order.

Compared to demons, dark wizards were just a group of law-abiding fellows.

Even those demon lords found it difficult to make all the demons, big and small, obey them unless they enslaved them with spells.

Things that were too powerful would often be dragged down by themselves. This was the case for the Abyss.

Because the will of the entire abyss was chaotic, the demons were not only invading other planes to engage in bloody battles with the outside world but they were also engaged in bloody battles within the abyss.

The demon lords fought back and forth, never getting tired of it. On the one hand, they relied on devouring and killing other demons to advance their strength, but on the other hand, they mostly enjoyed themselves.

If one wanted to become an Abyss Lord, he had to be at least a level 6 high-level demon, even if he was only a first-level lord.

The first level was located at the narrow opening of the funnel. It had the smallest area, and the further down it went, the larger it became... Of course, the demon lord's strength would also become stronger.

Generally speaking, after the 500th level, the strength of the Abyss Lord would begin to be infinitely close to the level of a Grand Wizard. After the 600th level, there would gradually be Abyss Lords comparable to Legendary Wizards.

These guys who were as powerful as the gods were not afraid of anything. The gazes of the gods in the astral world would never notice the abyss.

There was no way to spread faith here, and the gods did not want to provoke the Abyss.

And now, a Sky City was roaming in the blood-colored sky of the 600th level of the abyss.

Sky City was severely damaged, but it was still standing.

At the top of the wizard tower.

Deep Blue Sage Luther stood with his hands behind his back.

The wizards below looked exhausted. Some were afraid, while others were excited.

Herman and Stella were no longer in the shape of balls.

In the past 30 years, Herman had relied on the parts he brought out of the Mechanical Cemetery to transform himself into a five-meter-tall mechanical creation with a dragon-like head and wings on its back.

Stella, on the other hand, had transformed into a beautiful giant snake with a slender body covered in some kind of aquamarine metal armor. However, the head of the giant snake resembled a dragon's head more.

This style was countless times more handsome than the previous iron ball forms they had adopted.

Not only that, but their strength had also increased. Some time ago, Stella had used her body to strangle a level 3 demon to death.

In an instant, Herman and Stella became famous figures in Sky City.
