Chapter 899: Death of the Black-Eyed Crow! (2)

In short, after doing a lot of thinking and analyzing the pros and cons, Levi decided not to back down this time!

He would just do it!

"Alright, I'll inform you as soon as I have news." Triss smiled seductively. "Go ahead, but the Endless Sea has been rather chaotic recently. Be careful."

Levi breathed a sigh of relief as he left Triss's house.

Inside the witch shop in Nether Capital.

"Celia, I'll be away for a while. See you in the future... Thank you for this period of time," Levi said with a smile.

"Sir Levi, have a safe trip. I guess you're going to advance to the fourth-circle," Celia said enviously with a pout.

Levi smiled but said nothing.

"Goodbye, Sir Levi!" The little witch Kelly waved her little hands and flapped her wings, looking very cute.

"Bye, guys."

Levi waved and turned to leave.

When I return, I'll be a fourth-circle cultivator!

Area 7 of the inner sea region.

In the secret realm of the Sorrett family.

Deep in the mine.

It was another year of the Demon Banquet.

On the throne.

Behind Sorrett, a black shadow stood proudly. He wore a crown and crow feathers. It was the Black Feather Demon King, Victor.

Not long after, a green-skinned wizard walked in.

"Guillermo, you're late again."

The succubus Miraya said with a smile.

"Why? Do you have a problem with that?"

The Mind Flayer said in a low voice, "No, it's just that this new body of yours looks really good... It makes me a little horny. I like mighty and majestic bodies. Only in this way can my pleasure be satisfied." Miraya licked her lips. Her chest rose and fell, and her hooves rubbed back and forth, making one's heart itch.

"Get lost. Don't try to tempt me. It wasn't easy for me to get this third-circle body-refining wizard's body. I don't want you to damage it." Guillermo didn't buy it at all.

Level 4 demons like them did not get along with each other.

They were only able to gather because of the Black Feather Demon King.

"Stop arguing," Victor said coldly. "The contents of this banquet are very important. It concerns the recovery of my strength and the development of us demons in the Endless Sea. Sorrett, tell me your next plan."

Sorrett, who was sitting on the throne, opened his eyes. Lightning exploded in the air, making the level 4 demons tremble and instinctively feel fear.

No matter how arrogant they were, Sorrett's strength made them fear him.

"After decades of planning, our Sorrett family has completely taken down Area 7 in the inner sea region and Area 5 in the inner sea region. However, there's still Area 5 between Area 7 and Area 5... It's an eyesore to stand in the middle.

"In the past, I didn't have the ability to take down this district and lost to a damn woman.

"But now, I'm already prepared. As long as everyone helps me take down Riptide City.

"Then I guarantee that as long as it's within the territory of the Thunder Dragon Family in Areas 5, 6, and 7, you can also live under the sun... I'll also find a suitable body for Victor and let him recover his demon king strength. With the demon king's protection, you don't have to worry about that primordial soul wizard in the Endless Sea."

He was making a deal with a demon. It seemed dangerous and could be consigned to eternal damnation at any time, but he was already prepared.

"That's right. This body is the City Lord of Riptide City, Blue Dragon Lady Elsie. As far as I know, she's a dragon descendant wizard of a pure-blooded dragon. Her strength is also one of the best among the fifth-circles. With this body, it won't be long before I can recover my demon king strength," Victor said proudly.

In the Endless Sea, other than primordial soul wizards, there was nothing more suitable than the dragon descendant's powerful body to carry his demon king strength.

"But... isn't the Blue Dragon Lady a woman?" the Mind Flayer asked.

"It doesn't matter. I'm only using it for the time being. When I find a way to return to the Abyss, I'll take back my demon king body. As long as I'm strong enough, so what if I become a woman?"

"Understood. When do we take action?" asked the Mind Flayer.

"Three years later... Guillermo, first use your ability to steal the soul of a higher-up in Riptide City and spy on Blue Dragon Lady to gain her trust. When we launch an all-out attack, I need you to ambush Blue Dragon Lady and create an opportunity for Sorrett and me to kill the Blue Dragon Lady," Victor said.

"Me? You think too highly of me. It's not a problem for me to hide by her side, but even if I launch a sneak attack, I won't be able to break through her automatic protective force field. Don't underestimate a Fifth-Circle Wizard, and a dragon descendant at that..." Guillermo said with a frown. This job was too dangerous.

"Don't worry, we're ready." Victor smiled confidently.

Immediately after, Victor's face began to contort in pain. He stabbed his hand into his heart and a heart-wrenching scream sounded in the mine.

Then, he slowly pulled his hand out.

The root of a pitch-black feather still had flesh attached to it.

"This is Victor's Feather. Take good care of it. This feather can only be used once. Believe me, even if it's only a trace of my main body's strength, it's enough to pierce through the Fifth-Circle Wizard's protective force field. Even her dragon descendant body can't withstand it... Guillermo, don't disappoint me. When I return to the abyss and recover my peak strength, I can make you a new demonic spirit and eliminate those damned traitors."
