Chapter 904: Death of the Black-Eyed Crow! (7)

Black-Eyed Crow pondered.

He watched as the second wave of fire crow attacks drowned Levi.

Suddenly, his expression changed.

The third-circle innate spell, Feather Shield!

Black crow feathers instantly appeared around his body. They layered and emitted a metallic luster as they enveloped him.

Sparks flew everywhere.

Levi's Crimson Dragon Slash struck the black crow feathers, and the sound of metal colliding rang out continuously.

Crack!

Layers of crow feathers broke and appeared again.

Boom!

The crow feathers exploded.

Black-Eyed Crow was blown away.

He looked at the sky in front of him with lingering fear.

Levi had unknowingly appeared at the spot where he was originally standing. He held the Crimson Dragon Slash and looked stunned.

"To be able to force me to use two innate spells, what faction are you from? You can't be an ordinary wizard, right?" Black-Eyed Crow narrowed its eyes and asked warily.

"I'm an external wizard of the Thunder Dragon Family! Do you know the consequences of offending the Thunder Dragon Family?" Levi sneered.

"Do you think I'll fall for your trick?"

"Believe it or not, hmph!"

Boom!

Where Levi had been, a flame exploded.

The Black-Eyed Crow took the opportunity to launch a sneak attack.

However, Levi's Perception was extremely sharp. He had long predicted it and dodged the attack.

After fighting for a while, the Black-Eyed Crow realized that it could not take down Levi.

Levi was also a little depressed. The power of Black-Eyed Crow's attack was average to him. After all, Black-Eyed Crow mainly used fire element spells.

However, the coordination between the Black-Eyed Crow's innate spells was quite perfect. The four innate spells, attack and defense, and control were all practiced by him with ease.

After all, this guy was a fourth-circle senior wizard. It would be troublesome for Levi to defeat him.

In the end, after another fruitless attempt, Levi and Black-Eyed Crow had their own thoughts.

Levi flicked his finger, and a gold coin turned into a golden light and exploded.

In the next moment, a five-meter-tall swordsman in simple and impressive silver armor appeared beside Levi excitedly with a silver sword in his hand.

"You're finally willing to summon me. My greatsword can't wait anymore..."

"Cut the crap and kill him!"

Levi raised his sword and charged forward, sword energy rampaging.

Owens' body turned into a silver whirlwind.

"Crow Flowing Wind Slash!"

The two swordsmen attacked from both sides.

However, with the warning of Danger Perception, Levi slowed down without batting an eyelid. Owens took the lead and rushed forward.

Black-Eyed Crow suddenly took out a scarlet ring.

The ring looked like a small snake. The snake's head bit the snake's tail and formed a circle.

As the ring appeared, dense fire elemental power began to ripple.

Levi could feel that the underground fire power of the entire Black Fire Island was rolling.

"Owens, be careful..."

Levi shouted as he retreated.

Owens had already reached the Black-Eyed Crow. Slash after slash tore through the air, accompanied by his arrogant laughter.

He did not realize the seriousness of the problem.

Black-Eyed Crow's expression was dark. The remaining spell power in his body seemed to have been drained in an instant.

"You're forcing me to use my fifth-circle Wizard Tool! Die!"

Fifth-circle spell, World Burning Flame Snake!

He felt a sense of danger.

Levi watched as Owens, who was shouting the name of his move, was instantly reduced to nothing in front of the terrifying 1,000-foot-long fire snake.

The next moment, the fire snake rushed towards Levi. This feeling reminded Levi of the level 5 Fire Elemental Spirit!

Levi tried his best to dodge, but the fire snake seemed to have locked onto him. Even if he dived into the sea, it was useless.

Earth Dragon Barrier!

Heavy Water Barrier!

Great Black Sky Curtain!

Metal Voodoo!

As well as the layers of dense scales on the surface of the Fire Dragon True Form.

All the defensive measures Levi could think of were added to his body.

Boom!

In a short moment, the violent explosion directly evaporated the seawater, revealing the seabed that had been roasted black. Then, the seawater poured back and the sea surface returned to normal.

Black-Eyed Crow panted, sweat oozing from his forehead.

His spiritual power was close to 400 points, and his spell power was less than 20,000 points.

Even with such cultivation, it was difficult for him to fully unleash the power of a fifth-circle Wizard Tool. He could only unleash the power of one strike.

Even he would die under such an attack, let alone that third-circle brat.

This Fire Ouroboros was an ancestral Wizard Tool of a destroyed Fifth-Circle Wizard family. After generations of refinement, its power was also extraordinary among fifth-circle Wizard Tools.

If it was placed on the market, it would start at a few million Aether Stones.

He looked out to sea. There was no sign of Levi at all.

"He should evaporate in this heat," he murmured.

Exhausted, he used Perception to scan the area, but Levi's aura was nowhere to be found within a radius of nearly a hundred miles.

He drank the potion and looked to the other side. That kid's transcendent creature was still fighting his subordinates.

"They can't even deal with a bunch of animals. I'm raising a bunch of trash."

Black-Eyed Crow was about to deal with these beasts when something unexpected happened.

His third-circle innate spell lit up, and the black feathers on his body spread out crazily, protecting him layer by layer.

At the same time that he looked behind him, the fourth-circle spell had already left his hand, and black flames swept out.

A flesh monster with hideous antlers and scarlet-gold scales on its head and bones exposed from its wounds emitted endless anger as its aura expanded continuously!

Densely packed granules were growing crazily. The ashes dissipated, revealing new flesh.

He broke through the black flames and pierced through the Black-Eyed Crow's protective force field and Wizard Tool, nailing it in midair.

Slash!

Black-Eyed Crow's body was split into two, but he did not die. Instead, he turned into a ball of black flames.

The flames condensed into a human figure in the distance. Just as the Black-Eyed Crow heaved a sigh of relief, the three-headed and six-armed evil spirit that should have appeared behind Levi quietly appeared behind him. A chill ran down its spine!

The evil spirit revealed a terrifying smile. A scarlet sword had appeared in its hand at some point in time.

Boom!

It was the full-force strike of the Bloodline Dharma Body!

Under the Destruction Sword Qi, the Black-Eyed Crow struggled for a moment with spells before being annihilated by the Sword Qi.

"How could he survive... That's a fifth-circle spell." The Black-Eyed Crow died with remaining grievances.

The Furious Dragon Lord's state gradually faded. Levi stood on the spot. His body was in a mess. All the bloodline seeds seemed to have wilted.

After devouring some potions, Levi only exhaled the turbid air filled with ashes when the Death Ember Power repaired his broken body.

"A fifth-circle Wizard Tool, how f*cking ruthless..."
