

Wizard 910

Chapter 910: Stab The Thunder Dragon, Snatch The Succubus! (1)

The year 1128 of the Holy Brilliance Calendar, Month of Flowers.

In Riptide City.

A silver-haired middle-aged man was drinking in a tavern. A slim and voluptuous witch took off her clothes and lay on the table in front of Levi, looking charming and enchanting.

"Not bad, that was an energizing dance."

Levi slapped the witch's flesh and rewarded her with a piece of Aether Stone. The witch winked at him and left.

"This kind of proper tavern is more interesting." Levi drank some wine and watched the performance.

He changed his appearance and disguised himself as an ordinary wizard to wander around.

Levi's previous identity could no longer be used. Although with the current chaos, it shouldn't pose a problem to employ it.

"I vaguely remember that I came to serve in Riptide City in 1040. I left in 1056 because of the faction dispute between Sorrett and Blue Dragon Lady. Time really flies...Grimm, Tommen were confirmed dead, and Hoffman was most likely dead. I don't seem to have any acquaintances in this city."

Levi sighed in his heart.

According to the Mind Flayers, Sorrett would arrive at Riptide City in a month.

He didn't attack Riptide City directly. Instead, he planned to hold a grand auction for [Thunder Dragon's Cry] on an uninhabited island near the city.

Many wizards from Riptide City and Area 6 would be attending this auction.

Sorrett even sent an invitation to the Blue Dragon Lady. Even if the Blue Dragon Lady knew that this was a trap, Sorrett believed that with that woman's arrogance, she would definitely go.

Even if she didn't go, it wouldn't be a big problem. He could use the auction to divert attention and create trouble. He could let the demons secretly attack and muddy the waters of Riptide City.

He would then drag the Blue Dragon Lady into the water, and Sorrett could take the opportunity to kill the Blue Dragon Lady.

In the end, he would push all of the blame onto the demons.

With the absence of a leader in Riptide City, the Sorrett family would be able to take over the city and control Area 6.

This way, the Thunder Dragon Family's business territory could cover the fifth, sixth, and seventh districts.

It was rare for a Fifth-Circle Wizard family to be able to control so many districts.

With the foundation of an organization that was comparable to an ordinary high-ranking wizard, coupled with Sorrett's talent, he might be able to advance to the primordial soul level within one to two hundred years.

At that time, the Thunder Spear would become famous in the Endless Sea.

Moreover, according to the Mind Flayers, the reason why Sorrett attacked might have something to do with another giant force behind him.

Without the support of a major power, he would not dare to jump out like this.

The Mind Flayers guessed that this giant was the [Golden Lightning-Letney Family], one of the six towers.

"They are all from the Lightning Faction. It is indeed possible..." Levi analyzed the information sent by the Mind Flayers.

"Perhaps everything that Sorrett did was just a mission from the Letney Family...As one of the six permanent members of the Star Tower, there were many things that the Letney Family couldn't do on their own. The Thunder Dragon Family was their secret lackey!

This is the current Wizard World. It's truly despairing. For the ordinary wizards, they simply don't have the confidence and strength to contend with the Thunder Dragon Family. To the big shots behind them, defeating the Thunder Dragon Family is just as simple as killing a dog. It's really annoying..."

Levi felt helpless.

This time, what he wanted to do was to rub the ferocious Thunder Dragon's butt.

Snatching Sorrett's succubus on the spot... Take away what he loves, take away what he was nurturing.

"How exciting...I feel like a minotaur. Back then, my colleagues at the Tower of Pharmacists unintentionally gave me the nickname 'Minotaur Levi' and now, it has come true. It's destined."

Levi left the tavern and found a place in Riptide City to wait for the feast to begin.

In the inner city area.

In the residence of the upper echelons of Riptide City.

10 Tanton Street.

This was the location of the City Lord's Mansion.

An ice-blue wizard tower carved with a dragon pattern stood there.

It was at the top of the wizard tower, the place with the best view of Riptide City.

The temperature here was many times colder than the outside world.

The ground was covered in ice, surrounded by cold air, like a cold storage warehouse.

In one of the bathhouses, there was a pool of blood that emitted a cold aura.

In the middle of the blood pool, a curvy figure covered in ice-blue scales was lying in it.

Not long after, the color of the blood pool gradually faded and became ordinary water.

The naked figure swayed as she walked out of the bathroom. Her robe flew over and automatically put itself on her. The belt was tied around her slender waist, making her figure look even more perfect.

Her hair was a faint frosty blue, giving her a unique charm.

The ice-blue scales on her body gradually faded, and she exhaled a breath of cold air. Her eyes were suffused with a faint golden light, and the majesty of the dragon race disappeared in an instant.

Blue Dragon Lady, Elsie.

She was a pure-blooded dragon descendant, a high-ranking member of the headquarters of the dragon descendant priory, and also the president of the branch of the dragon descendant priory in the Endless Sea.

"My father is the [Ice Dragon, Munos]. I have the pure blood of the Dragon Clan in my body, and I'm a first-generation dragon descendant. My frost talent is not much inferior to those wizards with special talents...However, I still can't see any hope of becoming a primordial soul wizard."

She had always been proud of the pure dragon bloodline in her body.

Now, even someone as powerful as her could only sigh at the distance between her current fifth-circle soul and the primordial soul she wished to achieve.