Chapter 911: Stab The Thunder Dragon, Snatch The Succubus! (2)

She was not the only one. Many wizards of the dragon descendant from the dragon descendant priory were also facing a similar predicament.

They relied on the Dragon Clan bloodline in their bodies and often had a good Machinery Heart talent. Their cultivation journey at the low level was smooth sailing. After the third-circle, they still had an advantage over other wizards.

However, at the fourth-circle and fifth-circle realms, the bloodline advantage of the pure-blooded Dragon Clan gradually weakened.

This was especially true for those who were not part of the first generation dragon descendants.

Therefore, Blue Dragon Lady had to find other opportunities and ways out.

Otherwise, there was little hope for her to obtain the primordial soul.

What worried her even more was the powerful enemy outside of Riptide City who had been eyeing her for many years.

That was Sorrett of the Thunder Dragon Family.

This former colleague had never given up on the great cause of the Riptide City and Area 6.

Blue Dragon Lady had reported this situation to the higher-ups, but in the end, no one responded.

This made her realize that there might be some big shots behind the Thunder Dragon Family who could dominate the Endless Sea.

"With this invitation to the Thunder Dragon Auction, it appears that Sorrett is no longer feigning. It seems like he wants to kill me." The Blue Dragon lady pondered.

With her status as a Fifth-Circle Wizard, she did not know much about the attitude of the absolute higher-ups of the Wizard World, those Legendary Wizards.

However, what was certain was that the current Legend Wizards in the Wizard World were all watching the current situation coldly.

Whether it was the faction that supported Sauron and the Congress, or the opposition... Essentially, it was the competition between the Grand Wizards and Legendary Wizards.

Even giants like the Six Pagodas of the Endless Sea were nothing more than chess pieces of these truly great figures.

The dark wizards were the same. They were all chess pieces.

She couldn't guess the thoughts of the big shots.

"The Dark Ancient Tower will open in the next few decades. Without the primordial soul, there will be no resistance to this great change that will involve the entire Wizard World.

"Therefore, no matter what, I have to go to the Dark Ancient Tower. Whether or not I can reach the primordial soul stage depends on this!"

After all the resources she had accumulated over the years in Riptide City, she was confident that she could get a share of the Dark Ancient Tower.

"As for Sorrett, since he has publicly invited me to participate in the auction, I naturally have no choice but to go. To entice me to participate, this fellow is willing to take out a key to the Dark Ancient Tower. He has already invested a lot. I might as well beat him at his own game and adapt to the situation...However, some defensive measures have to be taken. This fellow likes to play dirty tricks the most."

After figuring this out, the Blue Dragon Lady called one of her commanders over.

"Guerduo, tell Sorrett that I will be participating in the auction. Tell him to prepare the key to the Dark Ancient Tower for me."

The commander's expression changed. "Madam, this is clearly Soret's scheme. For your safety, I don't recommend going."

Commander Guerduo was the Fourth-Circle wizard who had recruited Levi and the others to serve on Bass Island. He was also one of the confidants of the Blue Dragon Lady.

"If I don't go, it'll look like I'm afraid of Sorrett. Wouldn't I become a laughingstock for the people of Riptide City?" Blue Dragon Lady sneered, her chest heaving.

"Alright..." Guerduo saw that the Blue Dragon Lady had made up her mind and knew that it would be difficult to persuade her, so he did not say anything more.

He left the mansion with a long face. After leaving Riptide City, he suddenly jumped into the sea in an uninhabited area.

At the bottom of the sea, in a pitch-black cave, Levi was using his Crimson Emperor Dragon Flame to refine the Poison Fire Corpse Demon. He was making the final preparations.

"Master, Blue Dragon Lady is going to Sorrett's auction...It seems that there will be a fierce battle at the auction," said the Mind Flayers.

"Got it. You don't have to report to me anymore. Just wait quietly for the auction to begin to prevent your identity from being exposed," Levi said.

Whether it was the Blue Dragon lady or Sorrett, neither of them was someone that Levi could fight head-on at this stage.

Only when these two snipe and clam fought would he be able to reap the benefits.

His target had never been these two, but the succubus Miraya.

"Yes, Master... In addition, the Thunder Dragon Family intends to auction off a key to the Dark Ancient Tower. If Master is interested, you can also take it when the time comes." The Mind Flayers left after saying that.

Levi looked at the disappearing Mind Flayers and pondered.

"It seems like Sorrett is serious about this auction. I can participate in it and if there are good things, I can bid them off."

"As for the key to the Dark Ancient Tower, it would definitely be sold at a very high price. It was obvious that Sorrett actually had no intention to sell it. He was just using it as a bait.

"I'd better wait for the news from Madam Triss. If I don't get the spot in the end...Then I won't go."

Levi did not have a way to take the key away. This item was too conspicuous in the Wizard World and could easily be targeted.

Only those who were strong enough were qualified to hold this key.

On an isolated island in a certain sea area in Area 6.

This place wasn't far from Riptide City, only a few thousand kilometers away.

This place used to be a deserted island with no one. However, it was now opened up by the Thunder Dragon Family wizard as the venue for the Thunder Dragon Auction.

As the days got closer and closer to the auction, the venue had already been prepared. A fourth-circle array, which was used to protect the safety of the auction items, had also been set up.
