Chapter 916: Help Me Cultivate! (2)

As long as a Blood Flying Dragon escaped, Levi could be reborn again!

This was also Levi's final trump card.

These Blood Flying Dragons roared and surged in all directions at an extremely fast speed.

After destroying many Blood Flying Dragons, the Thunder Tiger dissipated into the world.

On the island.

Sorrett, who was fighting the Blue Dragon Lady, sensed through his spiritual force that the dragon descendant wizard who snatched the succubus just now had run away!

Thunder Tiger's fifth-circle move did not kill a Third-Circle Wizard?

If news of this got out, he would definitely be ridiculed.

"Blue Dragon Lady, you're really scheming. Do you think you can accuse me just because you sent someone to snatch away a demon?" Sorrett sneered.

Blue Dragon Lady was also confused. "I will accuse you, but that person is not one of my people."

If that person also colluded with the demons, Blue Dragon Lady would be implicated.

Therefore, she definitely could not admit that he was her man.

Even if the other party might be on the same side as him.

"Heh, dragon descendant bloodline, and a body-refining wizard at that. How can you say that he's not yours? I heard that there are many dragon-descendant wizards in the Dragon Tea Party."

"Sorrett, you're too arrogant. You and your Thunder Dragon Family will be wiped out because of what happened today!" Sea Serpent Grand Duke said.

Sorrett didn't say a word. Victor, who was in his body, was also silent.

Suddenly, a red glow appeared in the sky. A sexy witch in a fiery red robe with red hair and bold and open clothes appeared in the sky above the thunder net.

Behind her, there was a faint phantom of a giant dragon burning with flames. Its golden eyes looked indifferently at Sorrett below.

"Retreat, Sorrett..." Victor's voice suddenly sounded in his mind.

"No! Victor, quickly think of another way!"

"Victor?"

Silence filled Sorrett's mind.

"If you can avoid the next calamity, we still have a chance to cooperate..."

Victor's last voice sounded in Sorrett's mind.

The next moment, the powerful level 5 demon grabbed the other surviving demons on the island and threw them into its mouth, chewing them and swallowing them.

Immediately after, its body expanded even more and its aura became stronger again. A demonic aura surged and swept across the island.

Sea Serpent Grand Duke's expression changed as he quickly retreated.

The giant demon rushed into the sky, tore open the lightning net, and disappeared without a trace after taking a fifth-circle spell from the red-haired witch.

Only a black crow feather was left behind. It fell from midair and ignited, turning into ashes.

"Victor!"

Sorrett screamed in his heart.

The damned Black Feather Demon King did not respond at all.

This guy had already found a way out for himself after his plan failed.

Now, he had already escaped with the help of that level-five demon.

"You lied to me... This is a demon." Sorrett's heart was dead.

The momentum was gone. In his eyes, the Thunder Dragon phantom lit up and then disappeared.

"Thunder Fall!"

In the next moment, there was a thunderclap in the sky.

A terrifying pillar of lightning descended from the sky and struck the island.

Sea Serpent Grand Duke, Blue Dragon Lady, and the red-haired witch who had just arrived all avoided the terrifying lightning pillar.

Boom!

In the middle of the island, the auction venue had already disappeared.

A huge pit about a mile in diameter appeared there, and it was bottomless.

Wherever the lightning pillar landed, everything was annihilated.

Trees, rocks, wizards, storage bags... all disappeared.

Only the lava melted by the high-temperature lightning at the bottom of the pit witnessed the terrifying power of the attack.

"Are you worried that your collusion with the demons will be exposed? Did you commit suicide?" Sea Serpent Grand Duke asked suspiciously.

"No, he escaped. That was the strongest fifth-circle spell of the Lightning Faction, Thunder Fall... However, I already have evidence that he colluded with the demons. I want to see how the Wizard Tribunal will judge him this time." Blue Dragon Lady's expression was cold.

Last time, she didn't convict Sorrett because she didn't have enough evidence.

Before she came this time, she had already made a record with the photographic slate in advance to obtain conclusive evidence.

She wanted to bury Sorrett and the Thunder Dragon Family behind him.

She did not believe that no matter how powerful the faction behind Sorrett was, the crime of colluding with demons be cleared.

Before she went to report the case, she had to secretly spread this matter and form public opinion.

If that didn't bring Sorrett to justice, there was nothing she could do about it.

"However, I wonder which faction the Third-Circle Wizard who snatched the succubus from just now is from? That Mind Flayer seems to be controlled by him too. Why is he helping me? Or does he simply have a grudge against Sorrett?"

Blue Dragon Lady had many questions. As a dragon descendant, she could sense the pure Dragon Clan bloodline in his body when he transformed.

As a high-ranking member of the dragon-descendant priory, she had seen many dragon-descendant wizards, including many pure-blooded dragons. However, that Third-Circle Wizard was a little different from the wizards she had met before.

"With the strength of the dragon descendant's physical body, coupled with body-tempering spells and powerful sword skills, he perfectly fused the three together. With a third-circle body, he tore open a gap in the fifth-circle array. It seems that he's also proficient in arrays... Unbelievable. I've never heard of such a genius."

The Endless Sea was still too big. There were crouching tigers and hidden dragons. Blue Dragon Lady sighed in her heart.

That Third-Circle Wizard was definitely one of the best even in a large faction like the dragon descendant priory.
