Chapter 972: Primordial Soul Wizard Form, Hundred Flowers and Thousand Trees! (4)

"He is participating."

"Then get him to come with me. I'll have a companion on the way." Anya laughed.

He was in a good mood.

Just yesterday, he had already mastered himself as a fourth-circle protective force field.

He had only advanced to the fourth-circle realm a few years ago.

"Levi probably hasn't mastered the fourth-circle force field yet..."

That was what he was thinking.

Indeed, Levi had not mastered the fourth-circle force field because he had not studied it... He directly used a fourth-circle innate spell.

He already had enough for defense, so he didn't really care about upgrading the protective force field.

"Alright, Master should be out of seclusion in a few days. I'll tell him when the time comes." Algeta said with a smile.

Anya nodded and entered the Witch's Family to look for his mother. However, he realized that Triss had gone to a meeting, so he could only return home gloomily.

Three days later, in Levi's seclusion secret room.

He opened his eyes. There were three different colored body-tempering runes on his body that were constantly shining and changing.

Gold, gray, and blue.

The golden color represented his Metal Poison Body Tempering Technique, the gray represented the Tree Spirit Body Tempering Technique, and the light blue represented the Ice Body Tempering Technique.

Today, he cultivated the Tree Spirit Body Tempering Technique and the Ice Body Tempering Technique to the third-circle realm.

In the next moment, the gray and light blue body-refining runes began to resonate with each other and revolve around each other.

In the end, gray and light blue mixed. Levi's expression was solemn as he waited for the final result.

The next day.

The gray and light blue body-refining runes on Levi's body had already disappeared.

In its place were deep blue sage body-refining runes that shone with cold air.

"It's a success. It's a fusion of the Tree Spirit Body Tempering Technique and the Ice Body Tempering Technique. It's called... The Frost Wood Body Tempering Technique. It is ready."

Levi-

[Frost Wood Body Tempering Technique: Level 7 (1/50000). Special Effect: Frost Wood Body (Level 7)]

...

[Frost Wood Body: Grants the body extremely strong hardness, toughness, stretching, and self-healing abilities. It can also release powerful extreme cold power. Its resistance to Lightning Faction spells has increased slightly. It is more afraid of Burning Faction spells.]

Levi looked at the introduction and stretched out his arm. A deep blue sage rune flashed on his arm.

Then, a cold aura spread throughout the wizard tower, and a layer of ice formed on the walls of the secret room.

Not only that.

Levi's arm began to extend strangely like a vine, bending and winding. In the end, his arm occupied the entire secret room.

Veins like green wood appeared on his arm. Some branches extended and fresh flowers grew out.

"Interesting. This Tree Spirit Body Refining Technique can be done like this?"

At this moment, Levi seemed to have transformed into a tree spirit.

A rich life force burst forth from his body.

With a thought, a layer of ice formed on the arms like deep blue sage armor.

"Combining the strong toughness and stretching ability of the Tree Spirit Body with the hardness and defense of the Ice Body has given me this magical Frost Wood Body! However, to me, the most useful thing is the slightly increased resistance to the thunder element."

"As for the decrease in fire element resistance, it doesn't matter. When I fight against the Burning Faction, I just don't have to use the Frost Wood Body."

"After the Frost Wood Body-Tempering Technique reaches level eight and fuses with the Metal Poison Body Tempering Technique, it might be able to give birth to a technique that could break through to the primordial soul realm body tempering technique!"

After a long period of selection, body tempering techniques became increasingly scarce, and fewer people cultivated them, forming a vicious cycle.

Nowadays, primordial soul body-refining wizards are as rare as phoenix feathers and qilin horns.

"This is the right path. By relying on the strong tolerance of the Toxic Swarm in the Metal Voodoo, I should be able to give birth to a body-tempering clone at the primordial soul realm after I reach the primordial soul realm."

At that time, fighting Levi would be equivalent to fighting two people at once.

The spell body and the body-tempering clone went into battle together, killing the old master with a random punch, not caring about the virtue of witchcraft.

"The Star Gathering is about to begin. We have to set off." Levi packed up and left the house.

"Master, Sir Anya wishes to go with you," said Algerta.

"Alright." Levi nodded and sent a message to Anya.

Not long after, Anya arrived with a calm expression. He asked, "Sir Levi, how have you been doing in seclusion recently?"

"I guess I've gained something small. After the fourth-circle, it'll be difficult to move forward." Levi smiled.

Anya smiled, indicating that he was the same.

"It seems like you also have trouble with that, Sir Levi. I thought I was the only one." He heaved a sigh of relief.

Not long after, they arrived at Sea Capital.

At the moment, the large-scale defensive array of the Sea Capital had already lit up.

"Sixth-circle array, Sea Capital Domain!"

Levi muttered to himself.

He had long heard that the Twelve Wizard Cities were all set up with primordial soul type of arrays. Now that he saw it, it was indeed the case.

With a formation of this level, there shouldn't be any unforeseen events in this auction.

Moreover, there would definitely be primordial soul wizards overseeing the order of a gathering of such caliber.

After entering the city with Anya, the two of them parted ways and went to their own areas of interest.

The current Sea Capital was filled with wizards and was very lively.

Intermediate wizards, which were once relatively rare, were now everywhere. They even met a few fifth-circle wizards along the way.

Furthermore, Levi's intuition told him that there were definitely primordial soul wizards hiding their auras among the crowd.

"Keep a low profile. I must keep a low profile for this gathering!" Levi warned himself.
