Chapter 977: Dark Ancient Tower

In the end, everything related to Deep Blue Sage in the astral world's Void Ocean disappeared.

A gold coin lay there with a determined smile on its face. Then, the gold coin completely disintegrated.

There seemed to be an unforgettable voice echoing in this place.

"By spreading the flames of war to the astral world, we should be able to gain a relatively long respite. Give civilization time. Nora, we're not ready yet..."

The fall of a legend was a tragedy for the world!

Not long after, the strength of a supreme will seeped in and quickly disappeared without a trace.

...

In the Land of Darkness, in the boundless void.

Deathly stillness and destruction were the main melodies here. Occasionally, powerful black beasts would wander by, emitting an aura comparable to that of a primordial soul wizard.

The black beast was the collective name of the unknown transcendent creatures in the Land of Darkness. Being able to cross the void, its strength was naturally not weak.

Generally speaking, primordial soul wizards rarely took the initiative to provoke black beasts.

These guys couldn't be controlled and had no value. They were also abnormally powerful. Hunting black beasts was a thankless task.

Unlike ordinary transcendent creatures, the bodies of black beasts often contained strong corrosive and polluting powers, which would gradually corrode the spiritual force and physical body of the wizards. Whether it was the materials on their bodies or their bloodline, they could not be used as materials for alchemy or bloodline modification.

So far, the wizard civilization has not developed an effective method to purify this dark power.

There were only a few methods, and the price was extremely high. The cost far exceeded the benefits.

Some of the Cataclysm Beasts in the Forsaken Land of the Gods were actually the black beasts that had descended upon Nora.

A large part of the reason why Cave Wizard hid in the crypt all day was to avoid these guys.

At this moment, a black beast with a length of about a thousand meters and a round body with tens of thousands of tentacles was devouring all possible living things in the void.

If it was lucky, it might be able to find some planes with broken crystal walls and go there to feast. If it was unlucky, it might starve for a hundred years.

This empty void was its territory. The black beast lord was an existence comparable to a primordial soul wizard.

Suddenly, an even darker shadow descended on the head of the black beast lord.

A huge black tower that was so huge that even with its vast spiritual force, it could only sense the tip of the iceberg was slowly floating across the void of the Land of Darkness.

The huge tower was simple and imposing. There were four dragons of different shapes carved on it. In the center of the dragons was a huge white snake that controlled the four elements of Earth, Fire, Wind, and Water. It surrounded the entire Dark Ancient Tower and the mortal world!

The black beast lord instinctively felt fear and shivered. It wanted to leave the range of the black tower but found that it couldn't escape no matter what.

In the next moment, a black hole opened at the bottom of the black tower. The black beast lord, along with everything in the void, was swallowed into it. There was no lack of precious ores that some wizards would be ecstatic to see, as well as treasures that could only be born in the Land of Darkness.

One of the crystal walls was completely shattered, and a small plane that was already dead was directly crushed and swallowed.

The Dark Tower continued to float in the void. It seemed slow, but in the blink of an eye, it seemed to have crossed thousands of miles.

Occasionally, some light would fly out and land in the nearby planes.

When the black beast lord woke up again, it was already in a new blue world.

Blue sky and white clouds, high mountains and snowy plains, oceans and mountains, towering trees... It wandered aimlessly until it came to a small island in the sea that was full of life.

There was a small blue pagoda by the sea.

Beside the small pagoda, there were many confused and unknown humans. They were all wearing robes.

Among these humans, there were two that were rather special. They looked like they were made of steel and had unique appearances. When they saw the black beast lord, they had already transformed into an Iron-Winged Tyrannosaurus and a Steel Sea Dragon, ready to fight the enemy.

"This is... a black beast? Where are we?"

A primordial soul wizard in the team looked puzzled. At the same time, he cast a primordial soul spell that changed the color of the world and attacked the black beast.

"I'm not sure, but this is definitely not the Demiplane of the Deep Blue Sage... What's going on? Has Deep Blue Sage fallen?"

"No way, Deep Blue Sage is a Legendary Wizard! Legendary Wizards can't fall!" exclaimed Herman. After a long journey, he had completely become a diehard fan of the Deep Blue Sage. He was convinced by this Legendary Wizard with a powerful personality!

"I don't see the wizard tower of the Deep Blue Sage..." Stella said worriedly.

"I found that there are no stars outside the crystal wall. It seems to be blocked by a thick barrier," said a primordial soul wizard. His expression suddenly turned solemn and he said, "This is the Dark Ancient Tower!"

"What? The legendary Dark Ancient Tower that appears once every ten thousand years? Don't you need a key to enter this place?"

"I don't know what's going on either, but this should be the Dark Ancient Tower. Perhaps only Deep Blue Sage knows what's going on?"

At this moment, inside the small pagoda...

There was a blue pool and a small fish that seemed to be made of countless truths and rune knowledge was swimming in it without a care.

On the simple desk, there was a Deep Blue Sage crystal ball that emitted a dreamy luster. On the surface of the crystal ball, there were words that read [Deep Blue Sage Butler, The First Generation Machine].
