

Wizard 980

Chapter 980: Sierra, Child of the Elements

Levi asked the fur clan to clean up the wizard tower while he went to the Witch's Family.

Before leaving, he had to say goodbye to Triss, the biggest connection he had right now.

At Triss's residence.

"Although you look calm, I can still feel your hidden pride. You've made another breakthrough, right?"
Triss grinned.

"A small breakthrough..." Levi thought to himself that the lady's observation skills were quite strong. Even his acting skills, which were at the level of a movie king, were seen through. As expected of a primordial soul wizard. In the future, he had to be careful when dealing with primordial soul wizards!

"Did you participate in last year's Star Auction?"

"Yes."

"Then you should be careful. In the past half a year, there has been a group of dark wizards who especially robbed people who participated in the auction and won the bid... The Star Tower has already captured many dark wizards, but there are still many who are still at large."

"Ma'am, do you know what forces they are from? It feels like it's organized and premeditated."

"I'm not sure. The law enforcement department's task force is investigating further."

"Taskforce... Which wizard is in charge of this?"

"What's wrong? Are you suspecting that there's an insider in Star Tower?" Triss asked.

"That's not true. I'm just curious... Only the organizer of the auction can clearly grasp the information of all the bidders, right?" Levi asked.

"We all thought so, so the Star Tower thoroughly investigated the organizers of the auction and even authorized the use of a cruel soul-searching spell! There was indeed a very suspicious staff member. When he was soul-searched, his soul automatically burned. Someone had done something to him and cut off this clue. As for the person in charge of investigating this case, it's a primordial soul wizard from Lilith's Cabin."

Levi thought to himself. He had thought that the person in charge of the law enforcement department was from the Letney family again.

"Madam, I heard that there were primordial soul wizards involved in the battle that day. Even Developing Sea Wizard was heavily injured. I wonder if the few primordial soul wizards who caused the incident have been caught?"

"No, the Soul Splitting Fruit was obtained by one of the primordial soul wizards. After that, he used the Dimensional Door spell to escape to the Land of Darkness... That place is the paradise of the primordial soul dark wizards. It's a truly lawless place. They roam the Multidimensional Planes, and even the Wizard Council is helpless."

When Levi heard this, he heaved a sigh of relief.

If those primordial soul dark wizards ran to the human world, he would have to consider whether he should go back.

However, with the congress's methods, it would be difficult to hide in the human world if they were to really investigate.

Therefore, he also felt that there was a high chance that these primordial soul wizards had really left Nora!

"Madam, I will be leaving Nether Capital for a while. Is there anything else I can do for the Witch's Family?"

"Nothing much. It's just that don't forget to give me feedback on the research missions I gave you... Also, I have a list of herbs that have the effect of dispelling and purifying. You can go to the witch shop to see if there are any. If there aren't any, then I have nothing else for you." Triss handed Levi a list.

"Thank you, Madam!"

"Are you going back to the human world this time?" Triss suddenly asked.

"Yes."

"That's good. Go to the human world and gather some information first. Our Witch's Family and the other five towers will send representatives to the human world to establish branches in a few days. The new round of plane intersection will bring some opportunities. This will be the best and worst era. Although you won't be able to enter the Dark Ancient Tower, if you can seize this opportunity, there will be hope for you to achieve primordial soul realm in the future!"

"Thank you, Madam. I will fight for it." After receiving the list, Levi left the Witch's Family.

"With Madam Triss' list, it'll be easier for me to find the substitute ingredients for the Saint Fruit in the Purification Elixir... I've studied for so long, but in the end, I still have to live off a woman. Shameful!"

It couldn't be helped. Compared to Triss, Levi's knowledge as a fourth-circle pharmacist was worlds apart.

In Levi's Greenfield Immortal House, the Golden Abberation Insect was still sleeping. When the time came, he could use the Purification Elixir to completely purify it into a [Totem Insect].

Apart from that, the Soul Artifact fragment he bought from Jacob could also be put to use.

He went to the witch shop to look for the herbs on the list. After buying some of them, Levi left.

Nether Capital port.

"Sir Levi, please wait a moment..." Levi was on his boat.

A black-haired witch in a black robe walked over barefooted, swaying gracefully.

"And you are?" Levi had never seen this person before.

"I'm Phantom Witch Sierra."

"Oh, you must be the Water Elemental Child. I've heard of you." Levi seemed to have heard Anya mention it before, and because she was a Children of the Elements, he remembered it.

Sierra had a calm smile on her face, but Levi could feel the unconcealable pride in her.

As a one-in-a-million Children of the Elements, she was indeed qualified to be conceited.

"I've long heard that Madam Triss thinks highly of you, and she's even fighting for a spot in the Dark Ancient Tower for you. I'm here this time to make friends with you and spar with you. Among the wizards of the same generation in the Witch's Family, those who are qualified to fight me are all in seclusion. After thinking about it, only Sir Levi is qualified."

"Sorry, I don't have time. I have to go out." Levi smiled politely and declined her request.

The pampered girl of this day was really bored to death. She had thought that something good had finally happened.

He didn't care about Sierra's expression. He sat on the pink airship and flew towards the inner sea region.

Sierra's expression was calm, but she was puzzled. "His emotional fluctuations are very calm. It's as if he doesn't care much even when facing a Children of the Elements like me. In fact, he even looks down on me... Interesting."

She retracted her gaze, gritted her teeth, and stomped her feet. She turned around and left, preparing to go back and study the strategy for the first five floors of the Dark Ancient Tower.

At this moment, an expressionless White Robe Wizard brushed past her and left the port.

Her heart skipped a beat as she quietly watched the White Robe Wizard disappear in the exact same direction as Levi!

She was born with a magical talent that allowed her to sense the emotional fluctuations of some living beings.

From the White Robe Wizard just now, she felt a faint... Killing intent!

"I heard that ever since the Star Auction, there has been a group of people hiding in the various major Wizard Cities, doing bad things when people are out. Could that person just now be one of them? If that's the case, then Levi is in danger. Since he dared to attack Levi, he must have accomplices. I'm afraid he's not the only fourth-circle wizard!"

Thinking of this, she immediately sent a message to Anya. Anya arrived upon hearing the news.

"You said that Sir Levi is in danger?"

"Yes, I saw someone following him."

"Maybe they're just traveling in the same direction."

"My intuition has always been accurate. Are you going?"

"F*ck, he's my friend and my mother's friend! How can I sit idly by when he encounters danger?"

Anya and Sierra hid their auras and chased after him.

On the way.

"By the way, did Levi cultivate a charm spell?" Sierra asked.

"Did he? What kind of charm spell does a wizard practice? Seducing witches?" Anya was puzzled.

'Wait, the reason why his mother was so interested in Levi was because she had fallen for his charm? He wants to seduce my mother?'

This was impossible! Even a male succubus lord could not charm his mother, let alone Levi.

"I'm not sure. Maybe I'm overthinking it." Sierra was quite sensitive to things that ordinary people could not detect because of her talent for Perception.

Just as the two of them were hurrying on their way, there seemed to be magic fluctuations coming from ahead.

"Hurry up!" Anya suppressed the wild thoughts in his mind and urged.

Sierra's eyes were filled with pride and anticipation. She commented, "He looks calm on the outside, but he's quite arrogant on the inside. But in the end, he still needs me to save him."

As a Child of the Elements and the proud daughter of the Witch's Family, most of the wizards she met, regardless of whether they were male or female, would be envious, jealous, and admiring when facing her. Sometimes, it would even turn into killing intent!

Only Levi's emotional fluctuation was actually... Disdain. This made Sierra very curious. Did this male wizard that Triss cared about have the strength to match his inner confidence?
