Chapter 982: Seven Layers Of Armor

When they saw Levi's fire dragon attack, they thought that his target was the Burning Faction, but now they realized that he also knew the spell of the Earth Faction...

It was fine if he cultivated both body-refining and spells at the same time, but the spells themselves were cultivated from two different schools at the same time...?

Did such a genius really exist?

Did he have 48 hours in a day?

Up until now, they had not even touched their target once.

Now, they could only rely on the White Robe Wizard's killing move.

The White Robe Wizard suddenly patted his head.

The head split open in a strange manner, and a plume of black smoke came out.

A pitch-black arrowhead emitting a strong corrosive power appeared.

This arrowhead seemed to be refined from the bones of some transcendent creature. It looked strange and was not a good thing.

"This thing is invading my mind again... A Wizard Tool made from the corpse of a black beast is indeed not something that can be used by ordinary people. The side effects are too great. However, if I use this treasure, this person will definitely die."

As the spell power in his body was crazily consumed.

A sense of danger came from Levi's arm.

He shook off the Wizard Tools that were entangling him, and layers of defense lit up, protecting him in the center.

A total of seven layers of defense! It was as if he was in a turtle shell!

The wizards were dumbfounded.

"Although this person's attack is also powerful, it is still within the scope of common sense... Isn't this defense a little too exaggerated? Has he only cultivated defensive spell for his entire life?"

Whoosh!

The black bone arrow shot out in an instant, and wherever it passed, space rippled!

"Come on, let's see if your turtle shell is thicker or my arrowhead is sharper!" The White Robe Wizard's face was pale as he sneered.

Once this arrowhead was released, it would definitely kill!

"Prepare the next round of spells to prevent the target from having a life-saving trump card and escaping! Remember to use a control spell to seal off this area." The White Robe Wizard made the arrangements methodically.

The other two wizards began to cast their fourth-circle innate spell. Terrifying waves shook the sea surface, and the clouds began to change color.

An ear-piercing sound rang out.

With one strike.

The arrowhead sent the Golden Dragon Heavenly Shield flying. The shield turned into light and entered Levi's body. It would be difficult for him to get up again quickly.

The Golden Snake Dharma Idol was wearing down the sharpness of the arrowhead.

The arrowhead emitted an indomitable aura as it broke through the Golden Snake Dharma Idol.

Then, there was the Earth Dragon Barrier, the Heavy Water Barrier, and the Frost Wood Body!

In an instant!

It broke through five layers of Levi's defense!

Then, the arrowhead was stuck in the armor formed by the Metal Voodoo, unable to move.

"That was close. It was only two layers away... from hurting my skin!"

Levi felt a lingering fear in his heart. A mere fourth-circle wizard had actually mastered such a technique. He had been too careless.

"This won't do. When I return to the human world, I'll hurry up and practice the fourth-circle protective force field and stack the eighth layer of armor. Otherwise, I won't feel safe!"

The White Robe Wizard was so frightened that he almost fell from the sky and fainted.

"How is that possible? This person is definitely not a proud son of the six steeples. From the intelligence reports, he's just a nomadic wizard with some tricks up his sleeves. My attack has a full 170 Cas power! It was the genuine might of a fifth-circle attack! It actually didn't break his defense."

"Retreat! Our killer move failed to penetrate the enemy's defense!"

The White Robe Wizard immediately flashed as he prepared to leave.

"Mind Shock!"

It was accompanied by a terrifying spiritual force that swept across the sea!

In the next moment, a black light flashed!

A sharp blade stabbed into his forehead and crushed his head. He looked confused.

While they were fighting with their target, a thin wizard with a gloomy expression quietly appeared.

It was the Poison Fire Corpse Demon controlled by the Mind Flayers!

The leader, White Robe Wizard, had lost his spiritual force and his head was pierced by the Shadow Thorn. He was dead for sure!

"Leave one alive! Guillermo." Levi said coldly.

He swung his right hand, and flames rose to a hundred feet. In the flames, Crimson Dragon Slash appeared!

Black and white air currents intertwined, and a sword was thrust out!

The protective force field of a fleeing fourth-circle wizard shattered, and the Wizard Tool within was also cut in half.

Not long after, the Poison Fire Corpse Demon brought a dying fourth-circle wizard to Levi.

From the time the three of them ambushed Levi to the time they were wiped out, it had only been a few rounds. These people had good combat awareness and good teamwork. If they had met other fourth-circle senior wizards, they might have already taken them down.

Unfortunately, they met a fan of the Stacked Armor Style.

With Guillermo's help, it would not take much effort to deal with them.

He knocked out the fourth-circle wizard with one punch and used a spell to imprison him. Then, he let the corpse demon control him and enter Alice's ring.

He was prepared to find a hidden place to see who was causing trouble behind the scenes.

As for the other corpses, Levi turned them into gold coins to summon Owens and their souls were also devoured by the other Saint Scorpions.

After resting for a while and preparing to leave, Levi's expression changed slightly as he sensed someone familiar approaching.

He thought for a moment and cleaned up the battlefield. He immediately used Scarlet Shadow and quickly disappeared from where he was.

When Anya and Sierra arrived, the sea was already calm.

"There are traces of battle here. The fluctuation just now came from here. Levi couldn't have been captured by those people, right? We're still too late... Sigh, I'm mainly worried about disturbing the person in front, so I didn't dare to fly too fast," said Sierra. She could already imagine the tragic scene of Levi being besieged by a group of dark wizards who had been lying in ambush for a long time.

Anya's expression was solemn.

Ever since the war between the dark and righteous wizards, killing, robbing, and destroying corpses had become a common occurrence in the Endless Sea.
