

Wizard 992

Chapter 992: Hell! (6)

"Not bad. In two to three years, you're already a mid-level apprentice wizard... Looks like your cultivation hasn't fallen behind." Levi smiled.

"It's all thanks to Commander's support. After becoming a wizard, as my spiritual force grew, I felt that my thoughts were sharper and more active than before. No wonder wizards are so powerful," said Andrew.

"How is the progress of the Bloodline Dharma Body?" Levi asked.

"I've already cultivated to the peak of the second level. I can now accomplish Blood Qi Separation. The next step is to condense Bloodline Dharma Body." Andrew was as serious as the students who reported their homework.

Levi casually took out a first-circle Wizard Tool from his storage bag.

"With your strength, you can somewhat use a first-circle Wizard Tool. Take it for self-defence. Remember, only when you're alive can there be any possibility." He said meaningfully.

"Thank Commander...However, I don't have anything I can pay in exchange." Andrew was flattered.

"The price is to become a legendary knight or an official wizard as soon as possible. I have high hopes for you, young man!" Levi patted Andrew's shoulder and turned to leave.

On the training field of the Five-Colored Palace, Denise was sparring with Dinos.

Denise's five-coloured blood qi was brilliant, while Dinos' golden blood qi was magnificent!

In the end, it was still Dinos who won.

"Just a little more and I will be able to reach Bloodthirst Perfection..." Dinos sighed.

"There's no need to rush." Levi's voice sounded.

"Hello, Commander!" The two greeted in unison.

"Have you found any good seedlings over the years?" Levi asked.

"I found a double affinity one and they're even a grand knight. The other seedlings are not as talented," said Dinos.

"These special talents should be specially nurtured. Also, secretly take care of Andrew. We can't let his talent die prematurely. In the future, when he grows up, he will be of great use to our holy temple!" said Levi.

"Understood!"

He left the Dusk Holy Temple.

Levi was in a good mood.

The human world had actually been very chaotic these years, but the holy temple could basically stay out of it.

Because the main policy of the holy temple at this stage was to recuperate, develop quietly, and never participate in various disputes.

When the Black Knight and the other core members advanced to become Blood Knights, they would be able to step onto the stage.

He flew toward the mainland. Rosa Witch, whom he had not contacted for a long time, had something to tell him.

Peacock Kingdom.

In a small coastal city.

In the private room of the Shining Tavern.

Levi saw the Rosa Witch.

It had been many years since they last met, but she still looked the same. However, she looked a little haggard.

"It's good to see that you're still alive..." said Rosa Witch.

"What's wrong, Madam?"

"Do you remember Orlov?"

Levi replied, "I remember. He's that fourth-circle wizard. He's quite a nice person."

Orlov had once tried to stop Barzan from killing him, but he was still scared off by Barzan using the power behind him.

Even so, he was still a little grateful to that old man. It was already rare for Orlov to stand up for him.

"Orlov is dead. I sent him a message before, but he never replied. Later, I went to his secluded place and found traces of a battle. Orlov should be dead because the other party is very likely a fifth-circle wizard."

"Orlov is a good man. Who is so cruel?" Levi was confused, but he had already guessed what was going on.

"I think it should be the backer behind Balzan, the fifth-circle wizard of the Spirit Catcher Steeple, Madam Ghost!"

"Why did she kill Orlov? What's the motive?"

"Barzan is dead. She has been looking for clues. It seems that she has found Orlov."

Rosa Witch looked at Levi. Levi looked surprised as if he really did not know.

"Barzan is also dead?"

"Yes."

Rosa Witch's gaze moved slightly, and she sighed inwardly. She knew that Barzan was killed by Levi.

Levi was not an ordinary nomadic wizard.

After the Wizard World and the human world were connected, she made contact with the other sisters.

That was when she realized that Levi was an external wizard of the Witch's Family. He was very powerful and was even favored by the Vice President of the Pharmacist Association, Triss!

Triss's identity and status were something that even the current Flower Witch couldn't compare to.

Rosa Witch naturally knew what it meant to be valued by Triss.

After some thought, Rosa Witch said, "I reckon that Madam Ghost already knows who killed Barzan. She might have already started to take action. This woman is extremely vicious, and she has the support of the Spirit Catcher Steeple. That's why she's becoming more and more unscrupulous."

"Madam, you didn't call me here just to chat about this, right?" Levi asked.

"You're already a fourth-circle wizard, right?"

"Yes."

"In the human world today, other than a few Church saints and fifth-circle wizards who are hidden like me, there should be no one else who is a match for you."

"You can't say that. I've heard a saying that goes, 'Beyond the mountains, there are mountains and towers.' There's always someone stronger than me. I've just entered the fourth-circle realm, and my realm isn't very stable. How can I be invincible under the fifth-circle realm?"

"The Witch's Family wants to build a wizard tower in the human world. I'm a member of the Sword Flower Oath Tower and also a member of the Witch's Family. Lady Witch asked me to take charge of the situation. I want you to be my assistant. As a reward, since the establishment of the Shining Tavern, it has been rooted in the human world for hundreds of years. You can use all the intelligence networks. You can be the Deputy Tower Master," said Rosa Witch.

Levi's heart skipped a beat. The Shining Tavern was spread all over the world, and its roots were as deep as the Church's.

Especially in terms of intelligence, no one could compare.

If he could use this intelligence network at will, it would definitely be beneficial to him and the future development of the Dusk Holy Temple!

After thinking for a moment, Levi said, "As a member of the Witch's Family, I agree to your request. If you need help, I won't decline if it's within my ability. If it's beyond my ability, then forgive me for not being able to help... However, there's no need for me to become a Deputy Tower Master. It's not appropriate for a male wizard like me to become a Deputy Tower Master."

"Sure, I believe in the primordial soul wizard's foresight, and I also believe in you. I wish us a happy cooperation!" Rosa Witch raised a cup of Hundred Flowers Wine. She said with a smile, "I also wish your future wife to be as beautiful as the Flower Knight!"

Levi's memory seemed to have been pulled back to the past. In the tavern of the Tuva Empire, the descendant of the Mellon family, the old man who had avenged his great hatred, had also said the same words to him. This was the toast of the Hundred Flowers Wine!

"Flower Knight..." Levi muttered to himself.

Before they left, Rosa Witch called out to Levi. She paused and said hesitantly, "I'm a fifth-circle wizard of the Witch's Family. If I go against Madam Ghost, it might bring about a war between the two towers... Be careful, the Witch's Family wouldn't care even if an external wizard is killed. However, you have a relationship with Madam Triss, so you can use this flexibly. You don't have to force yourself."

A ray of light landed on Levi's palm. He looked at it and saw that it was all the information on Madam Ghost.

He smiled and kept the information. He replied, "Thank you, Madam. Don't worry. My life... it's very resilient!"

He left the tavern and walked on the street.

"Now that the other party might know that I'm the murderer, I can't take any chances. Even if there's a one in ten thousand chance that I'll be harmed, I'll nip it in the bud!"

In order to prevent himself from being harmed, Levi decided to...

Strike first!
