

The Wolf's Bride by Coffee's Tea

Chapter 1361

Chapter 1361

1/3

“Truly, what an extraordinary spear!” Andrius ripped the spear handle, praising it endlessly.

Then...

Swoosh!

His gaze was sharp as he casually waved the spear, creating a beautiful arch.

Andrius felt increasingly satisfied and tried to perform some moves.

At first, due to the spear's weight, he could only rotate it slowly. Kate could clearly see the trajectory from the side.

As he became more familiar, he no longer settled for slow rotations. Instead, he tried to swing the Linebreaker Overlord, using the techniques from the Burden of Nine Skies.

Of course, he only used the first form.

Swoosh!

Swoosh!

The trajectory of the spear tip became smoother, and Andrius felt more in control. It advanced to the point that Kate could not keep up, only seeing a cluster of afterimages.

With a thrust, a chilling radiance scattered like dragon eyes. A crescent arc filled the sky with dense killing intent.

Boom-

Andrius got into the flow and swung the spear down horizontally.

The spear tip along with half of the spear smashed onto the ground fiercely, causing the earth to shake.

A powerful force erupted, leaving a trench several meters long on the ground.

“Hiss...”

Such astonishing power made Kate involuntarily gasp.

After delivering this blow, Andrius seemed to have exhausted all his strength. He was completely spent and could barely stand in place.

Using this thing consumed more effort and focus than using inner energy.

Chapter 1361

“Congratulations!”

Kate snapped back to her senses and quickly walked over. “Andrius, your Burden of Nine Skies has reached its peak. Coupled with the Linebreaker Overlord, it’s like adding wings tiger.”

Andrius laughed heartily and shook his head. "The Linebreaker Overlord is indeed formidable. I probably need some time to fully master and unleash its power."

That was the truth.

to a

Andrius obtaining the Linebreaker Overlord was like a novice driver on the road. He required time to figure out when to accelerate and shift gears.

nd "Now that

Kate smiled and did not dwell on it. Instead, she you have the Linebreaker Overlord, let's set off."

"Let's go."

Andrius could not wait any longer.

The two headed toward the airport.

On the way, whenever Andrius recovered his energy, he would study the spear techniques.

Half his time was spent on the Argentum Qilin Spear, and the other half was dedicated to the Linebreaker Overlord. He needed to quickly understand the differences and characteristics of the two spears. That way, he could make better choices when facing different opponents.

Seeing his intense focus, Kate could not help but think of her grandfather's instructions. She advised, "Andrius, the power of the Linebreaker Overlord is unparalleled and domineering. It's difficult to fully control it in a short time.

"I suggest that you continue to use the Argentum Qilin Spear which you're more familiar with until you completely grasp the Linebreaker Overlord to avoid backlash before you're fully acquainted with it."

Andrius felt that what she said made sense, so he put down the spear and chose not to dwell on it any further.

After thinking about it, he asked, "Kate, did Sect Master Klein tell you about any noteworthy aspects of the trials set by the Turtle Sage?"

That was a problem they would inevitably face next. Kate's charming face grew serious, and she explained, "According to Grandpa, it's divided into three parts—mechanisms, beast trials, and human trials!"

Chapter 1361

3/3

Mechanisms were easy to understand. Andrius had seen and experienced many over the years.

However, what were beast and human trials?

Then, he asked, "Tell me about the beast and human trials."

Kate nodded and began to explain, "The beast trial is actually a rare spirit turtle raised by the Turtle Sage called Baser. According to legends, Baser has been alive for thousands of years and possesses formidable strength far beyond ordinary beings."

A rare spirit turtle that had lived for over a thousand years!

Andrius' eyes widened.

A thousand years.

Even a spirit pig would have risen to a legendary status, let alone a rare spirit turtle!

It seemed that overcoming this beast trial would be even more difficult than he had imagined.

"What about the human trial?" Andrius asked, "What does it mean? Is it a trial composed of experts?"

"I don't know." Kate shook her head in response to Andrius' puzzled gaze. "I don't know the specifics of the human trial and what it's like."

That's because, in the written records of various families, no one has been able to pass the beast trial, so there's no way of knowing the human trial."

Andrius fell silent at those words.

No one had passed the beast trial before...

It was clear how difficult it was.
“What about the Turtle Sage?”

The Wolf's Bride by Coffee's Tea

Chapter 1362

Chapter 1362

Andrius suppressed his thoughts and asked, “What level of strength does he possess?”

“I don’t know.” Kate smiled wryly and shook her head again. “Grandpa only told me that the Turtle Sage’s lifespan is extraordinarily long. He was already a widely renowned expert before the establishment of Florence’s new dynasty. He was well-known and famous.

“The only good news is that the Turtle Sage has a relatively upright character. He intervened when the Insect Ruler stirred up chaos and easily stopped ten Martial Gods with his own strength.

“After so many years, his strength must be even more profound and unpredictable.”

Andrius could not help but be amazed.

The Turtle Sage single-handedly suppressed ten Martial Gods. His level of strength and skill could be considered heaven—defying.

Considering this, the Turtle Sage's current strength was probably even more terrifying and outstanding! After learning this information, Andrius' already somewhat pessimistic heart instantly sank. It would not be easy to get information about the Flame Emperor from the Turtle Sage.

However, since he had come, he would undoubtedly do his best.

In the evening, the plane landed in a city on the outskirts of the Northern Desert—Kuril.

Andrius rented an off-road vehicle and rushed through the night with Kate.

Late at night, the vehicle arrived at the outskirts of the Turtle Sage's territory.

After continuous travels, even Andrius and Kate were somewhat fatigue, so they chose a relatively good spot and set up camp.

"Andrius, it's getting late. You should rest early.

Recharge your energy and prepare for tomorrow's battle," Kate said to Andrius then returned to her tent.

Rest...

Andrius barely rested during the journey.

After tidying up, he sat cross-legged and began to cultivate.

The Burden of Nine Skies had already reached perfection. Moreover, he could not use it perfectly in the small tent. As for Hades'

Axiom, he had been controlling it quite well recently. Only the Fire-breathing Palm needed some refinement.

Chapter 1362

Thus, he focused on cultivating the Fire-breathing Palm.

"Phew..."

With each breath, Andrius fell into a strange state. The air inside the tent became mysteriously scorching.

Chitter...

Creak..

It was quiet all around.

Only the occasional sounds of insects and birds added a bit of vitality to the silent wilderness.

As the moon gradually rose, Andrius became more immersed in his cultivation.

The moonlight was bright, and the night was beautiful. Suddenly, the bright moon was shrouded in a layer of haze.

"Phew..."

Andrius took a deep breath and opened his eyes. A flicker of flames was visible in his pupils. "Not bad. My Fire-breathing Palm can be considered quite accomplished now."

He could sense that his Fire–breathing Palm had reached a considerable level. However, he could not unleash it to check in this tent.

“Hm?”

At that moment, he suddenly raised his brows and immediately quieted down.

He discovered that someone was lurking nearby! This discovery surprised Andrius slightly. Then, he silently left the tent and approached the lurking person.

Swoosh-

At a distance of several meters, the person noticed Andrius.

Seeing that he was exposed he simply stopped concealing his presence.

In the dark night, a figure suddenly swooped down. Andrius snorted coldly and struck with his palm.

Chapter 1362

Energy surged. In an instant, all the moisture in the surrounding vegetation evaporated. Powerful inner energy also filled the surroundings with scorching heat.

It was the Fire–breathing Palm.

However, the next moment, Andrius' eyes almost popped out of their sockets.

The person's palms waved, and he also struck his palm out. It was a familiar move and familiar scorching sensation.

The technique he displayed was also the Fire-breathing Palm.

Enjoy Ad-Free Reading>>

The Wolf's Bride by Coffee's Tea

Chapter 1363

Chapter 1363

Damn.

What was going on?

Even though Andrius was mentally tough, he was still momentarily shocked.

However, his movements did not hesitate or linger despite his shock.

Boom-

The next moment, both sides converged their palms containing information and collided fiercely.

Almost identical auras surged.

Andrius was now certain that the opponent was indeed using the Fire-breathing Palm. Furthermore, it was not a half-baked attempt or a mere show.

"Hmph..."

Seeing that Andrius easily withstand the attack, the opponent snorted, circulated his inner energy, and aggressively attacked again.

Although Andrius was puzzled, the opponent made it clear that they wanted to compare his skills in the Fire-breathing Palm.

Andrius naturally did not back down and faced the challenge.

Bam!

Smack!

Boom!

In the dim moonlight, Andrius and the masked person exchanged blows. They both used. only the Fire-breathing Palm and nothing else.

Boom-

After another clash, Andrius put some distance between them and stared intently at the opponent, asking in a low voice, "Who are you? Why did you attack in the middle of the night, and how do you know the Fire-breathing Palm?"

The Fire-breathing Palm...

Chapter 1363

2/3

According to the Flame Emperor's description, he had created it to counteract fire poison.

However, it seemed that things were not that simple. “Do you really want to know the answer?” With only his eyes visible, the masked person. looked at Andrius with a hint of teasing and continued, “I’ll tell you if you defeat me!” Then, the masked person once again gathered his surging inner energy and attacked fiercely. The scorching sensation turned the cool autumn night into a hot summer evening.

Swoosh...

Just as the opponent attacked again, a figure rushed out from the side, clearly intending to join Andrius in fighting the masked person.

The figure was graceful accompanied by a pleasant fragrance. It was Kate.

“Andrius, I’ll help you!” Kate spoke while quickly approaching.

“No need!” Andrius frowned and stopped her. “Kate, just watch from the side.”

He knew that the masked person had not used his full strength yet. He himself was also simply testing the waters.

“I... Okay.”

Kate understood Andrius’ way of doing things. Since he refused, there was no room for negotiation. Thus, she reluctantly agreed, dissipated her inner energy, and stood aside.

“Interesting.”

The masked person’s gaze shifted between Kate and Andrius for a moment.

Then, without saying a word, he rushed toward Andrius.

With a flip of his hand, waves of heat spread in all directions. It was a manifestation of the Fire—breathing Palm pushed to its limit.

Andrius was not to be outdone.

He converted his Martial Saint inner energy into the purest power of extreme heat. More intense and powerful waves of energy instantly surged, engulfing the masked person.

“Hm...”

After a brief suspense, the masked person and Andrius clashed countless times.

Boom-

Chapter 1363

3/3

The next moment, a loud explosion echoed.

The two forces of extreme heat erupted violently, and the force released instantly vaporized everything in the surroundings. Even rocks and debris cracked open and rolled in all directions due to the high temperature.

“Amazing!” the masked person took a step back and muttered, praising sincerely.

Andrius did not respond but thought about how to win using the Fire—breathing Palm. However, what happened next surprised him even more.

Swoosh, swoosh, swoosh....

When the mysterious person realized that the Fire—breathing Palm was not enough, he took silver needles out. The glimmers sparkled under the moonlight, radiating a chilling intent.

The Wolf's Bride by Coffee's Tea

Chapter 1364

Chapter 1364

The silver needles were not the main point.

The main point was that the masked person's technique when he threw the needles was the Flame Emperor's needle technique!

Andrius was genuinely shocked.

However, he did not slow down his movements despite his surprise. Almost reflexively, he also took out silver needles and threw them out without hesitation.

Under the moonlight, on the open field, the two battled using silver needles.

Sometimes, the gleams were like raging thunder, majestic and imposing. Other times, the dim flashes were like whispers, silent and elusive.

Clang!

Clang, clang, clang...

For a moment, crisp yet intense sounds echoed in the open field.

Each sound represented a deadly confrontation.

However, Andrius already had extremely high proficiency in needle techniques. In Florence and the entire martial world, it was exceedingly rare to find someone who could surpass him in needle techniques.

Furthermore, the technique on the rock in the Hidden Arts Tower had perfected the flaws in his needle technique. Thus, he soon gained the upper hand and suppressed the masked person.

“You’re at the end of the line. Your defeat is inevitable!”

Andrius pressed forward step by step and snorted coldly. “Speak! Who are you? How do you know the Fire-breathing Palm and the Flame Emperor’s needle technique?”

The masked person’s defense crumbled under Andrius’ relentless assault.

After dealing with all the silver needles in this round, he suddenly leaped back and took advantage of when Andrius was off guard to quickly put some distance between them. Only his voice lingered.

“How? I’ll tell you when you catch me, hahaha...”

The person laughed triumphantly, the sound echoing in the vast wilderness.

Chapter 1364

2/2

Andrius could not stand it. He immediately chased after the person.

However, although the person’s needle technique was slightly inferior, his escape technique was truly superb. Coupled with his profound knowledge of the terrain, he quickly threw Andrius off and escaped.

Andrius was frustrated but had no choice but to return to camp.

Kate saw Andrius come back alone with an unpleasant expression and could not help but ask.

“Andrius, what happened? Is that person important?”

“Very.” Andrius glanced at the direction the masked person had escaped to and said in a low voice, “The palm technique and needle technique he used were techniques I learned from the Flame Emperor.

“He likely knows about the Flame Emperor. Unfortunately, his escape technique was elusive and mysterious. I couldn’t catch up to him.”

With that, Andrius sighed helplessly.

Kate pondered and spoke, “This matter is full of mystery. It’s probably not as simple as it appears.”

Andrius was slightly surprised and looked at her.

Kate adjusted her beautiful hair and analyzed seriously, “Look, we just arrived at the Northern Desert tonight and entered the Turtle Sage’s territory.

“Then, you encountered a master with a similar palm and needle technique, as well as a mysterious escaping technique...

“All signs also indicate that this person is intricately connected to the Flame Emperor. Don’t you find it strange?”

Naturally, Andrius found it strange. Exceptionally strange.

Then, he said, “Kate, you mean...

Kate’s beautiful eyes flickered. “I suspect this person’s appearance is related to the Turtle Sage!”

Chapter 1365

The Wolf’s Bride by Coffee’s Tea

Chapter 1365

Chapter 1365

Andrius was stunned but quickly snapped back to reality.

Kate's words made sense.

This was the Turtle Sage's territory.

With his age exceeding two hundred years and his strength at the Martial Saint realm or possibly even stronger, calling him the uncrowned king of this place would not be an exaggeration. It would be too easy for him to take action here.

"In any case..." Andrius sighed. "Even if the Turtle Sage sent that person, we must visit him tomorrow and meet him."

Kate nodded in agreement.

Then, the two prepared to continue resting.

However, after the recent events, they had to stay alert.

"How about this? Kate, I'll take the first watch, and you can take over for me later," Andrius suggested that they should take turns keeping watch to avoid any surprises or counterattacks by the masked person.

"Okay," Kate agreed and quickly went to rest.

The next day, when the first rays of sunlight illuminated the earth, Andrius had already prepared some wild game.

“Tsk, tsk, tsk...” Kate enjoyed the food and praised with relish, “I didn’t expect your roasted rabbit to be so delicious.”

Andrius smiled and finished the last piece of meat. After eating, they packed up. The two of them hurried toward the Turtle Sage’s territory.

Half an hour later, an endless expanse of fog appeared in front of them. According to Wade, this was where the Turtle Sage resided.

However, everything was concealed by thick fog. Even with Andrius’ Martial Saint vision, he could not see through it. The visibility was too low.

“Let’s go...”

After a brief pause at the edge of the fog, they decisively stepped into it.

Chapter 1365

“Who goes there? This is the Turtle Sage’s Secret Realm. Please leave immediately”

An old yet powerful voice resounded as soon as Andrius and Kate entered. It ached like thunder near their ears.

It was clearly the Turtle Sage’s voice, Even without seeing him in person, listening to his voice was enough. It was clear that the Turtle Sage’s strength was indeed terrifying. If an ordinary person heard his stern reprimand, it would not be surprising if they actually believe that he was a divine figure.

However, Andrius was not greatly affected. He maintained his composure and said loudly, “I am Andrius Moonshade, the Wolf King of Florence, I came here seeking clues about the Flame Emperor, I beseech the Turtle Sage for an audience!”

Andrius spoke calmly.

Then, they waited silently.

“Since you want an audience...” After a moment of contemplation, the voice said faintly, “Then follow the rules of my secret realm. As long as you pass the three trials, I will answer your questions.”

As expected, they had to pass the three trials—the mechanisms, beast, and human trials!

“Of course,” Andrius spoke without surprise.

“Follow me.”

As the voice fell, Andrius sensed a strand of the Turtle Sage’s aura leading him and Kate in a certain direction.

The two followed without hesitation.

Soon, they arrived at the outskirts of a valley. The fog here was much thinner, allowing them to vaguely see what was inside.

Andrius took a glance and frowned deeply.
Although the valley was steep, it did not frighten Andrius. However, the pervasive killing intent within it gave him a feeling as if a violent storm could descend at any moment. It was clear that the mechanisms in the valley were not just for show.