

Wolfless 190

Chapter 190 He Stands His Ground

“Mom. Tessa and I really didn’t do anything in the lab. Why can’t you just trust me? Or is it that, in your eyes, I’m not as important as maintaining the so-called dignity of the Dawson family?” Nico’s voice carried a wolf-like stubbornness and frustration with his mother’s actions. He tightly held Tessa’s hand, as if drawing strength from her.

“Mom, don’t make it difficult for her. This has nothing to do with her. I’ll work hard for the physics competition. I won’t disappoint you, but please don’t hurt her.”

Nico’s voice sounded so desolate, as if his mother had placed the family’s honor and all the unfulfilled desires she had on his shoulders. He was really tired.

Sharon stepped forward and yanked Nico over.

Her wolfish aura became more chaotic with her anger. “You’re actually arguing with me for this worthless wolf-less girl! Don’t forget, you are the hope of the entire Dawson family. You’re supposed to become a top wolf scientist, not hang around with some useless girl!

Nico’s eyes were filled with pleading. “Mom, I beg you. I’ll meet all your demands, just not her. Don’t touch her.”

-Tessa was his goddess! The only light in his gray life.

“No, she can’t be at your school. If there’s even the slightest chance she could affect you, I won’t let it slide. Sharon was very domineering. She had to make the man who severed their partnership regret it and realize how foolish it was to abandon her and Nico.

“Mr. Lambert, do you want to expel her now, or should I call a board meeting to expel you, the disobedient principal?”

Sharon was so forceful, it was sickening.

Lambert felt like his head was about to explode. This was how Sharon always was. If he didn't listen to her, she'd really call a board meeting.

“Madam Dawson, I haven't done anything wrong. What gives you the right to expel me?” The usually silent Tessa spoke up. Using force and capital to force her out She'd see if Sharon had the power to do that.

“At this point, you still dare to challenge me? Do you think the Sinclair family and Frostmoon Park will still support you?” Sharon sneered. “You're just a worthless girl abandoned by the pack and family!”

“I don't need the support of Frostmoon Pack or the Sinclair family. I'm the victim in this. If someone should be expelled, it's not me.”

Seeing her defiant expression, Sharon sneered. “Is this how girls at your age behave now?”

“Mom!” Nico's heart ached. He had hurt the girl he liked this way, and he didn't know how he would ever face her again.

“Shut up! You'd better not interfere in this. If you do, I make sure she disappears from Navoris right now.” She dared to say such a threat, even in front of so many people.

“Madam Dawson, it sounds like you think this school is yours.” Tessa scoffed. People like her were so

“Tessa, say less,” Hamilton said, worriedly looking at her. Everyone knew Sharon’s father had once been the head of the Mistwolf Mercenaries. Although they were no longer mercenaries, now disguised as the wolf nobility of Navoris, their methods were still terrifying.

If Tessa angered Sharon, she might use mercenary power to make her disappear!

“Madam Dawson, this is truly a misunderstanding. Mr. Clark arranged for the two of them to participate in the physics competition together. If you really care that much, we’ll make sure Tessa doesn’t participate. She won’t appear in the same events as Nico from now on. She’s still young. Please let her off.”

Hamilton was very responsible for his students. He truly liked Tessa and didn’t want her to suffer because of this incident. Her future was limitless.

“Mr. Hamilton, teaching such shameless students, what right do you have to speak here?” Sharon showed Hamilton no respect at all.

“Mr. Hamilton, you don’t need to worry about this. I won’t leave Navoris High.”

“Mr. Lambert!” Sharon felt her time was being wasted.

Lambert finally chose to stand with Nathaniel. After all, Nathaniel was someone he couldn’t afford to offend.

“Madam Dawson, I’m sorry, but until this matter is fully clarified, I can’t expel Tessa.” For the first time, Lambert stood firm.

Hamilton looked at Lambert with admiration.

As expected, the principal stands his ground. His authority is unshakable.

Tessa also glanced at the principal. Even if he did expel her right now, she'd unde..and.

“Good. Now it looks like I have no choice but to call a board meeting.” Sharon was furious. Lambert had always been relatively polite to her, but she didn't expect him to dare defy her this time.

Sharon slammed the door as she left. Her anger filled the air, her wolfish pheromones lingering, refusing to fade.
