Chapter 191 I Believe In You

In the principal's office, the people inside looked at one another in silence.

"I'm sorry," Nico apologized on behalf of his mother.

Tessa looked at him, unsure how to comfort him.

Nico really was pitiful. Everyone envied him for having a good background and a powerful mother, but no one expected his situation to be so miserable.

"Nico, this has nothing to do with you. Someone's trying to go after me. You just happened to get caught in it."

"Don't look at me like that." Nico didn't like the way they were looking at him with pity in their eyes.

Nico left the principal's office. He felt that he still needed to talk to his mother.

Maybe, just maybe, this could be the end of it.

"Tessa, go back to your class first. I'll figure something out." Lambert felt that he should inform Beta Nathaniel about this. "Mr. Hamilton, you should return to class too."

Once the two of them left, Lambert immediately called Nathaniel.

He only had Nathaniel's number because of what happened last time.

When Lambert called, Nathaniel was at Thorne Corp helping Landon organize official documents.

Since Ysabel also went to Navoris High, Nathaniel had saved Lambert's number the last time.

Seeing it was him calling now, he answered right away.

"Beta, this is Lambert Drake from Navoris High. Madam Dawson from the board is strongly insisting on expelling Tessa. I'm afraid I won't be able to hold her off."

"What? Madam Dawson? What nonsense is this?" Nathaniel couldn't help but frown.

Lambert respectfully explained everything that had happened over the past few days.

"Alright, I understand. Don't let anyone bully Tessa. Otherwise, you won't be able to handle the consequences."

Nathaniel hung up and immediately went to Landon's office to report.

"Alpha, you've heard about what happened to Tessa, right? Nico's mother Sharon completely humiliated her today! Even though Tessa talked back, someone daring to provoke them like this couldn't be tolerated.

"Okay."

"Okay? That's it? Why are you so indifferent? Did you and Tessa fall out or something?" Nathaniel was surprised.

haven't checked in on Alpha and Tessa for a few days, and now things are already weird between them?

"Nathaniel!" Landon shot him a warning glance, a faint Alpha pressure radiating from him.

Nathaniel immediately gave an apologetic smile and explained, "Alpha, don't be mad. I'm just making a reasonable guess. But are you really planning to just stand by and do nothing? I think this is a perfect chance—rescue the damsel in distress, deepen your bond with her." Girls were always softhearted. If Landon stepped up now, Tessa would definitely be moved.

"She's not like other girls." Landon also wanted to help her with every problem she faced, but she wasn't giving him the chance. There was nothing he could do about that.

"Alright. If that's the case, I won't say more. I'll get back to work."

After Nathaniel left, Landon couldn't help but start missing Tessa again.

They had only been apart for a short time, but he missed her for no reason.

What is she doing now? Is she thinking about me too?

Thinking like this, Landon made a call.

As Hamilton and Tessa were walking out together, her phone rang.

"Mr. Hamilton, you go ahead. I'll take this call," Tessa said as she pulled out her phone.

"Tessa, I believe in you, but all this talk from everyone is not good, after all. Don't you think so?"

“Mr. Hamilton, if you have something to say, just say it Tessa replied. She thought this teacher was kind of cute. He really defended his students without hesitation

Seeing that Hamilton still wanted to talk, Tessa simply hung up the call.

Meanwhile, Landon had waited a long time, and she still didn't answer. In the end, she even hung up on him. His expression turned dark.

Miss me? Like hell she does? She actually hung up on me.

Landon stood up immediately, planning to head to Navoris High to find her.
