Chapter 221 She Genuinely Disliked Her

Lila immediately lit up with joy—it truly felt like even the universe was helping her.

She quickly ran to Tessa's side and said excitedly. "Tessie, you must have come here to see Connor, right? I know where he is. Let me take you there!"

Five years ago, she had already known that Tessa's feelings for Connor were different.

When someone liked another person, it was impossible to forget so quickly, especially when that person was now lying in a hospital bed, needing her help.

Tessa frowned. It had taken great effort to convince Waler to bring her here for an examination, she had no time to waste on useless talk.

At that moment, Lila also noticed Walter and became even more excited.

"Walter, you've heard about Connor too, haven't you? You came with Tessa to visit him, right? The Thunder Pack's Luna, Madam Lawson, will definitely be thrilled to see you."

"Whether she's happy or not has nothing to do with me. We have other matters. Please move aside, Tessa said, already growing frustrated at the minutes wasted Here.

"Walter, Connor is lying in a hospital bed right now. You watched him grow up. Are you really not going to see him?" Lila could only place her hopes on Walter. Five years ago, Walter had also been very fond of Connor.

Walter stayed silent, only looking at Tessa. Everything depended on her wishes. If she didn't want to go, no one could force her.

"Walter, Tessa listens to you the most

. No matter what, this matter started because of Tessa. You know the Lawson family's position in Navoris. If this isn't handled properly, it could hurt Tessa. You don't want to see Tessa get hurt, do you?" Seeing that Walter remained unmoved, Lila had no choice but to bring this up!

Lila's words weren't wrong either. Thunder Pack, now the second-largest pack in Navoris, had been supported by Fiona alone after the last Alpha sacrificed himself during the Vampire War, until the new Alpha took over.

Walter knew better than anyone how ruthless Fiona could be.

If Tessa angered Fiona, she could be in serious danger.

"Tessie, why don't you just go take a look? No matter what, you and Connor grew up together. Now that he's hurt, it's only right to visit him."

Hearing Walter say this, Lila finally felt reassured.

Everyone knew that Tessa listened to Walter the most. Now that even Walter had spoken, surely she would obey

"Tessie, do it for me, will you?" Walter truly worried that the Lawson family might harm Tessa Tessa felt helpless. She really didn't want to go. There was nothing between her and Connor.

But everyone had their own thoughts. Since Walter intended on seeing her, she might as well go. It wouldn't change anything anyway

So. Tessa nodded.

Seeing her finally agree, Walter let out a small breath of relief.

No matter what, having one less enemy was always a good thing.

What he didn't know was that Tessa now had grown so powerful that even the Alpha family of Thunder Pack was no longer qualified to be her enemy

The happiest person seeing Tessa agree was Lila.

She remembered clearly everything Fiona had promised her. As long as Tessa went to see Connor, Fiona would definitely keep her word about the rest.

Outside Connor's hospital room, Fiona and Winona were still standing there. When they saw Tessa actually show up, Fiona's expression softened a little, but she still wasn't pleased. After all, she genuinely disliked Tessa.

Yesterday, she had personally sent people to invite Tessa, yet Tessa had ruthlessly humiliated her.

It had been a huge blow to her dignity as the Luna of Thunder Pack, and her hatred for Tessa deepened.

She truly didn't understand why her son was so stubborn about seeing Tessa..

What could he possibly have to say to her?

Tessa walked up to the door of the hospital room. Seeing Fiona and Winona standing there, she acted as if she hadn't seen them at all. She brushed past them and directly pushed open the door to the room.

Chapter 222 Your Life Is Your Own

The door to the hospital room was pushed open. Connor instinctively frowned, ready to scold, but when he saw Tessa, a look of joy immediately appeared on his face.

"Tessie, you're finally willing to come see me!"

"I don't know why you insist on meeting. But I really think it's unnecessary. I've already made myself clear.

haven't I?"

Tessa just looked straight into Connor's eyes. She truly felt nothing for him anymore.

Seeing Tessa like this and hearing her say such things, Connor still couldn't accept it.

"Tessie, I really know I was wrong.

Some people, once missed, could never be retrieved.

Your life is Connor, for the sake of the time we spent at the same hool, I have to say a few words to you your own, your legs are your own. Whether you want to be treated or not is your own business. It has nothing to do with me. Don't always drag me into your problems. You know very well what kind of person your mother is,"

To be honest, Tessa felt she had already done all she could.

"Tessie, no matter what you say, I won't give up. Once my legs are healed, I'll make it up to you twice over."

y current state?

Connor suddenly felt a surge of confidence. Yes! How can I ever bring Tessie happiness in my

He had to recover quickly to who he used to be. Right now, he wasn't even worthy to stand by Tessa's side.

Tessa grew impatient.

Tve already said, what happens to you in the future has nothing to do with me. Why must you drag me into it?"

Why can't he understand?

No matter how she said it, he didn't get it. She even started to wonder if he had injured not just his legs. but also his brain!

Tessa didn't want to say anything more. She turned and left.

When Winona saw Tessa walk out, her face twisted into an ugly expression.

But she had experienced Tessa's strength firsthand. Even without a wolf form. Tessa could easily strangle her.

So now, Winona didn't dare say a word

The moment Tessa left, Fiona immediately entered the hospital room.

"Mom, get the doctor! I want to stand up again as fast as possible."

"Connor, you finally figured it out! Mom knew you would pull yourself together. You're the future hope of Thunder Pack!"

Fiona immediately sent someone to fetch the attending physician.

The doctor performed a full examination on Connor.

"How is it, Doctor?" Fiona asked anxiously.

The attending physician looked at them with difficulty

"The surgery was successful, but he just can't stand up. Honestly, it's very hard to explain."

The doctor was at a loss himself.

Hearing that, Connor's face changed. A powerful aura of high-ranked werewolf pressure spread unconsciously from him, making the hospital equipment in the room tremble slightly.

"What do you mean?"

"Mr. Connor, I really did my best. But I've never seen a case like yours before, the attending physician said, beads of sweat forming on his forehead as he endured the pressure.

Fiona's expression also darkened. "You're just making excuses for your incompetence!"

She was extremely dissatisfied and added her own pressure onto the doctor.

The attending physician had no way to respond. He couldn't afford to offend the Lawson family of Thunder Pack, so he could only remain silent.

"Is there really no way?"

Connor withdrew his pressure and collapsed back onto the hospital bed, filled with despair.

How can I end up like this?

If he could never walk again, he would never become the next Alpha of Thunder Pack.

Without that, he couldn't protect Tessa, make up to her, or bring her happiness.

“In all of Montedra, maybe only the advanced-level werewolf doctor, Samuel Hill, might have a solution.”

When the doctor mentioned Samuel, his face showed pure admiration and respect.

Samuel was a legend among Montedra’s werewolves, the first to join the International Werewolf Medical Organization, and the youngest member at that.

“Samuel Hill? That genius doctor?”

Of course Fiona had heard of that legendary werewolf healer.

But although many had heard his name, very few had actually met him.

“Madam Lawson, you should try to reach him. I’m afraid only he might help Mr. Connor stand again.”

After saying this, the doctor quickly left, afraid Fiona would continue to pressure him.

Fiona, on the other hand. Immediately used every connection she had to try and contact the advanced- level healer.

But no matter how hard she tried, there was no news at all.

Chapter 223 I Trust You

After Tessa left Connor’s hospital room, she took Walter to get a full body checkup.

Samuel had already arrived at the hospital. As soon as the checkup was , he would be able to see the results right away.

Tessa helped Walter with his coat and cane and waited outside.

The full body checkup would take about two hours. Since it was the weekend, Ysabel had asked Tessa to go out, but Tessa declined.

Tessie, what are you so busy with? I tried calling you so many times yesterday, but you didn't answer. Are we still friends?" Ysabel was really bored by herself.

"I'm at the hospital."

"What? Why are you at the hospital? Are you sick? Why didn't you tell me if you're sick?"

"I'm not sick. I brought my grandpa for a checkup."

"Oh, I see! Alright, I'll come find you after you're done. The final exams were coming up, and she wanted to study with Tessa.

"Yeah, I have some other things to do. I'll hang up now

Landon came downstairs and saw Ysabel shaking her head and sighing.

"What's wrong? Why aren't you going to see Tessa? Didn't you say you were going to see her today?" He remembered she had mentioned it yesterday, yet she was still here.

“Tessie’s been so busy lately. She doesn’t have time to hang out with me. Uncle Landon, do you know what she’s been doing? She’s at the hospital today, but what about the other days?”

“I don’t know what she’s been up to either.

Both uncle and nephew were frustrated by the same person.

After the checkup, Tessa helped Walter out.

“Tessie, my body is fine. There’s no need for so many tests. Walter said, not wanting to worry her.

“Grandpa, it’s just a routine check. Don’t worry about it. I’ll take you home now.”

“The driver is downstairs. You go ahead with what you need to do. I can get home by myself

Walter knew she had other things to do and didn’t want to trouble her.

Right. What Teisa wanted to know most right now was Walter’s checkup results. She only wanted to find Samuel.

“Grandpa, I’ll have the driver take you home. I really have something else to do, so I won’t be going back with you.”

But the more she acted like this, the sadder he became

He was getting old. Even the strongest werewolf would face aging, illness, and death one day.

Some things couldn't be changed by human effort. He didn't want Tessa to be stuck in a dead end.

But seeing her so actively manage everything, he couldn't bring himself to say those discouraging words. He could only sigh helplessly.

After seeing the driver take Walter away, Tessa turned back to the hospital and rushed to find Samuel

"Tessa, don't look so serious. I've never seen you look so serious before, Samuel tried to lighten the tense atmosphere.

He had already received all of Walter's test results.

The situation wasn't looking good, but it wasn't hopeless either.

"What's the situation exactly? Don't joke with me, I'm not in the mood for that."

Samuel, of course, knew how much Walter meant to her, so he didn't dare joke.

"Don't worry! I'm here! I've already sent the information to Master.

He had a good understanding of the situation, but there was one crucial question that needed an answer from his master.

"Do we really need to involve Master?" Tessa's face darkened even more.

Samuel walked up to her and gently patted her shoulder

“Can’t you trust me? Didn’t I tell you it’s not a problem I just want to be extra cautious, that’s all

“I trust you.”

A

If even Samuel, an advanced-level healer, couldn’t save Walter, then there was really nothing else to be done.

After all, Samuel was already at the top of his field in werewolf medicine.

Chapter 224 Her Musical Ambitions.

Samuel finally made it back after much difficulty, but the director had other questions for him, so he didn’t leave with Tessa.

After leaving the hospital, Tessa took the initiative to contact Ysabel.

When Ysabel received Tessa’s call, she immediately became alert.

“Tessie, are you done with your work now? Didn’t you y you were going to see Camille’s movie premiere? I think it’s tonight. Do you still have time to go?”

Because of Tessa, Ysabel had also paid special attention to Camille’s new movie.

“Where are you now? I’ll come pick you up.”

“I’m at the Thorne Residence. You don’t need to come pick me up. It’s too remote here, and it’s hard to get a cab. I’ll have the driver drop me at Wisteria Apartment, and you can wait for me there.”

Since her great-grandfather liked the hills, the Thorne Residence was built halfway up a mountain, making it difficult to get a cab up there,

Ysabel changed into a beautiful dress. Even though it was cold in Navoris during the winter, she still preferred wearing dresses, just adding a double-faced wool coat over it.

After putting on beautiful makeup, Ysabel was ready to find Tessa.

But before she could leave, Landon stopped her.

“Uncle Landon, Tessie is still waiting for me. Whatever is, can it wait until I get back?” She hadn’t seen Tessa for several days and really missed her.

Landon kindly reminded her, “You might not be able to go out today. Your dad is on his way back. He wants you to wait at home for him. Are you sure you still want to go out?”

“What? My dad’s coming back today? But today isn’t even Friday!” Her dad usually came back on Fridays, but today was so unusual.

Landon’s look was a bit intimidating, and Ysabel could only say unhappily, “What should I do now? I can’t just let Tessie go alone to the premiere of Camille’s new movie. She’ll be so lonely! Uncle Landon, please let me go. If my dad looks for me, you can help me talk to him, and he won’t make things difficult for me. I’m begging you, please?”

Ysabel blinked her big, pitiful eyes.

“No, this time it seems your dad is really angry. You should wait for him to come back and talk to him in person. I don’t even know who posted the video of you and Tessa singing at the karaoke online, but it’s gone viral Ysabel, being the only girl in the Thorne family, was dearly loved by everyone.

Even though she couldn’t awaken as a wolf, no one looked down on her. Instead, they showered her with extra care and protection.

In his mind. Ysabel would find high end by the way to enter the city for further studies

Once her education was complete, if we

However, Ysabel had always loved singing and entering the day in to meet her musical ambitions

But her father, Ryan, strongly opposed this

In Ryan’s view, the werewolf entertainment industry was that they are filled with countless dangers and uncertainties. He would never allow her to enter the export to a complex environment.

Unexpectedly, Ysabel quickly gained fame online through that video. Within just a few days, the video’s views skyrocketed, easily surpassing two million, and she received widespread attention and discussion

“What? What short video? I didn’t know about this Year was voccred

Landon kindly opened the video for Yabel to watch.

“Ysabel, you’ve always wanted to sing, right? Maybe this a good start. Have a serious talk with your dad No matter what, at least you’ll have tried. You won’t regret it later”

Chapter 225 You Are Overthinking

Ysabel was beyond frustrated. She couldn’t understand how things had spiraled out of control like this.

She had grown up under her family’s overprotective care.

If it hadn’t been for her strong protests, she probably would’ve had a werewolf warrior accompanying her to and from school every day.

Although she knew her family’s actions were all out of concern and protection for her, this excessive protection felt like an invisible shackle, stripping away her right to choose freely and preventing her from pursuing the life she truly wanted.

It wasn’t that she didn’t want to resist. She had originally planned to wait until after high school, pick a college far from Navoris, and escape her father’s control. Then she could do whatever she wanted, chase her dream of music, and enter the entertainment industry.

But this suddenly viral video had completely messed up her plans.

Ysabel asked, troubled, “Uncle Landon, do you really think my dad will listen to me? You know how stubborn he is. The men of the Thorne family are so obsessed, they won’t listen to anyone else.”

That's your problem. I have things to do, so I'm leaving Landon said, completely indifferent to his niece's

Worries

Today, Ysabel couldn't meet Tessa, so Tessa would have time to spend with him instead.

Seeing Landon leave quickly, Ysabel called out, "Uncle Landon, Tessie is waiting for me at Wisteria Apartment. You can go with her to Camille's movie premiere instead. I don't want her going alone. I'm worried someone might bully her."

Landon stopped in his tracks, a smile tugging at his lips "Oh, I see! Since you want me to go so badly, then I'll go. With that, he hurried off even faster.

Ysabel's heart sank. She desperately wanted to go herself, but the thought of her father returning made her realize she couldn't.

After leaving the hospital, Tessa returned to Wisteria Apartment and received a box sent by Camille.

When she opened it, inside was a black dress, simple in design, but its quality was unmistakable.

There was also a note on top of the box.

Tessa, I specially bought this dress for you from abroad. You have to wear it, or our friendship will be over!"

The note had a faint ghost face drawn on the back.

Tessa was speechless but still took the 'dress out. After changing into it and letting her hair down, she heard a knock on the door and hurried to open it, thinking it was Ysabel,

She didn't expect to find Landon standing outside.

"Mr. Thorne, what are you doing here? Sorry. I've already made plans with Ysabel today, so I can't join you for dinner.

Landon leaned against the wall, effectively trapping her between the wall and his arms.

"Tessa, am I last on the list of people you know?"

"Of course not. Clearly, you're overthinking this. How could you be last?"

"Let's hope I'm just overthinking. You look beautiful today."

The sudden change of topic caught her off guard. Under his intense gaze, Tessa felt her heartbeat race and suddenly became dry-mouthed.

She licked her lips.

"Mr. Thorne..."

Before Tessa could finish her sentence, she smelled the pinewood pheromones emanating from him.

When she looked up, her eyes met his brown ones, filled with desire.

Tessa froze for a moment before Landon pulled her into his arms. His strong arm locked around her soft body, and he lowered his head, brushing his lips lightly over hers—both forceful and tender, as if declaring some kind of ownership.

“No matter what you wear, to me, it’s all too tempting

Tessa was speechless.

So, is it my fault for being so beautiful? That the Alpha of the Nightshade Pack always loses control like this?

Seeing Tessa’s expression, Landon chuckled. “Ysabel has something to do, so she can’t go with you to the premiere. I’ll go with you instead.”

His words left no room for refusal.

Chapter 226 I Will Get Upset

At the premiere venue, the lounge was filled with the faint scent of rose pheromones.

The premiere was about to begin, but the person Camille had been waiting for still hadn’t arrived. Her expression looked very unpleasant,

Her agent, seeing her like this, didn’t know how to comfort her.

“Camille, maybe Ms. Sinclair had something to take care of. The premiere is starting soon. Let’s go out first!”

Everyone was waiting on Camille, and letting it drag on like this wasn’t a solution either.

"I'm not going." Camille said stubbornly.

The agent was completely helpless. Just then, the lounge door opened, and Tessa appeared, wearing the outfit she had prepared.

The moment Camille saw Tessa, her eyes instantly filled with excitement.

"Tessie, you're finally here! I thought you ditched me again!" Camille looked at her pitifully, like a wolf pup forgotten by its owner, pouting, her eyes full of grievance.

little

Her agent almost couldn't bear to watch. After following Camille for so many years, she knew Camille had a bad temper, and wasn't easy to deal with.

Yet in front of Tessa, Camille had turned into a little soffie.

"Since I promised you I would come, I would have come no matter what," Tessa said.

Camille immediately wrapped her arms around Tessa's neck, a fluffy tail appearing and affectionately curling around her waist. "I know you're the best!"

Seeing Camille hugging his woman, Landon's face darkened.

Feeling Landon's unfriendly gaze, even knowing he was the Alpha of the Nightshade Pack, Camille still provocatively stuck out her tongue at him.

Tessie is Why can't other people hug her too?

isn't just

Landon snorted coldly but held himself back from releasing his Alpha pressure. After all, Camille was Tessa's good friend.

"Camille, time's up. We need to head out, her agent reminded her.

Only then did Camille withdraw her tail and let go of Tessa.

"Lynn and I will head over first. You take Tessie to the VIP seats, Camille said to her agent.

"No need. I can go myself. She's your agent. She should stay with you, Tessa declined.

She was just an audience member today. There was no need for an agent to follow her.

support her, she had to take good care of her.

Camille was taken away by the agent. Landon then pulled Tessa into his arms from behind.

"Don't let others lng you anymore. I'll get upset."

If he hadn't known Camille was someone important to Tessa, Landon would have ripped Camille's hands right off

Tessa raised an eyebrow.

"Even girls aren't allowed? How could he be this possessive

"No. Only I'm allowed to hold you like this."

It was the first time Tessa had seen such a childish side of Landon.

In the end, Tessa didn't answer him. She simply led Landon toward the screening hall.

By the time Tessa arrived, Camille was already on stage

Camille was the type of girl born for the spotlight.

Standing there, she shone brilliantly, especially since she had awakened the Redwolf Clan's charm ability, making her even more dazzling

The second female lead standing next to her instantly felt overshadowed.

The host, from the movie channel, had great stage presence and happened to be a big fan of Camille. Naturally, all his questions centered around Camille.

The second female lead in this film was Remi—the celebrity who had recently starred in the Dream Group Commercial.

Though they were both female leads in this movie, the host's focus stayed firmly on Camille, making Remi extremely uncomfortable.

Just then, another host finally shifted the topic to her.

“Ms. Remi. I heard Mr. Evan booked a full one hundred screenings for you this time. Are public?”

two going

The Mr. Evan he mentioned was Evan Morigan, Alpha of the Thornbane Pack—also the mastermind behind multiple assassination attempts against Landon

These days, he had another identity—a major investor in the werewolf entertainment industry.

Chapter 227 A Friend for Life.

In the past five years, Evans had continuously expanded his business empire, especially thriving in the entertainment industry, where he frequently made headlines and maintained an extremely high level of exposure.

Five years ago, Evan had challenged Landon to a fight and lost, and according to the contract, he had left Navoris with the Thornbane Pack.

For the past five years, he and the Thornbane Jack had been living in Los Anville, a city just as prosperous as Navoris.

However, his pride was too great for him to accept being beneath Landon, and he had repeatedly sent assassins to kill Landon, hoping that once Landon died, he could replace him as the Alpha King of Montedra.

Every time the assassination attempts failed and evidence surfaced, he managed to cleverly pin the blame on scapegoats to clear his name.

Evan understood Landon's ruthlessness well. To protect himself, he worked hard to raise his public profile.

He knew that as long as Landon did not have solid proof that he was behind the assassination attempts, Landon could not simply capture him or use private punishment against him.

Otherwise, public opinion alone could drag Landon down from his position as the Alpha King of Montedra.

Evan's calculations were indeed precise.

Even though Landon knew Evan was the one behind the assassination attempts, he had no real way to deal with him

Evan excelled at exploiting loopholes. Under the guise of business operations, he and his forces had slowly begun moving back into Navoris, but because the Thornbane Pack remained in Los Anville, it did not technically violate the contract.

This parasite-like behavior disgusted Landon and those in the know, but the majority of people still admired Evan for his power and wealth.

Whenever Evan's name came up, Remi couldn't help but feel incredibly proud. No matter how impressive Camille was, she didn't have a powerful backer—but Remi did. Evan was backing her.

Today, Evan had gone all out and booked one hundred showings of a movie just for her.

Remi flipped her hair and smiled as she said, “Mr. Evan has always treated me with great kindness, but we are not in the kind of relationship everyone imagines. I hope there won’t be any misunderstandings

This attempt at a denial only made her connection with Evan seem even more ambiguous,

After that, the host focused all the attention on Remi, especially on her rumored relationship with Evan,

It was the first time Camille had ever experienced the feeling of being completely ignored.

When it came time for reporters to ask questions, many of them had been paid off and kept steering the

But suddenly, a reporter shouted, “Oh my goodness! Someone else has booked theaters for Ms. Camille too

“Who is it?”

“No idea, but they actually booked ten thousand showings! It’s even trending on Twitter. They said anyone who likes Camille can go watch her movie for free, all the costs are covered?”

“What? Tha

insane! Who has that kind of power? Even Evan, a giant in the werewolf entertainment world, only booked one hundred showings for Rémi.”

In an instant, all attention shifted back to Camille. Everyone was dying to know who this mysterious, extravagant supporter was Ten thousand showings was unbelievable.

“Ms. Camille, who is this person?”

“Yes, Ms. Camille, do you have a new relationship?”

“Can you tell us a little more about them?”

Camille kept smiling and answered calmly, “Everyone, please calm down. Honestly, I never encouraged anyone to book theaters for me. I sincerely hope that the people coming to see my movie are those who truly love my work and support me. This friend of mine did it out of kindness, and I’m truly grateful.”

“A friend? Just a friend? What kind of friend would spend that much for you? This has never happened before!”

“My best friend. A friend for life.”

Camille’s face was full of smiles. She truly loved Tessa but wished Tessa hadn’t spent so much.

She had only wanted Tessa to come to the premiere, to see that Camille no longer needed protection. Camille had grown strong enough to stand on her own and to take care of, help, and protect Tessa in

But no matter how much time passed, Tessa was still the one who could protect her.

With a friend like that, Camille couldn't help but feel deeply moved, believing herself truly blessed.

Landon had personally watched as Tessa booked ten thousand showings for Camille and posted about it on Twister.

It was obvious she cared deeply for Camille, willing to fulfill any of her needs.

Although he knew it was just friendship between girls, the possessive Alpha Landon still couldn't help but feel a little jealous.

Chapter 228 Her Own Battle

After the premiere ended, Camille still had to attend the after-party, so she couldn't leave with Tessa and the others.

Tessa offered, "Let's go! I remember I still owe you a med?"

"That's more like it, Landon said, curling his lips in satisfaction. He was someone who was easily pleased.

Even though she said she would treat him to a meal. Tessa still had no idea what to eat. Tilting her head. she asked him, "Is there anything you really want to eat

Seeing her soft pink lips open and close, he couldn't help but stare, a little dazed.

“There is”

“What?” Since he already had something in mind, Tessa didn’t need to waste time thinking about it.

“Your”

Tessa felt like she was being flirted with again, standing there a little dazed. How can this man flirt with me anytime, anywhere?

Seeing her like that, Landon cupped her face and kissed her hard, savoring her sweetness.

Tessa was so shocked that she even forgot to resist. Just like that, she let Landon kiss her in front of everyone, Finally, Landon let out a satisfied sigh, released her, and happily took her to eat.

Even when they arrived at the restaurant, Tessa still felt like Landon’s breath lingered on her lips.

She worked hard not to think about the scene of him kissing her in public, trying to force her heartbeat to return to normal.

She couldn’t help but feel a little shy and annoyed. This man is really getting more and more out of control!

If it had been anyone else kissing her so casually, she would have taken them down already.

But since it was Landon, aside from feeling shy, she didn't reject it

Landon brought Tessa to a very upscale specialty restaurant. The place was decorated with a romantic atmosphere.

While they were eating, Tessa asked with some concern "What exactly is going on with Ysabel?"

They had agreed to meet up. If it wasn't something serious, she would never have missed it.

Landon pulled out his phone and showed Tessa the viral video.

"Your family doesn't support her being a singer, right?" She had heard Ysabel mention before that she wanted to become a singer, but her family was firmly against it.

She just hadn't expected it to be this serious enough that they wouldn't even let her leave the house..

"Yeah. My brother has a deep prejudice against the entertainment industry."

Then what about Ysabel?

Tessa immediately grabbed her phone and called Ysabel.

Unable to leave the house, Ysabel was in a terrible mood. But when she saw that it was Tessa calling, she rushed to her room to answer.

"Tessie, I'm sorry! I really had something come up, I didn't stand you up on purpose." She hated being stood up herself, and she knew Tessie must top.

“It’s fine. Are you okay?”

Hearing how concerned Tessa was, Ysabel immediately felt better and laughed, “I’m fine! Don’t worry!”

“As long as you’re fine. Do you need me to come pick you up?” If she wanted to come out. Tessa could figure something out.

“No need, Tessie. I’d better behave for a few days. Even though I haven’t officially debuted yet, after seeing that video, I’m even more determined. I want to be a singer, no matter what my dad thinks. It doesn’t matter. Ysabel said firmly.

No one could change her mind. She had made up her mind.

I support you. For a dream, Ysabel had to go all out.

“Alright, I have to go, my dad’s coming. Ysabel quickly hung up.

After hanging up, Tessa still didn’t feel completely at ease.

“Mr. Thorne, can you help Ysabel?”

Landon was the Alpha of the Nightshade Pack now. Even the Thorne family had to listen to him.

“Tessie, this is Ysabel’s own battle. It’s a trial she has to face herself. The Thome family might never hurt her, but what about the people in the entertainment industry? There’s no guarantee. Besides, she hasn’t awakened her wolf yet. If she can’t even convince her own family and win that fight, then I think she’s not ready to survive in the entertainment world, where danger and opportunity are mixed together.”

Tessa stayed silent. She knew he was right, but as Ysabel's friend, she still wished she could have an easier road.

"Come on, it's rare for us to have time together. Don't think about other people." He wanted her heart filled only with him.

Ysabel isn't just anyone. She's your niece."

"So you're treating Ysabel so well because of me?" If she nodded, he could consider saying a few good words to Ryan for her.

But Tessa wasn't good at picking up on hints like that. Instead, she just lowered her head and continued eating without saying what he wanted to hear.

Landon could only sigh heavily.

Winning her over was going to be a long, long road.

But that was okay. They had all the time in the world, and he was willing to take it slow—me step at a time until the day she let him all the way in

Chapter 229 She Is Disgusting

Early the next morning at Navoris High, Winona arrived at school and immediately saw Anna

The moment she saw Anna, Winona couldn't help but frown. Haven't I already arranged for Anna to transfer Everything's been set up for her. What is she still doing here?

Winona grabbed Anna's hand and dragged her into deserted alley beside the school.

"Anna, I already arranged a new school for you. Your life could have started over. Why are you still here? You have nothing to do with Navoris High anymore. Even if you come back, do you think your life will any better? Do you think Tessa will let you off?"

Winona's voice was low, her eyes filled with anger. A faint trace of werewolf energy radiated from her, carrying a hint of threat.

That matter should have ended there—as long as Anna stayed away, no one would ever expose the truth But she actually came back on her own!

"Winona, that school really isn't working out. You know my strength is weak. Those students bully me all the time, and I can't fight back. I really can't live like this anymore. Please help me."

Anna clutched Winona's hand tightly, like she was grabbing onto her last straw.

Being held onto like that made Winona extremely irritated.

What is she doing? Is this really necessary? Does she expect me to clean up the mess she made at her new school too?

"Anna, I've already done everything I could. You're the one who posted the pictures on the forum, and it had nothing to do with me. I helped you once. How can you keep pushing your luck like this?" Winona shook off Anna's hand. "I'm warning you, don't show up in front of me again, or I won't be polite. And watch your mouth. You should know what to say and what not to say,"

Anna stared at her in disbelief.

If Winona hadn't sent her those pictures in the first place, she never would have done something like that.

"Winona, if I can't live a good life, don't think you will either. I'm telling you, you better find me another school right now, or I won't let you off. Connor doesn't know about this yet, right? What do you think will happen if he finds out?"

After she said that, Anna turned and left without looking back.

Only now did she truly see Winona's true colors.

This woman is absolutely disgusting

Anna left.

Winona leaned against the wall and took a deep breath

Connor didn't know anything yet, and things were already this bad.

A vicious glint flashed in Winona's eyes.

If Anna insisted on making things difficult for her, then he wouldn't hold back either.

When Winona came out of the alley, she bumped into few of her followers

“Winnie, what were you doing in the alley?”

“Nothing. Don't ask,”

“Winnie, I just saw Anna too. Why is she coming back here.”

“How would I know why she's here? Do I look that free conversation. She just wanted to leave this place as so your Winona didn't want to continue this as possible.

But when she got to the school gate, she saw Anna still standing there, staring at her.

The hairs on the back of Winona's neck almost stood on end.

Dmn Anna! Why is she still here?

Just then, Tessa and Ysabel also showed up at the school entrance.

Seeing Anna about to head toward Tessa, Winona's eyes narrowed.

She immediately used her werewolf strength, sprinted over at full speed, grabbed Anna's hand, and dragged her away in a mad dash.

"Winnie?"

Her followers were completely stunned.

What the hell is going on?

But by then, Winona and Anna were already nowhere to be seen.

Chapter 230 I Will Support You

"What exactly happened? W would Anna come looking for Winona?"

"I heard Anna wasn't doing well at her new school at all. She was often bullied by the girls there. Once, she even had her clothes ripped off in public.

Anna's new school couldn't even be compared to Navors High. At that place, fights and brawls happened every day. In that kind of environment, a weak, obedient student like Anna definitely couldn't live well.

"That sounds bad."

"Yeah, it was bad. But what does that have to do with Wamic? Winnie's a good person, but even she can't help her."

Tessa and Ysabel had also noticed Anna, and they heard every word from Winona's little followers loud and clear.

"She deserved it. How dare she slander you!" Ysabel didn't feel the slightest bit sorry for Anna. Anyone who dared to hurt their Tessie deserved whatever happened to them.

Tessa didn't express any opinion on it.

Anna was just an irrelevant person. If she hadn't shown up today, Tessa would have completely forgotten she even existed.

"Anna transferred to Navoris Tenth High. That's the worst school in Navoris. Eight or nine out of ten students there are thugs, Ysabel continued explaining to Tessa.

"Not interested."

When it came to being a thug, probably no one could be worse than her.

"Alright, forget about her. She had it coming anyway. Who told her to be friends with Winona?" Ysabel pulled Tessa toward the school entrance.

"Ysabel, are you okay?" Tessa asked with concern.

Ysabel hadn't been herself all day, and she barely ate anything at dinner either.

"I'm fine. What could happen to me? Don't worry! I'm doing great."

Ysabel didn't want Tessa to worry. Besides, there was nothing anyone could do to help her with her current situation.

Tessa walked up and wrapped an arm around her shoulders.

Being held like that, Ysabel suddenly felt a wave of sadness rush over her.

"Tessir, you know what? If I could really choose where to be born, I'd rather be born into an ordinary pack. an ordinary family. That way, I could actually choose what I want to do."

Because of that video, her father had flown into a rage, thinking she had done it on purpose.

"Even if you were born into the Thorne family, you can still choose what you want to do. I'll support you

No matter what anyone said or did, she would always stand by Ysabel's side.

"Yeah." Ysabel was deeply moved.

After evening classes ended, Tessa got a call from Samuel. She immediately planned to go meet him

, but as soon as she walked out the school gates, she saw I and on waiting for her.

"What are you doing here?"

She had something important to take care of. No matter why he came, she couldn't leave with him.

Landon frowned.

She clearly doesn't want me here, or she wouldn't be making that face.

“What's wrong? Do you have something to do?”

Judging by her expression, she clearly wasn't planning to head back to Wisteria Apartment.

“Yeah, I have to go meet

someone now. Whatever it is, let's talk tomorrow, okay?”

Tessa felt she had explained it clearly enough.

Seeing the look in Alpha's eyes, Nathaniel, standing nearby, didn't even dare to speak.

He had come today to apologize to Ysabel. If it weren't for him, that video wouldn't have blown up like it did.

But now, he really felt like he shouldn't have come at all

“Can Heave now?” Tessa looked at Landon.

Landon nodded.

He couldn't say anything.

She always had so many important things to do, so many important people to see, and he never even made it onto her list.

Seeing him like that, Tessa felt a sharp pang in her chest.

But this matter was about Walter. It really was importan

“How about this? Go wait for me at Wisteria Apartment, okay?”

Tessa compromised.

She, who never knew what compromise meant, made aconcession because of the hurt look on Landon's face.

“Okay. No matter what it is, remember to take care of yourself”

Although, honestly, he had hoped he could go with her

But since she didn't say anything, he couldn't push her

Tessa knew Landon wanted to go.

with her.

But Samuel's identity was too sensitive.

Without Samuel's permission, even she couldn't reveal his whereabouts.

After all, in the werewolf world, Samuel was a rare and precious advanced-level doctor. He had already become a target every faction longed to get their hands on.
