Chapter 1461: Golden Core Eighth Layer_4

The intelligence from the Sky Meal Building was indeed formidable. With just one question, Chen Mobai learned the specific reason.

However, after hearing this, his attention was caught by the first sentence from Shen Shanqing.

“Sun Huangji and Sun Huanglong lead the Sun family’s experts back to their ancestral lands? Could it be that Sun Huangji wishes to undergo Nascent Soul Formation?”

Chen Mobai muttered to himself.

Sun Huangji, known as the number one expert in Dongwu, was also a disciple of a major East Land sect. He reached Perfect Core Formation nearly a hundred years ago, and his reputation was even greater than that of Xuan Shu, the Daoist Child of Xuan Xiao Taoist Palace.

Considering the time, he would soon pass his physical peak. If he delayed Nascent Soul Formation, it would only become more difficult.

“This is Sect Master Chen’s guess, not mine.”

When Shen Shanqing left, he specifically emphasized this point, which practically verified Chen Mobai’s speculation.

For any power, when a Golden Core Cultivator undergoes Nascent Soul Formation, it is a major event. They would surely guard against it meticulously and prevent precise information from leaking, to avoid enemies exploiting the opportunity.

If the Sun family knew that Shen Shanqing revealed this information, they would definitely be displeased, which could consequently affect the business of the Sky Meal Building in Dongwu.

“Chef Shen, please take your time leaving!”

After learning about this information, Chen Mobai immediately called Liu Wenbo back and rewrote a letter to Nu Jiang, informing him of this possibility. However, he did not let him go to Dongwu to investigate further. Instead, he asked him to feign ignorance, and he advised that the Five Elements Sect’s cultivators restrict themselves from entering Dongwu’s territory for the time being.

Sun Huangling tried to prevent the Five Elements Sect from finding Zhang Zibo to refine a heterodox Golden Core, yet gave Chen Mobai respect. It was clear that they wanted to ensure that no power beyond their control would arise in Dongwu’s territory during Sun Huangji’s Nascent Soul Formation.

Having understood this, Chen Mobai decided to watch and wait.

If Sun Huangji succeeded in Nascent Soul Formation, there would essentially be no need to worry about the major trouble in Yun Meng Ze.

With both Zhou Shengqing and Sun Huangji, even if they couldn’t defeat the Rank-4 Poisonous Dragon, they could still reinforce the seal and keep it imprisoned within the Yellow Dragon Cave Mansion without any problems.

But if Sun Huangji failed, the situation would be bittersweet for the Five Elements Sect.

The good thing would be the lack of strong neighbors. The worry, however, would be that in the future they may have to solely bear the brunt of Yun Meng Ze’s demonic beasts threat.

After sending Liu Wenbo out, Chen Mobai also took care of all the matters in Northern Abyss City.

After leaving, he called for E Yun and Yuan Chiye.

“Greetings, Sect Master!”

After the two entered, they respectfully saluted Chen Mobai.

“After Yue Zutao has left the sect, the position of Vice Hall Master of the Reward Virtue Hall is vacant. I intend to let Luo Xue’er return to take over the role. Her cultivation level and experience are sufficient to manage the Five Elements Meridians. However, I will make it clear to her that you will be handling the specific matters, and in the meantime, you will also replace me in exercising the Sect Leader’s duties at Giant Tree Ridge. Do you have confidence?”

Chen Mobai directly expressed his intentions to E Yun, his trusted subordinate.

“With the Sect Master’s trust, your disciple will surely live up to the expectations!”

E Yun’s voice was trembling when he said this, having waited for this moment for who knows how long.

Although he was only going back as a temporary leader,

That was still the Sect Leader!

Once Chen Mobai reached a higher level of cultivation, such as Nascent Soul Formation, he would naturally assume the position of Sect Leader.

Years of ambition finally seemed to be within reach at this moment, which made E Yun extremely excited.

“Then prepare to hand over your current affairs. After you return to Giant Tree Ridge, Yuan nephew will take over the matters in Northern Abyss City.”

Yuan Chiye, who was by the side, was slightly surprised upon hearing this, but he had expected it and thanked Chen Mobai immediately.

Since the two arrived in Northern Abyss City at the same time, Yuan Chiye was involved in all affairs, and thus in just three days, E Yun completed the handover and returned to Giant Tree Ridge with Chen Mobai.

Soon after, Luo Xue'er, who had been ordered, also returned and assumed the position of Vice Hall Master of the Reward Virtue Hall, continuing to accumulate contributions.

Meng Hong's failure in Core Formation did not deter her.

Her longing for Core Formation remained just as strong.

Chen Mobai held great respect for the determination of the cultivators here.

With E Yun now in Giant Tree Ridge, Chen Mobai once again started his role as a hands-off shopkeeper.

During this period, Zhou Wangshen returned once, bringing thirty servings of Five Elements Essence. He was very content; in another two years, he'd be able to condense a complete Primordial True Qi again.

After rewarding Zhou Wangshen, Chen Mobai took the Purple Jade Spirit Rice and went into seclusion at Mount Tianpeng, which was only half a month since he last left.

After another delightful night in Qing Nu's house, Chen Mobai handed her the Water Spirit Fruit.

"See if you can use this to refine a Water Primordial Golden Core Pill?"

Chen Mobai had once given the Alchemy Department the recipe for the Five Elements Golden Core Pill, but unfortunately, Zeng Woyou and the rest weren't skilled enough to improve these Rank-4 alchemy recipes.

This time, with Luo Xue'er's return, Chen Mobai remembered that if Qing Nu could refine the naturally occurring Core Formation Spirit Fruit into a Water Primordial Golden Core Pill, many could benefit.

Not just Qing Nu, but Luo Yixuan, Luo Xue'er, and possibly Yan Bingxuan or his daughter Chen Xiaohei when it's time for their Core Formation, could all make use of it.

“This may take quite some time. After all, my cultivation level is not high enough. I can only refine Rank-3 Elixirs at most,”

Qing Nu said seriously as she dressed herself and looked at the Water Spirit Fruit Chen Mobai had taken out. She indicated that even if the alchemy recipe was adapted with Eastern Wilderness’s medicinal ingredients, she wouldn’t be able to attempt it.

“It’s a pity that I gave that Water Attribute Heterodox Golden Core to Luo Xue’er; otherwise, you could directly obtain the power of the Golden Core Realm.”

At this point, Chen Mobai somewhat regretted having yielded to the pressure from Xuan Xiao Taoist Palace and prematurely given the Heterodox Golden Core to Luo Xue’er.

Qing Nu would definitely succeed in forming her Core; therefore, using a Heterodox Golden Core was safe.

“It does not matter, what I get is a blessing, what I lose is fate.”

Qing Nu seemed very open-minded about this. Seeing her enchanting body once again concealed by clothes, Chen Mobai managed to restrain his impulses with difficulty.

For the next half year, Chen Mobai stayed at Mount Tianpeng, accompanying Qing Nu.

Of course, during this half-year period, he consumed a Return to True Elixir every so often.

Thanks to the Quality of Food from the Vermilion Phoenix Facing the Sun Diagram, he didn’t have to worry about Dan Poison.

After finishing the five Return to True Elixirs, the progress on the Core Formation chapter of the Pure Yang Scroll had reached 98.7%.

If it were the old him, the remaining bit of progress might not have warranted using the last Return to True Elixir, and he would attempt to break through by refining Spiritual Energy.

But now, with Qing Nu in his arms, he no longer cared about that bit of progress.

Moreover, the materials for the second batch of Return to True Elixirs from Back to Sky Valley had already been delivered to Mount Tianpeng by Liu Wenbo a few days ago.

Adhering to the principles of the Sect of Realms, Chen Mobai took the sixth Return to True Elixir and, blessed by the Crown of Heaven and Earth, smoothly leveraged the enormous medicinal power to break through to the Golden Core Eighth Layer Realm.

For this breakthrough, he returned to Danxia Mountain.

With the support of the Rank-4 Superior Spirit Vein, Chen Mobai easily stabilized his realm.

At the same time, the signs of his breakthrough once again caused a sensation in the Immortal Gate.

75 years old, and a breakthrough to the Golden Core Seventh Layer!

The same age as the Yuanyang Ancestor when he had his breakthrough.

And if counted by days, Chen Mobai was even twenty days faster.

Undeniably the most talented person in the history of the Immortal Gate!

Chapter 1462: Haotian Mirror Level Up

Golden Core Seventh Layer is the last bottleneck before becoming a Nascent Soul.

After Chen Mobai breaks through this bottleneck, it signifies that he will soon become one of the strongest cultivators beneath the Nascent Soul.

From this moment on, the status of Nangong Xuanyu as the number one in Core Formation began to waver.

Many people believe that as long as Chen Mobai also reaches Perfect Core Formation, with his extraordinary swordsmanship talent, he will surely be no less than Nangong Xuanyu, or even surpass him.

Upon hearing this opinion, the students of Pure Yang Academy were displeased and began to engage in fierce debates online.

Chen Mobai also had a group of Crystal Fan, and both sides began to clash.

These matters were brought to Chen Mobai's attention by Xiao Hei, to which he merely smiled and let it go.

He no longer needed to prove anything in the Immortal Gate; now, he was rightfully the first in talent, and it was only a matter of time before he surpassed Nangong Xuanyu.

After his breakthrough, Chen Mobai received many messages.

He selectively replied to some and then continued to seclude himself in Danxia Mountain under the pretense of consolidating his realm.

Of course, in reality, he went to Liu Jia Mountain.

The Grand Spell, Origin Field Nourishing Fertility, had already completely transformed the Everlife Soil, but after absorbing a vial of Water of Ten Thousand Transformations, the three-level peak Golden Sun Spirit Tree had yet to take the step towards advancement.

Chen Mobai got the notice from Zhuo Ming, saying the best time for advancement had arrived, so he went to perform Pulling Seedlings to Promote Growth.

“Eh, Ming’er, your Ninefold Law Body has broken through!”

As soon as he arrived at Liu Jia Mountain, Chen Mobai discovered good news. The Zhuo Ming standing before him radiated with vital essence, and with a light step, a deep imprint formed on the ground.

“Reporting to Master, during the beginning of the year at the Spring Festival Cangshan Lake, when the Purple Jade Rice was fully mature and harvested, a persistent thought in my disciple’s mind dissipated, merging with the three hundred mu of Spirit Fields there, receiving the spiritual energy from the ley lines, helping me digest the power of the Nirvana Dan, leading to the natural breakthrough of my Ninefold Law Body.”

Ming’er happily began to explain the reason for her breakthrough.

Cultivating Rank-3 Spirit Rice was Zhuo Ming’s dream after Chen Mobai had imparted knowledge of Agricultural Studies to her. Over fifty years had passed, and she finally achieved this goal.

With the satisfaction that filled her heart, her breakthrough was as expected.

“Very good, very good.”

After listening, Chen Mobai was naturally overjoyed.

Among the four disciples under him, he had the highest expectations for Zhuo Ming.

After the Body Refining Technique broke through to Rank-3, even if Zhuo Ming could not achieve Enlightenment in Core Formation, she could still ensure successful Core Formation after consuming the Jade Return Pill.

“Master, this is the harvested Purple Jade Rice.”

While speaking, Zhuo Ming also handed over two large Storage Bags to Chen Mobai.

This Rank-3 Spirit Rice was the first of its kind to appear in the Eastern Wilderness and given the value placed on Spirit Rice in this region, if it were carelessly circulated in the market, it would definitely attract attention from various powers.

Especially because this Purple Jade Rice resembled Dari Purple Rice, it could easily lead to questioning by the Star Heaven Dao Sect.

For the time being, Chen Mobai didn't plan to start a conflict with this overlord of East Yu, so he had no intention of selling and circulating the Purple Jade Rice outside the sect.

Qing Nu had already researched and tested the Purple Jade Rice and confirmed that it indeed had an effect similar to Pure Yang Purple Qi to help break through bottlenecks, though it was very weak.

It was about continuously consuming it for around ten years to match half the effect of Pure Yang Purple Qi.

For Chen Mobai, this was naturally of little use.

But for other cultivators of the Five Elements Sect, it was tremendously effective.

Furthermore, under Chen Mobai's guidance, Qing Nu combined the Breakthrough Barrier Pill with the Purple Jade Rice to research a medicinal cuisine named Purple Jade Porridge.

Taking this medicinal porridge for about a year or two could help dissolve barriers, and with consistent long-term use, the effect improves until one breaks through the bottleneck.

However, after helping a cultivator break through a bottleneck once, its effects would significantly weaken if consumed again.

Even so, this Purple Jade Porridge could at least raise the overall strength of the Five Elements Sect by one level.

At the very least, figures like Fu Zongjue could use it to break through to the Core Formation Late Stage.

This achievement would definitely be accredited to Qing Nu by Chen Mobai, and he planned to use this event to bring her into the sight of the Five Elements Sect.

By then, when Fu Zongjue and others break through their bottlenecks with Qing Nu's help, they would probably warmly welcome her to join them as Chen Mobai's Daoist couple.

After storing the Purple Jade Rice within his Domain, Chen Mobai arrived at the summit of Liu Jia Mountain.

Gazing at the Golden Sun Spirit Tree before him, he closed his eyes to listen with the Echoes in the Void. After a long while, he opened his eyes with regret.

It was indeed extremely difficult for a Spirit Plant to advance.

Even with an environment enriched with Everlife Soil and a vial of Wanhua water, the Golden Sun Spirit Tree was still unable to rely on itself to take the transformative step.

"Ming'er, communicate with it using the All Things Spiritual Communication as well. If there's no problem, then your Master will perform Pulling Seedlings to Promote Growth."

Chen Mobai's Echoes in the Void had a broader range of application than Zhuo Ming's All Things Spiritual Communication, but in the specific scope of Spirit Plants, she was indeed more specialized than him.

After learning about the Immortal Spirit Root, Chen Mobai realized that during her Wen Dao, Zhuo Ming had obtained a top-tier Immortal Technique.

This technique, which practically contained the Great Tao of the Heavenly Earth Origin, could continuously improve with the cultivator's advancement in realm. Who knows how far Zhuo Ming could go relying on this Daoist Skill?

Chapter 1463: Haotian Mirror Level Up_2

As he pondered, Chen Mobai recalled his Pure Yang Daoist Body and, in fact, not long ago, his Nine Suns Physique had already shown signs of its first transformation.

However, at that time, he primarily focused on consuming the Return to True Elixir to break through realms, thus temporarily halting his cultivation using supreme-grade Spirit Stones; he planned to fully concentrate on raising his Fire Spirit Root to 100 points and attempt to experience the Welcoming the Dao of the Immortal Spirit Root after settling all current affairs.

Seeing how outstanding Zhuo Ming was, Chen Mobai too was filled with expectations for the moment he would attain the Immortal Fire Spirit Root.

Besides this, he also prepared to strive to elevate his Earth Spirit Root to 100 points.

Should he obtain an Innate Earth Essence Qi during his Welcoming the Dao, he would truly meet the cultivation requirements for the Primordial Dao Fruit. This would allow him to enter the First Origin Dao Palace in the future with rightful confidence.

“Master, the Golden Sun Spirit Tree has indicated that there are no issues; it has made complete preparations.”

At this moment, Zhuo Ming had finished communicating with the Golden Sun Spirit Tree and reported back to Chen Mobai, who nodded, signaling the two ladies to step back, and then extended his hand to perform the Art of Encouraging Growth.

Yin Qingmei also knew this Grand Spell, but after over twenty years of bitter cultivation, she had only reached the Third Rank.

Thus, whenever she saw Chen Mobai casually executing Fourth Rank level spells, Yin Qingmei, who knew better than anyone the difficulty of mastering such Grand Spells, was profoundly shocked by her foster father's innate talent for spells.

She definitely wouldn't think it was because she was inept, as her talent was among the top within the Five Elements Sect.

Yet, she couldn't match up to Chen Mobai, not even close; imagining his level of talent was truly astounding.

While Yin Qingmei was astonished by Chen Mobai's Fourth Rank Art of Encouraging Growth, the Golden Sun Spirit Tree, having been illuminated by Spiritual Light, finally took the step to advance.

Originally dozens of meters tall, the Golden Sun Spirit Tree began to surge towards the sky, its thick branches spreading the outer bark and sprouting tender green new leaves, which within the blink of an eye, grew into two palm-sized verdant green leaves.

Every leaf narrated the power of life, every branch crazily stretched towards the sky, roots drilling more deeply into the earth like serpentine dragons, and the trunk visibly expanded two or three times.

Gradually, the summit of Liu Jia Mountain began trembling, seemingly struggling to support the now massive Golden Sun Spirit Tree.

Chen Mobai slightly furrowed his brows at this scene, but before he could intervene, Yin Qingmei and Zhuo Ming had already flown out, each channeling their own Spiritual Power.

Yin Qingmei controlled the Destiny Spirit Plant on the mountain peak, using its roots to stabilize Liu Jia Mountain's structure and sorting the somewhat disrupted nature's spiritual energy.

Meanwhile, Zhuo Ming communicated with the Earth Spirit Veins through the All Things Spiritual Communication, guiding them to calm and even transferring energy to assist the Golden Sun Spirit Tree in its advancement.

Gradually, the transformation of the Golden Sun Spirit Tree ceased, and it became a colossal tree that shaded the sun, with lush branches and leaves.

Its canopy resembled a huge green umbrella, covering most of Liu Jia Mountain, and the expanded tree bark marked the traces of this advancement.

It was nearly a replica of the three Divine Trees at Giant Tree Ridge.

However, this Golden Sun Spirit Tree had just advanced and was only about a fraction of the size of the Divine Trees, not to mention compared to the Great Dao Tree in the Divine Tree Secret Realm.

And at that moment, dark clouds had already amassed above in the sky, accompanied by the roar of thunder, with hints of crystalline blue cold flashes twinkling.

After the Golden Sun Spirit Tree advanced to become the Everlife Wood, the Heavenly Tribulation also followed!

Chen Mobai was curious to see the power of a Fourth Order Spirit Plant's Heavenly Tribulation, thus did not cast One-Leaf Blindness.

Moreover, when he previously listened with the Echoes in the Void, he discovered that the Golden Sun Spirit Tree still had much of the Water of Ten Thousand Transformations undigested within it, as it was previously only at Third Rank Peak.

This was the perfect opportunity to use the Heavenly Tribulation to help disperse and refine the Water of Ten Thousand Transformations for integration.

Apart from this reason, Chen Mobai also planned to use this opportunity to re-forged his Haotian Mirror by utilizing the Heavenly Tribulation.

This Lifespan Artifact, during Yin Qingmei's previous Core Formation, had undergone a Heavenly Tribulation and reached Third Rank Peak.

Over the years, Yin Qingmei had cultivated some spirituality in the Haotian Mirror using the methods taught by Chen Mobai. When Chen Mobai last came to collect Pure Yang Purple Qi, he had already sensed the nascent signs of spirituality, but it was still lacking a specific opportunity.

Chen Mobai thought that this Heavenly Tribulation might provide just that opportunity.

Following his instructions, Yin Qingmei immediately took out the Haotian Mirror and threw it towards the edge of the Heavenly Tribulation in the sky.

Boom!

At the same time, the Heavenly Tribulation descended, a series of crystalline blue thunderbolts with cold flashes striking the newly advanced Everlife Wood.

Accompanied by rising clear bright Spiritual Light, the Everlife Wood utilized its own strength to block this first wave of cold thunder.

But then came the second wave, the third wave...

Wave after wave of cold thunder like sharp cold blades or shocking surging waves continuously struck the giant canopy covering the sky.

Amid the creaking noises, the Everlife Wood finally began to falter slightly, emerald-like green leaves started breaking off from branches, afterward crystalizing and falling to the ground, shattering like glass jades.

Chapter 1464: Haotian Mirror Level Up_3

As leaf after leaf disintegrated, the Sacred Tree Divine Light on the surface of the newly advanced Everlife Wood also began to dim, seemingly unable to hold on any longer.

Chen Mobai immediately took control of the Haotian Mirror, pouring his vast and boundless Pure Yang Spiritual Power into it. In an instant, the mirror burst forth with a beam of intense aurora, piercing straight into the very center of the Heavenly Tribulation.

With his current realm of the Golden Core Eighth Layer, activating a Lifespan Artifact at the Third Rank Peak, he was practically invincible to anyone under Nascent Soul.

However, since this Heavenly Tribulation targeted a Fourth Order Spirit Plant, even though it was penetrated by the Haotian Mirror, dissipating some of its energy, it still reassembled a crystalline blue cold thunder, even beginning to condense as if preparing for a final burst.

Chen Mobai immediately maneuvered the Haotian Mirror, radiating with Mysterious Yang Divine Light, flying straight towards the center of the Heavenly Tribulation.

Connected to his Lifespan Artifact with heart and mind, he quickly sensed the trembling of the Haotian Mirror.

Facing the Fourth Rank Heavenly Tribulation, although it also possessed a Fourth Rank Everlife Wood frame, it still felt like a frail boat amidst tumultuous waves, as if a single misstep could lead to total disintegration, to be devoured and shattered by the Heavenly Tribulation.

Under this stimulation, at the deepest part of the Haotian Mirror, finally emerged the first thread of spiritual consciousness!

And at the instant when the spiritual consciousness was born, Chen Mobai felt as if his Lifespan Artifact underwent a metamorphosis, not even needing his command or control, it began to draw the surrounding Solar Essence, forming strands of blazing white fire, transforming into the Great Sun Fire which countered the crystalline blue cold thunder.

The Great Sun Fire surged at the epicenter of the Heavenly Tribulation, instantly igniting all energy of the yet to peak Heavenly Tribulation!

In the sky, amidst the vast cloud, a streak of golden light shone, as if sunlight scattering darkness.

But the moment the dark clouds dispersed, the sky was full of crystalline blue cold thunder, like a meteor shower, raining down upon the Everlife Wood canopy that enveloped half of Liu Jia Mountain.

However, facing these scattered bursts of Tribulation Thunder, the Everlife Wood, having fully absorbed and refined the Water of Ten Thousand Transformations, raised a thick and clear Sacred Tree Divine Light, blocking them all with neither ease nor difficulty.

At this moment, all cultivators and even mortals in Rainbow County looked up to witness two suns appearing in the sky.

Luo Yixuan, leading cultivators to reclaim Dark Water, glanced towards the direction, her expression changing. She instructed the disciples of the Five Elements Sect below, then immediately set out towards Liu Jia Mountain.

Upon her arrival, she was slightly startled to see the towering Everlife Wood.

“Sister, why have you come!”

Zhuo Ming’s voice rang in Luo Yixuan’s ears; she looked down to see him waving at her from the roots of the Everlife Wood.

Luo Yixuan looked up into the sky and naturally spotted her master, the one controlling the second sun.

Not daring to disturb Chen Mobai, she promptly flew down to ask Zhuo Ming.

“The master is currently using his extraordinary Artifact Refining Technique to nurture the Haotian Mirror, preparing to upgrade this Lifespan Artifact to Rank-4...”

After hearing Zhuo Ming’s words, Luo Yixuan showed an expression that seemed to say ‘as expected.’

At that time, additional streaks of Spiritual Light arrived.

It was Yan Yuanhao and other Foundation Establishment Practitioners from the Five Elements Sect who were the town guards of Rainbow County.

However, they didn't dare to fly up and landed at the foot of Liu Jia Mountain instead.

Zhuo Ming went down the mountain to communicate with them, and knowing that the Sect Leader was here, Yan Yuanhao and the others returned with peace of mind.

Seven days and nights later!

The second sun above Rainbow County finally dimmed.

Chen Mobai descended, continuously twirling the successfully upgraded Haotian Mirror in his hand.

"Xuan'er is here too!"

He smiled and nodded upon seeing Luo Yixuan.

Soon, they were sitting together.

Yin Qingmei looked at the Haotian Mirror in Chen Mobai's hands, which was radiating Spiritual Light and occasionally flashing sparks, her gaze burning with desire.

This was a Fourth-grade Magical Weapon!

In the entire Five Elements Sect, even in the Eastern Wilderness, they were few and far between!

However, she also had some worries, afraid that after the Haotian Mirror was upgraded to Rank-4, her task would be complete, and Chen Mobai wouldn't let her handle and nurture it.

“This Haotian Mirror has just been upgraded to Rank-4, and its spiritual nature is still unstable. For the following period, I will need to temper it with Divine Sense and Spiritual Power...”

The moment Chen Mobai said this, Yin Qingmei couldn't help but bite her lip, her expression becoming lost and her eyes dimming.

“After I have finished its tempering, I will give it to Qingmei to manage.”

But the latter half of his sentence brought light back into Yin Qingmei's eyes. She immediately nodded repeatedly, indicating her readiness to serve the Sect Leader whenever required.

Having said all this, Chen Mobai retracted the Haotian Mirror into his body.

This Lifespan Artifact, long absent, returned to the Dantian Qi Sea, where the matching Pure Yang Spiritual Power nourished it like a fish in water. Its newly born spiritual nature conveyed a sense of pure joy, and in the most suitable environment, it began to thrive and was branded with a mark exclusively belonging to Chen Mobai.

Shortly after, Chen Mobai felt that a good two to three parts of the Pure Yang Spiritual Power in his Dantian Qi Sea had been absorbed by the Haotian Mirror. He immediately opened the Small Void to replenish it, making sure not to leave the Haotian Mirror wanting.

While attending to this task, he also engaged in conversation with Zhuo Ming and the other two women.

“Master, why didn't you inform me of your arrival in Rainbow County? To witness the Everlife Wood and Haotian Mirror's advancement, such events might not occur again in one's lifetime.”

Chapter 1465: Haotian Mirror Level Up_4

Luo Yixuan said somewhat coquettishly, she was not really fond of joining the hustle, but she hoped to experience everything by Chen Mobai's side.

“This is just to avoid delaying your progress in opening up the Dark Water area. Next time, when the Golden Sun Spirit Tree in Northern Abyss City levels up, I will surely invite you to visit, and then I will also use the Heavenly Tribulation to refine the Haotian Mirror again...”

Chen Mobai regards each of his disciples as if they were his own children, so since Luo Yixuan had spoken, he etched this matter in his heart.

“Okay, Master, it’s a promise!”

Luo Yixuan, having received Chen Mobai’s promise, looked very happy.

Following that, Chen Mobai took Zhuo Ming’s pulse and guided her in her next steps in the Art of Body Refining.

However, before reaching Core Formation, her Ninefold Law Body definitely wouldn’t have any breakthroughs, but afterward, due to her strong constitution, she could freely consume Rank-3 Spirit Rice Elixirs and so on.

Chen Mobai instructed her to start taking Coiling Dragon Spirit Rice daily; this Rank-3 superior-grade Spirit Rice, especially beneficial in conjunction with the Body Refining Technique, is the best Spirit Rice in Eastern Desolation and even in the East Continent.

Before, Chen Mobai had obtained some Coiling Dragon Spirit Rice from Kong Lingling’s Storage Bag, but these past years, Zhuo Ming, mixing it with Rank-2 Spirit Rice, had already finished it.

“I will speak to E Yun about this; starting this year, my portion of Rank-3 Spirit Rice will be transferred to you.”

After Yan Shaoyin left Eastern Desolation, Back to Sky Valley was compliant with all of Chen Mobai’s requests; although most of the Coiling Dragon Spirit Rice was taken by the Starry Sky Commerce Guild, some was still allotted to Back to Sky Valley.

Chen Mobai wasn't demanding, he directly purchased it at the normal market price, allowing Back to Sky Valley to prioritize supplying it to the Five Elements Sect.

After all, many Golden Core Cultivators in the Five Elements Sect require Rank-3 Spirit Rice.

Previously, when the Purple Jade Rice had not yet matured, there was only the Rank-3 Clear Bamboo Spirit Rice available, which was not produced in large quantities, barely enough to taste, not even sufficient for daily consumption by Fu Zongjue.

So generally, purchases were made from the East Barbarians and Back to Sky Valley.

Chen Mobai had no need for Coiling Dragon Spirit Rice, so he had saved on this expense these past few years.

But now that Zhuo Ming needed it, he didn't hesitate.

He directly asked the sect to transfer his portion.

Regarding this matter, Zhuo Ming was of course extremely grateful.

"There's one more thing, your Ninefold Law Body was obtained when I originally killed a Foundation Establishment cultivator at Mountain Shaker Peak; it only has six layers. If Ming'er wants to enhance her physical strength to Rank-4 after Core Formation, you will definitely need the subsequent cultivation techniques."

"This Body Refining Technique is said to have been passed down from Jiangshan Pavilion, one of the Hall of Ten Directions of the Eastern Emperor Court, and it has nine layers in total. I will ask Five Elements Sect and Wen Bo to help you investigate the remaining three layers."

"But, Ming'er, you should also pay attention to this; as a person the Earth deems 'possessing great fate,' by remembering this matter, you may have unexpected gains."

Moreover, Chen Mobai mentioned the issue of Zhuo Ming's Ninefold Law Body; initially, obtaining six layers was thought to be sufficient, but who knew Zhuo Ming's talent in Earth Attribute Techniques, so excellent and accompanied by astonishing fate.

"Yes, Master!"

Zhuo Ming solemnly nodded, indicating that she had taken note of the matter.

"You shouldn't focus too exclusively on the Ninefold Law Body; your future lies with the Earth Immortality Scripture. If you manage to master this Great Technique, perhaps you could even complete the latter part of the Ninefold Law Body yourself."

Nevertheless, to avoid Zhuo Ming becoming too fixated in the future, Chen Mobai still offered a precautionary word.

After all, the Art of Body Refining is only supplementary, the foundation for cultivators lies in their Realm!

If Zhuo Ming could master the Yellow Emperor's Benevolence Scripture and combine it with her Lifespan Artifact, the All-things Altruistic Cauldron, her achievements would be boundless; she must not let the Ninefold Law Body become an obstruction.

Having guided Zhuo Ming, Chen Mobai then bid farewell to Yin Qingmei, taking Luo Yixuan, and they left Liu Jia Mountain together.

Chen Mobai took his disciple along the way to inspect the canal developed in Dark Water.

The more people, the greater the strength.

Under the help of countless loose cultivators from Five Elements Sect and even the entire Eastern Desolation Plateau, as well as cultivator families that tasted the benefits of contracting, the progress of this final river was one tenth faster than he had anticipated.

Of course, Chen Mobai did not forget to praise Luo Yixuan, the person in charge, who was indeed very pleased upon hearing his words.

Leaving Rainbow County, Chen Mobai went to Northern Abyss City to take the teleportation array, and incidentally inspected this future core immortal city of the Eastern Desolation.

The results also left him very satisfied.

Although the person in charge of the immortal city changed from E Yun to Yuan Chiye, the former had taken a batch of his own trusted followers back to Giant Tree Ridge, yet the latter followed the previous rules, ensuring that most cultivators in Northern Abyss City did not feel the change in leadership.

Seeing Northern Abyss City as it had always been, Chen Mobai also complimented Yuan Chiye before he went to the peak of North Abyss Mountain to examine the Everlife Soil he had treated with Origin Field Nourishing Fertility.

The situation was very promising.

Although the transformation pace slowed down a bit without Zhuo Ming's care, it was expected that by this time next year, it would almost be upgraded to Rank-4 Everlife Soil.

Chen Mobai then checked the Golden Sun Spirit Tree he had transplanted at the mountain peak, which seemed to have a slightly better spiritual nature than the one on Liu Jia Mountain.

He took out a tube of Water of Ten Thousand Transformations and diluted a drop.

“Water it every day until it's done!”

He handed the diluted Spiritual Water to Yuan Chiye, who immediately took it with both hands, respectfully nodded, and indicated that he would definitely complete the task.

After completing these inspections, Chen Mobai then took the city's teleportation array, and after several transfers through Fang Market, arrived at Mount Tianpeng.

"This is the method, let the Golden Core Cultivators of your sect consume this for a year or two, and they should be able to break through their bottlenecks."

In front of Chen Mobai, Qing Nu demonstrated the method of making Purple Jade Porridge, which was quite simple; in a spiritual energy rice cooker of the immortal gate, she placed Purple Jade Rice along with some Breakthrough Barrier Pill ingredients, then selected the "Cook Porridge" mode.

Fortunately, this rice cooker had been modified by Chen Mobai, only requiring the input of spiritual energy to operate, mainly considering that Fu Zongjue and others might not know how to use it.

"Much appreciated!"

After spending another night on Mount Tianpeng, the following day, Chen Mobai took a full rice cooker of Purple Jade Porridge back to Giant Tree Ridge.

He went directly to see Fu Zongjue!

"Junior Brother, there really is such a mysterious pill-refining instrument in the world!"

Fu Zongjue was greatly shocked after hearing the explanation about the functions of the spiritual energy rice cooker from Chen Mobai.

"When I was at my Core Formation stage, didn't I encounter a mysterious and unusual senior in The Barren? The Return to the Sun Spirit Water that Brother Zhou received before was refined by him."

"Not long ago, I met this senior's disciple. With her help, I refined a batch of Return to True Elixirs, achieved a breakthrough in my Cultivation Realm, and am about to reach Perfect Core Formation!"

“Later, I also asked her if there was any pill that could help my brother break through his bottleneck. She gave me this medicinal cooking instrument called a rice cooker. You just need to put these medicinal ingredients and Purple Jade Rice inside, add an appropriate amount of clean water, and it will automatically cook the porridge. Consuming it for a year or two can naturally break through the bottlenecks of the Mid Foundation Establishment Stage!”

After listening to Chen Mobai’s words, Fu Zongjue was shocked by the young age of his junior and his imminent achievement of Perfect Core Formation. He also felt deeply moved.

To have such a senior figure remember him, his brother.

Junior Brother Chen is the most sincerely good person he has met in the Eastern Desolation!

Having him as his junior brother is the greatest fortune in Fu Zongjue’s life!

Chapter 1466: Pure Yang True Qi

Fu Zongjue, upon learning about the effects of the Purple Jade Porridge, didn’t care that Chen Mobai was right in front of him and finished the entire pot of Spiritual Energy Rice Cooker’s porridge in one go.

After he finished, he even let out a satisfied burp, then joyfully hugged the Spiritual Energy Rice Cooker and bid farewell.

“Junior Brother Chen, I am going to enter closed-door cultivation for a year or two. Call for me if you need anything.”

After learning the simple recipe of the Purple Jade Porridge from Chen Mobai, Fu Zongjue, who had been stagnated by a bottleneck for over a dozen years, suddenly felt invigorated.

If one’s realm could breakthrough, who would want to waste their time on outsider techniques like the Puppetry Technique daily?

“Don’t worry, Brother Fu. I have got the sect covered!”

Chen Mobai originally planned to purchase three Spiritual Energy Rice Cookers from the Immortal Gate for Fu Zongjue, Nu Jiang, and Sheng Zhaoxi.

But upon further thought, considering the closeness of relationships, he decided to arrange it first for Fu Zongjue.

Once Fu Zongjue successfully breaks through, Nu Jiang and Sheng Zhaoxi will naturally come to know about this matter, and then he could pass on the Spiritual Energy Rice Cooker from Fu Zongjue to them.

This way, it would be more effective in winning people’s hearts.

Nu Jiang and Sheng Zhaoxi would think, sharing such a precious item with them, Chen Mobai genuinely treats them as his own, laying a foundation for the complete unification of the Five Veins in the future.

After sorting out this matter, Chen Mobai had Gu Yan summon E Yun.

Even though E Yun was competent, he had only just begun to lead the Three Halls and Twelve Divisions of the sect, and Chen Mobai was somewhat apprehensive.

But it turned out that the Three Halls and Twelve Divisions gave him face, knowing that E Yun was his direct line, and basically obeyed and accepted the role of replacing Yue Zutao.

Thus, Chen Mobai could return to Mount Tianpeng with peace of mind.

Qing Nu was refining the second batch of Return to True Elixirs; although she did not need his help, she was very happy with him by her side.

Sometimes, the formation rate and quality of a batch of elixirs depend on the state and mood of the Alchemist during the refining process, which would significantly improve when the mood is smooth.

While Qing Nu was refining elixirs, Chen Mobai was beside her, pondering the enhancement of the Fire Spirit Root while refining the Five Elements Essence.

This batch of thirty portions was slightly better in quality than the first, showing that with time to hone skills and a willingness to improve, one can gradually grow.

With the previous experience, refining the Five Elements Essence this time went smoothly. In just a month and a half, Chen Mobai had refined all thirty portions of Five Elements Essence.

In his Middle Dantian, he now had one large and two small portions of Primordial True Qi.

Under the control of his Divine Sense, the two smaller portions of Primordial True Qi began to slowly merge.

This process did not last long, approximately after seven days, the two smaller portions combined into half a portion of Primordial True Qi.

At this rate, in another two years, he could cultivate a complete portion of Primordial True Qi.

Honestly, this progress was already very fast.

According to the records of the Primordial Dao Fruit, one needs to cultivate forty-nine portions of Primordial True Qi to begin condensing the embryonic form of the Dao Fruit and officially step into the threshold of the supreme divine technique of the First Origin Dao Palace.

For a Golden Core Cultivator, that is nearly an impossible feat.

Originally, the Primordial Ancestral Master relied on a complete Five Elements Spiritual Fruit, and Zhou Ye used the same method, both relying on external resources.

Cultivators were originally known as Qi Practitioners, condensing strands of True Qi nearly equivalent to the essence of heaven and earth, to comprehend the true essence of Cultivation Techniques and the natural rhythm of all things.

And due to different attributes of Spiritual Power, the True Qi condensed would naturally differ.

For instance, Zhou Shengqing practiced the Qing Emperor's Longevity Scripture. Before his Nascent Soul Formation, he condensed nine strands of Longevity True Qi.

With nine strands of Longevity True Qi, he could autonomously initiate the Nascent Soul Formation process; the more he condensed, the deeper his foundation was.

But the limit of the Longevity Scripture was eighteen strands of Longevity True Qi.

Later, Zhou Shengqing obtained the Qing Emperor's Longevity Scripture and, with a higher realm after Nascent Soul Formation and his own understanding, he supplemented some parts, allowing him to condense up to twenty-four strands of Longevity True Qi before Nascent Soul Formation.

In the Tianhe Realm, this is considered a very exceptional Nascent Soul Cultivation Method already.

If Chen Mobai were to form a Nascent Soul using the Pure Yang Scroll, then he would need at least thirty-six strands of Pure Yang True Qi, and the upper limit of this Immortal Gate's Divine Transformation Technique is eighty-one strands of Pure Yang True Qi.

The Primordial Dao Fruit, as a Divine Skill left by an Ascended Monk, has a minimum requirement of forty-nine strands of Primordial True Qi, but there is no record of its maximum limit.

Chen Mobai originally suspected that Zhou Ye might have held back some teachings, but at that time, Zhou Ye had made a Daoist Heart Oath, assuring that he had relayed the full teachings of the Primordial Ancestral Master to Chen Mobai.

Thus, Chen Mobai had two guesses.

One is that even the Primordial Ancestral Master did not receive the complete transmission of the Primordial Dao Fruit, or alternatively, the Primordial True Qi condensed by this Primordial Dao Fruit might not have an upper limit!

After all, the so-called upper limit is merely in respect to a cultivator at Perfect Core Formation.

Once a cultivator breaks through to the Nascent Soul Realm, how much True Qi they can condense only depends on whether their body can contain it and if their Divine Sense can control it.

For this issue, Chen Mobai did not continue to delve deeper.

After all, he cultivated the Primordial Dao Fruit mainly because it could help him safely navigate the critical transition from Broken Elixir to Infant, and the breaking through of Five Elements Spiritual Power, etc., were merely additional benefits.

After synthesizing the half portion of Primordial True Qi, Chen Mobai began to focus his attention on the fundamental Pure Yang Scroll.

Chapter 1467: Pure Yang True Qi_2

The Realm of Gold Core Eighth Layer already allows the initiation of Condensing Pure Yang True Qi.

Seated at the summit, beneath the reviving Five-Cornered Ancient Maple, Chen Mobai took out a wisp of Pure Yang Qi he obtained from the Repairing Heaven Institute.

But Chen Mobai quickly discovered that he was unable to refine it.

Because the grade of this Pure Yang Qi was simply too high, it was Rank-5 True Qi left by Yuanyang Ancestor, and even just a wisp was immensely heavy and majestically vast for him.

Although he was known to have the Qualification of Deification, he was after all just a Golden Core Cultivator.

This Rank-5 Pure Yang Qi, even Nascent Soul Cultivators of the Pure Yang Scroll, would need to be extremely cautious and proceed slowly like a serpent swallowing an elephant.

For Chen Mobai at his current Realm, attempting to refine Rank-5 Pure Yang Qi was like an ant trying to swallow an elephant.

However, though unable to refine it, it was of great use as a reference.

If Chen Mobai were to condense Pure Yang True Qi on his own, it would require slow exploration; now, he merely needed to directly reference this Rank-5 Pure Yang Qi.

The joy of copying an answer, he loved it the most.

He sat under the Five-Cornered Ancient Maple, utilizing the Fire spiritual power that revived due to the Spirit Plant, and began to mobilize Pure Yang Spiritual Power, constantly condensing and fusing it.

Even with Yuanyang Ancestor's Pure Yang Qi as a reference, it was still extremely difficult for him.

A full three days passed, and he had made only a bit of progress.

He estimated with the Guidance Book that it might take two years to transform the first wisp of Pure Yang True Qi.

After all, whether in Immortal Gate or Tianhe Realm, it was generally only cultivators with Perfect Core Formation who would try to condense True Qi.

His Cultivation Realm still fell short.

Some other cultivators might grit their teeth and begin this laborious process.

Or they might wait to try again after achieving Perfect Core Formation.

But Chen Mobai was not that kind of person!

When he encountered difficulties, he would always deal with them using his consistently successful experiences.

Moreover, he had long anticipated this point and already thought of a solution.

With a thought, his Domain opened.

Down fell a Spirit Sealing Tube containing Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy, which he had condensed previously at Giant Tree Ridge.

The Purple Green Demon Refining Heavenly Book had already been fully deciphered with the help of the Crown of Heaven and Earth, so he completely understood the origin, condensing methods, and effects of Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy.

This Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy, in addition to nurturing and cultivating Nascent Souls, could combine with any Spiritual Power to transform into postnatal True Qi.

Chen Mobai today wants to test this function.

After telling Qing Nu about this through a message, he opened the Spirit Sealing Tube and absorbed a wisp of Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy into his body.

Under the control of his Divine Sense, the Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy settled into his Dantian Qi Sea.

The waiting Pure Yang Spiritual Power began to surge, combining with this wisp of Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy.

At this instant, Chen Mobai felt as if a miniature sun was lit within his Dantian, a supremely pure Yang hot energy was bred and born.

Chen Mobai immediately entered the state of the Guidance Book, leading the Pure Yang Spiritual Power to merge with the Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy in the most pure and calm state, the former began to sublimate and evolve, transforming into a higher quality energy.

In the depth of the Dantian Qi Sea, streaks of Pure Yang Spiritual Power, like stars surrounding the moon, ceaselessly approached the center of the Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy, where roughly ten parts of Pure Yang Spiritual Power could blend with one part of Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy.

In this refining and purifying process, this newly formed force converged into a mass.

This is Pure Yang True Qi!

As soon as it was condensed, Chen Mobai felt the high quality of this True Qi.

Compared with Pure Yang Spiritual Power, Pure Yang True Qi is like the difference between ordinary iron ore and alloy steel.

He channeled this wisp of Pure Yang True Qi into the Haotian Mirror, and saw his Lifespan Artifact begin to emit a brightness never seen before.

Since advancing, Chen Mobai felt no matter how much Pure Yang Spiritual Power he infused into it, it transmitted an unsatisfied emotion.

At that time, he knew that Pure Yang Spiritual Power was no longer enough for this Fourth-grade Magical Weapon.

Only Pure Yang True Qi could fully unleash all of its power.

Just like the Purple Electric Sword, though it cooperated with Chen Mobai a hundred percent, no amount of Pure Yang Spiritual Power and Spirit Stones could make it exhibit its full power.

“Only True Qi can exhibit the real power of a Fourth-grade Magical Weapon!”

Chen Mobai nodded his head, retrieving the wisp of Pure Yang True Qi he had just condensed from the Haotian Mirror.

The Haotian Mirror was very reluctant, but under the will of its master Chen Mobai, it could only regretfully release it.

Chen Mobai directed this wisp of Pure Yang True Qi into his Gold Core, soon feeling a subtle sensation of expansion.

He silently recited a Spell from the Pure Yang Scroll and began to operate it.

The Gold Core emanated a warm current, circulating through the pathway of the Eight Extraordinary Meridians, as if an invisible undulation purified and washed over, slightly raising the temperature of his blood, and the bone marrow, meridians, organs, and more were subtly enhanced in this process.

This process is known as “Qi Merging in the Celestial Circuit, Pure Yang Refining Body,” a passive skill for Pure Yang Daoist Body after achieving Pure Yang True Qi.

It will continuously improve the physical strength of cultivators of the Pure Yang Scroll.

That is also why Pure Yang Scroll cultivators generally do not waste too much time on Body Refining Techniques, not just because the time to cultivate the Pure Yang Body is already demanding but also because once their Cultivation Realm reaches the required level, their physical strength will naturally be promoted by Pure Yang True Qi.

Chapter 1468: Pure Yang True Qi_3

Passive cultivation can never match the efficacy and intensity of active cultivation.

Chen Mobai felt that after the enhancement of the Pure Yang Refining Body technique, his Longevity Dao Body, which had been stagnant for a long time, finally showed signs of a breakthrough.

He was overjoyed beyond measure.

If he could break through to Rank-4 in his Longevity Dao Body before Nascent Soul Formation, the success rate of the Nascent Soul Formation would significantly increase.

This was another correct way to use the Pure Yang Refining Body technique—it made the Body Refining Technique breakthroughs of Pure Yang Scroll cultivators much easier.

Although the Pure Yang Refining Body is a passive skill, if it were always activated, it would constantly consume Pure Yang Spiritual Power or Pure Yang True Qi.

Using Pure Yang True Qi would yield even more outstanding results.

But Chen Mobai, who had just managed to refine a strand, would definitely not use it up. He only dared to let his Gold Core consume Pure Yang Spiritual Power, of which he had plenty. With twenty-six Small Void cycles in operation, he could last a full year without interruption.

After setting up the passive Pure Yang Refining Body, Chen Mobai continued to study Pure Yang True Qi.

Once he had thirty-six strands within his Gold Core, he would attempt Nascent Soul Formation.

At this time, he took out the Haotian Mirror and allowed it to absorb a strand of Rank-5 Pure Yang Qi from the Yuanyang Ancestor.

The Haotian Mirror immediately conveyed a feeling of joy.

A Rank-4 Pure Yang Magical Tool could just barely withstand the Rank-5 Pure Yang Qi. Moreover, due to their identical origins, it could subtly provide the perfect environment for the spiritual growth of the Haotian Mirror.

It was just a pity that Chen Mobai's other Lifespan Artifact, the Morning Bell, was only Rank-3; otherwise, he would have split the Pure Yang Qi into two, to benefit both equally.

After all this, Chen Mobai ended his practice and slowly opened his eyes.

He took out his phone to check the time.

Unbeknownst to him, another two months had passed.

This was due to his use of the Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy. Otherwise, condensing the Pure Yang True Qi would have taken even more time.

He got up to leave his retreat, and as soon as he lifted the restrictions, he saw the charming and smiling Qing Nu already waiting outside.

"You look like you've succeeded!"

Qing Nu walked over, took his hand proactively, and was the first to speak.

"With the help of the Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy, I barely managed to condense a strand of Pure Yang True Qi. I understand now why the eminent Qing Jing and Qing Shi didn't use it to condense True Qi. It's simply too wasteful."

Chen Mobai shook his head with a sigh, as it took a complete strand of Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy to help transform into one strand of True Qi.

However, an intact strand of Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy was a natural Infant Forming Spirit Medicine, far more precious compared to condensing True Qi.

Moreover, the process of condensing True Qi could be accomplished through one's own hard work over time.

Nascent Soul Formation, on the other hand, was different. Perhaps just a little more probability could help a cultivator overcome that vast chasm.

"Then you can wait until you reach Perfect Core Formation before condensing Pure Yang True Qi. It just so happens that I've refined another batch of Return to True Elixirs—eight pills this time, and all of them meet the standard of Immortal Gate with Danless Poison quality."

Qing Nu, after hearing this, shared the good news.

"Hahaha, ever since you came here, I feel like I've only been hearing good news!"

Chen Mobai's face lit up with joy, then he reached out, picked up Qing Nu beside him, and set her directly on a wooden table in front of the cabin.

Under the somewhat boiling blood from Pure Yang Refining Body, he found the most thorough release amidst the soft moans.

Before he realized it, Chen Mobai had already spent more than half a year on Mount Tianpeng.

The excuses for his breakthroughs and stabilizing his realm were almost exhausted.

He felt it was time to show his face at the Immortal Gate.

After a reluctant farewell to Qing Nu, Chen Mobai first returned to Giant Tree Ridge and then met with Zhou Shengqing, to whom he handed over a Return to True Elixir.

"Please help me pass this on to Brother Mo. With this, he can save the effort of accumulating Spiritual Power and reach Perfect Core Formation quickly."

Since he was in the Eastern Wilderness, Chen Mobai only dared to have Zhou Shengqing assist with the delivery, otherwise he would have to make the trip himself.

“I’ll thank you on behalf of Junior Brother Mo!”

Zhou Shengqing, being aware of the effects of such Elixirs from the previous collaboration between the Five Elements Sect and the Back to Sky Valley in refining Return to True Elixirs, solemnly thanked Chen Mobai.

“This was refined by the disciple of an Abnormality I encountered before. Due to the need for his master to survive an unprecedented terrifying Heavenly Tribulation, he left the Ruins where he had been in seclusion and went overseas in search of a chance to overcome the tribulation.”

“However, his disciple did not have a high Cultivation Level and couldn’t leave the East Continent with him. Moreover, without the care of the Abnormality, survival in such a dangerous place as the Ruins would be difficult, so she sought me out.”

“I could refine the Return to the Sun Spirit Water thanks to that Abnormality. Naturally, I’m duty-bound, so I’ve placed her in the Tianpeng Mountain Sub courtyard...”

Over the years, Chen Mobai, as the Sect Leader, was often away from Giant Tree Ridge and Northern Abyss City, running to Mount Tianpeng, and he couldn’t keep it a secret from Zhou Shengqing and others.

However, both Zhou Shengqing and Fu Zongjue had absolute trust in him, and thus, they did not inquire further.

Chen Mobai, though, understood that he would have to marry Qing Nu into the Sect in an open and aboveboard manner sooner or later, so he had already begun to subtly create a background for her.

“Although the Spirit Vein at Tianpeng Mountain Sub courtyard is only a Fourth Grade Spirit Vein, the Abnormality gave me a second chance at life. Shouldn’t I give up my own arena of the Longevity Dao for his disciple’s Cultivation?”

Chapter 1469: Pure Yang True Qi_4

Zhou Shengqing felt that the specifications of the Heavenly Peng Mountain Sub courtyard were somewhat low after hearing, and he solemnly suggested otherwise.

In his view, this mysterious figure who could refine Return to the Sun Spirit Water and lived in seclusion in the Ruins, was at least a Primordial Infant Great Cultivation, if not possibly a Deification Old Monster.

Even without any favor owed, he should endeavor to forge good relations with his disciple.

Chen Mobai repeatedly refused, stating that the senior's disciple did not like ostentation but merely enjoyed alchemy and needed a cultivation arena with an abundant Fire Vein Spiritual Energy.

The Heavenly Peng Mountain Sub courtyard was perfect.

“Then I'll trouble you junior brother to take good care of the senior's disciple. After Yan Shaoyin left, the Eastern Wilderness lacks outstanding Alchemists. Perhaps in the future, our Five Elements Sect's Golden Elixir Spiritual Medicine, even your Infant Forming Spirit Medicine, may still need this person's help!”

Zhou Shengqing's words made Chen Mobai nod repeatedly. He would definitely take good care of Qing Nu.

After having laid the groundwork in front of his fellow disciples Zhou Shengqing and Fu Zongjue, Chen Mobai was already thinking about formally integrating Qing Nu into the Five Elements Sect.

Mo Douguang, having taken the Return to True Elixir, and Sheng Zhaoxi, who planned a breakthrough with Purple Jade Porridge, signified that most of the high-level cultivators within the Five Elements Sect owed Qing Nu a favor.

Thus, his proposal to make Qing Nu his Daoist couple and the Sect Master's Wife would face no obstacles.

“Is there still no news from Yan Shaoyin?”

Before Zhou Shengqing left, he suddenly remembered this final hindrance to the unification of the Eastern Wilderness and couldn't help but ask Chen Mobai.

Although he was a Nascent Soul Cultivator, he had handed over all matters of the Five Elements Sect to Chen Mobai, so he needed to inquire about this intelligence.

“He should be undergoing Nascent Formation in East Yu; our Five Elements Sect's influence has just moved out of the Eastern Wilderness with Master Nephew Yue, unable to delve into the specifics of his Nascent Formation.”

“I've also probed Lou Xuelong about this matter, but he obviously knows the importance and did not give a direct response.”

“However, there's a bit of news from the Sky Meal Building, claiming to have seen Yan Shaoyin stepping into the large-scale Transmission Array of the Golden Crow Immortal City with the Starry Sky Commerce Guild. Therefore, I speculate that he is in East Yu.”

Chen Mobai reported what he knew, and Zhou Shengqing nodded lightly. In his opinion, there was no need to concern themselves with Yan Shaoyin at all; they could just lead the Five Elements Sect's army over, and flatten the Back to Sky Valley.

However, under Chen Mobai's leadership over these years, the Five Elements Sect had grown into the largest faction in the Eastern Wilderness.

So, since he chose to wait and see the developments, Zhou Shengqing naturally agreed as well.

After all, flattening Back to Sky Valley could potentially lead to fallout with the Starry Sky Commerce Guild.

If they could avoid this risk, it would be best!

After Zhou Shengqing went to the Golden Cliff, Chen Mobai also announced a retreat, sealing his Longevity Wood Dojo, and then returned to Immortal Gate.

At the Top of Danxia Mountain, Chen Mobai, who had advanced to the “Seventh Layer” of the Golden Core, took quite a long time to consolidate his realm, which seemed overly lengthy to outsiders.

Just when people speculated that he might be eager to break through and perhaps had unstable foundations, hence the delay in leaving seclusion.

That night, a brilliant and bright mirror light illuminated at the Top of Danxia Mountain, like the great sun of the night, rising and shining splendidly on the massive Azure Jadeite Sycamore tree crown!

The bright mirror light continued for three full days and nights!

It immediately caught everyone’s attention!

After all, this was the retreat site of someone with the Qualification of Deification!

He had just broken through the Seventh Layer of the Golden Core, creating such a brilliant momentum, what was the reason?

When the bright mirror light finally set, Chen Mobai also announced he had come out of his retreat.

After spending some leisurely and beautiful time with his family, he had no choice but to return to Wangwu Cave Heaven.

At this moment, within the Immortal Gate, experts in Artifact Refining had already deduced through the bright light in the video why Chen Mobai, after breaking through to the seventh layer of the Golden Core, still lingered at the top of Danxia Mountain for almost half a year.

It turned out that he was not consolidating his realm, but rather, after the breakthrough, he spent time and energy cultivating the spirituality of his Destiny Artifact.

“The Spirit of the Magic Artifact” is also common knowledge within the Immortal Gate.

However, those who can truly cultivate it can be counted on one hand in every era.

If it weren't for the Artifact Refiner experts pointing it out, people of the Immortal Gate would never have thought of this layer.

Unexpectedly, Chen Mobai, having the Qualification of Deification, not only has a cultivation talent comparable to the Yuanyang Ancestor, but his Sword Dao talent compares to Ancestor Baiguang, and even in terms of artifact refining, he is a supreme genius!

[He is our graduate from the Dance Tool Dao Academy!]

[Don't you understand the golden content of the Dance Tool Dao Academy's first-place student!]

[Anonymously saying something, when Chen was in high school, he was already very interested in Artifact Refining. I had the fortune to cooperate with him several times, and felt that if he focused on Artifact Refining, he would definitely become the most outstanding Artifact Refiner of the Immortal Gate in the future, even surpassing Master Chengxuan, a Fifth-Order Refiner!]

In Red Sandstone City, the now gray-haired Wu Wan put down the keyboard in his hands and clicked send on the forum.

He leaned back in his chair, and couldn't help but recall the time he and Chen Mobai made the Five Transformations Umbrella together.

The more he thought about it, the more he felt honored to have had the chance to work with such a great figure.

Chen Mobai naturally didn't know that because he had cultivated the spirit of the Destiny Artifact, the internet was already in an uproar.

Felt that the Qualification of Deification was no longer sufficient to describe his terrifying talent, and a more representative term was needed.

Soon, among many candidates, "Immortal Qualification" was most acknowledged in the voting.

There is a saying of becoming immortal in the Immortal Gate, they believe that above Divinity Transformation is becoming an immortal!

This is also the reason behind the saying of the Immortal Gate.

After hearing the online discussions relayed by Xiao Hei, Chen Mobai felt it was too much!

He was merely in the Golden Core Realm, and hasn't even achieved Nascent Soul.

How could he suddenly jump directly to having Immortal Qualification without even fully earning his Qualification of Deification!

As for this, he could only try to keep a low profile.

However, because the Haotian Mirror, as his Destiny Artifact, will definitely be revealed on the side of the Immortal Gate in the future, cultivating the spirit of the Destiny Artifact was something that definitely needed some groundwork.

Fortunately, he graduated from the Dance Tool Dao Academy and had once taken Hong Mengkui as his master, systematically studied the content of Artifact Refining, so the fact that he cultivated a spirit for the Haotian Mirror, although it shocked the Immortal Gate, could also make everyone accept it.

But Chen Mobai knew very clearly in his heart that this was not his own ability and accomplishment.

Deceiving others is possible, but he must never deceive himself!

Thus, he kept a very low profile and returned to the Wangwu Cave Heaven, planning to cancel his vacation and continue handling things silently as usual.

Time can calm everything, he believed that as time passed, the Immortal Gate's discussion about his Immortal Qualification would gradually cool down.

But just as he got off the plane and boarded the car picked up by Hua Zijing, he found that there were already two familiar people inside.

It was Hong Mengkui who taught him Artifact Refining and his disciple Bian Jingchun.

"You lad, with such a talent in Artifact Refining, why didn't you cultivate 'The Union of Differences'!"

Hong Mengkui said to Chen Mobai with a deeply regretful tone!

Chapter 1470: Distribution of Core Formation Spiritual Medicine

"Mr. Hong, how come you are here at Wangwu Cave Heaven?"

Chen Mobai was slightly surprised to see Hong Mengkui. Since his retirement, he had been rehired as a teacher by the Dance Tool Dao Academy and rarely left Red City Cave Heaven.

"This year's Artifact Refiner Conference is about to be held, it's a grand event that occurs once every decade. Since the president of the conference can't come, the association and the academy have sent me to preside over the event."

Hong Mengkui explained, having just gotten off the plane with Bian Jingchun and then immediately meeting Hua Zijing outside the airport, they got into the car together.

“I had forgotten that you, Mr. Hong, are also the vice president of the Artifact Refiner Association!”

Chen Mobai realized after listening to him.

Basically, the Artifact Refiner Association is run by their Dance Tool Dao Academy. The president is Master Chengxuan, Hong Mengkui is the honorary vice-president, and the rest of the core members are graduates of the Dance Tool Dao Academy.

“Don’t change the subject, why don’t you try cultivating ‘Participating Together?’”

This time, Hong Mengkui responded and glared at Chen Mobai.

“While human energy is limited, I already feel stretched to my limits cultivating the Pure Yang Scroll. If I divide my focus to ‘Participating Together’, I’m afraid I won’t be able to achieve mastery in either!”

Chen Mobai spoke frankly, fully aware of his own capabilities. With the resources from Tianhe Realm, he could possibly master the Pure Yang Scroll.

Besides that, the Guidance Book was also passively mastered due to the Crown of Heaven and Earth that unified Eastern Wilderness.

As for other spells and divine skills, it’s either empowerment or relying on resources for quick success.

Even so, he felt his cultivation speed was somewhat slow.

Chen Mobai had a clear self-awareness, as a follower of the Sect of Realms, his primary goal was first and foremost to elevate his realm.

Once his realm truly hits a bottleneck and can’t be improved, then he would focus his time and energy outside the Pure Yang Scroll.

'Participating Together', being the Divine Transformation Technique of the Immortal Gate, is profound and broad. Not to mention he had tried before and couldn't comprehend it, even now if he could start through Enlightenment Tea and the Crown of Heaven and Earth, he would not want to waste that time.

He didn't even think he had enough time to condense Pure Yang True Qi and Primordial True Qi!

"It wouldn't hurt to practice it when you have time; with your current talent, sooner or later, you'll become the Sect Master of the Immortal Gate. By then, you'd be worthy of possessing Little Red Sky."

"As you know, the Fifth Order Primordial Yang Sword is within Little Red Sky, and it's directly related to your Pure Yang Scroll lineage. If you could integrate 'Participating Together' with the Primordial Yang Sword, the benefits would be immense."

"When your Nascent Soul reaches Great Perfection, combined with the essence of the Primordial Yang Sword, and the Rank-5 Pure Yang Qi from Repairing Heaven Institute, along with your exceptional talent, you would probably become the third person to ascend to become Immortals in the current Immortal Gate, following the two Ancestors, Bai Guang and Qian Xing!"

It's undeniable; Hong Mengkui knew how to persuade, drawing a picture with his words that greatly enticed Chen Mobai!

As one of the rare Fifth Order Flying Swords in the Immortal Gate and originating from the same source as the Pure Yang Scroll, if Chen Mobai could acquire it and integrate 'Participating Together', his hopes of Divinity Transformation would be higher than anybody else in the Immortal Gate!

It was equivalent to him being able to directly copy the answers for Divinity Transformation from the Yuanyang Ancestor!

This was what he loved most in his life!

Even if there's a gap between him and Yuanyang Ancestor and he couldn't fully follow the methods of Yuanyang Ancestor to transform, this would still be much better than any other members of the Immortal Gate, who couldn't even get started!

Didn't Lin Daoming, who controlled the Immortal Gate for hundreds of years, also end up slinking off into a Side Sect just to achieve Divinity Transformation in the end!

This supreme path, across the entire Immortal Gate aside from Wen Ren Xuewei, only he, Chen Mobai, was capable!

"Then, when I'm free next time, I will practice 'Participating Together'!"

Chen Mobai, always receptive to advice, said something that pleased Hong Mengkui greatly.

However, Bian Jingchun couldn't help but clench her fists tightly; indeed, comparisons could truly vex someone!

She underwent grueling challenges and tests to cultivate 'Participating Together', only being permitted to practice this Divine Transformation Technique by Hong Mengkui after passing them.

But now, Hong Mengkui was instead begging Chen Mobai to cultivate 'Participating Together'.

Compared to this junior brother, her standing as an elder sister proved a prominent contrast, and she felt, if Chen Mobai really began practicing 'Participating Together', with his talent, he might catch up to her decades of foundational work within just a few years.

Although she never had much dignity in front of Chen Mobai, if even 'Participating Together' surpassed her, she would truly be utterly defeated.

"Elder sister, why did you come along too? I remember she is a public official of Red City Cave Heaven, she shouldn't be able to leave her jurisdiction easily, right?"

At this moment, Chen Mobai also noticed Bian Jingchun.

There were only a few people in the car, and after finishing his conversation with Hong Mengkui, the always polite Chen Mobai inevitably greeted Bian Jingchun.

“I’m here at Xianwu Hall for some business!”

Bian Jingchun replied with a strained smile, puzzling Chen Mobai – what matter could require a public official from Red City Cave Heaven to personally come to Wangwu Cave Heaven?

“She succeeded in the queue this year and could exchange for a Golden Liquid Jade Return Pill, and after receiving the news, she came along with me.”

It was Hong Mengkui who saw Bian Jingchun being somewhat coy and directly stated her purpose of coming.
