

World 1501

Chapter 1501:

“Dad, how come you are so lucky!”

Chen Xiaohei saw a flash of silver light in Chen Mobai’s palm, and suddenly there was a piece of Ten-thousand-year Warm Jade, his eyes immediately lit up.

“I have cultivated the Vermilion Phoenix Facing the Sun Diagram, under the Phoenix Perched on Chinese Parasol Tree, I am able to receive an Auspicious Blessing.”

Over the years, whenever he accumulated Good Deed Points, Chen Mobai had Hua Zijing help purchase Void Blind Boxes, with the intention of giving items from the Tianhe Realm to those close to him in the future.

“Dad, then I won’t be polite.”

Upon hearing this, Chen Xiaohei happily took the Ten-thousand-year Warm Jade from Chen Mobai’s hand.

“To refine this into a Lifebound Magic Artefact Embryo, you will still need an Artifact Refiner to tailor-made it for you. I will contact Teacher Hong Mengkui to see if he is available...”

Chen Mobai’s initial Lifebound Magic Artefact Embryo was crafted by Master Chengxuan, but the latter was now exploring the Blooming Moment and the realm of Divinity Transformation, so he definitely couldn’t do it now.

Apart from the Nascent Soul Superiors, the highest attainments in Artifact Refining in the Immortal Gate are Hong Mengkui and the current head of the Refining Implement Department at the Dance Tool Dao Academy, Deng Daoyun.

Both are recognized experts and are only a breakthrough in Cultivation Realm away from becoming Fifth-order Refiners.

Chen Mobai made a phone call to Hong Mengkui, who boldly stated he was available anytime.

However, upon hearing that the material was Ten-thousand-year Warm Jade, Hong Mengkui became cautious, stating that he needed to study the external characteristics of the material and consult with some colleagues before devising a refining plan.

With the precedent of the Lingxiao Jade Pendant, facing materials that could potentially upgrade into a Fifth-Rank Magic Weapon, they felt that wasting such material would lead them to be used as negative examples in textbooks by future Artifact Refiners.

Therefore, what was initially planned as a casual practice attempt by Hong Mengkui suddenly became a serious undertaking.

Chen Mobai naturally agreed, as it involved the Lifebound Magic Artifact Embryo for his daughter—it was best if it had the greatest potential for future advancements.

However, this matter would ultimately be handled by Chen Xiaohei herself in contacting Hong Mengkui.

After all, she is the proprietor of the magic artifact and knows her needs best.

After seeing off Chen Xiaohei, Chen Mobai also thought of Yan Bingxuan and Qing Nu, who apparently also lacked Lifebound Magic Artefact Embryos.

Qing Nu was easy to handle, as good materials were abundant in the Tianhe Realm, depending on which shape of the artifact she liked.

However, Chen Mobai recalled the black cloth he initially obtained, which was identified with Refining Treasure Golden Light, recognized as a fragment of a Fifth-Rank Magic Artifact, with water properties, perfectly suitable for Qing Nu.

But it remains uncertain whether Qing Nu could refine it.

For Yan Bingxuan, Chen Mobai thought of two pieces he owned that would assist an Ice Spirit Root in Core Formation—the Ice Marrow Pure Jade and Water Mist Ice Crystal, the former being of the same tier as the Ten-thousand-year Warm Jade.

“I opened a Void Blind Box some time ago, which contained a pair of Water and Fire Beautiful Jade; I didn’t pay much attention to this chilly jade before. I checked some information these past few days and realized it might be the Heavenly Blue Ice Jade from the Sea Territory, you might want to try fusing your Heart and Mind with it first...”

Half a month later, when Chen Mobai invited Yan Bingxuan to eat again, he presented the packaged Ice Marrow Pure Jade to her.

“Heavenly Blue Ice Jade? Does this actually exist?”

Yan Bingxuan was somewhat surprised; in the Immortal Gate, the value of such Spirit Material is priceless, even a Nascent Soul Superior would treasure it.

“It’s enough that just you and I know about this.”

Though he had the excuse of the Void Blind Box, Chen Mobai still hoped that fewer people knew about it, especially since the Three Extremes Sage had just revealed so much to him.

“This item is too precious, I...”

“There’s only you by my side who can make use of it, there’s no need to refuse, and you wouldn’t want your Core Formation to fail, would you?”

With this statement from Chen Mobai, Yan Bingxuan stopped her attempts to decline, joyfully nodded, and hung the Ice Marrow Pure Jade around her neck.

There is another piece of this item in the hands of Fu Zongjue, and Chen Mobai planned to exchange with him using his own materials when he returned, as his daughter was also condensing an Ice Spirit Root, and it would be helpful for her when the time comes for Core Formation.

As for the Water Mist Ice Crystal...

If you think about it, the resources of Snow-blowing Palace are actually quite abundant.

Time quickly passed, and another half a year went by.

That day, while handling official duties, Chen Mobai received a transmission from a Formless Puppet within Giant Tree Ridge, and his face couldn't help but light up slightly with joy.

He called Zhuang Jialan in, instructed her regarding the forthcoming official duties, and then went into the Cultivation Room to seclude himself.

As soon as Chen Mobai returned to Giant Tree Ridge, he headed to the Longevity Wood Dojo where Fu Zongjue was.

"Hahaha..."

As he approached, he heard a burst of hearty laughter filled with pleasure.

The vast array of Ten Thousand Woods funneled the spiritual energy of nature down like a funnel, continuously absorbed, and refined by Fu Zongjue, who had just broken through the bottleneck of the Mid Foundation Establishment Stage!

The effects of the Purple Jade Porridge were better than Chen Mobai and Qing Women had imagined, or maybe Fu Zongjue ate more. In just a year and a half, he overcame the bottleneck that troubled him for a long time, officially becoming a cultivator in the Late Core Formation Stage.

In terms of this realm, in Eastern Wilderness, he was already one of the top figures.

After all, apart from Zhou Shengqing, the only others in the Late Core Formation Stage were Chen Mobai, Mo Douguang, and Zhou Ye.

Moreover, once reaching the Late Core Formation Stage, Fu Zongjue felt as though he could start considering the realm of Nascent Soul.

A variety of joyful emotions came together, causing the usually calm him to let out a hearty laugh as well!

Chen Mobai also stood in midair, laughing and acting as his protector.

After a short while, E Yun and other Foundation Establishment Practitioners from the Three Halls and Twelve Divisions in Giant Tree Ridge flew over, but they were soon sent away by Chen Mobai.

Only Quan Shanlin, the direct disciple of Fu Zongjue, was kept back by Chen Mobai.

Three days and nights later, Fu Zongjue finally stabilized his realm.

“Junior Brother Chen, thank you for your thoughtful arrangement!”

He flew out immediately, thanking Chen Mobai.

“Congratulations, Senior Brother!”

Upon seeing him, Chen Mobai also performed a greeting ritual of the Five Elements Sect, and the latter laughingly returned the gesture.

Quan Shanlin at his side also performed a large ritual with a happy face.

“I’ll have a chat with Junior Brother, you may go down first.”

But Fu Zongjue waved his hand, indicating that there was nothing urgent here, and told Quan Shanlin to return to the Penalty Evil Hall first.

After chatting for a while, Chen Mobai talked about the Ice Marrow Pure Jade and the Ten-thousand-year Warm Jade. Fu Zongjue immediately refused, indicating that he couldn’t just take resources from Chen Mobai, and promptly sent them off.

“Thank you, Senior Brother!”

Chen Mobai knew Fu Zongjue’s character well, so he didn’t say much more, simply keeping this matter in his heart.

“Senior Brother, since I’ve already broken through, do I really have to list the Spiritual Energy Rice Cooker and Purple Jade Porridge on Spirit Treasure Pavilion?”

At this point, Fu Zongjue hesitated a bit.

His local mentality still occupied his mind.

Although Nu Jiang and Sheng Zhaoxi were both cultivators of the Five Elements Sect, since their five veins had not yet fully unified, he felt that compared to himself and Chen Mobai, their relationship was a bit distant.

If he helped them break through to the Late Core Formation Stage, would it potentially undermine their control of the Wood Vein within the Five Elements Sect in the future?

Chapter 1502: Immortal Spirit Root: Purple-blue Divine Flame Douluo Fire

“Brother, when the Five Elements Meridians grow strong together, our Five Elements Sect can step out of the Eastern Wilderness and aim to spread across the entire East Continent, and even the Five Continents and Four Seas.”

“Moreover, if our Wood Vein truly dominates within the sect, it would cause the disciples below to grow complacent. A little competition is sometimes necessary.”

“During the merger of the Five Veins back into the sect, Brother Nu Jiang and Sister Sheng made significant contributions; they have also been diligent over the years. We need to give them some hope for advancement.”

“Furthermore, as long as our Wood Vein produces Nascent Souls from generation to generation, the concerns Brother worries about will never occur.”

Chen Mobai’s words, filled with confidence, also influenced Fu Zongjue.

“Alright then, but there’s only one Spiritual Energy Rice Cooker. Who should we give it to first?”

Upon hearing Fu Zongjue’s words, Chen Mobai just smiled lightly.

“Naturally, we should let them compete for it.”

They, the Wood Vein, certainly wouldn’t do something as offensive as that.

Very soon, both Nu Jiang and Sheng Zhaoxi received the news of Fu Zongjue’s breakthrough to the Core Formation Late Stage.

This both puzzled and elated them.

Why him?

They had been stuck in the Mid Foundation Establishment Stage bottleneck for nearly a hundred years, unable to break through, and even seemed destined to be trapped for life, with despair creeping in.

And suddenly, Fu Zongjue had achieved it!

While their hearts trembled with shock, they naturally sought to find out the reason behind this sudden change.

Was it due to some Barrier-breaking Elixir, some fortune or chance, or was it simply a moment of enlightenment?

But they soon learned the reason why.

Giant Tree Ridge's Spirit Treasure Pavilion had listed a Magic Artifact called the Spiritual Energy Rice Cooker, claiming it could stew a medicinal meal that helps Golden Core Cultivators break through their bottlenecks, a secret treasure from the Ancient Changsheng Sect.

Upon seeing this, Nu Jiang and Sheng Zhaoxi instantly understood that Fu Zongjue had relied on this Spiritual Energy Rice Cooker for his breakthrough.

Without any hesitation, the two headed straight for Giant Tree Ridge.

Chen Mobai personally hosted Nu Jiang and Sheng Zhaoxi, who arrived almost at the same time.

As Nu Jiang and Sheng Zhaoxi each saw the other, the two who were originally on decent terms merely greeted each other, and then sat down with a somewhat tense atmosphere.

"Great timing, Brother and Sister, I've just made a breakthrough in my cultivation and was thinking of having a grand feast."

At that moment, Fu Zongjue also arrived, unabashedly radiating his Core Formation Late Stage aura, causing Nu Jiang and Sheng Zhaoxi to be even more envious and covetous.

“Congratulations, Junior Brother Fu. I came over this time, actually...”

Nu Jiang, after seeing Sheng Zhaoxi also come along, didn't bother with pleasantries and shared his intentions directly; he wanted to borrow that breakthrough Spiritual Energy Rice Cooker and the medicinal meal recipe.

“I have the same intention.”

Sheng Zhaoxi on the side, seeing him speak first, also quickly followed up, for it concerned her own cultivation breakthrough and was not a time to be modest.

“Elder Brother and Sister are a bit late; the item has already been reserved by Yin Qingmei.”

But after hearing their requests, Chen Mobai spoke somewhat apologetically.

“Yin Qingmei? Hasn't she just formed her Core a few years ago?”

Nu Jiang asked with a puzzled face.

“Right when the Spiritual Energy Rice Cooker was listed on Spirit Treasure Pavilion, it was taken by her in Northern Abyss City. Disciple Yin is a rare genius and possesses a Heavenly Spiritual Root; she cultivates quickly and might soon need it.”

Chen Mobai began telling blatant lies, and upon hearing them, Nu Jiang and Sheng Zhaoxi became anxious indeed.

“Such a secret treasure is too wasted on her for now, and its true effects can only be realized in our hands. How about letting us use it for two years first? When it's time, if Disciple Yin's cultivation hits a bottleneck, we will pass it on to her. This arrangement would be most beneficial to the sect.”

Sheng Zhaoxi, known for her impatience, immediately spoke her mind openly.

“Elder Sister is right, but since Disciple Yin has already reserved it on the Spirit Treasure Pavilion in Northern Abyss City, according to the rules, I can’t list the Spiritual Energy Rice Cooker again until she gives it up. Don’t worry about this matter, I will definitely use reason and emotion to persuade her to yield it to you both.”

After Chen Mobai made this statement, the expressions of Nu Jiang and Sheng Zhaoxi visibly improved, but Nu Jiang quickly raised another issue.

“Junior Brother Sect Leader, you’ve only listed the item in your Wood Vein’s Spirit Treasure Pavilion; it’s hard for us to exchange for it!”

Although the Five Veins had already unified nominally, it was only in name.

Chen Mobai had been contemplating how to get the sect’s most crucial contribution rights into his own hands, and now arose an excellent opportunity.

“This is mainly because the Spirit Treasure Pavilions of our Five Veins haven’t been unified. The pavilion on Giant Tree Ridge and the one in Northern Abyss City are synchronizable, so as soon as the Spiritual Energy Rice Cooker was listed, Disciple Yin in Northern Abyss City immediately saw it and reserved it...”

Chen Mobai feigned hesitation mid-sentence, and Nu Jiang and Sheng Zhaoxi instantly caught his drift and, exchanging glances, didn’t resist the trend.

“From now on, I would ask you, Junior Brother Sect Leader, to send someone to my Water Vein’s Spirit Treasure Pavilion as well to synchronize.”

“The Fire Vein will do the same.”

Upon hearing this, Chen Mobai immediately nodded in agreement but then raised the most crucial issue—the operation of the Spirit Treasure Pavilion’s foundation of sect contributions.

“How about from now on, we combine all tasks and exchangeable resources of our Five Veins together? In this way, the Five Veins can genuinely share what they have, giving our disciples below more options and opportunities.”

Upon hearing this suggestion, Nu Jiang reflexively agreed. Among the Five Elements Meridians, the Water Vein held the most tasks, as there were continuously tasks for slaying demonic beasts in Cloud Dream Marsh, correspondingly rich in resources.

Chapter 1503: Immortal Spirit Root: Purple-blue Divine Flame Tuśita Fire_2

The Wood Vein, even with the added task of pioneering the Eastern Desolation Plateau imposed by Northern Abyss City, still doesn't have as much work as Wind Rain Hamlet.

However, such an abundance of tasks also signifies a massive expenditure of Spirit Stones.

For those who come to Yun Meng Ze to slay demonic beasts, besides our Five Elements Sect, there would be countless Loose Practitioners and Rogue Cultivators, and even some from Dongwu, who do not recognize the contribution points of the Five Elements Sect.

In addition to Spirit Stones, rewards for these tasks can also include demonic beasts' bodies, Magic Artifacts, Elixirs, and so on.

Now, by leaving this part of affairs to the management and control of the Five Elements Sect, although Nu Jiang will lose a considerable annual cut, he can also free himself from these troubles.

Moreover, if these can be exchanged for a breakthrough in one's own Realm, then it would be worth it.

“Brother, your righteousness is great!”

Upon hearing this, Chen Mobai couldn't help but admire Nu Jiang immensely.

One can only say that everyone in the Tianhe Realm are True Cultivators who are willing to give their all for their cultivation breakthroughs.

On the other hand, Sheng Zhaoxi hesitated somewhat.

Her Fire Pulse Spirit Treasure Pavilion practically undertook most of the high-end Artifact Refining tasks in the Eastern Wilderness. As the first Artifact Refiner of the region, with her reputation well established, many Cultivator Families and even Loose Cultivators are willing to travel great distances to Fire Truth Palace to request Artifact Refining tailored for themselves.

If she were to give this to Chen Mobai, she might have to look at his face when accepting these tasks in the future.

Ultimately, however, she gritted her teeth and nodded in agreement.

Aside from the rare opportunity for a breakthrough, it was also because she was confident that even with the merger of the Spirit Treasure Pavilions of the Five Veins, Fire Truth Palace could still hold on to the high-end Artifact Refining market of the Eastern Wilderness, and even possibly use the platform of the Five Veins to expand the business even further.

“After the merger of the Spirit Treasure Pavilions of the Five Veins, let’s use the Spirit Treasure Pavilion of Northern Abyss City as the central hub. However, to avoid future confusion with contribution points, they can only be issued by Northern Abyss City.”

When Chen Mobai proposed this, it was almost as if he had laid everything on the table, but Nu Jiang and Sheng Zhaoxi merely hesitated for a moment before nodding in agreement.

Nothing is as important as their breakthroughs!

“Since that’s the case, I propose that we also relocate the Three Halls and Twelve Divisions to Northern Abyss City, which would make interactions among the Five Veins more convenient.”

The idea put forward by Chen Mobai also passed unanimously, and even in Nu Jiang and Sheng Zhaoxi's eyes, it seemed like a gesture of great respect to them.

After all, if the Three Halls and Twelve Divisions of the Five Elements Sect always stayed in Giant Tree Ridge, it would signify the Wood Vein's supremacy. Now that they are moving to Northern Abyss City, at least it will be equal for all Five Veins.

After securing economic power, the Five Elements Meridians will gradually and truly unify.

"Regarding these matters we've discussed, Sect Leader Junior Brother, please notify Zhou Ye later."

Nu Jiang added this at the end. No one dares to go to Hunyuan Immortal City, tacitly assuming that the Earth Vein agrees. However, the outcome of the matter still needed to be communicated.

"Leave this matter to me."

As Chen Mobai spoke, he used the Heavenly Communication Device to inform E Yun to bring over the Spiritual Energy Rice Cooker.

"There is only one of these devices, I wonder who between Brother Nu Jiang and Sister Sheng will exchange for it first?"

As soon as this was mentioned, Nu Jiang and Sheng Zhaoxi exchanged glances, and then Chen Mobai felt the fluctuations of Divine Sense between the two, obviously negotiating terms with each other and seeing who could persuade whom.

"Junior Sect Leader Brother, I wonder if there is a specific required dosage for this medicinal porridge every time it is consumed?"

Whatever they had discussed, Nu Jiang turned his head to ask.

“There is no such requirement for that, just that it needs to be taken persistently. It was only after Fu Shixiong continued to take it without break for a year and a half that he was able to accumulate and break through his bottleneck with the help of the medicine’s efficacy.”

As Chen Mobai explained, he probably understood what Nu Jiang was getting at.

“It just so happens that the demonic beasts in Yun Meng Ze are slightly restless, so I plan to invite Sister to stay in Wind Rain Hamlet for a few years. This Spiritual Energy Rice Cooker and the medicinal porridge can be enjoyed together.”

In that case, it is indeed the best of both worlds.

“Here is the Alchemy Recipe for Purple Jade Porridge. If Brother and Sister live together, they can stew two pots consecutively. By doing so, it won’t even delay your time.”

As Chen Mobai spoke, he took out a Storage Bag filled with Purple Jade Rice. Aside from this main ingredient, the rest of the medicinal herbs would have to be collected by them following the Alchemy Recipe.

However, as these herbs are quite common in the Eastern Wilderness, to prevent them from making mistakes, Chen Mobai was also prepared to demonstrate on the spot, showing them how to cook Purple Jade Porridge with the Spiritual Energy Rice Cooker.

“Let me do it, Brother, I am familiar with this process.”

Fu Zongjue from the side voluntarily stepped forward. Over the past year and a half, he had been inseparable from the Spiritual Energy Rice Cooker; he could even say that his skill at making Purple Jade Porridge was even better than Chen Mobai and Qing Nu.

“This is actually Rank-3 Spirit Rice!?”

As Fu Zongjue placed the Purple Jade Rice into the cooker, Nu Jiang and Sheng Zhaoxi were both shocked, not expecting the cost to be so great.

“In the Eastern Desolation Plateau, our Sect has a secret Spirit Field base growing this Rank-3 Purple Jade Rice. Currently, due to the limited yield, it’s only enough to supply us Golden Core Cultivators.”

Chen Mobai said with a smile, handing over the full bag of Purple Jade Rice to Nu Jiang and Sheng Zhaoxi, who were startled upon receiving it.

This bag could provide for the two of them for a whole year.

This was the first time Nu Jiang and Sheng Zhaoxi felt that as Golden Core Cultivators of the Five Elements Sect, the benefits were so good. Previously, when they were separated, they had to spend a great deal of money to purchase Rank-3 Spirit Rice themselves.

Chapter 1504: Immortal Spirit Root: Purple-blue Divine Flame Douluo Fire_3

Almost half of the superior quality spirit stones accumulated each year are spent in this area.

Who would have expected that one could now receive them for free.

The Spiritual Energy Rice Cooker simply requires adding spirit rice and medicinal ingredients; after Fu Zongjue operated it, the four of them sat together, drinking tea and chatting.

“From where did these Rank-3 spirit rice seeds originate?”

In the neighboring East Barbarians, because of the Golden Dawn Rice Seeds, a blood feud between Xuan Xiao Taoist Palace and Kong Sang Valley persists to this day, unresolved. Thus, when Nu Jiang learned that the Five Elements Sect was actually cultivating Rank-3 spirit rice, he was greatly surprised.

“It was the result of my disciples’ decades of crossbreeding experiments. However, as our sect’s strength is not yet particularly strong, I’d ask my fellow brothers and sisters to keep this a secret.”

Chen Mobai spoke of Zhuo Ming's hardships; upon hearing this, both Nu Jiang and Sheng Zhaoxi were filled with envy at Chen Mobai's fortune of having such an outstanding disciple.

"Back in our master's day, only Zhou Ye achieved Hearing the Path Foundation Establishment. With a successor like Nephew Zhuo, your achievements will surely be no less than those of Master Hun Yuan."

A statement from Sheng Zhaoxi made Chen Mobai repeatedly wave his hands, indicating that he dared not accept such praise.

In the Tianhe Realm, unlike the Immortal Gate, the higher one's profile, the quicker one meets their demise.

In recent years, Chen Mobai had been enjoying a life of luxury, trying not to take action so as to avoid attracting enemies' attention and secure time for Nascent Soul Formation.

However, speaking of Hearing the Path Foundation Establishment, during these days when Chen Mobai was cultivating the Pure Yang Daoist Body, he had also sensed signs that his Nine Suns physique was on the verge of transforming.

One more step and he would possess an Immortal Spirit Root!

He hoped that upon reaching Enlightenment, he might gain Immortal Art Divine Powers like All Things Spiritual Communication.

"By the way, junior brother, this is the Heterodox Golden Core you asked me to obtain from the Sun family."

As they were tasting Purple Jade Porridge, Nu Jiang suddenly remembered this and took out a jade box from his storage bag to hand over to Chen Mobai.

"You've had a hard time, senior brother."

Chen Mobai took it and inspected it, nodding slightly.

“Not at all, it’s my duty.”

Content with the Spiritual Energy Rice Cooker, Nu Jiang and Sheng Zhaoxi took their leave from Giant Tree Ridge, while Chen Mobai, after a word to Fu Zongjue, stepped out towards the Tianpeng Mountain Sub courtyard.

Zeng Woyou and Yan Jinye were still attending classes there, having been thoroughly convinced by Qing Nu’s teaching, feeling that the alchemy knowledge she imparted made their own earlier studies seem inferior.

“Greetings, Sect Leader!”

Seeing Chen Mobai descending in his “Red Misty Cloud Silk,” Zeng Woyou immediately came over to greet him.

Under Qing Nu’s guidance, Yan Jinye was refining Vein Protection Pills.

Compared to Zeng Woyou, whose advanced age and well-ingrained alchemy techniques made progress difficult, Yan Jinye’s learning speed was ahead of his master’s. Thus, Qing Nu focused her guidance mainly on Yan Jinye, helping him refine the Foundation Establishment Trithings.

Zeng Woyou, on the other hand, was open-minded about this, knowing that his lifespan was not much longer and that the chance to glimpse the most superior alchemy techniques before passing away in meditation would leave him without regrets.

If his chosen successor, Yan Jinye, surpassed him, then Zeng Woyou’s life would be even more fulfilled.

Chen Mobai exchanged gazes with Qing Nu by the Pill Furnace, giving a nod of greeting before conversing with Zeng Woyou, waiting for their current batch of elixirs to complete.

The alchemy teaching area was on the mountainside, where the Rank-3 medicinal field, a highly treasured asset of the Five Elements Sect, was planted with an abundance of Jade Marrow Golden Mushrooms.

“What brings you here today?”

Finally, Qing Nu ended her guidance, instructing Yan Jinye to finish tempering the furnace, and then she came over, smiling and conversing with Chen Mobai.

“This is for you.”

The two had reached the mountaintop. When the Cloud Mist Array arose, this became their private little world.

“Is this the Heterodox Golden Core you mentioned?”

Upon opening the box and sensing the unique results of combining Dan with artifacts from the Tianhe Realm, Qing Nu expressed her amazement.

“With this, you can experience the realm of Core Formation in advance and also refine the fragments of this Fifth-Rank Magic Weapon.”

As he spoke, Chen Mobai took out the black cloth and, holding Qing Nu’s delicate white hands gently, placed it in her palm.

“A Fifth-Rank Magic Weapon?”

Hearing this, Qing Nu couldn’t conceal her shock.

One must know that even Nascent Soul Cultivators couldn’t wield Fifth-Rank Magic Weapons in the Immortal Gate.

She never imagined that upon coming to the Tianhe Realm, she would encounter such an opportunity.

After Chen Mobai explained the origin of the black cloth, Qing Nu already couldn’t put it down and began trying to refine it.

However, as Chen Mobai expected, even with her Heavenly Water Spirit Root, she couldn’t refine the fragment of the Mysterious Light Soap Carved Flag at her current Foundation Establishment Realm.

“Protect me while I do this.”

Excited, Qing Nu immediately took the Heterodox Golden Core, prepared to refine it on the spot.

Chen Mobai heard this and naturally nodded.

In the days that followed, he continued to cultivate his Pure Yang Daoist Body at the Tianpeng Mountain Sub courtyard, simultaneously condensing Pure Yang True Qi with the Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy.

Chen Mobai had also pondered the three methods mentioned by Daoist Sanjue. He found that to integrate talismans with talisman making, at minimum, one needed to be a Fourth-Rank Talisman Master. Moreover, one had to create a unique talisman according to the characteristics of the Two-yi Qi.

Chen Mobai felt he lacked the ability, and even Zhou Shengqing could not do it; after all, the latter, despite being a Rank-4 Talisman Maker from The Barren Eastern Wilderness, might be deemed inferior even to Rank-3 in the Immortal Gate.

In the entire Immortal Gate, probably only Daoist Yu Yi, the Fifth Order Rune Master, could create such talismans.

Chapter 1505: Immortal Spirit Root: Purple-blue Divine Flame Tusita Fire_4

But she was accompanying Master Chengxuan in his closed-door cultivation.

It was the same with elixirs, and it depended on whether Qing Nu, after refining the heterodox Golden Core, could create an alchemy recipe that fused the Two-yi Qi as an alchemist of Rank-4.

Chen Mobai planned to give her all the remaining Enlightenment Tea.

As for the final magic artifact, Chen Mobai also took a look; it was feasible, but required the expertise of a Rank-4 artifact refiner to research further. He would consult with Hong Mengkui when he arrived at Wangwu Cave Heaven in the future.

This was the first time Chen Mobai felt that his achievements in cultivation arts were slightly lacking.

But this was understandable.

After all, he spent most of his time cultivating the fundamentals of essence, qi, and spirit, and really did not have extra time to spend on these miscellaneous things.

Now, he could only place his hopes on Qing Nu.

While Chen Mobai was contemplating this, a thread of Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy had already been condensed. After he supplied the Purple and Green Double Swords with top-grade spirit stones, he stimulated his Longevity Dao Body to heal his physical injuries and descended atop Mount Tianpeng.

This thread of Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy did not stay in his hands for too long and was quickly refined into Pure Yang True Qi by him.

Although it was somewhat wasteful, for him, this was the quickest way to accumulate Pure Yang True Qi.

Time passed quickly, and a month was gone.

That day, Chen Mobai sensed a vast surge of Water Spiritual Power erupting from within the wooden house, which made his face show a slight surprise of joy.

This time during Qing Nu's closed-door cultivation, he had given her ten Water Spirit Pearls, which were more than enough for even Core Formation.

Now, looking at this fluctuation, it was evident that she had successfully refined the heterodox Golden Core and was now absorbing sufficient Water Spirit Qi to elevate her cultivation technique's realm.

This year, Qing Nu had also just finished transforming the Black Emperor Abyssal Scripture. Under the listening of Chen Mobai's Echoes in the Void, he seemed to perceive a profound abyss emerging within the wooden house, as though capable of engulfing the Five Continents and Four Seas, ceaselessly devouring and refining the massive and pure Water Spirit Qi.

Well, practicing the Black Emperor Abyssal Scripture did have a hint of demonic cultivation to it.

Somehow, Chen Mobai thought of Hong He.

He wondered how he was getting on since leaving the sect?

Three days later, the wooden house opened.

With skin even more lustrous and her whole body radiating a tender spiritual radiance, Qing Nu stepped out feeling ecstatic about the profound level of Golden Core stage spiritual power within her Dantian Qi Sea.

"I didn't expect it to be so simple!"

At the Immortal Gate, there wasn't such a side method; Qing Nu thought if she were to form her core, she would have to wait at least another ten or twenty years.

“With the power of Core Formation, you can now refine either the Golden Liquid Jade Pill or the Five Elements Golden Core Pill. By then, with your foundation combined with this heterodox Golden Core, Core Formation will definitely be successful.”

Chen Mobai was also very pleased. In the Tianhe Realm, only Qing Nu could accompany him on his journey, and naturally, he hoped she could advance her realm as quickly as possible.

“Hmm, I have almost finished improving the Water Primordial Golden Core Pill, and now I can try to refine it.”

After hearing this, Qing Nu couldn't help but reveal joy on her face.

However, considering that Zeng Woyou and his disciple were still below, they did not celebrate unrestrainedly. Amidst Chen Mobai's regret, he also shared with her his concept for the Clear Spirit Purple-Magnificence Pill.

“To create an alchemy recipe from scratch, especially one concerning the Two-yi Qi, might require a Fifth-Order Alchemist. I can only do my best.”

Qing Nu was also honest in her response, admitting that she wasn't confident.

She could improve the Water Primordial Golden Core Pill and others because the alchemy recipes from Immortal Gate were already very complete, with a full logic from the formation to improvement of the recipe, and she only needed to slightly adjust the main and auxiliary ingredients without disrupting the overall efficacy.

But to create a Rank-4 alchemy recipe from nothing was indeed beyond her capacity.

“If that's the case, let's prioritize refining the Lingyuan Pill and Golden Elixir Spiritual Medicine.”

After listening, Chen Mobai also had a clear understanding and did not allow Qing Nu to waste time on the concept of the Clear Spirit Purple-Magnificence Pill.

“Hmm!”

The two shared a tender moment on the mountaintop, and then Qing Nu went down the mountain to check the quality of the Vein Protection Pills that Yan Jinye was nurturing.

Meanwhile, Chen Mobai took out more supreme-grade Spirit Stones and planned to cultivate for one more day on Mount Tianpeng. After spending a loving and entwined night with Qing Nu, he would return to the Immortal Gate the next day.

However, during this cultivation session, his Nine Suns Body suddenly overcame that barrier.

Chen Mobai felt the latent Fire Spirit Root in his body's anxious part suddenly burst forth with an indescribable intense warmth during that instant. Accompanied by the heart's gathering pulses, it flowed through his entire body and eventually surged up to the Sea of Knowledge at the Purple Palace!

Boom!

Chen Mobai felt his heart and mind being propelled forward by this torrential force, rushing out from his brow, then breaking through a layer of barrier, as if soaring straight into the Great Tao of the universe's operation.

Without using any Spirit-Testing Instruments, he already knew that his Fire Spirit Root had reached 100 points.

Currently, he was in the midst of Hearing the Path Foundation Establishment for his Immortal Spirit Root.

With prior knowledge of these events, Chen Mobai did not panic. He remembered the warnings in Elder Yuanxu's information: in this state, one should not operate the Guidance Book.

Because the human body has its own protective mechanism that will automatically sever the state of hearing the path when it is unable to withstand the resonance with the Great Tao.

But under the state induced by the Guidance Book, one might completely sink into it if not careful.

At the same time, Chen Mobai began to analyze his inner self.

According to the information from Elder Yuanxu, when an Immortal Spirit Root hears the Tao, it is akin to a cultivator making a wish to the heaven and earth, and the Great Tao might respond to the most genuine desire in their heart.

Doing so, the chances of obtaining Immortal Art Divine Powers become greater.

[So, what do I need most right now?]

Chen Mobai was also slightly perplexed in his heart.

What he wanted was a breakthrough and enhancement in his Cultivation Realm, if possible, the fastest Nascent Soul Formation or even Divinity Transformation would be best.

But clearly, this is impossible. If hearing the path was this useful, the Immortal Gate would surely have more than just those with Nascent Soul and Divinity Transformation.

Chen Mobai began to think even deeper...

The only threshold he had from Nascent Soul Formation was that the Pure Yang Scroll had not yet reached Perfect Core Formation.

But even if his essence, Qi, and spirit were all perfected, if his storage of Pure Yang True Qi was insufficient, or his Primordial True Qi was not fully accomplished, even with the aid of the Infant Binding Three Spirits Medicine, he would definitely not dare to initiate the process of Nascent Soul Formation, attempting Nascent Soul Emergence!

That is to say, his biggest obstacle to Nascent Soul Formation was True Qi!

Is there any Immortal Art Divine Power that could help him condense Pure Yang True Qi and Primordial True Qi at the fastest rate?

When he analyzed his inner self to this extent, the image of the Purple and Green Double Swords suddenly flashed through his mind.

If there was sufficient Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy, then it would be possible!

But how to achieve this?

In that instant, the Purple Green Demon Refining Heavenly Book, which Chen Mobai had almost forgotten about in his memories, began to emerge word by word within his heart and mind!

This was the hand-copied version of the Purple Green Demon Refining Heavenly Book that Yan Qiongzhi had specially requested from the Scholarly Mansion, which had been decoded by the Nascent Soul superiors Qing Jing and Qing Shi.

But at that time, Chen Mobai could not understand a single word!

And now, with the words and sentences smelted through the Great Tao, they shone brightly in his heart and mind, transforming into a Purple Green Divine Flame!

The Stat Fire!

Chapter 1506: Tuśita Eight Scenic Lanterns

All the essence contained within the Purple Green Demon Refining Heavenly Book was comprehended by Chen Mobai in this instant, transforming into a Douluo Fire.

This is an extremely powerful flame, one might even say, it is an Immortal Technique!

It is the embodiment of the Force of Life!

The so-called Tao produces one, one produces two, two produce three, three produce all things!

The Two-yi Qi condenses into the Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy, which then sublimates into the Purple Green Divine Flame Douluo Fire, representing the process of two generating three.

And the function of Douluo Fire is precisely to “produce all things”!

If this flame is used for refining elixirs and magic artifacts, the success rate will be greatly enhanced.

Even an ordinary Alchemist or Artifact Refiner, as long as they truly understand it, would almost always have a seventy percent certainty in their refining process, and if it was in the hands of an exceptional cultivator like Qing Nu, it would be almost guaranteed, each Alchemy attempt could almost be assumed successful.

Beyond these functions, the most useful aspect of Douluo Fire for Chen Mobai is that it helps in Condensing True Qi.

This Douluo Fire is ignited and sublimated by the Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy, which can be ignited by a wisp and as long as it isn't used excessively and is nurtured in an environment rich in Two-yi Qi, it will never regress.

Previously, each time Chen Mobai condensed a wisp of Pure Yang True Qi, it would consume one wisp of Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy, but now, having ignited the Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy into Douluo Fire, it can eternally aid in Condensing True Qi.

Furthermore, this Douluo Fire could continuously be enhanced and replenished with Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy.

For example, if Chen Mobai replenished the Douluo Fire with ten wisps of Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy, each cultivation session could help him condense ten wisps of Pure Yang True Qi. This way, the efficiency of his cultivation would only increase further.

And when it reaches one hundred wisps, that is, a complete strand of Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy, then a complete Douluo Fire can be ignited.

In this way, each time Chen Mobai cultivates, he could condense a strand of Pure Yang True Qi.

Based on the current rate of condensing one wisp of Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy every month with the Purple Green Double Swords, it would take just over eight years for Chen Mobai to ignite a complete Douluo Fire.

And if one could condense nine complete Douluo Fires, then with the secret techniques recorded in the Tian Shu, it could be sublimated again, forming a lamp blossom, and with this as the source spirit, it could refine a powerful Magic Artifact called "Purple Green Douluo Eight Scenic Demon Refining Lamp."

This Magic Artifact, once refined, would be of the Fifth-order level, and in the future, by continuously adding more lamp blossoms and lamp oil, it could even level up again.

Chen Mobai briefly reviewed the materials needed to refine the lamp bowl and lamp oil and immediately chose to give up.

These are all Fifth-order materials, already becoming legendary within the Immortal Gate, and it's even unknown whether they have appeared in the past or not.

It's better to first honestly refine the Douluo Fire.

Chen Mobai thought this way, also feeling an extreme weakness washing over his heart and mind, knowing that he had reached his limit in receiving heavenly knowledge, and immediately severed the connection with the Heavenly Way, returning to his Sea of Knowledge at the Purple Mansion!

This opportunity of receiving heavenly knowledge was extremely fortunate, as not only did he obtain the Immortal Art Divine Power of the Douluo Fire, but even got the powerful artifact blueprint of the Douluo Eight Scenic Lantern.

The hand-copied Tian Shu manuscript deciphered by the venerable Qing Jing and Qing Shi has been completely understood by him.

It is uncertain whether the two venerable individuals left the blueprint of the Douluo Eight Scenic Lantern to the Immortal Gate before they passed away in meditation.

But these things shouldn't concern Chen Mobai.

After all, for him right now, the most important thing is still the Douluo Fire!

It is just unfortunate that he currently doesn't have the Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy to attempt to ignite and sublimate, which is deeply regrettable.

In the weakened state of his heart and mind after receiving heavenly knowledge, Chen Mobai was almost impatient to fly up with the Purple Green Double Swords.

"You're awake!"

As Chen Mobai opened his eyes, he saw Qing Nu standing not far in front of him with a surprised and joyful face.

He was cultivating his Pure Yang Daoist Body when he suddenly made a breakthrough, thus directly ending up sitting on the Meditation Mat outside the wooden house. Fortunately, this little domain belonged to him and Qing Nu alone, with no one else coming up here.

Qing Nu, knowing well that Chen Mobai had extraordinary talent and could have sudden enlightenments at any moment, immediately activated the Mountain Peak Grand Formation and personally guarded the place.

“You’ve worked hard.”

Chen Mobai nodded gently to Qing Nu, but while getting up, he felt his head sway slightly.

“Are you alright?”

Qing Nu immediately came over and supported Chen Mobai, feeling his reliance on her soft and delicate body, he also relaxed, leaning his hand on her fragrant shoulder, they both sat down on a wooden bench not far away.

“I delved too deeply into the state of receiving heavenly knowledge from the Immortal Spirit Roots, consuming a bit much of my heart and mind, I need to rest for a while.”

As they spoke, Chen Mobai took out the Snow Needle Immortal Bud from his domain, and Qing Nu immediately took it over, starting to help brew water for tea.

After drinking a cup of Spiritual Tea, Chen Mobai felt somewhat recovered.

Then he took out the Spirit-Testing Instruments, channeling his own Spiritual Power into it.

[Metal 23, Wood 49, Water 39, Fire 100, Earth 60].

His Fire Spirit Root had reached perfection as he expected, but surprisingly, his Wood and Water Spiritual Roots did not suffer any damage, which astonished Chen Mobai, but it was certainly a good thing.

Seeing the values displayed on the screen, Qing Nu was both shocked and proud.

“Your Spiritual Root Value can truly be said to be the first in the history of the Immortal Gate, even the Yuanyang Ancestor is far inferior to you.”

Chapter 1507: Tuśita Eight Scenic Lanterns_2

Hearing the praise from Qing Nu, Chen Mobai modestly shook his head.

After watching the fire spiritual roots value of 100 for a good while, he finally let out a satisfied sigh.

Having transferred to the Pure Yang Scroll for 59 years, he never slacked off even a single day in the cultivation of the Pure Yang Daoist Body, and now was the moment to relish the wonderful fruits of his labor.

However, this also shows how difficult it is to achieve Nascent Soul Formation with the Pure Yang Scroll.

Even with the immense Spirit Stone resources of the Tianhe Realm supporting him, Chen Mobai had taken nearly sixty years to reach this point.

Although the two transformations of his Nine Suns Body will be quicker since they don't require wasting time on the Spiritual Root, they will definitely take more than sixty years.

It's no wonder the Pure Yang Scroll, as one of the Immortal Gate's most accessible Divinity Transformation Techniques, is something almost anyone can begin, yet ultimately more than 99% opt to switch to another cultivation technique.

"This time during my Wen Dao, I comprehended an Immortal Technique called Stat Fire from the Purple Green Demon Refining Heavenly Book..."

While drinking tea, Chen Mobai shared his Wen Dao insights with Qing Nu, who, after hearing about Stat Fire in detail, indeed lit up with excitement.

With this, when she refines Foundation Establishment and Nascent Soul Formation Spiritual Medicines, she won't have to fear failure anymore.

"You're really lucky, as if you're truly favored by the Heavenly Way!"

Qing Nu looked at Chen Mobai with some envy, who himself thought for a moment and felt that it was all thanks to Elder Yuanxu's contributions. If it weren't for him providing all the Immortal Spirit Root research materials of the Repairing Heaven Institute, he might not have been able to comprehend this Immortal Technique.

It's very likely he would have deviated towards some other Immortal Art Divine Power!

It probably also had to do with the auspicious blessing of his Vermilion Phoenix Facing the Sun Diagram.

Anyway, it certainly had nothing to do with him personally.

Chen Mobai had a very clear understanding of himself.

However, Qing Nu took it as her man being modest, her eyes filled with even more admiration.

Another month passed by.

Having already recovered to his peak, Chen Mobai used the Purple and Green Double Swords to condense a wisp of Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy. Then, using his seemingly ingrained insight, he ignited and elevated it into Stat Fire!

[Eh, isn't this the Immortal Fire that the old masters took great effort to refine together!]

Because Chen Mobai was somewhat impatient and ignited the Stat Fire directly in the Heavenly Firmament, the Purple and Green Double Swords, which were beside him absorbing Spirit Stones to recover, also witnessed this scene, and the Purple Electric Sword was greatly surprised.

"Oh, so Qingjing Shangren and Qingshi Shangren did indeed manage to condense this Stat Fire."

After hearing this, Chen Mobai confirmed something in his mind.

But he was a bit surprised by the phrase “took great effort.”

Is this Stat Fire difficult to refine?

[Yes, I remember that it wasn't until after both old masters advanced to Nascent Soul that they started using me and Little Qing to perform the Purple Qinghagara. We could barely condense a wisp of this Immortal Fire every year.]

As the Purple Electric Sword transmitted its voice, the Qing Shuang Sword beside it also nodded frequently. Chen Mobai felt a change in attitude from the two swords towards him at this point; they had become completely respectful.

[Master, your talent far surpasses that of my two former masters.]

This was a rare initiative from the Qing Shuang Sword to transmit its voice.

It had, at least, accepted Pei Qingshuang as the Sword Master.

Chen Mobai felt pleased for his good friend after hearing this.

However, the two Nascent Soul Superiors, Qingjing and Qingshi, could only condense a wisp of Stat Fire every year!

Isn't that efficiency a bit too low!

Chen Mobai was somewhat astonished, but he quickly realized.

The two seniors, although they deciphered precious content such as Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy, Stat Fire, and Eight Scenic Lanterns from the Tian Shu, it was all based on their own comprehensions.

He, on the other hand, relied entirely on the refinement and blessing of the Heavenly Way during the state of Wen Dao.

It was as if he stood on their shoulders and saw the answer directly.

Plus, the Immortal Art Divine Power he received from Wen Dao was the Stat Fire!

This powerful Immortal Fire Technique was such that he had practically cultivated it to perfection, with only the supplement of Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy needed.

And for Qingjing and Qingshi, even as Nascent Soul Cultivators, to fully cultivate an Immortal Technique to perfection would be very difficult.

After all, Immortal Techniques are essentially Rank-5, theoretically only a God-Transcending cultivator can truly cultivate and perform them.

The fact that the two superiors could condense Stat Fire at the Nascent Soul Realm already signified their extraordinary talents and deep comprehension of the Tian Shu.

“After the two superiors passed away in meditation, was their condensed Stat Fire passed down?”

Chen Mobai asked the Purple and Green Double Swords.

Even if only one wisp could be condensed each year, the life span of a Nascent Soul cultivator is a thousand years, which should definitely allow for the condensation of a complete flame, right?

If the Immortal Gate truly had such a legacy of Immortal Fire, then he would be the best user and inheritor of it!

[The two old masters exerted great effort for a hundred years to each condense a Purple Green Immortal Fire, but after passing away in meditation, I have no idea where the Immortal Fire has gone.]

The Purple Electric Sword spoke helplessly, while the Qing Shuang Sword on the side provided more specific information.

[My first master used both Immortal Fires to attempt to breakthrough to the Realm of Turning into a God. However, because her life and death were uncertain, she sent Purple away before that. I witnessed her fail the breakthrough; her body was burned to nothingness by Immortal Fire.]

So that was how Qingjing Shangren passed away!

Chen Mobai was moved by the story of the cultivator reaching for the peak.

After Qingjing Shangren's passing, the Three Great Halls of Xianmen sent people over, and all the belongings left behind were arranged according to her will before death.

Chapter 1508: Douluo Eight Scenic Lanterns_3

Then, due to the constant tempering by the Douluo Fire, the Purple Lightning Qingshuang Sword, whose Grade was too high, was sent by the Immortal Gate to the Sword Tower in the Mountain and Sea Academy for unified nurturing and care.

As for the whereabouts of the two flames of Douluo Fire after Qingjing Shangren passed away in meditation, the Qing Shuang Sword itself did not know.

Because at that time it had no master to wield it, it simply could not control such Immortal Fire.

Of course, it's also possible that under the long-term lack of Two-yi Qi supply, it began to dim or even extinguish.

However, Chen Mobai can investigate the specifics upon his return using the power of the Sky-Mending Group.

If that doesn't work, he could also go to the Nature Studies Academy and ask Yunhai Shangren directly.

[Master, can that Immortal Fire warm me up in the future?]

The Purple Electric Sword, seeing Chen Mobai with the Purple Green Divine Flame Douluo Fire burning in his palm, couldn't help but come closer and made a small request.

Being able to upgrade to a powerful Fourth Grade Superior Sword Artifact in the context of scarce resources of the Immortal Gate, the Purple and Green Double Swords owed their strength entirely to the profound life-giving power of the Douluo Fire.

Now that they had enough Spirit Stones, if they could be nurtured and tempered with this Douluo Fire again, perhaps they could truly advance to a Fifth Rank Sword in Chen Mobai's hands!

After the Purple Electric Sword, the usually quite reserved Qing Shuang Sword couldn't help but fly over and gently rub Chen Mobai's palm with its hilt.

Expressing, with this silent gesture, the same desire as the Purple Electric Sword.

"You two are only one step away from Rank-5, with strong origins. My Cultivation Level is insufficient; I've only condensed a strand of Douluo Fire, and it might take nearly ten years to condense a complete flame, which then would be truly beneficial for both of you."

Chen Mobai was certainly willing to help but also spoke of the difficulties involved.

The Purple Electric Sword then inquired about how to condense Immortal Fire faster, and upon learning the key was Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy, it promptly stated that it and Little Qing could forgo their rest time to help condense twenty strands of Two-yi Qi within a year.

With this, Chen Mobai could condense a complete Douluo Fire in about five years.

“With this arrangement, I will need to endure much hardship, but since you two recognize me as your master, such hardship is nothing to speak of. So, for the next five years, let us three work hard together, and once we complete a flame of Douluo Fire, the days that follow will be filled with beauty and hope.”

Chen Mobai’s words deeply moved the Purple Green Double Swords, feeling fortunate to have such a master.

[Master, from now on we won’t need Spirit Stones for condensing Nine Heavens Pure Spirit Purple Brilliance Energy!]

Moved, the simple Qing Shuang Sword conveyed this message.

[Ah...]

The Purple Electric Sword felt something was not quite right, but at this moment, it too gritted its teeth and said it would also forfeit the need.

It wouldn’t be right to put the master through such hardship, yet allow him to spend resources for us, unworthy of being protective Daoist Skill Artifacts!

“This doesn’t seem right!”

Chen Mobai felt somewhat distressed, but the Qing Shuang Sword insisted vigorously, and the Purple Electric Sword was also forced to nod in agreement.

In the end, they reached a new agreement.

Chen Mobai would help the Purple Green Double Swords condense a complete Douluo Fire, which he could utilize when needed, but ordinarily, it would belong to the Purple Green Double Swords to temper their bodies.

The Qing Shuang Sword even wanted to give Spirit Stones to Chen Mobai, but he, with conscience, refused.

After establishing this new agreement, Chen Mobai returned to Mount Tianpeng with the Douluo Fire.

He first tried to condense a strand of Pure Yang True Qi and found it was just as described in the Purple Green Demon Refining Heavenly Book.

After the True Qi was condensed, the Douluo Fire remained bright and luminous.

It seemed that condensing True Qi did not consume any of the Immortal Fire.

While condensing Pure Yang True Qi did not require as long as a month's interval, Chen Mobai, with diligent efforts, could condense it daily.

In this way, he could condense more than twenty strands of Pure Yang True Qi within a year with the enhancement of the Douluo Fire, as long as the Spiritual Power was sufficient.

In an instant, the greatest difficulty before his Nascent Soul Formation dissolved like ice before the sun thanks to this Wen Dao of the Immortal Spirit Roots.

"I also want to try this Immortal Fire!"

After condensing Pure Yang True Qi, Qing Nu, who could hardly wait, immediately borrowed this strand of Douluo Fire from him.

The materials for the third furnace of Return to True Elixir were already processed, but since Chen Mobai felt they were of no use to him, Qing Nu had put them aside.

This was a perfect opportunity to test the Purple Green Divine Flame Douluo Fire!

Qing Nu deliberately set up the alchemy location halfway up the mountain.

The purpose was to demonstrate the Immortal Gate's Alchemy skills to Zeng Woyou and Yan Jinye, helping the two still studying to deeply understand.

Chen Mobai also acted as a protector on the side, for now, only he could control and activate the Douluo Fire.

But he and Qing Nu had already developed a silent understanding, and with the second-hand equipment fetched over from the Immortal Gate, which could make the Alchemy process more mechanized and automated, Chen Mobai only needed to follow Qing Nu's instructions and provide the Douluo Fire as fuel for Alchemy.

Half a month later, Qing Nu successfully produced a batch of ten Return to True Elixir pills free of Dan Poison, leaving Zeng Woyou and Yan Jinye's mentor and disciple's mouths agape as if witnessing a miracle.

In their understanding, even if an Alchemy Grandmaster from the Eastern Earth Holy Land's Dao Morale Sect were to do it, the result would probably be of this caliber.

"Senior Qing Nu, you might truly be a descendent of the Dao Morale Sect's Holy Land!"

At this moment, Zeng Woyou and Yan Jinye had a bold guess about the origins of Qing Nu.

Chapter 1509: Tu'sita Eight Scenic Lanterns_4

They believed that Qing Nu's master, who had gone overseas to transcend tribulation, might be the Huashen Zhenjun (Deity-Transcending True Monarch) from Dao Morale Sect!

Seeing Sect Master Chen talking and laughing freely with such a descendant of a holy land, the master-disciple duo of Zeng Woyou felt a sense of pride.

“Do you want to take one of these elixirs?”

Chen Mobai asked Qing Nu, mentioning that the Immortal Gate had methods similar to the Soak to Annihilate, which could dilute the effects of the elixir, allowing cultivators with insufficient realms to consume and refine it.

“Forget it, I’m different from you. It’s better for me not to take elixirs if I can avoid it.”

But Qing Nu shook her head directly.

Chen Mobai had the Danfeng Chaoyang Diagram and the Flame Lighting Technique that could purify spiritual power, allowing him to recklessly consume elixirs to enhance his cultivation realm.

Contrarily, Qing Nu leaned towards the Foundation Faction, and with her Heavenly Water Spiritual Root, she could break through major boundaries without facing any bottlenecks thereafter.

So, her need for elixirs was not great.

“Alright then, this batch of Return to True Elixirs can be consumed by Fu Shixiong once he stabilizes his realm.”

Chen Mobai had already consumed two batches, and these elixirs no longer had an effect on him.

However, they were perfectly suitable for Fu Zongjue.

Chen Mobai planned to give him three pills, then put them up at Spirit Treasure Pavilion.

This way, Nu Jiang and Sheng Zhaoxi would know the benefits of merging the Five Veins. While consuming Purple Jade Porridge, they would also develop a longing for the Return to True Elixirs.

Early the next day, Chen Mobai bid farewell to Qing Nu and left Mount Tianpeng.

When leaving, he took not only the Return to True Elixirs but also the Foundation Establishment Trithings he had refined during this time.

There were a total of thirteen complete sets.

Besides the four sets refined by the master-disciple duo of Zeng Woyou, the remaining nine sets were demonstrations made by Qing Nu.

These items definitely wouldn't be directly released to the Spirit Treasure Pavilion.

After all, in the Tianhe Realm, the Foundation Building Pill was considered the prime spiritual medicine for foundation establishment, and if the Five Elements Sect were to rashly present the Foundation Establishment Trithings which could partially substitute the effects of Foundation Building Pill, it would surely draw all eyes instantly.

At the very least, it would be after the sect became a Nascent Soul Major Faction that they could continue this business.

Moreover, even then, Chen Mobai planned to eventually sell the alchemy recipe of Foundation Establishment Trithings at a good price, thereby transferring the immense pressure.

This batch of Foundation Establishment Trithings was entirely given to Zhou Wangshen, allowing him to administer them to the sect disciples laboring to condense Five Elements Essence at the Flying Dragon Pool.

Since these individuals had committed to a Daoist Heart Oath when they were selected, promising not to reveal any of their activities or experiences at the Flying Dragon Pool to outsiders, they were the most suitable recipients.

If they could leverage the Foundation Establishment Trithings to train these former true transmission disciples into genuine Foundation Establishment practitioners, it would not only add depth to the sect's foundation, but the amount of Five Elements Essence Chen Mobai could gather would also increase tenfold or even a hundredfold.

“Sect Master, I definitely will not fail the trust placed in me.”

Zhou Wangshen was greatly surprised upon learning about the effects of the Foundation Establishment Trithings, yet he solemnly said to Chen Mobai.

“This is the Taoist Soldiers technique of the Five Elements. Besides condensing the Five Elements Essence, you can also have these sect cultivators practice this technique daily. If there’s a war with a major faction outside Eastern Wilderness in the future, your mastery over the Five Elements Dao Soldiers would make you the best candidate to lead them,” said Chen Mobai as he handed the yearly-crafted Longevity Dew to Zhou Wangshen along with a jade slip.

“Thank you, Sect Master!”

Upon hearing this, Zhou Wangshen was also slightly excited.

After all, the person who had previously led the Five Elements Dao Soldiers was none other than the current Sect Master.

These words made him begin to fantasize, feeling that his efficient service over the years had made him a confidant in the Sect Master’s eyes, and that he was about to be intensively nurtured.

Even if he couldn’t compete for the next Sect Leader, becoming one of the Three Great Hall Masters was also acceptable.

Because within the Five Elements Sect, there was now hope for obtaining Golden Elixir Spiritual Medicine, Zhou Wangshen’s desire to become the Sect Leader was merely a childhood obsession, and in reality, it was no longer necessary for him or even E Yun!

However, becoming a confidant of the Sect Leader was very important!

After Zhou Wangshen left, E Yun, who was waiting outside, immediately entered.

“Sect Leader, someone at Kong Sang Valley requests an audience!”

Upon hearing his report, Chen Mobai was somewhat surprised.

Ever since Elder Muqin led the cultivators of Kong Sang Valley to establish a new residence in the Ruins, he had largely stopped paying attention to it.

Since Zhou Shengqing was in Northern Abyss City, he was the only one who had the stature to speak with Elder Muqin as an equal.

And per Chen Mobai’s instructions, Northern Abyss City also opened up trading materials with Kong Sang Valley to support them in their establishment of a new branch in the Ruins.

Under such circumstances, there shouldn’t have been anything that would require the attention of him, the reclusive Sect Leader of the Five Elements Sect.

“Who requests an audience?”

He inquired.

“It is True Person Yi Chenghan!”

Chen Mobai was aware of this person, one of the two Golden Core Cultivators who came with Elder Muqin, famed also as an accomplished Array Master.

But Chen Mobai’s only interaction with him was once at the Sky Meal Building when he had drawn the Purple Electric Sword on him.

“When will he come?”

“He is already at Giant Tree Ridge; he was in Northern Abyss City earlier, but as soon as he heard of your return, he immediately took the Teleportation Array from the Fang Market to get here.”

Upon hearing this, Chen Mobai was even more intrigued.

What exactly could be so urgent that would make a Golden Core Cultivator of Kong Sang Valley rush over like this?

“Then let us meet.”

Upon hearing Chen Mobai’s words, E Yun immediately went down, and soon, he walked in with Yi Chenghan, who was dressed in an ink bamboo Daoist robe and had an air of an immortal.

“Greetings Sect Master Chen, I apologize for my uninvited visit, please forgive my intrusion.”

Yi Chenghan was very polite as he greeted Chen Mobai, who immediately stood up to reciprocate the gesture, and then invited him to sit down.

“May I know the reason for True Person Yi’s special visit to Giant Tree Ridge?”

After serving tea, arranged by Gu Yan, Chen Mobai no longer beat around the bush and directly asked.

“To be frank, it was because I overheard during my last trading of Spirit Rice and elixirs with your Sect’s cultivators in Northern Abyss City that your Spirit Treasure Pavilion listed a Secret Treasure of the Longevity Sect which aids the breakthrough of cultivators at the Mid Foundation Establishment Stage. I wonder if it is still there?”

So it was for the Spiritual Energy Rice Cooker!

After hearing this, Chen Mobai suddenly realized.

He remembered that this True Person Yi Chenghan had indeed been stuck in the Mid Foundation Establishment bottleneck for over a hundred years.

Hearing about the Spiritual Energy Rice Cooker, further fueled by the news he arranged to be widely spread about Fu Zongjue's breakthrough into the Core Formation Late Stage within the Five Elements Meridians, it was completely natural for Yi Chenghan to feel inclined.

"To be honest, that Secret Treasure has already been exchanged by Fellow Daoist Nu Jiang and Fellow Daoist Sheng Zhaoxi..."

"That's not urgent. After the two Fellow Daoists have finished using it, I wonder if I could borrow it for a period? You name the price, Sect Master Chen, even if it is Supreme-grade Spirit Stones, I can get them for you."

Upon hearing this, Chen Mobai wasn't tempted in the slightest and directly shook his head in refusal.

"This item is too precious, and it's really not good for lending out."

Upon hearing this, Yi Chenghan gritted his teeth and proposed a condition that greatly surprised Chen Mobai.

Chapter 1510: Beidou Conference

"Sect Master Chen, the Beidou Conference of the Star Heaven Dao Sect is about to convene. My mentor, being a Nascent Soul Cultivator, has received an invitation and can bring two disciples along. I am willing to give up my spot for you, in exchange for the privilege to use that secret treasure. What do you think?"

Upon hearing these words, Chen Mobai couldn't help but fall into deep thought.

The Beidou Conference!

It is almost the largest and most prestigious resource exchange meeting within the East Continent.

Only those who receive an invitation from the Star Heaven Dao Sect are, at the very least, Nascent Soul Cultivators.

Because of the Three Lights Divine Water, heralded as the number one Infant Forming Spirit Medicine in Eastern Earth, even the Taoist Child and Saintess from the Eastern Earth Holy Land make personal appearances at every Beidou Conference.

As for Golden Core Cultivators who wish to perform Nascent Soul Formation, it goes without saying, they would go to great lengths for a chance to participate.

During the Beidou Conference, aside from those who follow the Demon Path, nearly all Nascent Soul Superiors from above East State would be present in person.

At the Nascent Soul Realm, ordinary resources become insignificant to them.

To advance further, they at least need to refine Fourth-order Elixirs or even require Fifth Stage Medicinal Materials, all of which are the treasured heirlooms of major sects.

For example, if Chen Mobai wishes to refine an Infant-Feeding Elixir using the modified alchemy recipe from Yan Shaoyin, he would need the Rank-5 Sun Holy Fruit from the Sun Bathing Sea.

If he were to attempt a purchase from the Sun Bathing Sea, he would undoubtedly be turned away, but at the Beidou Conference, there is a possibility of acquiring it through an exchange.

Furthermore, the Beidou Conference upholds the principles of the Star Heaven Dao Sect's market convention.

If the price offered by Chen Mobai is high enough, he could even snatch away a portion of the Three Lights Divine Water.

After obtaining the Stat Fire for Immortal Spirit Roots Wenda, the only obstacle left for Chen Mobai's Nascent Soul Formation is related Spiritual Medicine.

Although he has an Infant-Feeding Elixir on hand and can eventually condense a complete flame of Stat Fire, along with a strand of Innate Fire-element Essence Qi, his success rate is already quite high compared to others.

But no one would complain about having an even higher chance of success.

Besides, Chen Mobai has always believed that when breaking through realms, it's best to have an abundance of prepared materials!

After all, if the breakthrough fails, the loss of Essence, Qi, and Spirit can still be addressed due to his youth, but wasted time is lost forever.

Now, whether in the Immortal Gate or Tianhe Realm, Chen Mobai feels the tension of an impending storm.

The details of Nangong Xuanyu's Nascent Soul Formation haven't spread, but based on the information gathered by Zhongli Tianyu, it's confirmed that Nangong has succeeded and is currently in Yuanyang View, solidifying his realm with Fifth-Order Spiritual Energy, while also awaiting an audience with the Double Saints of the Immortal Gate.

In the Tianhe Realm, Elder Muqin of Kong Sang Valley has lead a group away from the East Barbarians to establish a branch residence, which indicates that the great war between the three major factions of the East Barbarians is nearing its end.

If the Xuan Xiao Taoist Palace becomes unoccupied, based on the history between the Five Elements Sect and them, a confrontation is inevitable.

With the current strength of the Five Elements Sect, even if they can defeat the Xuan Xiao Taoist Palace, they will surely suffer severe damage and substantial losses.

Therefore, Chen Mobai feels the necessity to achieve Nascent Soul Formation in the shortest time possible.

In doing so, his position as well as that of the forces he represents in both the Eastern Wilderness and Immortal Gate will be as stable as Mount Tai!

Hence, the qualification for the Beidou Conference is indeed quite crucial for him.

“Does Elder Muqin agree to this proposal?”

With this in mind, Chen Mobai asked another question.

“I had already discussed this matter with my mentor before coming here, and she had no objections,” replied Yi Chenghan.

Hearing Yi Chenghan’s words, Chen Mobai nodded, yet he gave a direct response, stating that he would need to consider it for a couple of days.

“Then I’ll wait here for Sect Master Chen’s answer. I’ve heard that Giant Tree Ridge is the second best medicinal field in the Eastern Wilderness, and I just need to refine a batch of cultivation-improving elixirs. Perhaps I can gather all the needed materials here,” said Yi Chenghan, seemingly making an excuse.

However, Chen Mobai still called E Yun to come and accompany Yi Chenghan to the Spirit Plant Department to see if they had the required materials.

After Yi Chenghan left, Chen Mobai immediately sought consultation on this matter with Fu Zongjue and others.

The next day, upon hearing the news, Zhou Shengqing also hurried over.

“The Beidou Conference... I’ve accompanied my mentor there twice in the past. If you go, junior brother, you should easily gather all the materials for refining the Golden Liquid Jade Pill,” reminisced Zhou Shengqing with some nostalgia.

As a Nascent Soul Cultivator, the Primordial Ancestral Master of the Five Elements Sect had, of course, been invited by the Star Heaven Dao Sect. As his second disciple, Zhou Shengqing had followed him to broaden his horizons.

It's just that many treasures of heaven and earth, which are considered very precious in the Eastern Wilderness, are common at the Beidou Conference, almost always available.

As long as one can afford the price and agree with the owner, they can be obtained.

Moreover, the Star Heaven Dao Sect, with seven Nascent Soul practitioners known as the "Seven Stars of East Yu," reigns over a territory and is one of the superpower sects in the East Continent, second only to the Holy Land.

The transactions completed at the Beidou Conference are secured, as no one dares to defy or disrupt the Star Heaven Dao Sect's rules.

And for those reluctant to reveal their identities, the Dao Sect has a Large-scale Transmission Array that can be used to leave immediately with their items, with no one able to track them down.

"If that's the case, then let's agree to it," Chen Mobai decided after seeking Zhou Shengqing's opinion.
