

World 1751

Chapter 1751: Time Rides 6 Dragons to Rule the Heavenly Sutra

Han Ronglu followed Duan Shuyu into the cave, his heart filled with curiosity.

He wondered what exactly it was that made a Golden Core Cultivator like Jiang Zongheng come personally.

The cave was simple, with nothing extraordinary, and soon they reached the end. But Duan Shuyu held a Spirit Talisman in his hand and activated it, and a golden light enveloped both of them, allowing them to pass through the rock wall.

Amidst the golden light, Han Ronglu suddenly felt enlightened, finding before him an even more spacious underground passage, and the ground was even paved with pieces of Qing Shi stone slabs.

It was bright as day here because large Luminous Pearls were embedded in the walls, emitting a soft light, illuminating the winding and deep corridor.

Following Duan Shuyu, he went deeper and deeper, and the surrounding air seemed to become thinner, along with a bizarre force that weighed heavily on the heart.

Eventually, they arrived at the center of a huge cavern, evidently the core of the cave.

In the center of the cavern, there was a tall stone platform, and on the platform lay an ancient round Treasure Cauldron, with a complete skeleton inside the cauldron.

Jiang Zongheng, with an elegant demeanor, stood in front of the stone platform, holding a Jade Scroll Scripture in his hand, frowning.

"Master, these are sect disciples."

Duan Shuyu brought Han Ronglu in front of Jiang Zongheng, who immediately respectfully addressed him as Teacher Jiang. When Han Ronglu was at Longevity Academy, Jiang Zongheng was the principal at that time.

"This is the place where a descendant of the Eastern Emperor Court's royal bloodline sat to demise. At the end of his lifespan, he attempted to refine the earth's Spirit Vein to achieve the Human Emperor's Treasure Body, but he failed and turned into this skeleton."

Jiang Zongheng nodded and pointed to the Treasure Cauldron and the skeleton on the stone platform as he spoke.

Han Ronglu was shocked upon hearing this. In the cultural lessons at the Scholarly Mansion, he had heard teachers talk about this Eastern Emperor Court many times. He knew that it was the superpower that ruled the East Continent in the previous era, and even today's Holy Land had to bow and acknowledge its supremacy back then.

"To cultivate the Human Emperor's Treasure Body, in addition to the Qi of Earth Vein, one must also consume a Hidden Dragon Pill refined from the Dragon Vein, but at that time, the Dragon Veins in the Eastern Wilderness were sparse, so his failure was understandable."

Jiang Zongheng spoke again, and upon hearing this, Han Ronglu immediately took out the Jade Slip given to him by Zhao Gui and respectfully offered it.

Inscribed on it was the alchemy recipe for the Hidden Dragon Pill.

After receiving it, Jiang Zongheng used his Divine Sense to inspect it and could not help but nod: "When you return to the sect, I'll credit you with a thousand contributions. Do not disclose this alchemy recipe to anyone."

The Hidden Dragon Pill is only useful to those cultivating the Eastern Emperor Court techniques, but it happens to help Jiang Zongheng solve a matter of concern.

On the East Continent, the emergence of mundane, unified forces like the Great Zhao Dynasty has led to the formation of an unprecedented super Dragon Vein beneath the Eastern Wilderness. While it has not yet developed spiritual nature due to time, it is foreseeable that as long as the Five Elements Sect remains, especially after the Seed of Dao Law is sown, this era of peace will last for a long time.

A century after the dynasty, the Dragon Vein will fully form and develop spiritual nature, and at that time, it will trigger the appearance and sensing of the Dao Morale Sect's Xuanji Instrument both in heaven and earth.

Although not seen as a must-kill by the Holy Land like Devil Cultivators, Dragon Veins possessing spiritual nature have always been a taboo issue for the Holy Land.

The Holy Lands of the East Continent do not wish to see another Eastern Emperor Court emerge.

The ability to absorb the Dragon Vein's spiritual nature is also key for the Six Dragons Imperial Heaven Scripture in reaching a profound level.

After the collapse of the Eastern Emperor Court, the spiritual nature of all Dragon Veins on the East Continent was eradicated by the Dao Morale Sect, something Lou Xuelong had told Chen Mobai back then.

Because of this, after establishing a unified dynasty, Chen Mobai also informed Jiang Zongheng, who held secular power, about it.

The Five Elements Sect now clearly cannot oppose the Dao Morale Sect, so it must avoid the Dragon Vein developing spiritual nature. Originally, per Chen Mobai's plan, the Qi of Dragon Vein was to be extracted and refined into Earth Veins Elixir.

But the alchemy recipes from the Immortal Gate were too conservative. Chen Mobai estimated using the Guidance Book that refining a thousand Earth Veins Elixirs would barely keep up with the current annual growth rate of the Eastern Wilderness Dragon Vein.

Because the Earth Veins Elixir involves enhancing Spiritual Root, it is too astonishing in the Tianhe Realm, so if too many are refined, they would have to be destroyed, which was unacceptable for Chen Mobai and Qing Nu, being from the Immortal Gate.

Since there are still decades before the Eastern Wilderness Dragon Vein fully forms, Chen Mobai was not overly anxious. If necessary, he could use the Dragon Vein for Artifact Refining; the Rank-4 True Dragon Ding at Crimson Mountain was created this way. Moreover, the Qi of Dragon Vein is the perfect match for cultivating the Dragon Transformation Scripture Technique. If need be, he would put in the effort to practice it.

However, Jiang Zongheng was unaware of this, so after learning that the Dragon Vein developing spiritual nature would attract attention from the Dao Morale Sect, he constantly sought ways to consume the Qi of Dragon Vein and prevent its spirit formation.

The Hidden Dragon Pill obtained now fits this purpose perfectly.

After collecting everything in the Cave Dwelling into his Storage Bag, Jiang Zongheng led Duan Shuyu and Han Ronglu out.

"Notify the sect's Spirit Vein and Formation departments to come here and set up an Array Prohibition to prevent others from intruding," Jiang Zongheng instructed Duan Shuyu, who immediately nodded and then took out the Heavenly Communication Device to make contact on the spot.

Being in Yan County where Northern Abyss City is located, it is an area with prioritized coverage signal, and conveniently, there is a signal base station nearby, allowing use of the Heavenly Communication Device for communication.

Chapter 1752: Time Rides 6 Dragons to Rule the Heavens_2

After Jiang Zongheng left Duan Shuyu behind to wrap things up, he led Han Ronglu towards the capital of the dynasty.

"Uncle Master Jiang, the jade slip with the Hidden Dragon Pill was appraised by this prince."

At this moment, Han Ronglu saw Zhao Gui not far away and recalled that he also had a share in the credit, so he spoke up.

Upon hearing this, Jiang Zongheng waved to Zhao Gui, who immediately came over and performed a grand salute: "Prince Zhao Gui greets Grandmaster Jiang!"

"Come back with us; it has been a long time since I last saw His Majesty."

Speaking thus, Jiang Zongheng waved his sleeve lightly, and a verdant leaf, like a flying boat, fell to the ground and expanded. Under Han Ronglu's guidance, Zhao Gui trembled as he stepped onto it.

The capital, the royal palace!

The once young and vigorous King Zhao now had a head full of white hair. Upon seeing Jiang Zongheng, he personally led his ministers to welcome him.

After the formalities, only two remained in the grand hall.

"Grandmaster, it has been a long time. You haven't changed at all."

King Zhao spoke with emotion upon seeing Jiang Zongheng, whose appearance was unchanged with no sign of aging.

"Your Majesty is also as impressive as ever."

Jiang Zongheng responded with polite small talk, then took out the Jade Scroll Scripture obtained from the cave and spoke of his findings.

Due to the complexity of the matters of the Eastern Emperor Court, he didn't mention them to King Zhao, only saying it was indeed something left by a cultivator that might be useful to the Five Elements Sect, so it needed to be taken back.

"Thank you for your hard work, Grandmaster."

King Zhao listened with a smile on his face.

He was the one closest to the Five Elements Sect in the mortal dynasty. After all, being the great king, if something arose in the Eastern Wilderness Domain that the ordinary could not resolve, he would inform Jiang Zongheng immediately.

This time, it was the same. As soon as Zhao Gui's people took out the items from the cave, King Zhao received the news and dispatched his army to surround it, then notified Jiang Zongheng.

Because he alone understood how terrifying cultivators could be to mortals.

If a cave dwelling left by a demon path cultivator were to fall into the hands of ignorant mortals, it would indeed lead to endless trouble.

"Your Majesty, stay; I'll first return to Northern Abyss."

Jiang Zongheng rose to take his leave, but King Zhao escorted him to the main gates.

"Grandmaster, I feel my body failing, yet this vast land still weighs on my mind. I wonder if the Immortal Sect could grant some elixirs for prolonging life or even a cultivation technique?"

Just about to leave, Jiang Zongheng paused upon hearing King Zhao's words, looked back at him, and saw that the once resolute young man's skin was now loose and spotted, with only his eyes still hinting at the vigor of his youth.

Indeed, it was the sign of approaching life's end.

"Your Majesty, birth and death are part of the Great Tao. Even for us cultivators, there comes a day of aging and death. But the Great Zhao Dynasty you established is an immortal monument over the years of the Eastern Wilderness, making your name already a part of eternity."

Jiang Zongheng gently conveyed the message, and King Zhao understood, sighing as his once upright back bent.

Jiang Zongheng left behind a bottle of elixirs to regulate elemental energy, then rode the leaf flying boat, departing from above the capital.

A half-hour later, once the sky no longer bore any trace of Jiang Zongheng, King Zhao slowly turned back to his throne in the grand hall.

After another incense stick's worth of time, a tall, square-faced black-robed cultivator silently entered the grand hall.

"Immortal Master Mu, just as you predicted!"

Upon seeing the black-robed cultivator, King Zhao spoke with a face full of sorrow.

"The Five Elements Sect only needs an obedient mortal dynasty; who sits on the throne doesn't matter. If you die, your son, being even more obedient, naturally won't be taught the cultivation method."

The black-robed cultivator, named Mu Xiaotian, was an East Dawn Demon Dao cultivator. Following a treasure map obtained as a rogue cultivator, he ventured across the East Continent, risking his way to the Eastern Wilderness to find that cave dwelling.

Though there were restrictions there, they had become damaged over the long years, allowing easy entry.

But Mu Xiaotian was greatly disappointed with what he found inside. Over the ages, all elixirs and magic artifacts had weathered away, rendered unusable.

The treasure cauldron was decent, having only fallen from Rank-4 to Rank-3, but to activate and control it, the Eastern Emperor Court's cultivation technique was required.

There was indeed a cultivation technique on the Jade Scroll Scripture, known as the renowned "Temporal Dragon-Sovereign Scripture."

Though incomplete, it could still allow cultivation to the Nascent Soul Realm.

Yet, he couldn't practice it and wouldn't choose to convert to it.

Back when the Eastern Emperor Court declined, it was the Demon Path that struck mercilessly. The Holy Land at least maintained the righteous path's facade, merely assisting the Dao Morale Sect in slaying the dragon. The Demon Path, however, spared no effort, seeking to exterminate the bloodline descendants of the Eastern Emperor Court, fearing the emergence of another Human Emperor who could suppress the Nine Heavens and Ten Earths, subduing all demons and monsters.

Nevertheless, Mu Xiaotian wasn't without gain; he found bones within the cauldron and a peculiarly shaped jade pendant.

Its grade was unclear, but after the long ages, the jade pendant still emitted a faint halo, signaling its mysterious and extraordinary nature. He cautiously used a puppet to remove the jade pendant, placing it into a storage bag, planning to have it appraised by an expert at an upcoming exchange meeting.

Chapter 1753: Time Rides 6 Dragons to Rule the Heavenly Sutra_3

Originally, Mu Xiaotian also intended to take the Treasure Cauldron, Jade Scroll, and skeletons away.

But he quickly sensed, using a Demonic Secret Art, that beneath the land of the Eastern Wilderness, there was a thriving Dragon Pulse rapidly forming.

After stepping out of the Cave Dwelling to inquire about the situation in the Eastern Wilderness, he soon understood what was happening.

He never imagined that there would be an Immortal Cultivation Sect that would go to such extraordinary lengths to rule mortals.

Over in East Li, mortals have always been treated as livestock; the reason mortals still exist is merely because certain sects require resources for their cultivation techniques and magic artifacts.

It's precisely due to this that mortals in East Li are scattered because gathering in one place increases the likelihood of being captured by Demon Daoist Monks for cultivation practice.

Though Mu Xiaotian knew that in the territories of Righteous Path cultivators, mortals live in groups, he found it hard to fathom that a unified mortal dynasty like the Eastern Wilderness, close to forming a Dragon Vein Spirit, could exist.

This is because he knows that the Eastern Earth Holy Land would slay dragons.

Upon sensing the existence of a dragon pulse beneath the Eastern Wilderness, Mu Xiaotian had an idea in his heart.

He hailed from the most mysterious sect among the eighteen demon sects, the Hua Shen Demon Sect. However, due to this lineage being hunted within the Demon Path, he had another disguised identity as a disciple of the Corpse Disassembling Devil Sect.

From the first glance at King Zhao, Mu Xiaotian felt that this person might become his avatar.

Coincidentally, King Zhao also had a heart seeking Immortal cultivation and asking the Dao to achieve immortality. So when Mu Xiaotian approached, he treated him as a transcendent immortal. Moreover, when Mu Xiaotian imparted the Temporal Dragon-Sovereign Scripture obtained from his Cave Dwelling to King Zhao, he was incredibly excited.

This cultivation technique doesn't require a spiritual root to cultivate.

However, King Zhao still held a glimmer of hope for the Five Elements Sect, so he used the Cave Dwelling as his final test.

He wondered if the Five Elements Sect would pass on this cultivation technique to him, the sovereign ruler of the Eastern Wilderness.

Regarding this, Mu Xiaotian did not intervene.

Because he knew that the Five Elements Sect could not possibly allow mortals to cultivate the Temporal Dragon-Sovereign Scripture; such an act would be against all Holy Lands, even the paths of demons.

The top three forces in the East Continent would not permit the emergence of a second Eastern Emperor Court.

Not even the slightest hint.

Sure enough, Jiang Zongheng didn't mention the matter at all and just left.

Thus, King Zhao lost complete hope in the Five Elements Sect.

"Immortal Master Mu, please arrange the dragon lair; from now on, I entrust everything to you."

King Zhao sensed his body, realizing even standing straight was incredibly difficult, finally made up his mind, without any hesitation.

"Ha ha ha, rest assured, I will lead you on the path to eternal life."

Mu Xiaotian laughed heartily upon hearing this.

After Jiang Zongheng returned to Northern Abyss City, he received a communication from Duan Shuyu using the Heavenly Communication Device, informing him that King Zhao had suddenly passed away during the night, but fortunately, he had left a will and his eldest son Zhao Qian ascended to become the new King Zhao.

"You go back to stabilize the situation at the court."

Jiang Zongheng gave Duan Shuyu an instruction, the latter being the Great General who helped establish half of the Great Zhao Dynasty, holding prestige in Zheng City rivaling that of King Zhao.

“Yes, Master!”

After ending the call with Duan Shuyu, Jiang Zongheng immediately ascended North Abyss Mountain, handing the Temporal Dragon-Sovereign Scripture and all things obtained from the Cave Dwelling to Chen Mobai.

“Indeed, the world is full of wonders; there is actually a cultivation technique that does not require spiritual roots.”

After Chen Mobai finished reading the Jade Scroll Scripture, he marveled in wonder.

Although this doesn’t mean having no spiritual roots is better, it’s merely lowering the threshold; having spiritual roots enhances the efficiency of absorbing Qi of Dragon Vein.

Moreover, without spiritual roots, one must consume Hidden Dragon Pill to enter the path and even for subsequent cultivation, the consumption of Hidden Dragon Pill cannot cease.

To put it simply, this cultivation technique only replaces the essential step in Immortal Cultivation where cultivators absorb spiritual energy with their spiritual roots by using Hidden Dragon Pill.

Nonetheless, it’s still remarkably powerful.

Because in the Tianhe Realm, or even in the Immortal Gate, other Five Elements Cultivation Techniques cannot be practiced by merely introducing spiritual energy into the body.

After meticulously reviewing the Temporal Dragon-Sovereign Scripture, Chen Mobai couldn’t help but exclaim again, as this was indeed the supreme cultivation technique that once subdued the Eastern Continent’s Eastern Emperor Court.

Upon entering with Hidden Dragon Pill, from the first layer to the sixth layer, it constitutes a process of “Temporal Dragon-Sovereigns.” They are: Potential of the Hidden Dragon, Dragon Visible in the Field, Flying Dragon in the Sky, Arrogant Dragon has Regrets, Leaderless Dragons, and again Potential of the Hidden Dragon.

Once the cycle returns to the realm of Potential of the Hidden Dragon, and after absorbing Dragon Vein Spirit, this cultivation technique achieves true mastery, even enabling the forging of a “Dragon Spirit Root”!

And this Dragon Spirit Root, like true spiritual roots, can absorb various Five Element Spiritual Energies and even absorb Qi of Dragon Vein from beneath the earth.

This Qi of Dragon Vein is not limited to human dragon veins; all kinds of dragon veins from varied species provide energy for the growth of the Dragon Spirit Root.

The Temporal Dragon-Sovereign Scripture of the Human Emperor from the Eastern Emperor Court could achieve greatness that once encompassed the dragon veins of human path in East Continent, and the royal courts of major demon tribes, and even the depths of the ocean, all being under his control.

Only by forging Dragon Spirit Root can one truly grasp the essence of the Temporal Dragon-Sovereign Scripture.

No wonder, whenever a Dragon Vein Spirit is born above the Eastern Continent, the Dao Morale Sect sends people to slay dragons.

Though the Temporal Dragon-Sovereign Scripture obtained by Jiang Zongheng only contains the part for refining to Nascent Soul Realm, it still briefly mentions the complete and perfected realms in its general outline.

Chapter 1754: Time Rides 6 Dragons to Rule the Heavens_4

Forging the Dragon Spirit Root is equivalent to the Foundation Building Realm, and after that, one needs to condense the Human Emperor Physique.

The so-called Human Emperor Physique is about using the Qi of the Dragon Vein to forge the body, achieving a physique that can bear the True Spirit Essence Blood of dragons, preparing for the true wonder of this cultivation technique, the “Six-Dragon Incarnation.”

The so-called Six-Dragon Incarnation involves six major dragon True Spirits: the Yellow Dragon, Azure Dragon, Vermilion Dragon, White Dragon, Black Dragon, and Jade Dragon.

The ultimate realm of the Temporal Dragon-Sovereign Scripture is to gather the Dharma Aspects of the six major dragon True Spirits into one, ruling over heaven and earth with the Six-Dragon Dharma Aspect.

However, even at its peak, the Eastern Emperor Court did not dare to provoke all six dragon True Spirits at the same time, and in the Tianhe Realm, it is impossible to find all six types of dragon True Spirits.

The Human Emperor achieved great skills by obtaining the essence blood of the Yellow Dragon, Azure Qiu, Red Serpent, White Chi, Mysterious Flood Dragon, and Multicolored Python. Nevertheless, his Six-Dragon Dharma Aspect was not perfect, and in the end, during the battle with the Nine-Headed Great Saint, the Six-Dragon Incarnations were destroyed one by one, exhausting his strength and leading to his death!

If the Human Emperor had obtained the true essence blood of the six dragon True Spirits instead of substitutes, it might have been possible to accomplish unprecedented feats in the Tianhe Realm, even unifying the Five Continents and Four Seas, becoming the Generation Emperor!

After reading the general outline of the Temporal Dragon-Sovereign Scripture, Chen Mobai was even more astonished.

However, at that moment, he also thought of how to perfect the Temporal Dragon-Sovereign Scripture using the methods of the Immortal Gate.

It's simple, using the Dragon Transformation Scripture created by Ancestor Zhong Li.

If the Human Emperor had the Dragon Transformation Scripture then, he could have sublimated the six defective dragon True Spirit Bloodlines into True Dragon Blood.

However, Chen Mobai certainly wouldn't transmit the Dragon Transformation Scripture here, so it was just a thought in his mind.

Yet, he internally noted this matter down.

Because back then, the Human Emperor was a true Nascent Soul cultivator, which means even the Temporal Dragon-Sovereign Scripture, using six defective dragon True Spirit's blood, could allow one to cultivate to Nascent Soul.

If it were six types of True Dragon Essence Blood, even if one couldn't reach Harmonization, one could at least achieve great success in Nascent Soul cultivation.

In that Immortal Gate side, there hasn't been anyone who truly achieved the Void Refining realm.

Although Chen Mobai's path was already decided, if, someday, the Pure Yang Scroll reached its end and he couldn't cultivate to Nascent Soul, he could also try the Dragon Transformation Scripture.

Moreover, the Ascension Sect has various Devouring Heaven Serpents bred by the Dragon and Tiger Ancestor. Perhaps, with good luck, he could obtain some True Dragon Essence Blood from them.

His conditions could even be said to be better than those of the Human Emperors in the history of the Eastern Lands Imperial Court.

The only problem is that one needs a Dragon Vein Spirit to start practicing the Temporal Dragon-Sovereign Scripture.

It's out of the question in the Eastern Wilderness. If the Xuanji Instrument of the Dao Morale Sect senses something, their Heavenly Walk will personally come to annihilate the Dragon Spirit. If they arrive and find the Dragon Vein Spirit gone, the Dao Morale Sect has reason to suspect Chen Mobai, the Lord of the Eastern Wilderness, of stealing it by himself and refining the Dragon Vein Spirit.

And as for the Dragon Veins on the Immortal Gate side, it's needless to say; Dragon Vein Qi is already a rare resource. Dragon Vein Spirits did exist thousands of years ago, but after the Sky Curtain Ground Network Formation was laid, all Spiritual Energy was controlled, leaving no space for a Dragon Vein Spirit to be born.

Nonetheless, Chen Mobai was not in a hurry. If there's none on the East Continent, it doesn't mean there's none in the other four continents and seas of the Tianhe Realm.

Moreover, the opening war on the Immortal Gate side is about to begin.

The True Dragon Ding of the Dance Tool Dao Academy and the Earth Veins Elixir stored by the Jumang Dao Academy were all refined using the Dragon Veins from a Different World. Perhaps, this opening war could also bring such opportunities.

But even if there are none, he's not concerned.

After all, the Temporal Dragon-Sovereign Scripture in Chen Mobai's hands only reaches the Nascent Soul Formation level. His interest in this cultivation technique is because it points directly to Void Refining.

The current incomplete parts are not enough to entice him.

Thinking of this, Chen Mobai sighed again at the closed inheritance in the Tianhe Realm. This is the remnant of the old dynasty, yet they could not even obtain a complete Temporal Dragon-Sovereign Scripture. It's only fitting for the Eastern Emperor Court to perish.

However, it might be that Jiang Zongheng's cultivation level is too shallow and his search was not meticulous.

With this thought, Chen Mobai immediately observed the Treasure Cauldron and the corpse he brought.

First, he focused on the Treasure Cauldron, seeing its surface densely engraved with runes, seemingly an ancient restriction. He noted these down in the Guidance Book and compared them with various ancient writings in the Northern Abyss City Library, finding none that matched.

Chen Mobai could only set it aside temporarily, then began examining the skeleton.

“Huh!”

Utilizing the Void Spirit Eye and Echoes in the Void simultaneously, he quickly discovered a unique energy residue within the chest bone of the skeleton.

Chen Mobai waved his hand and took that bone into his hand.

Upon careful examination, he found that it emitted a Rank-4 fluctuation, slowly dissipating.

He immediately used the Guidance Book to calculate the rate, discovering that the Rank-4 energy fluctuation would completely vanish in about a year.

The age of this skeleton must be over a thousand years, and by the rate of its decay, it should have long gone.

So this implies that within the chest of the skeleton, within a year, there was a Rank-4 item that left this energy residue due to long-term contamination.

“Is there anything else in that cave dwelling?”

Chen Mobai asked Jiang Zongheng, who hesitated for a moment, then shook his head.

“Someone entered that cave dwelling before you and took something from the chest of this skeleton.”

Chen Mobai stated his analysis, and Jiang Zongheng immediately apologized.

“Disciple’s incompetence...”

“Rise. Do you remember the location of that cave dwelling? Let’s go and have a look.”

Jiang Zongheng nodded, and Chen Mobai waved his sleeve, and the five-colored clouds carried the master and disciple away from Northern Abyss City.

When they arrived, the cave dwelling had been surrounded by disciples from the Five Elements Sect's Formation Division and Spiritual Vein Division, setting restrictions.

Besides the people from the Five Elements Sect, there were quite a few Black Dragon Guards, all with white bands tied around their heads.

"It's because King Zhao has just passed away, and his eldest legitimate son, Qian, is succeeding him."

After hearing what Jiang Zongheng said, Chen Mobai understood.

He then swept his vast Divine Sense over the cave dwelling, confirming there were no omissions, and without alerting the disciples, he returned to Northern Abyss City with Jiang Zongheng.

"Do not put this Temporal Dragon-Sovereign Scripture into the library, nor the alchemy recipe for the Hidden Dragon Pill."

Although Chen Mobai wanted to open knowledge, he knew these things might attract inquiries from the Holy Land, so he instructed Jiang Zongheng.

"Yes, Master. Regarding the Hidden Dragon Pill, as well as Senior Nephew Han's younger brother and Zhao Gui, I will emphasize these matters to them."

Jiang Zongheng nodded in response, coinciding with his need to return to the Mortal World to check if the Dao Law Seed he planted had any anomalies after the throne's change.

After sending off this disciple, Chen Mobai suddenly received a notification on his phone.

He checked the notes and found two matters needing attention on the Immortal Gate side.

One was the opening of the Water Element Golden Core Pill for exchange, and Yan Bingxuan wanted to come to the Wangwu Cave Heaven.

The other was the wedding of Ye Yune and Jiang Yuyuan.

Chapter 1755: Discussing the Divinity Transformation Method, Talking About the Water Spirit Talisman Night.

After some reminiscing, Chen Mobai gave a Water Element Golden Core Pill he had prepared to Yan Bingxuan.

"This elixir is a treasure of the Dance Tool Dao Academy. Take it along with the one you exchanged in Xianwu Hall, and with that Heavenly blue ice jade, your Core Formation should be a sure success."

Yan Bingxuan, surprised, took it without doubt, after all, the Four Great Daoist Sects had the ability to refine the Five Elements Golden Core Pill. It's only natural to have such rare collections.

"The Golden Elixir Spiritual Medicine is precious. Even as a Nascent Soul Superior, acquiring this Water Element Golden Core Pill must have cost you a lot."

Yan Bingxuan was deeply moved, feeling that Chen Mobai truly cared for her.

"For you, it's worth any cost. Just keep this to yourself, and remember, don't tell anyone else."

Chen Mobai said gently.

After obtaining the Golden Elixir Spiritual Medicine, Yan Bingxuan stayed in Wangwu Cave Heaven for a few more days, reluctantly booking a ticket to Linwu Cave Haven.

Naturally, for her Core Formation, she wanted to emulate Yan Bingxuan's successful path. With Chen Mobai's reputation, it was easy to borrow the cave dwelling of the Rank-4 Water Vein from Jumang Academy.

"I will definitely succeed in forming my core."

Before leaving, Yan Bingxuan said to Chen Mobai with a determined expression.

Watching her leave, Chen Mobai silently sighed in his heart.

He had already decided to reveal everything to Yan Bingxuan after she formed her core.

"Superior, these are prepared as gifts for the Deputy Hall Master Ye's wedding. Which do you think is appropriate?"

After seeing off Yan Bingxuan, Chen Mobai sat in Hua Zijing's car, with Zhuang Jialan sitting in the back seat with him, presenting one gift box after another for him to choose from.

"Let's use this one."

After looking through them, Chen Mobai felt a bit guilty about using Ye Yun'e's wedding as a distraction, so he chose an Appearance-fixing Pearl for Zhuang Jialan to package.

"Yes, Superior."

Zhuang Jialan respectfully accepted and nodded.

Next, Chen Mobai inquired about the work at the Hall of Orthodox Law, and after handling the accumulated affairs simply, Zhuang Jialan mentioned something else requiring his attention.

"Superior, three days ago, news came from Mountain and Sea Academy that Principal Hao Cao failed in his Nascent Soul Formation."

Upon hearing this, Chen Mobai was slightly taken aback, then sighed with emotion.

Indeed, forming a Nascent Soul with just an Infant-Feeding Elixir was too difficult.

Chen Mobai: "Is Principal Hao Cao seriously injured?"

Zhuang Jialan: "I've made a call to Mountain and Sea Academy on behalf of the Hall of Orthodox Law to express our condolences. Principal Hao Cao did not forcefully break through, and after sensing signs of failure, he quickly dissipated his True Qi, so his injuries are not severe."

Hearing this, Chen Mobai was also relieved.

Hao Cao was more or less a member of the Dance Tool Dao Academy, and he wasn't that old either. This failure could be seen as gaining experience, and there would still be chances in the future.

With this in mind, Chen Mobai took out his phone and sent a message of consolation to Hao Cao. The latter was surely still recovering, so he would see it after coming out of seclusion.

After thinking about it for a bit, Chen Mobai felt that Zhuang Jialan might not have all the information, so he called Pei Qingshuang.

She was Hao Cao's disciple and was bound to know the details.

"The principal is okay, but he has lost some essence..."

As expected, Pei Qingshuang knew more. Loss of essence is somewhat troublesome to recover, but unlike in the Tianhe Realm, there are ways in the Immortal Gate.

"...I've arranged a consultation with the Three Extremes Sage for the principal. Since our academy's representative, Nie, also failed in Nascent Soul Formation, the appointment is scheduled for next year..."

Pei Qingshuang mentioned something Chen Mobai wasn't aware of, that Nie Tinglan also failed in forming his Nascent Soul. Due to Jumang Academy's unfavorable position within the Three Great Halls, they kept this news under wraps.

However, after so many years of exchanging the Infant-Feeding Elixirs, except for Gongsun Jieliu being delayed due to work, others should be showing results now.

After the news of Hao Cao's failure spread, more attention would inevitably be drawn to Nie Tinglan, and many people likely already suspected it.

"Senior Sister Wenren is planning to attempt her first Nascent Soul Formation soon. Hopefully, she will succeed smoothly."

At the end of the call, Pei Qingshuang shared another piece of information.

After ending the call with her, Chen Mobai thought for a while and then called Wenren Xuwei.

"Oh, why is Pure Yang Master calling me today? Is it because your classmate is arriving at Linwu Cave Haven soon?" Wenren Xuwei answered the call with a slightly teasing tone.

The last time Chen Mobai called her was to arrange Yan Bingxuan's Golden Core Spiritual Land.

Chen Mobai: "Ahem, she just departed from Wangwu Cave Heaven and should arrive at your place in the afternoon. I'll trouble you to look after her then."

Over at Jumang Academy, Peach Blossom Sage doesn't like to handle matters, and since it's ultimately a Spirit Plant transformation, as soon as Wenren Xuwei forms her Nascent Soul, she will be appointed as the new principal there.

So, it was more convenient to directly contact Wenren Xuwei for such matters.

"I understand, considering she's Qiong Zhi's junior and your old classmate, I'll personally arrange things when she arrives."

Wenren Xuwei's words were more entertaining, which alleviated some of Chen Mobai's pressure.

"I heard from Senior Sister Pei that you're preparing for Nascent Soul Formation. Have you already successfully condensed your True Qi so quickly?"

After discussing Yan Bingxuan's matter, Chen Mobai shifted the topic to Wenren Xuwei.

Chapter 1756: Discussing Divinity Transformation, Talking about Water Spirit Talisman_2

When he first attempted Nascent Soul Formation, Wenren Xuwei was only at the Golden Core Ninth Layer. Now, eight years later, she dares to attempt Nascent Soul Formation, indicating that her Evergreen Qi has been condensed enough.

"It's not that fast; I've only barely condensed thirty-two strands, meeting the minimum requirement for Nascent Soul Formation. I didn't expect to succeed on the first try, just doing it for the experience."

Facing Chen Mobai, Wenren Xuwei did not hide her intentions.

"Thirty-two strands of Evergreen Qi? I wonder what the limit is for the Evergreen Cultivation's Golden Core Realm in condensing Qi?"

Chen Mobai was also very curious about this. The limit for his Acquired Pure Yang Body was theoretically eighty-one strands, but after some adjustments, it became one hundred and eight strands. Unfortunately, he never really had the chance to show off this achievement, which he regretted deeply.

"The limit for Evergreen Cultivation before Nascent Soul Formation, for me, is eighty strands of Evergreen Qi."

Wenren Xuwei said. This information was pretty much available if one was determined to find it out.

“Eighty strands, huh? That’s about the same as what I’m cultivating with the Pure Yang Scroll.”

Listening to this, Chen Mobai nodded with understanding.

“Eighty strands is my limit, not the limit of the Evergreen Cultivation.”

But Wenren Xuewei then said something that surprised Chen Mobai. Could there be a physique similar to the Innate Pure Yang Body that can break the limit of eighty strands?

He immediately continued to ask, and Wenren Xuewei hesitated for a moment, then shared a secret about the Evergreen Cultivation.

“The complete cultivation state of the Evergreen Cultivation requires the combination of three Spirit Plants. I only have the Great Chun Divine Tree, so my limit is eighty strands of Evergreen Qi. If I could have all three, the theoretical limit is two hundred and forty strands of Evergreen Qi.”

After Wenren Xuewei said this, Chen Mobai’s urge to flaunt his one hundred and eight strands of Pure Yang True Qi immediately subsided.

One can only say that the Evergreen Cultivation truly lives up to its True Immortal inheritance. If in a complete state, its foundational strength is simply unimaginable.

“How many strands of Evergreen Qi do you plan to condense to form your Nascent Soul?”

Chen Mobai asked again. The shackles of True Qi only exist in the Golden Core Realm. After breaking through, it can be condensed endlessly.

However, the core members of their Daoist Academy all knew that the foundation of True Qi during Core Formation determined the height of Nascent Soul to Deity Transformation.

If possible, it’s best to condense True Qi to its limit before attempting Nascent Soul Formation.

“I want to condense eighty strands, but if the different world of the impending war is very powerful, I may form my Nascent Soul early for the sake of the Taoist Academy.”

Wenren Xuwei said somewhat helplessly. For her cultivation, the Jumang Academy used its treasured resources, so she couldn't ignore the academy's future for the sake of her own path.

If a real war breaks out with the different world, the other three sects of the Four Great Daoist Sects in the Immortal Gate all have strong Nascent Souls to hold the line, and without someone in Jumang, even with the care of Dance Instruments, it would easily become dangerous.

After all, in the face of danger, Chen Mobai and Cheng Xuan would definitely prioritize their own Daoist Academy's people.

“I have Zhoutai Fire. It's what allowed me to quickly perfect my True Qi and form my Nascent Soul at the time, but I don't know if it will help you.”

Chen Mobai thought for a moment, feeling that Wenren Xuwei needed his help now, so he offered.

“It's useful, very useful, extremely useful!”

Upon hearing this, Wenren Xuwei immediately emphasized repeatedly, her voice trembling slightly, showing the fluctuation of her inner emotions.

She found out about the Zhoutai Fire after Chen Mobai used it to defeat Nangong Xuanyu, later confirming it against the materials of Jumang Academy.

This item is an excellent Immortal Fire for all three Spirit Plants of the Evergreen Cultivation, capable of assisting in a life-altering transformation.

If Wenren Xuwei could obtain the Zhoutai Fire, she could utilize the Evergreen Cultivation's characteristics to quickly refine the Essence Qi of the Great Chun Tree into her own Evergreen Qi.

Pei Qingshuang would need to adapt her body's blood vessels little by little to the Zhoutai Fire, but Wenren Xuewei, unafraid of death, could directly use the most intense method to let her body get used to the burning sensation.

She was hesitant to ask for it outright if Chen Mobai didn't offer.

After all, forever a lady, she was reserved in nature.

Now that Chen Mobai offered, she couldn't be happier.

"Do you want to come over, or should I go to you?"

Chen Mobai asked, both of them capable of Void Teleportation, making meeting convenient.

"You're helping me, so I shouldn't make you make a trip. Give me a location."

Wenren Xuewei said cheerfully.

"Come to my house then, but don't teleport directly inside, remember to knock on the door."

Chen Mobai, thinking of bringing recognition to Shi Wanyu and her daughter, decided to host at his home and introduce Wenren Xuewei, a good friend, to them.

Soon, Hua Zijing drove the car into a Rank-4 courtyard in Wangwu Cave Heaven.

Chen Mobai got out with Zhuang Jialan, asking her to prepare for guests with Shi Wanyu, while Hua Zijing returned to the Hall of Orthodox Law to continue handling affairs.

Once everything was ready, silver light flickered at the door, and a girl wearing a Jumang Fairy Green Shirt, with bright eyes and clear brows, soft and gentle, landed on the ground.

Wenren Xuewei smiled, raised her hand, and gently tapped on the restriction at the entrance.

Chapter 1757: Discussing Divinity Transformation, Talking about Water Spirit Talisman_3

“Welcome!”

Chen Mobai personally welcomed Shi Wanyu, which caused a slight doubt in Wenren Xuewei’s mind.

“This is my wife.”

Chen Mobai introduced her to Wenren Xuewei, and upon hearing this, her expression was instantly filled with shock.

[This is your wife, so what is the identity of the one you arranged to go to Jumang Academy for Core Formation?]

Her mind was full of questions, but Wenren Xuewei, always with high emotional intelligence, graciously greeted Shi Wanyu, who was only at the Qi Cultivating Realm.

“This is my friend, the vice principal of Jumang Academy, Wenren Xuewei.”

Shi Wanyu was clearly a bit nervous because Chen Mobai rarely brought outsiders home. However, having experienced the politeness of Elder Qingping last time, she was somewhat prepared. She welcomed Wenren Xuewei into the house with a courteous smile.

After entering, Chen Mobai took Wenren Xuewei to the study for a conversation, while Shi Wanyu went with Zhuang Jialan to prepare lunch.

“When did you get married?”

Left alone, Wenren Xuewei couldn’t help her curiosity and asked.

“It’s been a while, but we haven’t registered yet. Oh, and I have a daughter, she’s quite cute, but she’s at work during the day. If you’re free in the evening, you can come over for dinner again.”

Chen Mobai spoke frankly, which made Wenren Xuewei widen her eyes in surprise, and she couldn’t help but shake her head repeatedly.

“I thought you and Qiong Zhi’s student were an item, but I never expected you to have settled down with such an ordinary woman and started a family.”

Hearing what Wenren Xuewei said, Chen Mobai felt a little embarrassed, for after revealing about Shi Wanyu and her daughter, the person he felt most guilty towards was likely Yan Bingxuan.

“Don’t mention this to Bing Xuan for now. She’s about to achieve Core Formation. After her retreat, I’ll personally explain everything to her.”

Upon hearing this, Wenren Xuewei understood there must have been some relationship between Chen Mobai and Yan Bingxuan.

Yet, considering his current status, he was still able to announce Shi Wanyu and her daughter so openly, which showed some accountability.

“My lips are sealed, I won’t say a word.”

Wenren Xuewei nodded immediately. Having known each other for so long, she had never broken a promise, so Chen Mobai trusted her completely.

“This is a Stat Fire, but the energy is too vast for you to handle; you should start by trying a wisp, like I gave Pei the same way,”

They began discussing the main matter.

Chen Mobai raised his hand, and the Purple Green Divine Flame flared up in his palm. Once Wenren Xuewei's gaze fell upon the Stat Fire, she felt the Essence Qi in her body start to tremble slightly.

This was because the Great Chun Divine Tree, with which she shared cultivation, also sensed the presence of the Stat Fire. However, as the Great Chun tree was already Sixth Rank, the Stat Fire had little effect on it, so Wenren Xuewei quickly calmed down.

But this hint confirmed to Wenren Xuewei that the Stat Fire would be of great use to her.

"I'll first try with a wisp."

Wenren Xuewei immediately extended her right hand, and Chen Mobai extracted a wisp from the fiery purple-green mass in his palm, depositing it into her snowy, delicate palm.

Soon, the same scene as with Pei Qingshuang earlier appeared, where the palm of Wenren Xuewei began to crack open.

However, compared to Pei Qingshuang, Wenren Xuewei, who had cultivated the Lasting Spring Cultivation, proved to be much stronger.

The skin in her palm showed signs of being scorched, but swiftly, a dense green-white vitality surged up to restore it to its original state.

During several breaths, the skin in Wenren Xuewei's palm went through a dozen burns and recoveries. By the twenty-fourth time, she had a radiant smile on her face. Raising her right hand, she held the wisp of Stat Fire on her palm's skin.

At this moment, the Purple Green Divine Flame no longer harmed her.

"One more feature of the Lasting Spring Cultivation is the ability to become immune or adapt to forces that once could have caused death or injury to a cultivator. Due to the high level of the Stat Fire and my low cultivation level, it took twenty-four times for my palm to barely adapt."

Wenren Xuewei explained, then directed the Stat Fire towards her wrist, where the scene of cracking flesh repeated again.

“No wonder Lasting Spring Cultivation is so remarkable!”

Chen Mobai sincerely admired it. Among the Seven Great Deity Transformation Techniques of the Immortal Gate, Lasting Spring Cultivation was undoubtedly the first in defense.

When a cultivator was killed by forces of the same realm, upon revival, they could immediately become immune.

For higher-level forces, more attempts were needed.

And the level of immunity, the cultivator themselves could control, after all, some forces might be beneficial, such as the Stat Fire.

Wenren Xuewei’s goal was not immunity to Stat Fire, but to let her body adapt to this wisp of Rank-5 Immortal Fire.

“Will giving me the Stat Fire affect things up there?”

While continuously adapting to the Stat Fire with Lasting Spring Cultivation, Wenren Xuewei cryptically pointed in the direction of the Five Peaks Immortal Mountains.

“I reported this earlier to Ancestor Qian Xing. Your Nascent Soul Formation is warranted, and the Stat Fire only speeds it up. Moreover, with the impending war, the higher the number of top-ranked powers in the Immortal Gate, the better.”

Chen Mobai’s words made Wenren Xuewei nod lightly.

Among the Four Great Daoist Sects of the Immortal Gate, their Jumang Lineage did not have a Divinity Transformation in the world. Thus, they often had to speculate when dealing with the top ranks.

Chapter 1758: Discussing Divinity Transformation, Talking about Water Spirit Talisman_4

The two of them continued to discuss some matters concerning cultivation.

Primarily, they exchanged insights on each other's Deity Transformation Technique.

Chen Mobai wanted to gain a deeper understanding of the Lasting Spring Cultivation, just in case Qing Nu's Spiritual Root met the requirements in the future, allowing for a transition in cultivation.

After all, the Black Emperor Abyssal Scripture that Qing Nu is currently practicing only goes up to the Spirit Transformation Stage. If she wishes to advance further, he thinks the Lasting Spring Cultivation is quite suitable.

"Although I'm reluctant to admit it, the complete Six Imperial Scripture is the premier Deity Transformation Technique of the Immortal Gate. If one can master all six parts at the Golden Core Realm, they can condense 360 strands of Six Imperial True Qi, forming a True Immortal foundation!"

Considering they were discussing Deity Transformation Techniques, the Six Imperial Scripture naturally became a topic. The Evergreen Ancestor of Jumang Academy had once sparred with the founding Ancestor Long Wei of Kunpeng Daoist Institute. Despite relying on the profoundness of the Lasting Spring Cultivation to maintain an undefeated stance, he admitted in his later years that he was inferior.

However, at the time of their duel, the Great Chun Divine Tree was only at the fifth rank.

If the Great Chun had been at the sixth rank during that time, the Evergreen Ancestor surely could have defeated Ancestor Long Wei and the Spiritual Venerable.

Nonetheless, among the Seven Great Deity Transformation Techniques, the Six Imperial Scripture is universally acknowledged as having the strongest foundation.

Compared to that, Chen Mobai's Pure Yang Scroll seems somewhat lacking.

"That's not exactly the case. In the Void Refining Realm above Deity Transformation, the key is purity. The Pure Yang Scroll, if nothing else, is the most promising of the Seven Great Deity Transformation Techniques of the Immortal Gate for realm breakthroughs."

Upon hearing Chen Mobai's self-deprecating comment, Wenren Xuwei immediately spoke about what she had read in the Evergreen Ancestor's notes.

"Oh, is that so?"

Chen Mobai was greatly surprised. He knew the ancient cultivation method of the Pure Yang Scroll introduced by Ancestor Yun Ya emphasizes balance and steadiness. Because of this, cultivation through this technique, though ordinary in magic duels and slow in progress, gradually loosens bottlenecks with sufficient accumulation, leading to smooth breakthroughs.

However, after the Yuan Yang Ancestor achieved enlightenment and revised the new method of the Pure Yang Scroll to adapt to the Primordial Yang Sword Secret, and given his own Immortal Fire Spirit Root, the original balanced Dao rhythm got overshadowed, leaning more towards demon refinement and magic duel aspects.

Though overshadowed, the essence of the Pure Yang Scroll remains.

Due to this, Chen Mobai has been able to smoothly progress through cultivation breakthroughs given adequate resources.

"According to the notes left by the Evergreen Ancestor, the Pure Yang Scroll was once the first choice for ascetics in ancient arenas deep within the universe. Many achieved the Primordial Spirit and even attained Dao Fruit through Void Cultivation. The only shortfall was magic dueling, but the Yuan Yang Ancestor anticipated this flaw and amended it. Nonetheless, this modification likely prevented him from succeeding in Void Cultivation—something predetermined by destiny."

Upon hearing this, Chen Mobai felt he should delve more into the ancient methods of the Pure Yang Scroll.

Combat is secondary; breaking through in cultivation is paramount.

Among the Seven Great Deity Transformation Techniques of the Immortal Gate, though termed as Deity Transformation, they actually all have paths beyond Deity Transformation.

However, as none have navigated this path on the Earth Element Star, they are now termed Deity Transformation Techniques.

Beyond the Spirit Transformation Stage, besides the cultivation technique, personal comprehension is also required.

The original intent of the seven Heavenly Books brought here was for Deity Transformation cultivators to comprehend and find a Dao Fruit suitable for themselves.

After discussing Deity Transformation Techniques, Chen Mobai also shared his insights on the Seven Great Heavenly Books.

Wenren Xuewei hadn't tried to comprehend them yet because she knew the Seven Heavenly Books are profoundly mysterious and planned to attempt understanding them after forming her Nascent Soul.

Upon hearing Chen Mobai's insights this time, she nodded repeatedly.

"I'm not hoping to comprehend so much, just that I can gain some understanding related to the Lasting Spring Cultivation in 'Purple Green' and 'Life and Death'."

"Your ambitions are quite high,"

Chen Mobai replied with a smile to Wenren Xuewei's words, making her inadvertently smile softly.

"By the way, there's something I wish to consult you on, and I hope you can keep it confidential."

After some laughter, Chen Mobai suddenly turned slightly serious and said.

"Please, go ahead!"

Wenren Xuewei also became serious, nodding to promise she wouldn't disclose it to anyone else.

"I obtained a fifth-rank Treasure Bead from opening a Void Blind Box. Given its preciousness, I haven't dared to consult anyone else. After some exploration, I discovered the bead contains a complete strand of Innate Water Element Essence Qi. I was wondering if I might extract it to create a Water Spirit Talisman similar to the Wood Spiritual Talisman. This way, the Immortal Gate could pass down a legacy capable of producing a Heavenly Water Spirit Root from nothing. If the Jumang Academy had a student with a Heavenly Earth Spirit Root, they could directly use both the Wood Spirit Talisman and Water Spirit Talisman to practice the Lasting Spring Cultivation, ensuring it continues for generations."

Before taking out the Taiyuan Blue Pearl, Chen Mobai set up a restriction, then spoke words that left Wenren Xuewei breathless and trembling.

"The Pure Yang Master, truly has a grand vision!"

After a long pause, Wenren Xuewei calmed her agitated heart.

If the Jumang Academy could have lasting Spring Cultivation practitioners for generations, it would mean they'd never lack Nascent Soul Cultivators—a dream they've cherished for millennia, now so easily laid out before her.

"There can only be one practitioner of the Lasting Spring Cultivation per generation. The next generation can only begin after I pass away. However, the master's idea is feasible."

While speaking, Wenren Xuewei placed her fair left hand on her gracefully curved waist. Shortly, a deep green glow shone, and she produced the most precious fifth-rank Wood Spiritual Talisman of the Immortal Gate.

The talisman appeared ordinary, similar to the Wood Spiritual Talisman Chen Mobai had used before, but the runes on it were golden lines, imbued with deep traces of time.

"In Jumang Academy, we have traditions for the Wood Spirit Talisman, Earth Spirit Talisman, and Water Spirit Talisman. Unfortunately, over millennia, only this Wood Spirit Talisman has been created."

"The production of the Three Great Spirit Talismans requires the heart of a sixth-rank Great Chun Tree to bear the Innate Essence Qi and even preserve it eternally without depletion."

"If the master promises, after I pass away and there are no practitioners of the Lasting Spring Cultivation in our Jumang Academy, to lend us the Water Spirit Talisman, I am willing to help you negotiate the extraction of the tree heart from the Great Chun Divine Tree."

Wenren Xuewei's proposal left Chen Mobai with no hesitation, and he immediately agreed.

Apart from genuinely having a magnanimous vision, Chen Mobai also believed Wenren Xuewei would live a long life.

Even if she stopped at the Nascent Soul Realm, she'd have nearly a millennium's lifespan.

With that much time, he estimates he would have reached the Deity Transformation by then.

By that time, handing over a mere Water Spirit Talisman to Jumang Academy would be of no consequence.

After all, Qing Nu has the Heavenly Water Spirit Root herself and wouldn't need it.

"However, Master, if you wish to create the Wood Spirit Talisman, there's something else required—a Fifth Rank Talisman Maker."

At this point, Wenren Xuewei gave another reminder.

""

Chapter 1759: Yes, I Have a Daughter

Within the Immortal Gate, there are only two Fifth Rank Talisman Makers.

Yu Yi Shangren and Qian Xing Patriarch!

The relationship between these two and Chen Mobai is not as close as with Wenren Xuewei.

If he were to choose, Chen Mobai would certainly have to choose Yu Yi Shangren, after all, the latter is merely a Nascent Soul Superior, and not belonging to one of the Four Great Daoist Sects within the Immortal Gate, making it easier to handle.

Although Chen Mobai plans to lead the major forces of the Immortal Gate to assist in developing infrastructure over in the Tianhe Realm after his Divinity Transformation, now is not the time to reveal this, so it's better not to let Qian Xing Patriarch know for the time being.

"There's no rush with this matter, I'll first study the Water Spirit Talisman from your Jumang Academy, maybe in a while I might be able to draw it on my own."

Chen Mobai still took a cautious step, planning to proceed with this matter after receiving the talisman plate refined from the Sixth Rank Great Chun Tree core that Wenren Xuewei mentioned.

Moreover, he believes that with his current learning ability and the aid of the Guidance Book, he has a chance to master a Fifth Rank Water Spirit Talisman by focusing on it.

"That's true."

Wenren Xuewei lightly nodded in agreement after hearing this.

She even sensed Chen Mobai's reluctance to let a third party know about this, and proactively suggested that, by that time, she could invite Yu Yi Shangren in the name of Jumang Academy to help refine a Fifth Rank Water Spirit Talisman.

This proposal indeed tempted Chen Mobai, feeling that if he couldn't succeed in crafting a Fifth Rank Water Spirit Talisman, he could proceed this way.

After their discussion, Wenren Xuewei voluntarily sent him an e-book.

It contained one of the talisman textbooks from Jumang Academy.

In it, Earth Spirit Talisman, Wood Spirit Talisman, and Water Spirit Talisman were each given their own chapter, where the crafting techniques from Rank-1 to Rank-6 were detailed.

"There's even Rank-6?"

Upon browsing it, Chen Mobai was greatly surprised.

"Of course. Evergreen Ancestor back then was a Sixth Rank Talisman Maker. Your Dance Tool Dao Academy is the Refiner's Ancestral Court, while our Jumang Academy is the Talisman Ancestral Court. Although Evergreen Ancestor established the academy mainly to nurture precious spirit plants like the Great Chun Tree and Flat Peach, so the knowledge handed down is related to spirit plants. Later on, Heavenly Book Academy, with thousands of years of support from the Immortal Gate and our own lack of progress, experienced a decline in talisman crafting."

Wenren Xuewei revealed another hidden matter, making Chen Mobai click his tongue in wonder, and simply request all the talisman textbooks from Jumang Academy.

It's indeed a lot, but he could store them and study them thoroughly when he has time in the future.

After all, he chose the path of talisman crafting when he divided into subjects in high school, reflecting the principle of not forgetting one's original intention.

“Tea!”

While Chen Mobai was reading the talisman textbooks from Jumang Academy, Wenren Xuwei, now assuming the role of the host, picked up his tea set and tea leaves in the study and started brewing, casually handing him a cup.

“Thank you.”

Chen Mobai took it readily.

Chatting and interacting with Wenren Xuwei gave Chen Mobai a long-lost sense of ease, akin to reuniting with an old friend.

As his cultivation level and status rose, there were fewer people with whom he could share heartfelt conversations.

And those who could keep up with his pace in the future might only be her.

This made Chen Mobai feel incredibly fortunate.

At least, within the next millennium, she, his confidante, would be by his side.

Halfway through the tea, Shi Wanyu came in to call them for dinner.

After the meal, Wenren Xuwei took her leave, and Chen Mobai made a token gesture to retain her, knowing that in the afternoon, Yan Bingxuan would arrive at Linwu Cave Haven, relying on her arrangements.

“You’re welcome to visit again anytime.”

Chen Mobai personally saw Wenren Xuewei to the door, where she smiled gracefully, nodded, and then vanished into a silver streak.

After seeing her off, Chen Mobai returned to his study to start experimenting with the Water Spirit Talisman.

With his current foundation, he could easily complete Water Spirit Talismans from Rank-1 to Rank-3 in one go, and the quality was flawless.

However, he encountered continuous failure with the Fourth Rank Water Spirit Talisman.

If it were any other Talisman Maker in the Immortal Gate, the loss of Fourth Rank talisman paper and ink would be heart-wrenching.

But Chen Mobai's resources were abundant.

The Fourth Rank talisman paper was made from the sun-dried leaves of the Fourth Rank Peak Everlife Wood at Giant Tree Ridge, and the talisman ink was a personal blend he concocted after the Five Elements Sect collected various Fourth Rank minerals and spirit plants.

He currently had a total of three hundred sheets of Fourth Rank talisman paper and two large pieces of Fourth Rank talisman ink in his storage bag.

Originally, it was primarily for crafting the Great Sun Sword Talisman. After his Nascent Soul Formation, everyone around him received one, which, when activated, could unleash the power of the original Extreme Sun Slash of the Red Flame Sword Jue.

Even though it's merely a Fourth Rank Lower Grade technique, as long as it's not against a Nascent Soul, it's basically invincible.

Chen Mobai even meticulously crafted ten sets of all related sword talismans for the Red Flame Sword Jue, from the Rank-1 Crimson Flame Sword Talisman to the Rank-4 Great Sun Sword Talisman, which were taken by Yue Zutao to be sold over in the East Land.

He also took the effort to imprint and number each set with his mark, preparing to hype them up once his status and achievements became highly recognized.

If the prices could be driven up, he could periodically release some commemorative editions, collector's editions, gold-plated editions, and so on.

This is also an exceedingly successful commercial operation case within the Immortal Gate.

Chapter 1760: Yes, I Have a Daughter_2

Chen Mobai's talisman-making level might be average in the Immortal Gate, but in the Tianhe Realm, it's definitely outstanding and unique.

He plans to utilize this commercial tactic in the East Land, as everyone in the Eastern Wilderness is quite impoverished and lacks understanding of his talisman-making skills.

That's why, when Yue Zutao returned this time, Chen Mobai talked to him about this matter.

Over in the East Land, the Five Elements Commerce Association has basically taken over the low-end market, and now it's time to break into the high-end market.

However, because the Five Elements Commerce Association has already become synonymous with the low-end in the East Land, Chen Mobai, who once studied various business cases at the Daoist Academy, plans to send his own South Mountain Shop over, focusing solely on high-end products.

Since Liu Wenbo has not yet formed his core, Chen Mobai decided to have Yue Zutao rent a shop there in the East Land first, to establish the name of the South Mountain Shop, primarily featuring items with exorbitantly high prices, two to three times more expensive than similar talismans in the East Land market.

He's not worried about no buyers; for now, establishing that high price tag is the priority.

Thanks to the comprehensive assistance of the Guidance Book, every mistake Chen Mobai made while drawing talismans could be corrected on the next attempt, so by the twelfth try, he finally completed a fourth-rank Water Spirit Talisman.

Although the quality was average, it was still usable.

After appraising it, he found that it could bestow the one blessed by this fourth-rank Water Spirit Talisman with the Heavenly Water Spirit Root for a month.

As the quality of the talisman continues to improve, the duration it can sustain will gradually increase as well.

From fourth-rank lower grade to fourth-rank intermediate grade, it has already increased to forty-five days.

While Chen Mobai was attempting to draw a fourth-rank superior grade Water Spirit Talisman, Wenren Xuewei sent a message over.

[Qiong Zhi's descendant has been arranged properly, and after arriving at the location, she directly activated the restraint, seemingly to wholeheartedly focus on advancing to the Golden Core Realm.]

Upon seeing this, Chen Mobai breathed a sigh of relief. He picked up the phone to thank Wenren Xuewei and asked her to also keep an eye on Yan Bingxuan's movements during her core formation.

[As for the heart of the sixth-rank tree, the Great Chun Divine Tree is willing to give it to you, but in the future, when your cultivation level is sufficient, it will need your help with the Stat Fire.]

After discussing Yan Bingxuan, Wenren Xuewei mentioned another matter.

Although the sixth-rank Great Chun Divine Tree is nominally a spirit plant belonging to the Immortal Gate, its rank is such that not even the Dual Sages of the Immortal Gate can bind it. Thus, to bargain for its heart, one only needs its consent.

[What kind of help?]

Chen Mobai was quite cautious and did not agree immediately.

[The Great Chun Divine Tree needs to suppress the Earth Elemental Magnet in the Earth Element Star and also serves as the core spiritual pivot of the Sky Curtain Ground Network, so it has never been able to transform and leave. It hopes that in the future, if you are capable, you can find another spirit plant or spiritual object to replace and help it gain freedom.]

This request was very broad for Chen Mobai, as if he couldn't do it, he could simply ignore it.

However, Chen Mobai thought that with the development of the current situation, he might actually be able to help the Great Chun Divine Tree.

After all, if he cultivates to the Spirit Transformation Stage, he could attempt to train "Pulling Seedlings to Promote Growth" to the fifth rank, which would allow him to attempt to enlighten spirit plants at the fifth-rank peak.

For instance, the Vermillion Fruit Tree deep in the Treasure Trove seemed just right to Chen Mobai.

However, this task certainly requires him to hold absolute sway in the Immortal Gate before he can proceed.

After all, to substitute a sixth-rank spirit plant for the Great Chun Tree would be akin to the Sky Curtain Ground Network Formation undergoing a major core replacement surgery.

He must at least become a sixth-rank Array Master first. This isn't too difficult, since with the support of his "Heavenly Blessing" and "Response Earth Spirit" realms, as soon as he reaches the Spirit Transformation Stage, he can directly ascend to a sixth-rank Array Master.

[Does the Great Chun Divine Tree have any other conditions?]

After thinking it over, Chen Mobai felt that exchanging a sixth-rank tree heart for this promise seemed somewhat unfavorable, so he sent another message back.

[No, the Divine Tree only has this request.]

Wenren Xuewei immediately replied, but she misunderstood.

[I mean, is the Divine Tree only offering the condition of giving me the tree heart?]

Chen Mobai felt he was at a loss since he was confident in achieving Spirit Transformation, and once he made this promise, it would essentially bind him. Although the sixth-rank tree heart was indeed precious, he felt it somewhat inadequate.

[?]

Wenren Xuewei directly replied with a puzzled emoji.

[You should ask again. Once I'm steady at Spirit Transformation, and when the two elder ancestors leave, the Immortal Gate will be under my say. If I agree to this, the task of altering the core of the Sky Curtain Ground Network would be a super project, very troublesome.]

Chen Mobai's comment finally made Wenren Xuewei understand his perspective.

If anyone else said this, Wenren Xuewei would just consider them arrogant.

But coming from Chen Mobai...it seemed somewhat reasonable.

Upon further thought, Wenren Xuewei realized it was indeed true.

According to the general view within the Immortal Gate, both Chen Mobai and Wenren Xuewei were recognized as possessing the Qualification of Deification, yet Wenren Xuewei knew that compared to him, her own talent was a step inferior.

After Chen Mobai comprehended the Tian Shu, he was even upgraded to possessing the qualification for immortality, with Deification Transformation practically seen as just a matter of time.

Once he achieved Spirit Transformation and if the galaxy-wide conflict posed no threat to the Immortal Gate, it was likely that the Dual Sages would choose to leave to explore deeper realms of cultivation in the starry sky during their remaining lifespan.