

World 1761

Chapter 1761: Yes, I Have a Daughter_3

At that time, what he said went in the Immortal Gate.

Thinking of this, Wenren Xuwei hesitated and approached the Great Chun Divine Tree again, conveying Chen Mobai's words.

After she finished speaking, the Great Chun Divine Tree, which had been dormant for thousands of years, suddenly trembled slightly. If it hadn't controlled itself, it might have caused an earthquake within a quarter of the territory of the Immortal Gate.

[The Divine Tree says you can negotiate any part of its body you fancy.]

While sketching a fourth rank superior-grade Water Spirit Talisman, Chen Mobai's phone screen lit up beside him, displaying a text message from Wenren Xuwei.

The sixth rank spirit plant of the Immortal Gate, the Great Chun Divine Tree, every part of its body is a treasure.

But the most precious are its fruits.

[Then it'll be the Large Chinese Toon Fruit.]

Chen Mobai directly replied with this sentence.

[Alright, the Divine Tree says just give it a heads-up when you need it, and it will condense the elemental energy to mature one for you.]

After seeing Wenren Xuwei's words, Chen Mobai knew that she had misunderstood him again.

[The fifth rank Large Chinese Toon Fruit is useless to me; with my cultivation speed, I won't run out of lifespan in this lifetime.]

Chen Mobai tactfully sent another message back.

[???

This time Wenren Xuewei replied with three question marks, expressing the uncontrollable shock in her heart after understanding.

[Could you ask the Divine Tree for me, before it transforms and leaves, if it could leave me a sixth rank Large Chinese Toon Fruit?]

The reason Chen Mobai brazenly asked this was because the matter of the Great Chun Divine Tree was truly challenging, and also because of Qing Nu.

He had indeed heard from Pei Qingshuang that Divine Spring practitioners who consume a sixth rank Large Chinese Toon Fruit could assist in cultivating void.

Although Qing Nu might not necessarily walk the path of the Divine Spring, Chen Mobai wanted to reserve it for his Daoist companion just in case.

Besides, if Qing Nu doesn't use it, he can use it himself.

That would be eight thousand years of lifespan.

With such a long time, even if he stayed in the Eastern Wilderness his whole life without leaving, he could rely on the resources of the Immortal Gate and the Tianhe Realm to advance himself to the peak of deity transformation.

Or even Void Refining Ascension!

Given such a rare opportunity, Chen Mobai couldn't help but try to fight for it.

It wouldn't hurt to try.

After all, even if he failed, the worst that could happen was the Divine Tree having a poor impression of him.

[The Divine Tree says condensing a sixth rank Large Chinese Toon Fruit would drain half of an Earth Element Star's essence; even if you become head one day, you shouldn't be so wasteful.]

Wenren Xuewei numbly relayed the message as a middleman.

Chen Mobai never expected that the Great Chun Tree would have such high ideological awareness.

[Alright, then to condense the essence for the sixth rank Large Chinese Toon Fruit, I'll find a way, ensuring not to use a single trace of the Immortal Gate's spiritual energy.]

Chen Mobai reiterated his terms, and after Wenren Xuewei read them, she thought he intended to open up wars to intercept the spiritual energy essence of another world.

[The Divine Tree says we'll talk about this later; after you reach deity transformation, if it assesses your capability, we can restart today's negotiation.]

Ultimately, the Great Chun Divine Tree remained conservative and did not agree outright.

Chen Mobai felt quite disappointed.

But that's how things worked at the Immortal Gate, with more than ninety percent certainty typically required before proceeding.

Even a sixth rank Great Chun Tree was no exception.

[What about the tree's heart?]

After the major deal was put aside, Chen Mobai didn't forget this primary goal.

Wenren Xuewei: [The Divine Tree says it will send it to you first, with no conditions.]

Chen Mobai: [How could I possibly accept that?]

Wenren Xuewei: [It's fine; after all, our Jumang Academy may benefit from it in the future. Perhaps we can rely on this to ensure every generation has practitioners of the Divine Spring Technique.]

Hearing this, Chen Mobai felt at ease.

The sixth rank tree heart was also promptly delivered by Wenren Xuewei herself, thoughtfully formed into the size and shape of a palm-sized talisman plate.

This was Chen Mobai's first time receiving spirit material of sixth rank level, and when he accepted it, he felt immensely excited.

It appeared to be a deep cyan wood, with age lines surprisingly golden, exuding a Dao rhythm of ancient times, making even a Nascent Soul cultivator like him feel a deep resonance.

While holding the sixth rank tree heart, Chen Mobai even felt his divine sense suddenly become twenty percent livelier.

You should know, his Vermilion Phoenix Facing the Sun Graph was already at the Response Earth Spirit realm, equivalent to the divine consciousness intensity of Nascent Soul middle stage, such an enhancement, if for a typical Nascent Soul cultivator not cultivating with Devour God Technique, would take approximately twenty years to achieve.

It's no wonder it's one of the few with age attributes among the sixth rank spirit materials of the Immortal Gate.

These days, Chen Mobai dedicated himself to the Water Spirit Talisman and understood why a sixth rank tree heart was necessary for eternal empowerment.

Regular fifth rank talisman paper, when used to refine a fifth rank Water Spirit Talisman, at most lasts several years or even dozens of years before gradually dissipating.

Only sixth rank, along with the characteristics of the Great Chun Tree, can be preserved eternally.

Having obtained the sixth rank tree heart, Chen Mobai chatted with Wenren Xuewei for a while longer and invited her to a dinner.

This time, Chen Xiaohei was also present, very curious about Wenren Xuewei, as she is the only talent in the Immortal Gate comparable to Chen Mobai in terms of aptitude.

The two girls quickly got along and exchanged contact information.

In the evening, when sending Wenren Xuewei off, Chen Mobai learned she would also attend Ye Yune's wedding.

Chapter 1762: Yes, I Have a Daughter_4

The invitation was sent to Jumang Academy, but Peach Blossom Sage couldn't be bothered to go, so only she, the vice principal, could represent them.

"Peach Blossom Sage is indeed a bit lazy. If she doesn't go, at the table of Nascent Souls, without anyone from Jumang present, won't it spark a lot of discussions among those attending?"

Chen Mobai expressed his view on this. As a Nascent Soul Cultivator and the Vice Hall Master of Kaiyuan Hall, as well as the daughter of Beiming Master, Ye Yune's wedding certainly invited all Nascent Souls from the Immortal Gate.

Although some Nascent Soul Superiors might not attend, representatives from the Four Great Daoist Sects would definitely be there.

If the Nascent Soul table were missing someone from Jumang, and the media reported it, Jumang Academy's enrollment rate for the next few years might greatly drop.

"I'll ask Cui to persuade her again. If it's no use, let's have Teacher Three Extremes show up to hold the fort."

Wenren Xuewei thought Chen Mobai made a good point, but if Peach Blossom Sage and Three Extremes Sage were set on not going, there was nothing she could do.

The time quickly reached three days before the wedding.

And by this time, the wedding of Ye Yune and Jiang Yuyuan had already caused a stir over at the Immortal Gate.

Although the official Immortal Gate could control most of the media, many self-media outlets reported with the intention to attract attention, so the huge age difference, coupled with Jiang Yuyuan being regarded as a "big brother" in the hearts of most young female cultivators, led to widespread criticism of Ye Yune.

Sponsoring a sugar baby, using underhanded rules, bullying with age, an old hag...

Various kinds of news were primarily satirical and critical. Occasionally, there were a few blessings, which were rare and obviously from media controlled by the Kunpeng Lineage.

Jiang Yuyuan was also subjected to extreme mockery. The good reputation he had built over decades collapsed immediately after announcing the marriage news. His fans were the first to turn bitter, with countless female fans angrily rebuking him for relying on his looks despite having talent, and they even reported him to the relevant authorities, believing he was setting a bad example for the future of the Immortal Gate.

In response, Chen Mobai also had the media from the Dance Tool Dao Academy participate, beginning to clear the way for Ye Yune and Jiang Yuyuan's wedding, stating that the two of them were truly in love. Ye Yune, upon hearing this, even called him to express her gratitude.

But with the media of the Dance Instruments sect and Kunpeng uniting to clear the way, it instead stirred a backlash among the public. Coupled with the Patching Heaven Lineage secretly guiding, leading Jiang Yuyuan's fans to charge in, as well as onlookers of all kinds, this wedding was certainly the hot topic of the past half month's headlines.

At this time, Chen Mobai also brought a blissful Shi Wanyu to the Immortal Political Bureau, and the two of them obtained a marriage certificate that was decades overdue.

Chen Xiaohei was also excitedly taking photos with his parents.

After transferring the household registration of the mother and daughter to Chen Mobai's name, he also quietly announced this news on his social media.

[Yes, I have a daughter.]

Apart from this information, Chen Mobai also uploaded a photo of the family of three. Of course, apart from him, the faces of Shi Wanyu and her daughter were blurred out.

The instant this information came out, it immediately helped draw some of the attention away from Ye Yune and Jiang Yuyuan.

However, the media quickly realized that this piece of news about Pure Yang Master carried no explosive quality.

At most, it mentioned having a daughter out of wedlock, but this was quite common in the Immortal Gate area.

Because of the Immortal Gate's exemption from military service for pregnant individuals, many university students would choose their partners before graduating.

Many weddings were held only after the man completed ten years of military service with the Military Department.

Moreover, although Chen Mobai blurred the faces of Shi Wanyu and Chen Xiaohei, their family of three's details were already registered at the Immortal Political Bureau. The Dance Instruments line, after all, couldn't cover the skies with one hand, and internal public servants from the Patching Heaven three linages could all summon these records for inspection.

Upon investigating Shi Wanyu's background information, one would find that she was merely an ordinary Qi Cultivation female cultivator within the Immortal Gate.

The time she got pregnant was right after graduating university, clearly to avoid military service.

Graduating from the Starlight Institute situated in Red City Cave Heaven, it seemed she dated Chen Mobai during university.

Now that Chen Mobai had already achieved Nascent Soul Formation but had not abandoned his college girlfriend and publicly announced it justly, it seemed he was very responsible, possibly demonstrating true love.

This news, under normal circumstances, had the value of being sensationalized to attract attention.

But before such explosive news involving Ye Yune and Jiang Yuyuan, many media practitioners instinctively made a choice.

Moreover, it seemed the Patching Heaven Lineage, which should have been the major force guiding the firepower, was also attempting to steer it away from Ye Yune's wedding. Once they saw the female party on the marriage certificate, all the media under Kunpeng's line were suppressed by the highest-level will.

Hence, just after Ye Yune had a part of the firepower split with Chen Mobai, the situation became difficult for her again.

Although public gossip somewhat made Ye Yune unhappy, at her Realm, she no longer cared about these things but was merely worried that the young Jiang Yuyuan might not withstand such pressure.

However, having been in the entertainment industry since his teenage years, Jiang Yuyuan was quite used to these things.

Facing the criticism and ridicule from the vast majority of the Immortal Gate media, the two of them proceeded with the wedding according to procedures.

"Congratulations, congratulations!"

On the wedding day, Chen Mobai personally brought Shi Wanyu and her daughter to attend. Seeing Jiang Yuyuan and Ye Yune welcoming guests at the entrance, he smiled and extended his hand.

"Pure Yang Master, what a move!"

Seeing Chen Mobai, Ye Yune thought of Meng Huang and wanted to scold him as a scumbag. But seeing Shi Wanyu and her daughter beside him, she held back.

She realized that her wedding had helped him draw most of the firepower; otherwise, Chen Mobai's news of having a daughter out of wedlock would have at least landed him on trending searches for a week.

"Thank you, Master, for attending my wedding."

In contrast, Jiang Yuyuan appeared rather composed. He politely shook hands with Chen Mobai and then pointed to their seats.

"It's a small token, not enough to show respect!"

After releasing the handshake with a smile, Chen Mobai gestured to Zhuang Jialan to present the small gift box she carried; the person responsible for recording immediately accepted it and, upon opening it, couldn't help but widen their eyes.

[Pure Yang Master, gifts an Appearance-fixing Pearl!]

Quickly, this information was recorded in black ink on red paper, and those beside, upon seeing it, all looked at Jiang Yuyuan with envy.

With this, Ye Yune's beauty would be eternal, and the biggest beneficiary was naturally the groom himself.

Sure enough, Jiang Yuyuan's lips curled in joy uncontrollably.

Not only him, but even Ye Yune, who was still full of resentment moments ago, decided to forgive Chen Mobai. After all, she had just heard Yunhai Master mention something.

"Madam Chen, hello."

Thinking of this, Ye Yune politely greeted Shi Wanyu, who was quite surprised but assumed it was due to her husband Chen Mobai's influence, responding in kind.

After exchanging a few niceties, Chen Mobai led Shi Wanyu and her daughter into the hall with the guidance of an usher.

Soon, they arrived at the table closest to the stage.

Qi Yuheng, Beiming Master, and Yunhai Master were already seated there.

They were all Nascent Soul cultivators from the Kunpeng Lineage.

Chen Mobai exchanged greetings with them before introducing those with him straightforwardly.

"This is my wife and daughter."

As soon as he finished speaking, he suddenly noticed Qi Yuheng and the other two stood up in unison.

Chapter 1763: The Courteous Nascent Soul Superiors

After Qi Yuheng and his companions stood up, they first nodded to Chen Mobai and then greeted Shi Wanyu beside him with utmost politeness.

"This must be Mrs. Chen, right? Indeed, she's beautiful, virtuous, graceful, and generous."

"No wonder Pure Yang Master remains devoted..."

"Such a dignified and virtuous wife for Pure Yang Master, why not announce it earlier..."

Listening to the courteous words of the three Qi Yuheng members, Chen Mobai felt slightly surprised, especially considering his strategy of using Ye Yune to divert tension. Naturally, this would displease the Kunpeng Lineage, especially Beiming Master.

Chen Mobai had prepared himself for sarcasm beforehand, but he didn't expect such courteousness from these three.

Thinking again, Chen Mobai figured they probably believed that he had a chance of transforming into the Divinity Transformation state in the future, thus avoiding any offense.

Consequently, they also gave Shi Wanyu face.

“You three Superiors overpraise us...”

Shi Wanyu was evidently also taken aback by the courteousness of the three Nascent Soul Superiors Qi Yuheng, listening and repeatedly waving it off, stating that marrying Chen Mobai was her true blessing, unworthy of such praise.

“And this must be your daughter.”

“No wonder she is the daughter of Pure Yang Master and Mrs. Chen, she looks lively and intelligent.”

“When she went to study in the Sea Territory back then, I already felt she was extraordinary and very suitable for cultivating the Six Imperial Scripture...”

After greeting Shi Wanyu, Qi Yuheng and his companions also politely greeted Chen Xiaohei beside her.

Chen Xiaohei was much more outgoing compared to Shi Wanyu, who was more of a homemaker. Responding gracefully to the Nascent Soul Superiors’ small talk, he was composed and eloquent.

This made Qi Yuheng and his companions praise them even more, indicating that Pure Yang Master and Mrs. Chen had an outstanding heir.

“It’s nothing, nothing, the young one still has some mischievous nature. If there’s a future opportunity, I hope the elderly Superiors can provide more guidance.”

With a smile on his face, Chen Mobai spoke, feeling very pleased with Qi Yuheng and his companions for treating his wife and daughter so favorably in front of everyone.

He felt that although the Kunpeng Lineage had some competition with their own Weapon Dancing Sect at the Three Great Halls, it was ultimately about standing positions, everyone’s character was genuinely pleasant.

Face-giving is a mutual act.

With the Kunpeng Lineage's three Nascent Soul Superiors giving him such face this time, Chen Mobai decided to further cooperate with them in the future to jointly oppose the Patching Heaven Lineage.

"Jialan, take Madam and others to the next table while I have a nice talk with the three superiors."

After the greetings, Chen Mobai, with a smile, gave an instruction to Zhuang Jialan beside him.

According to the seating arrangement, the Nascent Soul Superiors would sit at one table, while their family members would be at the tables right next to them, which Zhuang Jialan, acting as the secretary, had already coordinated in advance.

But just as Zhuang Jialan was about to lead Shi Wanyu and her daughter to sit next door, the host, Beiming Master, unexpectedly spoke up to stop that.

"Pure Yang Master's family is here, there's no reason for them to be separate. Let Madam and your daughter sit here."

Chen Mobai paused for a moment upon hearing this.

This was incredibly gracious.

Because the number of Nascent Soul Superiors in the Immortal Gate happened to fill a table, it's usually a given that at such high-level meetings, they sit together.

If Shi Wanyu and her daughter sat here, how would the other Nascent Soul family members be arranged? Besides, it would exceed the number of seats at the table this way.

"We already feel the hospitality of Beiming Master, but perhaps it would be better if the wife and daughter sat next door, after all, it's not far..."

Chen Mobai replied politely, thinking back, he realized his previous grievances with Beiming Master were due to different stances, which led to misunderstandings. In reality, the man is quite warm-hearted.

Courteously refusing in line with etiquette, Chen Mobai was taken aback when Beiming Master directly invited them again, even having the service staff pull the chairs.

“Pure Yang Master doesn’t need to be so polite, I will arrange for those from Patching Heaven to sit at another table then.”

Upon hearing these words, Chen Mobai found it difficult to object further.

“Then... we’ll follow the host’s wishes!”

Chen Mobai thought the Kunpeng Lineage might be using this opportunity to give the Patching Heaven a bit of loss of face, so he agreed.

He gave a discreet nod to Shi Wanyu, who had maintained a smile, and gently took her somewhat stiff hand to sit down.

[Dad’s face is truly grand!] Chen Xiaohei felt very proud as he followed to take a seat.

Zhuang Jialan quietly sat in her spot at the nearby table.

This scene, too, left many guests present visibly shocked.

Many of them were from the officialdom of the Three Great Halls, paying utmost attention to seating etiquette and knowing clearly what this signified.

[It seems the three Nascent Soul members of the Kunpeng Lineage also see Pure Yang Master as the future Third Saint of the Immortal Gate!]

Only a future Divinity Transformation one could cause Qi Yuheng and his companions to be so enthusiastic.

Right at that moment, many suddenly realized that the Weapon Dancing Sect might soon surpass Patching Heaven to become the largest faction in the Immortal Gate.

After sitting down, Chen Mobai began calmly chatting with Qi Yuheng and his companions.

The discussions among Nascent Souls naturally involved higher-tier topics.

Aside from the development of wars, at the very least, it revolved around Rank-5 spells or the Hundred Arts of Cultivation Immortal.

Chapter 1764: Courteous Nascent Soul Superiors_2

For those Nascent Soul cultivators who have emerged from the treacherous competition of the Immortal Gate, matters at the Rank-4 level are so simple they can learn them with their eyes closed.

Only at Rank-5 do they encounter real difficulty.

"I heard earlier that Pure Yang Master was learning the formations of Rank-5. Originally, I also wanted to develop greatly in this area, but with Brother Yunhai forging ahead, no matter how hard I try, at most, I can only catch up to him. So I gave up after forming my Nascent Soul."

As he spoke, Beiming Master brought up the subject of formations.

In his younger years, he was also a famed formation genius in the Immortal Gate. However, after forming his Nascent Soul, because Yunhai Master was a Rank-5 Formation Master, he felt that continuing in this direction would be a waste of his talent and thus abandoned his pursuit of formations.

Currently, Beiming Master is a marine expert of the Sea Territory in the Immortal Gate and the only Rank-5 Beast Tamer of the sect.

"I've heard that Beiming Master can borrow the Beiming Domain of Spiritual Venerable. At full strength, no Nascent Soul cultivator in the Immortal Gate can match you..."

Chen Mobai spoke with a hint of flattery. Among all the domains in the Immortal Gate, the Beiming Domain of Spiritual Venerable is acknowledged as the foremost in the world.

Once it is fully unleashed, it can even swallow and encompass the entire Earth Element Star.

Because of this, Beiming Master uses it as his Daoist title, and he was previously recognized as the strongest Nascent Soul in the Four Great Daoist Sects.

"Not at all, not at all. It's just power external to the Dao and not from self-cultivation. It's not worth mentioning."

However, Beiming Master was very humble, which surprised several Golden Core cultivators of the Kungpeng Lineage at nearby tables, as they knew best that their principal was always proud of this.

[Perhaps it's because Master Chengxuan is half a step into Divinity Transformation, combined with Pure Yang Master's exceptional talent, that makes the principal unable to boast.]

The Golden Core cultivators of the Kungpeng Lineage thought to themselves.

"The Pure Yang Master's accomplishments in formations are already on par with mine, only lacking in practical experience. Perhaps soon, the Immortal Gate will have a second Rank-5 Formation Master."

At this moment, Yunhai Master also spoke. As he did, he glanced at Shi Wanyu, who was sitting upright beside Chen Mobai. He never imagined that these two could come together.

When the Purple Electric Sword chose its owner, Hao Cao discovered the reincarnated body of Bai Guang Ancestor.

Because part of the ownership of the Purple Electric Sword lay with the Nature Studies Academy, he was notified of it. After personally identifying the fourteen strands of Sword Qi of the White Stone, he confirmed Hao Cao's judgment.

The matter was initially reported all the way up to the Five Peaks Immortal Mountains, where Ancestor Qian Xing gave an instruction after finishing a game.

[Everyone just acts as if they don't know and don't pay attention to her.]

In the Immortal Gate, the orders of the Divinity Transformation Ancestor are absolute.

Therefore, although they were very curious about what the reincarnated body of Bai Guang Ancestor was like, following Ancestor Qian Xing's command, they could only forget about it.

Although Yunhai Master did not dare to pay attention to Bai Guang Ancestor's reincarnated body, the announcement of Chen Mobai having a wife and daughter undoubtedly piqued his curiosity.

At that time, he happened to be at Huayang Grotto Heaven, with Beiming Master of the Kunpeng Lineage and Qi Yuheng.

After the three learned about this, Qi Yuheng immediately made a call, and soon someone delivered Chen Mobai's newly updated household registration documents.

At that time, Beiming Master was already furious, feeling that Chen Mobai used his daughter as a distraction, which was despicable. He even took out his phone, intending to direct the media of the Kunpeng Lineage to focus their efforts on attacking Chen Mobai for having an illegitimate daughter, accusing him of starting chaos and abandoning it, to ease the pressure on his daughter and son-in-law.

Beiming Master's call was stopped by Yunhai Master before it could be made.

Because Yunhai Master saw Shi Wanyu on Chen Mobai's household registration. Though decades had passed, and she had matured from a youthful girl to a mature woman, her face had scarcely changed.

It was the very reincarnated body of Bai Guang Ancestor that was exposed back during the open selection of the Mountain and Sea Academy.

Once Yunhai Master finished recounting this matter, Qi Yuheng and Beiming Master, who considered themselves well-versed in various grand scenes as Nascent Soul cultivators, were utterly disoriented.

They never imagined that in the matter of an old cow eating young grass, there was someone even more formidable than Ye Yune.

Knowing this, Qi Yuheng and Beiming Master immediately called and informed all the media of the Kunpeng Lineage, prohibiting any comment on this matter.

And not just them, but even the Patching Heaven Lineage, which had always been at odds with the Weapon Dancing Sect, kept their media silent on this issue.

Yunhai Master understood the reason.

Because during the time the Purple Electric Sword was choosing its owner, besides him, those aware of the matter included Master Chengxuan and the Orthodox Law Hall Master Ying Guanghua.

Master Chengxuan had wanted to manipulate things secretly, securing the Purple Electric Sword for Chen Mobai. Since Bai Guang Ancestor hailed from the Weapon Dancing Sect, Hao Cao first notified him.

As for notifying the then Orthodox Law Hall Master Ying Guanghua, it was because a portion of the ownership of the Purple Electric Sword lay with the Hall of Orthodox Law, and there was a need to report to Ancestor Qian Xing.

Although, due to Ancestor Qian Xing's instructions, they dared not investigate Bai Guang Ancestor's reincarnated body, with Chen Mobai's significant marriage event, Ying Guanghua surely, like them, would at least take a look at the marriage certificate or household registration.

Chapter 1765: Courteous Nascent Soul Superiors_3

At a glance, Yunhai Master estimated Ying Guanghua would also be shocked.

However, this was still a good scenario. If media were to truly attack Pure Yang Master over having a daughter, once Bai Guang Patriarch awakens from seclusion, the first strike would likely fall above the Xianwu Hall.

“I’ve recently had some insights into the way of Talismans, which delayed me a bit. After Deputy Hall Master Ye’s wedding, I’ll apply to Qian Xing Patriarch for the examination to become a Fifth Rank Formation Master.”

Facing Yunhai Master’s praise, Chen Mobai spoke humbly. Actually, it was mainly because he wasn’t confident about the last major question on the Fifth Rank Formation.

Even if he left the last question blank, he could still pass the exam, but that would damage his genius reputation in the Immortal Gate.

Unknowingly, Chen Mobai developed a bit of an idol burden.

Fortunately, this issue was resolved in Primordial Immortal City.

The diagram of the Fifth Rank Mysterious Five Elements Array left by the Primordial Patriarch was completely different from the one in the Immortal Gate. Chen Mobai only needed to interpret it through his own understanding of the Immortal Gate to pretend it was his own.

Compared to Yunhai Master, he had practical verification over in Yi Yuan Dao Palace in the Tianhe Realm. As long as Qian Xing Patriarch is skillful enough, his score might be even higher.

“Pure Yang Master truly deserves to be the most talented person in the Immortal Gate throughout the ages, progressing faster not only in cultivation but also in the Hundred Arts of Cultivation Immortal, even comparable to Qian Xing Patriarch.”

Beiming Master, upon hearing this, glanced at Shi Wanyu and couldn’t help but praise Chen Mobai against his own feelings.

Seeing his demeanor, Yunhai Master recalled their private exchanges where Beiming Master often expressed disdain for Chen Mobai.

Sometimes, even Nascent Soul Superiors can't always speak freely.

"Not at all, I'm still far from being compared to Qian Xing Patriarch..."

Chen Mobai, despite being flattered, remained modest. After all, the ones praising him were none other than the top Nascent Soul Superiors in the Immortal Gate.

This signified that his talent and abilities were recognized by the peak of the Immortal Gate, deemed worthy of immortal potential.

"Narcissus is here too, come sit over here."

At this moment, another distinguished guest was guided over, precisely the current Hall Master of the Hall of Orthodox Law.

Once she arrived and greeted the others, she cast a rather peculiar gaze at Shi Wanyu and her daughter, wondering why they were sitting at a Nascent Soul table.

Chen Mobai promptly introduced them.

Narcissus, upon hearing, appeared enlightened, nodded slightly as a greeting before sitting down at Beiming Master's invitation.

Though not a host, she found Shi Wanyu and her daughter's presence a bit odd but refrained from saying much.

Eventually, Yunhai Master, pitying her ignorance, transmitted the truth to her.

There was a loud snap!

Narcissus had just raised her cup for a sip when her right hand suddenly clenched, creating a ring of cracks in the cup engraved with Rank-3 solid talisman.

She coughed twice using the attempt to drink too quickly as an excuse, raising her other hand to conceal her shocked expression and eyes.

After taking a deep breath to regain her composure, she set down her hand and spoke apologetically.

“This wine is too strong; as a sea creature, I’m not accustomed to it.”

“I will immediately have someone switch to a milder one.” Beiming Master, hearing this, called over the servant beside him to help her smooth things over.

“Is this Mrs. Chen? I sat down hastily and haven’t greeted you yet...”

Narcissus seized this opportunity to show Shi Wanyu a very kind smile.

“You’re too polite, Hall Master...”

Chen Mobai responded joyously on behalf of Shi Wanyu. At that moment, he suddenly realized how Narcissus, aside from being lazy, possessed many virtues.

Then, with freshly poured mild wine, Narcissus stood up to personally offer a toast to Shi Wanyu and Chen Xiaohei.

The mother and daughter, thinking she was accommodating to Chen Mobai, politely stood to clink glasses.

The ensuing conversation further convinced Chen Mobai of the amiability of the Nascent Soul Superiors of the Kunpeng Lineage. To include Shi Wanyu and her daughter in the discussion, they often shifted the topic to them, asking about Chen Xiaohei's work and marital status, allowing them to participate.

Subsequently, Elder Yu Yi also entered. Since she wasn't part of the four lineages, she didn't know the truth. After a nod of greeting to Shi Wanyu, she naturally sat down and joined the conversation at the table under Chen Mobai's intentional guidance.

Because of Chen Mobai's representation, Master Chengxuan didn't come but sent a gift instead. Yuxiao Master politely declined, stating they were at a crucial point in their cultivation and couldn't leave seclusion.

As they chatted happily, the guests gradually filled the entire hall.

The hundred tables of guests all looked at the Nascent Soul table in shock.

Among them, Shi Wanyu and her daughter were particularly conspicuous.

Finally, the Nascent Soul Cultivators from the Patching Heaven Lineage arrived just on time.

Leading them was the Head of Immortal Affairs, Ying Guanghua.

Alongside him were Elder Mei Hua, Elder Qing Ping, Elder Yuan Xu, Gongye Zhixu, Nangong Xuanyu, all the Nascent Soul Cultivators of the Patching Heaven Lineage.

"Hmph, show off!"

As Ying Guanghua and the six Nascent Souls entered, Chen Mobai clearly heard Beiming Master express disdain in a low voice.

Chapter 1766: Courteous Nascent Soul Superiors_4

I've long heard that the headmaster of the Kunpeng Daoist Institute is famously straightforward, saying what he doesn't like bluntly. It indeed seems to be true.

Chen Mobai thought to himself silently.

However, the Beiming Master is so courteous to me, it shows that my potential for future Divinity Transformation has changed his view.

Ye Yune personally led Ying Guanghua and the other six people over.

However, when she arrived and saw the mother and daughter Shi Wanyu seated, her expression slightly froze.

"I apologize, Vice Hall Master Ying, there are too many people from your side, this table can't seat all of you. I'll ask the neighboring table to make room for you."

The Beiming Master stood up and said this to Ying Guanghua with a smile that wasn't really a smile.

At that moment, all hundred tables of guests within the hall collectively held their breath, looking towards this scene.

A table reserved for Nascent Soul cultivators was an unspoken rule.

And today, the Beiming Master having the non-Nascent Soul Shi Wanyu and her daughter sit down was clearly an opportunity to severely disgrace the Patching Heaven Lineage.

As expected, the faces of all the guests from the Patching Heaven Lineage in the hall turned grim.

At this moment, if Ying Guanghua were to flick his sleeves and leave, they would immediately follow him out.

These people were all prepared.

But unexpectedly, Ying Guanghua and the other six Nascent Soul cultivators all nodded and smiled upon hearing these words.

"Congratulations to Vice Hall Master Ye on the wedding."

Ying Guanghua and the six others congratulated Ye Yune and Jiang Yuyuan, and then greeted the others at the Nascent Soul table.

"This must be Mrs. Chen..."

When the greetings reached the end, Ying Guanghua walked up to Chen Mobai and asked a question with an affected surprise.

"Greetings to Vice Hall Master Ying, yes, this is my wife and daughter."

Chen Mobai, knowing when to be courteous, especially on such a joyous day for Ye Yune, graciously introduced his wife and daughter.

"Finally, the Pure Yang Master made it public. I should be among the first here to learn about this."

Elder Qingping also came over with a smile, having known about this for a long time since Yu Huiping did not have the face to borrow the Rank-5 Lingxiao Jade Pendant from him.

He truly didn't know that Chen Xiaohei's father was Chen Mobai.

That day when he saw Shi Wanyu and her daughter at the meal, he was genuinely startled.

Fortunately, he had always been very polite.

Guests from the Patching Heaven Lineage came over to greet one by one, even Nangong Xuanyu forced a smile as he raised his glass.

"Pure Yang Master, there were some misunderstandings between us before. I hope this toast can resolve them."

Chen Mobai, not one to hold a grudge, especially since Nangong Xuanyu was about to risk his life in a different world, also stood up and lifted his glass.

Counting this as turning hostility into friendship.

Chen Mobai found that after this toast, the Nascent Souls of the Patching Heaven Lineage seemed to breathe a sigh of relief.

[It seems they are very afraid that I will settle scores with them after my future Divinity Transformation!]

Chen Mobai thought of this, feeling even more that his genius persona in the Immortal Gate must not be broken, as his current status relied entirely on his "unparalleled talent."

After the six Nascent Souls of the Patching Heaven Lineage were seated, a silvery light flashed — the incoming person was charming and enchanting — it was none other than Peach Blossom Sage of Jumang Dao Academy.

In the end, she was persuaded by Wenren Xuewei and Pei Qingshuang to come over for the sake of Jumang Dao Academy's reputation, albeit puckering her lips.

As she entered, Wenren Xuewei also appeared, apologetically speaking to Ye Yune for being late.

"There's still a seat here, please, Peach Blossom Sage."

Ye Yune, knowing Peach Blossom Sage's personality, immediately personally invited her to the Beiming Master's table.

However, when Peach Blossom Sage approached, her eyes caught sight of Chen Mobai and the mother and daughter beside him, her stunning face slightly changed, and after greeting those at the table, she expressed she had matters to discuss with Elder Yuan Xu, and sat at the next table.

Among all Nascent Souls of the Immortal Gate, Three Extremes Sage was the first to know Chen Xiaohei's true identity.

After all, Chen Xiaohei's Nine Yin Meridian surviving was entirely due to him, the first great physician of the Immortal Gate.

Back then, it was also he who took Yu Huiping to borrow the Rank-5 Lingxiao Jade Pendant from Elder Qingping.

However, due to the privacy involving the ancestor, he dared not reveal it to anyone else.

So back when Peach Blossom Sage wanted to recruit Chen Mobai as a son-in-law, he found it laughable yet annoying.

Fortunately, although Peach Blossom Sage was confused, her daughter Pei Qingshuang was sensible enough not to actively pursue or entangle with the Pure Yang Master, else the ancestor might have unsheathed the first sword from Linwu Cave Haven.

After Chen Mobai's official announcement, Three Extremes Sage also informed Peach Blossom Sage, who was dumbstruck upon learning it.

Thinking back to her multiple attempts to recruit Chen Mobai as a son-in-law, she felt a chill down her spine.

Thus, on this occasion, seeing Shi Wanyu seated beside Chen Mobai, her face was tense.

This time, she came with the intention of explaining to the reincarnated body of Bai Guang Ancestor, expressing that Chen Mobai's exceptional talent, while single, would make anyone want to recruit him as a son-in-law.

Had she known Chen Mobai had already formed a family of three with the ancestor, she certainly wouldn't have had such thoughts.

So, it was essentially a misunderstanding.

It's all because the Pure Yang Master didn't announce sooner, giving her the illusion of a golden bachelor.

Though she thought this way, when she actually saw Shi Wanyu, she couldn't help but feel anxious, let alone explain; she subconsciously distanced herself and sat at the Patching Heaven Lineage's table.

When the wedding ceremony started, Chen Mobai noticed the Nascent Souls on the Immortal Gate's side were truly amiable people.

One by one, they came over with glasses to toast, even being exceptionally courteous to Shi Wanyu and her daughter, giving him enough face.

Since the Patching Heaven Lineage and Peach Blossom Sage had taken a separate table, Ye Yune and Jiang Yuyuan also sat at Chen Mobai's table.

Jiang Yuyuan, after all, had a background in Dance Tool Dao Academy; this time, his teacher Bian Yiqing went onstage to perform a piece as the introducer.

And Meng Huang unexpectedly served as a bridesmaid, and when she came over with the bride and groom to toast, Chen Mobai met her gaze, and she calmly nodded at him respectfully, without anyone noticing anything unusual.

For this, Chen Mobai quietly breathed a sigh of relief.

However, he didn't know that when Meng Huang sat down, looking at his side, especially seeing Shi Wanyu being treated with respect by all the Nascent Soul Superiors, her eyes were full of envy.

This was the officially announced wife of the Pure Yang Master, her status almost tantamount to a Nascent Soul Superior.

If it were her sitting next to Chen Mobai, Meng Huang couldn't imagine how radiant she would be.

[Truly formidable, to think of having a daughter to gain an upper position!]

Meng Huang looked at Shi Wanyu, thinking that this unobtrusive woman was a master in love affairs.

Since her twenties, she had seen that Chen Mobai was no mere person, betting heavily to stay by his side, but only thinking of assisting his cultivation, providing him with various emotional values. In the end, facing someone who gave birth to a child, seemingly ordinary and merely at Qi Cultivation, Shi Wanyu, she was utterly defeated.

The moment Chen Mobai announced it officially, Meng Huang truly felt an overwhelming sense of desolation.

All these years, she too had the heart to ascend in position.

However, she quickly adjusted her mindset, repositioning herself.

If she couldn't become the principal wife, she couldn't let him abandon her either!

How long could a mere Qi Cultivator live?

Chapter 1767: Law Domain

Chen Mobai originally planned to return directly to Wangwu Cave Heaven after the wedding.

However, led by Master Beiming, the Kunpeng lineage was so enthusiastic that he had to stay for two more days.

It just so happened that among the Four Great Daoist Sects, the Kunpeng Daoist Institute was the only one he had not visited, so he decided to take this opportunity to explore it thoroughly.

Back when Chen Mobai was in high school, Roc Academy was undoubtedly the top academy of the Immortal Gates, and at that time, everyone including himself longed for Huayang Grotto Heaven.

Chen Mobai mentioned this, but unfortunately, his grades were a bit lacking back then. He eventually entered the Dance Tool Dao Academy through a talent-based special admission due to his exceptional performance in magic duels.

"If Pure Yang Master had chosen our Daoist Academy back then, with your talent, you might have mastered the Six Imperial Scripture's six sections even before reaching Deity Transformation."

Master Beiming also expressed regret upon hearing this. He led Chen Mobai and his family of three through the mountain gate of the Kunpeng Daoist Institute, walking deep inside.

"Oh no, my Spirit Root Attributes are more suitable for the Pure Yang Scroll. If I had cultivated the Six Imperial Scripture, it's possible I wouldn't even have achieved Core Formation by now."

Chen Mobai shook his head repeatedly, feeling grateful in his lifetime for having chosen the Dance Tool Dao Academy.

"Hahaha, Pure Yang Master is being modest."

Master Beiming laughed heartily, and besides him, Master Yunhai also accompanied them, while Qi Yuheng had already left.

The group soon arrived before a tall stone pillar engraved with the four grand characters "Kunpeng Daoist Institute," which appeared solemn and majestic.

"This was left by Old Ancestor Long Wei."

Master Beiming's words made Chen Mobai nod gently, as he indeed sensed a will beyond the fourth rank within those four characters.

To have been preserved for thousands of years, it might even involve some Rank-5 or even Rank-6 means.

Beyond the stone pillar, they arrived at a massive plaza.

Students were practicing swordsmanship, Dao skills, techniques, and more, even the Qi Cultivation disciples moved with an extraordinary aura.

"This is our Kunpeng Daoist Institute's Qingming Platform. Cultivating here clears the mind and invigorates thinking. However, its effect diminishes as one's cultivation level increases."

Introducing while leading them onward, Master Beiming continued.

After crossing the square, they entered a forest, ascending a winding stone staircase with lush ancient trees on both sides, occasionally punctuated by the chirping of birds through the woods.

Wanyu and her daughter, never having visited before, listened intently, faces full of curiosity and wonder.

Afterwards, they toured places like the Qi Training Field, Artifact Refinement Workshop, and Talisman Repository, each orderly and exuding the premier management and powerful faculty and student body of the Kunpeng Daoist Institute.

By evening, they arrived at the highest observation platform of Huayang Grotto Heaven, where one could overlook the entire Daoist Academy, veiled in clouds and mist like a fairyland.

"Mom and Dad, over there is the entrance to the Sea Territory!"

Chen Xiaohei spoke, pointing eastward.

Huayang Grotto Heaven was located by the sea, and to the east lay the vast ocean. On the sea's surface was a dark and deep vortex, seemingly leading to a void world like the Netherworld, even with Chen Mobai's eyesight, he couldn't see the bottom.

After graduating from the Dance Tool Dao Academy, Chen Xiaohei used the Kunpeng Daoist Institute's connections to arrange his study at the Sea Territory, precisely through this great vortex.

Above the Sea Territory, there are six such vortices in total, but only this one outside Huayang Grotto Heaven can directly reach the deepest part of the Sea Territory, the Spiritual Venerable's location.

It is also the core of the entire Sea Territory, and the seat of the first Immortal Gate's Law Domain, Beiming Dongtian.

Standing on the observation platform, Chen Mobai watched the sunset gradually descend, turning the ocean's vortex golden, stirring a sense of longing in his heart.

As a witness to the establishment of Immortal Gates from scratch on the Earth Element Star, the Spiritual Venerable is undoubtedly the most powerful being on this planet. Who knows if there will be a chance to meet them in the future.

After touring the Kunpeng Daoist Institute, Chen Mobai accepted an invitation for a simple dinner.

After the meal, he asked Wanyu and her daughter to rest first while he stayed to discuss the Six Imperial Scripture with Master Beiming and others.

The premier Deity Transformation Cultivation Technique of the Immortal Gate, he had longed for it for a long time.

The Nascent Soul Superiors of the Kunpeng lineage have all cultivated this technique.

They just chose parts of it according to their own Spirit Root characteristics.

For example, Master Beiming formed his Nascent Soul using the Wind and Rain Sections and is now also studying the Darkness and Light Sections, striving to integrate all four sections before Deity Transformation, laying a solid foundation.

Meanwhile, Master Yunhai is cultivating all six sections, but he uses the Array Dao Technique to integrate and encompass the True Qi of the six sections, still in the preliminary experimental stage. If he can integrate the six sections using formations, he will be the second Immortal Sect Disciple after Ancestor Zhong Li to complete the Six Imperial Scripture without using Candle Dragon Blood.

Chen Mobai couldn't help but be amazed by these Nascent Soul cultivators from the Immortal Gates.

Someone with the talent of Master Yunhai could indeed be deemed to have the Qualification of Deification.

However, all these years, he has been keeping a low profile.

"My Six Imperial True Qi can only barely maintain balance now, and that's thanks to using Ancestor Zhong Li's Dragon Transformation Scripture Technique, merely standing on the shoulders of past sages."

Yet Master Yunhai was extremely humble. His method of refining the Six Imperial True Qi with Array Dao, in fact, drew from many predecessors' ideas at the Kunpeng Daoist Institute, though he had advanced it further than anyone else.

Chapter 1768: Law Domain_2

After discussing the Six Imperial Scripture concerning the two individuals, Chen Mobai further inquired about Chen Xiaohei's situation, seeking their professional opinion on whether his daughter could practice the Six Imperial Scripture.

"Naturally, there is no problem. Given her Pure Yin Body, if she were to cultivate the Six Imperial Scripture, I could guarantee that before reaching the Nascent Soul, there would be no bottleneck. However, if she aims for Divinity Transformation, the Six Imperial Scripture might hinder her."

Without Shi Wanyu present, Beiming Master was candid in his speech.

The yin section of the Six Imperial Scripture perfectly complements the Pure Yin Body, but to achieve Divinity Transformation using the Six Imperial Scripture, one must master all six sections.

In thousands of years of the Immortal Gate, apart from Ancestor Long Wei, it is only the exceptionally gifted Ancestor Zhong Li.

Even a few direct disciples of Ancestor Long Wei, though having refined Candle Dragon Blood, failed before achieving Divinity Transformation.

If Chen Xiaohei didn't have such a formidable background, Beiming Master would undoubtedly hope she cultivates the Six Imperial Scripture to Nascent Soul Formation, thus she would be considered among the Nascent Soul Superiors of the Kunpeng lineage.

But as the daughter of a current God-Transcending cultivator, combined with the fact that Chen Mobai is likely to become the Third Saint of the Immortal Gate, Chen Xiaohei's goal is certainly beyond merely Nascent Soul.

If in the future, due to issues with the Six Imperial Scripture, Chen Xiaohei gets stuck before Divinity Transformation, there is a high possibility the Kunpeng lineage could be blamed, hence Beiming Master made the point beforehand.

"I see, then it seems she can only continue cultivating the Five Elements Cultivation."

Upon hearing this, Chen Mobai could only sigh.

Among the countless cultivation techniques in the Immortal Gate, there are many of the yin attribute, but at most, they can only train to the Nascent Soul Realm.

So for Chen Xiaohei to achieve Divinity Transformation, currently, the most suitable options are the Jade Purity Scripture, which fits all cultivators, and the Six Imperial Scripture.

However, these two Deity Transformation Techniques are unlike the Pure Yang Scroll, which can rely on resources.

They depend solely on talent!

If the comprehension isn't there, it isn't there.

Although Chen Xiaohei possesses a Pure Yin Body, considered the pinnacle Taoist Body of the Immortal Gate, Chen Mobai knows his own comprehension is just above average, and Shi Wanyu even less so—an ordinary qi practitioner. As their daughter, her comprehension is likely to be average.

Therefore, he first excludes the Six Imperial Scripture, which places higher emphasis on talent and comprehension for his daughter.

The Jade Purity Scripture at least doesn't require worrying about mastering the six types of true Qi and integrating them completely, making it slightly less difficult.

If it really doesn't work, after achieving God Transformation himself, Chen Mobai plans to go to the Yi Yuan Dao Palace to retrieve the Ascension Secret Method left by Yi Yuan True Monarch, to have her switch to the Yi Yuan Dao Scripture and Primordial Dao Fruit.

"I actually believe that your daughter could cultivate the yin section of the Six Imperial Scripture, and after Nascent Soul Formation, she can pioneer a unique method of Divinity Transformation for the Pure Yin Body, something novel that might potentially create the eighth path of Divinity Transformation for the Immortal Gate."

At this moment, Yunhai Master spoke in a serious tone, prompting Chen Mobai to respond with an embarrassed smile.

Achieving such a feat, even among those who transformed to deities in the Immortal Gate, would be extraordinarily remarkable.

For instance, Ancestor Qian Xing, or Ancestor Zhong Li.

Chen Mobai feels that it is unlikely his daughter possesses such talent.

"Ultimately, this concerns her entire life ahead; when the time comes, I'll let her make her own choice."

Chen Mobai could only use such a vague statement to gloss over the topic.

"The Pure Yang Master speaks wisely; controlling one's own future is indeed preferable."

Beiming Master immediately spoke up, as he did not want Chen Xiaohei to cultivate the Six Imperial Scripture, fearing that if she fails to achieve God Transformation, the Kunpeng lineage may be blamed by the two God-Transcending cultivators.

Subsequently, the two discussed further matters related to cultivation.

The primary topic was Chen Mobai seeking advice regarding the Domain topic.

Within the Immortal Gate, it is the Kunpeng Daoist Institute that has the deepest research into Domains.

Back then, Ancestor Long Wei and Spiritual Venerable teamed up, managing to create the Beiming Domain that enveloped the entire Earth Element Star, known as the "Law Domain," and once within it, elemental energy, yin and yang throughout the four seasons, became fully controlled by them, allowing no one to escape.

The Law Domain also represents the ultimate realm of Domain cultivation in the Immortal Gate.

Cultivators raise their domain to transform it into a small world of their own.

Once within a Law Domain, even the God-Transcending cultivator can be at the mercy of its master.

Only the Evergreen Ancestor, relying on the characteristics of the Lasting Spring Cultivation, was able to maintain an undefeated status within the Beiming Domain, which was nearly akin to a Law Domain.

Therefore, to master the Six Imperial Scripture to its fullest, Domain support is essential.

If one can successfully develop a Domain during the Foundation Building Realm, then once the Law Domain is formed, it becomes even more formidable. This condition is implied to be the threshold for achieving Divinity Transformation through the Six Imperial Scripture.

Beiming Master, Qi Yuheng, Yunhai Master, and even Lan Haitian, are all individuals who accomplished this.

The ascendance of a domain into a Law Domain reflects each cultivator's differing understanding of the Six Imperial Scripture.

To elevate a domain into a Law Domain, one must master all six energies, as the foundation of a Law Domain is built upon yin, yang, wind, rain, darkness, and light.

Of these, yin and yang serve as the roots for world creation, wind is air, rain is fluid matter, darkness and light are shadow and illumination.

Yin, yang, wind, rain, darkness, and light encompass all things and phenomena!

They constitute the fundamental components of a world.

Without mastering the six energies, naturally, the domain cannot transform and ascend to a small world, let alone a Law Domain.

Beiming Master's Domain is evolving towards Spiritual Venerable's Beiming Domain, striving to master the Immortal Gate's first Law Domain.

Chapter 1769: Law Domain_3

And Yunhai Master, with his formation, evolves the Sky Curtain and Ground Network, utilizing the Ultimate Dao Array of the Sect Master and the Dragon Transformation Scripture Technique, mastering all six energies, ultimately making the array itself a Law Domain!

Qi Yuheng is even more formidable, as he directly uses his own body to accommodate the Six Imperials and their energies, making his body a Dharma Realm.

If Qi Yuheng can achieve such a realm, he could traverse the vast starry sky with his physical body, absorbing and refining the cosmic essence in the Vast Starry Sky at any time and place, potentially becoming the first cultivator in the history of the Immortal Gate to return to the sacred place of the Five Ancestors of the Immortal Gate.

Chen Mobai felt ashamed once again after hearing this.

Compared to him, who only copies answers and cultivates step by step, Yunhai Master and Qi Yuheng can both be called grandmasters who have forged their own paths.

Beiming Master, however, is quite similar to himself.

At this moment, Chen Mobai felt that his daughter, Chen Xiaohei, would definitely not reach the realm of these three, so giving up the Six Imperial Scripture was the right choice.

Even though he thought this way, he still earnestly sought advice on domain cultivation and even on ascending to the Law Realm.

To this, both Beiming Master and Yunhai Master shared their knowledge without reservation.

In the Immortal Gate, as long as one is willing to exchange and consult, knowledge is very easy to acquire.

“Thank you both for your guidance!”

When Chen Mobai left, he sincerely thanked the two senior predecessors, Beiming and Yunhai, who also courteously returned the gesture.

“With the war preparations underway, it seems that Bai Guang Patriarch will be coming out of seclusion soon. By then, I hope Pure Yang Master will say a few good words.”

Beiming Master said this as he bid farewell to Chen Mobai.

“No problem at all, we’re all members of the Immortal Gate.”

Chen Mobai didn’t notice anything unusual, only felt that his choice of Dance Tool Dao Academy as a university was truly wise.

Despite Bai Guang Patriarch’s laziness and neglect of duties, her background from Dance Tool Dao Academy is well-known.

However, he believes that soon, he, Chen Mobai, will also have the background of a Divinity Transformation from Dance Tool Dao Academy.

This exchange with the Nascent Soul level of the Kunpeng Lineage reinforced Chen Mobai’s resolve to cultivate the Pure Yang Scroll.

Fortunately, this Deity Transformation Technique demands resources more than talent and comprehension, otherwise, even with his ability to travel between two realms and the massive resources of the Eastern Wilderness, he might not have been able to form his Nascent Soul so quickly.

Hopefully, the characteristic of the Pure Yang Scroll's ease of breaking through can also assist him in transforming from Nascent Soul to Deity!

Thinking this way, Chen Mobai, who had been somewhat lax due to years of peace, became tense again.

After returning to Wangwu Cave Heaven with Shi Wanyu and her daughter.

He began diligent cultivation once more.

During this process, he also participated in the Immortal Gate's Array Master examinations.

The Immortal Gate implements a tiered promotion system.

This means that to take the Fifth Rank Formation Master exam, one must first pass the exams from the first to the fourth rank.

This rule wasn't present before, but after someone once applied out of boredom for the Fifth Rank Formation Master exam, wasting the Divinity Transformation ancestor's time, this rule was added.

According to the rules of the Immortal Gate, an Array Master exam is held annually, with monthly exams for ranks one to four.

Chen Mobai conveniently signed up for four consecutive months.

He easily passed the Array Master exams from ranks one to four.

This news naturally couldn't escape the attention of the major media outlets of the Immortal Gate, and soon media led by Dance Tool Dao Academy started praising their own Pure Yang Master.

Initially, the Patching Heaven and Kunpeng Lineages, who should have been singing a different tune, unexpectedly echoed the sentiment.

As a result, everyone in the Immortal Gate knew that the Pure Yang Master, after spending a little time learning, had passed the fourth rank Array Master exam, which he had never learned before.

Such talent is undoubtedly the makings of an immortal.

However, around the world, there are still hecklers who claim that for someone at the Nascent Soul Superior level, passing a mere fourth rank Array Master exam is no big deal; isn't this the average level?

If he's really capable, let him pass the Fifth Rank then!

Just as Chen Xiaohei was preparing to lead her fan club to charge against these people, major media outlets began reporting a piece of news.

Pure Yang Master applied to take the Fifth Rank Formation Master exam, and Qian Xing Patriarch has agreed!

Once this news broke, half of the hecklers immediately deleted their posts.

But half of them still stubbornly clung on.

Taking the test doesn't mean passing it!

Three days later, the official Immortal Gate released a congratulatory announcement.

[Warm congratulations to the Vice Hall Master of the Hall of Orthodox Law, Pure Yang Master Chen Mobai, on passing the Fifth Rank Formation Master exam!]

Once this announcement was made, many of the hecklers who remained stubborn until the end directly deleted their accounts.

The remaining ones either played dead or directly apologized, admitting they were too shallow and had underestimated Pure Yang Master's talent.

By this time, many people in the Immortal Gate were curious.

If he can casually learn to pass the Fifth Rank Formation Master exam, could he earn all the Fifth Rank certificates in the Hundred Arts of Cultivation Immortal if he tried seriously?

[This matter only depends on whether the Pure Yang Master wants to do it!]

As the head of his fan club, Chen Xiaohei posted this message, which quickly received tens of thousands of likes and approvals.

After this incident, Chen Mobai's talent in the Hundred Arts of Cultivation Immortal was generally recognized to be on par with Qian Xing Patriarch.

As for the disputes on the internet, Chen Mobai knew nothing of them.

After passing the Fifth Rank Formation Master examination, he received the most profound knowledge of the Immortal Sect Formation Dao, imparted by Qian Xing Patriarch.

Chapter 1770: Law Domain_4

Besides the complete Sky Curtain Ground Network of the Earth Element Star, there is also the Ultimate Dao Array left by the former Sect Master.

At this time, Chen Mobai sensed that the Patriarch Qian Xing was already attempting the Ultimate Dao Array, and had even made significant progress.

Thinking about it, it makes sense. Even among the past Divinity Transformation cultivators of the Immortal Gate, Patriarch Qian Xing's talent was among the top.

As the only one in the Immortal Gate with a record of Cultivating Void, there was no reason for him not to attempt the Ultimate Dao Array of the Sect Master, Zhang Daosun.

It's just unknown whether Patriarch Qian Xing, possessing the Guidance Book's realm of infinity, can take that step forward.

With a deeper sense of reverence, Chen Mobai consulted Patriarch Qian Xing on his concerns about the Sky Curtain Ground Network and, having received answers, descended the mountain for closed-door cultivation.

Armed with all the formation inheritances of the Immortal Gate, Chen Mobai spent a year designing a Sky Curtain Ground Network Array for the Eastern Wilderness, incorporating the Eastern Wilderness and surrounding areas like ruins, the Endless Sand Sea, and Yun Meng Ze.

In this Eastern Wilderness Sky Curtain Ground Network, the Mysterious Five Elements Array of the plains and the Direct and Inverse Nine Palaces Formation of the plateaus were the two core elements, alongside other fifth rank great formations of the Immortal Gate such as Hundred Rivers to the Sea and Myriad Mountains Towering High.

Unfortunately, the Eastern Wilderness can only implement the ground network aspect of the large formation plan, and even with the ground network, it is estimated that it will take a hundred years with the current talent pool to bear fruit.

The Heavenly Curtain Formation requires satellites, integration with the outer star light, the Nine Heavens' Tian Gang, and even the Earth Fetal Membrane.

In the Eastern Wilderness environment, only a crude version can be set up for now.

However, Chen Mobai is not concerned about this, as with a lifespan of a thousand years, a hundred-year plan to achieve a possible transformation of the Ultimate Dao Array seems worthwhile to him.

After completing the Eastern Wilderness Sky Curtain Ground Network Array, Chen Mobai received favorable news.

Yunyang Bing finally repaired the satellite they had captured from outer space.

This is perhaps due to the good fortune of the Vermilion Phoenix Facing the Sun motif.

Of the nine satellites initially brought back, seven have been fixed, while the remaining two are completely scrapped.

Upon receiving the news, Chen Mobai immediately went to the Sky Curtain Ground Network Management Bureau.

The news of him passing the fifth rank Formation Master exam had spread throughout the Immortal Gate, so when he arrived to retrieve the seven satellites, it was assumed he wanted to use them to delve into the Sky Curtain Ground Network.

"Pure Yang Master, here is the key to monitoring the core of the entire Sky Curtain Ground Network."

When Chen Mobai came to collect the seven satellites repaired by Yunyang Bing, Xi Junjian, the director of the Sky Curtain Ground Network Management Bureau, hurried over with two deputy directors.

Chen Mobai decided to play along and asked to be shown around the Sky Curtain Ground Network Management Bureau.

Xi Junjian immediately led him to a spherical room full of screens, which was a combined magic artifact claimed to consist of a million screens. A person with strong divine sense could use it to observe the Earth Element Star's Thirty-Six Heavenly Caves and Seventy-Two Blessed Lands instantly.

The Sky Curtain Ground Network Management Bureau can only activate the Celestial Globe Instrument when orders come from above to monitor.

Chen Mobai and others' Great Void Transference positioning is also aided by this place.

"Can it observe the Five Peaks Immortal Mountains?"

Chen Mobai couldn't help but curiously ask since the Void Teleportation could lock onto the Five Peaks Immortal Mountains.

"Well..."

Xi Junjian and the two deputy directors exchanged looks before mentioning another matter.

"The Celestial Globe Instrument was modified during the tenure of Patriarch Qian Xing, with the primary control being the Patriarch's Heavenly Calculation Bead. Control here is only possible with authorization from the Patriarch, thereby monitoring the entire Sky Curtain Ground Network."

Although Patriarch Qian Xing was exceptionally talented, he still needed to take up official roles to procure Golden Elixir Spiritual Medicine or Infant Forming Spirit Medicine.

This Sky Curtain Ground Network Management Bureau was the place he worked or, rather, had chosen himself.

It was precisely here that Patriarch Qian Xing laid the foundation for his Divinity Transformation.

Chen Mobai briefly looked at the Celestial Globe Instrument's continuously flickering screens. With his extraordinary divine sense, he quickly identified some familiar locations.

Red City Cave Heaven, Red Sandstone City, Yu Wood City, and so on.

However, these images were all at the vital points of the Spirit Vein, convenient for checking corresponding pipeline facilities when there were issues with spiritual energy transmission of the Sky Curtain Ground Network.

Thus, there was no need to worry about personal privacy being invaded.

Because of this, Chen Mobai and others' Great Void Teleportation could only lock onto locations where the Earth Element Star Spirit Vein's spiritual energy level was high, providing more precision.

If it was an ordinary, spiritual energy-less wilderness, they could only teleport to the nearest place with spiritual energy before void walking further.

After leaving the Sky Curtain Ground Network Management Bureau, Chen Mobai made the excuse of closed-door cultivation to comprehend the Sky Curtain Ground Network Array and went to the Eastern Wilderness.

He personally set the seven satellites he had brought over into the sky above the Eastern Wilderness one by one.

Only he could set up this formation.

Fortunately, all the critical Spirit Vein nodes of the Eastern Wilderness were already covered with Teleportation Arrays, saving him the time of Void Shifting.

After deploying the seven satellites at the key positions of the Eastern Wilderness Sky Curtain, Chen Mobai set a Rank-4 restriction. Although only Nascent Soul Cultivators could reach this height, there was still a risk of randomly curious Nascent Soul Cultivators flying by as the Eastern Wilderness rapidly grows, mistaking the satellite for an ancient treasure.

Given the local people's nature, they would see it as fate if encountered and would take it away without hesitation.

So Chen Mobai left a restriction, ensuring he'd sense immediately if any foreign True Qi invaded it.

Having installed all seven satellites beyond the Tian Gang, Chen Mobai arranged them according to the small Sky Curtain Beidou Star Array, activating and linking them one by one.

Due to Yunyang Bing's prior tuning, the process was completed smoothly.

But this was just the beginning.

Next, Chen Mobai needed to link the Heavenly Communication Device of the Five Elements Sect set up in the Eastern Wilderness to the small Sky Curtain Beidou Star Array.

This task could also only be completed by him.

Not only because these are critical but also sophisticated tasks that even the Immortal Gate had few who could accomplish.

Moreover, integrating the techniques of the Immortal Gate with the Eastern Wilderness' Heavenly Communication Device required numerous adaptations.

Since Chen Mobai designed the Heavenly Communication Device, he had long considered these steps.

But even so, he faced many challenges during actual implementation.

Chen Mobai explored whilst using his phone to consult the Immortal Gate's data. It took him half a year to complete the connection between the Heavenly Tent and the Ground Network, and then link through the ground network to the Heavenly Communication Device, solving the anticipated signal coverage issues.

And on that day, suddenly seven resplendent stars appeared above the Eastern Wilderness, causing many cultivators to think they were seeing things, as the starry glow faded away after just half a moment.