

World 1871

Chapter 1871: Purple Cloud Galaxy

On this day, while Chen Mobai was handling affairs at the Hall of Orthodox Law, a message suddenly came from the Star Observatory.

Upon learning this, he immediately enacted Void Teleportation and arrived outside the Earth Element Star.

Just as Chen Mobai teleported into the Vast Starry Sky, he heard a familiar voice. Qi Yuheng was already waiting above the Heavenly Curtain and nodded to him.

The two had just exchanged a few words when several more silver lights appeared.

It was none other than Ying Guanghua and several other Nascent Soul cultivators guarding the Immortal Gate.

“It seems everyone has received the news that the Dragon God Star has already entered the edge of our Star System and is approaching this way towards Earth Element Star.”

Ying Guanghua began to speak.

The portal would automatically capture any Different World approaching Earth Element Star that harbored life, preemptively opening a Void Gate, allowing people from the Immortal Gate to pass through.

If the star from the Different World was weak and low in mass, it would be drawn off its orbit due to the portal’s attraction, moving toward Earth Element Star.

However, after the Immortal Gate completed its exploration, they would take the initiative to alter its orbit, preventing collision with Earth Element Star.

Exceptions exist; for instance, mighty Different Worlds like Ming Wang Star, where the Immortal Gate actively breaks off portal connections and conceals itself with the Sky Curtain Ground Network Formation, preventing the approaching Ming Wang Star from discovering its presence.

In extreme scenarios, the Immortal Gate would implement the final plan of wandering the Earth Element Star away from its current position.

Once the danger is confirmed nonexistent, they would either guide the Earth Element Star back or simply not return at all.

However, this plan has not been used so far by the Immortal Gate.

Currently, according to the Star Observatory's calculations of the Dragon God Star's orbit, the portal has already exerted some influence; otherwise, it would not have entered the Star System where Earth Element Star resides but would have merely grazed by the edge.

"Based on the current trajectory of the Dragon God Star, it should merely skirt the periphery of our Star System and then depart..."

Gongye Zhixu began explaining the star path trend currently calculated by the Star Observatory. Approximately two or three years from now, the Dragon God Star will be closest to Earth Element Star, at which time even without the portal, the Immortal Gate's Star Space Battleship could directly pass through from the Vast Starry Sky.

"I and Hall Master Qi have Void Teleportation, let's first explore the star path."

Chen Mobai volunteered, and Qi Yuheng slightly nodded as well.

The opening of the portal may require resource expenses, and transporting the entire Four Symbols Dao Palace of the Immortal Gate could consume much of the portal's accumulated millennia of Power of Void.

Thus, if they could directly maneuver the Four Symbols Dao Palace and Star Space Battleship through the starry sky onto the Dragon God Star, the Power of Void within the portal would allow these high-ranking cultivators more frequent and free transit between the two worlds.

"Why not let me go along as well, I also know Void Teleportation!"

Wenren Xuewei suddenly proposed. After her "Nascent Soul Formation," she has been actively partaking in various activities to restore the prestige of Jumang Academy, thinking that with the two strongest Nascent Soul cultivators of the Immortal Gate leading, she could enhance her resume as well.

Of course, Chen Mobai had no objections; in case of danger, she could scout ahead.

Qi Yuheng, owing a favor for a previous Azure Dragon Dao Palace incident, nodded as well.

"Then I shall trouble the three of you."

Ying Guanghua courteously handed over the star map calculated by the Star Observatory to Chen Mobai and the others.

"All for the Immortal Gate's service!"

After saying this, Chen Mobai immediately commanded the Tai Yi Wu Yan Luo, carrying the three of them deeper into the starry sky.

The Star System that houses the Earth Element Star is known as the Tianyang System, comprising sixty-seven stars of varying sizes revolving around the Tai Yang, with the Earth Element Star located centrally, offering the most suitable living environment.

The Immortal Gate had previously occupied other planets apart from the Earth Element Star, though their environments were unsuitable for Qi and ordinary Foundation Establishment practitioners. Constructing artificial biospheres was wasteful, so after exhausting resources useful to the Immortal Gate, these planets were quickly abandoned.

Besides these intact planets, countless meteorites exist, with most members of the Ascension Sect hidden among them. However, a few high-ranked cultivators endure harsh planets, using arrays to filter sunlight and moonlight, absorbing the extreme hot and cold energies from nature to practice diligently.

Beyond the Tianyang System lies a vast Purple Cloud Galaxy System.

The Five Ancestors of Xianmen originated from an ancient Daoist Academy within the Purple Cloud Galaxy, knowledge that Chen Mobai only learned after his “Nascent Soul Formation.”

Throughout generations, the Deity Transformation True Monarchs of the Immortal Gate, when opportunities arose, would follow the star maps left by the Five Ancestors, leaving the Tianyang System, heading towards the center of the Purple Cloud Galaxy in search of greater opportunities.

However, within the enormous Purple Cloud Galaxy, the Tianyang Star System is merely a drop in the ocean. Even with the Lifespan of a Deity Transformation True Monarch, traversing even one percent throughout their life might not be possible.

Chen Mobai, Qi Yuheng, and Wenren Xuwei are seen as inheritors of three lineages among the Five Ancestors of Xianmen, and thus are also familiar with this aspect of knowledge.

“The Purple Cloud Palace is said to be left by the Great Divine Power Wielder who developed the Purple Cloud Galaxy. When the central dojo of the Purple Cloud Galaxy faced a catastrophe, the Daoist Academy of the Five Ancestors was affected and shattered, forcing them to follow the ancient star map to the Earth Element Star, seeking the legacy of the Purple Sky Daoist Venerable to achieve greater heights.”

Chapter 1872: Purple Cloud Galaxy (Part 2)

Qi Yuheng first spoke about the contents of the notes left by Ancestor Long Wei at Kunpeng Daoist Institute.

"In the handwritten notes of Evergreen Ancestor, it also mentioned the matters of Purple Cloud Palace. However, although he waited for the opportunity to enter and complete his cultivation technique, due to the Immortal Gate's lack of resources, he couldn't await the growth of the Three Great Spirit Plants and ran out of lifespan, ultimately passing away in meditation."

Hearing the words of Wenren Xuewei and Qi Yuheng, Chen Mobai was secretly shocked. Although he had learned part of the content from Master Chengxuan, he didn't know as much detail as they did.

But it wasn't that Master Chengxuan intentionally hid it. Instead, it was because there was Bai Guang Ancestor above in the Dance Tool Dao Academy. The real origin and Daoist scripture of Ancestor Yun Ya were all in Bai Guang Ancestor's hands. So if Chen Mobai wanted to know everything, he would have to wait until Bai Guang Ancestor emerged to ask her.

But Master Chengxuan basically told Chen Mobai the general idea, so in the face of the conversation between Wenren Xuewei and Qi Yuheng, he could barely agree with a few nods.

"In the later years, Evergreen Ancestor went mad, trying to extract all the Spirit Veins of Earth Element Star to accelerate the maturity of the Great Chun Tree. If it weren't for Ancestor Long Wei of Kunpeng Lineage and the Spiritual Venerable who were concerned for the common people and resolutely stopped him, there wouldn't be the prosperous Immortal Gate today, nor us descendants!"

While saying this, Qi Yuheng suddenly showed a mocking expression, and in his words, there was some contempt for Evergreen Ancestor of Jumang Academy.

Chen Mobai knew about this matter. At that time, Illusion Color Ancestor of Patching Heaven and Yun Ya Ancestor of Dance Tool both passed away due to the opening war with the Three Eyed Tribe.

The Sect Master Zhang Daosun also failed in Cultivating Void, and his Divine Soul perished.

Only Ancestor Long Wei of Kunpeng and Evergreen Ancestor of Jumang remained.

With his lifespan running out, Evergreen Ancestor planned to sacrifice the Spirit Veins of the entire Earth Element Star to consecrate the Great Chun Tree, extending his life to pursue a higher Realm.

Unfortunately, he was suppressed by Ancestor Long Wei and the Spiritual Venerable working together, but neither could do anything to the other. In the end, Evergreen Ancestor vowed to give up on that idea, and the matter came to an end.

"This is slander. Ancestor never had such an idea. It was your Kunpeng Lineage's Ancestor Long Wei who knew he couldn't outlive Evergreen Ancestor and feared that after his death, Evergreen Ancestor would dominate Earth Element Star, so he judged the heart of a gentleman with the mind of a villain. He joined forces with the Spiritual Venerable, forcing Evergreen Ancestor to make a vow. But Ancestor's heart is as broad as the sun and moon; he never had such thoughts..."

Wenren Xuewei, usually gentle, argued intensely with Qi Yuheng.

This matter was also a headless case in the history of the Immortal Gate. Both sides had their statements, placing themselves on the moral high ground.

The Dance Tool Dao Academy, since Ancestor Yun Ya had already passed away by then, could not involve itself in the Magic Duel between the two Divinity Transformation Ancestors and only recorded the event.

However, it's certain that the reason for the Magic Duel between the two Divinity Transformation Ancestors was indeed because of the Great Chun Tree.

Shortly after the Magic Duel, Ancestor Long Wei left Earth Element Star. But decades later, the soul tablet he left at Kunpeng Daoist Institute shattered, signifying that this ancestor had also perished.

Evergreen Ancestor sat in meditation under the Great Chun Tree in his later years, and before passing peacefully, his Taoist Body transformed into a rainbow, infusing all his essence, Qi, and spirit into the Great Chun Tree, elevating this Spirit Plant to an unprecedented Sixth Rank.

Because of this matter concerning their ancestor's reputation, those of Kunpeng and Jumang would often argue when they met.

However, at the level of cultivation that Qi Yuheng and Wenren Xuewei had reached, they naturally wouldn't argue with each other. They exchanged a few words of debate and then fell silent.

Chen Mobai was not a talkative person either. The three of them stood on the Tai Yi Wu Yan Luo, heading towards the location of the Dragon God Star. About twenty days later, they finally saw their target.

"Hmm, it seems there are rats guarding the door."

Qi Yuheng's eyes lit up, and the Zulong Divine Eye Technique erupted, revealing the figures on several meteors outside the Dragon God Star.

"I wonder which experts of the Ascension Sect they are?"

Wenren Xuewei also spoke, "Every time the opening war happens, the Ascension Sect spares no effort to cross the starry sky, entering the planet where the Different World resides ahead of time."

This is something that the Immortal Gate tacitly agrees with.

Because if the Different World is a strong planet like Ming Wang Star, the people of the Ascension Sect would be stepping into danger for the Immortal Gate.

The Ascension Sect also realizes this, so both sides act within their mutual understanding.

"Hall Master Qi, long time no see!"

But what surprised Qi Yuheng was that upon seeing him, the people of the Ascension Sect didn't run away but instead greeted him.

"I wondered who it was, turns out to be you, a dog with no home."

Qi Yuheng glanced at the person driving the falling star to approach him. Under the Zulong Divine Eye Technique, he saw through their essence and scoffed.

"Hmm!"

Chen Mobai saw the figure hidden in the darkness on the other side, and his heart couldn't help but be filled with doubt. He felt this person seemed very familiar to him.

Who could it be?

At this moment, two more falling stars flew over. The two people on them had appearances he had never seen before, but their distinctive aura and attire allowed him to recognize them at a glance.

Master Shen Yu and Dragon and Tiger Ancestor!

These two Vice Sect Hierarchs of the Ascension Sect came over and stood directly on either side of the shadowy figure, clearly taking them as the leader.

Chapter 1873: Purple Cloud Galaxy (Part 3)

Seeing this scene, Chen Mobai already understood who this person was.

"Ascension Sect Hierarch!"

The top expert of the Heretical Cult, such a familiar feeling for Chen Mobai, could it be that he has already possessed Yang Jing?

Realizing this point, Chen Mobai's brows became sharp.

"If it weren't for Bai Guang intervening back then, you would have died by my hand already!"

The Ascension Sect Hierarch spoke to Qi Yuheng, provoking a burst of laughter from the latter, and in the midst of laughter, Qi Yuheng's figure suddenly vanished from the Tai Yi Wu Yan Luo.

Qi Yuheng teleported in front of the Ascension Sect Hierarch, and his right hand punched heavily!

Bang!

The darkness covering the starry sky turned into a palm, blocking Qi Yuheng's fist. However, at this instant, cracks emerged in the meteor where the Ascension Sect Hierarch stood, then it shattered completely.

Both the Divine Imperial Pavilion Master and the Dragon and Tiger Ancestor waved their sleeves at the same time, powerful Elemental Energy condensed into a shield, blocking the fluctuations from the clash between the two, yet the meteor beneath them continued to crack, forcing them to move to avoid the edges.

Rumble!

Seeing the Ascension Sect Hierarch blocking his punch, the sharpness in Qi Yuheng's eyes intensified, and the Six Imperial Qi erupted violently within his Law Domain, forming a nascent realm of infinite light under his punch, dispelling the darkness and annihilating the evil.

Chen Mobai saw the dark sky around the Ascension Sect Hierarch twisting and compressing under the impact of Qi Yuheng's light, ultimately transforming into a dark serpent coiled in the starry sky, opening its blood-red mouth to devour Qi Yuheng.

Wenren Xuewei, seeing this, couldn't help but feel slightly tense.

But Chen Mobai, who had crossed swords with Qi Yuheng many times in Little Red Sky, remained calm.

In less than a breath, the dark serpent of the starry sky was pierced through by rays of light from within, and Qi Yuheng seemed like a giant of light, splitting the serpent in two from its head, even tearing apart the dark sky within the Ascension Sect Hierarch.

Chen Mobai saw a pure white little face, it was precisely Yang Jing.

[What was Kong Feichen doing! He couldn't even handle this!]

Seeing that the Ascension Sect Hierarch had indeed possessed Yang Jing, Chen Mobai cursed Kong Feichen in his heart, saying that he wanted to give Yang Jing a future, but clearly pushing her into a fire pit.

If time could turn back, Chen Mobai would definitely reclaim Yang Jing then and let Kong Feichen go to the Ascension Sect alone.

“Over three hundred years have passed, and your cultivation level hasn't improved at all!”

As Qi Yuheng spoke, he used the power of light from the Six Imperial Scriptures to shatter the dark barrier on the surface of the Ascension Sect Hierarch, and punched heavily on that pure white little face!

However, a black vortex suddenly appeared on Yang Jing's cheek, swallowing all the light power of Qi Yuheng's punch.

At the same time, Yang Jing extended her snow-white right hand, forming a palm blade with her five fingers, silently stabbing into Qi Yuheng's flank in front of her.

But with a crisp sound of cracking bones, Yang Jing's figure was sent flying backward.

“Are you tickling me?”

Qi Yuheng looked down at his suit and shirt, pierced by Yang Jing, but unharmed body, and mocked.

“Using your body as a domain for the Six Imperial Scriptures, impressive indeed!”

Yang Jing expressionlessly restored the five fingers of her right hand, broken by the Fifth Rank Forged Body’s counterforce, but all over her skin emerged strands of light. Her reincarnated body focused on cultivating the Six Imperial Scriptures of Obscurity, which were naturally restrained by the Light chapter.

Yin!

At this moment, a sword sound resonated through the starry sky.

A brilliant white light, spat out by Chen Mobai, transformed into an Extreme Sun Line spanning the Tianyu in the blink of an eye, slashing down above Yang Jing’s head.

“With Hall Master Qi and the Sect Hierarch battling, small fry better not buzz around!”

But with a dragon’s roar and tiger’s howl, a tall man draped in a Dragon Tiger Robe already stepped in front of Chen Mobai’s Extreme Sun Slash.

The Dragon and Tiger Ancestor extended his right hand, and dragon scales appeared on his palm, instantly transforming into a dragon claw, confidently reaching out to grasp the oncoming white light.

Then blood light burst forth!

The five fingers of the Dragon and Tiger Ancestor’s hand were all sliced by the white light, revealing threads of blood, and one finger was even cut off.

“Hey, good lad, truly a genius of unparalleled sword dao, able to condense such a powerful Sword Sha at just the third level of Nascent Soul Realm.”

The Dragon and Tiger Ancestor was slightly surprised but still within his expectations, urging his Dragon Tiger Great Method to strengthen his dragon scale defense, suppressing the Extreme Sun Slash, then applying slight force with his fingers, fiercely twisting the white light till it snapped.

And after blocking the Extreme Sun Slash, the Dragon and Tiger Ancestor reattached his severed finger, and in an instant, blood flowed backwards, and his injuries were already healed.

“Lasting Spring Cultivation?”

Chen Mobai was very surprised to see this familiar scene.

Even Wenren Xuewei beside him, her pupils shook, and she frowned. She could assure that in this generation, only she had completed the Lasting Spring Cultivation.

“This is a spell I invented based on the Lasting Spring Cultivation, called the Heaven and Earth Evergreen Technique. It can pre-establish a perfect state of one’s body, and once injured, it can activate and restore to that perfect state.”

And at this moment, the Dragon and Tiger Ancestor across spoke.

Chapter 1874: Purple Cloud Galaxy_4

"Who exactly are you?"

As Wenren Xuewei spoke, she took out a flower basket, a Fifth Rank Magical Treasure passed down through the Jumang Academy, which she had chosen during her Nascent Soul gathering.

Taking this out, it was evident that she intended to clear the sect’s people.

"What, don’t recognize me? It figures, after all, when I met you, I had a different face."

The Dragon and Tiger Ancestor laughed, then his facial muscles twitched, transforming into a face that was very familiar to Chen Mobai.

Yan Xinji!

"Then today, you must die no matter what!"

Seeing the Dragon and Tiger Ancestor reveal his identity, Chen Mobai said this.

Yang Jing, because she was Qing Nu's sister, even though she had already been seized, he hesitated to act, but facing this guy in front of him, he had no such reservations.

"Those words should be mine to say, but if you're willing to hand over my daughter, I could spare you."

As the Dragon and Tiger Ancestor spoke, his whole body suddenly began to twist, then transformed into a black dragon, spiraling in the starry sky, with beams of sun, moon, and starlight gathering, turning into thunderous rain and storms with frosty knives.

Within the Ancient Evil Path Union, the highest cultivation realm of the Dragon Tiger Sect was to transform into a True Dragon and White Tiger!

It is said that Ancestor Zhong Li's Dragon Transformation Scripture Technique was based on this.

The Dragon and Tiger Ancestor had reached the highest realm long ago.

Now, as a dragon, his whole presence was not below that of Qi Yuheng and the Ascension Sect Hierarch.

"I will attempt to break his Heaven and Earth Evergreen Technique, you seize the opportunity to strike..."

Seeing this scene, Wenren Xuewei stood solemnly in front of Chen Mobai. With the Lasting Spring Cultivation, she didn't fear death, so she intended to use her life to help him gather intelligence on the Dragon and Tiger Ancestor.

"The flesh of the Lasting Spring Cultivation, I haven't tried it yet, I wonder if after seizing you, you'll still be yourself after dying and resurrecting!"

But at that moment, Lord Shen Yu sneered as he spoke, having somehow already flown over, with the Dragon and Tiger Ancestor flanking Chen Mobai and Wenren Xuewei on the Tai Yi Wu Yan Luo.

[It's okay, I have a Secret Treasure protecting my heart and mind, his God Seed cannot be planted in my Sea of Knowledge at the Purple Mansion!]

Wenren Xuewei transmitted to Chen Mobai. As the head of Jumang Academy, although her Magic Artifacts weren't as numerous as Chen Mobai's, she had certainly covered her weaknesses.

Cultivators of the Lasting Spring Cultivation aren't afraid of physical injuries, but their heart and mind are comparatively weaker, so they have special Spiritual Objects to protect their Sea of Knowledge at the Purple Mansion.

Chen Mobai recalled the Dalit Flower he had refined into his Sea of Knowledge at the Purple Mansion, then glanced at the flower basket Wenren Xuewei held, gently nodding.

"Then you hold back Lord Shen Yu a bit while I go slay the Dragon and Tiger Ancestor!"

Having said this, Chen Mobai flew out of the Tai Yi Wu Yan Luo towards the Dragon and Tiger Ancestor, who had already become a dragon.

"You're not teaming up with me?" Wenren Xuewei was quite bewildered; she knew Chen Mobai could wield a Fifth Rank sword, but that was surely his ultimate move, needing time to unleash against Nascent Soul cultivators. With her as the perfect shield in front, wouldn't it be better?

"No need, it's merely the Dragon and Tiger Ancestor, I don't need to go all out to slay him!"

Chen Mobai shook his head, then his Domain opened, and a brilliant purple Sword Artefact descended.

"Boy, before you die, you only have this chance to run your mouth!"

Chen Mobai didn't conceal his words, so everyone present heard them. The Dragon and Tiger Ancestor sneered, he had already transformed into a dragon, opened his mouth, and a thick lightning beam concentrated, erupting like a massive light pillar, with catastrophic energy set to envelop Chen Mobai.

[Fifty pieces of Superior Grade Spirit Stone!]

By then, Chen Mobai had also settled the price with the Purple Electric Sword, the latter immediately full of energy, reaching the profound height of the Sword Dao with Chen Mobai's Clear Heart of Sword.

After the injection of Pure Yang True Qi, this intermediate grade Fifth Rank Flying Sword, as if forged by Chen Mobai's own hands, extended like an arm, instantly slashing a purple Sword Radiance that split the Universe.

The Dragon and Tiger Ancestor's lightning pillar, upon contact with the purple Sword Radiance, was effortlessly sliced as if through tofu, piercing straight into the starry sky's dragon.

Before long, a vast purple sword mark had already split the Dragon and Tiger Ancestor down the middle from head to tail.

As the Purple Electric Sword flickered and appeared behind the slain Dragon and Tiger Ancestor, Chen Mobai turned his gaze to Lord Shen Yu, who had just engaged with Wenren Xuewei.

When Lord Shen Yu caught Chen Mobai's eyes, he shivered all over, and after a Divine Sense storm erupted, he turned to flee swiftly towards the Dragon God Star below.

But the Purple Electric Sword was already a step ahead, tracing a perfect arc in the starry sky, intercepting Lord Shen Yu's colorful escape light.

Lord Shen Yu's high-speed flying body suddenly displayed a bloodstain on his neck, then his eyes widened, and he fell towards the earth, separated from his head.

Seeing this, Wenren Xuewei gaped, filled with disbelief.

Though knowing Chen Mobai was known for his unparalleled talent in the Immortal Gate's history, his Sword Dao was astonishingly exceptional, and his Magic Duel abilities were almost unheard of, these opponents weren't ordinary individuals.

Both were dangerous figures that had topped the Immortal Gate's bounty list for centuries; even if Qi Yuheng intervened, he could at best drive them away, unable to slay them cleanly with a single sword as he did.

After Chen Mobai slaughtered the Dragon and Tiger Ancestor and Lord Shen Yu, even the heated battle between Qi Yuheng and the Ascension Sect Hierarch nearby was stunned.

What was this situation!

Did the Immortal Gate gain another Divinity Transformation ancestor?

Even Qi Yuheng, who had sparred with Chen Mobai in Little Red Sky, was tremendously shocked.

Is this what it means to be a Pure Yang Master with sword in hand?!

The difference from back in Little Red Sky is just too great!

At this point, Chen Mobai recalled the Purple Electric Sword to his side and glanced at the two.

The Ascension Sect Hierarch shuddered suddenly, then his whole body transformed into a dark sky, and Qi Yuheng punched, turning the entire dark sky into boundless light.

But the Ascension Sect Hierarch's presence vanished mysteriously.

"That fellow has indeed mastered the Shadow Escape Technique!"

Seeing this, Qi Yuheng withdrew his punch somewhat disgruntledly.

The Shadow Escape Technique is a supreme technique from the Six Imperial Scriptures of Obscurity, allowing one to enter and exit anywhere there are shadows after mastering it.

Chen Mobai suddenly remembered the first time he saw Chen Chun, and her escape technique seemed a bit like the Shadow Escape Technique.

"Such a pity, had I known you could elevate your combat power to this level with sword in hand, I would've coordinated with you to eliminate the Ascension Sect Hierarch's reincarnated body here, eradicating future troubles."

Qi Yuheng looked at the approaching two, with a gaze of awe towards Chen Mobai.

"There will always be an opportunity; after all, it's just one sword for me!"

Chen Mobai softly replied, then snapped his fingers, his Domain opened. The obedient Purple Electric Sword, without needing instructions, gleefully drilled back.

This scene left Qi Yuheng and Wenren Xuewei regarding him with even greater admiration, thinking that it's truly fitting for such an unparalleled Sword Control technique, chosen by Ancestor Bai Guang himself!

Chapter 1875: 10 Years Passed

In the Vast Starry Sky.

Chen Mobai had just retracted the Purple Electric Sword when he saw the Black Dragon that he had sliced in half starting to merge together under a thick green vitality.

"Huh?"

Upon seeing this scene, all three present were astonished.

However, they immediately thought of the Heaven and Earth Evergreen Technique that the Dragon and Tiger Ancestor had boasted about earlier. They didn't expect that such severe injuries could recover so easily.

Wenren Xuewei raised the flower basket in her hand, and just as Chen Mobai was about to summon the Purple Electric Sword again, Qi Yuheng flew over: "I'll do it!"

After speaking, Qi Yuheng landed in front of the recently recovered Black Dragon and raised his right hand, delivering a punch.

"Wait a moment..."

The Dragon and Tiger Ancestor had just opened his mouth, but before he could finish, Qi Yuheng's punch exploded the entire dragon's head.

In the starry sky, the headless dragon corpse, after a tremor, was once again filled with green vitality at the wound, inch by inch forming flesh buds. The Heaven and Earth Evergreen Technique came into effect once again, but this time the speed was incredibly slow. It seemed that after suffering consecutive fatal attacks from Chen Mobai and Qi Yuheng, the efficacy of this Grand Spell had almost been depleted.

"Interesting!"

Seeing this scene, Qi Yuheng raised his hands to rip apart the recovering headless dragon corpse when Wenren Xuewei spoke up to stop him.

"Let's seal it first. When the campaign ends, my Three Extremes teacher and I can study it, and we might be able to reverse-engineer the Heaven and Earth Evergreen Technique."

Qi Yuheng stopped upon hearing this, then released the Black Dragon. He was only skilled in battles and killing; although he knew a bit about sealing, he didn't have the means to handle a Rank-4 Black Dragon.

“I’ll first seal the Black Dragon’s meridians and apertures. Once we’re done here, the Narcissus Hall Master can help freeze it with the Xuanwu Dao Palace.”

While speaking, Wenren Xuewei took out several slender wooden needles, which, under her control of Evergreen Qi, easily penetrated various parts of the Black Dragon’s body.

“If it’s only freezing, I can try wielding the Qing Shuang Sword.”

Upon hearing this, Chen Mobai opened his domain, and the Qing Shuang Sword he summoned immediately flew out, circling him affectionately.

“Then... thank you!”

Observing the Qing Shuang Sword, Wenren Xuewei spoke in surprise.

It was known that for decades, Pei Qingshuang had been wielding this Qing Shuang Sword, but this sword always came off as extremely proud, indifferent even to Pei Qingshuang.

Yet before Chen Mobai, this usually aloof Qing Shuang Sword became so docile!

In terms of Sword Control Technique, Chen Mobai indeed surpassed Bai Guang the Elder.

While Wenren Xuewei was deep in thought, the Qing Shuang Sword had already pierced straight into the back of the Black Dragon’s neck. The bone-chilling Sword Qi spread out, and in a flash, the Black Dragon was frozen, turning into a massive block of ice.

After tidying up the battlefield, the three of them broke through the Heaven and Earth Placenta of the Dragon God Star and headed toward the Xuanwu Dao Palace where the Narcissus resided.

In a cave beneath the Dragon God Star, Yan Xinji paused his actions.

“What’s wrong?”

Lin Daoming turned to look at him and asked.

“My Black Dragon Incarnation was slain.”

Yan Xinji spoke expressionlessly, though a hint of surprise flashed across his brows.

“Qi Yuheng is here?”

Lin Daoming thought of the first Nascent Soul of the Immortal Gate, Yan Xinji’s Black Dragon Incarnation, which had been nurtured using the Devouring Heaven Serpent for hundreds of years. Its cultivation level was already at Rank-4 Superior Grade and had even refined a trace of True Spirit’s Blood, allowing it to control disasters like storm, lightning, frost, and snow, making it a formidable opponent even for ordinary Nascent Soul Cultivators.

“Yes, but the one who slew my incarnation was Pure Yang!”

Yan Xinji spoke with a tone of heaviness and shock.

“That shouldn’t be the case, he just formed his Nascent Soul not long ago?”

Lin Daoming looked at Yan Xinji in surprise, thinking despite being the head of the renowned Ancient Evil Path Union, Yan Xinji couldn’t even handle a junior with just a Black Dragon Incarnation.

“It’s not that I’m weak; it’s that the lad’s sword is too terrifying!”

Seeing Lin Daoming’s gaze, Yan Xinji instinctively defended himself.

In all his years of cultivation, he naturally possessed Rank-5 means, yet he truly didn't expect that Chen Mobai, at merely Nascent Soul Level Three, could have such a frightening Sword Dao Realm.

The Purple Electric Sword had advanced to Rank-5, and the Ascension Sect had intelligence on that.

However, when Nascent Soul Cultivators wield a Fifth Rank Artifact, they typically only harness twenty to thirty percent of its power, even with the approval of the Artifact Spirit, at most reaching fifty percent power.

Who would have thought that the Purple Electric Sword in Chen Mobai's hands would far exceed this norm? Yan Xinji's proud Black Dragon Incarnation couldn't even withstand a single sword blow.

"No worries, just an incarnation. It's better than losing one's life."

Lin Daoming offered comfort, and Yan Xinji had already composed himself by this point.

Indeed, just an incarnation.

Though the True Spirit's Blood lost was somewhat heart-wrenching, the genetic blueprint of the Black Dragon's blood had long been thoroughly researched by him. Given enough time, he could let the Devouring Heaven Serpent evolve again.

"Let's continue."

Resuming the arrangement of the Spiritual Pivot, Yan Xinji said to Lin Daoming, who nodded, and the two methodically resumed executing their plan.

Chapter 1876: 10 Years Later_2

“You kid, you’re quite formidable, aren’t you.”

Inside the Xuanwu Dao Palace, Narcissus looked at the frozen Black Dragon incarnation, and upon hearing what Wenren Xuewei said, she couldn’t help but look at Chen Mobai with a peculiar gaze, clicking her tongue in wonder.

“It’s all thanks to the power of the Purple Electric Sword. I merely resonate well with this sword, and coupled with comprehending the Purple Brilliance Sword Intent left within by Master Qing Shi, I can unleash the power of a fifth-ranked sword at will.”

Chen Mobai didn’t hide anything, as starting a war with the Gnawing Gold Fire Ants from the Dragon God Star is inevitable, and by then, he would surely be going all out. Sooner or later, the Purple Electric Sword would be exposed, so it’s better to reveal it first. When the opportunity arises, he might publish a paper on accompanying the Purple Electric Sword with his Soul Accompanying Sword, which could possibly create the eighth transformation method in the Immortal Gate.

It’s just a pity that creating cultivation techniques doesn’t count for the Flying Immortal Award, otherwise he would have won it effortlessly.

Unless some other Nascent Soul from the Immortal Gate discovers the secret of immortality.

“Your Sword Dao can probably only be blocked by Hall Master Qi.”

While speaking, Narcissus curiously glanced back and forth between Chen Mobai and Qi Yuheng, apparently very curious if Chen Mobai’s sword could penetrate Qi Yuheng’s defense.

But with the impending war, the two certainly wouldn’t do such a thing.

After all, this isn’t Little Red Sky; if Qi Yuheng were injured, the Immortal Gate would directly lose a major combat force.

“Can’t you just try a finger?”

Narcissus, noticing that neither of them took her hint, said a bit unwillingly to Qi Yuheng.

“My ‘Body as Domain’ is a seamless defense, and every single hair and finger of mine is equivalent to all my defense power. That is to say, if a single finger is cut, it equates to my Body Domain being broken, and thus I would have a fatal flaw...”

Qi Yuheng explained the mystery of his Fifth Rank Forged Body. It wasn't that he didn't want to try; it's that his Body as Domain meant any attack would face his strongest defense, no matter where it landed.

If the Purple Electric Sword couldn't break through, it would be fine, but if it did, the flaw would remain forever.

It's unnecessary when not facing an enemy.

Hearing this, Narcissus could only give up her idea in disappointment.

“How is the situation with the Earthheart Passage now?”

Then, they began to discuss serious matters.

“Over the past two years, the number of emerging insect beasts has decreased, likely because high-ranking insect beasts, knowing that I'm stationed here, choose not to waste more troops and instead keep digging another passage underground to avoid this place.”

Narcissus pointed downward, and at that moment, a group of dozens of insect beasts flew out, but before she could give any commands, the Northern Heavenly Gate erupted with a stream of auspicious energy like a bridge, carrying a division of a hundred cultivators from the Military Department, intercepting and swiftly slaying the group of insect beasts.

“The Dragon God Star is about to enter the closest orbit to the Earth Element Star. If Ancestor Qian Xing intends to strike and kill the Matriarch, it should be within the next two years.”

Qi Yuheng spoke as he looked at the deep hole below the Xuanwu Dao Palace.

“Has the ancestor not sent you any messages these years?”

Chen Mobai asked Narcissus. It had been eight years since Ancestor Qian Xing’s true body entered the Dragon God Star. With his wisdom, even if it were a dragon’s den or tiger’s lair, he should have figured things out by now.

“He’s only told me to guard the entrance and to be ready to retreat with the group at any sign of trouble!”

All three present were in charge of the three Great Dao Academies of the Immortal Gate, so Narcissus didn’t hide what she knew.

“The Matriarch is likely powerful, and only beings at the Spirit Transformation Stage can intervene in this Magic Duel, for fear that if a fight breaks out, it would engulf the cultivators of the Immortal Gate.”

Chen Mobai analyzed, and the three present nodded in agreement. Although they were at the Nascent Soul Realm and had their own mysterious techniques and Fifth Rank Artifacts, they knew that if they got involved in a duel at the Spirit Transformation Stage, they would most likely only be playing a supporting role with the Nine Heavens Void Domain evolved by the Four Symbols Dao Palace.

“Perhaps waiting for Ancestor Bai Guang to exit seclusion, after all, in terms of combat prowess, Ancestor Qian Xing is still inferior to Ancestor Bai Guang.”

As Wenren Xuewei spoke, Narcissus and Qi Yuheng also looked at Chen Mobai.

“By my calculations, there’s only two years left until Ancestor Bai Guang exits seclusion!”

Seeing the three look at him, Chen Mobai thought they misunderstood him as having connections with Ancestor Bai Guang, the main support of the Dance Tool Dao Academy, and could only go along with the topic.

“Yes, two years...”

Two years is not long but not short either.

After spending some time on the Dragon God Star, Chen Mobai and the others returned to the Earth Element Star through the Portal, with Master Mei Hua accompanying them back.

Because the Immortal Gate needed to establish a star path between the Earth Element Star and the Dragon God Star to ensure the travel route of the Lingxiao Palace.

As the Immortal Gate’s ultimate war artifact, passing through the Portal would consume 90% of the Power of Void for the Lingxiao Palace.

Hence, the Immortal Gate’s preset plan was to navigate the Lingxiao Palace through the starry sky to the closest point between the Dragon God Star and Earth Element Star, and wait there in advance.

That way, if the Matriarch’s strength truly surpassed the Double Saints of the Immortal Gate, they could employ the Chaos Primal Energy Cannon from the Lingxiao Palace in the starry sky, reducing the Dragon God Star to cosmic dust.

Chapter 1877: Ten Years Later (Part 3)

As a revered figure from the Astral Observation Academy, Plum Blossom Master was summoned back to handle this matter.

As Dragon Star drew ever closer to the Earth Element Star, the Gnawing Gold Fire Ants entrenched deep within the planet seemed instinctively aware of the tense atmosphere and began appearing more frequently from all corners of the desert, attacking the major bases established by the Immortal Gate.

Facing the counterattacks of these insect beasts, the Immortal Gate also suffered significant personnel losses.

Among the leaders, there were even several Nascent Soul level purplish-golden humanoid insect beasts.

Since the Xuanwu Dao Palace could not leave the Earthheart Passage, Narcissus could only dispatch seven Star Space Battleships. Together with Yuan Xu Master and his team on Dragon God Star taking action, they abandoned a few mining bases, just barely managing to stabilize the situation.

However, given the insects held the advantage of terrain, continually emerging from underground, the Immortal Gate quickly found itself holding onto only the seven largest bases.

Fortunate for the Immortal Gate, they anticipated this situation. Qi Yuheng returned, steering the Azure Dragon Dao Palace along the starry sky path, descending upon Dragon God Star.

The Azure Dragon Dao Palace was secondary; Qi Yuheng showcased the demeanor of the Immortal Gate's first Nascent Soul level against these insect beasts.

His Fifth Rank Forged Body, using his body as a boundary, was unbreakable by any insect beast without the intervention of a Divinity Transformation.

And the insect beasts could not withstand his heavy blows!

After Qi Yuheng exterminated the fifth Nascent Soul Insect Beast on Dragon God Star, the battle quickly stabilized. With the high-level insect beasts gone, the cultivators from the Immortal Gate's Military Department soon defeated the insect beasts emerging from the ground cracks, reclaiming their bases.

...

The core of Dragon God Star.

A massive white cocoon was embedded in the star nucleus, pulsating like the heart of the planet.

Qian Xing Ancestor hid in the void, observing the white cocoon, lost in thought.

Beneath the cocoon, there were piles of glistening white eggs; some eggs had already cracked, some had dimmed, while others emitted a terrifying energy fluctuation, seemingly nurturing exceedingly dreadful creatures.

The spherical earth wall enclosed this core area, yet numerous hollowed-out passages extended outward from all directions.

Every time a creature hatched from an egg, it instinctively chose a passage to crawl out.

Occasionally, some dark purple Nascent Soul Insect Beasts would enter and show great reverence towards the white cocoon, communicating their intentions through eerie vibrations, though the cocoon never responded, continually absorbing the planet's energy and sporadically dropping glistening white eggs.

Qian Xing Ancestor had been observing here for a decade.

By calculation, today was the day Bai Guang would come out of seclusion, also the day the Immortal Gate would launch a full assault.

He confirmed that this Matriarch had yet to cultivate into a Void, as long as he teamed up with Bai Guang, coupled with the Lingxiao Palace and Four Symbols Dao Palace, it was enough to subdue the powerful Gnawing Gold Fire Ant.

However, he waited and waited, but there was no familiar sword sound!

What was going on?

Why hasn't Bai Guang come out yet?

Qian Xing Ancestor was puzzled, but fortunately, he was cautious and did not act against the Matriarch before Bai Guang arrived, or else, it could've been troublesome.

...

On the Immortal Gate's side.

Chen Mobai and Ying Guanghua were also dutifully stationed at their posts, allowing Bai Guang Ancestor, upon exiting, to see their diligence first.

However, they waited and waited, but no Transformation God Edict came from the Gathering-Immortals Peak!

What was going on?

Did Qian Xing Ancestor miscalculate?

Both Chen Mobai and Ying Guanghua were puzzled. Yet, concerning the Divinity Transformation Ancestor, they dared not probe further, let alone venture directly to the Gathering-Immortals Peak.

At Xianwu Hall, Ying Guanghua hesitated for a long time but refrained from calling Chen Mobai.

After all, the situation on Dragon God Star was still under their control, and the Lingxiao Palace was already in position. Until Qian Xing Ancestor provided new instructions, maintaining the current stability seemed prudent.

This was similarly what Ying Guanghua thought, as did Chen Mobai.

After a year of diligent work at the Hall of Orthodox Law, with Bai Guang Ancestor still in seclusion, Chen Mobai concluded that Qian Xing Ancestor may have miscalculated.

This matter somewhat tarnished the tall image Qian Xing held in Chen Mobai's heart, as previously, the ancestor had made no miscalculations.

Upon further reflection, it was understandable. Previously, Qian Xing Ancestor calculated for those with lower cultivation, but Bai Guang Ancestor was a Divinity Transformation, so a miscalculation was excusable.

Thinking thus, Chen Mobai realized he hadn't been home for a year, prompting him to relax from work. After greeting Hua Zijing and Zhuang Jialan, he performed a Void Walk, leaving his office.

With a flash of silver light, Chen Mobai arrived in his courtyard.

Upon hearing the noise, Shi Wanyu quickly stepped out, delight covering her face upon seeing him.

"What brings you home today? The groceries I bought this morning might not be enough. I'll go out to buy more..."

"No need, I can just eat anything, or ask our daughter to buy some when she gets off work."

Chen Mobai immediately stopped Shi Wanyu from going out; she nodded. After a year apart, the couple walked and talked in the courtyard.

Gathering-Immortals Peak!

Yu Huiping took a deep breath, noting that her master was over a year past the agreed time and still not out, considering it a crucial moment in the war, and remembering what Qian Xing Ancestor said before leaving, she reluctantly took a talisman.

This was left by Bai Guang before going into seclusion, for urgent matters where she could awaken Bai Guang.

She injected her Spiritual Power into it, and soon the talisman turned into a Sword Light, directed towards the central palace of the Gathering-Immortals Peak.

Chapter 1878: Bai Guang Emerges from Seclusion

Inside the palace, a woman in a light purple long dress slowly opened her eyes.

Her face was like a painting, her eyebrows and eyes like poetry, and her skin as fair as jade.

Her powerful cultivation level allowed her to retain the most youthful and moving appearance of her life; although she was already a thousand-year-old Divinity Transformation ancestor, she still looked like a pure and spiritual young girl.

Yu Baiguang reached out with her hand, and the talisman had already landed in her snow-white palm.

Confirming this was something she had given to her disciple, she slightly furrowed her delicate brows, placing a hand on her forehead.

Not awakened naturally, but called to awaken?

Does that mean the seclusion time hasn't ended?

Is there a problem with the reincarnated body, or has the Immortal Gate encountered an unstoppable enemy?

After waking up, Yu Baiguang was full of confusion, but her divine sense surged, her sword heart channeling heaven and earth, only to find that the Immortal Gate was as usual, with no anomalies in the Sky Curtain Ground Network.

If I can't figure it out, I'll just find someone to ask.

Thinking this, Yu Baiguang stood up.

As the gates of the palace on Gathering-Immortals Peak opened, Yu Huiping saw the graceful figure stepping out from within and immediately greeted respectfully: "Disciple pays respect to Master!"

"Why was I awakened?" Yu Baiguang asked calmly.

Yu Huiping immediately recounted the current situation of the Immortal Gate, stating that with the war imminent and Qian Xing facing the Matriarch, she feared being outnumbered, so they had no choice but to awaken Master.

"So, does this mean my seclusion time has already passed?"

Yu Baiguang was slightly surprised upon hearing this.

It shouldn't be!

Logically, her reincarnated body should have already reached the end of its lifespan by now, and then the memories of this life would return to her true body's sea of consciousness, waking her up from seclusion.

Could it be that the reincarnated body's cultivation has broken through to the Foundation Establishment?

It shouldn't be!

"Reporting to Master, your reincarnated body is currently enjoying familial bliss. Perhaps due to a happy life and the help of a Nascent Soul Superior in nurturing the body, her lifespan may be extended by a few years."

Yu Huiping chose her words carefully, trying to avoid saying anything that might upset her Master.

"Familial bliss? A happy life?"

But upon hearing this, Yu Baiguang was already wide-eyed in shock.

"What exactly is going on?"

Yu Huiping wiped the sweat from her forehead and roughly recounted the events following Shi Wanyu's reincarnation.

Rumblings!

Chen Mobai, who was accompanying Shi Wanyu on a walk in the courtyard, looked at the suddenly gathered dark clouds and lightning above Wangwu Cave Heaven, and couldn't help but frown slightly.

"How could the weather forecast be so inaccurate? Didn't it say there'd be clear skies today? Our daughter didn't take an umbrella to work, and I wonder if she'll get wet..."

On the side, Shi Wanyu mumbled somewhat unexpectedly. As she aged, she became more at ease within this family and no longer appeared as restrained or shy as when she first faced Chen Mobai, already treating herself as the lady of the house.

"Her cultivation level is such that even direct lightning strikes would not harm her, but this weather change is indeed somewhat strange."

After saying this to Shi Wanyu, Chen Mobai picked up his phone to check the weather forecast, which was almost always accurate in the Immortal Gate.

The reason it is only almost accurate is that when a top-ranked cultivator breaks through, they would draw the spiritual energy from nature in the surrounding area, causing errors in the weather forecast.

With his Void Spirit Eye, Chen Mobai observed the range of the cloud cover, which already enveloped the entire Wangwu Cave Heaven. Only Nascent Soul cultivators could achieve this.

However, there were only a few cultivators of such a realm in Wangwu Cave Heaven. Ying Guanghua had already reached perfection, and Wenren Xuwei had just recently broken through to the second level of Nascent Soul, leaving only Gongye Zhixu and Ye Yune.

As Chen Mobai pondered silently, Shi Wanyu had already picked up the phone to call Chen Xiaohei, who was about to get off work, to remind her of the weather and ask her to buy a few dishes.

Upon hearing that her father would be home today, Chen Xiaohei was very happy over the phone.

Since the war began, Chen Mobai had spent most of his time stationed at the Hall of Orthodox Law, especially since Narcissus, the true Hall Master, went to the Dragon God Star, leaving him, the Vice Hall Master, to exert himself at this critical juncture.

And at this moment, a torrential downpour had already begun to fall from the sky, prompting Chen Mobai to immediately perform a Water Repelling Technique, causing the rain to automatically avoid him and his wife at his side.

"Thank you, my dear!"

After finishing the call and witnessing this scene, Shi Wanyu was very happy. Naturally, she reached out and hugged Chen Mobai's right arm, her figure leaning slightly, nestling closer.

Chen Mobai raised his right arm accordingly, allowing his wife by his side to hold him.

The elderly couple enjoyed the rain together like this.

Over these years, Chen Mobai had helped Shi Wanyu refine three Profound Heaven Crow Golden Pills. However, a Qi Practitioner's lifespan extension is still limited; even if she took the Large Chinese Toon Fruit, it would likely extend her lifespan by only a few decades.

Thus, the three Profound Heaven Crow Golden Pills only extended her lifespan by twenty years.

However, Shi Wanyu was already very satisfied with this. Because of this, she let go of her restraints and in her later years, instead revealed her true character. Whenever she had time, she'd stick by Chen Mobai's side.

Although Chen Mobai was somewhat unaccustomed to this, over the years, he had developed feelings for Shi Wanyu. Considering that she didn't have many years left to live, he went along with her wishes.

Throughout these years, despite being busy, Chen Mobai would return home whenever he had free time.

Chapter 1879: Bai Guang Leaves Seclusion (Part 2)

Even the number of times going to the Eastern Wilderness wasn't as many as returning home.

When Chen Xiaohei came home, she saw her mother holding her father's hand, walking leisurely in the rain. The romantic atmosphere made her, the daughter, feel a bit like an outsider.

"You're back..."

Seeing their daughter return, Chen Mobai and his wife stopped walking, and the family of three headed towards the dining room.

...

On the Gathering-Immortals Peak!

Yu Baiguang mustered all her composure just to barely stop herself from drawing her sword.

However, her almost frenzied divine consciousness fluctuation triggered a storm centered on the Five Peaks Immortal Mountains, causing a thunderstorm to sweep across the entire eastern region of the Immortal Gate.

"Where is my reincarnated body now?"

After calming down, Yu Baiguang asked expressionlessly.

“Master, in fact, even the Pure Yang Master is a victim of this...”

Yu Huiping, seeing her master’s expression, knew what she was thinking and immediately began to plead Chen Mobai’s case.

“Shut up!”

Yu Baiguang blushed with embarrassment and rebuked her disciple.

Did she not know this?

Though she was domineering, she could still distinguish right from wrong. Thinking that her reincarnated body’s tactics were so underhanded, almost destroying the future Divinity Transformation of the Immortal Gate, she felt a bit ashamed herself.

But knowing is one thing; accepting the truth is another.

How could she, as a Divinity Transformation of the Immortal Gate, pure and unattainable, come out of seclusion to find herself with a husband and daughter!

“How many people know about this?”

Having her pride, Yu Baiguang thought of the key point; if the news got out, she would have no face left.

“Not many know, just a few like the Three Extremes, besides me, and they wouldn’t dare gossip about you, Master.”

Yu Huiping, having long been in the Five Peaks Immortal Mountains, didn’t realize this matter was already widely known among the Upper Echelons of the Immortal Gate.

“That’s good, that’s good...”

Hearing this, Yu Baiguang felt secretly relieved.

As long as she could wait until her reincarnated body lived its natural lifespan and passed away, this incident could be kept secret. The main problem now was how to face Chen Mobai and Chen Xiaohei.

If she abandoned them after having started the affair, Yu Baiguang would feel she was a bit too despicable.

But suddenly having a husband and daughter, she couldn’t accept it!

“Just as Pure Yang Master graduated from the Dance Tool Dao Academy, after you exit seclusion, you can righteously summon him, shall I notify him?”

Yu Huiping understood her concerns and suggested.

“Can I not meet him?”

Yu Baiguang hesitated, retreating.

Yu Huiping was amazed; she had never seen her master so evasive in her life.

“You’ll have to meet eventually; should I notify all the Nascent Souls guarding the Immortal Gate at once?”

Yu Huiping proposed a method.

“Let me think about it carefully...”

Yu Baiguang shook her head, still unsure how to face this husband that had appeared out of nowhere.

“The Elder Qian Xing is still waiting for you in the Different World, and the Matriarch is constantly devouring Star Core essence, with the Dragon God Star now starting to move away from the Earth Element Star...”

Yu Huiping reminded her of the current situation.

“Then I’ll first contact Senior Brother Qian Xing.”

As Yu Baiguang spoke, she took out her phone but realized it was out of power. She quickly swapped a battery from her domain and dialed Qian Xing’s number.

The Elder Qian Xing, observing the Matriarch’s cocoon on the Dragon God Star, was startled by the sudden light of the phone screen.

Thankfully, he had set it to silent mode, but the signal transmission fluctuation still made the giant cocoon bounce a little.

Qian Xing thought for a moment, declined the call from Bai Guang, and then left the place along a passage. He didn’t call back until he was near the surface.

Qian Xing: “What’s the situation? Why did you only wake up now?”

Bai Guang: “A little accident occurred, let’s not talk about it for now. How are things on your side?”

Qian Xing: “All is calm and peaceful, just waiting for you to join forces with me to slay this Gnawing Gold Fire Ant.”

Bai Guang: “Is it urgent on your side?”

Qian Xing: "Not really urgent, just so happens some people in the Ascension Sect are stirring up a bit of a scene; I can see what they're up to."

Bai Guang: "Alright, wait for me a few days!"

Qian Xing, slightly puzzled as the call ended, found relief that Bai Guang had awakened.

Their joint strength meant certain death for the Matriarch unless it reached the Cultivating Void.

However, knowing Bai Guang's decisive character, why was she dilly-dallying this time?

Suspecting something, Qian Xing called Chen Chun, stationed at Gathering-Immortals Peak, instructing her not to descend the mountain.

The whole Immortal Gate, presumably only his Gathering-Immortals Peak, could have made Bai Guang hesitate.

...

After dinner, Chen Mobai was conversing with the mother-daughter pair of Shi Wanyu.

"The new batch of Golden Liquid Jade Pill will soon have its list finalized. As your father, I must avoid suspicion, but everything has been arranged..."

What the family was discussing was the Golden Elixir Spiritual Medicine for Chen Xiaohei's Core Formation.

She had accumulated sixty-four years of service, and by the rules, she could exchange for the Golden Liquid Jade Pill.

In recent years, due to the start of a war, the Immortal Gate also took out quite a bit of their savings, as many Immortal Sect disciples who ventured to the Dragon God Star did so for the Foundation Establishment Trithings or even the Golden Elixir Spiritual Medicine.

The Golden Liquid Jade Pill production increased from once every ten years to twice every ten years.

And since many Earth Water Attribute elemental crystals were found, Yuan Xu and the Three Extremes used these as the main ingredients to refine new Earth Element and Water Element Golden Core Pills.

“

Chapter 1880: Bai Guang Emerges from Seclusion (Part 3)

Leading to the current situation where within the Immortal Gate, cultivators practicing Earth Water attribute techniques are eagerly applying to go to the Dragon God Star, accumulating merit in anticipation of the imminent release of these two types of Golden Elixir Spiritual Medicines by the Immortal Gate.

"Dad, as your daughter, even without the Golden Elixir Spiritual Medicine, I will definitely succeed in Core Formation..."

Yet Chen Xiaohei was already boasting. She had reached Foundation Establishment Completion long ago, so she spent most of her time cultivating Yi Yuan True Qi using the techniques taught by Chen Mobai.

As for mere Core Formation, she had long ceased to concern herself with it.

"Go through Core Formation first!"

Chen Mobai scolded her with a stern face.

Core Formation isn't easy; although he bragged about Enlightenment-based Core Formation within the Immortal Sect, in reality, his resources were maxed out, probably beyond what the Taoist Child Saintesses of various Holy Lands in the Tianhe Realm received during their Core Formation.

Chen Xiaohei, although possessing a Pure Yin Body and talents comparable to Yuan Yang Ancestor, lacked a suitable Deity Transformation Technique, and failure wasn't out of the question.

Due to privacy concerns, his personal profile online did not include photos of Shi Wanyu and her daughter. When officially announced, their images were coded.

But although the general populace was unaware, upper-level cultivators fully knew Chen Xiaohei was his daughter.

If she failed in Core Formation, where would this old father's face go?

Couldn't possibly blame Shi Wanyu, the mother, for lowering the daughter's talents!

After scolding his daughter, Chen Mobai went to the Cultivation Room to seclude himself.

Late at night.

Lying on the bed asleep, Shi Wanyu suddenly opened her eyes, feeling the weakness of her reincarnated body, she couldn't help but frown.

Soon, Yu Baiguang found herself lying in bed, her face suddenly showing a look of tension, as she turned to look beside her.

When she found she was alone in bed, she quietly breathed a sigh of relief.

Although she had set that after this reincarnated body died, all memory insights would revert to the main body, Yu Baiguang, being an absolute top Deity Transformation True Monarch of the Immortal Gate, could reverse enter the Sea of Knowledge at the Purple Mansion of the reincarnated body based on soul wave commonality.

Once confirming she was alone in the room, Yu Baiguang sat on the bed, integrating all of Shi Wanyu's life memories from beginning to end, meticulously into her heart and mind.

The timeline quickly reached the moment she and Chen Mobai first met on the train.

Her youthful beauty and the spirited young man.

Yet the development thereafter was somewhat unexpected for Yu Baiguang.

She saw the scene of their second meeting, and when spotting Chen Chun, she slightly furrowed her brows.

At graduation, as she made a certain request to Chen Chun, Yu Baiguang's cheeks slightly blushed.

Although Yu Huiping had told her about this matter, experiencing it first-hand still made her feel very shy.

How could one do such a thing?

Are there no men in the world? Must it be him?

Yu Baiguang reprimanded her reincarnated body but soon realized, indeed within the Immortal Gate, there was truly no man comparable to Chen Mobai.

From what she understood and gleaned from Shi Wanyu's memory, all images of Chen Mobai presented an impeccable and gently powerful man!

Being chosen by him as a wife could be said to be the dream of all girls in the Immortal Gate!

Thus, although the memories of the thirty years after Shi Wanyu gave birth to Chen Xiaohei were quite painful and struggling, once Chen Mobai came to recognize her and their daughter, they were filled with light and happiness.

This was an emotion Yu Baiguang had never experienced.

In her youth, she was supremely talented, possessing the Heavenly Gold Spirit Root, capable of mastering any Sword technique or Cultivation technique at a glance and excelling upon a single exposure.

Thus, from a young age, she was contemptuous of everything, believing herself destined to stand at the pinnacle of the Immortal Gate!

This conviction had never wavered.

At sixteen, due to her potent talent, she was unconventionally admitted early to the Dance Tool Dao Academy upon Foundation Establishment at Yu Wood City by Wen Dao.

At twenty-four, she was the chief of the Dance Tool Dao Academy, and during her first participation in the Immortal Gate Dao Academy Scholarly Mansion Offline Exchange Meeting, she subdued all chiefs with a single sword.

By graduation, her cultivation level was already Foundation Establishment Completion, with no room for advancement.

Yet, the Immortal Gate's system only allowed her to take public office despite such astonishing aptitude.

Under the arrangement of the Dance Tool Dao Academy, she entered the Department of Law Enforcement, and by sixty, she had ascended to the position of Deputy Minister.

Twelve years later, during a sword swing, she entered the Supreme Realm of miraculous Sword Dao enlightenment and formed the Golden Core.

During Core Formation, the Fifth Rank Superior Grade Mystic Finger Sword enshrined in the Wangwu Cave Heaven Museum automatically flew to acknowledge her as its master.

Upon acquiring the Mystic Finger Sword, Yu Baiguang's Sword Dao cultivation further skyrocketed, gaining insights into the Immortal Sect Sword Art.

However, it was at this time that bad news struck.

Her mother was gravely ill.

Yu Baiguang put down her sword and returned to Yu Wood City, a place she hadn't visited in decades.

She witnessed her mother on her deathbed, struggling for one last breath to see her, along with her elderly and weakened father standing by the bedside.

The last words from her mother before passing left her bewildered.

"If only my daughter were just an ordinary person, how perfect it would be..."

After her mother's death, Yu Baiguang and her father buried her, and before the tombstone, she continued to ponder the meaning of those words.
