Chapter 730: 'Saint' (8k)_1

To be honest, Chen Mobai really didn't expect Yan Bingxuan could establish her foundation in one go.

After all, even he had to do it twice.

But upon further thought, Yan Bingxuan was originally a prodigy, during her nine years in the university she was just like him, working day and night to improve and refine her spiritual root. Add in the assistance of the three foundation-building treasures, Snow Spirit Water, and Water Mist Ice Crystal, it was no less effective than a Foundation Building Pill.

If we also take into account the foundational knowledge from the Immortal sect, like the spiritual power vortex that he taught, it is conceivable that Yan Bingxuan could establish her foundation in one go.

It's just like Hong He, Zhou Wangshen, E Yun and the rest from the Divine Wood Sect.

They all successfully established their foundations with a single Foundation Building Pill.

"Congratulations, if you've established your foundation, I can rest at ease."

After hearing Yan Bingxuan's good news, Chen Mobai responded heartily.

At least now, on the road to eternal life, he has one more companion who can accompany him for two hundred years.

Yan Bingxuan: "You're the first person I called, I'm still in the Cultivation Room."

Chen Mobai: "It's an honor. What are your plans for the future? Exam for public service, postgraduate studies, or continue studying in Nature Studies Academy?"

Yan Bingxuan: "I probably won't be taking the public service exam. The Xuan Bing Jue that I'm cultivating only requires a water elemental Gold Core. Originally, I planned to stay in the Nature Studies Academy like my teacher after establishing the foundation."

Chen Mobai thought of Yan Qiongzhi, who indeed succeeded in Core Formation simply by relying on a water elemental Gold Core and the Rank-4 Water Pulse Spirit Qi of the Jumang Daoist Academy.

Having learned her true teachings, Yan Bingxuan could also hope to reach Core Formation if she follows her teacher's footsteps.

"When your Foundation Establishment is complete, you can apply for the opening of a Gold Core domain. If you mastered Yan True Man's Freezing Technique and follow her successful experience, perhaps you too can be successful."

Chen Mobai reiterates this matter; it was his last concern before Core Formation.

"Ok, I will try my best to open a Gold Core domain with you."

In Yan Bingxuan's words, it's already a given that Chen Mobai will succeed. After all, he has the qualifications for Divinity Transformation, there's no reason why he can't succeed.

Upon hearing this, Chen Mobai couldn't help but feel embarrassed.

That's the downside of being too well-known. If he didn't accomplish something that is very difficult for others, it would lead to a lot of doubt.

However, Chen Mobai was very open-minded, he didn't care about this false reputation, and had prepared himself for the possibility of failing to open a Gold Core domain.

There's nothing more practical than the realm of cultivation.

Even if he fails to open it after the perfection of Foundation Establishment, he will have another chance after Core Formation. As long as he does not fail then, it's all good.

[I shouldn't fail, right?]

Chen Mobai thought to himself, then he chatted with Yan Bingxuan briefly. Suddenly, they fell into silence, out of topics.

“Do you have any plans to take postgraduate exams or stay in the Daoist Academy after you graduate?”

In the end, it was Yan Bingxuan who asked.

Chen Mobai thought about it for a bit. He didn't plan on taking the public service exam because he was afraid that Turtle Treasure might be exposed in the Celestial Sect. While staying in the Daoist Academy was a good way to obtain a Five Elements Gold Core, Chen Mobai wanted to focus on the Tianhe Realm after graduation, as its resources were far more abundant than the Celestial Sect.

Furthermore, with his current status in the Divine Wood Sect, obtaining a Gold Core spiritual objects wouldn't be difficult.

“I haven't decided yet. I'll see when I graduate next year.”

At last, Chen Mobai could only give a noncommittal response.

Yan Bingxuan: “If you stay in the Dance Tool Dao Academy, I can pursue further studies here. If you're advancing at another Daoist Academy, I can go with you.”

Students among the four Daoist Academies can further their studies in one of the other three academies through postgraduate exams after graduation, if they feel their knowledge is still insufficient.

Even if Chen Mobai is a bit slow on the uptake, he understood the implications in Yan Bingxuan's words.

To be honest, if things remained as they are in his life, he would love to spend the rest of his life with her. After all, Yan Bingxuan was his girl-next-door crush from his youth.

Just like Lu Hongsheng and Yu Shu, if Chen Mobai knew during high school that he could accompany Yan Bingxuan hand in hand, he would certainly think his life was perfect without any regrets.

But the present Chen Mobai has embarked on a different path of destiny.

With the help of Turtle Treasure to travel between the two realms, he could possibly reach higher realms. Beyond Core Formation, Chen Mobai even dared to aspire to Nascent Soul Formation.

That's why he didn't want to decide who would accompany him for an entire lifetime that early.

When Chen Mobai was very young, his grandparents passed away one after another. Although he was still young, he felt the pain of losing a loved one and even fell seriously ill.

A Daoist couple are life-long companions, like family for an entire lifetime, it's where most cultivators place their emotional attachments.

Chen Mobai didn't want to see, hundreds of years later, his Daoist companion age and turn into bones in her grave with his own eyes.

Therefore, even though his anticipation was satisfied, after some thought, he decided not to make promises lightly.

"You put it this way, then I have to think it through even more seriously."

In the end, Chen Mobai replied to Yan Bingxuan with a smile. After hearing his response, she gently hummed her acknowledgment, and then they hung up the phone after a long silence.
