Chapter 736: Pure Yang Qi_2

At this time, Che Yucheng began to take credit for himself, because he knew Chen Mobai’s recent popularity was too high, and felt the need to share the burden with this disciple.

After all, the higher one is held, the harder one falls.

“You’re certainly bluffing.”

Fu Borong didn’t give Che Yucheng any face because Chen Mobai’s talent was one of the hottest topics in the Immortal Sect in recent years.

After leaving the airport, the four of them quickly arrived at Crimson Mountain.

Although Chen Mobai was no longer the student council president, arranging matters was still no problem. After leading Fu Borong and Ling Daoshi to their accommodation, he was about to leave,

“Little Chen, have you considered studying at our Repairing Heaven Institute for a few years?”

Fu Borong suddenly stopped him and asked a question.

“Teacher Fu, I haven’t planned on further education yet.”

“That’s a shame. With your qualifications, if you were to further your studies at Repairing Heaven Institute, becoming one of the three great hall masters in the future wouldn’t be impossible.”

Fu Borong's words got Chen Mobai's heart pounding.

Since its establishment, Repairing Heaven Institute has produced the most number of hall masters in the Immortal Sect.

The current legal hall master was a graduate from the Repairing Heaven Institute.

Moreover, one of the Twin Sages of the Immortal Gate, Ancestor Qian Xing, also laid the foundation for Divinity Transformation by studying at the Repairing Heaven Institute.

Repairing Heaven Institute has always been the most popular Daoist academy in the Immortal Gate.

When Chen Mobai was a child, his dream was to enter the Repairing Heaven Institute and become the Master of the Immortal Gate.

"I appreciate your kindness, Teacher Fu. I will give it some serious thought."

After thinking for a moment, Chen Mobai's tone softened a bit, and he did not flatly refuse anymore.

"I have heard that you are cultivating Pure Yang Scroll. The founder Yuan Yang was also a graduate of Repairing Heaven Institute, and we still keep many of his things, including a Pure Yang Qi. Nangong Xuanyu has been asking for it for a long time, but the dean did not agree. If you come, I can mention this matter to the dean."

Fu Borong's words made Chen Mobai slightly shake. Pure Yang Qi was a kind of True Qi that could only be refined after the Gold Core Perfection, which contained the true meaning of the Great Dao.

Usually, being able to refine True Qi means that one can start trying Nascent Soul Formation.

For example, Zhou Shengqing of Divine Wood Sect, who had reached the perfection of the Gold Core Cultivation, was already refining Longevity True Qi.

If a cultivator of the Pure Yang Scroll could have Yuan Yang's Pure Yang Qi as reference, there would undoubtedly be a correct direction for Nascent Soul Formation.

No wonder Nangong Xuanyu requested it from the Repairing Heaven Institute.

"I need to discuss this with Teacher Che."

Without a doubt, Chen Mobai was tempted, but he also knew that this would not be easy to obtain. In order to avoid being fooled, he had to ask Che Yucheng.

"Right, let's exchange contact information. If you decide to come to our institute, let me know in advance, and I'll arrange things for you."

After adding Fu Borong as a friend, Chen Mobai immediately went to Che Yucheng's office and told him about the matter.

"He did mention this to me, but I still think that you should make your own life decisions."

"What I can confirm is that the Repairing Heaven Institute does indeed possess Pure Yang Qi left by Ancestor Yuan Yang."

"However, this Pure Yang Qi is in the hands of Yuan Xu. Whether it can be given to you is not up to Fu Borong. It requires Yuan Xu's approval."

"Think it over."

After thanking Che Yucheng, Chen Mobai left the building.

With thoughts swirling in his mind, when he brought the core chip to the workshop of the Heavenly Craft Factory, he was somewhat absent-minded.

“What’s the matter?”

Chai Lun, this rough man, also noticed and asked.

Chen Mobai thought about it and decided not to bring his personal matters here. He shook his head, suppressed the emotions in his heart, disassembled the core chip, and began to debug and check it.

Although Che Yucheng had already looked it over, to play it safe, he might as well finish this while Fu Borong was still at the Dance Tool Dao Academy.

Before long, Zhou Tiangong also arrived. His Heavenly Factory worked closely with the Repairing Heaven Institute, often custom-making large-scale machinery core chips, so he had all kinds of experimental chip data equipment.

He was a great help to Chen Mobai.

After confirming that the core chip had no problems, they prepared to install the chip into the No-Phase Mannequin. This was also the most critical step, which required linkage with all the neurons to control the entire puppet.

But they still needed to wait for Wen Ren Xuwei to bring the remaining bionic materials.

Chen Mobai took the opportunity to rest for a few days.

This also happened to be a good chance to think about his Magical Treasure Embryo and whether or not to go to the Repairing Heaven Institute.

“Brother, we haven’t hung out together for a long time.”

At a barbecue stand outside the campus, Chen Mobai and Ming Yuhua each downed a drink. But as they put down their glasses, Ming Yuhua’s mood seemed a bit bitter.

“Ah, I’ve worked so hard to restore a Rank-3 ancient treasure with the juniors of the Artifact Refining Department. I originally thought I could use this graduation project to secure the first place, but I didn’t expect you to be so extraordinary.”

Knowing that Chen Mobai had actually chosen the No-Phase Mannequin and had almost finished it, Ming Yuhua couldn’t help but feel downcast.

“Brother, the headmaster won’t just give the Magical Treasure Embryo to one person. Given your achievements, I guess you’re only second to me. There’s definitely a share for you.”

Chen Mobai said to comfort him. As he spoke, he revealed the real purpose of inviting Ming Yuhua for a drink today.

“Brother, if you were in my shoes, what kind of Magical Treasure Embryo would you ask the headmaster to refine? I’ve been troubled by this issue lately and came to seek your advice.”

Chen Mobai sincerely sought advice from Ming Yuhua.

“Me? Definitely an Artifact Refining Furnace.”

“Don’t you already have a Mysterious Yang Cauldron of Rank-2 high quality?”

“I plan to let the headmaster modify my Mysterious Yang Cauldron as the base and turn this Cauldron into my Magical Treasure Embryo. This will save me the time of refining in the future, and I won’t have to waste time re-sacrificing and getting used to it.”

After hearing Ming Yuhua’s plan, Chen Mobai couldn’t help but give him a thumbs up. Only an Artifact Refiner like him could think of this.

Should I ask Cheng Xuan to modify my Six Yang Divine Flame Mirror into my Magical Treasure Embryo?

It seems plausible. After all, because I had used the Spiritual Artifact Cultivation Method, I had already bound this Rank-3 Artifact to myself, making it my kind-of personal Magical Treasure.

Before successfully practicing “The Union of Differences,” it would be better to directly transform the Six Yang Divine Flame Mirror into my Magical Treasure since I was going to upgrade it anyway.

Chen Mobai shared this idea with Ming Yuhua, but the latter shook his head after hearing it.

“After you’ve used the Spiritual Artifact Cultivation Method, this Six Yang Divine Flame Mirror is essentially your Magical Treasure Embryo. If you let the headmaster make a move again, it would be a waste.”

“Brother, are you saying that I can have two Magical Treasures?”

“Not really, even a Gold Core cultivator can’t afford to maintain two Magical Treasures. I just think you are at a loss in this case; you might as well not take first place.”

Hearing what Ming Yuhua said, Chen Mobai felt it was really so. He had worked hard to gather a team and can’t afford to spin his wheels.

And, others can’t afford to maintain two, but he can.

Although his Good Deed Points were in negative numbers, his storage bag was full of Spirit Stones.

Chen Mobai felt that not to mention two Magical Treasures, even three or four wouldn’t be a problem.

“Old Chen, I remember there are several methods for refining the Pure Yang Treasure in the ancient Pure Yang Scroll. You can try this.”

When they finished drinking and were about to say goodbye, Ming Yuhua suddenly remembered this and slapped his forehead, suggesting it to Chen Mobai.

Now, the Pure Yang Scroll that the cultivators are practicing is revised by Yuan Xu's old ancestor, and it only contains Cultivation Methods and the Pure Yang Daoist Body.

The original ancient Pure Yang Scroll is, however, quite obscure and difficult to understand.

Luckily, this ancient book is in the Dance Tool Dao Academy.

After hearing this, Chen Mobai immediately went to the library to search for this information. He originally thought that it would be highly valuable, and he would need to ask Che Yucheng for approval before getting it. Unexpectedly, he found it easily in a corner.
