

World Plot 1031

Chapter 1031: First Red Star - Circumstances of the Dawn Siblings.

Knowing that Esther Dawn and Mayonaka Yoru's soul connection had been severed meant only one thing: they had died, just like Conri Lycaon and Athan Vladimir. But they couldn't figure out when the two of them died and why they couldn't remember anything. The rest of them didn't understand what had happened until Instructor Keylan Light told them. However, the truth stunned them. Keylan Light explained everything to the kids. Conri Lycaon knew most of it, but he had no idea what happened after he died and before he was revived.

"Actually, I don't even know who or what kind of entity the being took over Athan Vladimir's vessel. But this being tried to escape only to be noticed by Conri and stopped him from leaving. It was at that time that he lost his temper no... more like he became a lunatic that not only looked down on the weak but also felt excitement when he was surrounded by fear or pain."

"But just before he killed Conri, Lord Skoll appeared. I do not know the content of their conversation and only heard the taunts from that being as he talks with Lord Skoll. After successfully pissing off Lord Skoll, he completely lost his temper accidentally... Destroyed the world? His aura was too overbearing for the weak ones and was accidental. So everyone in the dormitory died and as the world was fragmenting I guess everything in our world also died in the process."

"We tried to beg him to stop destroying things and wanted to calm his rage. Unfortunately, he paid no attention to us. Only when the Headmaster appeared that he calmed down and was commanded by the Headmaster to revert everything to normal. So in short, aside from the Gods, all others were killed. So in order to follow the command of the Headmaster, Lord Skoll reversed the time to the timeline when everyone is alive except for that being possessing Athan Vladimir's body."

The students except for the ones who had experienced the event itself were all staring at Keylan Light as if they heard an absurdly well-rounded story that can even be written in a book.

A bit confused, Keylan Light asked, "What's wrong? Did I say something weird?"

Thoughts of Asher Light and the other three, 'Everything you've just said sounds ridiculous okay?!'

They can only shift their gaze from Conri Lycaon to their Instructor. Even Athan Vladimir was perplexed because he didn't know or see what happened when the world was destroyed. He was shielded by Keylan Light's Domain, and even after the world ended outside the temple, he felt nothing.

Conri Lycaon, as if reading their thoughts, said, "It's real. Lord Skoll is indeed a God capable of destroying worlds. I saw him kill that entity and experienced the world tremble. It wasn't an ordinary earthquake but a tremor that even affected the sky with cracks forming that can be seen with the naked eye."

"Though I know something weird was going on when the king had started living with the Progenitor of Blood. Then? Is there a way to get back our soul connection? Is it in this place?" Mayonaka Yoru asked.

Conri Lycaon answered, "We need to meet the Beast God of this world and ask for his blessing. To do that we need to have a Mateship Ceremony in this world."

"Beast God? Mateship Ceremony? Wait! I understand you guys want to get back your connection with your Lunas but... Why am I and Amy here?" Asher Light asked.

Amber Dawn, who was standing next to him, was also perplexed. She was transported to another world after being transmigrated back to the world of vampires, werewolves, and humans. As an atheist, she never believed in Gods or the existence of parallel worlds. She didn't believe in Transmigration until she awoke in this body. But to say they were transported into another dimension in her current body? This is simply... absurd.

Keylan Light answered his question, "You wanted your girl to remain in her body right? When our world was reversed her connection to that body was also cut off. If you don't have a soul connection with someone originally born to our world she can't stay as well. Her soul was originally born from somewhere else after all."

The words of Keylan Light left some bewildered but Conri Lycaon and Asher Light who knew the truth about the current Amber Dawn's Identity were silent Esther Dawn cannot believe what he just heard and even Mayonaka Yoru is frowning.

Esther Dawn asked, "What do you mean by... Born somewhere else? My younger sister was born in our world. I saw her born with my own eyes, what nonsense are you talking about?"

"You speak about possession before Athan's body was taken over. Don't tell me... The soul that is currently inside Amber Dawn isn't the original one?" Mayonaka Yoru asked as he glanced at his younger brother.

Asher Light became defensive, drawing Amber Dawn behind him for protection. After all, Esther Dawn's appearance is truly deplorable. He was practically glaring at Asher Light and Amber Dawn. He realized that the Amber Dawn he had met after such a long time was not the Amber Dawn he had known as a child. How can he fail to notice why his timid sister suddenly becomes confident and fearless?

Esther Dawn asked, "Are you... Are you not really my Amber Dawn?"

"I'm sorry, bro... I'm sorry. I also don't know why I woke up in this body. When I woke up, I opened my eyes to see this body bathing in the tub which... the water had turned red. That's all I know. The memories of this body had long disappeared from my mind. I can no longer recall anything about her. I'm sorry." Amber Dawn said.

Esther Dawn's mood darkened when he heard these words. This only meant that his younger sister had most likely committed suicide, which is why when the current Amber Dawn awoke, she punished those parasitic relatives of theirs and threw them all in jail, preventing them from leaving.

"Don't say sorry, it wasn't even your fault. But I need to tell our parents about it."

"Hm. I don't mind." Amber Dawn said as she didn't even notice her voice was a bit trembling.

Athan Vladimir, who had been silent the entire time, finally spoke up. Even though his voice was hoarse, he spoke up. Even though he wasn't sure if these people would believe him. Only Conri Lycaon, who had been watching him and knew his true identity, smiled at him.

Conri Lycaon whispered, "No matter what you want to do I will help you with it."

"D-Don't get angry at Amy. It wasn't her fault I died. At that time, I just felt that everything was against me and... I wanted to keep our family safe so I agree with the promise of God. To remove the bad karma of our family in... In exchange for that... Amber Dawn's vessel." Athan Vladimir said

This time except for Keylan Light and Mikaela as well as Conri Lycaon, everyone was shocked when they heard Athan Vladimir's words. This is especially true for Esther Dawn.

Esther Dawn stares at Athan Vladimir in disbelief. "You... Hah~ When Dad was first kicked out of our house by Mom what did he do?"

"I asked Dad for French toast but he burned our kitchen instead. That was Dad's first time cooking." Athan Vladimir responded as if recalling a part of the past that only he who had lived with the Dawn Family as a child can remember.

"When you are five I bribe you with a slice of cake one morning. What did I ask you to do?"

"Don't tell Mom and Dad that brother peed on his bed."

"When you were six what did you do that made Dad spank me?"

"I... I made Dad's Bonsai bald and told Dad that Brother broke it with a soccer ball."

Athan Vladimir said, "I'm sorry. I just recently got my old memories back and Lord Skoll explained my circumstances to Conri. So I..."

It was at this moment that everyone in the crowd realized what was happening before their eyes. Even Amber Dawn was in disbelief she couldn't help but stare at Athan Vladimir while Esther Dawn was so happy that he hugged Athan Vladimir.

"It's you. My younger sibling. You didn't die or disappear. Amy!! I'm so glad you are still alive!" Esther Dawn said while his tears were pouring down as he hugged Athan Vladimir.

Athan Vladimir also hugged his brother and said, "But big brother, Amy is also our sibling. After all, she and I are twins as for the reason why she got separated from us, I guess Instructor Keylan would explain it further for us."

Esther Dawn and Amber Dawn exclaim, "WHAT!?"

Amber Dawn said, "I'm your sister. Your twin sister?! How is that possible!? I was born from another world!"

"That body you used in that world is something Athan owned which we had transferred. The Heavens exchange your soul and separate you before you are born. First, because of a special reason, the heavens can't tell you. Second, Athan's soul is a lot weaker than yours and he can't survive in that world alone. So we had him stay in your body why you were in him."

"Then at the right moment when Athan's soul collapsed to keep him alive, we brought you back home as it was already time for you to come back. You are a destined Heroine you are fated to fight for the protection of our world. What you experienced in that other world was a trial to make you strong." Keylan Light explained.

While listening to Keylan Light's explanation, the Dawn Family couldn't help but become enraged, especially Amber Dawn, who had lived her life in misery. With no one on her side, no family, no friends, and forced to make a living by murdering people, she was alone.

"Don't you think it is very unfair for me?! Why do I have to be the one to get sent into the other world!?"

Amber Dawn yelled, her eyes filled with rage and sadness. She couldn't understand why she had to grow up in poverty, alone, and estranged from her family. After all, it is a distance between two worlds, so the separation was not easy. She wasn't even in the same universe as her parents or siblings.

Keylan Light frowned yet felt confused but before he could speak Mikaela who just finished healing himself spoke up. "I don't get why you are angry. That time before you are born I made you and your twin a choice. It was supposed to be your twin. You should be sent there in that world you came from. But it was also you who volunteered to take your twin's place. After all, at that time Athan's soul was so weak that he is almost eaten by you while you are in the womb of your mother."

Esther Dawn as if recalling something covered his mouth in incredulity. Mayonaka Yoru noticed his weird reaction and asked, "Is there something wrong, Este-chan?"

"I remember before Amy was born... The doctor told us Mom is having a twin but the smaller child was too weak and the doctor already warned our parents about the possibility of losing one child while in the womb. It suddenly disappeared one day and the doctors thought the other twin was eaten as expected. But it seems that wasn't what happened at all..." Esther Dawn said as he glanced at his siblings and the God-like man beside Instructor Keylan Light.

Amber Dawn was in disbelief, "I... I did? But... I don't remember..."

"You won't because I sealed those memories of yours. Because those memories would only be painful for you who have to live in that other world on your own. I will return your memory as a baby now." Mikaela said as he suddenly appeared in front of Amber and placed his hand on her head passing her forgotten memories.

Chapter 1032: First Red Star - The Past of the Twins.

Amber Dawn's forgotten memories of that time were restored by the Heavenly Laws of the world from which she truly came. There is a hidden truth within those forgotten memories that no one knows about except the twins who meet the God of their world before they are born.

In a long-forgotten past, the three races were at battle, with the human on top. At this period. The Vampire Race wasn't looking as good as they thought, and the Progenitor of Blood had no intention of getting involved in this farce, so he shut himself away in the dark forest. With the Werewolf Ancestor focused on rescuing his race's other tribes, the human assumed the lead in conflict.

At this point in time, the Templar Temple is regarded as one of the world's greatest contenders, even surpassing the other two races. The distinction between having a leader and not having one is significant. At the same time, the human race had persecuted the other two races so viciously that several minor clans had become extinct. Regrettably, these events were carried out without Keylan Light's knowledge or consent. He had no idea why such things were happening, and he had to protect the temple from the other races' assaults.

Most of those that came out to hint were under the directions of the Founder's immediate disciple, Kenan Light, at the time. Once his and Luciel's whole clan was slaughtered, he simply despised the other two races. Just the two of them managed to escape and were rescued by Keylan Light. In truth, the Keylan Light desired Luciel as his direct disciple rather than Kenan. Sadly, Luciel is an independent youth who was born with the capacity to regulate his strength. Kenan and Luciel were brothers, however unlike Luciel, Kenan was born as an ordinary person, whilst Luciel was born as a special human with the ability to naturally wield light elements. Kenan Light was envious of his brother.

As Kenan Light became a direct student of Keylan Light, he was elevated beyond the Temple's elders. People also pay attention to his commands since he is the holy son. Luciel, on the other hand, rose to the position of youngest cardinal only by his strength and contribution. This makes Kenan Light despise his brother even more, and he sends him on most hunting excursions, the more risk the better. Even though Luciel Dawn was aware of his brother's mental state, he was unconcerned. Life is uninteresting for him, and he doesn't care what he does as long as he isn't bored.

On one of the missions, Luciel Dawn was tasked with ambushing a party of noble vampires on their way home. This mission was assigned to Luciel, and its hazard level is red. It was a death mission since the aristocratic class vampires were stronger than any human ought to be. Luciel Dawn accepted this mission on his own and ambushed the vampires.

It just so happens that this group was led by Thana Daybreak in her teens. She was a bit wild when she was younger and didn't get along with her peers. They tormented and ostracized her, and she escaped the traps Luciel Dawn had set along the route. They battled until both were severely injured. Thana Daybreak was the first to die, and just as Luciel Dawn was ready to deliver the last blow, another group of aristocratic vampires appeared. These are the descendants of those slaughtered by Luciel Dawn.

They dealt with Luciel Dawn, but in their grief at having their young masters and young ladies slaughtered while Thana Daybreak was not, they considered her as a traitor and intended to kill her as well. Thana Dawn no longer fights for her life and instead prepares to die. Who would have guessed Luciel Dawn would save her and accompany her on their escape? Thana Daybreak survived, but her clan was labeled as traitors to the Blood Race and was massacred, leaving Thana as the solitary survivor of the Daybreak Clan.

Thana Daybreak despised Luciel Dawn for this, but she was happy that he had spared her life. She had lost her family, tribe, and even her house. She had nowhere to go and it was hazardous for her to be outside alone. In the end, Luciel Dawn let her reside in his apartment, and they live their own lives together. It didn't take them long to fall in love. Yet, love between two races is considered forbidden regardless of race. Luciel Dawn departed the Templar Temple, but the temple would not let go of its most powerful cardinal.

As a result, Luciel Dawn may only flee and hide with Thana Daybreak. They called their firstborn son Esther Dawn when they ultimately had children. The twin who hasn't yet been born comes next. They were concerned about the child because having twins is risky in this world. Infants require as much energy as possible not just from their mother but also from the outside environment. Twins who remain in one location can only be eaten. At one of the Dawn Family twins' check-ups, the doctor delivered some bad news.

"I'm sorry. One of the twins is too weak while the other is too strong. As expected the youngest one cannot hold on. I wish for the parents to get ready. Only one of the twins can live," The doctor said.

Upon hearing this Thana Daybreak was already in tears even Luciel Dawn felt forlorn by the bad news. The Young Esther Dawn didn't know anything at that time but when he saw his parents crying, he couldn't help but feel that something must have gone wrong for his younger siblings.

Luciel Dawn asked, "Is there... Is there really no other way to save the little one?"

The doctor could only shake his head sadly and said, "Unfortunately, our medicine in this era isn't enough. I don't know why the big twin devours so much energy, even the one that was meant for the other twin was taken by it. To save the other one, we can only pray to Gods. But... I hope you get ready of the other one losing and disappearing in the womb."

"I can't... Both are my babies. Why do I have to lose one?" Thana Daybreak said her mood has become sardonic ever since she became pregnant.

Luciel Dawn comforted his wife and said, "Don't cry, sweetheart. Think of our babies. You shouldn't cry too much, it's bad for your health. It's okay. I will think of a way. There must be a way, I promise you."

He kissed his wife on the forehead, but the doctor next to them opened and closed his lips as if he wanted to say anything, but the doctor realized it was better to calm the pregnant lady first than rebut about the husband's statements.

Once the Dawn Family had left the hospital, someone approached the doctor and inquired about Thana Daybreak and the family who had just dropped by. The doctor was professional and had no intention of disclosing his patient's details. Finally, after being intimidated by his own family, the doctor revealed everything. But the shame was too much for him, and he quit as a doctor and returned home to his family.

Kenan Light was the one who researched the Dawn Family in the facility. When his brother departed the Templar Temple without alerting anybody, all tasks in the temple have stalled, including the top-level mission that only Luciel Dawn could complete. He will not allow his brother go now that he has discovered signs of him.

Kenan Light mumbles, "Found you, brother~"

That night, I stayed at the Dawn Family's home. They purchased a mansion near the Central Region but distant from the Templar Temple's territory. Thana Dawn was exhausted from sobbing as well as despair. No mother would be pleased to find that she can only keep one of her two children. She does, after all, adore all of her children.

In the middle of the night, Luciel Dawn awoke and went to his office, where he drew a magic circle on the floor. This is one of the circle summonings for Gods found in the Templar Temple's Forbidden Library. After growing up in the Templar Temple, he spent his time reading literature and even discovered a secret entry to the prohibited section. He read every book imaginable and remembered all he had read.

One of them was God summoning. To summon a God, one must first offer a piece of his soul. Luciel Dawn begs the skies to preserve his kid, and they agree on one condition. The other child can only exist in a world that is not theirs. It is up to fate if he may return home in the future. Luciel Dawn paused for a time, telling God that he needed to consult with his wife first before making a choice. The Heavens agreed and granted him a day to make his decision.

Luciel Dawn told his wife, Thana Daybreak, about what God had advised the next morning. Thana Daybreak was initially dismayed and grieved, but ultimately consented. After all, being alive is preferable to being dead. What she didn't realize was that her child would have to face poverty, misery, and death in a world where she is the only one who lives, with no friends or relatives to depend on.

Their choice was transmitted to the skies, and God approved. The heavens guarded the twins' spirits until their physical bodies were finished. The Heavenly Laws imparted consciousness to two souls: one weak, which is Athan's soul, and one powerful, which is Amber's soul.

The Heavenly Laws said, "Only one of you can stay. The weak one can come with me and I will help you be reborn in another world as your parents wish."

"A-Alone? C-Can I... not go? Afraid. I'm afraid." The soul of Athan Vladimir said.

Amber Dawn said, "I will take my sibling's place. He is too weak and too timid. It would be dangerous for him to live alone."

"Are you sure? It would be almost impossible to return here once you live. Your abilities can only be used here and only your strong physical body remains in that world." The Heavenly Laws said.

Amber Dawn said, "I don't care. I will be okay!"

"No! No... I will go. I can leave. It's my fault I'm weak but... You cannot leave, it will be lonely there. I will go instead. I-I... not afraid."

Despite his strong words the fear from his voice cannot be hidden. Amber noticed that and said,

"You are scared. I will go alright. Protect brother, Mom and Dad while I am away. I will be back." Amber Dawn said.

Athan Vladimir said, "Use my vessel then. So that even if that body broke or dies you can still return to your original body. I will agree to take your place if you agree to this condition. If you agree I will be the one to go."

"Hah~ okay. I agreed."

"Since you guys are done talking we can go now. Amber Dawn, I shall now bring you to another world. Only when the time is right can you return. To avoid you from going mad, I shall seal your memories of this world. Until the day you come back here in our world." The Heavenly Laws said.

On that day one of the twins disappeared in the womb but the Dawn Family wasn't surprised yet their tears couldn't help but fall. After all, it was still their own family who was leaving. Going to a place far away from them.

Chapter 1033: First Red Star - Aborigines of the former Primitive World.

Back in reality...

Amber Dawn was finally able to reclaim her lost memories. He has finally found his family and siblings who will love and care for her. Something she'd always wished for in her life. Amber thought she could only fantasize about it. That's why she was overjoyed when he met the Dawn Family. The idea of having a protective older brother, a loving mother, and an adoring father was something she used to fantasize about. Who would have guessed that the family she had discovered was her own?

She experienced extreme happiness and excitement. She hugged her two brothers, tears streaming down her cheeks. One is the one who has protected her throughout her time in this new world, and the other is her younger brother who has protected her body and returned it to her regardless of whether he will have a body or not. She had always assumed that she would be alone even in this world when the Dawn Family discovered her vessel, which she believed was not hers. She now has the right and confidence to live and love the Dawn Family as if they were her own.

Esther Dawn felt a pang of guilt as he tried to push her away. He made Amber Dawn sad and betrayed when he discovered she wasn't the same Amber Dawn who had grown up with him, but when Amber honestly confessed everything he knew, he might have disappointed the little one.

"Amy, I'm sorry. I..." Esther Dawn said.

Amber Dawn said, "It's okay, brother. I understand well. But... If Amber is my real name, what about our younger brother? Does he have a name?"

"Er~ I was told when this body got back the soul connection with someone from the original world my real identity shall be returned as well. But the name... I don't have one." Athan Vladimir said.

Amber Dawn asked, "What about the name Athan then?"

"This is the name of this vessel. The original Athan Vladimir died under his family experiments a few centuries ago. Lord Skoll told Conri to name me since I don't have one." Athan Vladimir said.

Esther Dawn glares at Conri Lycaon when he hears he was tasked to give a name to his younger brother, "Who said you don't have one?! Of course, you have a name, I recall Mom giving you one when she learned she had twins at that time. You and Amy were named after gemstones. Your real name is Carnelian. Carnelian Dawn."

Athan Vladimir would now disappear as his name would now be called by his birth name, Carnelian Dawn.

"Carnelian... Carnelian Dawn... So this is my name. A name my parents gave to me."

The Dawn Siblings' loving moments were cut short when an unknown man appeared from the forest riding an adult white lion. This man appears young, but the aura he exudes is something only those who have lived a long time can have. His hair is emerald green and he wears a crown made of leaves to keep it braided and tied. The lion is also unusual in that it cast a lifelike gaze at them.

"Who are you? Why did you appear in the Forest of Eternal Rest? This is a location only those with Royal Bloodline can enter. Give me the answer I want if not you all shall be captured!" The young man with green hair said as he gestured to the trees and all plants in the area swayed as if it was following someone's orders.

Keylan Light and the others felt things had suddenly become dangerous. Mayonaka Yoru, Asher Light, and Conri Lycaon immediately defended their teammates. The wooden template Lord Skoll had given Carnelian Dawn was yanked from behind and fell to the ground. The young man with green hair's eyes widened in surprise when he saw the wooden template. He used his control over the grass to bring the wooden template with the sun and moon crest over.

Carnelian Dawn exclaims, "Ah~ that's mine! Milord gave me that! Give it back!"

"Yours? Really? Do you know what this crest means? But this crest is something we revered for hundreds of years and you said it was yours?" The man with emerald hair said as he was about to attack the intruders that trespassed the graveyard of the founders.

Cracks! Cracks! Whooped!

Tree roots emerge from the ground and attack the opposing group, forcing Mikaela and Keylan Light to block it with light elements and form a shield around them.

BAM!!!

"Light elements?"

When he saw the elements these people had wielded, the green-haired youth frowned. Light elements are extremely scarce in their world. Only those from the first-generation mates had this element awakened. According to their history, the former president of the first generation founder awakened light and wood elements.

The white lion who also witnessed the scene spoke out, "Leafy, these guys seem really connected to the founders. Should we let them meet the Great Elder?"

"What if they are enemies? I mean I don't even see any crests on them when they used those abilities just now. What are these guys?" The green-haired guy named Leafy said. "However, can we capture them first? Baishi, help me please."

"No need to say please. I will help you!" The white lion named Baishi said.

RROOOAAARR!!!

The ground beneath Keylan Light's group's feet suddenly became heavier. Carnelian Dawn, who hasn't fully recovered yet, was thought to be weaker than the others because his soul and body weren't completely in sync. He toppled down and almost fell face-first on the ground thankfully Conri Lycaon caught him on time.

But this only enraged Conri Lycaon, who transformed into a white wolf with green eyes and roared in rage. He employed King's Coercion. Even though he is still a young werewolf, he has already been taught how to use the Coercion that only the king of his kind can use. The white lion became dizzy and wobbled as a result of the coercion, causing the youth on his back to fall.

Ahhh!

Amber Dawn was able to control the trees and capture the two without the use of gravity. It was difficult because she and the young man named Leafy possessed the same elements. The trees in the area were unsure which one to follow. Amber Dawn and the others had no intention of causing harm to the Aboriginals. They simply desired to apprehend them and wait for them to calm down. Unfortunately, an all-out brawl ensued, with additional Aborigines adding to the chaos.

When a massive brawl broke out, the elders and even the Great Elder were notified. They didn't care about outsiders at first because their world is filled with unrecorded tribes.

As a result, they mistook the Keylan Light group for one of these tribes. The older generation did not come over to see the Sun and Moon Crest until it was mentioned. The world's oldest person had also emerged.

The Great Elder takes on the form of a rabbit beast. She does, however, still exist as the Moon Rabbit who serves as the Beast God's messenger even in her human form. She is actually of the first generation and met Lord Xuebao and Meizhou as the apprentice of the beast-man rabbit Tuzi. Tuya is her name.

Great Elder Tuya said, "Enough! Stop fighting! Tell this old lady the reason for this fight!"

When the Great Elder arrived, she appeared to be an elderly lady, but she didn't appear to be aging in the same way that Keylan Light did. Unlike Keylan Light, who chose a younger version of himself, this lady chose an older version of herself. Mikaela and Keylan Light chose not to participate in the brawl. They let the kids fight for themselves while keeping them safe. It would be unjust for Gods like them to intervene in a fight between children.

Carnelian Dawn even though considered weak at this moment, he had usually been hard-headed especially when fighting, that wasn't Athan Vladimir's personality but his own.

The youngest of the Dawn Siblings yells, "It was him! He suddenly appeared and attacked us. He even took the template my senior gave to me! Give it back!" Conri Lycaon had to hold him by his arms to prevent him from moving forward.

Sigh~

Tsk!

"This is the crest of Ancient Royalty. I only saw it on the stone slate in the Museum. They must have stolen it!" The young man Leafy said.

Carnelian Dawn retorted, "Stole your ass! Give it back. We need to meet the Great Elder of this world!"

"Carnelian Dawn shut your mouth!" Mikaela reprimanded as some of his words almost exposed their identities as outsiders.

Carnelian Dawn had his mouth covered by Conri Lycaon as he noticed that his Luna almost blurted out something he shouldn't have.

"A'Lian, calm down. We aren't here to fight." Conri Lycaon said.

The white lion suddenly morphed into a human-looking a bit older than the green-haired youth and a bit closer to the age of Mayonaka Yoru. His hair is pure white and only his golden eyes gaze at this strange group.

White Lion, Baishi asked, "Who are you? That aura suppression ability you use... Is that a Monarch's Coercion!? You're a wolf beast man, how can you use it?"

"I'm the king of our tribe. Is it wrong for me to have such an ability?" Conri Lycaon rebuked. Then glance at his elder brother, Mayonaka Yoru, and mumble, "Though my elder brother is much more powerful even if I use it."

"We are of the same bloodline and generation. Of course, it's not of use against me unless you become even more powerful than you are now." Mayonaka Yoru said while smiling. Seemingly smug that his younger brother is quite king material.

Leafy started pointing at Amber Dawn, Asher Light, and Esther Dawn, "These three are weird as well. Why is it that Bat Girl can use Blood Suppression? These two men can also wield Light Elements, isn't that supposed to be rare!?"

The crest he took from Carnelian Dawn dangled in his hand and an elder near him was shocked that he immediately fell on his knees.

"The Crest of the Solune First Tribe! Respectfully greets!"

"Ah, ~ greetings to the Crest of the Founding Gods."

"The blessing of the Beast God!"

More elders saw the crest and immediately fell to their knees, dragging the younger generation along with them. They were frozen stiff in astonishment and disbelief as Leafy and Baishi were the only ones left standing. Leafy, who was holding the crest, began to tremble as he considered something. He had always thought the crest resembled their city's recorded history. They were told that the Sun and Moon City began as a small tribe. This tribe is their ancestor and the one who received the Beast God's blessing. Solune Tribe is the name of the tribe.

Carnelian Dawn, who no one noticed appeared beside Leafy and took back the template Lord Skoll had given him.

"Give it back, Milord gave that to me!" Carnelian Dawn said as he got his template back.

Someone suddenly blocked his path. It's an old lady dressed simply, but her aura is similar to that of Instructor Keylan Light, a God-class being in their world. Conri Lycaon appeared beside Carnelian and drew him behind him. Asher Light and the others raised their guards once more, making the overall atmosphere awkward.

Great Elder Tuya noticed that these visitors might not be as simple as they appear. After all, a Monarch's Coercion was something only the First General possessed, despite the fact that he is a Lion Beastman, and the subsequent generation had never awakened such a special ability except for Baishi, the White Lion. Furthermore, only purebloods have blood suppression. Furthermore, the light elements surrounding these guests' bodies were too dense for her to ignore. Especially now that the Ancient Crest had reappeared out of nowhere.

"Esteemed Guests, I am the Great Elder of this world. You can call me Tuya. I would like to speak privately with you." Tuya found the strongest within the other group and looked at Keylan Light and Mikaela.

Tuya cannot feel Mikaela's aura because he is an existence equal to the Beast God of this world. This made Great Elder Tuya uneasy because just looking at Mikaela makes her want to kneel. On the other hand, the light aura emanating from Keylan Light appears to be equal to her powers, which startled her despite her best efforts to appear calm.

Keylan Light glanced at Mikaela who just smiled and nodded at him. Then finally looked back at Tuya and said, "Please show the way. We will follow you."

Chapter 1034: First Red Star - Beast God's Messenger

The rest of the people completely lost interest after the Great Elder, Tuya, took the lead. After what happened, even Leafy, the green-haired youth, and Baishi, the white lion, were asked to return home. Meanwhile, Keylan Light and the others followed the Great Elder to her own home to continue their conversation. Despite her high status, this great elder lives in a simple house that is ideal for her to live alone.

Conri Lycaon looked around and discovered that the necessities in the room were only adequate for one person. There isn't even an extra slipper for a visitor. Not even another cup for the visitors. This evidence alone was sufficient to establish that the owner of this house lives alone. Furthermore, the location of this house is desolate. It is located between the main city and the forest.

"Do you leave alone, Grandma?" asked Amber Dawn politely.

This type of house arrangement is similar to her previous condominium unit. She didn't have any spare slippers because she didn't have any friends. He didn't even have a family to refill the fridge for her, so it was almost empty with only water and fruits inside. There are no traces of other people because she never had a lover to accompany her when she didn't want to be alone.

Great Elder Tuya responds, "Yes. Most of my family and friends had entered reincarnation. They can no longer remember who I am."

"Aren't you lonely?" Conri Lycaon asked.

The Great Elder smiles gently as if she was looking at her grandchildren and answers the young werewolf Monarch's question. "It would be a lie to say 'No'. Even the strongest person would feel lonely living alone on his own. But I'm okay. The people of the city would come to visit me every week at most. Children love to come over to this old woman's place. If not for them maybe I would have gone mad."

"Don't you have a mate?" Mayonaka Yoru asked. He was pinched by his lover after asking such a straightforward question.

The Great Elder Tuya answers, "None. After all, in this world, it is very hard to find your mate. You guys are truly lucky you have found yours. Plus, marriage in this world is permanent and blessed by the Beast God."

"Well then~ let's talk about something else. I might not be the strongest in this world but I can be someone considered as the messenger of the Beast God. Even though I look like this I'm also the oldest that is still alive in this world. So don't worry about your identities being exposed before me. Outsiders from another world."

Esther Dawn said, "You knew all along. Or should I say it must be because of the wooden template in my younger brother's hand which those people revered upon sight? What is the significance of this wooden template?"

Carnelian Dawn placed the wooden template of the sun and moon in front of them on the table. Asher Light and the others couldn't see anything special about the wooden insignia, but the Great Elder had a nostalgic look in her eyes when she saw the crest of the wooden plate. She appears happy as if remembering all the good times in the past.

Great Elder Tuya said, "It might be a bit hard to believe but our world used to be an extremely Primitive one. We are Beastman so we can change our form from human form to animal form. A bit similar to the two of your kinds. The crest on this wooden template is the original crest of this city's first tribe. The Sun and Moon Tribe, Solune."

"Solune Tribe can be said to be one of the strongest tribes in this world. This is because of the existence of three lords: the Young Tribe Leader, Lord Xuebao, his partner and the strongest warrior of our tribe, Lord Meizhou, and the Young Prophet, Lord Tuzi. They are the reason why this world has advanced to the current world."

"This wooden template only five people who existed before have it. One is the first president of our city Lord Tuzi and his two husbands. Second, is the original tribe leader and his protector, Lord Xuebao and Lord Meizhou. So I would like to ask, is the one who gave you this template a man with Ivy Crest or a Black Snowflake?"

Conri Lycaon remembered the crest that appeared on Lord Skoll's face when he threw this template at them that day. Only then did he realize that Lord Skoll might be one of the world's founders, a God-like existence as he is revered as such.

"Would answering this question give different results?" Conri Lycaon asked seriously, observing the smiling old lady in front of them.

The Great Elder Tuya says, "Yes, it would be determined what kind of help I can provide. Even among the Lords, there is a hierarchy."

"The person who gave us this called himself Lord Skoll. He has a black snowflake under the corner of his right eye." Carnelian Dawn said.

The Great Elder Tuya almost stopped breathing when she heard what Carnelian Dawn just said. She had only seen the first two Lords when she was young, and then one day they vanished along with Lord Shizi and Lord Sheya, despite the fact that the little prince had vanished with them. Lord Tuzi said they went somewhere far away, but he didn't know where. When she becomes the Beast God's messenger, she asks the Beast God about Lord Xuebao and the rest.

The Beast God only said that they went back to where they originally came from. Only then did she realize that the reason why Lord Xuebao and Lord Meizhou are so omnipotent and omniscient is because they are reincarnated Gods. Gods that descended to their world and helped them pass through their tribulations. During the continuous snowstorm, it was Lord Xuebao and Lord Meizhou who found them a cave to escape the disaster.

It was also this pair who had warned the neighboring tribe, with whom they had a close relationship, about the Avalanche, as well as helped cure the frostbites and provide assistance at the appropriate time. She couldn't forget the day Lord Xuebao erected a large barrier that keeps the Snow Storm at bay and protects them even while he is still pregnant with the little prince. Tuya has regarded those two as Gods on par with the Beast God in her heart ever since.

She was ecstatic when she discovered that the original owner of the wooden template was possibly Lord Meizhou or Lord Xuebao. Those people are her Gods and heroes, and they are discovering that they are alive. Maybe they are Gods after all, as she expected, a powerful one that transcends Immortality.

The Great Elder asks, "Can I ask if the man who gave you this template is a playful beauty with a pair of silver eyes or a cold dangerous man with black eyes?"

"But Lord Skoll's eyes are crimson, not black..." Carnelian Dawn said.

Asher Light mumbled, "Speaking of silver eyes, Instructor Skoll is always beside Headmaster Cassius who has that pair of eyes."

The Great Elder named Tuya realized that this Lord Skoll is possibly the Lord Meizhou and this Headmaster Cassius is Lord Xuebao in her memories.

"Are they always together? Like inseparable perhaps?" Tuya asked.

Keylan Light asks, "How did you know? Wait! Are they really the founders of this land then? Impossible! Doesn't that make them Gods going around different worlds for a certain reason?"

"I didn't know about it before. This time Lord Ye said he is looking for the soul of his wife which is Lord Cassius of our world." Mikaela who had been silent the whole time spoke up. He even mentioned Lord Skoll's name unconditionally.

Keylan Light asked, "Lord Ye?"

"Sovereign Ruler Ye Xiajie. He is the God using the vessel of Fenrir Skoll. He is from the Main World. The Highest ranked World, Vearth. They supervise the lower worlds and our world happens to be under their jurisdiction. You will learn more next time I go to report I will bring you with me." Mikaela said.

Keylan Light asked, "Bring me where?"

"Vearth. The Land of Gods and Immortals." Mikaela said.

When the word 'Vearth' was mentioned, a voice from an unknown source resounds in the room. As soon as this voice was heard Tuya fell to her knees.

The Great Elder Tuya says, "This little one greets the Esteemed Beast God!"

Um!

The Heavenly Laws, Mikaela responded, "Possible. But mine own children shall beest protecteth by who is't?"

The Great Elder Tuya replied, "As you wish, Beast God!"

Mikaela talked to Keylan Light before he left, "Key, I will be gone for a while. The Heavenly God of this world had secured your and the children's safety except during the trials. Tuya here will be your guide. Listen to her well. I will be back soon." He disappeared after saying these words.

"W-Wait, where are you going!? Ah! At least let me finish talking!" Keylan Light said while sulking that Mikaela left abruptly just like that.

Based on their conversation alone, Tuya realized that Keylan Light had the same standing as she and that man whom he can't meet eyes with happens to be a God that is equal to the Beast God of their world.

The Great Elder Tuya approached Keylan Light and treated him as her peer, "Come. Come. Before I gave you the Instructions about the trial, why don't you let the children look around the city first? I will announce you guys as special guests so no one would harm you. And even send some guides to the children as they look around the place. By the way, what is your name, brother?"

"Keylan Light."

"Brother Key, can you drink?"

"Yeah. No problems."

"Good." She grabbed Keylan Light's shoulders and looked at the children. "I will borrow your elder for today. It will take a while for your rooms to be arranged. Why don't you guys play around the city for a bit? Those children from before I will ask them to guide you in the city. Your trials will begin tomorrow so relax for today. Go now."

Esther Dawn and Mayonaka Yoru took the initiative and prepared to leave as instructed.

They were given money to spend by the Great Elder. The rest of the group could only follow the elders' instructions and travel to the city. Tuya only had to wave her hand for the couches to be replaced with a table of wine and snacks as soon as the children left the house.

Tuya said, "Please have a seat. We can talk about the rest as we drink." She held a cup of wine for herself as he served a cup to her guest.

Keylan Light accepted it with a smile, "Okay. But did my Mikaela really meet your Beast God?"

"Yes, but Mikaela is the Heavens of your world, right? How come he has his own body?" Tuya asked, a bit interested.

Keylan Light answered, "That vessel... It's an Elemental Vessel made from my energy. He allowed a part of him to be reborn as an Elemental to accompany me in our world. You should be able to do it too. I will teach you how later."

"Thank you, Keylan. Actually, I want to ask a few more questions about Lord Skoll and Headmaster Cassius of your world. Is it okay?"

"Ask away."

These two got along as they spent time drinking and talking.

Chapter 1035: First Red Star - Primitive World, City of Selena.

At the Beast World's Domain...

Mikaela, the Supernatural Modern World's Heavenly Laws had arrived to meet the Beast God of the Primitive Worlds. The Beast God's domain is simply a white world that overlooks his world below him. He, like Mikaela, is the Heavenly Laws of his world. There is only one small table where tea and tea snacks are served. An elderly man dressed in traditional garb sits at the table. This is Shou, the Beast God.

Beast God Shou noticed the arrival of Mikaela and said, "Welcome to my domain Elemental Light God, Mikaela. My name is Shou. Nice to meet you."

"The pleasure is all mine," Mikaela said.

Beast God Shou said, "Those children should be alright. My world is not that much dangerous except for the dinosaurs I guess. But most of my children had been taught how to defeat them so with them guiding your child it should be alright."

"You are aware of our arrival aren't you?" asked Mikaela yet his words seem to be a statement instead of a question.

Beast God Shou responded, "Lord God Ye, had informed me ahead of time. Well, he must have accidentally cut off some children's fate and asked me to reconnect it. Must be the orders of his wife, Lord Hei."

"You knew about them after all. Can you share some stories with me while they stay in your world?"
Mikaela said.

Beast God Shou said, "I do not mind. I wanted to hear some news of what happened to them after they left my world. I knew they weren't only going to my world but to other worlds as well."

"This... I do agree. Shall we share a story one at a time?"

"Good Idea! Hoho~"

Beast God's Main City, Selena...

Selena City is this world's most modernized land. Tall buildings with hints of fantasy mixed with modern architecture resemble merchant companies. Most of these buildings' ceilings were made tall after all of the people in this world learned how to transform from human to beast form. There are towering animal forms such as giraffes, elephants, and so on. The interior ceilings were raised to accommodate these types of beasts, as some Beastman were more accustomed to being in their beast form than in their human form. This is a minority viewpoint.

The sight of animals and humans living together and walking hand in hand in a city astounded Asher Light and the others. In their world, these animals would most likely be returned to the zoo because animals in their world, with the exception of Werewolves with Fenrir's blood, cannot turn to humans well.

Mayonaka Yoru whispered, "Wow~ it feels like there is a wide animal escape in a zoo and the scene of humans and beasts together appeared before me."

"Don't be rude, Yoru!" Esther Dawn reprimands.

"I won't anymore." Mayonaka Yoru said.

Asher Light asked, "Where should we go first?"

"Let's go eat or find a cafe to sit in. You two still had to tell us more stories about what happened between the two of you." Amber Dawn said she looked at Conri Lycaon and Carnelian Dawn.

Carnelian Dawn is a cuddly boy with a straightforward personality who is respectful of his older siblings. Perhaps he is afraid of making them angry because he misses them so much. This good boy nods his head as if he agrees with his elder sister's words.

Mayonaka Yoru said, "You guys go first. I will check the area and gather information at the same time. In a place we have no information about is dangerous to move around. I will survey the city a bit. Pudding, stay with them. It won't take long."

"Sure. Be careful. Don't be hasty and get involved with things in this world. We aren't going to stay long here after all." Esther Dawn said.

Mayonaka Yoru kissed his lover's forehead and smiled gently at him. "I will take that in mind. I will find you guys here after I am finished. If not, let's just meet at the Great Elder's place."

"Brother, don't go out of the city. I know you saw those creatures during a free fall but there is no need to personally check on them alone." Conri Lycaon said.

Mayonaka Yoru rustled his younger brother's hair and said, "I won't leave the city. But I will try to find information about the outside if possible. Just to be prepared in case the trial location includes what is outside the city."

"Do you want me to come with you?" Asher Light asked.

Mayonaka Yoru said, "No need. In such an unknown place, me alone moving around is enough. At least I can escape in my beast form and would be able to blend in this world easier but you can't morph in any dangerous beast form. Just protect everyone with Yue."

"Okay, I understand. Be cautious. I will give you this just in case. These are Healing Potions. Use it without holding back." Asher Light said.

Mayonaka Yoru left after receiving the healing potion from Asher Light, blending in with the crowd and disappearing from their line of sight. The rest of them looked around and discovered a cafe made of a massive tree, with each branch serving as a floor. Each floor can be reached via the wooden stairs or by flying. What's more, the cafe only allowed small or medium-sized beasts to enter in their beast form, while the majority of customers were in their human forms.

When they walked into the cafe, they noticed some cats, rabbits, and a dog named Beastman napping on the soft grass carpet. As guests, there are also some rare animals such as lions, leopards, and black panthers. They book a table with fewer customers on a higher floor so they can see the city from such a vantage point. The view from above ground was breathtaking. Amber and Carnelian Dawn adore it.

Esther Dawn finds the atmosphere relaxing because of the lingering scent of wood and peppermint. It wasn't even crowded, and each floor only has six tables, with fewer customers as the floor rises. They chose a floor with only two tables; it was a little pricey, but since the money wasn't theirs to begin with, they spent it without hesitation. Keylan Light, the instructor, was left behind to cover their expenses.

Esther Dawn said, "The ambiance of the upper floor is good. The VIP room should be better right?"

"But in VIP rooms those who weren't there to get in aren't allowed to enter. Moreover, it was also reserved by someone and we're a bit late for it." Asher Light said.

Conri Lycaon said, "Since we are waiting for our brother this floor should be fine."

"Let's ask if we can keep it for us before we leave this world. After all, we cannot return here after we finish our business." Carnelian Dawn said.

After all, they are only mortals. Only Gods are capable of moving through worlds unhindered by Heavenly Laws and vessel problems. The body of a mortal is too frail. It is not capable of traversing space and time. After all, each world has its own set of laws and times. It can have an impact on anything that enters or exits it. That is why only Gods can leave one world for another.

Amber Dawn asked, "I wonder how Instructor Keylan Light had become a God. Can we become one too?"

"Maybe not... As long as our lives are under the world's plot, we can only live and die as mortals. But the Headmaster is a different story, he might be a God which Lord Skoll had been looking for." Esther Dawn said.

Conri Lycaon says, "I also had a feeling that Lord Skoll only came to this world because of the Headmaster. But I'm confused as to why they are separated in the first place..."

"Enough of things we cannot get involved in. Tell us something about what happened between the two of you. Did the former memories I have before have returned to you, Nel? Is this why you recall who you are?" Amber Dawn asked.

Esther Dawn said, "If that's the case, did it mean he was destined to die first before he remembered everything."

"What a fuck up plot!" Asher Light commented.

Esther Dawn asked, "Do you remember anything before you die? Instructor Skoll said you had died before Conri."

Carnelian Dawn thought of the past for a bit. But aside from suffering from a nightmare, all he can remember is being pulled into a world full of darkness and a huge eye appearing before him.

"I don't know. After our Practical Exam, I was too tired and went back to the dorm to sleep. During my sleep, I ended up suffering a nightmare and the last thing I can remember is that a monster that had the shape of a huge scarlet eye was staring at me. But at that time, I could no longer speak, I saw a handsome man. His vibes are similar to Lord Skoll. Maybe that was him?" Carnelian Dawn stories.

Asher Light spoke, "A black world? Is it darkness from all sides? No hints of light, just darkness?" He asked.

Carnelian Dawn nods his head, "It was dark on all sides but for some reason, I can still see that monster even without any hints of light which is weird."

"Do you have something in mind about that dark world, Asher?" The young werewolf king, Conri Lycaon asked.

Asher Light turned serious and looked at Carnelian Dawn and was checking if he was really alive. He is capable of speech but there is no heartbeat, as if his vessel is dead yet the soul is alive.

"Are you also born as a vampire, Carnelian?" asked Asher Light.

Carnelian Dawn said, "Yes, but after using my sister's vessel my abilities were sealed only when I took over Athan Vladimir's body that I was able to use my abilities again. Is there a connection with it to that black world?"

"That place you said you entered which had nothing but darkness might be the Abyss. It can also be called the void. Most souls that were dragged in there disappear forever but it seems thanks to your vampire blood that your soul didn't perish right away. After all, the vampire race is compatible with dark elements." Asher Light said.

Carnelian Dawn said, "Ah! That's right. That monster said my compatibility with dark elements is high. It must be because of that. I am truly thankful that Lord Skoll brought me away. That place is too scary. There is nothing there but you can feel stares coming from all directions. I believe just staying there alone is enough to make anyone crazy."

"What is Abyss, Ash?" asked Amber Dawn.

Asher Light said, "It's a world full of darkness. No one knows how to enter or leave that place. It's within the jurisdiction of space and time. According to the books, it's possible to enter Abyss with just your soul but even that is rare. Only a powerful and pure soul can enter there. If you can enter with a vessel you are either a Devil or an Evil God."

"Are you saying that Instructor Skoll is an Evil God?" Esther Dawn asked.

Conri Lycaon said, "The man beside Instructor Keylan Light said before that Lord Skoll is an outsider God and that he is the Sovereign Ruler of Darkness. An Evil God."

"But would an Evil God even help others, much less save them?" Amber Dawn asked.

Suddenly someone butts in, their conversation, and answers Amber Dawn's question.

"Gods are whimsical regardless of whether they are Evil or Good. Even more so for Evil Gods who don't like being bored~."

They were taken aback to discover that someone was listening in on their conversation. They didn't even notice anyone entering their floor because there were no sounds or anything. When they turned around, they recognized the greenhead and the white-haired man from before. Leafy and his white lion, Baishi, were the culprits.

Carnelian Dawn pointed at them and said, "It's you guys, again?!"

Conri Lycaon asked, "Why are you here?"

Chapter 1036: First Red Star - Joining the Hunting Team

Carnelian Dawn pointed at sudden guests and said, "It's you guys, again?!"

Conri Lycaon asked, "Why are you here?"

The arrival of Beastman Baishi and the green-haired Leafy surprised the rest of the group. They didn't expect these men to appear here without their knowledge. Baishi and Leafy saw their guards up against the pain as too obvious. Leafy snorted, as if he found them irritating.

Only Baishi had the patience to speak with them.

The white lion Beastman, Baishi says, "Don't overthink. We might have attacked you before because we thought you guys were suspicious. Now that the Great Elder has vouched for your group then there shall be no more fighting. We are here as your guides to the city."

"A guide. I see, the Great Elder did mention giving us a guide." Esther Dawn said.

The green-haired youth looked at their group and frowned, "You are missing one person. Where is the old one with white hair?" He looked at Conri Lycaon and asked, "Oi, where is your elder brother?"

"It is none of your business." Conri Lycaon said as he looked to not like this rude brat with green hair.

"You!"

"He just went somewhere and will be back later. You are here as a guide not to interrogate us, right?" Esther Dawn said as he gave the pair a cold glance.

When Baishi saw Esther Dawn's cold stare, he knew he and his partner were overstepping their authority. After all, he was correct. The Great Elder only assigns them the task of being good guides because they are close to their age, but they are not instructed to monitor all of their actions. They were given complete freedom to do whatever they wanted. If they have any questions or want to go somewhere, it is their duty as a guide to accompany them.

However, the greenhead youth believes that the great elder tasked him with watching over these people who have no idea where they came from. Baishi covered his mouth, preventing him from speaking in response to Esther Dawn's words.

Baishi said, "Please forgive him. He is still young and a bit immature. But I do worry that your friend might get hurt if he roams around alone. Lately, the dinosaurs not far from the city are a bit weird lately. Just making sure all of you are alright."

"Don't worry about him. If he is so weak to be killed by it then that's him fooling around." Esther Dawn said.

Amber Dawn said, "Don't mind our elder brother. His mood had been a bit bad since Brother Yoru left him alone."

"Would you like to join us? Let's look around the place after eating." Asher Light said.

Leafy pulls his friend's hand off his mouth and yells at him, "What's wrong with you?"

"Remember what Great Elder Tuya had ordered," Baishi said.

Hmph!

These words alone were enough to shut him up. As expected, the green-haired youth turned silent and started sulking. Baishi pulled Leafy to join Asher Light's table as they were invited.

"Hello, Mr. Baishi and Leafy. I am Asher Light."

"Eldest. Esther Dawn."

"Second. Amber Dawn."

"Youngest. Carnelian Dawn."

"Conri Lycaon."

"I'm Baishi and this is Leafy. He is still young, I hope you understand."

"Isn't he near my age? He is no longer young!" Carnelian Dawn said.

With a bit of a reprimanding tone, Esther Dawn called his younger brother's name, "Car, that's rude."

"Hahaha~ you got scolded," Leafy said while pointing at Carnelian.

Baishi pulled down his hand and said, "Leafy, enough!"

Their small group spent some time in the cafe and noticed a few trays of dessert being delivered to the VIP room on the top floor. Each tray was so full of different desserts that it was difficult to believe that anyone could eat that much even if they came in a group.

Carnelian Dawn commented, "That's a lot. Is there a group in the VIP room?"

"No. There are only two people. One of them is veiled while the other one is accompanying the former as a jaguar. It was large and majestic. That Beastman is definitely powerful!"

"I'm strong and quite large myself in my beast form too. How come you never compliment me?" Baishi mumbled. "But indeed, that jaguar looks so powerful though they seem to not be from here either. They must be here for the trial too."

"Is the trial that dangerous?" Carnelian asked.

Leafy responded, "Of course! You need to defeat a dinosaur to prove your strength. The stronger the dinosaur is the more you get the approval of the Beast God. Strength is almost everything in this place!"

"Dinosaurs, is it?" Murmured Esther Dawn as he looked at the horizon hoping that his lover wouldn't venture outside the city alone just to investigate.

Amber Dawn said, "Dinosaurs are still alive in this world?"

"What are dinosaurs, Sister?" Carnelian asked.

Dinosaurs are unknown to Asher Light and Conri Lycaon, who were born in a world unconnected to Earth. Actually, Esther Dawn has no idea, but he has seen them from above before, just like Mayonaka Yoru. He was aware that those things were quite large.

Leafy and Baishi stared at them, perplexed as to why they didn't know what a dinosaur was. Though there is a smaller population of it now than there was previously, there is still a large amount of it in the wild.

"Are you guys shut-in or something? Do you never leave the city at all? How come you don't know what dinosaurs are?" Leafy questioned. Obviously couldn't believe they didn't know what dinosaurs were.

Amber Dawn said, "I only saw those in history books before. Not in real life though." Those things are supposed to be extinct on Earth after all.

Baishi suggested, "If I wanted to know about it, there should be introductory books in the library. It was written by one of the founders of the city, Lord Tuzi. There are also drawings."

"Let's go then. Now I'm interested in what it looks like." Asher Light said.

Amber Dawn mumbled, "Most of those things are big. Can we even defeat it?"

"You wouldn't be hunting adult dinosaurs anyway. It wouldn't be bigger than the ordinary houses in the residential area." Leafy said.

As Baishi suggested, they all go to the library.

The two young people, who appeared to have the same personality, had fled as soon as they entered the library. I was scolded by the librarian and almost barred from entering the library after being booked there and here. Baishi and Conri Lycaon were forced to apologize for their partners' misbehavior. The librarian was the only one who let the two brats in but was barred from even walking around.

"I'm sorry said Carnelian Dawn and Leafy after getting scolded.

The librarian said, "Next time you run around you won't be allowed inside the library anymore!"

"Yes!"

"You are two, kids?~"

"Pfft! Let's share this with the people at home. I took a video!"

Amber Dawn and Asher Light, on the other hand, were doing their best not to laugh. Esther Dawn ignored the brats and looked around for some interesting books to read, while Conri Lycaon and Baishi sighed helplessly.

"I found it, is it this book?"

Esther Dawn, who was looking around, discovered the book, which was more of an encyclopedia about dinosaurs. There are even drawings and descriptions in the book to help you understand it. Each dinosaur's name, type, height, and weight were also recorded. It was created in as much detail as possible, including its flaws.

As soon as Amber Dawn saw the drawing, "It's this one. Brother, you found it fast. I thought you didn't know what dinosaurs were."

"I don't know. But since I've seen one before it's easier to look for it. But I think they are large as I saw. Even the child dinosaurs are half an ordinary house size. We better remember the weakness of each." Esther Dawn said.

Asher Light commented, "That's quite large. I wonder if our elements are useful?"

"I don't know about light elements but the other elements should be effective. They aren't undeads after all. It wouldn't be too effective." Conri Lycaon said as he read the description of a few dinosaurs.

Baishi said, "Light elements can purify the meat. If you use dark elements to kill it we need to use light elements to purify it before it can be cooked and eaten."

"You... You eat this... These things!?" exclaimed Carnelian Dawn.

Leafy looked innocent as he said, "It's delicious! Much more delicious than beef, pork, or pheasant! It possesses energy that makes one stronger. Are you sure you don't want to eat it?"

Gulps~

"Is it that delicious?" asked Carnelian Dawn.

Baishi said, "There's a restaurant that sells dinosaur meat. Do you want to try it?"

"Let's try it after Yoru returns. For now, let's study this book. It's most likely that the pair would move on its own. I can't be there to guide you if we get separated." Esther Dawn said

The two siblings, Carnelian Dawn and Amber Dawn, who hates to study tried to escape but were captured by their elder brother.

Hic!

"Read. Study and remember. No dinner if you fail my small test before we leave." Esther Dawn said.

"No~ I hate studying~"

Three voices echo complaints. It seems the strictness of Esther Dawn also scared the hell out of Leafy. He is quite obedient towards serious and mature people like Esther Dawn. It was the same feeling as a troublemaker student meeting the teacher.

Baishi sighed, "You don't need to study. Don't run now."

"S-Sorry~ conditioned reflex," Leafy said.

Somewhere in Selena City...

Mayonaka Yoru blended in well with the other members of the barracks. He tried to get out of the city alone, but was apprehended by warriors on patrol. He explained that he simply wanted to practice for tomorrow's trial in private. He even stated that he wanted his mate to agree to his love. The warriors all understand his desire to make their potential mates or fiancée like them. As a result, they included him in their patrol and even in their afternoon hunting.

Mayonaka Yoru and a group of warriors carrying weapons searched for an Agilisaurus in a nearby forest where only herbivore dinosaurs appeared. They are classified as agile lizard dinosaurs. They move faster than other dinosaurs and are small in comparison to other herbivore dinosaurs. But they move in a herd and as long as their necks are captured it would be hard for them to escape.

Mayonaka Yoru asked, "Brother, what does an Agilisaurus look like? I only saw a big one with a long neck that eats leaves on the top of the tree."

"That's a Brachiosaurus. No one hunts those except for first-class warriors and only do it during the winter season when they need to stock food. After all, the winter season is truly harsh and it's hard to hunt in that season."

Another warrior said, "Agilisaurus are small in size but at least the size of an adult human. Help us catch its neck and leave the rest to us, brothers. The neck is its weakness but it's too fast."

"Once we caught a few, the restaurant owner would give us free dinner. You can bring your fiancée and family over too. We always do that. That's half of the payment for catching some meat to sell."

"Okay. I will do my best." Mayonaka Yoru said.

They venture deeper into the forest and bumped into a group of five Agilisaurus. Both parties were startled and the Agilisaurus tried to run away as soon as it saw them.

Guru~~~ Grruuuu~

"Catch them, brothers!"

Mayonaka Yoru made his move, using his metal strings and even ice elements was added to his weapon. When he let go of his metal strings, it wrapped itself around the necks of the five Agilisaurus. He was nearly dragged along with them, and he had to use his beast form to keep them from fleeing. A large white wolf appeared in the forest and bit on the metal strings, preventing the dinosaurs from escaping. Even the warrior who accompanied him was taken aback by his sudden transformation. After all, he appears to be stunning, fierce, and powerful.

"Capture them!"

"Yes, boss!"

The other warriors finally made their move and killed the captured Agilisaurus. The scent of blood spread in the area but the warriors were celebrating. Mayonaka Yoru returned to his human form and the warriors pat his shoulder while laughing.

"That was fierce, brother!"

"So you are a wolf. A snow wolf."

"I can't believe we caught five of them. Usually, when we meet a herd we can only catch two to three. Hahaha~"

"I heard Snow Wolves had no problems hunting during winter. No wonder you didn't react much when I mentioned that it was hard to hunt in the winter season."

"Hehe~ I had to use my Beast Form as they almost dragged me just now. It's good that the brothers made a move before they tried to struggle more. My strength might break if that happens."

Even the boss of the hunting group pats Mayonaka Yoru's shoulder in acceptance. Such a strong warrior is welcome anywhere.

"You did well. Mission accomplished! Let's go back to the city now."

"Yes, Boss!"

Chapter 1037: First Red Star - Before the Trial.

Mayonaka Yoru had returned to the city with today's patrol and hunting team. They were dragging five Agilisaurus Dinosaurs with them as they entered the city gates. The guards at the gates welcomed them with smiles and some even joked around with the team how lucky they were that day to catch five Agilisaurus. It was quite hard to capture this type of dinosaur as they move faster than Beastman in their human form. They could barely catch one in their beast form though it would be a piece of cake for the beastman of feline type.

"Boss, you got quite a catch today. That is five. Not just the usual two Agilisaurus. Have you found them sleeping or something?" One of the gate guards said.

The boss of the patrol group said, "This is all thanks to our city guest, Mayonaka Yoru. He helped us restrain these guys so we are all able to capture them all. He said it was to train for his Mateship Trial tomorrow. He and his partner would be joining in!"

"Wow~ thought I heard about the rumors but you are indeed young yet powerful. Kid, do your best tomorrow. As long as you passed the three trials you would be allowed to get a Ceremony blessed by the Beast God. You will receive the blessing of having a mate connected to your soul. It's one of a kind." The other guard said

They are too welcoming towards Yoru as not only he had treated them honestly but also helped them with hunting. He is a strong Beastman Wolf who is not only an ice wielder but also a warrior himself. What they didn't know is that the werewolf race is a warrior tribe. Hunting and fighting is something they do even as a cub.

Mayonaka Yoru asked, "There are three trials?"

"Hm? You didn't know. You are supposed to have a guide from the Great Elder."

"Well, I wanted to check the situation outside the city alone for information. The rest of my group must have met with the guide if there is one." Mayonaka Yoru said.

The Patrol Team's leader said, "They might be at the restaurant or at the cafe or maybe at the library. Let's complete the mission so you can go find them afterwards. By then you can go ahead and treat them to dinner after we finish the mission."

"Thanks, Boss." Mayonaka Yoru said and so he accompanied the patrol team at Dino Resto to complete the mission of gathering ingredients. All members of the Patrol Team can have free dinner with their family or friends only for today.

Mayonaka Yoru separated from the Patrol Team and guessed where his partner and younger siblings were. Since it was still before dinner, he guessed that he must be in the Library. Even though his wife loves to drink coffee, he loves to spend time reading more. The two of them like to spend the afternoon reading a book together.

As expected in the Library only his lover, Esther Dawn remains. He was surrounded by a book at the corner of the library quietly reading. He hugged him from behind. At first, Esther Dawn stiffened in shock but instantly calmed down when he smelled the familiar scent of winter flower camelia coming from the person who hugged him. Only one person in this world had this scent of flowers.

Esther Dawn said, "You're back. How is your investigation?"

"It went well. I saw those dinosaurs close up after joining the Patrol Team. Where are the others?" Mayonaka Yoru asked.

Esther Dawn replies, "Carnelian, felt tired reading and was bored so he brought the rest away to find some snacks." He passed the encyclopedia of dinosaurs to his lover and said, "Read this. It should have covered common dinosaurs and uncommon ones."

"That's useful. Pudding, after helping them in the mission I got a reward to bring the family to a restaurant to eat dinner. It will only be effective in the evening today. Do you want to try dinosaur meat?" Mayonaka Yoru said.

Esther Dawn nods and said, "Our guides said it was delicious. It made me kind of interested in how it tasted. Let's go tonight with everyone."

"I will bring you guys over for dinner tonight." Mayonaka Yoru said and suddenly recalled about the information he got from the aborigines regarding the trial. "I've also asked around. They've said that the trial had three stages and it was done by the pair. The first two stages are easy. I only need to capture you a dinosaur while you have to cook it for us to eat. The last trial is a bit special. We are told to enter the Forest of Illusions and find each other."

"Forest of Illusions? I kind of read something about it. It's a special forest that sees through someone's heart. Any secrets about the couples would be revealed and it caused more breakup than harmony between couples. I don't mind coming here but... You already knew most about me. How about you? Do I know everything about you, Yoru?" Esther Dawn said.

Mayonaka Yoru hugged from behind and was silent. He laid his chin on Esther's shoulder and whispered, "You know about the present me ever since we met in the Templar Temple. As for the past, it wasn't such a good memory but since you wanted to know I can tell you everything."

"Our Tribe was extinct except for me and Conri. He is my younger by blood. It was the Templar Temple who destroyed it. To be exact, it was Kenan Light who came on purpose because he needed our fur. As a White Fenrir, our bodies were born with light elements. I'm as special as I can use both Ice and Light elements. Those who wore our fur would be able to wield light elements. That's why our tribe was hunted."

Esther Dawn already knew that Mayonaka Yoru and Conri Lycaon were biological brothers but he didn't expect for their tribe to be destroyed by Kenan Light himself. There had always been a rumor about Kenan Light the direct disciple of the Founder not being able to wield Light elements like his elder brother, Luciel Dawn. He was just born as an ordinary person. It was only due to Keylan Light's kindness that he accepted such a child as his disciple when Luciel Dawn had rejected him.

"So it was true that Kenan Light wasn't capable of using holy elements. That's why he used illegal means to get this power. So how did he get his abilities as the Pope? I heard his light elements are said to be pure and powerful." Esther Dawn asked.

Mayonaka Yoru explained, "That's because that power wasn't originally his but the Founder's. He killed him and took his core then implanted it on his body. Because of that, he was able to use light elements like no ordinary priest. Moreover, he used his disciples as ingredients to increase his power. He stole their abilities for himself and then killed them. If not for Uncle Luc escaping Asher Dawn and his ending would be the same as the other disciple of that evil man."

"He is disgusting and evil to the core. He not only killed his teacher but also his disciples? Is that even a human? No wonder he ended up becoming a devil in the end." Esther Dawn said.

Mayonaka Yoru said, "It was Lord Fenrir Skoll who saved me and Yue. Later on, the King wanted to adopt us both but I declined as I wanted to infiltrate the Templar Temple and destroy it from the inside. So after I reached adulthood I entered the Temple as an orphan. That's why he is now called Conri Lycaon instead of Mayonaka Yue. To remove Conri's connection to our original tribe the King sealed his memories of the past and even made sure he wouldn't remember that he is a snow wolf. In the temple, I also hid the fact that I am a White werewolf, didn't I?"

"Eventually I meet you there and feel for you. I even chose to forget my original objective when I first came to the Templar Temple and wanted to help you look for your father. I was lucky. That he is still alive when I found him, Uncle Luc."

Out of nowhere Esther Dawn suddenly turned around and hugged his lover. All this time he didn't know how much Yoru had suffered. His whole family and tribe was slaughtered by humans for their fur that had gone extinct. He had intention to get revenge on humans but he suddenly fell in love with him and even became his Luna. It was only because he is his Fated Luna that Yoru even chose to lay down his weapon against humans all because of him.

Esther Dawn said, "I'm sorry. If not because of me you would have completed your revenge. But don't forget, I will always be on your side. I will help you kill Kenan Light who has now become a Devil."

Mayonaka Yoru hugs his love tightly in his embrace. After sacrificing everything for love, he now has someone to become his family and even someone who will help him achieve his goal in life. His Luna and his Love, he is thankful that his destined one is someone like Esther Dawn. A lovely person who is not only intelligent but also quite powerful.

"Okay. I will be with you until the end, Este-chan."

The two were lovey-dovey even when the other children had returned. After learning about what Mayonaka Yoru had done, they were surprised that he had indeed gone out of the city and with the Patrol Hunting Team of the city. They were even excited about the Dino Restaurant they had plans on dropping by too for dinner. Now they have reservations thanks to Mayonaka Yoru. They only need to bring themselves to be able to eat the delicacy made of dinosaur meat.

When the night falls, under the lead of Mayonaka Yoru and Esther Dawn, they bump into the other members of the patrol team who brought their families with them. These uncles immediately recognized Mayonaka Yoru and greeted him and his companions with a smile.

"Yo! It's Yoru. You came over early, that's good. The owner had reserved rooms for us."

Then they noticed Ester Dawn holding Mayonaka Yoru's hand and the other children behind him. They even recognize the disciples of the Great Elder Tuya, Baishi and Leafy.

"Is that your future mate?"

Ether Dawn greeted them politely. "Nice to meet everyone. Thank you for taking care of Yoru. I hope he didn't make it bad for you when you brought him out of the city."

"Little Saozi, there is no need for thanks. Brother Yoru and even helped us with hunting. He is very powerful and his beast form is pretty. I'm sure he will satisfy you as his mate."

"I know, Brothers. I will keep him by my side until the end."

"Hahaha~ Brother Yoru, you got quite a fierce mate."

"Hmp! Of course. My future wife is the best!"

Hahahahaha~ their laughter caught everyone's attention but they were all smiles as they overheard their conversation. The Beastmen who are in love are more sarcastic than others when showing off their mate. This kind of boisterous laughter is normal especially when friends meet each other.

"Well, even Leafy and Brother Baishi are here. This dinner party would be a party to behold."

Chapter 1038: First Red Star - Other World's Circumstances

In the original world of Vampires, Werewolves, and humans...

Fenrir Skoll and Cassius Ambrosia are still attending classes and working on a daily basis.

The only difference was that the Elite Class's core leaders were all on vacation, and Instructor Keylan Light was not present. Instructor Randall Ruid and Instructor Luther D'Arcy were also unavailable for some reason, so the Elite Class had a new pair of Instructors. They are Zhi Yue and Zhi Yang, respectively.

These are the two systems that have taken on humanoid forms in order to train the rest of the Elite Class while the formal instructors are unavailable. Instructor Skoll was supposed to be on duty to teach these children while the three regular Instructors were unavailable; however, this man is uninterested in teaching and has ordered the two systems to take his place.

After learning the origin of the souls through the vessels of Randall Ruid and Luther D'Arcy, Headmaster Cassius Ambrosia was already aware of the existence of the two systems. He was aware that they could assume a form that was neither human nor beast. A tiny moon and a tiny sun. He only saw them once, when they were replenishing the kitchen ingredients. When he went to get a cup of water, the sun and moon were hovering around his open fridge.

Since Fenrir Skoll replaced the ingredients and even the house's water source, he who couldn't stomach mortal food was unable to eat or drink with the ingredients prepared by Fenrir in the mansion's kitchen. He wasn't surprised to see a floating tiny moon and sun, and he even teleported in that split second to catch them and run back to the bedroom to ask Fenrir Skoll what they were. The latter had only then formally introduced the two creations he had made for himself.

Cassius Ambrosia found it difficult to believe that these two things were high-tech beings.

They weren't robots or mere AI because these systems had a humanoid form and their abilities were comparable to those of mortals. Cassius took a while to accept these two, and now their Big Boss has sent them away to babysit mortal children. They still taught them combat techniques and gave them hands-on fighting experience. As created Gods, this task is simple, so the two Systems took their time and entertained the world's mortals.

On the other hand, they were not told where the Lord Gods had sent the two wardens. In this world, they couldn't even find them. Nonetheless, these two devoted systems carried out their orders and returned as soon as the classes were over. However, the Lord God was not present for some reason, and only Lord Hei's Soul Fragment, Cassius Ambrosia, was waiting for them in the mansion.

"Master, where is Lord Skoll?" asked Zhi Yang to his lord. Like how Zhi Yue serves the Lord God, he serves Lord Hei as well. Thus he called him Master most of that time instead of the lord.

Cassius Ambrosia who was reading a book heard his question and replied, "He said he wanted to check about something. He left the Academy so check on Kenan Light."

"Eh? Why would he do that alone? He can't interfere further in this world anymore. After killing that being, the Divine Laws started to restrain him in this world." Zhi Yue said innocently while munching on the desserts placed on the table in the living room. Cassius Ambrosia allowed him to eat anything he wished.

Cassius Ambrosia was piqued by Zhi Yue's words. His werewolf wouldn't even respond unless he asked him. Furthermore, the countless dreams he had recently appear to be memories rather than dreams. However, his personality in those dreams is quite different. The 'him' in the dream would smile mischievously as if everything is entertaining despite the coldness of the depths of his argent irises.

Obviously, he was only smiling on the outside while feeling nothing on the inside. His true emotions would only emerge when he was confronted with Fenrir Skoll at the time. He would also be overjoyed to see his children and family. He was also slightly concerned about his friends. He is clearly a man with feelings. How come the 'him' can't feel much right now while looking to others except Fenrir Skoll?

Cassius Ambrosia spoke in this world this much is rare itself. As he usually opens his mouth when he talks to his werewolf. "Divine Laws? What are those? Is it different from the laws designated by this world's heavens?"

"It's different, Master. Heavenly Laws are the will of laws in each world while the Divine Laws are laws of the universe. It can affect any world and it only targets Gods and Goddesses that have gone out of bounds. But please don't worry, for powerful Gods like Lord God Ye the punishment he would receive would only mean restraining his power to avoid him destroying worlds as he pleases." Explained Zhi Yang.

Zhi Yue said, "Moreover, the Master's soul is also already complete. It wouldn't affect his soul as much as he is one of the Peak beings in existence."

"Then... How about me?" Cassius Ambrosia asked.

When this question was posed, both systems shut down because they didn't know how to properly explain things. They simply couldn't say, 'You are a soul fragment, so you are currently weak in comparison to most gods.' Silence descended in the room, alerting Cassius Ambrosia to the fact that these two were contemplating how to explain things to him. Obviously, they are not permitted to speak about the entire truth, and he was also afraid of his other half punishing them.

Cassius Ambrosia said, "Take your time to decide. This Lord has a lot of time."

They decided to change the topic. "Lord Cassius, I heard you want to leave this world with the Lord God. Do you know why you are unable to die in this world?" Zhi Yue asked discreetly.

A slight frown appeared on Cassius Ambrosia's face and said, "You know that I can't die in this world?"

"Yes. After all, this world exists because of you. Master the source of power and existence of this world is because of you. This world was created by your powers for you to live into. Even the Heavenly Laws full of the will of humans of this world wanted to help you to fulfill your wish, but he had no authority to do so. As you have an Authority above him. That's why even though the Heavenly Laws and his messenger are currently not in this world, this world continues to exist before you are here." Zhi Yang said.

Cassius Ambrosia was a bit bewildered but thinking about his partner's powerful existence then as his other half his existence must one heavenly defying as well. Then he recalled that day when the world was destroyed he clearly felt nothing during the destruction.

"When A'Xia almost destroyed the world I didn't feel anything." Cassius Ambrosia said.

Zhi Yang said, "Master, you are unable to feel pain. It had always been this way." Except when the Lord God harms you.

"This world exists for me and I can't leave it as it couldn't live on its own. How to remove my connection to this world then? If the connection is gone would that mean I can freely leave with A'Xia if that happens?"

Tons of questions appeared in his mind, Cassius Ambrosia had no choice but to ask every single thing to these two who might be capable of giving answers to his queries.

Zhi Yue said, "My Lord there is only one way to remove your influence in the world. That is to make someone take your place. The most compatible one to take your role is the man behind Keylan Light who is also the Heavenly Laws of this world. He must be the one to save this world from the predicament called Kenan Light. As long as the two lords don't get involved in the war too much this world would lean to its new owner."

"But to do this, Master, you have to live in this world for a longer time. Hiding and not getting involved with the world itself. This is why Lord Skoll is asking us to train the children and make them stronger. Because he never had any intention of helping them fight their war. Master... you also need to let go." Zhi Yang said.

"I don't mind hiding and not getting involved but... I don't want to do it alone. I'm so bored. So very bored~" murmured Cassius Ambrosia as a glint of insanity flashed within those silver eyes making the two systems tremble instinctively. But this negative emotion disappeared in a split second making Zhi Yue and Zhi Yang question themselves if they had seen something or nothing at all.

Out of nowhere, Fenrir Skoll appeared and hugged Cassius Ambrosia from behind. He must have overheard their conversation in the latter sentences and said, "I will be with you until the end. If I'm with you, you wouldn't have to get bored right?"

Joy flashes through Cassius Ambrosia's silver eyes this time. Unlike the previous instance, his happiness at this time lasts a long time. He wouldn't be bored as long as Fenrir Skoll is nearby. After all, a bored

God of Destruction would also seek Ruin. That's what Fenrir Skoll hoped to avoid. After all, destroying this world while his wife's soul is still connected to it would be detrimental to his soul.

Cassius Ambrosia, with the corners of his lips slightly upturned, lost interest in the book in his hand and smiled at Fenrir Skoll.

"You're back. Welcome home, A'Xia." Cassius Ambrosia said.

Fenrir Skoll grins happily and kisses his wife's forehead and responds, "I'm back, Baby."

Zhi Yue and Zhi Yang fell on one knee and bowed before Fenrir Skoll.

"Welcome back, Milord!"

Fenrir Skoll sat beside his wife, one of his arms on the couch behind Cassius Ambrosia in a possessive stance. As he examines the two systems, his smile fades. This is a cold man who only loves and cares about one person in this world. Regarding the rest, regardless of who they are, his demeanor would remain apathetic.

"The training is done. How are those brats?" The Werewolf Ancestor asked.

Zhi Yang answered, "They were trained to be able to at least kill a Demon Soldier-ranked devil. They can only kill as Demon Lords as a group."

"But since all the heirs are gone, they were having a hard time choosing their leader. With the heirs around to lead they still feel awkward working with the other races." Zhi Yang said.

Fenrir Skoll was a bit pissed at how annoying these brats are. If they don't get stronger how can they defeat Kenan Light who already possessed the strength of a Demon God? The demon commander, Lemuel Elon, had also gotten stronger and is now a Demon King in power alone.

"Start the War Stimulation Training. As long as they get used to being on the brink of danger, they will know that rank, race, and standing aren't important on the battlefield."

"Milord, do we let them die and revive immediately or..." Zhi Yue was asking if he can immediately revive the students who will die during the Stimulation Training or wait for them to suffer more pain and let them feel what real death on the battlefield is before reviving them.

"Let them suffer as much as possible. But make sure they don't destroy themselves." Fenrir Skoll said.

Cassius Ambrosia suggested, "Just cast a spell to support their mind so that no matter how many times they die or how painful it is to die that way, they won't end up breaking."

Such a ruthless and unsympathetic comment made the three other men look at Cassius Ambrosia in silence. After all, it's been a while since they heard these kinds of words from him. Such coldness and devil may care attitude had always been Lord Hei's personality. They were caught off guard that they would hear it from Cassius Ambrosia who is only Lord Hei's Soul Fragment.

Chapter 1039: First Red Star - Evening Feast and the danger brought by the World Eater.

While those left behind in the original world discussed how to torture the Elite Class students with training, those in the Primitive World were now inside the Dinosaur Restaurant to eat dinner. Aside from public tables, the diner had private rooms, and those who assisted with gathering ingredients were assigned a room per family. Mayonaka Yoru was assigned a room, and his group was kept busy by their guides Baishi and Leafy.

The restaurant owner personally thanked Mayonaka Yoru after learning that his restaurant had received five whole Agilisaurus Dinosaurs thanks to him. He was usually content with one or two. Five is an unusual case. As a result, as the restaurant owner, he will not have to give a gathering mission for at least a month.

All kinds of dinosaur meat cuisine were served to them, including the anime meat Luffy of On* Pi*ce enjoys eating. Salads, soups, and rice are also available. Those who hadn't eaten all day couldn't help but drool and gulp when they saw this feast. A hotpot and samgyupsal set is also delivered to their table. All they had to do was put what they wanted to eat in the pot and grill what they wanted to eat.

Only Amber Dawn looked surprised at how similar this type of cooking appeared before her eyes. Hotpot and Samgyupsal were things only cooked on Earth, and she wondered if one of the world's founders was a transmigrator like her. A genuine one, not one who has simply returned to where she came from. But, having lived in a world called Earth, she was aware of things that his family and friends were unaware of.

Esther Dawn asked, "I understand the use of the grill but... A pot of empty soup? Can this be eaten?"

"Brother! That's a hotpot. You saw the ingredients around it, you only need to dip whatever you want into the soup and wait for it to boil a bit then you can eat. You can throw whatever you want in the pot and eat whatever you put in it." Amber Dawn explained.

Carnelian Dawn said, "So this is a hotpot. That sounds amazing~"

"Watch out, A'Lian! That pot is extremely hot. What do you want to eat? I'll put it in the pot for you." Conri Lycaon said.

Carnelian Dawn honestly pointed at the meatballs and some veggies rolls, "That! That one too!"

"Okay. Stay in the distance. I will cook it for you. Amy, teach me how to do it?" Conri Lycaon said.

Amber Dawn heard her friend's request and taught him how to do it while putting all of the ingredients she wanted to eat in the pot. Esther Dawn was also interested in their conversation and listened in. Mayonaka Yoru and Asher Light, who only knew how to fry and grill food, stayed at the Samgyupsal corner and assisted with the grilling of the various types of meat. Not only was dinosaur meat served, but also pork, beef, and chicken. There is, of course, seafood like shrimp, crabs, lobsters, etc.

The majority of them are preoccupied with cooking and eating. Baishi and Leafy, the two guides, had their heads almost merging with their bowls as they ate their fill without hesitation. They knew that for a reserved table like this, each serving is almost considered unlimited until one is full. They don't have to worry about the bill because it's free.

Amber Dawn, who knew everything there was to know about food, taught her siblings and friends how to cook hotpot and eat samgyupsal properly. She showed them how to wrap the meat, rice, cheese, and other ingredients in lettuce and gave them each a bite. Carnelian Dawn prefers the hotpot, whereas her older brother prefers the warped ones and even made some for his lover. It was a very filling and satisfying dinner. They all left the restaurant with bloated stomachs.

Baishi and Leafy accompanied them to the Great Elder's residence and then left. Carnelian Dawn and Leafy, who had similar personalities, had gotten along well during the day, despite their bickering the majority of the time. As expected, these two were the first to fall asleep and had to be carried back by their partners.

Baishi who was carrying Leafy the sleeping Leafy on his back said, "This is the Great Elder's house. Just go in, she and your teacher should be waiting for you inside. Good luck in tomorrow's trails."

"Thanks for today, Baishi and Leafy." Esther Dawn said.

Asher Light said, "It was such an enjoyable day! Be careful on your way back."

"See you again tomorrow." Conri Lycaon said while Carnelian Dawn was also sleeping in his arms after being carried like a child in his embrace.

These two men exchanged glances, both of them looking helpless. They couldn't help but feel each other's pain when it came to their partners, especially since they are so similar.

"We'll keep an eye on your trials, and I wish you luck!" Baishi said as he walked away from his sleeping partner.

"Let's go in so those who are tired and asleep can rest," Mayonaka Yoru said.

Only then did their group enter the house, where they were greeted by an elderly lady and their Instructor Keylan Light, who was lying on the ground unused. There are numerous bottles of wine in the living room, and the strong aroma of wine pervades the space.

Great Elder Tuya said, "You guys are back. Great timing, your rooms are prepared."

"One more bottle. Just one more~" murmured Keylan Light in his drunken state.

Mayonaka Yoru said, "How much did your drink end up like this?" He is complaining about Instructor Keylan Light's current state.

Asher Light sighed and used Purification Spell on his teacher, Keylan Light to make him somber, "Do you want me to cast Purification Spell on you as well, Elder?"

"Hm~ Yes, please. Thank you!" Great Elder Tuya said.

The effects of wine faded after the Holy Son cast the Purification Spell on the two who drank. Wines and liquors are poisonous to the human body. The Great Elder Tuya only had to wave his hand for all of the wine bottles in the living room to vanish, and even the lingering aroma had faded.

Amber Dawn asked, "Are you alright now?"

"Yes, thank you. Don't worry," said Instructor Keylan Light.

Conri Lycaon asked, "Instructor, did the Lord with you haven't returned yet?"

"Hmp! Who cares about him? He didn't even bring me with him?" Keylan Light said, pouting.

Great Elder Tuya chuckled and said, "Come on. Let those old men talk on their own. They will be back tomorrow anyway."

"Who cares about him?!" Keylan Light said.

Tuya, the Great Elder said to the children. "You must have heard a lot about the trial from the people you met today. Do you still have something to ask this old lady about?"

"One question. Elder, does anyone die in this trial?" Esther Dawn asked.

Great Elder Tuya smiled at Esther Dawn and said, "Such a bright child. You still worry about the young ones beside you even at this point. Of course, there are no deaths. The trial is there to know the compatibility of the couple. If they fail they can try again until they succeed or choose another partner to try again. This is just a simple trial of love and destiny. There won't be any danger in the trial itself. Well unless one seeks death or something."

"Because of the savage beast outside? Those are dinosaurs who are carnivorous and have bad tempers." Esther Dawn said.

"Great child! You also know about the Savage Beasts! That's amazing. You found the most important information in the library alone. You are right! Savage Beast is dangerous. They eat whatever that comes before them. This is regardless of whether they are humans, animals, or dinosaurs. But don't worry they won't approach the city as the Beast God's Blessing is strongest in this place." The Great Elder Tuya explained.

Conri Lycaon asked, "But what if an outsider divinity interfered, would you be able to fight it? Our world had something from the outside that got involved in our world. I saw its appearance when Lord Skoll pulled it out from the body of A'Lian."

"What kind of creature is it? That Lord Meizhou had to get involved!?"

"It looks like an eye. Its irises are blood red. It can speak a language. It's mad for all negative emotions in the world and it says it loves to eat worlds. Does the Great Elder know what this being is?" Conri Lycaon asked.

The rest listened to their conversation and were dumbfounded. They can only listen yet not understand the content of their conversation. It was at this moment that Mikaela suddenly appeared behind Conri Lycaon.

Mikaela said, "I will borrow this child for a moment." Then he disappeared with Conri Lycaon while Carnelian Dawn was given to Esther Dawn before they disappeared.

Keylan Light reached out his hand but still failed to catch Mikaela making him angry, "Ah! Bastard! How can you ignore me!?"

Mayonaka Yoru asked worriedly as the one who disappeared is his younger brother, "Instructor Keylan! Where is my younger brother?"

"Don't worry, child. The Gods just borrowed him for a bit. But that being he told us... Where have I heard it before..." Great Elder Tuya said. She suddenly fell deep in her thoughts as she tried to recall where she had read or heard that description of the being Conri Lycaon had done just now.

Keylan Light said, "You guys take a rest and go to sleep. Student Conri is safe. He will be back later."

The children exchanged glances, and Esther Dawn even grabbed his lover's hands in comfort. They knew they couldn't go into the place Conri Lycaon was dragged into, but they had no idea where it was.

"Yoru, let's go. Conri will be back. He will be fine. Lord Mikaela is with him. Nothing will happen to him," Esther Dawn said quietly.

Sigh!

"All right, let's go rest," Mayonaka Yoru said as he assisted his lover in carrying the youngest to the guest rooms. They didn't even inquire as to how the previously non-existent guest rooms are now appearing. They simply slept the rest of the night away.

In the Domain of the Beast God...

Mikaela had reappeared, accompanied by Conri Lycaon. The child was taken aback by the white room covered in clouds into which he had unexpectedly appeared. He even saw an old man dressed in barbarian garb in a history book. He didn't appear thin, but rather like a muscular grandfather.

Beast God spoke, "Is this the child that saw the World Eater remnants? I'm amazed he is alive."

"Sovereign Ruler Ye was there so... They saved my world," Mikaela said.

Beast God smiled at Conri Lycaon and said, "Child, come over. Join us to sit here. This old man just had a few questions. I heard you were the nearest to Lord God Ye when your mate's body was possessed by that evil thing."

Conri Lycaon approached them with caution and sat at the same table as the two Gods. He recognized the Old Man as the Beast God right away because he already knew Lord Mikaela was the Heavenly God of his world. He wasn't afraid of them because, in comparison to Lord Skoll's natural pressure, they were relatively mild.

"Please ask. I will try my best to answer." Conri Lycaon said politely.

The Beast God Shou asked, "Can we directly see your memories for a clear image? Of course, It wouldn't cause harm to you or your memories. This old man just wants to see what that creature looks like."

"Then please go ahead." Conri Lycaon said as lowered his head.

He only felt a big hand falling on his head and a slight dizzy struck him. When he looked up he saw an image of what happened that day. It was from the perspective of how he experienced and saw that being.

"So this what happened? When I arrived on the scene the world was already about to be destroyed and Lord God Ye was enraged." Mikaela said

Beast God Shou asked, "Isn't this creature fearless? He is taunting the Evilest God in existence. That's the God of Void there."

"That thing was never afraid of anything. It feeds on the world and was almost extinct when the Ancient Gods decided to exterminate it. But it seems some of it had escaped and now started coming out as well. I guess we need to guard our world closely and prevent such things from entering our world." Mikaela stated.

Beast God Shou remarked, "We should inform the other worlds' Heavenly Laws as well. As for Whether they believe it or not depends on themselves."

Conri Lycaon suddenly felt immense fear towards that thing in Lord Skoll's hand as he dragged that evil creature that appeared before his face. It was a fear that came straight from his soul. The two Gods noticed his unusual reaction and put him to sleep.

Beast God Shou frowned, "It seems that seeing the direct body of that creature causes madness in mortals. It shouldn't exist at all if this is the case."

"You are right. I will inform you about this to Lord God Ye when we return." Mikaela said his face doesn't look good either.

Chapter 1040: First Red Star - Brothers' Conversation and the Trial's Three Stages

Mikaela returned Conri Lycaon to the house of the Great Elder after he awoke and then vanished somewhere. Mayonaka Yoru was waiting for him to return after his lover had gone to bed with his younger brother. He was passing the time outside the house by smoking a cigarette. Mayonaka Yoru wasn't surprised when Conri Lycaon appeared out of nowhere in front of her house.

Whooshed!

Mayonaka Yoru said, "You're back." Observing any traces of wounds or scent of blood on him, and finding none made this elder brother relieved.

"You are worrying too much, Brother." Conri Lycaon said.

"How did your memories return?" asked Mayonaka Yoru.

Silence descended in the area as Conri Lycaon did not respond immediately and reflected on how he had recalled his memories. Finally, he simply answered his elder brother honestly and told him what had happened.

Conri Lycaon said, "Actually, I didn't know what happened. That thing possessing the body of A'Lian at that time was too powerful. I just wanted to keep his body unharmed but also wanted to kill the one inside his body. That being was too powerful for me that even if I use my beast form he can defeat me so easily. Just when I thought I was going to die, the memories which I should have forgotten flashed in my mind. Before I knew it all my memories had returned and also awakened our bloodline as a Snow Wolf."

"That means your bloodline was triggered by being on the brink of death. Your abilities wanted to prevent you from dying and thus awakened on its own. I heard history about it in our family who would have thought it would happen to you." Mayonaka Yoru pressed his cigarette on the stone to kill the fire.

Then he suddenly asked his younger brother, "Don't you hate me? I mean... I left you behind with the King. You grew up thinking you are an orphan and I failed you as your older brother. Yue, you should hate me."

"It would be a lie if I say I didn't hate you for it but... Brother, I know you left me in my foster father's care because you can't protect me on your own. Moreover, to avoid me being targeted by the Templar Temple, you can only seal my bloodline and head to that den of thieves on your own. You wanted to take revenge for our tribe right? Since I am too young you didn't want me to be with you in that hell. Brother, I understand your circumstances and that's why... I don't hate you as you think I am." Conri Lycaon said.

Mayonaka Yoru's face turned grim as he even avoided meeting the eyes of his brother.

"I even failed our revenge. There is no way you don't have hatred or rage in your heart."

"Brother, I don't hate you. I know your hardship and I also know the importance of Luna in our lives. Sometimes their existence is above family or equal. I know you decided to leave the Templar Temple because of Brother Este's father and to be able to stay by your Luna's side." Conri Lycaon said.

It was only when Mayonaka Yoru heard these words that he believed his brother understood his situation and for him to accept so easily meant he truly knows what the feeling of having a Luna is.

Mayonaka Yoru asked, "That youngest of the Dawn Siblings..."

"He is my Luna. Not Amy... But Carnelian."

"Then the Imprint Crest before is because she used to live in his sister's body while her soul is away?"

"Yes, I also thought I lost him completely then... Only when Lord Keylan Light explained that the reappearance of the Crest is because he is alive. Since he lost his body the traces of our soul connection was left behind on the vessel he used to have." Conri Lycaon said.

Mayonaka Yoru stood up and patted his younger brother's head. "Okay, enough. Go in, it's cold out here. Let me take back your brother-in-law for a bit so you can sleep with your Luna."

But as soon as they entered the house Esther Dawn was waiting for them with his arms crossed and languid eyes staring at Yoru.

"Are you brothers done talking? Yawns~" asked Esther Dawn.

Mayonaka Yoru smiles naturally towards his partner, "It's done. Let's go to sleep, Este-chan~"

Esther Dawn looked at Conri Lycaon and said, "The water is ready. Take a dip to remove the coldness in your body and go to sleep as soon as possible. There will be a tough thing to do tomorrow."

"I will. Thank you and Goodnight, brothers." Conri Lycaon walked silently towards the room where Carnelian Dawn was sleeping while the other pair went to another vacant room to take their rest. As for their seniors, Great Elder Tuya and Keylan Light, they are nowhere to be found. They might have gone out somewhere.

Unbeknownst to them, a man in a pure white robe with his face hidden beneath a veiled hat and a black jaguar with golden patterns appeared above the house. For some reason, neither the Beast God nor Mikaela were aware of their presence in the world.

The man in a white robe said, "I've seen them. Let's go back."

"Sure. The house must be prepared by now." The black jaguar with golden spots said.

The two figures above the house of the Great Elder had vanished in an instant. Tuya and Keylan Light, who had been hiding their presence, appeared unexpectedly. They apparently decided to hide in order for the person staring at them from a distance to reveal themselves.

Keylan Light asked, "Do you recognize them?"

"No. Even though their aura seems familiar, I haven't met these two before. But who would have thought they would choose to live in the Original Tribe's Territory? That place is supposed to be surrounded by formation preventing outsiders not connected to the Original Solune Tribe from entering." Great Elder Tuya said.

Keylan Light asked, "Doesn't that mean they are connected to the founders?"

"Maybe or maybe not. But even I am not capable of entering the Original Tribe's Territory. I will have to report this to the Beast God." Great Elder Tuya said.

Keylan Light said, "I will go with you to pick up someone."

These two also disappeared on the spot and they seem to head to the Domain of the Beast God. As his messenger, Tuya is capable of entering her Lord's domain. With Keylan Light accompanying her, they head to where the Beast God resides.

When the sun has finally risen to the sky once again, morning arrives...

Today is a busy and important day. Because today is the last day of the Beast God's Trial for Mates. The event was orchestrated by none other than the Great Elder Tuya. She is also the Beast God's messenger. The sounds of fireworks can be heard everywhere in the morning, but due to the bright sky, these fireworks were almost hidden by the morning sky.

All of the couples had gathered in an open area, holding hands. In the group, only the Asher Light arrived on the scene. They saw the Great Elder, Tuya, on a stone stage ahead of them.

Leading the event while holding a microphone.

Great Elder Tuya announced, "A pleasant morning to everyone. Today is the Chosen moment for our couples to accept their trials for love and mateship. But before that let us welcome a guest host who is also a great friend from another world. The Elemental Light God's Messenger, Keylan Light!"

Amber commented, "She looks like the lead emcee in some kind of variety show."

"Emcee? Variety show?" Asher Light asked bewildered. In their world, there was no such thing as artists or actors.

Amber Dawn replied, "That was something like a show in the world I came from."

"Quiet. Focus on the contents of the Trail. We are to move in pairs, not in groups, to make sure to remember what is needed to be remembered." Esther Dawn said.

The other four answered the call of the second eldest among the group, "Yes, brother!"

Keylan Light, who arrived on the scene with white wings on his back, was a special guest who was going to join her in overlooking the trials for this event. The other Beastmen mistook him for a bird-type beastman until the Great Elder Tuya introduced him as another God's messenger, similar to her.

"Woa~ another messenger of God! That's amazing!"

"Wait! I recall that there was a man beside this senior when we first saw them in that forest. Don't tell me that an Esteemed Being is a God!?"

"A God had descended. A God had descended. I have seen God!"

There is an uproar from the sidelines, where the audience has gathered to watch the trial. Those who wanted to watch the couples go through their trials could do so from a safe distance, but they couldn't help the couple. They can, however, cheer them on. Keylan Light took the microphone from the Great Elder Tuya and announced something he heard Mikaela have said.

"Nice to meet everyone! As a special guest of this world, my Elemental Light God gave a promise to the Beast God. He would give his blessing to the mates who would be successful in their trials and give you the ability to wield light elements as an extra gift from him."

This announcement startled everyone in the area with the exception of the group led by Esther Dawn after all most of them can already wield light elements as their primary ability.

"Wow! Is this for real!?"

"That's a rare element. They can give it away just like that!?"

"Wow! So our visitor God is a Light God. I'm so envious that such a rare gift was given away as a prize. Look at the couples on the field. They all wanted to win such a gift!"

"Who wouldn't want to?! That's Light Elements! You can instantly become a healer with that element."

On the other hand, the people of this world thought light-based abilities were uncommon. Not only can it heal, but it can also purify their food and water, keeping them disease-free. Doctors and priests are a rare occupation in this world, and only those who follow the witch doctor awakened such abilities. They can, as long as they complete the trial, receive the free ability of light with Mikaela's blessing. Light Elements are the most powerful and his specialty in his world. That is why Keylan Light has been chosen as his messenger, as their compatibility is the greatest of all creations in his world.

The Great Elder Tuya was given the microphone back and began explaining the events of the trials.

"Most of you guys already knew about the Trial but since we have guests included in the participants I shall explain what the trial is all about."

"The Trial of Love has three stages. The first stage is to capture any Dinosaurs in the wild and bring them over to your partner or you can bring your partner, work together and hunt for it as a pair. The size of the hunted prey will show how much you love your partner or each other. So choose your prey wisely. At this stage, I will judge whether your hunted prey suits you or not. If it was successful the Beast God would bring a shower of light on the pair that passed. You cannot cheat after all God is watching."

"Second Stage of the Trial of Love. Is the most simple yet hard for those who don't have a talent for it. Most couples broke up at this stage. You will have to cook what you hunted in the first stage and feed each other. The taste of your food must be able to satisfy your female Beastmen or lover, if not then you would fail as well."

"The last stage is to pass through the Forest of Illusions. As long as you come out of the forest after taking a piece of flower from the Floral Garden at the center you will be deemed passed and we will prepare for your Mateship Ceremony to receive the Blessings of the Beast God and the Elemental Light God. I hope everyone do your best!"

The City gates slowly opened when the Great Elder Tuya gestured toward the guards on standby.

"As long as you prove your love, you will pass the trials. I pray for all your success. Let the Trial Begin!!"
