

World Plot 1321

Chapter 1321: First Grey Star - Urgent Message

Lu Ming and the other two had completed their mission, and Hei Anjing and the others were ready to head back to the capital. In their mortal state, the three of them had at least crossed the threshold to become gods. They will be allowed to ascend and go from this realm if they have successfully defended against their adversity.

Their suffering would not begin until all of their karma from this life had been expended and they had nothing left to hinder them.

Not only are they young, but their planet is in jeopardy right now. The three major disasters. In The Calamity of Water, heaven perishes and a new sea god is born. Dimensional invaders that were abandoned on their territory after an artificial entry was created are the subject of The Calamity of Lan. These hardships are what the modern world is going through, barring conflict, deaths, and fighting.

And the final calamity, which involves the sky, is still unknown.

On their way back, Leica's subsystem suddenly received a message from System Yang, which itself was rare.

The Subsystem's robotic voice resounds in Leica's head, saying, [Outside Initiation found. Contact subject: System Yang. A message from System Yang had been received. Would the host like to hear it?]

Leica responded through his thoughts, 'Approved.'

[Content Message:

"Warden Yun, If Lord Hei is with you or knows his current coordinates, please pass an urgent message. Mortal Lu Wangle is in a dire state. His soul was used as a catalyst to summon Nirvana Flames and his soul was fading. The princess chooses to save the human and is now using her own phoenix flame as fuel to keep the human alive.

The Young Lord is passing his divinity to the princess to help her cope up with overusing qi. If this continues, the young lord and the princess will be in danger."

Content Message End.]

Leica wasted no time in informing his master of the issue as soon as he heard the contents of the message. As anticipated, Lord Hei's expression darkened slightly upon hearing the news.

Hei Anjing with an expressionless face, said, "Prepare for Space Teleportation. I'll open a Space Portal. Handle the other people."

"Yes, Master!" Leica said as he flew back to where the others were.

The rest rode on the back of the Sky Whale, which Lord Hei caught while fishing beneath the sea, while Hei Anjing alone rode on the back of Reine, his hybrid phoenix-dragon. Naturally, Sea God Lanyu had granted his consent. It would not be useful, though, because Hei Anjing could have taken it away for however long he desired.

Crackles!

The God of Destruction waves a palm full of cosmic laws. The region fissured inside the room in front of them. It caused a lengthy fracture in space, exposing a different area that was partially visible through the opening. Lu Ming, Su Jin, and Mo Yuhan were astounded by this scene. In fact, Ji Yoonjun was astounded as well. Very few gods were able to exert such complete dominion over space.

The Hei clan is well-known among the deity clans for having dominion over space elements.

Ji Yoonjun mumbles, "Ah, right. The Venerable Lord is a Hei."

"Wow~ what the heck is that?" Mo Yuhan exclaimed after being shocked.

Lu Ming mumbled, "I can see the capital on the other side of the crack. Is it possible for humans to achieve this kind of strength?"

"What did he just cut? The sky has a tear!" Su Jin said in disbelief.

Leica spun around and glared at them. After giving it some thought, he realized that the three brats now had a god vessel, thus a simple space crack would not kill them, so he decided to instead build a barrier to protect the three young men.

He gave them advice instead: "Hold on tight. If you got lost in space, it would take a while for you to return to your timeline," Leica said.

Terrified were the three young males. They saw innumerable universes, halls, and doors in the instant they passed through Hei Anjing's portal in the sky. The more they saw, the worse they became, and when they opened their eyes again, they were at the capital's borders and could see the now-desolate capital city, which had been devastated.

Argh~

"I feel sick~" Su Jin covered his mouth as soon as they come out of the space portal.

Lu Ming face was also pale as for Mo Yuhuan he had already run off to the side to puke.

"Are we ...here already?"

They did not notice the far-off landscape of the capital city until they had calmed down. A blaze of fire, with an infinite number of monsters emerging from the massive portal that resembled a door between the two stone pillars. The size of the monsters varies. Elements are being thrown across the battlefield by entities like angels, golems the size of buildings, and small children alike.

The race of humanoids is engaged in combat with extraterrestrial monsters. Given their extreme weakness in comparison to the other races, it is clear that this conflict is against the human race.

The celestial guards led the mankind. It is usual to see Mo Xinyue deploy ice components to dominate the field. Additionally, there is a middle man who fights like a berserker in blood and a small dwarf who is killing people with a massive hammer. Mu Zang is in the middle, leading the troops. He would use the power of sound to control them or any monsters that deviate from the planned plan.

He possesses a diminished form of Kotodama, the power that his son wielded. These talents, unlike his authority, can be rejected by a stronger will than the caster's.

Hei Anjing spoke, "I'm going to treat someone at the rear. You guys can do as you wish. This wave of monsters won't be ending soon. The space corridor of this world, the dimension of the Ruins of Time, is still filled with monsters of various kinds. Don't let your guards down." He used teleportation with Reine.

He only needs approval to bring himself and his phoenix, so there is no need to open a space portal. He disappeared on the spot.

Mo Yuhan asked, "Ah! Where did my brother go?"

"He needs to save someone. Just focus on fighting," Lu Shang said.

Lu Shang and Lu Ming noticed the Nirvana flames burning on the battlefield. They somehow guessed who Hei Anjing was planning on saving.

Lu Ming said, "This is the Fire Domain of Nirvana Flames. Did grandfather...?"

"Lord Mo had come over. He should be okay. The situation in the warzone is dire. There are too many monsters and their battle formations have been broken. You guys spread and support me for now. Leica and Su Jin, focus on saving people and healing," Lu Shang commanded.

After accepting their orders, their little company persuaded the sky whale to fly above the combat area. They saw how hazardous the battle was for humans and wanted to get involved as soon as possible. However, it would still take them at least thirty minutes to travel from their current location to the battle zone in the capital.

Hei Anjing, in the meantime, teleported to the location Zhi Yang had noted in his letter in the back. He showed up inside the tent that Lu Wangle was sleeping in, even seeing his babies' pallor. As soon as he noticed that, he grimaced.

He tricked Lu Wangle by using ice needles to close his lode gate, trapping him in a frozen state. And his soul's fading had stopped. Zhi Yang and the other two cubs were the first to notice the sudden arrival of the ice needles. When they looked around, they saw the expressionless face of Hei Anjing.

"Dad? (Dada)" The two cubs called while Zhi Yang kneeled on one knee as a show of his greatest respect to the God of Destruction.

"Greetings to the Lord!"

With a wave of his hand, Hei Anjing's two cubs shot in his direction. He gave the two cubs his qi right away to replace theirs that had been lost. The two overused their divine powers. Their squandering of this much holy energy would have summoned the punishment of heaven if it were not for the destruction of this world's heavens.

After all, outsider gods are only allowed to exert their full abilities in low-level realms. This is to prevent constant destruction of stars.

Witnessing Hei Anjing break the hold Ye Anxia had on her fire element. She was relieved, but her mental reserves were depleted, and she passed off right away. Ye Jingxia is not doing well for himself because he supported his sister's qi consumption by using himself as a battery.

Being exhausted for hours is excessive, even though he is stronger than his sister, especially since he was unable to meditate to restore his depleted aura.

Sigh

"Good work, my babies~" Hei Anjing said as he kissed his children's foreheads. His eyes were full of tenderness and love for his children.

It was unusual for the God of Destruction to show such affection. It seemed as though the person who had been silently observing in the dark was in disbelief. Yes, without the man's covert assistance, the cubs would have collapsed. Even though Ye Jingxia is a deity, his body is too young to handle the immense amount of aura that his younger sister is consuming.

From the emptiness, Tun Shizhe was keeping watch over them.

Hei Anjing passed his children to Zhi Yang and said, "Bring to rest. Stay inside the small world and protect them well."

Zhi Yang was going to say no to Lord Hei's order, but the moment he saw those silver eyes, the words vanished from his mouth. All he could do was lower his head and obey his master. Hei Anjing summoned Zhi Yang and the cubs in the small realm linked to his snowflake earring with a wave of his hand.

Hei Anjing's face went chilly as he stared out the tent's corner at the far-off darkness where they had vanished. He was aware that there was a man in the shadows observing him. It appeared that he had arrived earlier and was obviously defending his kids. Though he had an inkling as to who it was, he was pressed for time and did not want to waste it on the man.

Hei Anjing warned, "For protecting my children, you have my gratitude, but aside from that, there shouldn't be anything else. How about you leave?"

Hei Anjing frowned as he heard low giggles unexpectedly near his ears. After all, he seems uneasy. It is not good to be stared at openly from the shadows, and Hei Anjing was unable to identify this presence. It lends him a sinister, lustful, and dark atmosphere. It is far more frightening than his spouse, although it is somewhat similar.

{Alright. Since it was you who asked me to leave, I shall leave for now. We shall meet again, Hunluan~}

"Hunluan?" He mumbles in confusion. "Whatever. Let's focus on treating this old man first."

The mention of Hunluan made the God of Destruction scowl. This name felt quite familiar to him for some reason, even though he could not remember anything about it. As soon as Hei Anjing sensed that Lu Wangle's aura had vanished, he started to treat her. His soul was wounded in addition to the bodily wounds he sustained inside his body.

Hei Anjing took a long time to heal Lu Wangle since he needed to repair not just his wounded internal organs but also his failing soul. He was not limited to using the upper world's medical resources to aid Lu Wangle in activating the Phoenix's rebirth ability by stimulating his bloodline. transforming into ashes and emerging from them. An everlasting Phoenix is like that.

However, there were only two things that could be said to describe the conditions inside the dungeon while Hei Anjing was busy tending to Lu Wangle: explosions and darkness. Many automata opt to self-destruct in order to provide a brief flash of light in the shadows. These aborigines believed that this black world will vanish along with Ye Jieye.

Regretfully, their conception was incorrect. Since the God of Void is the darkness and the abyss itself, no one can find him in the dark. In the dark, no one could locate him unless he was willing to reveal himself. Well, except from his spouse.

Chapter 1322: First Grey Star - Arriving in the Warzone

Inside the Ruins of Time Dungeon

The God of Void had cast darkness over the area, where a slew of explosions and fatalities occurred. Although Ye Jieye instigated the pandemonium, he refrained from intervening in the internal disputes. These monsters can fight until they are completely destroyed on their own if he only casts a small illusion among the shadows.

The God of Void gathered with others at the door of the dimension that connects to the outside world, realizing that all had gone as planned. Ye Jieye observed Zhi Yue and Roi escorting the remaining humans along. The majority of survivors acknowledged Ye Jieye and began expressing their sincere gratitude to him.

Zhi Yue saluted, "Welcome back, Milord!"

Ye Jieye reappeared from the darkness with his usual handsome yet abstinent face. Others were left staring at the God of Void in a stupor due to the potent effect of darkness that makes him feel sacred.

"Good work. Prepare to leave this place as soon as possible. Roi, you can do as you wish with the monsters at the space corridor," Ye Jieye said.

ROAAAR~

The black dragon Roi happily flew around and roared. Thankfully, this space was isolated by Zhi Yue to protect the others from the aborigines.

Ye Jingli approached his son fearlessly and checked on him. "Ye'er, are you alright? You're not hurt somewhere?"

"I'm fine, Dad. But let's hurry and leave this place as soon as possible," Ye Jieye said.

Lu Wei said to his wife and son, "Ye'er is right. We wouldn't be truly safe until we leave this place."

"I'm worried about the others outside. A day had passed here. That means they had to fight for a whole week against the monsters of this place," Mo Banyue said.

Zhi Yue said, "If it's something like that, then Sir has nothing to worry about. Your son is outside, isn't he? Lord Mo is said to be a person able to contend with Milord's strength."

"My wife's abilities are enough to at least prevent the monsters from successfully invading our world," Ye Jieye said. "I'm more worried for myself. He must be enraged by now."

"Did something happen with my Xue'er?" Xue Keiran asked.

Ye Jieye said, "It's just that he is against me going to this place. Actually, he wasn't against me coming inside, but the process for me to return to my real body is a bit... It was something he didn't want to do at all."

"Is there a problem on the way for you to return to your real body?" Ye Jingya asked, as he was now interested in why his granddaughter-in-law would be against his grandson returning to his real body.

Ye Jieye said, "My puppet vessel outside is actually not much different from my real body except it's younger. But my soul had been confined in that vessel for years; it was hard for me to come out of that body. Moreover, my grandfather isn't there to help my soul leave the body. So..."

As if understanding the hidden meaning of his grandson's words, Ye Jingya frowned and obviously didn't approve of his choice as well.

Ye Jingya looked at his grandson with a disapproving look. "Death is the only natural way for a soul to separate from his physical body. You ask your own wife to kill you. That's absurd, you damn brat!"

"What!?" At this moment, everyone was shocked in disbelief.

Ye Jieye felt a little uncomfortable with his family members staring at him. At least he is not controlling his movements; at least there are traces of the previous Ye Jieye's attachment to his family.

"Of course not! I would never do that. I asked someone else, but... Jing'er was so against it that I hid the date I had chosen to return to my real body. I was caught by him in the end, so my wife must be extremely angry at me because of this," Ye Jieye said.

The adults don't know how to scold Ye Jieye. His arrival in this place can be said to be a hope for them to come out, but not informing his wife about his departure is also a wrong move, and he did it secretly.

Ye Jingli said, "Son, you did wrong. As a married couple, you should have a nice talk as a couple. Leaving one-sidedly like this is unfair to your wife. I know you are worried about us, but haven't you thought of how Xuejing would worry about you here inside alone, and he can only wait outside for you. Unlike your grandfather and grandfather Mu, you had no way to contact your wife.

How much do you think Xuejing would be worried about?"

"I'm wrong. I'm so worried about your state inside that I can't waste any more time," Ye Jieye said.

Mo Banyue pats his son-in-law's shoulder and says, "Actually, I feel bad for you. I know my son's temper. Well, you can say, Um. Since you are powerful there, you will be able to live."

"Anyway, good luck. Just don't die," Xue Keiran said with an angelic smile.

It appears that Hei Anjing and Mo Xuejing are somewhat similar in this universe. Without his former recollections, Mo Xuejing is rather gentle; by contrast, the one with complete memories is plainly not. It makes sense that Heavenly Guardian Mo Xinyue reacted strongly to Hei Anjing acting distant from him because he was aware of his true temper.

It appears that Lord Hei's soul fragment in this realm has the same volatile nature as he does, particularly when he becomes upset and utilizes physical force to argue.

System Yue, aware of Lord Hei's angry demeanor, chuckled at his master. It appears he was required to document the oncoming violence between the two lords.

Everyone had gone through the door after some time. To keep the aborigines from pursuing them, System Yue made sure to shut the door from the opposite side. Ye Jieye's dominion of darkness dissipated as expected the minute he left the other dimension. The world was once again filled with light.

The natives turned to face the outsider who had caused all of this, and when they saw that over half of the dead had been done so by them, they became enraged. Many of them destroyed themselves while searching for their target; sadly, they failed to locate even the tip of Ye Jieye's tail.

{The target is lost. Target is lost.}

{Initiating contact with the main body...}

{Connection not found.}

{The connection had been cut off.}

{The Main Body is experiencing error.}

{Cause of error found: Destruction in the dimension had reached the threshold.}

{The main body had entered slumber mode to heal.}

{Finding possible ways to correct the error.}

{Result found. The main body needs a large amount of world energy.}

{Initiating the invasion mission for everyone in the dimension.}

{Invasion Mission Activated!}

{The whole dimension will now undergo changes and open countless space portals connected to the nearest world.}

{Suitable Location for Invasion: Space.}

{Found the correct coordinates of the nearest world. The invasion mission is Activated!}

The nearest world found is the world that had an open connection with a space corridor. It is the current world that Hei Anjing is currently in.

Outside the Ruins of Time

The instant Hei Anjing healed Lu Wangle, the Nirvana Flames vanished completely. In the conflict zone, he was successful and suffered more as a result of the Nirvana Flame going missing. The humans were dealt yet another blow of despair when they discovered that Hei Anjing had arrived.

Those in the combat zone were unaware of Hei Anjing's coming and believed that the Nirvana Flame's loss signified the passing of Heavenly Guardian Lu Wangle.

The first ones to react to the moment the Nirvana Flame faded were the members of the Lu Clan. They couldn't hold back their tears as they fought with flesh and blood against these dimensional monsters.

"This cannot be...!"

"I don't believe it. How can the patriarch...? Ugh!"

"Avenge Heavenly Guardian Lu!!!"

"Kill all the enemies!"

The instant Hei Anjing healed Lu Wangle, the Nirvana Flames vanished completely. In the conflict zone, he was successful but suffered more as a result of the Nirvana Flame going missing. The humans were dealt yet another blow of despair when they discovered that Hei Anjing had arrived.

Those in the combat zone were unaware of Hei Anjing's coming and believed that the Nirvana Flame's loss signified the passing of Heavenly Guardian Lu Wangle.

The abrupt vanishing of the Nirvana Flame startled even Heavenly Guardian Mu Zang, the commander. He understood that to indicate that the powers of the forbidden magic had run out since Lu Wangle, the one who had called forth the Nirvana Flame, had died and expended all of his life.

Heavenly Guardian Mu Zang mumbled, "It can't be. Brother Lu is..."

Heavenly Guardian Mo Xinyue slapped him awake. "Mu Zang! Wake up; this is the battlefield! What will those under your command do if you break up like this?" His face was also full of tears, but he chose to remain fighting. Because once they fall, those they are trying to protect will die with them.

"Xinyue, you..." When Heavenly Guardian Mu Zang saw Mo Xinyue's face, he was astounded. Mo Xinyue is the one who is most similar to Lu Wangle out of the five of them. Despite their frequent arguments, these two who are the same age get along the best. They are just like genuine brothers.

Heavenly Guardian Mo Xinyue said, "Stand up! This war is not yet over! Stop those Lu Clan members from going crazy. We cannot let them all die here!"

Heavenly Guardian Mu Zang concluded that the Lu Clan members had become insane due to their violent behavior. Like Lu Wangle, some of them are even attempting to cast additional forbidden spells, but the others are stopping them. The conflict zone is utter anarchy that is difficult to control. Certain three-dimensional creatures seized the chance to eliminate a greater number of their adversaries.

The scream of a phoenix was heard just as Mu Zang was ready to use his sound power to subdue everyone nearby.

CAAAWWSSS~

The large golem that sought to crush people under its foot was destroyed by a phoenix the size of a kid as it descended. Its core was discovered to have a hole in it, and a well-known reddish-gold flame burned it to ashes. Overlooking Heavenly Guardians Mo Xinyue and Mu Zang is a massive shadow.

They noticed a massive whale flying above their heads when they looked up. It was a demigod, for sure. Lu Ming and the others were among the figures that leaped down from the top of the whale's back. All the monsters in its path were incinerated by a dragon-shaped flame that Lu Ming conjured.

All of the injured humans are forced to retreat to the back as a sudden gush of water covers the entire battlefield, driving the monsters away.

The monsters are hit by a couple massive tornadoes that destroy everything in their path. A few red threads are also in charge of certain large golems that are meant to destroy the other golems. Subsequently, a deluge of arrows and ice needles ensued, perhaps eliminating over half of the dimensional creatures.

"Those who are injured retreat. Those who can still move carry the others who can't back to rear. Find a young man called Su Jin; he can heal your injuries."

"Lu Ming to the right. Mo Yuhan to the left. Ji Yoonjun to protect the retreating soldiers; the rest of you follow me to decimate the enemies!" Lu Shang took over the messy command among the humans.

With a golden spear in hand, Lu Shang was positioned in front. Beside him stands a mild-mannered Leica, who clears the way so Lu Shang can roam about and take out the larger ones. The Mo Clan was commanded by Mo Yuhan to eliminate the monsters on the left flank. To defeat the monsters approaching from that direction, Lu Ming guided the warriors of the Lu Clan and others to the right wing.

Ji Yoonjun stayed in the air, watching over the battleground, dispatching all the little creatures that managed to sneak in, and shielding the wounded who were trying to flee.

Lu Shang and Leica, on the other hand, moved in tandem and engaged in front-line combat. The beasts in front of them were subdued by them. In particular Lu Shang, who was practically a battle god. No matter how big his opponent was, he could take them out with a single spear stab. Leica shields his sides and rear so he can concentrate entirely on what is in front of him. At last, they joined the war.

Chapter 1323: First Grey Star - Before the end of the Land Calamity.

The Heavenly Guardians, including the medics led by Doctor Sen, Doctor Hei, and Doctor Guang, may now at last relax under Lu Shang's orders. Four days had passed since Heavenly Guardian Lu Wangle's fall, during which time they had engaged in such fierce combat. Their resistance against the waves of chaotic spatial creatures had been substantially aided by the Nirvana Flame.

That is why most of the fighters were taken aback when they lost their support. Some of them perished, and others suffered serious injuries. The commanders were stunned, and the monsters were able to overpower them in the few seconds of silence that followed.

Fortunately, Lu Ming, Su Jin, Mo Yuhan, Ji Yoonjun, and Lu Shang, under the leadership of Leica and Lu Shang, arrived at the battle zone in time to save everyone from certain death. There would be innumerable deaths if a commander faltered or committed even a single error. That is what would have happened if Lu Shang and the others had not arrived on schedule.

Until the next waves arrived, this massive wave of spatial monsters had been destroyed by the combined strength of six people. On the battlefield, many people suffered injuries, but more people lost their lives. The humanoid races withdrew to rest after the monster wave was destroyed.

Once more, the doctors would be treating patients into the night. Su Jin is a valuable member of the medical team because he developed the power to heal using his water components. Ji Yoonjun offered to assist with the medical care as well. After all, when it comes to healing among the special elements, wood comes in second only to light components. One could rank water as third.

Doctor Sen appeared in front of Su Jin and said, "Can your water elements heal wounds?"

"I can't do anything to any wounds that are too fatal or regenerate limbs. At most, I can only cleanse negative states like poison, freezing, or burns," Su Jin responded.

Doctor Guang said, "That's enough. Come join my team. I focus on surgeries. Your ability would be a great help for avoiding infections."

"I can regenerate limbs, but I can't revive a dead person," Ji Yoonjun said.

The three doctors, including Su Jin, were stunned. They never expected this person, who doesn't emit any light elements, to be capable of regenerating limbs.

Doctor Hei exclaimed, "That's right! Woof Elements is synonymous with life. Senior Hei, he is telling the truth. I will lead him to the patients with missing limbs."

"Okay. Don't overdo it, young ones," Doctor Sen said to Doctor Guang, Doctor Hei, and Su Jin. Then he lowered his head in front of Ji Yoonjun. "Thank you for your mercy."

It is clear that Doctor Sen can see right through individuals now that he is spent more time with the Heavenly Guardians, especially those with unique existences like gods and evil. Ji Yoonjun's vessel cannot entirely disguise his inner divinity. It is difficult to overlook his benevolent actions and apathy.

When it comes to the sight of life and death, only those who are accustomed to being elevated above all mankind would be so distant.

Ji Yoonjun was expressionless upon hearing Doctor Sen's words. "Your eyes are neat. Death is against my element. But regeneration of limbs is within the limit. Don't worry, I will make sure their limbs won't be different from normal." He grabbed Doctor Hei's back collar and walked away.

"Ah. I can walk. Please don't drag me." Doctor Hei shouted while being pulled away by Ji Yoonjun.

Su Jin looked at Doctor Sen and asked, "Since when did Grandpa know?" He was asking about Ji Yoonjun's identity as a god.

Doctor Sen smiled and said, "When a person completely changes overnight, it's either a possession of a god, a devil, or a different soul."

"If it were someone else's soul, they would not only have a new personality but also have forgotten most of the original's memories. They had loopholes in what they could remember. But Ji Yoonjun had all the memories needed, so he can't be an ordinary soul."

"A devil would be calm, looking at the world and searching for some entertainment to avoid boredom. This type would treat everyone with hidden disdain while treating someone with a smile. Ji Yoonjun would be expressionless sometimes, but he only looked at me with clear eyes and talked with us."

"A god will be indifferent to everything around them. This includes the life and death of others. I thought he might be one whose line of sight only has you, but there is no emotion within his eyes. He just looks as if watching over as an observer. He stopped caring about me as he never cared about others, but even so, he never ignored us."

"I guess he changed that day Lu Ming ended up in your restaurant. His only intention was with you, and his eyes were pure and indifferent. So I guess that he must be a god or something. So I am correct."

Such a detailed explanation is enough for Su Jin to realize that the old doctor who had been caring for them was such a sly fox. Nothing could escape his eyes.

Doctor Sen said, "I'm going to rest for a bit. You guys take care of the rest until then. I need to check out the patients in the palace."

Leica informed the Heavenly Guardians that Mo Xuejing had returned before them and had inquired about Lu Wangle's well-being. Such news pleased Mu Zang, Mo Xinyue, Xian Wu, and Lao Gu. This indicates that Mo Xuejing most likely saved their old colleague, who did not actually die.

At the tent where Lu Wangle rests...

The Heavenly Guardians had assembled. However, Mu Zang and the others were greeted by a massive reddish-gold egg. Well, at least half the size of an adult. Leica, Mo Yuhan, Lu Ming, and Lu Shang all happened to stop by and witness this ethereal spectacle. Hei Anjing was seated next to a lone table that held dessert and beverages not far from them. After saving Lu Wangle, he was savoring his tea.

The Nirvana Flame Fire Spirit in Lu Ming is the one among the arrivals who recognizes the egg. It can now take the form of a ghost or a tiny phoenix. It circles the egg and even lets forth a shocked cry.

{This is amazing. This is the first time I've seen a mortal awaken a Phoenix bloodline. Though it wasn't pure, it is indeed phoenix blood. Boy, you said the one inside is your grandfather. This is surprising; you almost don't have any trace of this bloodline in your veins, though.}

Lu Ming asked the Phoenix spirit, "How about my elder brother?"

{You're brother is different. As the Venerable one resides in him, all other incomplete traces had been removed. He is now a pure wind element user. If he becomes a god in the future, he can become the God of Wind.}

Mo Yuhan looked amazed at the huge egg and walked around it multiple times.

"Wow~ such a huge egg!" He said but just as he was about to touch it, he felt a slight burning effect. Thankfully, his ice protected his hand or it would be burned to crisp.

Woah~

"It burns. How come there is fire on the egg?" Mo Yuhan mumbled.

Lu Shang hit the back of Mo Yuhan's head and said, "Grandpa is inside that egg. You dare to touch it indiscriminately."

"Hic! Really?" Mo Yuhan was terrified by Lu Shang's words.

Leica, with a gentleman's smile, said, "It's true."

The Heavenly Guardians assemble around Hei Anjing as the children are tending to the eggs, but nobody is brave enough to approach him. The two sides are separated by at least one meter. People who were unaware that Mo Xuejing's soul had been replaced believed he was apathetic toward them after he had returned to his true body.

Still, as long as they got close to them, Mo Xuejing would not turn a blind eye. It makes sense that there would be a gap between the times he had no recollection and the present, when he was able to recall all that was important to remember, given what had transpired in the past.

Heavenly Guardian Mu Zang said, "Xiao Mo, how is your Grandpa Lu? Is he still alive? Is he alive?"

"Don't worry. He is still alive. Well, to be exact, he already died once and is in the process of rebirth," Hei Anjing said.

Heavenly Guardian Mo Xinyue asked, "Xue'er, you mean that he will come out of the egg alive?"

"Hm. His special bloodline had been fully activated. Phoenixes are capable of rebirth after death. Don't worry about his memories. I made sure he retained those when I awakened his bloodline. But this kind of situation won't happen to any other Lu Clan members.

The others' bloodline is too weak compared to Grandpa Lu. Well, it might be possible for Lu Ming and my husband. Their bloodline is the purest and highest grade fire elemental compatibility. Lu Shang's bloodline is also strong, but his element is incompatible, so it's not possible for him to undergo such a situation," Hei Anjing explained.

The celestial guardians were relieved yet also perplexed. They never would have guessed that Lu Wangle's ancestry would come to his aid in his current situation. Since he had already passed away, it cannot be said that he avoided death and then resurrected.

Heavenly Guardian Gu looked at the egg and said, "I know Brother Lu would crook! Hahaha~"

"I'm more wanting to ask why the size of the egg doesn't seem to be big enough as an adult," Heavenly Guardian Xian Wu said.

Hei Anjing said, "Of course, after rebirth, one can be reborn as an adult. He would be reborn as a child. His bloodline is powerful enough to revert him to his adult form after his rebirth is completed."

"Y-You mean..." Mu Zang's lips twitched.

Hei Anjing said, "He will be reborn as a five-year-old child at the minimum or 10 at the maximum."

These elderly men burst out laughing, picturing a 5- to 10-year-old LunWnagle emerging from the egg. They would be entertained and rather amused to see a youngster acting like an old man despite his youth.

Hahahahaha~

After laughing enough, the King who just arrived heard most of the important points and asked, "Then when will Lord Lu hatch?"

"If you ask that phoenix fire spirit with that boy, he can hatch tomorrow morning," Hei Anjing said as he pointed at the small flaming bird on Lu Ming's shoulder. For some unknown reason, the flame on the bird's body doesn't burn the young man.

Lu Ming, who overheard the words of Hei Anjing, also looked at the Phoenix fire spirit on his shoulder.

"You can do that? Hatching an egg?" Lu Ming asked.

{I can but it will take too much energy. I might fall asleep.}

Suddenly, Hei Anjing threw a small flame orb with the shade of black. It's a fire stone created from the God of Void's qi. His and the God of Void's aura leak a lot and it would form into this small elemental stone which is piled up in their inventory. He took the smallest one.

{Thank you, Venerable Lord!}

"Use that to replenish your energy. It should be enough for your current state," Hei Anjing said.
"Actually, you guys should get ready for the final stage of the Land Calamity tomorrow. Those who were stuck inside are coming out. There are more monsters tomorrow than today. I will only enter the battlefield once you guys can no longer hold on.

The restrictions of this world on me are much more powerful than what the other gods possessed. I can destroy this world once I make a move, so don't expect too much of me for tomorrow's fight."

Everyone in the tent falls silent as a result of his sudden and unexpected declaration that he is a god. Those who know have said nothing. Those who made similar assumptions likewise remained silent. The Heavenly Guardians themselves had differing responses. Shock paint covered Xian Wu's and Lao Gu's faces. Mo Xinyue and Mu Zang had an expression of expectation.

Heavenly Guardian Lao Gu was the one who broke the silence. He shouted in disbelief and incredulity.

"You're a God. For real!?"

"Well, him helping Lao Lu awaken his ancestral bloodline is an impossible deed for a mortal. But a God... um, I can't say I'm not surprised."

Despite his best efforts, Heavenly Guardian Xian Wu drank his drink. He saw that the other young people like Lu Shang and others were not taken aback. Given that they spend more time with the couple, it makes sense that they are already aware of this. However, he was unaware that the king was also aware of it.

He asked, "Your Majesty doesn't seem surprised. Did you already know?"

"No, I didn't know. It's just that Satan is already Godly himself. Of course, the spouse he had chosen would never be simple. It's just a matter of fact," Wang Xingmo said.

Everyone, as if agreeing to the king's words, couldn't help but nod in agreement.

Hei Anjing squinted at the hidden man at the corner, peering over the human king's shoulder and even giving him a sly smile. Knowing he had to be that being on the Tower of God, he snorted and ignored the stare directed at him.

Chapter 1324: First Grey Star - A Night Invasion.

Hei Anjing checked on their injuries and after a while sent the elders to rest. Although not very deadly, their wounds had accrued enough to become infected. To help them heal overnight, he gave them some prescription beverages to drink. Hei Anjing was left in charge of everyone's safety in the capital tonight.

In order to prepare them for the last phase of the disaster on the land, he pledged to keep them all night.

All the vessels with gods living in them are the ones that are still in the tent with Hei Anjing. System Yang, on the other hand, is still in the small world, raising his master's offspring. In front of them, they were anticipating the sovereign's next order. Only Leica, Lu Shang, and Ji Yoonjun remain; they have just come back inside the tent containing Hei Anjing and Lu Wangle's egg.

The three bow down to the attractive man in front of them.

"Lord Hei/Master/Venerable Lord!"

Stay connected via mvl

Hei Anjing said, "Stand up. How are the restrictions of the world on you?"

"Using the natal weapon is the limit. Divinity can't be used," Lu Shang said.

Leica said, "Same as above."

"I can use a bit of divinity as support. As long as I am not the main fighter, I can use a quarter of my full abilities," Ji Yoonjun answered.

Hei Anjing mumbled, "Indirectly, is it? Hm~ tomorrow the battle will be more chaotic than today and more dimensional monsters than before. There would definitely be monsters slipping out of the net, but there is nothing to worry about. The support characters can handle those."

While they waited for Hei Anjing to finish sipping, the three stayed silent. They were aware that they could only use their abilities in this lower realm with his approval.

Like them, Hei Anjing had limitations, but if he really wanted to travel, the world could not completely block a sovereign god like him. This God of Destruction is simply too lethargic at the moment to engage in such a conflict. He is not interested in becoming involved in Wars of Mortals since he finds it dull. In addition, he is holding out for his guy to emerge from the Ruin of Time.

He is holding back excessively because of this.

Hei Anjing said, "Same as before. Unless the world is in danger, using divinity is impossible—directly, that is. But what if you allowed the original owners of your vessels to wield your divinity as a form of blessing? Maybe that will be allowed~."

The three gods immediately understood what Hei Anjing wanted to say and kept the thoughts in their minds.

Hei Anjing said, "Okay, take a rest. Tomorrow you guys will be the busiest. Oh, right. Ming, say for a bit there is something I need to give you."

Lu Shang and Ji Yoonjun said their farewells and left the tent. Outside the tent, Doctor Hei and the others are waiting for them.

Doctor Hei said, "Is it done? Can we go to rest now?"

"Hm." Ji Yoonjun saluted Lu Shang before leaving with Doctor Hei. Lu Ming, Mo Yuhan, and Su Jin went to Lu Shang.

Lu Ming said, "Brother, did Lord Mo say something important?"

"He said tomorrow will be the start of the toughest battle. You three need to be firm. There would be more enemies far stronger than the one we fought this morning," Lu Shang said.

Su Jin asked, "What about the arrangements tomorrow? Do I still need to stay at the rear?"

"Since your element conflicts with Xiao Ming, staying at the rear is good, but in the warzone, everything can happen. If you feel like stepping forward is better, then... don't hesitate. Believe in yourself," Lu Shang said.

Su Jin smiled and said, "I will!"

"Mo Yuhan. Among the three of you, your opportunity is the strongest. Don't waste it," Lu Shang said as he played Mo Yuhan's shoulder.

Given that Mo Yuhan's opportunity comes directly from Hei Anjing, the God of Destruction and one of the Sovereigns in Vearth, it might be argued that he is the strongest of the three young people. Conversely, Su Jin's chance came from the new sea deity Lanyu, even though Mo Xuejing was the one who propelled him ahead; the latter did not provide him much.

He was given the same opportunities as Gong Lu Ming, the main character. There are boundaries on this planet. Lu Shang said that Mo Yuhan is luckier than his buddies for this reason. He just can not control it to the fullest extent.

Mo Yuhan looked determined and responded, "I understand, Instructor Lu."

"Hm. Take a rest now. No need to worry for tonight. Lord Mo will protect us this evening," Lu Shang said.

It was just a relief for the three young lads. They could sleep peacefully if someone as strong as Mo Xuejing promised to protect the entire camp for tonight. It would be difficult for anyone or anything to hurt them, after all, if such a wonderful person consented to take them under his wing. When the three departed, Lu Shang stood by the door. His sweetheart remains inside, conversing with Lord Hei.

Back inside the tent...

Hei Anjing looked at Leica and said, "Reach out a hand."

Leica lifted his right hand without hesitation. The God of Destruction left an imprint of a snowflake on the back of Leica's right hand.

"This is the key. You can use it to open the small world under my possession. Inside are some godly beasts of this world. You can bring them out at the right moment. Just in case I am not around and there is danger, you can call them all out. Remember, unless the world is ending, you guys are forbidden from using divinity.

The Divine Laws are impartial, even though I was punished by them before," Hei Anjing said.

Leica saluted, "This subordinate will listen to Master."

"Okay. You can take your leave. Your lover is waiting for you outside," Hei Anjing said. Only then did Leica leave the tent, leaving Hei Anjing to guard the egg inside.

There was silence as the night went on. Because some monsters emerge from the dimensional portal even in the evening, the group's warriors and leaders do not get much sleep. An invisible wall was built to conceal what was happening inside the warzone once Hei Anjing assumed control. He entered the space gate right away and peered at the different monsters emerging from it.

It has then tripled the amount of attacks this morning just by sheer numbers.

Hei Anjing was standing on a certain cliff, overlooking the scenes of the monster invasion before his eyes.

"This wouldn't even be enough for an exercise," Hei Anjing mumbles as he summons his natal weapon, Juedi.

"Juedi, awaken." A deep, crimson-tall death scythe appeared in Hei Anjing's hands.

He leaped in the middle of the creatures, a lighthearted smile teasing his lips. Inside are tall monsters and enormous golems; the mirror monsters have also caused the appearance of a mirror version of himself. Hei Anjing, encircled on all sides, only laughed, his silver eyes turning red with excitement.

With a deranged smile, the bloodstained monster splattered across the landscape, sparing Hei Anjing's white suit from any of the droplets. The beasts on the way were hacked in half and instantaneously killed at the sound of his scythe. No further attacks are required because everything that the death scythe severed, even its internal energy source and soul, can only perish.

A tiny battle fairy was dancing in the midst of a variety of grotesque, deformed, and even emotionless devices that resembled machinery. His fluid motions and exuberant laughter fill the entire battlefield. It is quite a sight to behold. Tu Shizhe was grinning as he watched the dancing white fairy on the battlefield during the twilight, just above the translucent barrier that Hei Anjing had created.

As if watching a similar picture from a distant past mirroring the current scenes before his eyes, Tun Shizhe mumbles, "You haven't changed at all. Playful, stronger, and entertaining. Nothing can ever hold you back. Except for us, if we don't exist, you would be much freer, but we are not willing to let go."

The last line was spoken with such sorrow and regret that it was impossible to ignore, but nobody is aware of this man's past or his relationship with the God of Destruction.

This man kept an eye on everything all night long until Hei Anjing defeated every creature that emerged. The Space Portal began to exhibit symptoms of calm as the sun began to rise. All of the huge waves for tonight have been eliminated. Hei Anjing is quietly observing the sun rising over the monster corpse mountain while resting on his death scythe.

He had a melancholic expression on his face. "Watching the sunrise alone is not fun. When will A'Xia return?"

Subsequently, he vanished from sight and entered the small world to tidy up and make his children breakfast. The man stood silently in the skies, watching as he vanished. He had departed as well. In quiet, he watched over him and only left, like a silent protector, when he was satisfied he was secure.

A tall pile of monstrous corpses in the center of the battleground sickened several knights who had gone there when the sun had fully risen. The knights who had witnessed such a scene were momentarily astonished and then hurried to inform the king and the Heavenly Guardians.

Predictably, the majority of people had headed towards the location where the enormous mountain had collected. It scared everyone simply because of its size. Lu Ming, Lu Shang, and the others were also present.

Mo Yuhan paled and mumbled, "How come there are more monsters than the one we killed yesterday?"

"These monsters were cut by something sharp, and there aren't any traces of elemental energy in the area. The fighter fought with a weapon and physical body alone," Lu Ming commented after checking a few corpses nearby and seeing that almost all the corpses were killed with one slice, and it was even a clean slash.

Su Jin said, "This... Did Lord Mo do all this? Alone? How come none of us heard anything last night?"

"There are traces of a barrier around the perimeter of the warzone. It seems to let us rest all night. Lord Mo erected a barrier in this place. That's why we heard nothing," Leica said.

Everyone was silent and in shock. They look at the monstrous bodies in front of them, bewildered. The monster corpses stare for a long time until ice gradually envelops them and dissolves into nothing in front of their eyes. I moved while no one else was looking.

"That just now! Is it you, Mo-ge?"

Su Jin stuttered and asked with regards to the mysterious scene of ice suddenly enveloping the mountain of monsters, only for it to be melted into nothing.

Mo Yuhan shook his head and hands. "Not me. I can't melt things like this. I don't even know ice can melt other things. I thought it could only freeze things!"

"It's a time-based spell. Lord Mo must have left it and set it to clean up the corpses. He forgot to adjust the time, and it just activated at this moment," Leica said.

Everyone is currently curious as to how Mo Xuejing managed to eliminate all of these creatures by himself. Nothing was noted by anyone when it was completed yesterday night. These monsters were slain with a weapon and raw force alone; there were no signs of elemental qi on their corpses. Not everything can just happen.

Lu Shang scowled as he saw the alterations being made to the dungeon entrance. Abruptly, he observed the waves on the space rift's surface. This sudden change meant that the door on both inside and outside was affected. It's also a premonition of the space rift activating once again.

"Everyone, get ready! The door is opening up again!"

Chapter 1325: First Grey Star - End of the Land Calamity

Lu Shang's negative intuition came to pass. Monsters by the thousands had begun to emerge from the entryway. In the worst case, the door even instantly widened, causing many creatures to emerge at once. The monstrous waves had increased in size in tandem with the door's threefold expansion. Fortunately, Lu Shang had ordered everyone to assemble right away.

The fighters on his side had multiplied tremendously, and those wounded yesterday had entirely recovered.

Ji Yoonjun healed everyone who had lost a limb that prevented them from participating in the battle last night, enabling them to rejoin it. It might be said that the number of defenders today was higher than it was yesterday because Su Jin had also cured every wounded warrior at the back yesterday and some additional warriors from the outside had joined.

Lu Shang was given the order by the Heavenly Guardians. His experience outmatched theirs, and he was still able to command while fighting on the front lines. This man is also a skilled tactician, so even if he falters for a split second, Leica is there to assist him.

Conversely, the spatial monsters lacked a commander. As part of their purpose, they were all just coming over here and killing everybody who was not of their kind. Lu Shang was able to overwhelm his foes with fewer methods as a result. All he has to do is use battle formation to keep the monsters within the city and destroy them all.

"Secure the encirclement. Don't let it be breached! Those who can attack in range remain in the middle. Those at rear drag the injured to the backline. Focus on the big ones first!" Lu Shang commanded.

Leica issued another command to the ones under his group. They are the main support for the frontliners led by Lu Shang.

"Restrain the big ones! Use weapons or spells just to halt them from moving!" Leica said.

Lu Ming and Mo Yuhan split due to their elemental inconsistencies with one another. They have to move independently. The large ones were divided into 3-4-3, each one leading a team alone. The midline needed to take out four large monsters, while the left and right wings had to vanquish three.

Furthermore, it appears that the monsters emerging via that space vortex are still arriving; they do not appear to have stopped.

Yesterday, Lu Shang only needed to command Lu Ming, Su Jin, Mo Yuhang, and Su Jin, but this time, the Heavenly Guardians chose to follow his words. They believe that Lu Shang had the ability to lead them all and lessen the death count as much as possible. They continue to fight like this until this final wave of monsters is done. Find adventures at mvl

On the other hand, in the space corridor between the two dimensions

The survivors moved freely through the space tunnels, guided by Zhi Yue and the Black Dragon Roi. Roi is a chaos dragon that consumes everything, and he devoured all the monsters that were in his path.

ROOOAAARRR~

"Looks like he is enjoying himself. Who would have thought that the dragon egg I brought out with you as a medium to protect your soul would grow up this big?" Ye Jingya commented at the scene of the black dragon flying above and diving down to munch on monsters with a joyous expression on its face.

Ye Jingli added, "To Roi, these monsters are no different from an eat all you can buffet. Look at him enjoying himself."

"Thanks to him, the monsters don't have time to bother us," Lu Wei said.

Everyone observes the contented black dragon as he chases after his moving goodies in the air. A few mouthfuls later, and he would roar in a good mood.

When Mo Banyue looked across the horizon, she noticed a dim light that indicated the opposite end of the space corridor. They can only run and walk together toward the direction of the exit because they do not have any horses or vehicles to ride on. Their gang is surrounded by an imperceptible barrier that prevents the creatures in the hallway from seeing them.

"We are almost at the exit. I don't know how everyone is doing right now," Xue Keiran said.

Mo Banyue said, "These monsters are also passing through the exit. Just how many have already come out? With this insane number, is everyone alright?"

"It's fine. My wife and Lu Shang are outside. They should be able to cope," Ye Jieye said.

Ye Jieye now had the sensation that his body's power of gluttony was once more spiraling out of control. Even though he already had complete control over it, he was nonetheless taken aback by the fact that his body's capacity for consumption had doubled.

'This is impossible. That power... It was already under my control. I haven't merged with anything else aside from that.' The thoughts of the God of Void as he felt that even the darkness within him was affected.

Gluttony and darkness go well together, and the former fuels the latter's appetite. He is going to go crazy. Then he remembered one soul that became part of him. It is this world's original Ye Jieye. He was unaware of Ye Jieye's nature as a creature. He is only aware that he was born within this prison and that something other than a fully human existence existed for him.

'That weird temple. The laws of restrictions in that place were made to seal something. No wonder Ye Jieye's soul suddenly woke up in this dungeon. Haha~ I've had!! I think of that bastard who resides in the tower of God and bears the same face as mine but can physically manifest himself even without a vessel.

If there is someone in this world who could have brought this dimensional world into this star, it can only be him!'

The sudden surge of malevolent aura coming from Ye Jieye startled everyone. Zhi Yue and Roi felt extreme danger from the aura emitted by their lord.

Zhi Yue exclaimed, "Milord!?"

"What's happening!? Ye'er?" Ye Jingli and Lu Wei were worried and wanted to approach their son but were pulled back by Zhi Yue.

Zhi Yue said, "Don't touch him!"

"Yue, Roi, get everyone out right now! I can't hold it back anymore!!" Ye Jieye said. "Urgh! Leave now!"

Roi instantly followed the order, dove down, threw his tail around everyone, and raced for the door. Everyone was in a panic since they had no idea what had happened, but they saw Ye Jieye covered in an aura that was growing stronger and even adopting the shape of tiny dragons that were consuming everything in their path. Even worse, these dragon auras were pursuing them.

Zhi Yue observed his milord's transformation while astride Roi. He wanted to stay and support his lord, but all it took was one glance to know that he could be consumed by this greed. Everything in the space corridor, including the space corridor itself, was consumed by these dragons. It desired to consume everything.

These deformed, purplish black dragons composed of aura were chasing toward Roi and him, as if sensing their divinity.

The moment they got closer to the exit, this black aura stopped, just as Roi's tail was snagged and Zhi Yue was taken off guard. Long ago, half of Roi's body had crossed the space corridor's exit. It is as though someone is afraid that this dragon-shaped glow may suddenly stop.

Zhi Yue's final vision was of the dragon head halting a meter in front of him, the entire area they were in shattered, and his Lord suddenly emerged behind a black hole.

Zhi Yue was stunned, "What the hell is this power?!" He and the rest disappeared from the space corridor and headed to the world outside the dungeon of Ruin of Time.

Outside the dungeon

The abrupt alterations on the door had been felt by all. It appears that the door itself was impacted by the wild power present in the space corridor. Some of the beasts that emerged were already dead, and it shook violently. The ground they stood on began to tremble violently as cracks in it spread quickly. This earthquake is more severe than the last.

This time, the earth gave way and cracked, leaving the ground covered in innumerable holes and cracks. Lu Shang ordered everyone to leave the battlefield as soon as he saw this scene.

Lu Shang shouted, "Retreat. Run as far as possible. Don't look back! Those who can fly help the others. Wind elemental users use elevation spells!"

Lu Shang has completely subdued everyone in his vicinity by using the wind element. Carried in Lu Shang's arms, Leica extended his red strings to save as many people as he could. The majority of individuals had left the battlefield as far as they could. The creatures that were unable to flee perished beneath the debris, slamming and fracturing beneath the massive boulders and fissures in the terrain.

It was a massive catastrophe that nobody could have predicted. Lu Shang and Leica flew back to the dungeon entrance to see how things were going after putting the people they had saved at a safe distance.

Leica asked, "What happened? Where did that malicious aura come from?"

"This aura... I've only felt it once before. But how can anything happen? This is Milord's strange aura from before!" Lu Shang said as he peered through the cracking pillars that supported the entrance of the Ruins of Time.

Ye Jieye and the others within have not emerged yet, so the Chief Warden scowled when he saw that the entrance was being demolished by this weird aura. The moment he saw the massive, recognizable head of Roi, he knew that everyone who was locked within had been safely extracted.

ROOOAAARRR~

Zhi Yue immediately looked around for Lord Hei. He wanted to inform their other lord about what happened to the God of Void.

"Where is Lord Hei!? Hurry. Find him! Something happened to Milord!!!" Zhi Yue shouted.

They are not far from them, hiding within the crowd. Tun Shizhe, who only provided minimal support to King Wang Xingmo, had fulfilled his duty. He watched the scene not too far from him with a knowing smile before approaching his contractee.

Tun Shizhe whispered to Wang Xingmo. "The Calamity of Land is over. With this... Your wish has been fulfilled. It's time for me to go. Before he returns and looks for me." He blended with the shadows of the crowd and disappeared before Wang Xingmo could even speak up.

Wang Xingmo frowned in disbelief and mumbled, "He left just like that. The calamity of the land is truly over."

"Yes. This calamity of the land is over with that entrance into shambles," Nameless said. Under everyone's eyes, the two pillars that supported the entrance broke down, and the space rifts had all disappeared.

With the long-missing individuals making a comeback, this world's second disaster has ended. As they welcomed the people who had been trapped in that dungeon and had at last made it back home, everyone cheered with joy.

The Heavenly Guardians assembled and proceeded to the location where Ye Jingya and the others were. Tears streaming down Mu Zang's face, he hurried in the direction of the man who had been with him every night in his dreams and nightmares. The one he believed he would always be without. Ye Jingya, his lover.

Heavenly Guardian Mu Zang shouted, "Yaya!!" He jumped onto his man, who had spread his arms openly, to catch him firmly within his embrace. It's their long-awaited reunion. Finally, their missing families have come back.

However, no one else could hear what Lu Shang, Leica, Zhi Yue, and Roi were discussing as they floated through the heavens, deep in conversation about something important.

It had now been possible for Mo Yuhan, Lu Ming, and Su Jin, who were leading the groups to fight and support, to exhale. They forgot about the dirt and dust and just laid down on the ground. They were too exhausted to gripe about their lack of resting places. They had fulfilled their obligation to safeguard this world.

Mo Yuhan said, "Finally, it's done!"

"Not done yet. There is still one more calamity yet! We shouldn't let our guard down!" Lu Ming said.

Su Jin, who was watching Lu Shang and his group gather in the sky with serious faces, realized that maybe something big had happened after all.

"Maybe not all things have gone right. The instructors all look serious and unhappy," Su Jin said.

Ji Yoonjun, who had overheard what Zhi Ye had said just now, was now frowning. He joined this group of three and informed them of what he heard.

"They said something had happened to Lord Ye. I don't know the details."

"WHAT!!?" The three young men exclaimed in disbelief and incredulity.

Chapter 1326: First Grey Star - Ye Jieye's Situation and Reporting the bad news to Hei Anjing.

In the Space Corridor that connected the Ruins of Time to the low-tier star where Mo Xuejing was born

Surrounded by dragons that appeared with his power of gluttony, the God of Void was left behind in the abandoned, broken space and time fissure. These animals consumed anything that came in their path, physical or not. It even altered the room he was in. For a moment, Ye Jieye was out of time and space.

The God of Void is extremely fortunate that he gets along well with time components. so that in the space he is in now, the laws of time would not affect him. Sadly, he was incompatible with space elements, thus, to him, space seems to be the same from top to bottom and from right to left. He is bewildered and unsure of how to get back.

Ye Jieye peered at the stars and galaxies that surrounded him. He was genuinely unable to locate the coordinates of the previous world he called home.

"I've successfully closed off the black hole but... Where the hell am I?"

After they had gotten their fill, the dragons created from the aura of gluttony had long since vanished. Sadly, he was now lost in the wreckage of the damaged space tunnel. He wanted to talk to his wife, Jing'er, and meditate. But he was aware that he was here because he had stepped into that person's trap. He felt uneasy at the sudden outburst of that evil aura, which never seems to be satiated.

It appeared as though someone had touched Ye Jieye's soul by using his soul as a catalyst. It is not that he is terrified of it; he fears that someone will take control of his body and hurt the people he loves.

Ye Jieye, just think of his wife's reaction if she found out what had happened to him. He had to use their mateship imprint when his might overcame him once in order to assist him, even if it meant sending a soul.

The God of Void mumbles, "My wife will be angrier if I don't inform him what happened. I don't want to sleep in the living room."

He closed his eyes, attempting to use their mateship imprint to connect with his wife. However, no sooner had he settled into his meditative state than he was pulled into a level of consciousness he had never before attained. He had no control over the subconscious portion of his mind, where most of the things that ended up were things he had forgotten and could not recall.

It astonished him to see Ye Jieye here, grinning at him.

Ye Jieye said, "You came over as expected. You have fallen into a trap once again."

"It's you. You know what's happening?" Ye Xiajie, the God of Void, asked.

Ye Jieye said, "I told you before, right? There is a part of my memory that didn't happen in this world. Actually, that's a lie. I know that you and I..."

"What did you say?" The God of Void asked as he did hear what was said in the last part of Ye Jieye's words.

Ye Jieye mumbled, "He is right. It is unfair."

"Don't speak with me with riddles!" Ye Xiajie said.

Ye Jieye chuckles coldly as he glances fearlessly at the man in front of him. "I'm the God of this realm. You cannot kill me in this place. You actually don't have the right to be angry. We are equal in this place. Moreover, if you kill me, how will you know how to come out?"

If you don't come out, our wife will be killed. I'm actually waiting here to kill you."

"But I changed my mind. I saw how Jing'er (Mo Xuejing) reacted after learning who I am and died under his hands in our previous lives. How many times do you think this world has reset? I can no longer watch this world harm him. He always goes crazy and destroys the world and himself multiple times. I'm supposed to hate him.

I hate him so much that I should be happy to see him insane but... I don't have the heart to see him cry. I guess only in this that we are similar. We can't bear to see him cry."

"Is that why you are willing to help me?" Ye Xiajie asked with a serious expression on his face.

Ye Jieye said, "Yes. Since I've merged with you and Jing'er returned where he was supposed to be, I can only be with him if you are alive. Be grateful."

"Too arrogant. Indeed, you are a part of me. What do you want me to see?" The God of Void asked.

"It's something you're supposed to know but lose after getting reincarnated multiple times. Our origin."

Ye Xiajie was taken aback as Ye Jieye materialized in front of him. The last thing he saw before his eyes were covered were those familiar crimson eyes, the depths of which were full of lunacy and darkness.

The thoughts of the God of Void at this last moment are, 'He is indeed me.'

That was Ye Xiajie's last sight before his thoughts went black—a previously unknown version of himself. An insatiable appetite and craziness. The God of Void's eyes first opened on a timeline, something he had never seen before, but before him was the lovely, eerily similar atmosphere that his wife possessed.

{This is great. You're awake. My little creation. It was nice to meet you. My name is Hunluan.}

Meanwhile, another person assumed control of his body as the God of Void collapsed into his subconscious. Something else, not Ye Jieye, was sealed in that temple along with Ye Jieye's spirit. A World Eater fragment corrupted. When this man's eyes opened, a flash of unending lust, hatred, and greed appeared in those scarlet eyes.

"Hahaha~ the Main soul is so easily affected. That little one is easy to control. How can he believe that I bring back the soul of his wife (Mo Xuejing), a soul fragment that returned to its origin can not be separated so easily. Whatever~ I wonder If I will be able to eat a part of Hunluan's soul in this world. In the past worlds there are too many hindrances. But now the biggest wall had been subdued.

Heh~, I can't wait anymore. When are you going to come? My dear creator. My darling Hunluan~"

Through the vessel of Ye Jieye, the corrupted soul spoke. While the God of Void was rummaging through his long-lost past, he assumed control of his body. The corrupted one remained in the fractured area since he was aware that his victim would eventually overcome him. It will only take him a short while longer to wait.

Zhi Yue and the others were discussing how to get in touch with Lord Hei outside the dungeon, as everyone else was applauding. They had an important report to give him, but they had no idea where he had vanished.

While frowning, Lu Shang said, "We don't have a way to contact Lord Hei. We don't even know where he is. He suddenly disappeared after fighting monsters all night."

"Zhi Yang, Young Lord Jing, and Princess Anxia are also gone. Maybe they are inside the small world the Master owns," Leica said.

Zhi Yue panicked, "The little world? Okay, I will try to find A'Yang first. You guys should help stabilize this place. Maybe inform that new sea god. Ah! I don't know anymore.

Lord Hei is too terrifying when enraged. I'm scared too."

"Calm down. No matter if the master will be angry or not, it's better to report everything. As for how to coax the master afterward, let's leave it to the Lord God," Leica said.

Lu Shang mumbled, "Anyway, Milord can only sleep in the living room for a few days."

While summoning his alter ego Zhi Yang, System Yang was busy wandering around in front of holographic monitors, looking for some signs of Lord Hei. System Yang had been looking through the global base and his link with Zhi Yang.

"Not here. Not here either. No. No. Ah!! I'm going crazy!"

Ring. Ring. Click! Experience more content on mvl

[Yue'er, you called. Is there something wrong?] This is System Yang calling System Yue after sending him countless urgent messages. The latter had only opened one of those messages, though.

"A'Yang, great! You answered! A'Yang, please find Lord Hei! Something happened to Milord!!!"

[... Wait...]

Immediately after, the phone was disconnected and a video call was established. The actual body of Hei Anjing, or Mo Xuejing, was visible in the film. He wore an apron and appeared a little drowsy. The mansion Hei Anjing owns inside the small world is the background of the call.

[So noisy, Yue! What the hell is wrong with you this time?!] The God of Destruction knows what kind of sand sculpture this former little system of his is.

As expected, as soon as Zhi Yue saw Lord Hei on the video, he started wailing like a spoiled child.

"Lord Hei. Lord Hei... Wuaaaa~ Yue is... Yue is..."

[Stop crying! You'll wake up my cubs. Shut up, or I will sew your mouth! Did something happen? You're here. Where is that bastard husband of mine?]

"Sniff. Sobs~ Lord Hei, something is wrong with the Lord God. A strange power with the ability to devour anything gone out of control from the Lord God. He was left behind in the space corridor that connects two worlds. The door is destroyed as well.

Boohoo~" Zhu Yue said while shivering as he saw Lord Hei's playful smirk completely gone and even the screen of the System Hologram was affected, getting covered with ice.

[Huh!?!]

This would make Hei Anjing a nice person. His sly smile vanished and was replaced by an angelic one. However, the more irate this God of Destruction becomes, the more serene and holy his smile becomes. Not just Zhi Yue was trembling in front of the holographic screen, afraid of such a stunning façade.

Such a calm smile replaced Hei Anjing's smirk, making even Lu Shang, Leica, and the Black Dragon wince.

As was to be expected, Hei Anjing's voice became very frigid, save for the angelic grin.

[What. Did. You. Say!?]

System Yue when ever reaching the peak of his fear, would hiccup as he cries with a weird smiling face.

"Hic! L-Lord God is lost... in some space and time! A lost coordinate. We don't... know where...!

Huhuhu~ I'm sorry~"

[Tsk! Yang stays here and looks after my children. I'm going out for a bit.]

The other party abruptly ended the call, and Hei Anjing vanished from sight. Even with his angelic appearance, he exuded a genuinely icy and threatening aura. Zhi Yue must even approach the irate sovereign on tiptoe. Hei Anjing said nothing at all when he first appeared. Rather, he headed to the location of the former space door—the shattered pillars.

Sadly, the two pillars that held up the space portal's side have entirely collapsed. All that is left of the region are broken stones and heaps of rubbish.

When the families of Ye Jieye and Mo Xuejing showed up there, Hei Anjing was still exploring the area. They spotted Hei Anjing surveying the damaged area with a serene countenance. They concluded that he must already be aware of what happened to his husband when they noticed how much more silent he was now than before and how restless Zhi Yue was in the corner.

Ye Jingli, who had not stopped sobbing since realizing they would have to part with his son. Lu Wei, his husband, had been attempting to persuade his wife but was at a loss for words. The fact that he could not assist his kid in his situation made him feel even more powerless. However, Xue Kiran can see the wrath and fear that are concealed behind Hei Anjing's calm silver eyes.

Like a calm before a furious storm was building in his son's heart. After hearing his father's account of his son's events while they were abroad, Mo Banyue himself felt powerless. Ye Jieye appears to be far more significant to his son than he initially realized. They are more than just a married couple; their bond goes far deeper. Something so powerful that he is at a loss for words.

Nobody has the courage to confront Mo Xuejing, at least not just now. Fearful of triggering his suppressed feelings and making everything worse. All they can do is watch him silently examine the area, which is shrouded in a tight, quiet atmosphere.

Chapter 1327: First Grey Star - Schemes and Counterattack

The Land's Calamity has passed, yet there is something in the capital's air that makes no sense. The Ruins of Time were now a thing of the past, but not everyone was happy that this disaster had passed because of what had happened to Ye Jieye. Before everyone, Hei Anjing took on the persona of Mo Xuejing.

Hei Anjing explores the area extensively, but nothing remains. Even the last remnants of space elements are gone, as though something has entirely consumed it. His expression grew more and more dire the longer he stared at the empty space. Every shift in his expression was recognized by everyone observing him, and anxiety increased the more dejected his countenance became.

Hei Anjing mumbles, "How come there aren't any traces left?" while frowning.

It was at this moment that Tun Shizhe appeared in front of Hei Anjing, covered in his usual huge robes.

"Of course, there aren't any traces. It was eaten by him."

The advent of this man took everyone by surprise, so much so that Leica and Lu Shang took out their weapons at once. However, a just glance from him rendered them immobile. Hei Anjing was the only one not killed, as everyone else was frozen in place.

Hei Anjing, however, was not taken aback by Tun Shizhe's appearance because he was aware that this individual had been watching over him for a very long time.

Hei Anjing crossed his arms and said, "What do you mean? That this path is lost, is it?"

"Yes, Hunluan is smart as always," Tun Shizhe said.

Frowning, Hei Anjing retorted. "Who the hell are you calling 'Hunluan'? Whoever that is, it's not me."

The man simply smiled in understanding at this remark, but Lu Shang and Leica acted as though they were aware of this Hunluan. Hei Anjing was aware of their response but chose to ignore it. Finding his true love is his top goal at the moment.

Hei Anjing came to a decision, but before acting, he considered his family here on Earth. He did not spend a lot of time with them, but he understood that he could not let them suffer too much since Mo Xuejing loved them and they were his family in this world.

"The Calamity of the Sky is much crueler than the water and land. If you want to survive, find the new sea god. Only when the water and the land complement each other might they have a chance to fight against the sky. Heed my warning, 'Keep an eye not only at the sky but also beyond it.'" Hei Anjing said.

Mo Banyue felt that his son was saying strange words that seemed to be a prophecy of the future unknown to them.

"Xue'er, is this a prophecy? Is it alright for you to say this much?" Mo Xuejing's father asked.

Hei Anjing responded, "I've paid for it already." All of a sudden, under the eyes of everyone, a part of his beautiful long white turned black.

Such a scene startled everyone. Since ice elements adore the Mo Clan, particularly the straight bloodline, they would have had silver hair and silver eyes from birth. The sole member of the Mo Clan with silver hair and eyes is Mo Xuejing, who is supposedly favored by the Winter God. Only until the members of the Mo Clan revert back to black will their lives finally begin to vanish.

Hei Anjing's hair was becoming black, which indicated that his life or at least his powers were running out. This secret is known only to the Mo Clan. Therefore, Mo Xinyue, Mo Banyue, and Xue Keiran reacted in the most vivid way when a portion of Hei Anjing's hair became black.

Xue Keiran held the back part of his son's hair with a shocked expression. "Xue'er!? No, stop talking. It's enough. What you said is enough! Don't speak anymore!"

"Dad, don't be afraid. It's my abilities that are affected this time. It's not that bad," Hei Anjing said, trying to comfort Mo Xuejing's dad, his dad in this world.

Mo Banyue also hesitated to pat his shoulder, but the corners of his eyes were also red.

"Your dad is right. You have done well. Stop talking. Any more of this is..."

Hei Anjing held his parents hands and said, "I'm doing this because I wanted to spend more time with you in this world. Even if I lost all my abilities in this world, this time for sure... Even if I am not here, I will help you survive these calamities. I've wasted more than enough lifetimes. This time for sure." These were the words Mo Xuejing had always wanted to say to his parents.

After this world was reset numerous times, Mo Xuejing, the world's villain, not only killed his husband and children innumerable times but also lamented that all previous life on this star had ended for an unknowable number of times and that he had been unable to save his parents from the Ruins of Time. This time, the God of Void had come into this planet, and his core soul had arrived.

Thus, this world's original storyline has been undermined.

He can now accomplish everything he was unable to achieve previously, and the original plot has been abandoned. This time, he decides to merge with Hei Anjing and live as him in order to preserve this world and protect his loved ones. He ought to be able to save them with his indisputable strength. A little loss of power would not deter the God of Destruction. Experience new stories on mvl

His soul would not be impacted; just his vessel would. He does not give a damn, but his family back home is understandably concerned because they were unaware of it.

Hei Anjing was now faced with a choice: save his other half, save his family, or save the planet. Though in practice he ends up choosing the latter option once more. This time, however, he will undoubtedly save this universe, even if he violates the Divine Laws. Mo Xuejing was born into this world.

Giving mortals information about their future and fate is forbidden by the laws of God. There will be consequences for it. A reduction in force. A reduction in longevity. A missing limb. Everything is conceivable.

They heard a prophecy from Hei Anjing. He is impervious to the spirit and is punished because of the strength of his soul. All repercussions have been applied to his mortal body. Hei Anjing's ice elemental ability was impacted by the prophecy he had just made. He had also significantly reduced his own life expectancy by defying fate and averting Lu Wangle's demise.

He kept it a secret from everyone, and no one else is aware of it. However, his powerful soul cannot endure his frail mortal body for very long. He has at most a few more decades left in him before his time on this planet is up. The God of Destruction activated his mateship imprint with his other half, and black snowflakes appeared at the corner of his left eye.

"I don't know how long I will be done, but I will buy you enough time to prepare for the final calamity," Hei Anjing said.

Few people in this vicinity noticed the time components congregating around Hei Anjing. His compatibility with time elements is worse than that of fire elements, a fact known only to the gods who knew him well. If he were in his original vessel, that would be one thing; but alas, he is in a mortal's vessel right now.

There is a reason, too, why gods never make themselves use elements they do not belong with. The Divine Laws prohibit forcing an element to obey its command, and this is one of the sins with the harshest consequences concerning a person's life expectancy.

If one stays healthy, the average person in this world can live for at least two hundred years. A hunter's lifespan can reach three hundred years, and their longevity increases with their power. The antagonist of this realm, Mo Xuejing, is doomed to perish at the hands of the heroes.

However, the entire original narrative is broken at this point, and he is expected to live for a very long time—at most 500 years. It is merely that he altered Lu Wangle's fate by making a prophecy, and as a result, he now faces a 100-year sentence.

He is attempting to utilize the time factor this time, which is not compatible with him. He was nevertheless affected by the divine punishment despite his compatibility with the God of Void, with whom he shared a bond. The only thing left to do was find the desired trace and slightly travel back in time to find his beloved.

In addition, Hei Anjing made the decision to momentarily halt the passage of time in this world, giving the local populace time to get ready for the impending global dimensional invasion.

Leica reacted and wanted to stop his master. "Master, No!!!"

"Oh no. The Lord is going crazy again. Why would he use elements he can't use? He will receive divine punishments again!" Zhi Yue exclaimed as he could still recall in the world where Lord Hei had suffered a punishment that not only greatly lessened his lifespan but also injured his soul.

"What should we do!? Lord Hei's soul is incomplete. If he gets injured at this time, we don't know what would have happened!" System Yue panicky said.

Nobody knew what was going to happen next. The man wearing a black cloak, Tun Shizhe, was the one who stopped Hei Anjing. He quickly used his devouring power to prevent Hei Anjing's time spells from activating. His cloak flew in his haste, revealing a face that belonged to Ye Xiajie on Vearth and Ye Jieye on this world.

Everyone cried out in shock at how identical it looked, as though it were Ye Jieye himself.

Ye Jingli calls in disbelief, "Ye'er?"

"Stop! That's not him!" Lu Wei said as he held back his beloved from approaching this man, who looked a lot like their son. "What the hell is happening? Who the hell are you?"

Wang Xingmo, the king, said. "He is the evil god in that tower."

Heavenly Guardian Mu Zang, as if remembering something and connecting the current situation to the past event, realized that they had been had.

"It was you! Did you plan all this right from the beginning!? You gave me that temporarily used vessel Xiao Ye used and forced it so he had to come out of that dungeon with his soul, so he must have no other choice but to return inside. Don't tell me you are also the reason why he failed to come out!"

Mu Zang's husband, who had a black face, restrained him from fighting Tun Shizhe. He learned more about the history of the Ruins of Time than the others did. It was stated that a strong outsider brought this dimensional universe into this world, and the world punished it by imprisoning it in the tower.

"You are the evil god that brought this dungeon to this world. Did you connect the two worlds just to make a place to trap Ye'er?" Ye Jingya asked.

Tun Shizhe gave the only man a slightly surprised glance, as he didn't expect a mortal to see through his plans.

"You know a bit too much." He wanted to kill these two who revealed his plan to others.

Just as he was about to kill Ye Jingya and Mu Zang, Hei Anjing teleported him somewhere. Just as Tun Shizhe was about to fall into some unknown space, he watched Hei Anjing look at his hands, and the small part of gluttonous power swirled in his hand playfully as if he owned it.

"Rebellious, but quite cute enough." Hei Anjing looked at him and said, "It's very hard to catch you off guard."

Such words linger in Tun Shizhe's ear, making him chuckle as if he didn't mind being forcefully thrown out of this world.

"Just as I thought, not remembering is just an excuse. I will see you soon, Hunluan!" Tun Shizhe shouted before disappearing into the space crack Hei Anjing pushed him into.

Chapter 1328: First Grey Star - Hei Anjing's Departure

All eyes stared as Hei Anjing pushed the man wrapped in a cloak into an unexpected space rip. It was also shut down right away like someone had thrown some rubbish in the area. He was the center of attention for everyone.

Hei Anjing said, "You've seen something embarrassing. That was just a punishment for trapping A'Ye in the Ruins of Time. He deserves it. Please do not worry. I've found where my husband is. But I will need to take a leave and don't know when I will be back.

Please prepare for the final calamity. I bought you some time."

Snap!

The God of Destruction stopped time everywhere on Earth and in a portion of space beyond this star with a single snap of his fingers. Huge time spells encircled the world. The only thing that was stopped was time. All other life forms in the star are not fully affected. Their life cycle is halted, yet they can still move.

Hei Anjing said, "You won't age or die for one whole year. The final calamity is the strongest and the worst among the three calamities. After all, the sky is wider than water and spreads more than the land.

You must protect the whole world to survive. There are only two endings: to defend your world and survive, or the world dies and everything in it does as well."

Hei Anjing's remarks were taken seriously by all, and they saw him take over the world. They were speechless, stunned beyond belief. Ultimately, the events transpiring were beyond their typical comprehension.

Hei Anjing said, "Lu Shang, Leica, you take the lead. Do what you can do and don't force what you can't. Until the end, when your life is in danger, you can do as you wish. I will try to come back as soon as possible. Child, you support them." The child Hei Anjing called is the God inside Ji Yoonjun.

The three true gods in the area saluted the God of Destruction. Then he looked at Lu Ming, Su Jin, and Mo Yuhan. His eyes look cold yet he looks gentle at this moment.

"No matter what happens, don't flutter. You three are the real guardians of this world. If your power gets lacking in the end, ask this world to support you. That's your right as its protector. Don't be afraid of death. As long as this world exists, you three would never really die."

After talking to his subordinates and the protagonists of this world, Hei Anjing turns around to face his family and his husband's family in this world.

"Grandfather, Dad, Father. You are the one with the strongest bond with me. Believe in your bloodline as my family members you have the blood of immortality in your veins. Even though Mo Xuejing was born as a mortal in this world, my original immortality is the strongest bloodline I have aside from his Ice ability. Never be afraid of death.

That is something you should never fear as someone of my bloodline."

"Grandpa Mu, Grandpa Ye, Uncle Ye, and Uncle Lu. Even though it's thin, my husband had a strong connection with me. Even if it's not immortality, you should be able to use fast regeneration. Likewise, you just need to awaken your bloodline plus the Lu Clan possessing the blood of Phoenix you are capable of cheating death and rebirth. The Mu and Ye Clan are connected to us.

Grandpa Mu when using your ability of sounds to control someone, don't use the sound as a medium but the words. Language is truth and power itself. Grandfather Ye and Uncle Ye, your abilities are not mainly clairvoyance. If the Lu Clan gave my husband the ability to control fire, your Ye Clan allowed him to wield the darkness. In the dark, your family is unparalleled."

"I have said everything that needs to be said. I still need to save A'Ye... Please excuse..."

Before Hei Anjing could make his move two people had jumped into him and hugged him. One is his dad in this world, Xue Keiran, and the other is the dad of his husband in this world, Ye Jingli.

Xue Keiran said, "My darling, take care of yourself."

"Xiao Xue, I will leave my son in your care. Be careful on the way." Ye Jingli said.

"Hm. I will be back soon." Hei Anjing lightly hugs them back before gesturing to his father and uncle to take them away.

Everyone chose to observe him from a distance after he asked them to move away from him. Every stride he took restored the earth beneath his feet and covered it in ice. His gait is leisurely and composed. The formerly-used battleground had been leveled once more in front of all eyes, with the shattered soil being patched and the holes filled in with ice.

Su Jin, Lu Ming, and Mo Yuhan saw the amazing ability to control the ice.

Lu Ming asked his sworn brother, "Brother, are you also capable of such a scene? A wide range of control over ice elements."

"Hm, I think. I can. If I got more control than I was supposed to, I would be able to spread my ice on the terrain. But my brother isn't even commanding the ice elements, those guys just move to make a path for him. That's their own doing and not my brother's," Mo Yuhan said.

Su Jin asked confusedly. "What do you mean?"

{This is what it means to be loved by one element. In the eyes of all ice elements in existence, this Venerable Lord is their God and their ruler. He is the winter and the ice itself.} The Nirvana Flame Spirit spoke.

Hei Anjing began singing in old languages in the center of the open field. There was a strong surge of ice and space elements in the vicinity. Zhi Yue, Roi, Lu Shang, Leica, and Ji Yoonjun had to build a barrier to shield the others due to the strong fluctuation.

Just as everyone is staring, ice doors appear and enclose Hei Anjing. Anyone can look inside the transparent, glass-like ice door. The fact that each door had a unique image was startling. A world of fiction, an ancient world, a world of cultivation, a world of modern world, hell, heaven, and more. Around Hei Anjing, the entire world materialized.

Using space elements, he had called forth and sealed off the Universal Space Path with ice components.

Everyone else was dumbfounded; even the other gods in the area were stunned.

Leica exclaimed, "This is...! Don't tell me!"

"Universal Space Path. The hidden back door to all worlds in existence. As expected, the Hei Clan's Bloodline possessed such a thing. But not all doors had been summoned. Only the doors of the worlds within this universe which we are in were summoned. This is amazing," Lu Shang complimented.

Ji Yoonjun mumbled, "Is this something all the Hei Clan can do?"

"Only the direct bloodline can. The real Universal Space Path is under the control of the God of Space, Hei Jue. It is rumored that he possessed all the space doors to all existing worlds., regardless of whether it was a living world, an abandoned world, or a dead world. Lord Hei Jue possessed the space doors for them all.

Lord Hei is his most beloved brother, so this must be a spare key," Lu Shang said.

Hei Anjing gently opened his eyes, showing tiny purple dragons, and everyone watched. Despite the fact that this is a part of the power the God of Destruction took from Tun Shizhe, these dragons appear surprisingly subdued in front of him.

Hei Anjing said, "Can you bring me to where your main body is?"

Hei Anjing's fingertips were encircled and kissed by the little dragons. This response reminds me too much of Roi's occasionally flirtatious behavior toward him. At last, they took off and made their way to one of the space portals. Hei Anjing trailed closely after and opened the door after taking a quick look around.

He added, "I will be back soon," and then, with a brief, cheeky smirk on the corner of his lips, he went through one of the space doors. The ice elements that had been blocking the other doors broke apart as soon as he went through that one, and all of the doors vanished, as though they had never been. The broad field is covered with slow-moving snow, revealing a sight of perfect whiteness.

Meanwhile, Hei Anjing just left the world they came from to find Ye Jieye.

He had never realized there was a timeframe until the God of Void had shown him. This is the historical period before the creation of the Gods of Light, Shen Siwang, and Darkness, Xia Jieye. Only the God of Origin, the God of End, and the God of Chaos are supposed to have existed at the beginning of time.

Upon discovering the true face of Chaos, he was unable to refute the reality that his wife is the embodiment of the God of Chaos. With the exception of the silver eyes, which are swapped out for a dull gray one that shines with black stars, they look quite alike. Furthermore, there is warmth in this person's gaze and mannerisms.

Rather, he appears incredibly kind and lighthearted, with eyes as clear and pure as a happy child's. Pure and pure, existing in the purest form possible.

{Ah! You only have one eye. A pair of cute wings and a tail. Your eyes are red, amazing~ as expected of me. I, Hunluan, have now made one that can accompany eternity like Papa and Dada do!}

The Void God desired to speak. Sadly, the body he had was not whole, and he was not born with a mouth to speak. He attempted to speak with the individual directly in his head by employing heavenly consciousness.

[Cough! Can you hear me?]

{Hm? What is that? Something is talking in my mind.}

[Turn around. [I'm behind you.]

The man called Hunluan turned around and looked at him in disbelief. He looked shocked that his mouth was wide open enough to fit an egg inside.

{Are you the one talking to me?}

The little flying eyeball gave a head nod. The stunning man's horrified countenance gave way to an ecstatic smile. Ye Xiajie was caught before he could respond, and the young man fled. They did, in fact, fly.

He had no idea that he would run into the God of Origin and God of End again. Furthermore, these two Gods were not like the others. They simply have eyes for each other and lack all emotion. Hunluan received severe treatment.

{Papa! Dada! Look at what I made. I made him use a part of me. He can understand my words and talk to my head directly.}

[Child, watch your manners. Look how many things you had destroyed on the way!] The God of Origin scolded.

The God of End spoke, [Since he destroyed it, he would repair it. Moreover, it's existence itself that causes chaos. That's not his fault.]

The God of Origin spoke, [Ah! The existence I'm trying to create with light as the core is broken again. Hunluan, you...]

{D-Dada, don't be angry. I just want to show you what I made. It's my other half. I made him, so he exists only for myself! I'm amazing, right?} Hunluan happily reported this to his parents. But, like the praise he expected, he was scolded even more.

The origin and end turned pale.

We have the God of Chaos, Hunlun. He is the origin of all evil and negativity in the world. Out of the three entities, he possesses the greatest amount of power. He was capable of both creation and destruction. He would not have been allowed to exist by these two if it were not for his innocent thinking.

The God of Void's thoughts upon seeing the paled faces of the God of Origin and the God of End.

'Their reaction to this existence gave me chills. I have a bad premonition about this.'

The God of Origin reached out. He wanted to take the creature in his son's hand. [Hunlun, give that thing to Dada. Dad is going to destroy it.]

{No! This is Hunlun's!}

[Don't be naughty! That is the thing that can never exist. It would kill or devour anything. It would create chaos and put us all in danger. Give it to Papa!] The God of End said.

{No! This is Hunlun's other half. He would exist only for me! To be with me forever,} Hunlun said.

The God of Origin was so angry that he said things he mustn't have said. [No! Aside from you, anything you make will be mindless evil. One chaos is enough. Another will be beyond our control!]

[Wife!] The God of End called wanting to stop his wife but it was too late

The Origin and the End were furious, as would be expected. Sadly, Hunluan was unwilling to give his parents the nasty thing that was in their son's grasp. His eyes were welling with tears, but his parents retreated rather than comforting him. Anything in this world is susceptible to the power of chaos, and that includes them. Thus, their genuine fear was Chaos.

Although Hunluan was accustomed to this response, the God of Void was so taken aback that even his parents were terrified of him.

{I was born alone. I don't have Papa like Dada does. Why do I need to be alone? Is it because I am Chaos!? You gave birth to me but you are afraid of me. I never wanted to be born as Chaos!}

He fought back tears as Hunluan flew away. Anywhere his tears fell, they would create devastation and space storms. He kept them back till they dried up on their own account because he can never let them fall. Weeping silently, he realized the God of Void had no way to console him. He can just go with him. Let this man hug him.

Read latest stories on mvl

'Don't cry. I'm here.'

Chapter 1329: First Grey Star - From I to Us.

The elders managed the disturbance after Hei Anjing left, even telling everyone that Mo Xuejing had gone to find Ye Jieye personally. Many see Mo Xuejing as a god, particularly in the wake of that night when they slept soundly for the first time and saw the mound of monstrous corpses that was higher than a real hill.

What is more, he has this phenomenon where he summons doors that resemble the dungeon entrance.

Numerous worlds opened up for them to behold in this ethereal vision, and with them, the man in complete control. Mo Xuejing and Ye Jieye are genuine gods to the inhabitants of this realm. They think Lord Mo is capable of bringing Lord Ye back.

After watching Lord Hei leave, Ji Yoonjun asked his seniors about some confusion in his mind. "Seniors, why didn't the Venerable Lord kill that person just now? Didn't he cause the Lord God to be trapped?"

Lu Shang and Leica had some guesses, but they weren't sure if what they thought was correct or not.

Zhi Yue was the one who responded to Ji Yoonjun's question. "Didn't you see how he looks? That face... is a mixture of Ye Jieye and the Lord God's features. That person must be connected to the Lord God in some other way. If so, it's understandable that Lord Hei wouldn't kill him, as he isn't sure whether that man's death will also affect the Lord God."

"I see."

Ji Yoonjun agreed with this interpretation, stating that coincidence does not exist in the eyes of God. Nearly everything is in their hands. It is therefore difficult for someone to appear to like someone else and not be in a relationship with him. Ultimately, Chaos bears a striking resemblance to Hei Anjing's previous incarnation, Snow. People with comparable features will always be connected.

Because a god's appearance is distinct from everyone else's, other than family, only something related to them will have a like appearance.

Leica said, "There is no need to worry about Lord Hei. He wouldn't have left if he wasn't sure where he was going. We should focus on preparing for the Last Calamity."

"Since it involves the sky, it would most likely be something coming from space. It might be a dimensional invasion that involves this world and another. This time there are no limitations in space as the sky is everywhere. Those who were weak could no longer just hide. We should at least prepare for the worst," Lu Shang said.

Ji Yoonjun asked, "What should we do then?"

"First, let's invite the New Sea God and his apostles for a meeting. Let's send Su Jin to pass the message. He is someone considered the prince of the sea," Leica said.

Lu Shang said, "I will explain to this side what happened. You can go with them. Just be careful."

"Okay, you two," Leica said.

The group dispersed. Leica departed in the direction of Su Jin, Lu Ming, and Mo Yuhan. Lu Shang, on the other hand, brought Ji Yoonjun along to the meeting with the heavenly guardians and the human monarch to discuss their last-minute arrangements. The catastrophe of the sky still looms above them, even after the catastrophe of the land has passed.

They had no idea where or when those beings might show up in the world. They were able to purchase time for a maximum of a year, at least with the spell that Lord Hei left behind, but it remains to be seen if it will be sufficient.

Back to the situation of the God of Void...

After giving Hunluan some consolation, he felt the need to go to sleep since he was angry that his parents had disregarded him. The God of Void was about to process what had just happened when he saw something different. He acquires a humanoid form this time, despite his appearance being that of a little child who is hardly able to walk. He does, at least, appear human.

Ye Xiajie was startled to see his reflection in the mirror; the corner of his mouth was stained with red blood, and he scowled when he saw his tiny hand, which was also covered in that rusty scent. He slept once and was unable to remember anything after that.

When he finally had time to glance around, he discovered that he was surrounded by deceased people, most likely lesser gods based only on the traces of divinity.

With a detached glance, the God of Void wipes the blood from the corners of his lips and washes his hands. Killing and death are normal to him. Thus, he remained unfazed even by the deaths of those around him at this same moment. In reality, he could care less. His body craves it, but his intellect makes him feel ill at the sight and taste of blood and flesh in his throat.

It seems like a long time since he has done anything because of this unbearable hunger. He would probably turn into a madman whose sole goal is to devour everything in his path if he were not logical.

Hunluan reappeared in front of him right after he had torched the body to clear the trash. There was no longer any innocence in his eyes this time. Rather, he looks at him with a mixture of disappointment, rage, and a need for tears. It appeared as though he had made a mistake.

The God of Void looked around and thought at the moment, 'Am I not supposed to burn them?'

Slap!

He was about to raise his hand when Hunluan slapped him across the face, causing his eyes to redden.

Ye Xiajie was unable to comprehend what he had done. In fact, since he had no control over this body, it might not have been his fault in the first place. This was the scene that greeted him when he recently awoke. He was unaware of the reason for the slap and was unable to adequately explain it to the person.

{I told. I told you before. If you are hungry, come to me. You cannot just eat anyone. If Origin and End learned about this, they would definitely ask you to be exterminated again!}

Ye Xiajie said, "But... I don't know what happened. When I opened my eyes, it was already like this. I don't remember anything. I ate them. How can I eat them?"

{You... You don't remember? This is impossible. No, maybe... You don't know why you are here?}

"I don't know. The last thing I remember is when I was not in this form yet. Aren't I only supposed to be an eye?" The God of Void said.

Hunluan, on the other hand, thought it was more unbelievable the longer he listened. He glanced at the toddler in front of him, seeming shocked. There were numerous personalities inside this tiny body, he suspected. The only logical piece is the one that is in front of him right now. The rest acts on its innate desire to murder and eat anything.

Suddenly, this man called Hunluan hugged him while trembling. He heard him whispering, {I promise, I will find a way. To separate the rational you from your instincts. Even if it's the last thing I do, I will definitely help you change.}

The God of Void said, "Okay, but if it's too much, it's okay to kill me."

{No. No! That will never happen!}

Hunluan helped him remove the remnants of his presence from the place while holding him in his arms. The God of Void embraced the guy about the neck, and Ye Xiajie became extremely thirsty at the sight of this object and Hunluan's thin neck. Luckily, he is sensible enough to take no action. All that happened was that he slept off again.

It was just that the third time he woke up, he would regret falling asleep. Ultimately, the sight before him shifts from the sanctuary-like surroundings to a destroyed area of space, and he loses all self-control. And he had matured much further. He looked up to see Hunluan with a white death scythe in his hand and white armor covering his entire body.

This man seemed to have entirely lost all emotion, as though he had turned it all against him.

The God of Void desired to speak, but he couldn't control anything. He saw himself getting all crazy and attacking Hunluan. ruthless and cruel. Then, as memories of Hunluan killing him flood his mind, his tongue begins to move on its own.

"It's already too late, Hunluan! I ate them. They were quite delicious. If not for you protecting Origin and the End, I would have eaten them as well. You created me by restraining my hunger. My dear creator, it was your own fault that you incorporated desires on me.

What I wanted I will take away. To make sure it would never be gone, I had to eat them. In the end, you shall be eaten by me too in the end. Aren't you happy? Inside of me, we will be together forever as you wish! Hahaha~"

{That's not it! I didn't make you end up like this. All I wanted was a companion. One that can be with me for eternity, like how Origin is to End. I know it's wrong you created you, but... I'm just so lonely.}

"That's why I told you~ let me eat you and we can be together forever~"

Ye Xiajie watches the scene and realizes that this might be the time when the Devouring Evil, the World Eater, was born.

His thoughts: 'Those memories from before—just how many times did I die only to regenerate countless times? Uncontrollable hunger, irrational hunger due to being famished, and rage for not feeling full. It was actually a bit unbearable for me. But this man, showing this kind of scene to me, is telling me I have connections to the World Eater.'

He heard Ye Jieye's voice in his head saying, [Of course there is a connection. After all, this is our Origin. For you, him, them and me.]

The God of Void watches himself murdering Hunluan in front of him before he can respond. He was struck even more at this point, feeling as though he had become the person himself, seeing such a familiar face as if he were seeing his Jing'er himself. Hunluan saw the World Eater in this timeline cry, perhaps inspired by the God of Void within this body.

Find adventures at mvl

A beautiful smile appeared on the gorgeous pale face of the dying man in front of him. He heard him speak in his mind, {As expected... You are still there. I'm sorry. I hurt you. countless times.

I'm not... going to... ask you to... forgive me. If there is... a new life...

I will definitely... repay you. As promised... Let me free you. In your next life, I hope... you wouldn't...

be burdened with... this hunger anymore. My... Other... Half... Xia~}

Xia means the glow of a sunrise. In Hunluan's words, Xia is the only light in his life. He was the one who made me feel like he was not a god who brought only chaos. The only happiness in his life and the one whom he wanted to save the most.

The God of Void's eyes opened, allowing the power of chaos to enter his body and give him life. He had the impression that something was forcing his body to break apart. The World Eater burst into many fragments and was granted a second chance at life. Being split up into many parts and reincarnated would allow them to enjoy their lives, unlike when they were one and had an unquenchable thirst.

If nothing else, at least their insatiable need would be satisfied.

The soul of the God of Void was at last released as well, though it could not move. All he can do is watch as Hunluan's body, having given his life in sacrifice, vanishes, leaving just a shell of himself drifting in space. Unfortunately, he was yanked out of that timeframe and returned to that shadowy realm known as subconsciousness just as soon as he tried to reach out.

Ye Jieye is waiting for him there.

Ye Jieye said, "How do you feel? Aren't I kind enough to block some parts when we are in a state of madness due to hunger? You sleep through all the disgusting parts. I'm being kind."

The God of Void, after waking up from his shock, grabbed Ye Jieye's collar, giving him a smirk. "What was that? What the hell did you show me!?"

"What, you ask? Like I said~ it's our origin. Before us divided from the original I," Ye Jieye answered.

Chapter 1330: First Grey Star - The Reward for the Completion of the Trial of Marriage.

Hei Anjing entered the lost space where the space corridor that connected the present world to the Ruins of Time existed by passing via the door that the small dragons had selected. The dimensional monsters trapped in the space corridor had devoured most of the space elements, leaving this region in ruins.

Hei Anjing looked around, and the mess in the area annoyed him. He summoned Reine, the hybrid Phoenix-Dragon, to clean up the place.

"Reine, clean up the area."

Caaaws~

With a dragon ancestry, the Phoenix bobbed its head and took off, destroying the ruins until the entire region was burnt clean. However, Hei Anjing continued to scan the area and was unable to spot his husband's figure. The little dragons created by the power of gluttony, however, were gone and could not be found. It must have vanished entirely.

He was gazing about when he sensed a familiar aura behind him, finally emerging from the shadows. He had known from the minute he entered this damaged area that someone was silently observing him. In fact, there are two of them.

Hei Anjing spun around to give him a quick smile, but before he could say anything, the man wearing Ye Jieye's vessel pierced through his chest and removed his heart. There was another worried, angry, and frantic voice in the vicinity.

Stab! Cough!

{Hunluan!!?}

Hei Anjing, who was meant to hold his husband's spirit, turned to confront Ye Jieye with a pale face and bloody lips. The man who rescued him from his fall turned out to be Tun Shizhe, the man from earlier who wore the black cloak, and the man who had been tossed outside by Hei Anjing into an unidentified area.

{You let your guard down too easily! That's not him, but a corrupted piece of the original us. Shit! Your heart!}

The once-calm-in-all-situations Tun Shizhe attempted to heal Hei Anjing, but before he could, the hole in his chest had grown a heart again beneath his eyes. The hole was filled in and the missing heart grew again.

{This is... Immortality? Since when did you have such a convenient skill?} Tun Shizhe mumbled as he saw black snowflakes growing under the corner of Hei Anjing's eyes. The mateship imprint he shares with the God of Void has been activated.

Given that this imprint is shared with one's partner who has successfully completed the trial of marriage, its privileges are abnormal. A little impression is non-transmissible, but the imprint obtained at the successful completion of the Trial of Marriage is transmissible and can aid its host in sustaining life despite adverse outcomes.

Trial of Marriage's Imprint's Privileges:

1. It can allow the two couples to share their abilities, power, and eternity.
2. It allowed the couple to pinpoint the location of their partners. Requirements: Both souls of the couple must be complete, or this can't be used.
3. One of the couples would never die unless the other one died with him at the same time.
4. It can cancel all negative bloodline weaknesses, skills, or abilities.

After completing this trial, Hei Anjing lost his bloodline's weakness. The ability to die or feel pain only in the hands of their other half. It was because of this special effect that Shen Siwang, Mo Baojun, and the other couples in Vearth also wanted to complete this trial. To remove the only weakness of the Mo Clan towards their beloved.

Hei Anjing grinned. Not even he anticipated this to occur. Their family never suffered because of the Mo Clan's frailty. For them, leaving their lives in the care of their lover is equivalent to making an unbreakable vow of love and devotion. However, Ye Xiajie and Shen Siwang, the brothers, their beloved's infirmity is more of a chain in their eyes.

Who wants to bind their sweetheart with a chain to themselves?

Moreover, Hei Anjing is willing to sacrifice everything for Ye Xiajie, but the latter feels strongly about this unfairness. That's why the Hei Clan and Mo Baojun raised this Trial of Marriage to the God of Void as a way to prove their love for Hei Anjing. The God of Void and the God of Destruction completed the trial of marriage, but its effect was only activated after the Revival of Ye Xiajie.

The prerequisite to activating the Imprint of Trial of Marriage is for one of the lovers to end the other's life and fully tie their souls.

Even if one of the pairs passes away, there should not be any issues following the activation. Simply put, Hei Anjing's spirit had already been broken up into many pieces at that point. He had barely survived thanks to the rewards of the ordeal of marriage. After all, the remaining soul fragments perish along with the primary soul whenever it passes away.

The Trial of Marriage's completion award preserved Hei Anjing's soul's wisp and prevented it from entirely vanishing. That wisp of his soul was properly safeguarded, in addition to having found his original vessel. So retrieving the fragments of the missing soul would rouse Hei Anjing from his sleep.

Moreover, as more soul fragments are gathered, Hei Anjing's soul will wake up from time to time, like in this world.

Tun Shizhe asked in confusion, {You didn't die? Your heart was eaten.}

Hei Anjing got up, took a quick look at the man securing him from behind, and shoved him away with his elbows. He sensed that this man and his Xia had a similar aura, yet they were still two different individuals. He would never be needy and would only ever cling to his partner.

"I can't die unless Xia is killed with me. Likewise, you guys wouldn't survive if he was killed as well," Hei Anjing said.

{Do you remember everything, Hunluan?} Tun Shizhe asked with excitement in his eyes.

Hei Anjing said, "Not much. But we should be clear about something. Hunluan died. He died a long time ago and I am just a mere fragment of him. So you shouldn't treat me as him, like how I don't treat you as Xia."

These words silenced the man in the black robe. He can understand that the real Hunluan is no longer with us, but seeing Hei Anjing in front of him gives him the impression that Hunluan never passed away. He is Hunluan himself, in their hearts, not only him but the tainted pieces as well.

The only person who found the soul known as Hei Anjing and showed him unconditional love was Ye Xiajie, the primary soul piece who had already forgotten everything. It is not that he belongs to Hunluan; rather, it is that he is Hei Anjing.

Because their lives have long been intertwined, Ye Xiajie's discovery that Hei Anjing is a part of Hunluan and that he is a member of the World Eater would have no effect. They shall live for the eternity that they have yearned for.

Tun Shizhe mumbled, {Isn't that the real wish of Hunluan?}

Hei Anjing asked, "What did you say?"

{Oh! I said... Be careful.}

Abruptly, Ye Jieye attacked Hei Anjing once more. He glares at Hei Anjing, his face, and eyes etched with madness and unbridled hunger. However, Tun Shizhe seized his hand as it was about to pierce Hei Anjing's heart a second time.

Hei Anjing frowned, "Is this... A corrupted piece of the World Eater? How come he is different from you?"

{It seems you weren't lying when you said that you don't remember everything. Whatever, I will explain. These corrupted pieces are the reason we went insane in the first place. To keep our promise to you not to eat anything, we held back our hunger. It lasted too long and this part of our soul was born. Their desire to eat is the source of our power itself.

After our souls dispersed into pieces, this kind of guy was reborn as well. Their desire to eat and desire to keep Hunluan for themselves ended up as a desire to eat Hunluan himself, which means eating you~}

Hei Anjing asked, "If I let him eat, will a part of me gain sanity?"

{Don't be crazy. His crazed state is his normal one. Feeding him will lead him to more hunger and madness.}

Hei Anjing said, "How do I save him then?"

{Are you for real? He already killed you once!} Tun Shizhe said.

Hei Anjing was pissed. "Why are you shouting at me? Isn't this guy a part of Xia? I can't just watch him like this and do nothing."

Your journey continues with mVL

{How about me? I am like this one. Aren't you going to save me?}

"How can I save you?" Hei Anjing seriously asked.

However, the man was rendered speechless by this sincerity. Though he was joking, he did not anticipate Hei Anjing would take him seriously. Furthermore, judging only by his expression, he is unquestionably prepared to assist him due to their shared ancestry with the God of Void.

{Why wasn't I the one who found you instead of that bastard?} Tun Shizhe mumbled.

"What is it? Stop mumbling, I can't understand you at all."

Tun Shizhe said, {How about you give me a kiss?}

Hei Anjing was taken aback by this statement and looked at Tun Shizhe in shock. However, he heard his husband's voice from behind him before he could say no.

"How about you eat my punch?" Ye Xiajie said.

After holding the corrupted one within his vessel, it appears that the God of Void was able to successfully take control of the body. He wrenched Tun Shizhe's arm around and seized him, flinging him savagely away from his wife. He was so tempted to punch the bastard in the face.

"Fuck off! Stay away from my wife!" The God of Void shouted.

{Shut up, you retard! You even allowed him to get hurt! You are so fucking useless!}

Shocked, the God of Void spun around right away. He examines the holes above Hei Anjing's head and the bloodstains on his body. It took him only a moment to realize what had transpired.

"Jing'er, how many times are you going to allow yourself to be harmed by me!? No, that thing wasn't exactly me, but... even if it's me, don't let yourself get hurt," Ye Xiajie said with a reprimanding tone, but those words just pissed Hei Anjing more.

Hei Anjing said, "Who are you to scold me!? Didn't you almost allow Chaos to kill you? If I didn't arrive on time, wouldn't you also die under his hand?"

"That's different. I owe you that much!" The God of Void retorted.

Hei Anjing said, "I owe you just as much! So isn't it okay?"

While he patted the small phoenix sitting next to him, Tun Shizhe observed the pair arguing. The pair were fighting, as evidenced by their glares at one another. Ultimately, the God of Void withdraws from the battle first.

Ye Xiajie said, "Okay, it's my fault. Let's stop fighting."

"By the way, what happened to that one who took control of you just now? Are you okay now?" Hei Anjing asked worriedly.

Ye Xiajie answered, "I ate it. Don't worry, it will never go out of control. In the first place, the reason that power went out of control twice is because of this bastard?" He pointed to Tun Shizhe watching them not too far away.

{You cannot blame your own carelessness on me. It's your fault for falling into the trap.}

"I'll kill you!"

{Hahaha~ do it if you can~. Little darling Hunluan, I'll see you again soon~ give me a kiss the next time we meet!}

The bastard was thrown by the God of Void with the God-Slaying Sword Shenyuan, but he quickly fled the existing space coordinates. Shenyuan stayed in the same location as his master and gave up on chasing the departing target.

The God of Void was fuming in anger. "I'll cut him to pieces the next time we meet."

"Okay, that's enough. Let's go back to rest," Hei Anjing said as he suddenly felt his line of sight was turning dark. "Eh? why is the surrounding swirling?"

Ye Xiajie panicked and caught his falling wife. "Baby? Baby, are you alright? Damn!" He used his wife's earrings to enter the small world they owned to find someone to check on Hei Anjing.

Meanwhile, in that E-grade world, gray star, they came from...

It is been a long time already. Although a year was not too long, everyone who resided in this gray star made every effort to get ready for the big disaster. The people who lived on land and in water had come together this time. Gazing up at the heavens, they observed the enchantment that Hei Anjing had placed on this tiny star disintegrating. Its effects were no longer felt.

The world's time had returned.

Numerous spacecraft arrived at the gray star's grounds from space beyond the dazzling sky. The cosmic invasion was under way in full.

Sea God Lanyu, Leica, and Lu Shang were in the lead. They were the ones selected to lead the way. Troops composed of both land and marine living races follow behind them. All races and looks combined, everyone was together this time. The struggle to keep the world alive has started. As predicted, the Calamity of the Sky had plummeted into the Gray Star.

"They have finally arrived! These invaders are from another dimension," Sea God Lanyu said.