

World Plot 1541

Chapter 1541 20.105 First Black Star - Escaped

The enraged God of Void immediately went to kill as soon as he found his target. It seems that Gui Xiajun and Hei'An didn't escape out of the world after running away from the group of Ye Xiajie and Hei Anjing.

The moment the God of Void cut off the system connection between him and his younger brother, he once again spread his domain of darkness in the whole star just to find them. As soon as he found Gui Xiajun, he initiated an attack that could completely erase the existence of the latter.

Seeing the huge black hand falling from above, Gui Xiajun and Hei'An couldn't hold back cursing. It was Hei'An who made the move and grabbed Gui Xiajun, preparing to open a space portal to leave this world. But this itself takes time; seeing that Hei'An will be vulnerable until the space is open, he protects him.

He used his black dagger to block the huge hand; however, the difference in strength between a sovereign and an ordinary evil god is large; he was instantly overwhelmed.

Urgh!

The sounds of bones cracking were heard, and Gui Xiajun's groans sounded painful. A potent corrosion of darkness spread from above, completely rendering Gui Xiajun's left hand useless.

Hei'An unhesitant cut Gui Xiajun's left arm pulled him in the space crack and left the world. What was crushed under the God's hand of the God of Void was none other than the left hand of Gui Xiajun and his black dagger.

"Wait! My dagger!"

"It's too late."

BOOM!

After the huge black hand disappeared, the darkness in the world also retreated back, forming the shape of Ye Xiajie as the world once again returned to light. With a cold face, he looked down on the huge crater in the shape of the hand.

He wasn't surprised that Gui Xiajun had escaped; after all, he had Hei'An, his wife's incarnation, and has the ability to use most skills of his beloved. Just as he was about to leave, he saw a small glint of light and noticed something was left behind the crater where his targets were supposed to die.

With a single step, the God of Void appeared on the ground and picked up the black blade dagger he had made and given to his younger brother as his adulthood gift. Who would have thought this dagger would be used against his wife's soul fragments and get An Juejing killed before his eyes? Moreover, he is unable to save him at all.

Crash!

With a grip of his hand, the black dagger was crushed into pieces. When this gift was destroyed, all of Ye Xiajie's feelings for Gui Xiajun as his brother had faded. Because thinking of his younger brother made his foolish actions from before even more evident.

Especially in the world of Sentinels and Guides, where his wife's vessel died prematurely and wasn't even given time to graduate from school, much less become an adult. He died too young, and the reason for it was because he allowed himself to be killed just to meet Gui Xiajun in the Nest of Rebirth for those who possessed the Phoenix Nirvana's reincarnation skill.

Ye Xiajie mumbles,

"As expected, even families are not to be fully trusted."

"That's not true! At the very least, I will never betray you!"

A voice lingers in the ears of the God of Void. Before he could react to someone hugging him from behind, the familiar scent of snow and mint assaulted the nose of the God of Void; it immediately calmed his raging emotions and knew who owned such a unique fragrance.

The God of Void's hatred faded at this moment.

"Jing'er, when did you follow me?"

"When I felt you using your domain to find someone. Anyway, forget about Gui Xiajun; he is not worthy of your anger," said the God of Destruction, Hei Anjing.

The God of Void recalled how much those reincarnations of the World Eater covet his beloved. Tun Shizhe annoyed him enough, and now there is another one, and the most frustrating one among them. He never had expected that the cause of all his tragedies was all planned by his younger brother, Gui Xiajun.

It was simply unbelievable; however, all events in this world had pointed it out. He couldn't even deny it, especially after Gui Xiajun said those words himself. How come he never noticed? Is it because he had gotten a family he always dreamed of before reincarnation as Ye Xiajie? He didn't know why things had gone wrong this time.

The God of Void turns around and hugs his wife. Hei Anjing let himself be carried and hugged at the same time; despite the tightness of this embrace, he never complains, as this is the warmth he had been yearning for all this time.

"I'm here. I will always be here for you,"

said the God of Destruction, Hei Anjing.

After the God of Void had calmed down, he carried his wife as it was, and he headed back to the south. Unknown to him, Hei Anjing, who he was carrying, was looking at the center of the crater with cold eyes and a mischievous smile at the corner of his lips.

The voiceless mouthed,

"I see you~"

After the couple had disappeared from the crate in the shape of the hand, Hei'An and Gui Xiajun, who were finding themselves in another space, came out of it. They didn't directly teleport out of the world and just made a cut in the space to escape the God's Hand, which was intending to crush them.

Looking dumbfounded, Gui Xiajun stared in the direction where the couple had disappeared. He was actually surprised that the God of Destruction acted as if he could see them.

Gui Xiajun asked,

"That just now... can he see us?"

"He is a pureblood from the Hei Clan. Do you think space distortion can be hidden to him?"

retorted Hei'An.

He is now preparing to open a real space portal that leads outside the world. He had a feeling that staying here was dangerous for him. As the main soul, Hei Anjing had the ability to forcibly merge with a soul fragment. He is the authority of all his souls, and the other soul fragments couldn't do such a thing.

Bewildered, Gui Xiajun asked,

"Why do you think he spared us? Is it because of me?"

"Don't dream while still awake! No one can understand what is truly going through the head of our original. It can be said that the craziest among all of us had always been him!"

said Hei'An.

Gui Xiajun frowned,

"Come on~ you can talk badly of him this way. You two are both the same person after all."

"We are not. If you can separate yourself from the God of Void, why not treat us the same as well,"

said Hei'An.

A neat space portal appeared before Hei'An, and countless runes were running to keep this portal open. There are also laws of the space included into it.

Hei'An said,

"Let's leave. Staying here is dangerous. You can do as you wish in the next world. By the way, in exchange for me helping you just now, you must also help me find the other soul fragments for me to merge with them. That's the only way for me to get stronger."

"Okay, I will help you. You will also help me kill my elder brother!"

said Gui Xiajun.

The two of them finally decided to leave the current star completely and walk through the space portal that disappeared after the two of them went in. It seems that these two are truly finished in getting involved in this world and the Heavenly Laws watching them had sighed in relief. His world will now be free of danger.

Back to the south region...

After the God of Void and the God of Destruction left the fortress, the rest of those who were left behind chose to wait instead of chasing after them. They had obviously felt the rage of the God of Void and were getting caught up in whatever this evil god was planning to do; they didn't get involved, as no one wants to die for no reason.

The son of the two supreme gods can only wait for his parents to return. Even though he had descended in vain, Ye Qinjing didn't mind, as he was able to spend more time with his parents in this world, and this makes him happy.

Ye Qinjing spoke,

"Uncles, when will my parents return? They wouldn't be in danger, right?"

"Xiao Qinqin, that's impossible. Not only did your father descend into this world without restriction, your dad isn't easy to kill either,"

said Zhi Yue.

Ye Qinjing's expression turns weird at how Zhi Yue calls his name,

"Uncle Yue, please don't call me Xiao Qinqin. I feel like a baby."

"But you are a baby compared to anyone in this room,"

said Zhi Yue.

Ye Qinjing looked around and had no words to retract. Zhi Yue and Zhi Yang are systems created by his father when he was still the newly born God of Void, Ye Jieye. Uncle Lou Wuye is as old as his father, while Uncle Yun Ming was a few hundred years older than his dad. As for the Demonic Willow Tree, he already existed even before his dad was born.

Compared to him, who is just a recently enthroned God of Time whose age is only 300 years old, the age most of the people in this room can easily surpass a millennium.

Chapter 1542 20.106 First Black Star - Yes Qinjing's Rebirth [End]

At the South Fortress...

Those who were waiting for the couple to return had finished their tea party and started playing while waiting. They have now cleared the table and are now playing Mahjong. The players are: Zhi Yue and Zhi Yang, Yun Ming and Lou Wuye, Demonic Willow Tree and the God of Time, Ye Qinjing.

They were enjoying themselves so much that they didn't even notice that the two people they had been waiting for had longed to return, watching them play together from a distance.

Ye Qinjing noticed the secret moves of the Old Tree.

"Grandpa Willow, don't cheat!"

"What is this boy saying? This old man is just stretching a bit. Don't you know how hard it is to stay in this small pot?"

complained the Demonic Willow Tree.

The Chief Warden grabbed the wandering branch that appeared behind his lord and gave it a squeeze. The Demonic Willow Tree squeals like a pig that's about to give birth.

Ahhhh~

"What are you doing, old man?"

asked the chief warden as he thought that this old tree wanted to take advantage of his lover seeing one of its branches stretch behind Yun Ming.

Feeling the murderous intent from the Chief Warden of the Nether Prison, the Demonic Willow Tree immediately confessed,

"What are you thinking about!? You got it wrong! I only wanted to peek and see what kind of tiles your lover has! Don't think anything else weird!"

screamed the panicking Demonic Willow Tree.

Thud!

Zhi Yue threw his tiles on the table among the four players playing; he had the lowest points all the time.

"Gramps! Stop cheating! No wonder I always lose!"

said Zhi Yue.

Zhi Yang, who knew the reality that his alter ego couldn't play, covered his face in embarrassment. He started pretending that he couldn't hear anything about the situation at all.

The Demonic Willow Tree looked at Zhi Yue in disbelief. He can't believe that he was being blamed for someone who couldn't play the game properly like the rest.

Senior Willow retorted,

"Kid, your loss is your fault. I didn't even need to extend a branch (cheat) to defeat your low points!"

"You'er, give up. You truly don't have luck with these kinds of things," said Zhi Tang.

"Let's stop playing."

"Nonsense! My skills are taught by Lord Hei!"

declared this silly moon system and received a hit on the back of his head.

Ouch~

"Who just hit me!?"

complained Zhi Yue, but when he saw who it was, he suddenly turned mute.

"L-L-Lord Hei?"

"I only taught you gomoku! Not mahjong!"

said Hei Anjing.

"Welcome back, Masters!"

said the two wardens who were already on their knees.

The God of Void, Ye Xiajie, said,

"Arise. There is no need for too much formality."

"Milord, are we going to ascend now?"

asked the Chief Warden.

The one who answered the Chief Warden's question was the God of Destruction.

"No. No. We have to stay here for a few years,"

said Hei Anjing.

The God of Time, Ye Qinjing, asked,

"Dad, why are we staying here? Isn't it better for you to ascend back to the upper realms?"

The God of Destruction looked at his eldest son and patted his head and said,

"It's for your sake, Xiao Qin. The vessel I have in this world is that of a Ger. I am a man who can give birth. You can replace your bloodline with ours in this world."

"That way, when he ascended back to Vearth, no one will say that you are not our son. You've endured it for too long. Since there is an opportunity in this world, there is no need to waste it,"

said the God of Void.

The God of Time was delighted at heart when he heard about this. He had always wanted his parents to be his real biological parents, especially his dad. After all, in his original world, his parents were also not related by his blood. He is a bastard from the last dynasty and was adopted by his imperial father as his heir.

The truth about his real birth was known by limited people, and that's why he successfully sat on the throne after Ye Xiajie and Hei Anjing left his original world. Because of his strong will of wanting to meet his parents again and doing a nice job as an emperor, the merits he had accumulated while he was still alive allowed him to ascend as God.

He wasn't the only one who ascended; the protector of his empire had also garnered enough merits and karma with him that they were able to ascend to the upper realm of Vearth together. Who would have expected that the identities of his parents in the upper realm aren't simple? They are literally one of the sovereigns that rules this place.

His dad even has an uncle who is the sovereign of life and death and the sovereign of light as his father's brother. His background became prominent the moment his identity was connected to the Mo and the Ye families.

But it was also because of this good background that his not being connected by blood to his parents had become a scandal in the upper realm. Just the word adopted added to the word son makes him feel the barrier between his family and himself. He can only be an outsider without connection of blood.

His not being connected by blood to his family had always been a knot in his heart. Though he never told it to his parents and siblings, it won't be hard for them not to hear those vicious whispers whenever he appears in the city.

Hei Anjing asked,

"Xiao Qin, do you agree to become mine and A'Xia's real son?"

"Um! I agree, dad!"

said the God of Void, as he couldn't hold back his tears as he held his dad and father's hands.

The others who were looking at the side were also happy. Even though they treated Ye Qinjing no differently from the other Young Lords and the princess, there are those who can't hold back their tongues. Even though they tried to stop the rumors about Ye Qinjing, most gods are gossipy. When one learns about it, the secret will be heard by the other almost instantly.

Thus, it was decided that they were all going to stay here for a few years and waited for Ye Qinjing to be reborn until he became an adult before returning to Vearth. There is no longer any danger with Hei'An and Gui Xiajun not on this world anymore.

A few months after the disaster, the current great general had retired and given his position to his vice commander. This vice commander took over the South fortress and became the new general that rules the place.

The few barbarians that survived the disaster thanks to the Demonic Willow Tree were accepted by the vice commander to join their South City. It didn't take long for the humans to accept the barbarians as one of their own.

After the retirement of the great general, he followed his lover to serve their masters and head to the borderlands, where the couple lives. After the domain lord Shun Wuyun had brought the survivors of the capital to this small place, the whole borderlands changed a lot. In just a year, it became the biggest city where most survivors lived.

The Anjia Village was treated as the hidden sanctuary where the gods lived. Except for the original villagers, it was hard for an outsider to enter this small village, as it was true that the gods currently live in this place.

The Domain Lord Shun Wuyun lives in Anjia Village with his family. Prophet Sang also lives in this place; he himself is a living god. Adding the fact that Ye Xiajie returned home with his wife, Hei Anjing, together with the two systems—one tree and two wardens—it can be said that this small village houses a lot of divinities.

When Gods gather in one place, the land becomes a holy place. Thus the mortals who lived in this place had their lifespan greatly extended and rarely got sick. There is also a divine doctor living in the Anjing Village. That's why, as more time passes, Anjia Village becomes the last land in the world where gods live.

Though there would be yearly visits from the cultivators from the Profound Sect. It was said that their ancestor, Bing Wang Immortal, had come back from the dead and become a real god living in the Anjia Village with his husband, who is also a divinity.

There were those who would sometimes peek in the village and would see the former great general and former official of the fallen kingdom. These were the people who were rumored to be gods; after decades had passed seeing this couple not aging, the rumors of the holy land became even more prominent.

There will always be believers praying outside the Anjing Village for the Domain Lord Shun Wuyun and the others. Because of this faith, the domain lord had his divinity greatly strengthened, becoming more suitable as the real protector of this world.

Now that the world is no longer in danger, the Laws of the Heaven removed the restrictions that allowed one to undergo tribulation for the ascension to the upper realm. A few hundred years have passed since the world disaster.

Today is the day for the God of Void, the God of Destruction, and their group to once again ascend to the land they considered home. The one seeing them off is none other than the domain lord Shun Wuyun and his family, plus Prophet Sang, the old village chief, and the villagers, as well as the divine doctor.

It seems that the life expectancy of these people would continue to exist as long as the village is still there. But once they come out of the village, they would cease to exist and enter the pool of reincarnation. Now they had once again all gathered to see these friends who had been living with them for quite a long time.

Of course none of these people had aged at all. The God of Destruction was holding the hand of the God of Void. On the other hand, the God of Void is a boy that looks like both gods and looks a bit similar to Ye Jingxia when he was a baby.

The only difference is that this boy looks more mature and elegant. Not just a cute and playful baby like Xiaojing from before. This boy is the new body of the God of Time, Ye Qinjing.

This time his bloodline was that of a true god, and his domain of time had gotten even stronger with lesser restriction from the Divine Laws. This is what it means to become a born God.

After bidding their farewells, the group had once again ascended. They are now going to return to their own home, where the rest of their families are waiting.

Chapter 1543 21.0 Back to Vearth - Ancient God of End

The ascension from the last world was smooth. Their group had returned to Vearth safely. As soon as they reached the upper realm, Hei Anjing's soul disappeared and most likely returned to his original body. The rest of them teleport and head to the Netherworld to rest. The wardens were once again given time to rest.

In the Nether Palace, Ye Xiajie, who was carrying his eldest son, Ye Qinjing, in his new vessel, bumps into Ye Jingxia and the twins, Ye Jingmo and Ye Anxia. They jumped on their father, but were surprised by the boy in his arms.

"Father!"

The three mischievous babies called.

"Welcome back!"

Ye Xiajie allowed his children to cling onto him as he carried Ye Qinjing in his left hand and his princess, Ye Anxia, on his right hand. Ye Jingmo sat on his father's head while Ye Jingxia hugged his father's neck from behind like a little monkey and got a free-back ride.

The three were now staring at Ye Qinjing.

"Father, who is this boy?"

asked Ye Jingxia.

"Cute. Cyute~"

said the little princess, Ye Anxia.

Ye Xiajie asked,

"Who do you think he is? Can't you recognize him, Xiao Jing?"

Ye Jingmo on the other hand, reached out his chubby hands towards the boy with such intimacy while calling,

"Gaga~ Gega~"

The God of Void said,

"It seems Xiao Mo recognizes him."

"Dage? What happened to you? You've... shrunk?"

said Ye Jingxia as he stares at his elder brother, who is now smaller than he is.

The God of Time, Ye Qinjing, said,

"I will return to normal soon. I am just not used to this new body yet."

Princess Anxia was sniffing at her elder brother and started mumbling,

Sniff~ sniff~

Ge~ smells same... us!"

It was only then that Ye Jingxia understood, all thanks to his younger sister's babbling.

"Dage, you got reborn!? That's great! Now you are my elder brother not only by name but also with blood. Those old bastards won't dare to treat you as a black sheep of our family. They are so bad~" said Ye Jingxia.

The God of Void said,

"Next time if you hear something that irritating, just beat them up. As long as they aren't completely killed, I, your father, can definitely resolve it."

In the next moment, he brought his children to the void and found his wife. As expected when they arrived at the void, Hei Anjing had woken up in his real body and was there waiting for them to arrive after preparing some food from the small world he and Ye Xiajie's own. Though God doesn't need to eat for this foodie family, that is something that cannot be missed.

Hei Anjing, in his God Form, welcomed them with a smile. Not far from his, a table full of food with six chairs around it can be seen.

"You guys have arrived. Let's eat as we talk,"

said Hei Anjing.

For the first time since the God of Destruction had arrived, they finally had a family dinner. This time there is no one missing in their family, and Hei Anjing had enough time to spend with his family. He wouldn't be falling back to sleep soon like before.

Ye Xiajie asked his wife with a worried expression,

"Is it alright for you to be awake? How long can you keep up this time?"

"Half a day is not a problem. If I sleep in between, I can last for a whole day. This is thanks to the soul fragments you have successfully gathered. Thanks for the hard work, my love,"

said Hei Anjing.

Ye Xiajie hugged and kissed his wife,

"It's worth it! Everything is for your sake."

The couple and their children spend lots of time together. Since the children can't stay inside the Void for too long, they went out and stayed in the Nether Palace. They played with the children until all of them felt sleepy; the three youngest were burned out, and their eyes were shut closed.

Normally, for Ye Qinjing, staying awake is fine. He doesn't feel sleepy nor think that he needs to sleep. It is better for him to take care of his younger siblings as well. However, he had forgotten. Before, he still possessed an adult body, but at this moment he is just a baby boy who is even currently younger than Ye Jingxia, who looks like he is in grade school.

Seeing this, Hei Anjing felt a bit bad for his son and gently patted his head and said in a whisper,

"Little darling, sleep. Your father and I are here. You'll be safe."

After hearing his dad's soothing voice, the groggily Ye Qinjing finally closed his eyes completely until a soft snore played symphony with the other three snores in the area. Ye Xiajie covered the children with a blanket he pulled from their small world. The couple stays near them and leans to one another.

The two cuddle like this in the core region of the Nether System.

Ye Xiajie asked,

"Baby, are you truly well now?"

"Yes, so don't worry too much. There is actually no need to gather all my soul fragments as I can already heal my soul. Like you, I am an independent soul and the main one. Though at my weakest I need them to heal, at the very least at this moment, it was enough for me to keep my soul awake. I will be completely healed soon, my love~"

said Hei Anjing.

"It's good to be healthy. As long as you are no longer in pain, anything else is fine," whispered the God of Void while hugging his wife from behind.

He hid his face in the crevice of his wife's neck and let the pulse of his beloved calm him down. After all, those nightmarish scenes of his beloved's death still vividly appear in his dreams. There is also an annoying existence that was coveting his Jing'er. Just thinking about them makes him want to hunt them all down.

The God of Destruction says,

"A'Xia, help me pass the old willow tree to my uncle. They are quite close friends after all."

"Um. I had a feeling that my brother would most likely drown the old willow. After all, before the two became a pair, it was the old willow who caused too much misunderstanding between them. He also loves teasing your uncle, trying to make his expressionless face distorted," said Ye Xiajie, the God of Void.

Chuckling Hei Anjing believes that the demonic old willow tree can indeed do such a thing. Such mischievous nature is normal for demonic beings like the willow tree.

"That's his nature. Don't be fooled by his age. The older he gets, the more childish he becomes,"

said Hei Anjing.

The two of them were talking when Lord God An Liang and his wife, the God of Space, Hei Jue, had come over to talk with them. Obviously, they wanted to ask the details about the God of Void being a part of the World Eater they are trying to prevent from being reborn.

Lord God, An Liang, comes over with a wine that is at least a millennium old.

Yo!

You two are back. Have a little drink with us?"

asked An Liang with a grin.

Hei Jue only lightly nodded at the God of Void and approached his cousin.

"How is your state right? Are you not feeling well being awake for so long, Xiao Jing?"

"Brother Jue, I'm better now. At least I won't suddenly fall asleep. Keeping awake for half a day is still possible," responded Hei Anjing to his cousin.

Sigh~

that's also fine. Actually, I came to tell you about something; your uncle told me to pass a message," said Hei Jue.

Hei Anjing was a bit surprised. Normally, his Uncle Baojun would come over himself if there was something he needed to tell him. Seeing now that he is not present and even asks his cousin to pass a message, it seems something made his lazy uncle busy.

He asked,

"Is Uncle busy?"

"Not quite, or maybe he is... They still haven't completed their Trial of Marriage yet as they couldn't leave the God System unprotected. After all, Vearth can only be run by a sovereign; if the two of them are gone for too long, this place might end in chaos. Your husband is also out most of the time. This is unavoidable," explained Hei Jue.

Hei Anjing couldn't help but laugh a bit. His uncles were much busier than before, as he himself cannot help them run the system. He felt a bit of guilt just thinking about this. After all, during the resurrection of Ye Xiajie, his uncle had helped him a lot.

"This... I can help them watch over the system soon. After my soul is completely healed, they can descend in the lower worlds to complete their Trial of Marriage,"

said Hei Anjing.

Hei Jue said,

"Actually, the message isn't about that. It was something else, but Lord Mo said that it is important for you to know."

"What is it?"

asked Hei Anjing.

Beside him, Ye Xiajie and An Liang, who were quietly drinking, overheard their words and looked interested. They decided to listen seriously for a moment.

Hei Jue said,

"According to Lord Mo, the Ancient God of End had descended to the old SS-grade world with your soul fragment in it, and then the Ancient God of Origin had lost contact with him."

Silence~

The God of Void, the God of Destruction, even the Lord God of the Nether System had no reaction to this news at all. Obviously, none of them are interested in whatever happens to the Ancient God of Origin and the Ancient God of End.

None of them had a close relationship with those ancient gods. It can even be said that the God of Void's hatred for the Ancient God of End is too strong, and if not for the fact that this Ancient God is Hunluan's parents or his wife's situation is not finished yet, he would have long fought with the Ancient God of End.

After all, if not for this annoying ancient god, there wouldn't be that misunderstanding between him and his wife in their previous lives, and they would have been together already if the Ancient God of End hadn't sealed the God of Void's memories as Ye Jieye at that time.

It was because of that event that this couple could never get along with those two ancient gods, especially since the origins of these two were most likely connected to the son of those two ancient gods.

Ye Xiajie asked coldly,

"That old thing isn't dead yet?"

Ancient gods cannot be killed unless they kill themselves.

Chapter 1544 21.1 Back to Vearth - A Lonely Ancient God

The God of Void was completely rude as he talked about the Ancient God of End. Just for the fact that this old man caused a misunderstanding between him and his Jing'er, he also tried to harm his wife a couple of times. Because of these reasons, he couldn't hold back his hatred for the Ancient God of End.

The God of Destruction actually didn't care much about this ancient god. Even though they say that he, as an incarnation of the Ancient God of Chaos, happens to have a familial relationship with the two ancient gods, Hei Anjing just doesn't feel like liking them. Maybe in reality the real Ancient God of Chaos no longer has feelings for the parents that gave birth to him.

After all, it can be said that the reason he killed himself was somehow closely related to this ancient god couple. He is their child, but they are afraid of him. Chaos created the World Eater to accompany, and in the end, they ask him to kill his one and only family and companion. That's why, to save the World Eater from destroying himself because of gluttony, he killed himself and shared his karma. It was because of these that none of the two completely perished but instead split into countless fragments.

Among these fragments, some merge with the world, some perish, and some become independent, living a new life and forgetting their origins. Snow was one; the God of Void is another. There is also Tun Shizhe, Lord Chaos, Hei'An, and Gui Xiajun. All of them came from the origin of the world eater and the ancient god of chaos, even so, they no longer return to this origin completely.

As what has perished can never be reincarnated as a whole.

Upon hearing his friend's disdainful tone while speaking about the Ancient God of End, Lord God An Liang wipes an imaginary sweat on his forehead. He understood his friend's hate for that Ancient One, and he had no intention of asking his friend not to be angry. He also didn't like that the Ancient One got involved with this couple, causing their misunderstanding, pain, sadness, and ultimately their separation.

Lord An Liang said,

Um.

Unfortunately, he isn't dead, but there is news about him. It seems that he went to the only SS-grade world and lost connection with the Ancient God of Origin. Even though the origin believes that he is alive, for some reason, the Ancient God of End doesn't respond."

"Also, they had sent a lot of gods from the God System to that world. According to Lord God Cao Xinsheng of the God System, the gods that had descended to that world had also lost contact with their main system because of this. Sovereign Mo Baojun and Sovereign Shen Siwang were busy resolving this issue."

"What do you want us to do? You want me to descend into that world next?"

asked the God of Void.

"No! You can't go!"

said Hei Anjing.

Lord God An Liang said,

Don't be reckless

! This might be a trap much worse than what your younger brother did in the last world."

This time two voices of rejection responded to the God of Void's words. This left Ye Xiajie a bit speechless for a moment.

The God of Destruction said,

"You can't go in that world. Only after all other worlds were completed by you and by that time my vessel will most likely be stable that I will descend to that world with you. Don't you dare come to that world alone or I will be angry seriously this time. We will divorce if you do so and all the children will go with me!"

The threat in Hei Anjing's words directly silenced his husband, Ye Xiajie. He hugged his angry wife in comfort and could already imagine his wife leaving the house with the children and returning to his maternal home.

The Mo Clan would most likely shut him out of the house, and his brother, Shen Siwang, would tease him and also block his way for his wife, Mo Baojun. Who didn't know that before the children were born that Hei Anjing is the youngest descendant of the Mo Clan and the family spoiled him to death, especially that tyrant (Mo Baojun)?

The God of Void trembled at his imagined future and hugged his wife tightly.

"I will not go. I will wait for you and descend together. Don't be angry, Jing'er. It's bad for your health."

"As long as you don't go to that world alone, I will not be angry,"

said Hei Anjing.

Hei Jue and An Liang look at the couple with a knowing gaze. They were used to seeing the God of Void losing all his majesty towards his wife, the God of Destruction. If the other gods outside the Netherworld knew that their feared God of Void is a henpecked husband behind doors, they would most likely not believe it at all.

The figure of the God of Void in their hearts is that he is terrifying, ruthless, and extremely powerful. He also possessed countless Void minions living in his domain, and the number of these beings could easily destroy Vearth. There are also unwanted rumors about him, and if not for the God of Destruction holding his reins, most gods would not stay in Vearth at all.

Lord God An Liang suddenly asked with a serious expression on his face.

"What do you guys plan to do about Gui Xiajun? Also, what does he mean by saying that he and Xiao Ye are both incarnations of the World Eater? Is this real?"

The God of Void didn't hesitate and answered Lord God An's question.

"It's real. I've just recently learned about it."

Sigh~

Lord God An Liang sighed helplessly, unable to believe such a fact. Hei Jue pats his husband's back as he comforts him.

The God of Destruction said,

"Don't be sad. It's not like A'Xia is the real World Eater. He is just one of his fragments and most likely one of the strongest, but this doesn't mean he will become the World Eater, as that is impossible unless he devours all other fragments aside himself."

"Fragmented souls. Just what happened between the Ancient God of Chaos and the World Eater a few thousand millennia ago? Maybe if I can understand what thoroughly happens then I will be able to make proper preparations," said Lord God An Liang.

The God of Void, Ye Xiajie, said,

"I know a bit of what happened at that time, though I don't know if these memories are real or not. Do you want to hear it?"

Lord God An Liang nodded his head and said,

"Yes, please. It would be wrong to be ignorant now that I know the truth."

"A fragment of a world eater comes to me. He seems to be dying and asks me to devour him instead of Tun Shizhe. Tun Shizhe is also one of those fragments. According to the memories, the God of Void is born from the God of Origin and the God of End."

"It's just that he was born too powerful, and even his own parents were wary of him. After he was born, his parents left him alone in the chaos. because they were afraid of being harmed by him, and this lasted for Eons. He was just a baby when he was left in the chaos alone."

Hei Jue frowned.

"How can there be such cruel parents!?"

"Ancient gods aren't born with emotions except for those who were born with them; they treated others differently even if they were their children. They are more emotionless than ordinary gods and divinity,"

said Hei Anjing.

Lord God An Liang said,

"So a newborn baby god was left in chaos to survive on his own? But chaos is destruction and beginning itself. It is always present."

"Yes, that's why he is powerful. He was always the strongest in the timeline of the present,"

said the God of Void.

He can still recall the scenes of the young Hunluan grabbing the chaos just to create the world eater. He was jealous that his parents had one another while he was alone at birth. How unfortunate that the power of chaos is ever-changing, and most of the time it is the source of war and deaths.

The God of Void said,

"He... was too lonely. A supreme loneliness of being the only existence in the chaos. To fill the gap in his heart, he created the World Eater. The World Eater had become his family, his friend, and his other half. The most important one in his life."

"It's just that Chaos is a dangerous power. It is the law of disorder and confusion as well as the source of destruction. It wasn't an evil power entirely, yet at the same time it wasn't a righteous power as well."

"That's why the World Eater he created was born with all negativity in the world. The strongest power it possessed was gluttony. It became the most evil existence that was hated by both mortals and divinities. A crazy existence who, in the end, became something uncontrollable that the God of Chaos had to destroy him himself."

The words of Ye Xiajie were full of melancholy after all he had experienced through the dreamscape of how the World Eater had lived his life. His love and affection for the God of Chaos is real. He is his only god, his creator, his father, and the being he loves the most.

The more he gains emotions, the more he becomes uncontrollable, and the one that was enhanced the most is his desire to get stronger to protect his creator, which leads to his gluttonous power and, in the end, his becoming out of control.

Chapter 1545 21.2 Back to Vearth - False Brother

The God of Void told everything he knew about the World Eater to Lord God An Liang. Though some details were a bit unbelievable as the history written and Ye Xiajie's memories as the fragments had great differences between. But Lord An Liang is more inclined to believe his friend as he knew that the God of Void wouldn't lie to him.

Hei Jue spoke,

"This is something not written in history. To know this means who indeed have connection to the original world eater. But who would have suspected that the world eater isn't born a villain, but was pushed to the corner due to circumstance. Isn't you as the God of Void would have ended in such a way if not for my cousin holding you back?"

The God of Void said,

"I am different from him. I won't do anything that will harm Jing'er. Never do it again."

"I know. Calm down, A'Xia,"

said Hei Anjing.

Lord God An Liang held his wife's hand silently telling him not to target Ye Xiajie anymore. Hei Jue could only listen to his beloved and no longer taunt the God of Void. It's just that he doesn't get along with this man that causes too much harm and pain to his cousin. He ended up not liking him.

"I will keep watch of any worlds with strange changes to their ecosystem. Maybe there is some interference or someone intentionally making these changes. Also, look out for any person that may possibly also have a fragment like your are."

"For now, let's focus on things that are already there. What should we do about your brother?"

"Send a wanted order, use my name to decree it in every lower world. Like I've told you before, I will reward those who give me correct information,"

said the God of Void.

Lord God An Liang asked,

"What should you tell your mother and father? He is still your biological brother."

"I no longer have a brother," declared Ye Xiajie.

"If he dares to appear before me again, I will kill him on the spot!"

Silence~

Hei Anjing said,

"I want to take a nap.

Yawns~

Given an opportunity to leave, An Liang and Hei Jue bid their farewell. They didn't say enough but obviously they were a bit frightened by the murderous intent Ye Xiajie had released just now. After the other couple had left, Hei Anjing comforted his husband. Being betrayed by his own brother is not a good feeling after all.

Hei Anjing said,

"My love, the thing about your brother isn't your fault. He just happened to become like you, but he can never become you. At least, I know to whom I had surrendered my heart to. I will never make a mistake between the two of you."

"Thank you, Jing'er,"

said Ye Xiajie.

While this couple spent their time like this in the Nether System together with their children, Vearth and the lower realms had exploded with the decree from the Sovereign God of Void.

It was said that ever since the revival of the Sovereign that reigns the Abyss, the only thing he had done was to exterminate the whole Ye Gui Race. Even now, this race is still being hunted down for a reward from the Nether System.

Who would have thought that this Sovereign of the Darkness would issue another wanted mission and this time it's his younger brother, Gui Xiajun. Everyone in Vearth knows that Gui Xiajun and the God of Void are blood brothers and that they get along well.

How come things suddenly turn the other way and they become enemies instead?

No one asks the reason though. Not only are they afraid that they might offend the God of Void, getting involved with the familial matters of those powerful gods is something beyond them, but the reward is too promising to ignore. This reward itself will come from the sovereign himself and anything this sovereign possesses as something beyond what ordinary gods can have. Because of this reward itself, the latest wanted decree had become the most popular mission in Vearth.

Meanwhile in the castle of heavens and clouds, the other two sovereign, Mo Baojun and Shen Siwang were comforting the Ancient God of Origins. Ever since the Ancient God of End lost his contact with the former, the Ancient God of Origin became unstable.

The Ancient God of Origin and the Ancient God of End are the anchor of this cosmos. Once something happens to them, this cosmos would most likely get destroyed. All the universe, worlds and stars, even all the living things in it including the Gods who can't traverse the cosmos will perish in here.

That means except for the sovereigns, all others will perish once the cosmos is destroyed. This is what Shen Siwang and Mo Baojun are trying to prevent. It is just that these two Ancient Gods are beyond their control.

They can only watch over them and talk to them to stop doing things that may lead to their deaths. It's just that they can't stop them from doing things they wanted to do. Like how the Ancient God of End descended into a lower realm world than Vearth.

Now that they lost contact something must have happened to him. They had no way to contact him. As sovereigns they couldn't just descend in the lower realm worlds as their souls are too powerful for them to descend. Even the God of Void descended within only a partial part of his soul, most of it was left behind in the void. It was because of this that despite being an immortal, he still experienced aging and death.

Mo Baojun whispered to his husband,

"I will send an avatar to that world where the End lost contact with. An Avatar with a bit of my soul should suffice."

"Okay, however you can only put a wisp and not a fragment of your soul. I don't want you to injure your soul," said Shen Siwang.

"If even your avatar had lost contact, I will descend on them myself."

"What if something happens to you too?"

asked Mo Baojun.

Shen Siwang shook his head and said,

"I will be prepared. I will use an artifact that involves time and space just in case so I can escape no matter what happens."

"Okay. I will send an avatar there first.

Hm?

said Mo Baojun.

Shen Siwang asked,

"What's wrong?"

"Xiao Jing'er and your brother are back. Jue had sent them my message. Xiao Jing'er didn't look interested while your brother doesn't care," answered Mo Baojun.

Shen Siwang was not surprised by this response from those two people and said, "Not a surprise. Xia, hates the Ancient God of End the most after all."

"That one is an annoying being after all. It is not a surprise,"

said Mo Baojun.

"The two would most likely not help. Let's just inform them if this case was something we can't solve ourselves plus Xiao Jing'er is still healing," said the Sovereign God of Life and Death.

The Sovereign of Light and Creation responded,

"Once Xiao Jing'er soul fragments are all gathered, they should be able to stay in Vearth longer. That way we can have our chance to leave this place and complete our trial of marriage."

"I just hope things go well for those two. It would be better if the World Eater doesn't get reborn as well. What is weird is that your brother issued a wanted decree for his biological brother, Gui Xiajun. What is happening between those two?"

said Mo Baojun.

Shen Siwang frowned a bit when he recalled who Gui Xiajun is. It's that young man who appeared in Vearth after the God of Void was reincarnated in the Ye Gui race. He had always felt that the young man Gui Xiajun's interactions with others feels so fake and for some reasons he would avoid him every time they bump one another.

At that time, the Sovereign of light and creation, thought that Gui Xiajun was only being shy. Now that the relationship between Ye Xiajie and Gui Xiajun gone worse, Shen Siwang felt that whatever happens between the two of them cause this rift. Though he is interested, he can't leave this unstable Ancient God of Origin to his wife alone. He will be worried.

Shen Siwang said,

"When we meet them, we can ask the details of what happened between those two?"

"There is only one way for your brother to issue such a threat towards others like this mission, he recently issued. It might have involved my nephew, Xiao Jing'er," said Mo Baojun.

Pfft~

"Indeed, Xia loses all control whenever Xiao Jing'er is involved. I wonder what happened this time?"

said Shen Siwang.

Hei Anjing and Ye Xiajie were not in a hurry to gather soul fragments and thus they decided to stay in Vearth for a few years. They spend time together as couples, playing with their children, visiting their families and even meeting each other's parents in preparation for the final marriage between the two.

It was decided that once Hei Anjing's soul had been fully repaired that the two of them will officially get married in Vearth. This couple had gotten married countless times in the lower realm but never in their home which is Vearth.

But when Ye Xiajie met her mother in this life, he was worried of being questioned why he had sent a wanted order on Gui Xiajun. He was expecting a lot of questions from his parents only to learn something unbelievable.

It was during the first visit of Hei Anjing and Ye Xiajie to the Ye Mansion. Ye Xiajie's parents suddenly questioned their son.

Father Ye asked,

"Son, I know you have issued a wanted issue about this Gui Xiajun."

"Father there is a reason for I..."

before Ye Xiajie can explain he heard his mother's words.

Mother Ye questioned with confusion on her face,

"Beings on this world keep saying that this Gui Xiajun is your brother. However, that is impossible, your father and I, only have you as our son, Xia'er."

"That's right! Since when this Gui Xiajun had become your brother? Moreover, everybody is saying the same thing. But this old man only have you as a son? Where did this brother come from?"

Father Ye asked.

Ye Xiajie and Hei Anjing observed the old couple and noticed that they didn't seem to be lying. The two of them almost couldn't believe what was happening. In the end, they chose to check the memories of the Ye couple and found out that their memories had traces of being manipulated.

However it only removes a memory that wasn't theirs original. This memory is about Gui Xiajun. That's why they could no longer remember him as that part of memory was removed from their original ones.

Chapter 1546 21.3 Back to Vearth - Hidden Scheming of Gui Xiajun.

Hearing from the parents of the God of Void saying that they only have one son and that was Ye Xiajie, the identity of Gui Xiajun gets even more mysterious. After all, if the fact that he is not really the God of Void's brother despite being known by everybody meant that he had controlled all memories of the divinities in Vearth. This includes not only Hei Anjing, the whole Mo family, but also the sovereigns.

The more the Ye old couple questioned Ye Xiajie about this brother of his the more Hei Anjing felt it was creepy. Because this means someone got ahold of everyone's memories in Vearth and they didn't even notice about this fact until today.

After explaining the situation to Father Ye and Mother Ye, their faces turned dark in anger. According to their son and daughter-in-law, this Gui Xiajun pretended to be the child of Mother Ye. After the sad death of Father Ye, as one of the main heirs, Ye Xiajie was always from the Ye Gui race's territory. He would be away for months and even years if necessary.

Once during a long mission of Ye Xiajie, he spent three years outside the clan. During these years, he only received a few messages from Mother Ye saying she remarried his Uncle Ye Mo and that he got a new young brother on the way.

Ye Xiajie, unable to come home, can only believe the messages he got from Mother Ye. Thus, when he came back home, he suddenly got a younger brother with talent that is just average in their race. Because of this he was named Gui instead of Ye.

Hei Anjing upon hearing the story from his husband couldn't help but ask,

"You didn't investigate what truly happened after you returned?"

"No! At that time, I was busy trying to bring Mom and Gui Xiajun out of the clan. That way they wouldn't be treated badly while I am away,"

said Ye Xiajie.

Hei Anjing asked,

"Who suggested that you work in the Nether System?"

"That time I saw a pamphlet at home about the hiring for wardens,"

Ye Xiajie abruptly stopped his words and realized something,

"Was that something Gui Xiajun intentionally left at home for me to see?! He is scheming at such a young age!"

Hei Anjing looked confused and asked,

"But why did he choose the Nether System and not the God System? There isn't much difference for you to go to either of the two. Normally, Gods chose the God System instead of the Nether System. After all, the Nether System involves sinners and the Nether Prison. The requirements for a warden are extremely strict as well."

As the God of Void about his wife's question Gui Xiajun's reason for choosing the Nether System made him frown as his face turned dark in anger and hate. He immediately knows why that damn brat chose the Nether System instead of the God System.

The God of Void,

"He chose the Nether System because you are there."

"What do you mean?"

asked Hei Anjing.

Ye Xiajie tried to hold back the anger in his heart before finally answering.

"He is there for you. He wanted you that's why he chose the Nether System that involves your family so he can see you all the time. I even brought him to Vearth for his safety. Shit! I can't believe I was used as a mule by that bastard!"

exclaimed the God of Void.

The words of Gui Xiajun during their last conversation still lingers in his head. The blaming tone and words that little bastard had spouted. His complaints and dissatisfaction when his wife only noticed him during their first meeting in his second life as well as how Gui Xiajun will always be present whenever Hei Anjing visits him in the Nether System.

He had never noticed any of this before. The simple interaction between the God of Destruction, his wife and his brother looked like a coincidence at that time. But thinking about it now, maybe all these coincidences was something that little bastards had planned thoroughly just to show his presence in front of his wife, trying to move his heart.

It's just that Gui Xiajun calculated things poorly. The curse of Mo Family involves the feelings of the heart. Once they have chosen one person as their beloved, it will only be that person from the beginning to the end.

Ye Xiajie trusts his wife's love for him, but this doesn't prevent his hatred towards Gui Xiajun for coveting his Jing'er. This is something he can never forgive.

"I should really kill him next time we meet!"

grumbled Ye Xiajie.

After spending time with the Ye Family, the family of the God of Void and the God of Destruction returned to the Netherworld. It can be said that in Vearth, the Nether System is their home and their territory.

Ever since that day in the Ye Family, Ye Xiajie had the past event investigated especially the ones that involves Gui Xiajun. Unexpected, this young man didn't thoroughly hide his tracks and they found some evidence that he was the one controlling the Ye Gui race to restrict him using Ye Mo.

He is also the one who had casted a curse on his mother to be temporarily obsessed with Ye Mo. This indirectly led to his and his mother's death in the end. The sudden bad luck that cost the life of Father Ye was also among the plans of Gui Xiajun.

It was very hard for him to control Mother Ye if he is alive after all. Thus he decided to kill Father Ye first before targeting Mother Ye and entering their family as a newly born child. Before Gui Xiajun was born, he had been using a shadowy soul figure according to some Ye Gui that was locked in the deepest hell in the Nether Prison.

It was only after he was born and named Gui Xiajun that he started implementing his plans to kill him which eventually leads to how he planned it. It was just that it was out of his plans and never had he expected that the God of Destruction was willing to sacrifice himself just to resurrect the God of Void.

Gui Xiajun tried to stop Hei Anjing multiple times and even massacring his subordinates during his last Divine War and crippled him was necessary. But things had gone beyond his control and even the sovereign from the Mo Clan got involved.

To avoid being noticed, Gui Xiajun lay low when Mo Baojun came over himself to get Hei Anjing. It was because of this that Gui Xiajun didn't realize that the God of Destruction had been going down to numerous lower plane worlds just to find a fragment of the God of Void.

He is unexpectedly lucky to find enough of those wisp of souls that allowed Ye Xiajie's existence to be noticed by the Trial of resurrection. That's how the God of Destruction's journey to find the God of Void's soul fragments had begun.

By the time, Gui Xiajun noticed thanks to them threatening An Liang with his daughter's life, that Hei Anjing had already found enough soul fragments for the God of Void to wake up his sleeping soul. That's why Gui Xiajun sent multiple assassins from the Ye Gui race and the traitors of the Hei Clan just to kill the God of Void's soul fragments.

Eventually, this assassination failed as the God of Destruction was willing to injure his soul just to keep the God of Void's soul fragments safe and sound. In the end, Gui Xiajun couldn't bear the deaths of Hei Anjing in those worlds. Even though they didn't notice him watching over him in those worlds, he had always been there with them as a hidden bystander of each world.

Finally, he couldn't help it and showed his true self before the God of Void. He intentionally planned to have the God of Destruction see through the selfishness of his elder brother. It is just that in that world of sentinels and guides, Gui Xiajun didn't expect to still witness the God of Destruction once again sacrificing himself for the God of Void's soul fragment.

It was at that moment that he understood that as long as he wanted to kill the soul fragment of the God of the Void that the God of Destruction will always be there to block all his plans.

He was enraged by the situation and even intensified those assassination attempts to kill the God of Void which eventually led to an end where the God of Destruction almost perished his soul as a result.

Even with that ending, Gui Xiajun didn't regret any of his actions and even blamed the God of Destruction for being blind. How can he protect a selfish and useless man like the God of Void. In his heart, the envy, jealousy and hatred just got stronger as more time passes.

After learning that the newly resurrected God of Void will descend to the lower plane to find his wife, Hei Anjing's soul fragments that Gui Xiajun planned to kill him personally this time.

It was only at the last world where the escaped prisoners, Hei Suyu and Ye Yan had been exposed that they caught his tail and finally learned of his existence.

A few years had passed in Vearth and the God of Void had finally decided to descend into another world to find his wife's fragments. The two wardens, Yun Ming and Lou Wuyue, were summoned back to the Nether System. The two systems, Zhi Yue and Zhi Yang, were called to prepare for the descent.

This time Hei Anjing was awake and the children were with him. They choose to watch Ye Xiajie and the rest descend this time. The world they were going into was chosen by their children. At the very least, the unlucky in draws, Ye Xiajie didn't do the draw or he might have picked the only SS-grade world their group is temporarily trying to avoid.

The children had drawn the last B-grade Violet Star whose plot involves the angels, demons and humans.

Ye Xiajie looked at his beloved and his children who came to see them off.

Zhi Yue said,

"Milord, the transfer is ready!"

Ye Xiajie hugs his wife and children. He gave his children a kiss on the forehead and exchanged a long kiss with Hei Anjing.

"I will be back soon. Don't descend anymore. I will be alright, Baby,"

said the God of Void.

The God of Destruction didn't promise and only gave him a smile,

"Go now. Always be careful."

"I will,"

said the God of Void.

Chapter 1547 21.4 Fifth Violet Star - Broken World

[Transfer Complete!]

[Welcome to the B-grade Violet Star]

The God of Void, Ye Xiajie, had woken up in a dark place. His crimson eyes glow in the dark as he looks around and notices that he is in some kind of room that resembles a bedroom. He is now seated on a leather-covered couch.

Based on the furniture that mixed modern and ancient types, as well as all the antiques placed and hanging around the room, he realized that he might be in the modern world.

Feeling the state of intoxication on his body and the scent of countless expensive liquors on the floor, Ye Xiajie waved his hand to turn on the lights of the room. He was surprised to see his current clothes covered in blood. If he wasn't wearing an expensive black suit, the blood would be noticeable.

The God of Void lifted his clothes to check the wound, but as expected, the injuries must have been healed by his immortal sharing with his wife. He returned to his wife's full immortality as he was worried that he would be attacked in Vearth.

After all, Gui Xiajun is a sneaky bastard. His current immortality had returned to normal. He cannot die but also cannot be instantly revived. At least, there would be a certain duration where he would be considered dead when killed by someone.

With his clothes lifted up, his chiseled chest and four pairs of abs were exposed in the air. The God of Void lightly tapped his body to check if its injuries were fully healed. The one who appeared by his side is none other than Zhi Yue in his small moon avatar.

Zhi Yue said,

[Milord~ this world is full of divinity and miasma! I lost contact with the others. What should we do? Huh!????]

The silly little moon stiffened as he looked at his master, and he found some parts that weren't supposed to be his and fell from the high ground to the floor. The God of Void didn't catch the stupid moon and just looked at it indifferently as if fell on the ground with a painful sound.

Thud!

The God of Void said,

"Have you finally bugged out. I should have asked Liang to check if you have been infected with a virus or something like your other half."

The small moon on the floor forgot the fact it could fly and bounce on the floor, encircling his master's vessel. To be precise, he is looking at his head, back, and lower back.

The God of Void was annoyed at being ogled on and stamped on the bouncing moon.

Zhi Yue, who doesn't feel the pain of being stepped on, said,

[Milord, you don't notice anything weird about you? Like on your head and back?]

Ye Xiajie frowned and lightly kicked the small moon and grumbled,

"What the hell are you talking about?"

He lifted his hand and touched his head. The God of Void was stunned to feel something was growing on the top of his head. His emotions shook for a moment and he felt something flap from behind, but when he turned around, there was nothing.

Zhi Yue, who was freed from under the feet of his master, suggested,

[How about looking in the mirror, Milord? There is a bathroom to the right side of--]

He didn't even complete his words and said his master was running towards the bathroom as if he teleported. The God of Void now looked at himself in a full-body mirror and saw the things that weren't supposed to be his parts. There is a majestic black horn on his head that looks like a crown. On his back is a huge pair of black feathered angel wings, and he even has a black tail that seems to be one of those of a draconic creature.

Zhi Yue followed his master to the bathroom and once again checked on his master's horns, wings, and tail. He looked closer and noticed that these things were real.

[Milord, those things seem to be real!]

He looked excited as he saw these familiar parts on its master. His master's vessel in this world was quite handsome, but not the type that is heavenly defying. However, because of the master's dangerous and majestic aura, he can hardly ignore his presence.

Now that the soul inside this vessel was replaced, its features would most likely transform to be closer to his master's real face. Adding horn, wings, and tail, the silly moon had declared.

[Milord, you might be a demon in this world!]

The God of Void's face turned dark upon hearing the excited voice of his silly moon system.

"It's obvious to see what I am at sight! Go and give me this world's plot!"

said the God of Void.

Zhi Yue floated in front of his master and said,

[But Master, there is no plot in this world. To be precise, all the characters of this world were either subdued, killed, or replaced. This is a Broken World. There is a divinity who killed the Heavenly Laws of this little star.]

"A broken world disguised as a normal one? Have you found out who rules this star?"

asked the God of Void.

Zhi Yue answered honestly,

[Master, that was actually the problem. Every time I tried to investigate, I was restricted by this world. It seems the owner of this place put a ban on the systems and prevented them from reporting to the upper realm.]

The more the God of Void heard the words of his system, the more he felt that his world would be even harder than the last one.

"This world seems to be more annoying than that last one," mumbled the God of Void.

[Master, this is an unrated broken world. The B-grade seems to be a fake level. What should I do if I can investigate?]

grumble Zhi Yue.

Ye Xiajie flicked the little moon and said,

"If you can't investigate in your system form and investigate as a human, try to at least find out the basic information of this body. This vessel doesn't have any memories, and he was killed."

[No wonder Master smells so much as blood. Then Yue will investigate first. See you later, Master~]

The silly moon floats out of the bathroom and transforms into his mortal form and comes out of this room to investigate the situation in this area. As for the God of Void, he went to take a shower and clean himself. After all, the scent of blood on him is too powerful.

It's just that when he took off his clothes, he didn't notice a single golden feather that fell off. This golden feather disappeared upon contact with the ground. It seems to be made of divine powers and couldn't be exposed to filth. Thus, when it fell on the floor, it vanished.

In the meantime, the God of Void tried to control the other parts of his body that he didn't used to have. Beyond the transparent wall of the misted bathroom, a man with a perfect body showered under the warm shower, his wings moving behind him as every moment his shoulder blades moved.

From Zhi Yue's perspective, to match his master's identity in this world, he transforms his divine aura to that of a sinister one. This was him pretending to be a high-level demon. His Moon God robes were replaced with a bartender suit, and his long, purplish black hair was tied into a high ponytail, looking like a young bartender.

The reason why Zhi Yue chose this identity was because he saw that as soon as he came out of his master's suit and used the elevator. It was because he saw that on the floor where his master lives is a luxurious bar.

Zhi Yue mumbles,

"So, this is a modern fantasy world."

As soon as he stepped out of the elevator, a lot of eyes fell on him. Most of these eyes were scrutinizing as if checking if he was eaten by the big boss that lives in the suite above. Seeing that Zhi Yue seems to be fine and recognizing his bartender clothes, they realized that this young man must be a new bartender of the bar and was asked by the big boss to bring over bottles of wine and liquor on the floor above.

Countless murmurs can be heard mixing with the loud music on the dance floor. Ordinary humans wouldn't be able to hear anything, but he is a god, so he can clearly hear all murmurs on this floor. He took a seat at the bar counter and was approached by the current bartender.

"Little one, are you the newly hired bartender by the big boss? Did you send some bottles above?"

asked the slightly older bartender.

Zhi Yue took a sip at the small glass of wine given to him by the older bartender and responded,

"I've sent the bottles a few hours ago and just checked again to pick the bottles. Who would have thought the big boss was grumpy when he woke up and I was kicked out before getting the bottles?"

Chuckles~

The older bartender and the other listening customers chuckle at Zhi Yue's story. It was as if they were used to the big boss mood swings.

"You little one is quite unlucky~"

"Big Boss Xiu Xie was dumped by his lover last night and had to drink alone all night."

"It's not a surprise he will be grumpy."

Hahaha~

Zhi Yue acted pitiful and said,

"No wonder the big boss's eyes were red. I thought he was sleep deprived, but was he crying all night? Just who is the big boss's ex-lover?"

He intentionally threw juicy gossip to get more information. As for the consequences of his words, he never learned to take care of them as his lord would handle the rest himself. He was definitely spoiled by Hei Anjing when he was still in his system. The carefreeness of doing whatever he wanted and unparalleled shamelessness. This is what this silly moon learns from his former host, the God of Destruction.

Chapter 1548 21.5 Fifth Violet Star - Devil Bartender

Zhi Yue had investigated all night and learned the identity of his master's vessel. He learns that his master in this world is an infamous playboy who goes for both females and males. Also in this bar, he is considered not only as a big boss but also an Adonis adored by most customers.

This is also the reason why everyone was staring at Zhi Yue when he came out of that personal elevator that only the bar owner, Xiu Xie, used to get to his suite on the floor above. It is just that this Xiu Xie is actually quite mysterious and unlucky.

He would sometimes appear in places where crimes are prominent and would even be mistaken for someone involved in those scenes. That's why he is a frequent visitor of the police station and was considered notorious for how he dares to flirt with policewomen. Some even considered him as a jinx by the police.

This is because he would always be considered a suspect in all criminal cases in this city, and his bar was also considered an abode of all evil. As most criminals, like killers, murderers, and even drug dealers, were found going to his place.

However, no matter how the police investigated, they found no proof that this bar owner, Xiu Xie, was directly involved in those crimes. It can be said that he is acquainted with those bad people, and they were even his customers, which made him a black sheep in the eyes of the police.

It's just the more Zhi Yue listens, the more he looks bewildered. He truly cannot find the reason why his boss, who is a devil in this world, had to run a bar and even be involved in all those crimes before.

Zhi Yue was kind of a talker and got all the information he needed. Though most of it was only basic, it was enough for his master to understand his role in this world. After getting those who were having a conversation with him drunk, he finished the last cup of wine and prepared to head back to where his master was.

It's just that as soon as he entered the elevator, another man with the same dark aura as his master in this world grabbed him and restrained him inside the elevator. This man was quite handsome, yet his eyes were dull and cold.

THUD!

Zhi Yue didn't struggle as the man grabbed his hand and pushed him by the walls of the elevator.

The man asked,

"Who the hell are you? And what is your relationship with Xiu Xie?"

Zhi Yue stared expressionless at the man in front of his and smiled,

"I don't seem to see the need to answer~"

"Answer me!"

said the man in a bartender suit, and his human eyes suddenly changed to a crimson one which only devils possessed.

These devil eyes appear to hypnotize him, but against a god like himself, this kind of devil is too weak to restrict him. His eyes widened in happiness, though. Zhi Yue had gathered enough information towards the human side. But just the fact that his master isn't even human in the world means that there is something more about this world.

Zhi Yue said,

Ah-ha!

You are not human! That's great!"

The devil in front of Zhi Yue was confused for a moment, as he couldn't understand why a human like Zhi Yue wasn't controlled by his devil's eyes and wasn't even terrified by seeing him. He seems to be even happier knowing that he is the devil.

"What do you mean?

Ack!

"Capture him, Shadow!"

said Zhi Yue.

The next moment, the devil finally understood why this human wasn't afraid of him. As it seems, he wasn't human himself at all. Zhi Yue can't control the darkness, but controlling the shadows is still possible. He controlled the shadow of the devil and had him restrained by it.

The devil was surprised when he saw what was happening and glared at Zhi Yue. He understood that this weak-looking young man might not be human and also possibly a devil who is more powerful than himself. He tried to escape but failed; after all, the one restraining him is his own shadow, who possessed the same strength as himself.

Zhi Yue said,

"Good thing you appeared! Master lost all his memories tonight, and I've just recently come over, so I don't know anything. Since you are a devil yourself, you might be connected to him in another way."

"W-What!? The King lost his memories! Just as I thought, that damn angel did something to him!"

The devil bartender said.

Zhi Yue looked at the devil and said,

"Are you the master's subordinate?"

"I am his servant and... well, a lover,"

the devil said.

"What!? His lover!?"

Zhi Yue exclaimed when he heard that he is his master's lover and forgot that his devil is not really the lover of the god of void and most likely the lover of the former owner of his master's current vessel!

"Mamma Mia! How can the master have a lover? Will his wife kill him?!"

mumbled Zhi Yue, panicking as if learning his boss's hidden secret.

The Devil calmed down after seeing that this little bartender seems to be a servant of his master like himself. He doesn't seem to know anything, though.

"The wife you are talking about is that angel, right? What happened to the King? We should return to hell if the King is badly injured," said the devil.

Zhi Yue calmed down the moment he heard hell and realized that this is the clue he needs to know about. But before he could even ask for more information, the elevator had reached the destination, and the door opened wide.

Ding!

Whoosh!

When they arrived on the floor where the suite of the God of Void is, Zhi Yue happily dragged the tied devil with him and walked around the room to find his master.

"Master, I'm back! I caught someone who can explain things for us!?"

The tied-up devil let himself be dragged, but he was surprised to see the king before him. Even though the appearance and that perfect figure is the same as before, his demeanor had completely changed. He felt more holiness yet at the same time the same level of darkness.

The darkness in this room seems to be alive, and it makes the devil bartender tremble as if he can feel all eyes coming from the darkness itself. The one dragging him didn't mind all those terrifying stares in the darkness and went to the veranda, where they saw the God of Void leaning over while smoking.

His crimson irises look down on those modern buildings and even on the humans under his gaze. This pair of eyes was dull and indifferent, as if he could appreciate anything in this world. As if he is a god that looked down on all creation, apathetic and the personification of evil itself.

When those pair of inhuman crimson eyes fell on them, the devil bartender flinched as if he were being stared upon by a huge predator who could kill him with his thoughts alone. After meeting the eyes of the God of Void once, the devil never raised his head for the second time.

The God of Void, who was eavesdropping from the floor above to everything in this world, heard everything Zhi Yue had said in the bar.

"Zhi Yue, who did you say was dumped and cried all night?"

The cold voice of Ye Xiajie made Zhi Yue tremble. He tried to run away, but the darkness all over the room grabbed him and threw him near the foot of the God of Void. The devil who was in his hand was thrown over together with him.

Zhi Yue kneeled down and said,

"M-Master, I can explain. That is just one of the strategies to make those humans talk."

"Investigate the world for me!"

said Ye Xiajie as he kicked Zhi Yue off the veranda and fell out of the building. Only the loud screams of the stupid moon were heard by them.

The caught devil looked as his king stared at the falling Zhi Yue with a bored gaze, and his eyes were cold and dangerous at the same time. When the God of Void saw Zhi Yue fall on the road like a flat pancake, he finally moved his gaze away from that stupid moon.

He finally looked at the aborigine Zhi Yue had caught for him. This glance alone was enough for the shadows restricting the devil to let go. In the presence of the God of Void, especially within the darkness, it is impossible for him to escape.

The devil was stunned seeing his king before him and kneeled down on his knees.

"This servant greets the King of Hell, Lucifer."

The God of Void narrowed his eyes when he heard the name 'Lucifer'. This is an infamous name and can be considered the strongest fallen angel in accordance with the myths. After hearing that this demon called him in his current vessel as Lucifer and king of hell, he understood the reason for those horns, wings, and tail. He is indeed a Devil and was even the strongest among all devils.

Chapter 1549 21.6 Fifth Violet Star - King of Hell

Suddenly becoming the King of Hell in this world made the God of Void have a bad feeling. Devils are synonymous with evil or darkness itself. It seems he is evil even in this world. Looking at the bustling life under the moonlight, modern buildings and infrastructure, as well as the hidden darkness within the city.

He even indifferently watched the thieves stealing in the crowd, the murder at some dark alleys, drug dealers doing buy and sell at some kind of slum, and even rape and sex outside was happening all over the city. Before the God's eye of the God of Void, everything is at sight, and he is uninterested in everything.

He just hummed to respond to the greetings of the devil bartender, then kneeled before him and said,

"This King doesn't remember anything. Neither my name nor who this King is? I only know that I am a devil as I woke up with horns, wings, and a tail,"

said the God of Void.

"You may stand."

The devil bartender saluted after standing up and formally introducing himself.

"This servant is Belphegor. I am the devil of idleness (sloth). My King, this servant will tell everything I know."

"Sloth? The seven deadly sins? Am I the devil of Pride and Gluttony?"

asked the God of Void.

Devil Belphegor corrected its master,

"My King is the devil of Pride and Wrath."

Lucifer and Satan are one person, which means in this world the God of Void is the devil to two sins, which are pride and wrath. Upon hearing the response of the devil of sloth, he couldn't help but smile coldly. He immediately thought of someone.

The God of Void asked,

"Where is the God of Gluttony? Who is he in this world? I want his human name."

Belphegor, his devil of idleness, was confused for a split second and recalled that his king did not have any memories and understood the reason for his endless questions.

"Answering to the king, the devil of Gluttony, this servant doesn't know. His authority is higher than this servant as he is your younger brother. His human name is Xiu Mo. He is a famous celebrity in the human world."

Heh~

, continue."

The King of Hell, Lucifer, responded nonchalantly, yet for his devil servant Belphegor, it gave him a chill that made him instinctively flinched.

Cough!

"Yes. My King had escaped hell and went to the human world. You have brought with you the five princes of hell, which this servant is included in. This bar is the lord's domain in this world, and under it was the only passage connected to hell."

"We've been staying in the human world for at least three years, and the King still didn't want to return, and thus, a lot of sinners from hell had escaped."

"Yesterday, you were found by your twin brother, Archangel Lord Michael. This servant was kicked out of this place and didn't know what happened. But the Devil of Gluttony should know, he was with you last night when you came to meet Archangel Lord Michael."

The more Belphegor said things, the uglier the face of the King of Hell is. This greatly frightened Belphegor.

The devil of sloth's thoughts at this moment are,

'Why do I feel that the King is a lot stronger than before? Just what the hell happened last night!?' '

Before the devil could react, the God of Void appeared before him and grabbed his head. He didn't use soul searching on the devil as he might have broken and only read through his memories to learn about the truth of this world. After doing so, he used his wife's ability of authority on the devil.

Forget what I've just done,

said the God of Void.

With a dull pair of eyes, the devil of idleness responded soullessly,

"Yes."

After a while, he let go of the devil and returned to the veranda and pretended nothing had happened. The next moment he opened his mouth, he was once again the King of Hell, Lucifer.

The King of Hell, Lucifer, commanded,

"Secretly summon all the devils except the devil of gluttony. I want you to find Xiu Mo, and once you find him, tell me immediately. Don't let him notice anything!"

A bit bewildered for a short moment,

"A-As you wish, my king!"

responded Belphegor.

The God of Void gestured,

"You can leave."

"Yes!"

The devil of sloth said before leaving the room, trembling and even holding his head as if it were too heavy for him to lift; the darkness that surrounded the room made him uncomfortable and blamed it for its current confused state. He didn't even know that his memories were seen by his own king.

As soon as the devil of idleness had left, Xiu Xie took away the domain of darkness. He had used this domain to take full control of everything that had happened in the room, and this means regardless of what Devil Belphegor thought, he couldn't lie before the God of Void while being within his domain.

The God of Void will now be called Xiu Xie in this world.

Xiu Xie (Lucifer) mumbles,

"Devils possessed loose tongues. These words are always mixed with truths and lies. At the very least, this Belphegor is still loyal. He can be left alive."

He looked at the darkness above his head with an empty look in his eyes. Xiu Xie didn't know if it's because his identity in this world is very similar to his identity as the God of Void. He always felt the former emptiness in his heart when he was just born in the abyss.

"This vessel matches me pretty well. It's because it reminds me so well that I can just pretend that I am the real Lucifer in this world. If the Devil of Gluttony happens to be you, I wonder how you would like to die in this world. My dear younger brother~"

"Come out!"

Zhi Yue, who was quietly hiding while floating behind the veranda, floated towards its master in his system avatar form. He floated near his master and once again morphed in his human form.

"Master, I feel that there is a strong divinity on this star. Is there a divine realm in this world?"

Asked about the silly moon system.

The King of Hell spoke,

"In this world, there are three races: the Devil race, the Human race, and the Divine race. In short, the devils, humans, and angels. The devils rule hell, the humans rule the mortal world, and the angels rule the heavens. The heavenly laws of this world must be truly dead, as you presumed."

"But isn't a world without the protection of the Heavenly Laws a dead world; this star is still alive,"

said Zhi Yue.

The one named Lucifer responded,

"Heavenly laws are just the wills of the humans to control the world. If something more powerful becomes the new faith, then... the heavenly laws can be replaced by an individual and become god."

"If there is someone to rule, why would there be a need for the wills of humans?"

It is just that Gods who wanted to ascend to the upper realm would never choose this kind of path, as this means that they had cut off the path of the heavens for themselves, choosing to stay in this lower plane, unable to ascend fully as a free god.

Once the God of Void thought of this, he felt that whoever is his wife's soul fragment in this world and if he happens to become the new god of this star, it would be hard for him to convince him to ascend with him.

He couldn't help but mumble,

"Do I need to destroy this world and force him to ascend to the upper realm? That might be the only way."

When Zhi Yue heard his Lord's words, he couldn't help but shiver. Hearing a god with the occupation of a restorer wanting to destroy a world is taboo. However, for a sovereign god like his master, he is excluded from this divine rule itself. He just needs to register this world under the system of his control.

Zhi Yue asked,

"Master, do you need me to contact the Nether System and record this broken world under your domain?"

"Go. Tell Liang to process the transfer of ownership of his world to the Nether System. You can use my name to have it approved on the spot," replied the God of Void.

Zhi Yue saluted and once again returned to his system form, ascending to outer space and contacting the Main System under his master's authority, the Nether System. With the authority of his master and Lord Hei, system Yue bypassed most Dao laws under the Nether System and immediately contacted the current Lord God, An Liang.

Meanwhile in the heavens, a gorgeous man with huge white wings on his back and long golden hair giving him a holy aura sat on the throne. Suddenly he opens his eyes, revealing a shade of silver, yet his phoenix-shaped eyes feel seductive and cold, making him look like a temperamental divine one. The man seated on the white-gold throne looked at the empty space beyond his world.

"There are too many guests this time. I wonder if these guests would be able to entertain this lord well~..."

Chapter 1550 21.7 Fifth Violet Star - The Messenger of God

With the information he got from the original owner of the vessel's servant, the God of Void now knows what is happening in this world. His current plan is to pretend as the real King of Hell, Lucifer, of this world. This is so he can blend with this world trying to catch those who are outsiders like himself. He wanted to catch his fake younger brother if he had come to this world.

The king of hell in this world is like his name. Arrogant, devil may care and playful. A man full of seduction and a man who is like a walking hormone. This is the role the God of Void will play in this world.

Thus the moment he went down from his suite, he was wearing a loose, black polo shirt that hugged his perfectly proportioned body, shaping his figure making both men and women suffer a nosebleed. Especially since he walks with grace and seduction, making those who were in his bar at this moment suffer a wave of attractiveness from him.

The Bar 'Purgatory' is a high-end bar in the city making those who are wealthy, and famous come to this place. Most of them come over to see or flirt with the infamous boss like tonight. Most bartenders saluted his arrival in the bar.

Without the divinity that made him holy and approachable, the God of Void is like an otherworldly handsome being that is desirable and an eye-candy.

The murmuring in the bar got louder as soon as Xiu Xie, the boss of the Purgatory, came out.

"What the hell!?"

"Who is that hottie!?"

"You ape! You don't know the boss of this place! That's Big Boss Xiu. You can call him Lucifer. That's his alias in his place."

"Lucifer? His name fits him too well~"

"He is so handsome~"

"Big boss~ give me some monkeys~"

"You bitch! Don't cut in line!"

Haha~

you sluts! Those who can approach Luci must be high class women and men. No ordinary people can enter the floor above~"

"Stop dreaming while still awake!"

The commotion in the crowd was heard by everyone and no one was stopping whose ever mouth had spoken. Xiu Xie at this moment had sat at the bar counter drinking his whisky. As soon as he turned around he saw a gorgeous woman with a hot body and a beautiful man throw themselves in his arms.

Those who recognize the pair started whispering saying that those two who had jumped in the arms of Lucifer are famous celebrities. One is a movie queen and the other is a vocalist from a famous boy band. But no one dares to bring out a phone to take a video as paparazzi will not be allowed in the bar.

The big boss of the 'Purgatory' was protective of his customers, especially the VIP ones. Even the police can never get anything from the bar, but at the same time the bad customers who break the rules of the bar will be punished.

The ending of these people were strange and cannot be easily explained by science. Even so, as if they are hypnotized, they would surrender themselves to the police confessing all their crime and even bring the proof that may condemn them to eternal damnation.

At the bar counter, the king of hell, Lucifer was hugging two gorgeous people in his arms flirting nonstop with them. This is what he is famous for and everyone knows how loose the bar owner is with his relationship. After all, this is a man that can flirt with both genders and as long as he is interested these chosen ones can come over to his suite and enjoy one night of happiness.

"Lucille~ I need to talk to you privately~"

The sexy woman clinging to Xiu Xie said. The movements of her hands were suggestive and those who were watching couldn't help but snicker seeing her hand trying to sneak in the bar owner's clothes.

Xiu Xie smiles and said,

"That can't do darling~ you are not alone for tonight~"

The famous boy band vocalist sneaks his lips to Lucifer's neck and whispers seductively,

"Indeed~ I promise to sing for the boss tonight!"

The hot figure woman pouted and said,

"Okay~, I will go share Lucille with you tonight. The first dibs is mine though~"

"That's a deal, dear sister~" responded the boy band vocalist.

The target of the two famous figures just smiled all through the conversation, not even denying anything about their conversation. All of the sudden, Belphegor in his bartender suit comes over to serve some drinks for them when suddenly the time in the bar stops and the entrance of the door to the bar was suddenly filled with holiness and clouds slipping into the place.

Among those inside the Bar 'Purgatory', the only ones not affected by the time stop was the King of Hell, Lucifer and his servant one of the princes of hell, Belphegor.

The devil of idleness,

"Master, it seems you have a visitor from the heavens,"

Belphegor said.

Snort!

Xiu Xie lost his smile and gestured for Belphegor to retreat. Even though the princes of hell are all former angels like Lucifer, they are now fallen and don't get along with those proud angels from the heavens, especially the ones at the same level as their king, an Archangel.

There are seven main Archangels which used to include Lucifer. These seven Archangels are:

The warrior of light: Archangel Michael, the messenger of God: Archangel Gabriel, the divine healer: Archangel Raphael, the angel of wisdom: Archangel Uriel, the angel of love: Archangel Samuel, the angel of beauty and creativity: Archangel Jophiel and the angel of mercy and forgiveness, Archangel Zadkiel.

The one who showed it was one of Lucifer's brothers. The one called as God's Messenger, Archangel Gabriel. To blend within the mortal world, he is wearing clothing of an elite yet gentlemen type of man even wearing a pair of glasses on his face.

Lucifer looked at his brother with eyes of indifference and a mocking smile at the corner of his face.

"What made you come over here? My dear brother, Gabriel. Did Michael send you for an errand again?"

Xiu Xie said as he had no intention of properly greeting this brother of his.

Archangel Gabriel used a finger to slightly put the frame of his glasses while looking at his brother in front of him. Observing him closely as if he wanted to check on something.

The King of Hell, Lucifer heard him murmurs.

"So, we weren't dead at all? That devil indeed had spoken a lie," said Archangel Gabriel.

Lucifer immediately understood what this brother of his came here for and said,

"Checking whether I am alive or dead for Michael? Tell him, I won't die as long as he is alive~ Hehe~"

These words of mockery for Archangel Michael made Archangel Gabriel frowned, but unlike their other siblings, he can hold his temper well. Seeing Archangel Gabriel not retorting made Lucifer comments.

"You are as boring as always, Gabby~"

Lucifer complained.

Archangel Gabriel's face turned dark.

"Don't call me Gabby! Such ridiculous wording!"

"Why? In the human world, those who are named after you have this kind of nickname. Since you have the same name doesn't that make your nickname as well?"

retorted Lucifer.

Archangel Gabriel didn't fall for his taunt this time and said,

"Since you are alive then I will tell you Michael's message. He said that your first wings were stolen by someone. If you want to retrieve it, find it yourself."

Oh~

it's just wings. I have new ones already. Let it be lost!"

responded Lucifer nonchalantly.

This time Archangel Gabriel's expression changed and said,

"Do you have no plans on returning to the heavens? Do you want to stay in hell forever?"

"Why not? Is there any difference between hell and heaven for me? Both are comfortable places. The human world is much more interesting though, I will stay here for a bit longer~"

Lucifer said.

Archangel Gabriel frowned and said,

"Hell cannot be left alone empty for too long. A lot of devils and sinners had escaped from that place already. You should clean up the trash in our place!"

"Whatever~ If they appear then sure why not I will clean them up for you, but that's all. You want me to actively capture them? They would most likely avoid this King~" said Lucifer.

Archangel Gabriel said,

"Anyway, clean up your place! I'm going back!"

"Oh~ is that so?~"

The Archangel, who was about to go back, didn't even notice Lucifer suddenly appearing before his face. When his eyes met those pairs of crimson eyes, Archangel Gabriel seems to have fallen in some kind of dull state and the God of Void used his wife's skill: Authority, on this archangel.

Using Authority on an Archangel would usually be impossible, but not for the God of Void. He is a Sovereign Ruler from the highest realm and even if this broken world is graded with B grade or higher, all lower beings will fall under his control.

"Tell me the real reason why you come here?"

asked Xiu Xie using the skill of Authority on Archangel Gabriel.

With a dull gaze, Archangel Gabriel answered honestly.

"I descended as Michael asked me to check whether you are still alive or not. After all, one of your devils had betrayed you and is supposed to have killed you last night after Michael sealed your movements for the devil of wrath."

"Is there something else why you come here?"

asked Lucifer with the same skill.

Archangel Gabriel asked,

"Yes, I came to tell you that your first wings were thrown by Michael to the human world to pissed you off."

"Anything else?"

asked Xiu Xie.

The messenger of God answered,

"I wanted to inform you about your servants that left hell. They are destroying the balance of the human world and I don't want that problem to be given to me as a mission."

"Nothing more?"

asked Lucifer.

Archangel Gabriel said,

"No more."

"Okay, forget everything that just happened. Once I sit back down, you will return to normal and feel a bit dizzy from the sparseness of divine energy in my domain," said Lucifer as he walked back to the bar counter and sat down.

The devil of Idleness who was watching quietly all along was stunned by the scene of his boss hypnotizing an archangel like Gabriel. But to his surprise like his King had commanded Archangel Gabriel woke up from his dazzled state and held his head which was throbbing from pain.

Lucifer asked,

"What's wrong with you?"

"Nothing. Your domain is full of impurity and it makes me disgusted!"

said Archangel Gabriel as he took his leave.

Once the archangel left the bar, the time had been restored to normal. Devil Belphegor whispered,

"My King, how can you control an archangel like that?!"

"If I wanted to do it, then I can do so," responded Lucifer as he restarted flirting with the two people in his embrace.
