

World Plot 1551

Chapter 1551 21.8 Fifth Violet Star - Xiu Mo

The King of Hell, Lucifer, meeting Archangel Gabriel was learned by those in the heavens, in hell, and those who are hiding in the human world. Those who didn't know that Lucifer is a fallen angel thought that he was a devil who left hell and was caught by those white-winged creatures he liked in the heavens.

Those who know his identity as the former archangel think that God is too biased toward him. After all, it is well known that Lucifer is God's favorite angel. On the other hand, those who knew about what happened last had expected him to come out alive. After all, it is hard to kill the former strongest archangel in the heavens.

Among those who knew the truth of what happened that night, there is only one who couldn't believe that he had failed to kill Lucifer. He is the Devil of Wrath in this world, Beelzebub, and his human name is Xiu Mo.

Currently, in some kind of dressing room, Artist Xiu Mo is currently resting in his dressing room. The set was on break, and like other artists, Xiu Mo had come to his room to eat. It is just that he is a devil pretending to be a human and has minions hiding in the bar 'Purgatory' to watch over his supposed brother in this world.

Not far from him, sitting on his massage chair, was a man who called himself Chaos. He was so relaxed on the chair that he even closed his eyes to take a nap. That's right. The God of Wrath of this world is an outsider, Tun Shizhe, who had been hiding for a while after being badly injured by the God of Void in the last world they've met.

Tun Shizhe, who received the report, narrowed his eyes.

"Xue, what do you think? Do you think he is that bastard?"

"Devils don't easily die unless they were killed by an angel. Are you an angel? Also, do you think a man who is afraid of his wife would continue flirting after taking over someone else's body? I would have killed him if I were 'him' (Hei Anjing)," said Lord Chaos.

"Don't underestimate my main body's jealousy. He even almost killed me the last time I got involved with his chosen other half."

"He is too overprotective of that useless one!"

complained Tun Shizhe.

Lord Chaos said,

"Actually, aside from the soul fragment of my main body, there seems to be another soul fragment like me in this world."

"There are rumors in the cosmos saying that my main body's younger brother happens to be the same as I am and that... he was the one who caused his death before,"

said Tun Shizhe.

Lord Chaos commented,

"Doesn't that make him more powerful than you are?"

"If it wasn't locked up in that tower, I would have done the same thing,"

said Tun Shizhe.

Lord Chaos retorted,

"It's just that most of the plans failed and you are more useless than that other fragment of the world eater."

"You've been too sarcastic lately. What's wrong?"

asked Tun Shizhe.

Lord Chaos languidly opened his eyes and said,

"It's boredom. I'm about to die from being bored. Maybe selling you out might be fun~"

"And to whom are you going to sell me?"

asked Tun Shizhe with a smile. Obviously, he wasn't truly affected by the words Lord Chaos had just said. It seems this kind of bickering was normal between the two.

Lord Chaos said,

"There are three possible buyers. The first one is the original soul fragment in this world. I've noticed that the soul fragment in this world isn't gullible like the others before; at least he wouldn't be controlled by love like the others."

"The second one should be your own kind. Wouldn't it be interesting to see you and that younger brother fight?"

"The last one should be your main body. Since there is my main body's soul fragment in this world, there is no way he would be here. He quite hates you, maybe only second to his younger brother."

The words of Chaos were seemingly said to make fun of Tun Shizhe, but the latter seems to be used with his poisonous words and just smiles as if he didn't mind him this way.

"That bastard hates all men that cover his wife. That's normal," said Xiu Mo.

"That is also true. About that brother of yours in this world, if you are too worried, why don't we come visit him in his bar? That way you can check if his soul has changed or not?"

suggested Lord Chaos.

Xiu Mo felt this idea was great and immediately agreed to it.

"Then let's go together after today's work."

Meanwhile, in the bar 'Purgatory', Xiu Xie, who was surrounded by beautiful men and women, was approached by Devil Belphegor and reported about the movement of the Devil of Wrath, Xiu Mo, and his plans to meet the King tonight.

Bartender Bel reported,

"Big Boss, Young Master Xiu said he would come visit you tonight."

"Tell him to fuck off!"

Xiu Xie said.

The original King of Hell never got along with this younger brother of his. Just compared to Lucifer's twin, Archangel Michael, who possessed the same level of strength as he is, this little devil is weaker than he is. Even though he hates his big brother, Xiu Mo isn't supposed to have the guts to harm his brother Lucifer. But the fact the original was killed meant that the current devil of Wrath is no longer the same man.

Devil Belphegor accepted his king's command and passed his message to Young Master Xiu Mo. Tu Shizhe, after hearing this response, half believes that the current Lucifer is still the original, like Lord Chaos had said, but he is only half sure and still doesn't believe that that is still the original Xiu Xie, as he is cautious when it comes to things that involve him.

In actor Xiu Mo's dressing room...

Xiu Mo (Tun Shizhe) was currently on a video call with Lucifer's servant, Bartender Bel. He had personally heard Xiu Xie's voice when he cursed at him and even saw him hugging two beautiful men and women in his arms like a playboy.

[Tell him to fuck off!]

[Young master Xiu, did you hear that? It's the big boss who spoke just now. [He didn't seem to welcome you coming back to Purgatory.]

Tun Shizhe said,

"How can that be? I'm sure my brother misses me so much. I'm going to come over after work. Brother can't stop me from visiting him!"

[Well, young master can do as you wish. If you get thrown out, then this subordinate is not wrong.]

This is Belphegor talking to the devil of Wrath.

Tun Shizhe watched his brother, who was enjoying his night at the bar. He had no feeling of disparity to the same Lucifer he met and killed before. It's just that he is still a bit confused. How did this King of Hell survive his attack?

[Young master, I am ending the call.]

Click!

Tun Shizhe mumbles,

"How did this little devil survive?"

"What are you so surprised about? Isn't the devil a twin brother of Michael in this world? Archangel Michael is already a God of this world; would he truly allow you to kill his beloved twin brother?"

retorted Lord Chaos.

Tun Shizhe somehow believes the words of Lord Chaos and mumbles,

"That seems plausible. Even so, it's better to see it for myself. Let's still go to the bar."

"Whatever~ I'm bored of myself. It's better to go,"

said Lord Chaos, whose human name is Xue Luan.

His role in the human world was Xiu Mo's manager. Though most of his work was done by the assistants, he was only there to show his face. Manager Xue Luan was never scolded by anyone, just the fact that Xiu Mo was protecting him so closely; he himself is not a man to be looked down upon. Those who did so had suffered an ending worse than death.

On the other hand, in the heavens, after Archangel Gabriel had ascended back, he was immediately summoned by the leader of the Archangels, the Warrior of Light, Archangel Michael.

Archangel Michael asked,

"How was the world below?"

"The human world is still full of impurities as always. It's not a good place to stay at all. I just couldn't understand why Lucifer wanted to stay in such a place," answered Archangel Gabriel.

The warrior of light slightly narrowed his eyes once he heard the name of Lucifer. This man is his twin brother and also the angel that their god loves the most. He is also an angel that possesses the same strength as his, who is the leader of the archangel. At the same time, the man Archangel Michael hates and loves him most as well.

The leader of the angels mumbles,

"He is indeed alive as expected."

"Of course! Lucifer is a very hard man to kill. Why would Brother Michael even listen to the words of a devil-like Beelzebub? He is also a traitor and a subordinate of Lucifer," said Archangel Gabriel.

Archangel Michael asked,

"Gabriel, have you passed my message to him?"

"I did, though he doesn't seem that interested as always,"

Archangel Gabriel said.

An angelic smile appeared on Archangel Michael's face, making even Archangel Gabriel blush. It can be said that Archangel Michael possessed the most beautiful smile among everyone in the heavens. He possessed a completely opposite exquisiteness of Lucifer.

If Lucifer is the peak of all handsome men in existence, then Michael is the peak of all beauty in existence. It was because of this fact that this twin was extremely popular in the heavens.

"As long as the message is passed, the rest will be on him," said Archangel Michael, but behind his gentle smile is a mirth not even Archangel Gabriel had noticed.

Chapter 1552 21.9 Fifth Violet Star - Xiu Mo at the Bar 'Purgatory'

Midnight, at the Bar 'Purgatory'

In this luxurious and high-end bar, a lot of rich and famed customers had gathered tonight. Today was especially fuller than before, as there are rumors that tonight a famous actor will be coming over to the bar, and this actor had a bloody familial relationship with the big boss of the bar, 'Purgatory'.

The interior of the bar was made to bring comfort, privacy, and exposure to their customers. Especially the exposure on the dance floor; the lights and music made one unable not to move their bodies to follow the dance.

Even those who aren't dancers, as long as they step on the dance floor as if injected with chicken blood, they dance without care for the world. Those who came to drink, those who came to flirt, and those who came over to spend the night over.

Everyone had different kinds of reasons to be here, but there are some special kinds of customers who weren't from the human world. Among them, the one that caught most attention was actor Xie Mo, who entered the bar in his sunglasses.

The one who recognized him as soon as he arrived was bartender Belphegor, who immediately lost his friendly smile as soon as he saw him. These two never got along, or it can be said that no devil princes get along with each other.

"Hello, Bel~, where is your king?"

Xiu Mo asked.

Devil Belphegor gestured with his chin upwards and said,

"Have a sweet nighttime with his prey."

At first, Xiu Mo seems to be half surprised and half accepting. But something in him was urging him to check it with his own eyes. His manager, Xue Lian, tried to stop him, but unhindered by anyone, he entered the elevator to reach the upper floor.

Seeing this, Manager Xue Lian and Devil Belphegor stared at him helplessly and looked at one another, giving up on that fool that went to join the threesome ongoing in the suite.

Bartender Bel asked,

"Manager Xue, what do you want for tonight?"

"Blend me something sweet and cold with less alcohol," said Lord Chaos as he sat by the bar counter and waited for his drink.

"Please give me a minute."

Bartender Bel accepted his request and started making what he wished for.

Meanwhile, at the floor above the bar, Xiu Mo or Tun Shizhe inside the body went into the suite without care for the owner. This room was never locked, as the original owner almost entertained every single woman and man that caught his eye. This whole building was even his.

At first, Xiu Mo heard moans and giggles coming from the bedroom as he entered the suite, adding that the fact that there are clothes and underwear on the ground leading to the bedroom says what's happening inside the room. Even so, his gut is saying another thing and still went for it and opened the door.

Revealing his brother in this world, Xiu Xie half undresses. His upper body was fully exposed in the air with one lady in a bathrobe and a young man whose lower body was covered in a blanket. Both of these two are clinging on to Lucifer. This is the scene Xiu Mo had been welcomed with.

His sudden arrival caused a scream from the lady and made the young man hide himself completely in the blanket.

"OH MY GOD!"

"It's actor Xiu Mo! Why is he here?!"

The sexy lady and the beautiful young man said upon seeing someone forcibly go inside the bedroom they are in. On the other hand, the King of Hell looked at him like a fool, and he didn't even get angry. It was as if he was used to having his brother burst into his room all of a sudden.

Lucifer spoke,

"Have you seen enough? If you do, get the fuck out! We haven't had enough fun yet!"

Xiu Mo looked at Xiu Xie as if trying to read him, but he didn't see anything out of place and temporarily believes that this Xie Xiu before him is indeed the original one and his soul hasn't been replaced at all. This means he failed to kill an aborigine of this world despite his identity as Tun Shizhe.

The king of hell spoke sarcastically towards him,

"What? Are you surprised that this king is still alive? Didn't Michael tell that twin angels have their life connected. If you want to kill me, you must kill Michael as well. You were played, my foolish little brother~"

"Hehe~ Get lost!"

Having lost his face, Xie Mo walked out of the bedroom and left the suite. He went straight for the elevator and left the floor. What he didn't know was that as soon as he left. The three people on the bed had turned into shadows and disappeared, blending in the darkness. As for the real Lucifer, he is drinking wine on the veranda listening to Zhi Yue's report.

Zhi Yue said,

"Master, he left. According to the analysis. The soul inside of him seems to be that man, Tun Shizhe. Even Lord Chaos appeared in the bar."

"I see. So, it wasn't Gui Xiajun. Leave something to tail them. I will continue to pretend more. After all, it is harder to catch someone who is trying to blend in with the world. Also, if you found the Chief Warden, tell him to pretend as me,"

said the God of Void.

Zhi Yue said,

"As you wish, My Lord."

"But master, what should we do about the wings the angels are talking about? It seems that the original is obsessed with his first wings. It is just that after becoming a traitor, his wings were cut off by God and taken away. But for some reason, the current leaders of the Archangel threw it down to the human world."

The King of Hell said,

"Should I pretend to be interested in that pair of chicken wings?"

"I will find its traces for the master," said Zhi Yue.

After the exposure of Tun Shizhe and Lord Chaos had been found, Zhi Yue could not appear in his real human form and needed to pretend to be someone else.

Among the devils under Lord Satan, there is one that is completely loyal to him. The greatest serpent that lives in hell is Leviathan. He started using the identity of Leviathan, who keeps sleeping in hell. Unless one checks it in hell, no one will know that the Leviathan in Bar 'Purgatory' is fake.

Zhi Yue once again disappeared to find the Chief Warden and his brother, Zhi Yang. This time he needs to convey to them how to act in this world. Zhi Yue had actually found the Chief Warden through Zhi Yang and noticed that they were also in the same city. He just needs to go to where they are this time.

After Zhi Yue has disappeared, the God of Void is once again alone inside the suite. He had used his shadow soldiers to pretend as Lucifer. No, it can be said that the God of Void had saved the dying soul of the real Lucifer and asked him to act as he usually does while hiding the fact that his real body had been occupied by someone else.

The real Xiu Xie appeared from the shadows together with the lady and young man, who is now unconscious. It seems that these two were truly human from the human world and were involved with the real Lucifer.

"Greetings to the real Lord of the Darkness!"

said the real Lucifer.

He actually revered his God, who was able to pull him out of real death. The God of Void had actually not heard what truly happened the night this King of Hell died.

"Enough. Tell me how you died and why your twin brother wanted you dead?"

the God of Void asked.

The real Xiu Xie responded,

"It is impossible that Michael wanted me dead. In reality, it is weird that he wanted to kill me. No, just the fact that he met with Xiu Mo is strange itself. After all, as an angel, he is the type that sticks to the laws and rules of the heavens. He will never get involved with the devil except for me, his twin."

"The current Archangel Michael is no longer the Michael I know. Moreover..."

Lucifer held the clothes above his heart and showed a distorted face due to pain.

"My Dad... our creator is dead. The God of this world is no more."

"I know. But to say he is dead is not true. To kill a god you need to have an artifact to destroy a soul. But those kinds of weapons cannot be used just by anyone, and the fact that you still exist means your God isn't fully dead. At most he is stripped of his divinity and might be lingering in this world in another way,"

said the God of Void.

The real Lucifer looked stunned for a moment and almost couldn't understand the meaning of the God of Void's words.

"What does the Lord mean?"

asked Xiu Xie.

The God of Void said,

"The God in this world is connected to the world itself. If he is dead, that means this world would have perished with him."

Chapter 1553 21.10 Fifth Violet Star - Lucifer of this world.

The God of Void started explaining the possibilities of the creator of this world being alive to the real Lucifer. Considering this world used to be a B-grade star before it broke apart, their connection and knowledge about the upper realm are insufficient. Thus, it wasn't a surprise that the aborigines of this world would know about things beyond their realm. They weren't a S-grade world that had a direct connection with the upper realm.

As expected, the King of Hell was surprised with what he just heard and even asked,

"Is... is this true? Does that mean my creator and my twin brother are still alive?!"

"What I said about your dad is a possibility as for you twin brother... if the one in Michael's body is like me, your brother had gone straight to reincarnation or remained in his body asleep as a soul."

"Two souls in one body is a burden to the body, especially if one of the souls was that of a god. This is why I gave you a new body and while I retain yours. This vessel is the only way for me to stay in your world."

"T-Then is Michael truly..."

Lucifer felt he lost his soul.

Even though he and Michael had been opposing each other all this time, Michael is still his twin brother. It can be said that among everyone in heaven, Michael is his brother, his family, and his beloved. There is nothing else more important than him in this world. It is just that he wanted to give heaven to his brother and betrayed the heavens for his sake.

After all, if he didn't do that, his old man would have definitely chosen him as the leader of the Archangels if he didn't betray them. He also knows that it's Michael's dream to achieve such a position. His hatred surge at this moment with the God of Void didn't even give a glance.

Even so, he gave him a warning:

"Fighting the current soul inside your brother's body is just seeking death for you. After all, his situation is not similar to yours. It can be said that maybe the Michael you know is not the real Michael, but the one you are seeing right now is the real him,"

said the God of Void.

"I might also be wrong too. The possibility of this scenario is half-half."

Lucifer is not full, even though he couldn't understand everything. He realized that his twin brother's possible situation is the two options the Lord had told him just now.

The first one is that his body was taken over and his soul had been put to deep sleep or forced reincarnation. If it is reincarnation, he would have known about it already, as hell also handles that part. This is also the ideal scenario for him. Obviously, these outsider gods aren't here to stay forever; once they finish what they come for, they would definitely leave.

The second option can be considered a worse scenario. If Michael knows and grew up that he had been acting with a facade that only fooled him, his father, but also the heavens, it means that his life with Michael all this time was a fake, a created fantasy to fit the story.

This second situation gave chills in his heart and soul. As this means, he and everyone else in this world had been toyed with by the Michael he had ever known.

The King of Hell knew that to get out of any troubles that may come in his way, the one option was to serve the evil god in front of him.

"I will listen to the command of the Lord!"

"Talking to smart ones is indeed a relief. Your only job is to continue to live your life as before. Flirt, drink, go wild, but you will only come out at night. The morning will be mine,"

said the God of Void.

"In exchange, I will help you if your brother's situation is not that of the second."

Lucifer accepted these demands and responded,

"As you wish, my lord!"

A small black flame flicked towards Lucifer, and before the latter could react, it entered its body.

"The Hell Flames will protect you once you are attacked by a god-class existence. Go don't and continue your act,"

said the God of Void.

"By the way, your dear brother has also been replaced. Don't anger him too much."

Gulps~

The king of hell was stunned to see pure black hell flames. The fire in his kingdom in hell possessed the color of lava, deep red flames. But the one he received from the evil god before him is completely black, and he can feel an extremely powerful darkness and fire elements coming from it.

He no longer questioned this evil god; after bowing slightly towards the God of Void, he carried the lady and the young man with him back to his room. He manipulated their memories and made them think he had slept with him all night. After that, he changed his clothes to show his face to the people at the bar.

Meanwhile in Bar 'Purgatory'

Xiu Mo (Tun Shizhe) went down from the upper floor with an expressionless face. The moment he stepped out of the elevator, a few of his fans had come over to ask him for photos and signatures; unfortunately, he wasn't in a good mood.

"Oppa~ please give me a sign here~"

She was pointing at her chest.

"Gege~ can you take a picture with Mengmeng?"

"Husband, I love you!"

"Kyaa~ Actor Xiu! The real one in the flesh!"

"Darling, give me a wink."

"Annoying~"

But a single word from the cold-faced Xiu Mo silenced all his fans and the melon eaters in the background; this caused the whole bar to fall into a tranquil situation.

Silence~

All of a sudden, Xiu Mo smiled and said,

"I'm joking, my darlings. But I can only give five signatures as I am so tired. Only these five pretty ladies have such luck!"

The chosen five ladies were immediately delighted and surrounded their idol; in just a few minutes, the bar was once again boisterous as before. Loud music banging within the bar, people dancing and laughing, as well as a well-rounded conversation between friends. The nightlife in Purgatory had been restored.

On the other hand, Xiu Mo after giving his signatures and photos with those five ladies, he joined his manager at the bar counter and drank bottoms up the glass of whisky served to him by Bartender Bel.

Bonk!

Just seeing his reaction alone was enough for Manager Xue Lian and Bartender Bel to know what happened on the floor above.

Lord Chaos even lightly teased him,

"What's wrong? Did you see your brother having a threesome or something? Hehe~"

He slightly sipped his drink after saying these words.

He didn't expect Xiu Mo to reply,

"Yes! They are about to get on it!"

said Xiu Mo.

Ding! Ding!

This is the sound of the bell connected to the floor above asking Belphegor to prepare for dinner.

"Oh? The big boss is asking for dinner. Please excuse me for a while."

Bartender Bel left the counter to a new bartender and headed to the kitchen. In Bar 'Purgatory', his big boss is his top priority and not the customers. Everyone who comes to this place knows that too well, and no one stops him from doing so.

As soon as Belphegor disappeared to the kitchen, the two resumed their conversation. An invisible sound-isolating barrier was erected between the two of them.

Xiu Mo said,

"I didn't expect him not to die that night! Should I kill him again?"

"Kill him! So when the God of Void descends, he can take over his body and become your big brother~ in this world?"

said Lord Chaos with a taunting smile.

Tun Shizhe instantly frowned when he heard about that.

"Okay, let's not kill him. To become the younger brother of that bastard is something unbearable."

"Snort! Who told you to take over that body? Now I even have to word my ass as your manager," complained Lord Chaos.

Tun Shizhe said,

"Darling, you didn't even work at all."

"Shut up!"

shouted Manager Xue Lian.

Silence~

It was at this time that the bar had become silent for the second time; the arrival of the big boss of the place had descended wearing his black robe.

Clamors~

"Isn't that Lucifer!?"

"Did his prey tonight not last that long?"

"Impossible, there's two of them!"

"If they really didn't last, what kind of fucking stamina does this big boss have!? Is he on drugs?!"

"Fool! Drugs are not allowed in Purgatory!"

With an air of the king around him, Lucifer gave all his customers a devilish smile.

"Good evening! Ladies and gentlemen~ This king is in a good mood tonight, and thus... I shall open the swimming pool for everyone to enjoy for free this evening!"

"Do you want to go swimming with me under the moon?"

Lucifer's seductive voice resounds in the area, making both ladies and men scream for him. The private pool of Purgatory was rarely open. There are even a few private Jacuzzis, and all of them are located in the backyard of this building.

AHHHH!!

"We love you, Lucifer!"

"Darling, you're a God!"

"This is amazing! A pool party was held tonight!"

With the remote in Lucifer's control, the wall enclosing the backyard connected to the bar started to move. A huge pool and a few Jacuzzis appeared on sight. Most customers changed their clothes and jumped right in!

Chapter 1554 21.11 Fifth Violet Star - Doctor

Xiu Mo and Manager Xue Lian left the bar 'Purgatory' at dawn. They didn't even notice the God of Void watching their figures as they left the building. As if feeling something watching them, Lord Chaos tilted his head up and saw Lucifer with deep crimson eyes. His eyes were dull as he looked at him, and for some reason it made his heart a little so that he looked down and touched his heart.

In front of a black sports car's passenger seat door wide open, Xiu Mo noticed his manager looking so lost and asked him,

"What's wrong? Are you in pain somewhere, Chacha?"

asked Tun Shizhe.

Lord Chaos suddenly looked up, and Tun Shizhe followed the path of his gaze only to see an empty veranda.

Xiu Mo said,

"That's the veranda on Lucifer's suite. Is there something wrong with it?"

"Nothing. I might be seeing things," said Manager Xue Lian as he climbed into the black sports car.

Xiu Mo looked up for the second time before riding in his car and driving away with Lord Chaos. Once their car left, the God of Void reappeared on the veranda like an illusion. He never left at all; he just did it on another side of the space to be kept hidden in the eyes of others.

This is Spatial Mirror and a technique under the space element category. To control this technique, the God of Void borrowed his wife's ability. The reason his interaction with his wife's soul fragment had changed was thanks to what his beloved had told him before he descended.

The words of the God of Destruction go like this:

{They function as my soul fragments, but they are more a part of the original Ancient God Chaos. I can share their memories, and they can share mine. The powers between us are minimally exchanged. They couldn't fully use all my abilities, as their incomplete souls can barely bear it.}

{At the very least, they can use two to three abilities I possessed, but controlling chaos energy was something we all have. It's the same as you and the other world eater fragments who shares the ability to control the ability of gluttony.}

{They are me but not me at the same time. I can already heal my soul on my own and doesn't require them much. Even so, you will still gather them, right? How stubborn! }

These were the words Hei Anjing had explained to his chosen other half before he had descended. It was because of this that the God of Void started treating Lord Chaos differently. He no longer sees him as someone completely important to his Jing'er.

Though he is still not willing to see this man in pain or die, aside from this kind of protective measure, all other emotions had started to fade. That's why when his crimson eyes met Lord Chaos's silver irises, the latter immediately felt the difference between how he was started with eyes full of affection and that of a calculated gaze.

Zhi Yu asked,

"Master, should I send something to tail them?"

"No need. Leave that to Belphegor. I want to walk outside for a while. Inform Lucifer and find me afterwards," said the God of Void as he disappeared in his suit.

He suddenly appeared in one of the crowdiest places in the city, wearing a three-piece black suit and long coat. Walking around nonchalantly as if walking is some modeling stage. Almost all the eyes of both men and ladies fell on him. It is just that the God of Void never paid a mind to them.

Despite the high face value of the God of Void who is using Lucifer's face, unlike his flirty and seductive self in the bar, he is more like a noble being walking in the mortal world. This made those who wanted to approach him unable to gather the courage to talk to him.

The God of Void walks through the crowd with an unapproachable and majestic aura. Like a god passing by, catching everyone's eyes, but no one was able to catch him at all. Thanks to the habits of his wife wanting to have any drink in his eyes anytime he wanted, he became a man addicted to coffee.

Ding~

The God of Void entered a cafe, and the eyes of every customer fell on him. They were stunned to see such a high-quality man. Wearing a customized three-piece black suit, posture that wouldn't break, making each of his gestures elegant and graceful, a body proportion that can be compared to the gods, and that face that made one question if he is a human or a divinity.

Silence~

Ignoring the silence and eyes on him, the god of void walks towards the counter, and only his footsteps echo in the whole cafe. He stood at the counter and noticed the cashier girl staring at him with a dumbfounded look. Seeing this, the God of Void had no other choice but to lightly knock at the wooden counter to wake up the person in the cashier area.

'He is so handsome'

'What a strong presence! He is like a king! '

These are some thoughts of the girl at the cashier before the God of Void.

Knock. knock.

The cashier girl shook her head and stumbled with her words as she spoke,

"How may I help you, King?"

"Hot Americano with two shots of espresso venti in size to go,"

said the God of Void. He pulled a black card from his inner pocket, making those who were watching his every move gasp in amazement.

They couldn't understand why someone with a black card would buy their own coffee and walk in the crowd when he could just order someone to buy it for him. Just based on his clothing and demeanor, he must be some kind of CEO or a rich heir somewhere.

The cashier girl blushed and said,

"Your orders have been paid. Please wait for someone to serve them to you, sir!"

After talking back his black card, the God of Void said in the corner where a single couch was located. He took a seat and looked at the scenery outside the glass window. All eyes were still on him.

Zhi Yue in his invisible moon form, hovers around his master and said,

[Master, they are all staring at you~ Some of them had their eyes filled with hearts, and there were even some who were drooling.]

The God of Void ignored the voice of his system in his head and pretended he couldn't hear anything while staring at the scenery on the road with dull eyes and an apathetic gaze. He looks like a lonely god that was lost in the human world.

A lot of girls and guys approached him, but only with a silent glance; this sent most of them away except for one. A man with blonde hair and silver eyes wearing white robes only doctors wore sat shamelessly at the opposite single couch where the God of Void seats.

This man looks so beautiful because of his foreign blood; he looks like the legendary elves in the storybook. Unfortunately, this beauty is useless in the eyes of the God of Void.

"I will take this seat as this is my private table, bar owner~"

said the doctor in white.

The God of Void was intending to ignore the stupid human who shamelessly entered his private space and had Zhi Yue teach it a lesson but stopped when he heard this man called his bar owner. This means his person knows Lucifer, or Xiu Xie, who owns Purgatory.

He, who was ignoring almost everyone in the cafe, finally turned his head to look at the doctor in front of him. However, to see his wife's face in a human made him shocked for a moment until his eyes turned completely cold, making the doctor in front of him choke on his iced strawberry latte.

Choke!

Cough. cough!

The doctor with blonde hair said,

"Come on! Why look at me like trash? I didn't offend you this time. I didn't even ask yet if I can dissect you!"

Everyone who heard his words was dumbfounded at first but terrified when they heard the word dissect. It seems that this young doctor is not an ordinary doctor. He is either a surgeon or a forensic doctor.

Chaos fell in the cafe, and those who were near their table had even dragged their own table to get away from the two of them at the corner. A direct isolation area was made inside the cafe.

The God of Void ignores the situation in the cafe and reaches for his cup of black coffee. His actions were powerful yet delicate. He looks so dignified even when drinking a cup of coffee. This scene stunned the doctor in front of him, who couldn't hold a comment.

The doctor with blonde hair stated,

"Are you possessed?"

"How do you want to die?"

asked the God of Void, flashing a seductive yet devilish smile.

Hahaha~

I'm wrong. You didn't change much at all~"

said the doctor in white.

All of a sudden, a group of police arrived in the cafe, and as soon as they spotted the doctor, they immediately approached their table. Among them, the one in lead was a captain that looks like a stern yet attractive man. This police captain is called Lou Ye.

The God of Void only exchanged a glance with the police captain and once again took another sip of his coffee. As for Zhi Yue, he immediately flew towards this captain, precisely to the small sun hovering beside him.

Zhi Yue calls,

[A'Yang~]

Chapter 1555 21.12 Fifth Violet Star - Police

The arrival of the police force at the café terrified the regular customers in the area. Among them only the two who were seated at the corner didn't care about them at all. The doctor was even trying to feed the God of Void with cheesecake but was ignored by the latter.

"Little grumpy~ how about sugar to remove your bad mood?"

Asked the doctor with blonde hair.

The God of Void retorted,

"How about you die? That might make me happy."

Haha~

so harsh, darling~. So when I am going to let me dissect you? You must have a beautiful set of organs in you~" said the doctor while looking at the God of Void with an obsessed look on his face yet not looking at him like a living person.

The God of Void wasn't surprised about it, in fact it tweaked his interest for a bit.

He answered,

"Just die."

They were suddenly surrounded by a group of police in uniform and surrounded them from inside out. This destroyed the scenery of what the God of Void can see from where he is seated. On the other hand, these police officers led by Captain Lou Ye approached the doctor.

Captain Lou said,

"Doctor Black, it's time to go back."

"Wait for a little bit. After I finish my coffee and cake, I will go with you~"

said the Forensic Doctor with the codename 'Black'.

Then he glanced at the man who was seated in front of him. He is unfazed by the situation he was in, even though he was surrounded by a group of special force police, the God of Void remained calm. It was as if he had the confidence to leave this cafe anytime he wanted without anyone being able to stop him.

The special force also noticed the God of Void, though in their eyes he is the mysterious bar owner of Purgatory. It's a information hub that even the government approved but it cannot be said to be a legal establishment as well. But the government told them to turn a blind eye on this bar and considered Bar Purgatory a gray zone. That's why most police in the city keep tabs on Lucifer.

Captain Lou Ye gestures to his subordinates,

"Grab him and bring him back."

"Yes, Captain Lou!"

said the police as they carried away Doctor Black like baggage.

As if used to this, Doctor Black didn't struggle as he was carried away. He was even smiling as he waved his hand towards the God of Void whom everyone thought was Lucifer.

Doctor Black said,

"See you later, Lucy~. Let me dissect you next time."

Some police even tried to stop him from talking as he was scaring the masses inside the cafe.

"Doctor, don't say anything anymore!"

"C-Cover his mouth!"

"Oh my God, someone stop those who took videos and photos."

"Tell the intelligence division this situation can't spread!"

Outside the cafe, the special force police had climbed back to their cars and saw that their captain was not going with them.

"Eh? Where is the captain?"

"He said he wanted to ask Lucifer something."

"Is it about the serial murder case?"

"I don't know. But the fact that Purgatory is also a broker of information, the captain might utilize him as we are already blindsided."

"The captain said he will return on his own. Let's go back to the station!"

"Yes, Vice captain!"

They didn't even notice the smile that appeared on the doctor's lips as he stared at the figure of the God of Void on the windows of the cafe they came out of just now. It was unknown what the doctor was thinking at the moment.

Back to the cafe...

Almost all of the police force had retreated except for their captain and the two invisible systems that were playing around them. After the police force had left, the God of Void finally looked at the police captain.

Snap! With a snap of the God of Void's finger the table they were in had entered the spatial mirror dimension leaving an illusion that they were just having a conversation in reality.

He said,

"You're finally here, Chief Warden."

"Greetings to my lord,"

said Chief Warden Lou Wuye as he kneeled on one knee before his master.

The God of Void said,

"Take a seat."

The police captain sat on the chair where the crazy doctor sat and started telling everything that had happened in his perspective.

"Master, the original of this body is an angel. To be precise, a fallen god like Lucifer, but he isn't one of his subordinates. He is someone who descended on the human world to find Lucifer's wings for himself and he is not the only one."

"There are rumors about the angels and the devils. A single feather from Lucifer Morningstar's wings can purify all impurities in the world. As he used to be the brightest Archangel in the heavens. If a fallen angel ingested it he would once again become an angel and if a devil ate there is a possibility of them becoming angels."

"The serial murders and crimes happening in this city must be connected to that pair of wings. If this continues Milord who is using Lucifer's identity might get dragged into this problem."

"I've heard information about the world from Zhi Yang. What would you like me to do Milord?"

asked the chief warden with the police captain's identity.

The God of Void asked,

"Gather as much information you can get about the angels, fallen angels, devils and even on that pair of wings. However, pretend to be human as much as possible."

"Tun Shizhe and Xue Hunluan are here. They're using the Devil of Gluttony's identity to stay in this world. They didn't know we had descended in this star."

"You shall pretend to be me if you meet him. I will allow the void to back you if that happens,"

said the God of Void.

The chief warden responds,

"As you will, Milord."

"Also... check if that crazy doctor from before is someone else's avatar. He might be Archangel Michael's human avatar in this human world. Don't stay long here and go back to where you come from,"

said the God of Void.

The Chief Warden slightly bows his head as he stands up. The moment he did the dimension they were in had disappeared and they had returned to reality.

The customers of the cafe only see the police that remain to talk with the handsome man and take his leave. No one else questioned what happened between the two of them. But just the fact that the God of Void stayed allowed them to enjoy this eye candy for a bit longer.

Meanwhile at one of the docks in the city, a serial killer was chasing one of the hidden police and the situation seems to be dire. The victim had a stab wound on his stomach, and tried to hide. It's just that he never expected the culprit of this serial murder was not human.

Within the dark corner of docks, a wounded man sat panting in one of the corners to hide. He was holding his stabbed stomach trying to block the bleeding. His pale face shows how bad his current situation is.

Urgh!

Tsk!

How the hell did he know that I'm tailing him!?"

"Did he choose this empty dock intentionally to lure me out?"

"This can't happen. I must report to the captain that the bastard was the killer or else the whole team would be in danger."

The stabbed police brought out his phone and even turned on the locator , throwing it somewhere together with some scribbles about the killer and gripping it in his hand. He was using his other hand to call for reinforcement in this deafening silent corner in the dock.

Ring.

Ring~

Even the low ringing of his phone echoes in the area making the injured police officer nervous. He is afraid that the monster who was chasing him might find him at this moment. His phone rings for a few seconds more before his call is finally heard.

Click!

[Hello. This is the Special Force. This call will be recorded and a passcode will be needed for the call to be transferred.]

His original work phone had crashed on the way as he escaped and only had this one civilian phone that was luckily grabbed by him as a spare phone. It's just that an unregistered number needs to go through his process before his call gets connected to the number of his special force captain, Lou Ye.

This police officer was so nervous that he started mumbling, "Faster. Faster. Please answer already, captain."

Click!

The injured police officer was about to be delighted when he heard the call had connected to his captain, but as he was about to speak a glint of silver flashed before his eyes and blood spurts out his throat. It was cut but that silver flash and phone fell on the ground as he slowly died from blood loss and suffocation of blood in his throat.

Whoosh!

Cough. Caff!

The dying policeman looked at the beautiful man in front of him smiling at him as he watched him die. This murder watches with delight as his victim slowly dies from the cut on his neck.

Thud!

"There is no escape from me~"

said the murderer with an ecstatic tone of voice.

The call was still ringing after it fell on the ground and the screen of the phone cracked beyond repair. The dying police officer didn't know if he was hallucinating but he saw a pair of black bat wings on the murder's back.

The dying policeman's last thoughts:

'Devil'

Chapter 1556 21.13 Fifth Violet Star - Piano wire or Hair?

Dawn by the sea docks...

The last phone call of a police officer was traced to this location under the command of Captain Lou Ye from the special forces. They finally found the officer who made the call; unfortunately, upon tracing the location and arriving at the place, what was left of the office was just a pile of square slices of human flesh.

Except for flesh, any body parts that cannot be cut into symmetrical squares, like bones, hands, feet, and heads, were disposed of in a pile not far away.

Blergh~

Some officers can bear the scene and vomit as soon as they see the so-called art of the serial murder they are chasing about. It can be said that most of these police felt sick upon seeing human flesh cut cleanly in squares like a block of pork or beef sold in the market. Except for the Police Captain Lou Ye and the Crazy Forensic Doctor Black.

Captain Lou said,

"Once you are done vomiting, seal off the area!"

"Y-Yes, Sir!"

"Heh~ this is quite a clean cut~ It cannot be done by knife or ax alone," said Doctor Block while wearing surgical gloves while investigating the square human meat he just grabbed with his hands.

Captain Lou asked,

"Doctor, what do you think is the murder weapon?"

something extremely thin, that can be sharp and fragile. The closest possibility, a piano string. Maybe... a hair?"

said Doctor Black as he picked a long hair of unknown origin near the minced human corpse.

"If it's hair, then it can only be a monster."

Captain Lou said,

"Investigate about who might be the owner of this hair!"

"Right away, sir!"

A few minutes later, the investigation report about the hair that was found had some results. It's someone from the entertainment industry. A manager of a popular actor.

"Captain. The results are in. It's a male manager from X Entertainment Company. The one who was handling a popular actor, Xiu Mo. Manager Xue Lian."

Doctor Black mumbles,

"Xue Lian? Xiu Mo? Isn't that Lucifer's younger brother? The owner of that hair is Xiu Mo's manager?"

"According to the reports, there were sightings of Manager Xue Lian and Actor Xiu in Bar Purgatory last night."

"Prepare an arrest warrant for Xue Lian. Vice-captain, bring a few with you and take him in. I'm going to Purgatory to check if the report of them being at the bar last night was real or not."

said Captain Lou Ye.

Doctor Black said,

"Captain~, you plan to go to Purgatory, aren't you? You must bring me too! I want to see Lucifer!"

"Doctor, you can't ask people to be dissected. That can be considered harassment," said Captain Lou.

"Also, I'm going there for work."

Doctor Black snorted and said,

"I will go even if you don't allow me too!"

Early Morning. Next day.

The real Lucifer had played all night and was asleep in his room with a few ladies in a tow. Since the sun is already out. It is now time for the God of Void, Ye Xiajie, to take his place as the big boss of the bar. The bar 'Purgatory' was closed all morning and would only be open when the sun had set.

Right now, the Xiu Xie at the bar counter waiting for breakfast and currently drinking his black coffee is no longer the King of Hell but the God of Void. Zhi Yue was helping in the kitchen with Devil Belphegor, making a meal for their master. All of a sudden, two unexpected guests came to the bar and were escorted by the guards at the entrance.

One of the guards said,

"Big Boss, that police is here again!"

"Let them in,"

said the God of Void, but when he saw the crazy doctor following around the chief warden, he couldn't help but feel a headache coming for him.

The God of Void acted as sarcastic as the original Lucifer:

"Oh great Police Captain of District 13, why did you bring a madman with you to my humble place?"

"Why are you calling me a madman? I even graciously shared cheesecake with you last night," pouted the mad Forensic Doctor Black.

It was at this moment that Belphegor and Zhi Yue in his human form had arrived, pushing a cart of food for their Big Boss, and it seems they had overheard some bits of their conversation.

Bartender Bel shouted,

"Nonsense! The Big Boss was at the bar all night!"

"Um. Actually, the boss sneaked out last night while we were busy at the counter. I saw him leave through the back door," whispered Zhi Yue to Belphegor, who showed a confused look as he saw the big boss at the swimming pool flirting with both men and women in the pool last night.

The God of Void said,

"Sneak to buy a cup of Americano."

"Big Boss, can't you just order someone to get you your coffee next time? What would you do if these policemen were pushed as the culprit again?"

said Bartender Bel.

The God of Void said,

"I only sneak out once I'm bored."

Zhi Yue, who served breakfast to his big boss, said, the God of Void responded and then looked at the two uninvited guests. One had shamelessly joined the table to eat with them while Police Captain Lou remained standing.

"Boss, let's eat."

"Yea,"

Doctor Black said,

Yey~

thank you for the breakfast, Lucy~"

"Doctor..."

called Police Captain Lou Ye in a warning to stop this man's shamelessness.

The enraged Belphegor was about to drag away this selfish human for his big boss when suddenly, the God of Void gestured for him to stop. No one knows why the God of Void allowed the shameless doctor to sit beside him and eat with him until he heard him speak.

The God of Void said,

"Let him be. That will be his last meal in his life."

Haha~

Lucy, you're funny.

Munch. munch~

said Doctor Black as he turned his face to grin at the God of Void.

As just the God of Void was about to kill the shameless human on the spot, he suddenly spotted something familiar under his left eye. In an instant, he grabbed Doctor Black's chin and forced him to look at him. The latter didn't mind and was even munching on a sausage as he was forced to look at the handsome face of Purgatory's boss.

The God of Void saw a trace of a scar under the doctor's left eye and noticed that it was in the shape of a snowflake but was cut in half.

"Were you scarred under your left eye before?"

asked the God of Void.

Munches~ Nods!

The crazy forensic doctor nods his head while chewing on a sausage. It looked both erotic yet comical at the same time. Only when the food in his mouth was swallowed did Doctor Black speak out.

Doctor Black said,

"How did you know? The scar should have been covered with a skin to hide it."

"Eat your food and shut up," said the God of Void as he let go of the madman's chin.

"Okay~

She~

replied Doctor Black.

As if not caring what was done to him just now, Doctor Black continued to eat breakfast and even took another pancake piece from the God of Void's plate, which almost made Belphegor jump on him but was stopped by Zhi Yue, who noticed the Lord had become lenient towards the doctor.

That snowflake-shaped scar under his left eye was enough for him to become a candidate for Lord Hei's soul fragment in this world. That's why the God of Void was turning a blind eye to Doctor Black's actions towards him.

The God of Void glanced at the chief warden, Zhi Yue, and Belphegor and said,

"The rest of you can eat as well. You included, Bel."

"Eh? No. No. I can't join the master on the table, that's..."

Bartender Bel saw Zhi Yue and Police Captain Lou Ye joining in for breakfast and held back his words. After watching them for a few more and seeing them eating together with the King, the King of Hell didn't mind at all; he could only follow after them and sit down to eat.

He was stunned that their king, who never cared much about his subordinates, would act this way. He felt bewildered as he ate breakfast with the rest of them. What he didn't know was that the King of Hell before him at this moment wasn't the same Lucifer as the one he saw last night.

After the meal, Zhi Yue and Belphegor cleaned up the plates and left the table for the two uninvited guests. Zhi Yue served black coffee to his lord and the chief warden but gave the forensic doctor a cup of ice milk tea. Even Doctor Black didn't expect that this young bartender would serve this kind of sweet drink to him and expected to drink the same bitter, black coffee these two straight men were drinking.

Doctor Black looked at Zhi Yue and asked,

"Eh? Why is my drink different from them?"

"But the boss said you like sweets; did I serve you wrong? Do you want coffee instead?"

asked Zhi Yue.

Doctor immediately shook his head and said,

"NO! I don't like bitter things. Thank you for the milk tea, little brother~"

"We also have some éclairs. Do you want some?"

asked Zhi Yue.

Doctor Black said,

"Éclairs! Thank you! I will have some."

"Doctor, please don't be too shameless,"

said Captain Lou.

"You've just eaten breakfast."

The God of Void said,

"It's okay. Since he wants to become a pig, let him be."

"You are a pig. Your whole family is a pig!"

retorted Doctor Black.

Zhi Yue and Chief Warden's thoughts:

'If you are Lord Hei's soul fragment, that is no different than calling yourself a pig.'

Chapter 1557 21.14 Fifth Violet Star - Serial Killing

After the breakfast was done, all of them moved to the sofa area in the bar. Police Captain Lou Ye and Doctor Black join the owner of the bar, Xiu Xie, after meals. Zhi Yue and Bartender Bel were at the side on standby after the drinks and snacks were served.

The God of Void had asked, "Why have you come to my place?"

He was looking at the police captain, Lou Ye, for answers, but the one who gave the answers first was the crazy forensic doctor, Black.

Doctor Black said, "I wanted to see you if you are willing to be dissected today."

"I also want to ask if you want to die today as well," retorted the God of Void.

Police Captain Lou said, "Please ignore the doctor. I would like to ask if actor Xiu Mo is your younger brother and if he appeared in your bar last night with his manager, Xue Lian."

"Xiu Mo? That little bastard? No, you are asking about his manager more? Maybe if you told me what happened I might give you the answers to your questions," said the God of Void.

Police Captain Lou's face turned gloomy and said, "Such information cannot be shared in public so easily, Mr. Xiu."

"They found a hair at the murder scene, and this hair was said to be owned by your younger brother's manager, Xue Lian. This is connected to the recent serial killings, and that hair was the only proof we found," said Doctor Black.

Upon hearing the doctor openly sharing some information about the serial killings,.

The God of Void commented, "Don't tell me you believe that a hair can kill a human."

"Of course, we don't. That's the only proof found on the scene. At most, Xue Lian would be used as bait to make the real culprit come out. We are here to make sure that Suspect Xue Lian didn't have time to come to the docks. It was reported that your younger brother and her manager came here last night after all," said Doctor Black.

The God of Void said, "Though I don't care if those two are convicted, it will be bad for the bar's reputation if it is spread that a possible killer was treated as a customer. Bel, pull out the CCTV recording last night and show it to our guests."

Bartender Bel, who had been waiting for this command, pulled out a laptop out of nowhere and placed it on the table in front of the police captain, then played the recording last night.

Bartender Bel said, "This is the CCTV recording directly from the bar counter and the whole interior of the bar to the door for entrance and exit."

"You seem so prepared," Police Captain Lou Ye said.

Bartender Bel snorted and said, "Whenever someone from the police force visits this place, it is always for one of our customers. I know you will ask for it and prepare it for you. It's just that I need to know who you target before showing you these videos."

"But I think you will be disappointed; those two stayed at the bar and in front of me for the whole night until dawn; they left at 3 am in the morning."

"I can see that myself," said Police Captain Lou.

Forensic Doctor Black said, "Boring~ this person looks so hard to convince. It is almost impossible to ask him to cooperate with us as bait."

Doctor Black lost interest after watching for a while. His hand kept reaching for eclairs and saw that there was nothing left and pouted. Zhi Yue, who was watching from the side, refilled the dessert tray with a smile, making the doctor look at him like a savior.

Police Captain Lou also thinks the same as the doctor. Just based on the short observation of Manager Xue Lian, this is a type of man that is hard to move with words alone.

The God of Void said, "I thought otherwise. He might find it interesting instead."

"You seem to know him quite well~" said Doctor Black with an ambiguous tone.

The God of Void stared at him for a while before averting his eyes and saying, "Those two knew together as children. It's normal to meet him as he was brought up by that little bastard from time to time. It's normal to know a thing or two."

"Well, that is also true. How about you get involved yourself? Are you interested in this too?" asked Doctor Black.

The police captain frowned and said, "Doctor, we can't involve a civilian in this case!"

"I am not interested in the deaths of a stranger," said the God of Void. "Since you are finished with what you need, I shall excuse myself. I want to resume my sleep."

He walks away without hesitation and heads to the elevator. Once the elevator opens, a few ladies come out from the suite above the floor. These ladies' eyes glowed at his presence.

"Lucifer~ we've been looking for you!"

"Just as we thought he went down for breakfast."

"Why didn't you wake us up?"

The three ladies were about to hug the God of Void but were skillfully avoided and walked past them as if he couldn't see them. These left the ladies and the others in the area speechless, especially the ladies. As for the God of Void, he heads to the suite without care for the others.

Zhi Yue had already anticipated this scene and approached the ladies, "Dear ladies, please don't mind the big boss's attitude. Well, he is not in a good mood."

He was gesturing to the ladies to look behind him, and when they did, they saw a policeman and a beautiful doctor in white. They immediately understood the reason for Lucifer's bad mood.

One of the ladies asked, "Another customer broke the rules of the bar?"

"That's too bad. No wonder the boss is no longer in a mood to flirt."

"It was so fun last night though~"

"Tell the boss we are leaving."

"See you again next time~"

The ladies left the bar without a second thought, as they themselves were a bit tired with all the fun they had done last night in the bar. They needed to go home and sleep after such a tiring night. Captain

Lou also prepared to leave and noticed that Doctor Black had lost his smile the moment the God of Void left and saw those three women.

Police Captain Lou said, "Doctor, it's time to go back."

"Hm. Indeed. You are going to visit Xiu Mo and Xue Lian's place right? I'm not going with you. I will go back to the morgue to see my babies," said Doctor Black.

If other people learned that this doctor's babies are dead people, they would definitely be frightened enough to pee. Who in their right mind would call corpses as babies except for this lunatic doctor?

On Doctor Black's way out, he stopped in front of Zhi Yue, who was holding a takeaway iced milk tea in his hand for the doctor. This cup of milk tea was happily accepted by the doctor.

Doctor Black asked, "Little one, what is your name?"

"Doctor, can call me Levi!" said Zhi Yue, who was pretending to be Leviathan.

Doctor Black frowned, "Levi? This name doesn't fit you. My name is Hei Yu. Anyway, see you later."

He left while sipping his new milk tea happily without even waiting for the police captain behind him. As for Captain Lou Ye, he gave his thanks to the two bartenders who helped him with surveillance recording and for the meal. He also left after Zhi Yang, who was in his system form, finished telling Zhi Yue about the case.

After the police and the doctor had left, Belphegor returned to work as if nothing happened.

Zhi Yue said to the Devil of idleness, "Brother Bel, do you think the police came over because of the serial killing in the news?"

"Maybe. You shouldn't come out of the bar at night. Maybe it wasn't a human who did it," said Devil Belphegor.

Zhi Yue pretended to be scared and said, "Come on~ please don't scare me!"

Meanwhile, when the police visited Manager Xue Lian in the set, it caused too much commotion, and the eyes that looked at Manager Xue Lian had changed due to the sudden summons of the police. Actor Xiu Mo was also affected by this event, causing unwanted rumors about them.

In the dressing room of actor Xiu Mo...

Xiu Mo, Manager Xue Lian, their two assistants, Captain Lou, and his police force had gathered. The actor was looking at the police with an unfriendly look.

"I wonder why the police have to come over and come to meet us wanting to destroy our reputation," said Xiu Mo.

Police Captain Lou Ye said, "We ask the two men to please cooperate with the investigation, especially Manager Xue here. You are currently a suspect for the recent serial killings in the city."

BAM!

"What nonsense are you talking about? I didn't even leave the side of my actor!" said Manager Xue Lian as he bangs the table with his hands.

Captain Lou Ye gestured, and a police officer stood beside him to bring out the evidence showing it to the actor and manager in front of him.

"A strand of your hair was found on the body of the victim's corpse. We have already investigated this hair and it was definitely your DNA match. Please cooperate with the police and come with us to the police station," said the police captain.

Manager Xue Lian said, "Body? Victim? Are you saying I am a suspect!? That's impossible!"

Chapter 1558 21.15 Fifth Violet Star - Police Station

Learning that he had suddenly become a suspect in a serial killing case, Manager Xue Lian didn't know whether to laugh or cry. He had chosen to use a vessel in this world on a whim just to see Tun Shizhe become a joke as an actor, who would have thought that he had become the joke itself. When he turned around, he saw actor Xiu Xie snickering as he held back his laughter and pretended not to laugh when he saw his manager glaring at him.

Manager Xue Lian asked with a menacing voice, "Is it funny?"

"Yeah, a bit. Pfft!" said Tun Shizhe.

This nonchalant yet trying to hold back the figure of Xiu Mo annoyed his manager, and even the two assistants pretending to be statues at the side made a move as they saw that Manager Xue Lian was about to lose it. This had happened multiple times every time their actor teased the manager.

Manager Xue Lian grumbles, "How dare you laugh?"

He then jumped on actor Xiu Mo and started pulling the actor's hair with no mercy. Tun Shizhe was laughing as his hair was being pulled while the two assistants finally made a move to stop the manager from scratching their actor's face.

"Manager, please calm down!"

"Think about your money. If our actors get disfigured, there will be no money for food, cakes, and desserts!"

Manager Xue Lian said, "It's okay to be a suspect. After killing this bastard, I can become a real criminal!"

"Darling~ cough! calm down. Haha~" said Xiu Mo. "Wait! I'm going to get bald. Ah~"

"Get bald! Even if you become an egghead, there is still a wig for you to wear!" said Manager Xue Lian.

Seeing this comical yet fearless scene, the police force almost didn't know what they were supposed to do. Obviously, these people didn't believe that Manager Xue Lian is a bad person, seeing that they can still joke around like this. The police couldn't help but glance at their captain.

Police Captain Lou Ye said, "Separate them."

"Yes, sir!"

With the interference of the police, actor Xiu Mo had actually saved his hair.

Police Captain Lou Ye said, "Are you guys done? Please cooperate with the investigation or we can only hold you accountable."

"I would like to call my lawyer and my brother," said Xiu Mo.

The police captain responded, "You're brother doesn't care. We already came from his place and took your surveillance video last night. You went home at 3 am. The murder was estimated to happen at 3-5 am at the docks."

"It would take more than three hours from Bar 'Purgatory' to the sea docks. So, I am not the killer?" asked Manager Xue Lian.

Captain Lou Ye answered, "Yes. At this moment, the possibility of you being a killer is below 30 percent. The death of the victim was bizarre instead, and our forensic doctor said that it cannot be done by humans."

"Strange death? What do you mean? The victim wasn't just killed in an ordinary way?" asked actor Xiu Mo.

Captain Lou Ye said, "No. He was cut into square parts. Equal square parts."

The assistants behind actor Xiu Mo and manager Xue Lian became terrified with those words as they heard about the serial killing happening. They also heard that the serial killer must be a psychopath who cut his victims into weird shapes.

If these police officers are talking about this serial killer and this serial killer had most likely had connection to Manager Xue Lian in any way as his hair was used to frame him as a suspect, this means that everyone the manager knows is possibly that hidden serial killer. These two assistants realized this and felt that they couldn't trust the others that easily now.

Manager Xue Lian said, "This is quite amazing. So, all the people who I know are possible serial killers?"

He then looked at actor Xiu Mo and pointed at him, "You can grab this one. He is the serial killer."

Everyone moved their gaze to actor Xiu Mo, who looked stunned as if he couldn't believe what he had just heard.

Actor Xiu Mo said, but he didn't seem to deny it directly and said, "Hm~ This is possible. It is just that if the killing happened at dawn on this day, we are together. That means you are a killer yourself."

Sigh~

"I hope Manager Xue and Actor Xiu please stop saying such words. It wouldn't be good to say you are the killers, as I might have to lock you in jail for obstructing the investigation," said Police Captain Lou. "Please come with us to the police station to record your entries."

Manager Xue Lian and actor Xiu Mo looked at one another and knew why the police were asking the two of them to come with them. After all, the people connected to Manager Xue must be listed, and these two whose identities were approved to be not the killer must be protected as well.

Actor Xiu Mo looked at the two hired assistants and said, "You guys can take the rest of the day and it will still be considered a whole day's work."

"Whether there is work tomorrow or not will be sent through a message tonight by me. Go home early today," said Manager Xue Lian.

The two assistants were quiet as they nodded their heads like pecking chickens. The information they heard was something that couldn't be spread, so the police listed their basic information as well and warned them not to say anything about the conversation that took place in this dressing room.

The police talking to the two assistants said, "Please don't spread a word about the serial killing case. You will be held accountable if any of the words said in this room are to spread. I hope you two understand."

"Yeah, we will keep quiet." One of the two assistants was greatly terrified and is still trembling in fear at this moment.

The other assistant instead only looks calm on the outside, but he is panicking on the inside. "We won't be targeted by the serial killer."

"No need to worry. The killer doesn't target those who are directly connected with Manager Xue. But just in case you can ask or hire someone to protect you if you are afraid," said the police officer.

Police Captain Lou Ye, seeing that Manager Xue Lian and Actor Xiu Mo are willing to come with them, finally prepares to leave.

"Let's go. The police had explained the situation to your coworker, and you were given two days off from work. Follow us out, and we will escort you both to the station," said Captain Lou Ye.

After saying those words, the police captain walks out of the room without looking back, and his subordinates handle the rest for their captain. Xiu Mo and Xue Lian were escorted by the police to the station where they were brought for investigation.

All people connected to Manager Xue were listed, including some more people from the side of Actor Xiu Mo. In the first place, these two are always together from work and home. They even live together, so no one knows who the real target between the two is.

But the police guess that it was most likely actor Xiu Mo, as he is an iconic figure in the entertainment industry. This is only applicable if the suspect is a human. If it is not a human as Doctor Black's assumption, then the suspects will be harder to profile.

The one talking to Manager Xue Lian and Actor Xiu Mo is none other than the vice captain with a gentle personality called Shi Chen.

Shi Chen said after the list of people was made, "Thanks for your hard work. If you want the police to give you protection, I can arrange it for you. After all, according to our forensic doctor, the murder is most likely not human."

Xiu Mo and Xue Lian were a bit startled with what they heard. They didn't expect that the mortals in this world had some concept about beings that are not considered humans. Even so, they still pretended to be surprised about this fact.

Manager Xue Lian asked, "What do you mean by not human?"

"Are you talking about aliens? Demons or such? The police actually believe that?" asked actor Xiu Mo.

Vice captain Shi Chen smiled and didn't answer their question. After all, this side of the world is considered secret for the common people.

"Thank you for your time. Would you like to be escorted home?" asked vice captain Shi Chen.

Xiu Mo said, "We would like to be sent to my brother's bar. Thank you."

"Then I shall arrange someone to send you over," said Shi Chen.

When they are about to leave the police station, they bump into the captain, who was issuing orders to trace all other evidence that may lead them to the serial killer. Of course, all those who were listed were being investigated as well.

Captain Lou saw Xiu Mo and Xue Lian being escorted out by his vice captain.

"Is it finished?"

"Yes, captain!" responded vice captain Shi Chen.

"Escorted them home safely," said Captain Luo.

Vice captain Shi Chen said, "The two of them said that they wanted to be escorted to Bar 'Purgatory'."

"Then send them there. I will go on patrol now," said the police captain as he rode his car and took off.

Xiu Mo and Xue Lian actually felt that the police captain didn't want to bother them. Unlike the other police officers in the station, they can feel that this captain truly doesn't feel worried about their safety when he is supposed to do so. After all, they are supposed to be just a pair of ordinary humans in the eyes of the police.

Xiu Mo asked, "That captain of yours. What is his name?"

"Our captain is called Lou Ye. He wasn't that unapproachable before, but after that one incident in his last case and falling into a coma, when he woke up, he became a bit taciturn." Vice captain Shi Chen tried to defend his captain.

What he didn't know was that in the ears of these two men, the meaning of those words meant different things. They had an inkling that the soul of Captain Lou Ye had been replaced by someone else.

Manager Xue narrowed his phoenix-shaped eyes and said, "I see."

Chapter 1559 21.16 Fifth Violet Star - Is he him?

The two of them, Xiu Mo and Xue Lian, ended up not going to the bar but instead asking the vice captain to follow the patrol car of Captain Lou Ye. The vice captain didn't know what to do first, but as these two are protected individuals, he can only follow what they wanted and use another police car to chase the one with Captain Lou Ye in it.

Seeing two patrol cars, the city just screams there's a criminal, which made the people in the city look worried when seeing such a scene. Because of this reason, Captain Lou Ye had to stop and meet the second patrol car after them. When he saw Xiu Mo and Xue Lian in the passenger seats while the driver was his own vice captain, his face turned a bit ugly.

Standing beside the second patrol car door was Police Captain Lou Ye.

He said, "Shi Chen, why are you bringing around civilians with you in your patrol car? Aren't you heading to Purgatory?"

"C-Captain, I have no choice. The two of them wanted to chase after you. To protect them from being targeted by the serial killer, this is the only way," vice captain Shi Chen said.

Captain Lou Ye turned his gaze to look at the two in the passenger seats. Upon meeting the eyes of the two men, the latter smiled at him while the police captain remained expressionless.

Captain Lou Ye said, "Escort them to their home and you return to the station. Don't worry about their protection. These two should be alright. I'm going on patrols; don't chase after me."

The police captain was about to leave when someone suddenly grabbed his hand. It was only for a split second, but when Xue Lian held his, ice attacked in those few milliseconds, and he retaliated. This response alone was something the two men needed.

In the eyes of the others, they only saw Manager Xue reaching his hand out to touch the police captain's hands, only for his hand to be flying away. As expected, Manager Xue Lian immediately apologized after doing such a thing.

With a smile, Manager Xue Lian said, "That was rude of me. We shall listen to the captain's words and go home for now."

"Indeed. It is better to go home than be targeted," said actor Xiu Mo as he observed the police captain. "Then we will stop playing around. Captain, see you again next time~"

After giving his subordinate a warning, Police Captain Lou Ye gave the two a cold glance before leaving to return to his car and drive away. As soon as the patrol car in front of them had disappeared, Xiu Mo and Xue Lian whispered at one another.

Actor Xiu Mo asked, "Is it him?"

"Hm. Unsure. There is indeed an element of darkness within him, but he didn't feel like him at all," said Xue Lian. "I don't feel my heartbeat."

Hearing these words made Xiu Mo annoyed. This feeling Xue Lian is talking about is the attraction of the God of Destruction's affection to his chosen other half extended to his soul fragments. This is a feeling beyond the control of the fragments. Even if they have their own egos, they still couldn't hold back the love Hei Anjing had for the God of Void.

As someone who loves the incarnation of the Ancient God of Chaos, being like Tun Shizhe also couldn't hold back their attraction to the God of Destruction, and this emotion is extended to his soul fragment like Xue Lian in this world.

Xiu Mo said, "He might not be him. There is also a possibility that it's Lucifer instead."

"Impossible! I've met Lucifer myself! How could I not recognize him!?" retorted actor Xiu Mo.

Xue Lian said, "But when I saw him at the veranda of his suite that night, I felt something from him. It might be me sensing things wrong, but..."

"If so, then let's go meet him again tonight. You go meet him face to face then... decide which between that police captain or Lucifer is him!" said actor Tun Shizhe.

Xue Lian nodded his head and said to the vice captain, "Sir policeman, please send us to Bar 'Purgatory'; we won't change our minds anymore."

"Are you sure?" asked Shi Chen, who felt a bit depressed after being scolded by his captain. "I don't want to be scolded by the captain for the second time."

"Go to the bar. We will spend a night there again," said Xiu Mo.

Vice captain Shi Chen said, "Okay. Please don't change your mind again on the way."

"We won't. Just drive to Purgatory," said Manager Xue Lian.

In the end, the two of them had to head to Purgatory. By now, the God of Void had already sneaked out to look around the city to find the crazy doctor and checked if he was his wife's incarnation in this world.

As for Lucifer, he just woke up in time and is now taking a bath. He plans to go to the bar and resume his nightlife like before. This is all what the God of Void had asked him to do after giving him a new body. His abilities as a devil were retained as well. This includes his wings, horns, and tail.

After taking a shower, Belphegor, who was waiting for his king to come out, served him well. He helped him with his clothes and meals as always.

Lucifer suddenly asked, "What did I do this morning? I had a feeling that I forgot about it."

Devil Belphegor thought that his king was still drunk and told him about his meeting with the police force this morning. What he didn't know was that the Lucifer this morning and the Lucifer who is currently in front of him are two different people.

"The King received uninvited guests this morning from the police. It seems that your younger brother and his manager had some possible connection to the serial killing happening recently. A police captain and a forensic doctor came to ask a few questions," reported the devil of idleness.

Lucifer, who was eating his dinner, almost bit his tongue when the crazy doctor was mentioned.

"He... cough! I met Hei Yu! That crazy doctor! Did he still want to dissect me!?"

Belphegor looked a bit startled at first and answered, "My king, that crazy one never changed. He won't unless you let him dissect you."

"I'm not a lunatic to get myself dissected alive. Is there something else?" asked Lucifer (Xiu Xie).

Belphegor answered, "Yes. Your younger brother and his manager are here again."

"They've been coming too frequently lately. What's the deal?" grumbled Xiu Xie.

The bartender and servant of Lucifer didn't know how to answer this question of his king, but he actually has a guess or theory that is going all over his guess. Lucifer, of course, noticed this.

Xiu Xie said, "Talk, Bel. What do you think this is about?"

"This... I think they might have thought it was the king who was doing the killing and wanted to use it against them? It's just my theory, but it might not be correct either. Maybe they just miss you?" Belphegor said.

His last sentence almost chokes Xiu Xie to death. The words like miss, love, and worry would never be exchanged between him and Xiu Mo. Even if they are brothers, they are more like enemies, as he knows that Xiu Mo also covets his twin brother, Michael.

Lucifer declared without hesitation. "What you last said is something impossible in this life. That little bastard would even kill me as long as he was given a chance."

"That is also true." The devil of idleness was so quick to agree as he knew that his king and the devil of gluttony never got along well at all. This maybe can last for eternity.

Xiu Xie asked, "Nothing strange going on?"

"Ah! There is... that crazy doctor acted clingy on you more than usual. This time my king didn't show disgust and just ignored him while saying threats," said Belphegor. "Also, a special customer came for you tonight."

Lucifer's eyes narrowed for a moment as if thinking of something and just resumed eating his meals until he was done. After a while, he changed his clothes and prepared to head down. Though he already knew that his younger brother and his manager were most likely to get their souls replaced, it is still better to antagonize them as he usually does.

Most of his clothes are black. This time again, he wore a simple black polo shirt and pants. His hair was combed carelessly, and the top three buttons of his shirt were undone. A span of his firm chest was exposed to be seen.

For the men and women who came for him to his bar, they would consider his current attire as eye-candy.

Xiu Xie said, "Well, then~ shall I meet my guests tonight?"

Lucifer heads down to Purgatory after eating his meals. As usual, his arrival caught everyone's attention, including his younger brother and Manager Xue, who came for him this time. A lot of men and women approached Xiu Xie and fell in his arms.

"Lucy~"

"Lucifer~"

As a playboy himself, Lucifer didn't decline anyone who came for him. Until he heard one of the most gorgeous ladies in the bar tonight whisper something in his ears.

"Lucifer, help me," she said.

Chapter 1560 21.17 Fifth Violet Star - Saw something I shouldn't have.

As Lucifer descended from his suite floor from above his bar Purgatory, those who had been waiting for him intentionally were now looking at him. Among these people are Xiu Mo, his younger brother, and his manager, Xue Lian, whose souls have been replaced by outsider entities like Tun Shizhe and Lord Chaos.

As Manager Xue Lian's eyes fell on him, Lucifer felt a bit uncomfortable and almost couldn't hide his discomfort. At least in the eyes of these two outsiders, he can hardly hide anything.

Meanwhile, the wisps of hell flame inside of him hide themselves in a place they cannot be seen. It's supposed to only come out once its current host is in great danger, which this situation at the moment doesn't seem like it.

The more Lord Chaos tries to check on him, the more his expression turns cold. Upon seeing this, Tun Shizhe finally believes that this Lucifer, Xiu Xie, in front of them is truly the original one he had failed to kill and wasn't replaced by anything.

Actor Xiu Mo asked, "How about it?"

"... It's not him! Tsk!" answered Manager Xue Lian.

Then finally mumbles, "Did I see it wrong before?"

While Xue Lian was a bit confused and depressed that he found the wrong person, Xiu Mo, on the other hand, was delighted. Seeing him get things wrong that involve the man he hates made Xiu Mo happy.

Xiu Mo wrapped his arm around his manager and said, "Haha~ It's okay to be wrong. No one will blame you for it."

"You sound so happy though," retorted Manager Xue Lian.

Xiu Mo said, "Don't mind it."

On the other hand, the God of Void, who was lingering around the city while holding a cup of coffee, was following the direction Zhi Yue was showing around. They wanted to visit the locations where the serial killing took place.

They had ventured to the latest location, which is the dock. The God of Void was alone with Zhi Yue in his system form as a small moon only he could see. The dock was desolated and too quiet as soon as the sun had set.

[Master, this way! The crime scene according to the information I've hacked from the police station's database is this way!] Zhi Yue said.

The God of Void, while using the body of Lucifer, walks past the eerie docks with only the black sea and the sound of the waves echoing in the area. It was only when they were walking along the day that the silly moon system felt scared. He had always been easily terrified thanks to his former host, Lord Hei, who loves to make fun of him. Zhi Yue floated near his lord and almost covered the God of Void's face.

[M-Master, don't you think this place is too quiet. It's eerie~] said Zhi Yue.

Ye Xiajie slapped the little moon covering his face and said, "You're too annoying. Move away!"

Ignoring the small moon that flew out somewhere, the God of Void walks towards the location of the scene, and seeing the yellow line used by the police still there, he passes through it with no problems and checks the murder scene.

There are still traces of blood that turned black, which wasn't completely cleaned up by the police, and the lingering scent of blood, which only those with sensitive noses can pick up. Then there is miasma left behind in the scent.

Though mortals can't see it and it is almost invisible in the morning, under the night sky, the hidden miasma in the area started to surge out, including the resentment of the victim left behind on the crime scene. In the eye of the God of Void and Darkness, the empty scene in front of him wasn't completely empty at all.

The whole area was covered in miasma. A poison born from the corrosion of darkness elements that destroy the natural energy or life in the area. There are also some reddish wisps in the area forming the figure of a male human. This is the resentment from the regrets and fear of the victim during the time he was murdered and after his death.

'Aah~ S-Save me~'

'W-What did I... do wrong?'

'Why... Are you doing... this!?'

'The Captain will...'

The victim was unable to complete his last words as he was cut into pieces before he could do it. His death was gruesome and extreme pain, and he even experienced what it is like to be skinned alive. When the soul full of resentment saw Ye Xiajie, he followed his instinct of trying to eat the human soul like how most resentment souls do.

Moreover, even though the God of Void had a strong Yang energy, it was now completely covered by the darkness elements lingering around him, and the resentment ghost felt that he was an easy human to bully.

The God of Void watched as the resentment soul flew towards him while covered in a strong scent of blood and miasma. The victim's mouth was widely beyond what humans can do, and rows of sharp, uneven teeth appeared trying to bite Ye Xiajie.

As the target of the resentment ghost, the god of void is not afraid of this scene. He had seen worse, and this is like a child's play in his eyes. With a snap of his fingers, a golden flame burns down the resentment ghost, who instantly screams in pain and fear. It didn't even notice that the resentment in his soul was being burned away.

The once deep crimson-colored ghost had turned translucent white, and it immediately calmed down as if it had regained its rationality. Once the soul woke up from its insane state, this former police officer immediately recognized Xiu Xie.

The police ghost said, "You are... the bar owner of Purgatory!? You can see me?"

Ye Xiajie waves his hand and extinguishes the golden flame, leaving only the purified soul of the police's soul.

"Hm, what do you remember?" asked the God of Void.

The police ghost chuckled and said, "So, you weren't human as well? What are you?" he asked.

The God of Void said, "You can just say that I am an angel."

He shamelessly told a lie that is unbelievable that the ghost in front of him looked at him with disagreement in his eyes. The police ghost clearly didn't believe him at all.

Thus, the God of Void can only unfurl Lucifer's wings after using divinity to change its color to golden white from black.

Whoosh~

Flap!

"Is this enough proof?" asked the God of Void nonchalantly.

On the other hand, the police ghost was flabbergasted as he looked at the huge pair of golden white wings behind the bar owner. He couldn't believe what he was seeing. It can be said that even if Bar 'Purgatory' is considered a gray zone, most police believe that this place is an illegal den and its owner is a future criminal once he crosses that line.

But now the bar owner they treat as Lucifer, the devil, was indeed not an ordinary human as they thought. He can see ghosts and talk to them, even controlling a weird-colored flame that burns away miasma or negative energy on them. Now there is even a beautiful pair of angel wings on his back, which doesn't fit his pure black attire that he is currently wearing.

The police ghost said, "You are really an angel?"

"Do I still look like a face with these wings?" retorted the God of Void.

"But your personality..."

"What's wrong with it?"

"N-Nothing. I will tell you everything I know," said the police ghost. "The one who killed me is not human. He is not an angel, or maybe he used to be. Unlike your pure white wings, his is pure black. There is also a pair of horns and a tail on him. He called himself. Mammon, the Devil of Greed."

The God of Void asked, "Have you seen his face?"

"No...? I did, but... how come I can't remember?" said the police ghost as he held his head.

The God of Void checked and saw that a piece of his soul was ripped apart, and this is why a part of his memories are missing.

"Don't think too hard anymore. Whoever is the devil who killed you intentionally removes your memories. If you want to enter reincarnation, I shall help you," said the God of Void.

The police ghost saluted and said, "Thank you!"

The God of Void summoned the gates to the afterlife in this world. A huge gate appeared before the ghost and opened before him. The soul catchers from the nether realm come out of the door to escort the ghost.

The police ghost said, "Ah! Yes, I remember something. It's the reason why that devil is killing people. He said that we saw something we shouldn't have."

"Saw something you shouldn't have? What do you mean?" The God of Void.

The police ghost said, "At first, I was confused too. But after thinking about it for a while and seeing your wings, I think I understood why I was targeted. There is something in this world that shouldn't have existed. It's a pair of pure white wings that is similar to yours. Each of its feathers was pure white and cannot be tainted by anything."

"It's a pair of pure white angel wings."

The God of Void should be a bit interested in the topic of angel wings. In the first place, there is only one angel who got his wings cut off before falling into hell, and that is none other than Lucifer, the former brightest angel in the heavens.

"You know where these angel wings are then?" asked the God of Void.

The police ghost shook his head and said, "It was considered one of the illegal items confiscated by the police force before, but it was taken away by someone, and no one knows where it is right now. However, it wasn't only me who saw it. Based on the information of the serial killing victims, they are most likely people who knew the existence of the angel wings."

"Where were the angel wings found?" asked the God of Void.

The police ghost said, "It was found in some wealthy man's collection, and after he was caught for the crime of drug dealing, all his collections were turned over. This is all I know. I hope it will help you well."

After that, the soul of the police officer was finally escorted to the afterlife and passed through the gates of hell. As for whether he would get reincarnated immediately, those beyond the gates will gauge the sins of the soul first.
