

World Plot 1561

Chapter 1561 21.18 Fifth Violet Star - Another Victim

After seeing off the victim to the afterlife, the God of Void was about to walk away when he saw a black feather lingering and hidden under the shadows of the docks. After picking it up, he noticed that it was indeed a fallen angel's feather. A fallen angel is considered a devil in a sense, and thus he wasn't surprised that it can commit such an act and covet the wings of Lucifer.

The God of Void flaps his wings, and it fades as if it never existed. The original black wings, horns, and tail were also given back to Lucifer's new body. The pair of wings showed that the poor victim was just something he made using his ability to control light elements.

Though he can't control this element too well and he just uses it for healing, shaping it into a pair of wings was not hard for him.

Zhi Yue, who just came back to his side, said, [Master, there is another case of serial killing within the city. This time it is connected to Xiu Mo and Xue Lian directly. It's one of their assistants, the victim this time. Does the master go?]

"Let's go," said the God of Void.

Meanwhile, at the crime scene.

At the house of one of the assistants of actor Xiu Mo and manager Xue Lian, the police force led by Police Captain Lou Ye and his team were investigating and protecting the scene. This time, the death of the victim can be said to be cleaner than the last one.

The last victim was cut into pieces, and if not for his head not lacking enough flesh, the police would have a hard time finding out who he was. Thus, the killer, after cutting off the head, was thrown in some corner together with limbs that weren't useful to create square blocks of flesh.

The current victim was skinned this time. She was skinned perfectly without extra scratches on the skin except for the slice to his neck down. It was so clean that once the skin was once again placed back on the body, the police immediately realized who it was.

Captain Lou Ye and his team who were investigating the scene were shocked. After all, they were still talking to this lady and the other assistant this morning. Who would have thought that after the sun had set she would become nothing but a corpse?

A police officer approached the police captain and said, "Captain, the surveillance camera recording had been found, but as expected, there were no traces of someone entering the room."

"Not even drops of blood were found in the scene, and not even a trace was left behind."

"But a strand of Manager Xue Lian's hair was once again found at the scene."

"It is impossible to be him though; the vice captain had personally sent the two of them to that famous bar at the center of the city."

"Captain, the vice captain said he had sent actor Xiu Mo and manager Xue Lian to bar Purgatory after splitting up with you, and he is back to the station already. Should I ask him to come?"

"No need. Tell him to tail those two possible suspects, or maybe they might become the next target of the serial killer," said Captain Lou Ye.

"I will inform the vice captain," said the police officer.

Captain Lou Ye said, "Also call Doctor Black."

A few hours later, the mad doctor arrived at the crime scene, ignoring everyone in the area. He approached Captain Lou Ye with an excited face.

Doctor Hei Yu exclaims, "Where is my corpse!?"

"Doctor, it's not your corpse. You can't bring it home. The last victim is the same, so don't sneak out a square of flesh out of the morgue," said Captain Lou.

Doctor Black pouted and complained, "You're being stingy lately, captain! Are you possessed?"

"If I'm possessed, throwing you in jail will be my first move," retorted Captain Lou Ye.

Doctor Black shrugs his shoulders under the threat of the captain and says, "Okay, you are real." Then he runs towards the skinned corpse and checks on it like he has found a new toy.

Police Captain Lou Ye was checking around for the source of miasma in the crowd. As a Demon God under the Evil God, Ye Xiajie being able to sense miasma was something he can normally do. After all, the Nether Prison was completely surrounded by it.

He looked around and found a black feather. It was larger than what a black rooster can possess, making it not something an animal can possess.

"A fallen angel?" mumbles the police captain.

It didn't take long for the police captain to realize that it was a fallen angel's feather, and the owner must be quite powerful to have this kind of feather. He hid the feather as he didn't want the other to notice its existence right away. He pretends to continue looking around when suddenly he notices his lord appearing within the crowd.

The God of Void blended with the crowd as he watched the crime scene from a distance. Noticing that his chief warden was about to approach him, he shook his head and gestured in a certain direction, noticing a commotion from his subordinate not far from him.

"Excuse me, sir! You can't cross the yellow line!"

"This is a crime scene. Civilians are forbidden from approaching!"

"Wait! Don't they look familiar?"

Xiu Mo spoke, "Open a path. The one who was killed is my assistant, and you can't let me see what happened to him!?"

"Move away! Don't make me say it twice," said Manager Xue Lian.

The moment his eyes landed on the police officers, they couldn't help but take a step back. It's by instinct that they felt that the man in front of them was someone they couldn't defeat.

Captain Lou Ye, who arrived at the scene, said, "Let them in. These two are needed to be protected as they might be the next target of the serial killer."

"C-Captain, sorry I'm late. I was looking for a parking spot after sending these two here," the vice captain said as he looked so tired after being led around by Xiu Mo and Xue Lian almost the whole time.

Captain Lou Ye narrowed his eyes at his vice captain, and the silence also made the area a bit uncomfortable only when they heard a soft yet helpless sigh that they heard the police captain speak.

"You take a rest. Since I am here, these two should be okay?" said Captain Lou Ye to his vice captain and looked at Xiu Mo and Xue Lian, then said, "You can go anywhere on the crime scene; just don't touch anything. If you have a question, you can ask the other police officers. Also, another strand of your hair was found at the scene. It seems that the serial killer wanted to make you his scapegoat no matter what."

An assistant of Doctor Black approached the police captain and said, "Captain, the result of the tests had been made. Doctor Black wanted you to come over."

"Let's go," said Captain Lou Ye.

Manager Xue Lian, who grabbed his arm, said, "I want to listen."

"I will go as well," said actor Xiu Mo.

The police captain pulled away his arms from Manager Xue Lian's hold and said before walking away, "Do as you wish."

Manager Xue Lian looked at his hand that lost the arm of Captain Lou Ye as if he were at a loss. Xiu Mo also understood his reaction, as he felt that this police officer might be the God of Void but the kind that didn't recognize them. The power of darkness and glutton in him cannot be ignored, though.

Actor Xiu Mo frowned and whispered, "This police captain possessed that bastard's powers, but it doesn't seem to be him at the same time. To check who he truly is, we need to force him to fight back."

"Let's not do it for now. The serial murderer is picking on me for a reason. I do not think that something behind this situation was not an outsider like us. To specifically target me, it means he knows who I am," Manager Xue Lian whispered back.

Actor Xiu Mo nodded his head in agreement and said, "If that's the case then there are possible people who do so. The most likely one was someone like you, a soul fragment with ego. The one from that last world which my main soul had gone to. According to the information I've gathered, it seems that this soul fragment was forcibly merging with the other soul fragment to get stronger. You might have become his target."

"I see. To have his kind of idea, he might have wanted to surpass the main soul. However, such a thing might be futile, or else I would have done the same thing in the beginning," said Manager Xue Lian.

Actor Xiu Mo asked, "What do you mean?"

"The God of Destruction doesn't care about his soul fragments. This fact is real. However, if one crosses the line, he... is willing to kill even his own soul fragment. Why do you think I never cross him and only target the God of Void? I wanted you to remember, he is the craziest among us!" Lord Chaos said, leaving Tun Shizhe speechless for a moment.

Chapter 1562 21.19 Fifth Violet Star - Is that Lucifer?

After being called by the assistant of Doctor Black, Police Captain Lou Ye had come over to see the crazy doctor. Following him was his vice captain and the two people under the protection of their station, Manager Xue Lian and Actor Xiu Xie. They were a bit surprised by the beauty this doctor possessed. It can be said that his appearance was attractive even for divinities like they are.

Captain Lou Ye said, "I'm here."

"Finally. Come, I will explain what I have gotten from this beautiful toy... I mean corpse," said Doctor Black.

Manager Xue Lian felt especially nostalgic with those pair of phoenix-shaped eyes and silver irises. It is just that unlike him who emits the coldness of everlasting ice, this man's eyes felt holy instead.

"Who are you?" Xue Lian asked as he felt a bit uncomfortable seeing this man.

Xiu Mo covers his mouth as if he was surprised by something. Like his manager, he felt that this doctor feels too familiar to the God of Destruction. It is just that he felt too holy compared to the original as if he was born for pure light instead.

Doctor Black also felt uncomfortable with Manager Xue Lian and said, "I'm the main forensic doctor of Captain Lou Ye's team, Hei Yu and who are you then?"

"Manager of Actor Xiu Mo, Xue Lian."

"Hi~ I'm Xiu Mo."

Doctor Hei Yu looked at the two men in front of him with a scrutinizing gaze and showed a completely lost interest as his eyes turned dull at them. His eyes glittered when looking at the corpse behind him.

"I see," This is his only response to their introduction.

Doctor Black's eyes glows as he looks at Captain Lou Ye, his excitement as he shares what he discovered from his new toy, ahem! His subject, he reports everything to the team captain.

"Captain! This toy... em, corpse is more amazing than the last one! He was skinned alive but for some reason none of the blood slipped through as if something was holding it back! You see that flesh shaped human? All of the blood was in it and all other possible holes were sealed up at this moment. So, when he was skin, not even a hint of blood drop. Isn't that humanely impossible?"

"Our culprit is definitely not human!?" exclaims Doctor Hei Yu and the unknown existence.

All of the sudden, Captain Lou Ye pulled something from his pocket. His hands were covered with gloves so as to avoid spreading his fingerprint. The huge black feather was passed to Doctor Hei who looked a bit dumbfounded for a second.

"Please take this."

"A rooster's feather?" asked Doctor Black.

Manager Xue Lian retorted, "Is there a rooster that big?"

"I picked it up from this area. Check what kind of feather this is," said Captain Lou Ye.

Doctor Hei Yu seems to look disappointed, a huge feather is not interesting for him.

"Oh, then I will check it."

All of the sudden, Doctor Hei Yu turns around and as if Captain Lou was waiting for it, he didn't leave right away to resume his investigation.

"Captain, can I bring home the skin at least?" asked Doctor Black.

Captain Lou Ye with a stern face replied, "No."

Hmp!

Doctor Black ignored the captain who never gave him what he wanted and walked away to do his job. Xue Lian and Xiu Mo watch as Doctor Black returns to his team holding a feather and starts investigating it.

Xiu Mo and Xue Lian had nothing to do in this place as they couldn't move around with someone watching over them like the vice captain that sat not far from them. They actually don't need to do anything as these two right now are more interested in Doctor Hei than the case itself.

"Do you think this doctor is the God of Destruction's soul fragment in this world?" asked Xiu Mo.

Xue Lian said, "If he is, how can he be so weak? I've been checking on him all this time and he is truly just a mortal."

"But the police captain seems to be overprotective of him, is he supposed to be the God of Void?" asked Xiu Mo.

He looks unsure as he felt that even though he can feel the darkness element and the power of gluttony inside of Captain Lou Ye, he still felt that he doesn't fit the bill of someone as that man's incarnation. After all, that person is one of the strongest Sovereigns in existence and his presence alone separates him from all other people.

This police captain Lou Ye indeed has presence but it was controlled as if nothing must go beyond a certain limit. Which doesn't fit the character of the God of Void who is known for his cruelty and arrogance.

Xue Lian said, "This world is a bit strange. There are too many of them hiding in the shadows without even showing their tails. Maybe it was us who were exposed."

"If we are exposed then there is no point in hiding. Let's catch the serial killer and interrogate him why he wanted to pin the blame on you," said Xiu Mo.

Xue Lian said, "I had an idea who the mole is."

Without them knowing all of their actions were being watched by the God of Void in the dark. Since he showed himself in front of Captain Lou, he had hidden themselves from the others and hid in the shadow of Doctor Black. Observing him from another dimension checking whether this man is his wife's incarnation or not. Zhi Yue is with him.

Zhi Yue asked, [Master, do you think this doctor is Lord Hei's incarnation?]

"No. But they are connected," answered Ye Xiajie.

Zhi Yue looked confused and mumbles, [What does that mean?]

The God of Void intentionally changed the topic and asked, "Had Zhi Yang found where Warden Yun Ming is?"

Zhi Yue said, [Master, we've checked all over the human world, however we couldn't find him. He might either be in hell or in heaven.]

"Due to his soul contract with my wife, his vessel's identity seems to have connection to the soul fragments of Jing'er. Finding him would allow us to find the soul fragment faster."

Zhi Yue said, [I will tell A'Yang to look out for his subsystem's signal.]

As the police force was cleaning up the crime scene, Doctor Black finally got a result of the unknown. The DNA and components of the feather cannot be researched by science alone, but that made it even more interesting to this madman.

Doctor Hei Yu reported, "That feather's result was all unknown. From the DNA to all other attributes and components in it, the machines cannot detect anything. I want to study this thing more, it would be better if you found more for comparison."

"I leave that item to the doctor, but please be careful of studying it and never forget to come when called for work. If you agree to these conditions I will give that feather to you," said Captain Lou Ye.

Doctor Hei Yu nods his head like a pecking chicken while saying, "I agree. I will go back and study this deeply. Just call my assistants for work. Bye~"

He hurriedly left the crime scene before the others could react. Xiu Mo and Xue Lian were about to chase after him, but were blocked by captain Lou Ye, looking at them with an unfriendly look.

Captain Lou Ye said, "You cannot go with the doctor and you can go home for now. I will send a few officers to protect you even at home."

Manager Xue Lian looked at him with an unfriendly expression which was a complete contrast from when he just arrived. No one knows if he was offended by the police captain's words or irritated for another reason though.

"Are those officers for protection or surveillance? Police Captain, you still think of us as suspects don't you?" said Manager Xue Lian.

Police Captain Lou Ye didn't lie and honestly answered, "Yes."

"Sigh~ it's so like you to not deny. Very well, we are going back home for today. But I don't think your vice captain can follow us though..." Manager Xue Lian said.

They all turned around to look at the vice captain and saw that under his eyes were black and he was almost on the verge of falling to sleep. It seems that after sending these two to the bar last night, he was out for stakeout for another ongoing case he was handling except for the serial killing one. In short, this vice captain hasn't gone asleep for a few days straight.

ZZZzzz~

The vice captain fell asleep with his eyes open while being seated. The other police officers who witnessed this couldn't help but hold their laughter as much as they could as they were afraid of offending their seniors.

The police captain sigh upon seeing this and said, "I will escort you back home."

Then commanded the rest of the police officers in the area, "Clean up the place and return to the station. Send the body of the victim to the morgue and after cleaning up everything, call the family of the victim to surrender the body."

"Yes, captain!"

Captain Lou Ye brought Xiu Mo and Xue Lian to the parking lot where they saw the doctor's car driving past them. It is just that the driver is completely different from who they expected it to be. It was unexpectedly Lucifer who appeared out of nowhere and on the passenger seat, Doctor Black was enchanted with the two feathers in his hand. One is the black one from the crime scene and the other is golden-white feather and most likely from Lucifer that isn't supposed to be here.

VROOM~

Xue Lian looked stunned when he met Lucifer's eyes that split moment before the car passed by and he felt something different between Lucifer who was driving that car and the one he met at the bar last night.

Xiu Mo said, "Was that my brother just now? Since when did he get close to my brother? They are supposed to be enemies though."

"Not much different. The Doctor still asks whether he can be dissected or not every time they meet. The doctor must have caught him and asked him to drive for him. Let's go. I will send you back home," said Captain Lou Ye.

It was only at this time that they noticed Xue Lian's state. He looked like he was shocked and was suddenly quiet while in a dazed state.

Xiu Mo asked, "Are you alright? What's wrong with you?"

"Is that Lucifer? Is that truly Lucifer?" question Xue Lian as he couldn't believe that he felt that jolt in his heart when he saw Lucifer again. Similar to the feeling when his eyes met him that night when he looked up and saw him at his suite's veranda.

"Then who was the Lucifer we met last night!?"

Xue Lian's confused state made Xiu Mo understand the seriousness of the situation and his face turned expressionless as he looked at the direction where the doctor's car had just driven through. Unlike when he had a smile on his face, an expressionless one makes him so unlike his persona as an actor. Even so, the police captain watches all these changes on the two people with calmness.

Chapter 1563 21.20 Fifth Violet Star - Rules of the World.

Few hours ago at the parking lot...

Doctor Hei Yu was preparing to go home to study the black feather. This object is something considered unknown or undiscovered. His house had the latest facilities for researching this kind of object or cause of death. He was heading to the parking lot to find his car when he saw Lucifer leaning on his car, staring at a uniquely large feather in his possession. The only difference is its color; the one in the God of Void's hand is white instead of black.

"Why are you here? Do you want to volunteer for dissection?" asked Doctor Black.

The God of Void retorted, "Should I escort you to jail?"

"Snort! It's okay, I have this feather with me. I won't be bored for a few days," said Doctor Black as he hugs the black feather in his hands.

This scene, however, doesn't look interesting in the eyes of the God of Void, and he gave him the golden white feather he made with his divinity to be given to this mad doctor.

The God of Void asked, "Do you want this?" He stretched his hand to give the white feather to the mad doctor.

As expected, just as he looked so interested about it, the moment the God of Void said he was giving it to him, his eyes glowed nicely, looking a bit coquettish towards the giver.

"You are giving it to me! Thank you, Lucy~" said Doctor Hei Yu, who urgently took the white angel feather from the God of Void's hands and started jumping around like a kid.

Zhi Yue commented in the God of Void's mind, [Master, this mortal is too childish. Lord Hei doesn't act this way.]

'Are you sure? When you and Jing'er are scheming something, you both look no different than the current him,' responded the God of Void in his mind.

Zhi Yue said, [Really?]

'Yeah.'

After the doctor ended his excitement for getting another test object, he finally remembered the God of Void.

Hei Yu turned his head and saw that the bar owner was about to leave without even saying goodbye to him. Unconsciously, he reached out without thinking, and the feather in his hand fell.

"Ah, wait a minute... my feathers!"

Doctor Hei Yue urgently reached for the feathers and took a wrong step forward, twisting one of his feet. Just as he was about to fall, the God of Void caught him, preventing himself from landing on his face in this parking lot's ground.

AH~

The God of Void said, "Be careful. So careless."

"W-Wait. I twist my foot! Hiss~ it hurts~" complained Doctor Black.

The God of Void crouches down and checks on the twisted ankle of Hei Yue. Seeing it swelling, he knew that he must have twisted it quite badly, but upon checking the bones, it doesn't seem to be fractured.

"Your right foot is swelling. You better go home and rest. Don't put too much weight on your right foot as you walk. I'm leaving," said Ye Xiajie, who was about to walk away only to be grabbed for the second time.

Hiss~

The God of Void carried the doctor in his arms to prevent him from using his right foot.

"Tsk! Don't step on it!" said the God of Void as he carried Doctor Hei.

The mad forensic doctor was stunned only for a moment before he started grinning. He actually noticed that unlike the Lucifer he first met before, there is no malice or disgust in this man's eyes. Instead, he feels his tolerance, which used to be only something the police captain showed him.

Moreover, in his eyes, the captain seems to have changed a lot as well. Though he acted normally as always, this time he felt an invisible distance between them, as if a solid line were placed at the center of the two of them. But he truly didn't care; the relationship between him and the police captain is just collaboration, in short, for work only.

It was this bar owner who seems to have his soul replaced that made him want to get closer. He couldn't understand. But as if instincts were compelling him, he wanted to approach this man closer, and that gave him a peace he had never experienced before.

The God of Void asked, "Car keys."

Doctor Hei Yu gave it up with no hesitation, and it's the bar owner who stiffened and didn't decide whether to take the car keys or not. In the end, he still took it, though.

The God of Void said, "You will be kidnapped and killed someday. How can you trust me? I am nothing but just a stranger to you."

"It's fine. There is a tracker injected in my blood. A very small chip was placed in my body in exchange for me freely walking under the sun. The Police Force actually called me a psychopath, but because of my skills in finding the cause of deaths and chemicals in the dead body, I am working for them while allowing me to do what I want and protecting me."

"I am actually a valuable tool because of my intelligence, and the police were protecting me and surveilling me at the same time."

Upon hearing the explanation of the doctor, the god of void remained calm and unlocked the doors of Hei Yu's car and finally placed the doctor in the passenger seat and took the driver's seat himself.

"I will drive you home," said the God of Void.

The doctor, who was usually jolly, was now quiet at this moment, looking a bit disappointed and sad.

Sigh~

The God of Void felt that ignoring him in such a state would lead to some kind of bad ending. He ended up saying, "I don't care if you are a lunatic or a normie. In my eyes, there is no difference between the two." Both are something he can easily kill if he wanted to do so. Mortals are simply fragile.

Seeing that the man in front of him didn't look to be lying and his expression was nonchalant yet serious at the same time. The doctor knew immediately that he wasn't lying, and a smile couldn't help but appear on his holy-looking face.

"Thank you, Lucy~ You're the best!" said Doctor Hei Yu.

This startled the god of void for a moment, but he averted his eyes as if he didn't care.

"Put on your seat belt. I'm going to drive," said the God of Void.

During their way out of the parking lot, the God of Void met Xue Lian's (Lord Chaos) eyes on their way out. It was just a split second, but it was enough for the latter to question who he truly is. He didn't care and just drove away.

Ye Xiajie might be quite nonchalant about their exchanged gaze, but the reaction of Xue Lian didn't escape the doctor's eyes. Even so, Hei Yu pretended he didn't see anything and kept all his thoughts to himself.

In the parking lot...

Seeing that Manager Xue Lian is saying things that cannot be understood by ordinary people, Xiu Mo looked at the police captain that was with them with a calm look on his face, and not even a trace of confusion could be seen.

Xiu Mo said, "You... How come you aren't fazed by the words my manager just said?"

"I do not understand what you mean. Is it even my problem if you have problems with the bar owner of 'Purgatory'? Do you still want me to escort you home or not?" asked Captain Lou Ye.

Lord Chaos, who was bewildered just now, actually couldn't explain what he is truly feeling at this moment. There is only one thing on his mind, and that is that he lost patience with the current bewildering situation. He controlled the ice elements and made a scythe with ice to attack the police officer.

Tun Shizhe, knowing what he wanted to do, didn't stop him and watched from a distance. He was also ready to act anytime, but he wanted to see what Lord Chaos wanted to do. Seeing him attack the police captain, he also wanted to know how this person would react.

Before the ice scythe blade cut the police officer in half, the shadow under Lou Ye moved on its own and protected him. The ice scythe broke into pieces upon impact. Tun Shizhe and Lord Chaos were stunned by the result. The moment they saw the shadows surrounding Lou Ye turning into a huge pair of black wings, they immediately recognized it.

Tun Shizhe said, "It's the abyss. He is indeed the God of Void."

He was also planning to attack, but noticed that the police captain instantly retracted the darkness back to his shadows.

"In this broken world with a foreign god, do you think you can do anything as you wish?" said Police Captain Lou Ye.

Tun Shizhe sneered at him and said, "At the very least, I am not afraid of anything on this star!"

Rumbles!

Just as Tun Shizhe went for a kill, lightning fell from the sky, targeting him and Lord Chaos.

BOOM!

The two avoided it on time but still felt that this lightning had the powers of law in it.

Tun Shizhe cursed, "What the hell?!"

BOOM! RUMBLES!

Xue Lian peeked through the dark clouds in the sky and saw through the heavens hidden within and met a pair of silver eyes looking down on them, and it seems this is the man controlling the heavenly lightning to descend on them.

He then looked at the police captain, who was unharmed by the heavenly punishment, and realized something: "Use the original vessel's ability. There's an overseer of this world!"

Lord Chaos's vessel is a lesser devil that serves the Devil of Gluttony, Beelzebub, and he also possessed black wings, which he unfurled the moment he saw another heavenly lightning about to fall him. But something unexpected happened when he did; the lightning that was about to strike him faded, and he was unharmed.

Seeing this, Tun Shizhe reverted to the original form of his vessel. Xiu Mo was the Devil Prince of Gluttony, Beelzebub. A huge pair of black wings and a smaller crowned horn appeared in his body. Like as expected, the lightning tribulation leaves as if it lost its target.

Lord Chaos mumbles, "The rules of the world. It seems like something that cannot be easily broken."

His eyes move to police captain Lou Ye. "You are an outsider like us. Who the hell are you?" exclaimed manager Xue.

Chapter 1564 21.21 Fifth Violet Star - Satan in Hell?

After suffering from a few strikes of lightning from the heavens, Xiu Mo and Xue Lian finally understood what was happening. Whoever is in heaven right now has full control over the world, its an outsider like them and most likely someone powerful to eliminate this world's Heavenly laws and replace it with his.

Heavenly Tribulation will automatically activate once someone's power not listed in this world's database is used. On this star, only divinity, darkness and human machineries are considered powers. Divinity for angels, darkness for the devils, and machines for humans. This is the power that only exists in this world and anyone using other abilities will be attacked by the rules of the heavens.

Ice elements and the power of gluttony don't exist in this world. That's why when Lord Chaos and Tun Shizhe used their abilities the rule of the heavens punished them on the spot. Heavenly Punishments from lower worlds hardly have any effects on the high-ranked gods.

But most gods who borrowed a vessel from the world will have most of their abilities restricted by this body of flesh. This is the reason why heavenly lightning can affect them greatly.

Captain Lou Ye observed them for a while and unfurled his wings. This is his current body's original wings. In reality, he had replaced one of the devil princes that was just under the command of Lucifer, the devil of greed, Mammon.

As for the original soul of Devil Mammon, it was destroyed by him. After all, this body wasn't something Zhi Yue and Zhi Yang had prepared for him, but something that had accidentally summoned his soul when they descended on this world. He was supposed to have the identity of an angel instead of a devil.

Captain Lou Ye reacted calmly after seeing them.

"Since you had enough of the facade, this farce should stop, Beelzebub, Asmodeus," said the police captain. "Though I don't know how Asmodeus is now capable of using ice as your weapon, there was no reason to attack me at all. After all, I am turning a blind eye with what you guys have done that night."

Once that was said, Tun Shizhe and Lord Chaos realized that the police captain before him had indeed identified them. However, it wasn't because of their real identity as an outsider but instead the identity of their current vessels. It was them who made a mistake, after a devil's source of power is darkness. He might not be the incarnation of the God of Void.

Tun Shizhe also realized this truth and asked, "You... are you Mammon?"

"So, you didn't recognize me. Just who have you mistaken me for?" said Captain Lou Ye. "Whoever it is, don't bother me anymore. You can go home alone, can't you?"

After saying these words, the police captain walks away ignoring them. The way he treated these two was no different from the way the original Mammon had done. The Chief Warden wanted to confuse the two even more and to question themselves whether he is just the devil of greed, Mammon, or the incarnation of the God of Void his lord had told him to portray.

Tun Shizhe and Lord Chaos observed him as he took his leave. Now they are more confused than ever. Just when they thought that Lucifer was possibly the incarnation of the God of Void, this police captain with an ability to control darkness appeared.

Seeing through Lucifer as not that one's incarnation, they started to lean on this police captain as the God of Void's incarnation. Now, they were proven otherwise and he is not his incarnation but one of the Devil Prince instead.

Xiu Mo asked, "What do you think now, Chaos? Who is the real incarnation of the God of Void? It might be him pretending not to be one."

"I want to see Lucifer again and check for the third time. The Lucifer I saw just now is... most likely him. Or maybe something in this world is interfering with my mind. This world is a bit more dangerous than I expected," answered Xue Lian.

Xiu Mo turned serious and said, "Let's confront him tonight. I want to know how he didn't die from my attack before."

"Let's do it tonight," said Xue Lian.

The two of them disappeared on the spot and didn't even notice that one person who was observing them from a distance all along. One wouldn't expect who he was, but he is the suspect for all the serial killing cases the police had been chasing for.

The serial killer looked like a psychopath biting on his nails as if he was some kind of a lunatic.

"They are together again. They had always been together since that day. They didn't stay together before. I can't accept this. I can't! Why can't you notice me at all!"

"That's right. I should kill more. If I kill more will you turn my way?"

"Ah! right, I have that... will they be interested in the wings of the brightest archangel in history? Hehe~"

The madman disappeared without a trace and only a few droplets of blood remain in the area. It seems he is looking for another target.

On the other hand, in the heavens...

The angels noticed the movement of the world rules in the mortal realm when Xiu Mo and Xue Lian broke the rules. The one who reported it to Archangel Michael was the angel of wisdom, Archangel Uriel.

In the Heavenly Palace which Archangel Michael rules. Uriel, the angel of wisdom, comes over to report about the happenings in the mortal world which involves those who are not human. The palace in the heavens was not only pure white and surrounded with clouds, but also emits the aura of purity and holiness. This is where the leader of the archangel, Michael lives.

Archangel Uriel reported, "The world rule about subduing foreign powers had been triggered in the mortal realm. However, according to the angels in the mortal world it was caused by clashes of three devil princes fighting."

"Devil Princes? Who are they?" asked Archangel Michael.

Uriel responded, "Two had exposed their true form and were recognized by the angels. The last one remained in his human form however his wings had exposed him to be one of the devil princes. The first two were Beelzebub and Asmodeus."

"Them? Since when did those two get closer to one another? Asmodeus used to be more attached to Leviathan," commented Archangel Gabriel who came over to also report something.

Archangel Uriel retorted, "How should I know what those fallen thought about? However, if they fight, the mortal realm will be gone."

"Isn't Lucifer there? Just send him to stop his subordinates," said Archangel Gabriel.

Archangel Uriel paused his words once Lucifer was mentioned after all, aside from Michael that being is the strongest. Going there to reprimand him just that seeking death.

"You go if you want to, I don't want to do it," said Uriel, the angel of wisdom. "Besides he doesn't listen to anyone except for Archangel Michael."

"It's okay to leave him alone for a while. I will descend if he overdone it," said Archangel Michael.
"About the devils, once they had overdone it they sent Zadkiel out."

Thinking about the Archangel of mercy and forgiveness, whose personality is completely opposite of his title as an angel made Uriel and Raphael shivers for a moment.

The two Archangels reacted, "Oh, that's fine too."

"Why are you here, Gabriel?" asked Archangel Michael.

The angel's messenger recalled why he was here and said, "A being calling himself Satan appeared in hell."

Once Satan was mentioned Archangel Michael and Archangel Uriel looked stunned as if they heard something ridiculous. It was just the angelic presence of an Archangel that was hard to be seen as something like mocking even though they are showing that kind of expression.

Archangel Uriel voices out their thoughts, "Have you gone crazy? Lucifer is in the human world, why would there be another Satan in hell?"

"That's why I came to report to you! The angels I've sent down to check had never returned. The report about this information was covered with the gold blood of an angel. They must be killed." Archangel

Gabriel showed the report that came to him. An old parchment covered with golden blood splatters on it.

Upon seeing the parchment soaked in the blood of the angels, a serious expression appeared on the archangel's faces. They knew that it is impossible for another Satan to appear as Lucifer was Satan himself. That was his name after he became the king of hell. They just couldn't understand why there is now a being calling himself Satan and killing angels without care for consequences.

Archangel Michael said, "I will..."

"NO!"

Archangel Gabriel and Archangel Uriel cut off his words as they could already guess what Michael wanted to say. He was planning on going to hell to check the situation himself. But after God had gone missing, Archangel Michael was placed to the top as the temporary ruler of the heavens. They can't let their king leave his palace to go to the most dangerous place, hell.

"But it would be dangerous to leave it alone, right?" said Archangel Michael. "Moreover, I wanted to see this one who wanted to pretend to be my twin brother."

Archangel Gabriel said, "Even if it seems interesting to you, it's still a no. If something happens to you the heavens will be in chaos and this world will most likely get destroyed."

"I think it's better to send Lucifer. This is a mess he caused after leaving hell after all. Raphael, you descend and tell him," Archangel Uriel said.

Archangel Gabriel complained, "Why me again? Just send an angel to pass a message."

"Do you want that angel not to return as an angel but a fallen one? Don't you know what kind of man Lucifer is?" Archangel Uriel said.

Archangel Michael said, "I can also meet Lucille instead."

"NO!" The two archangels once again rejected his words.

Archangel Gabriel, the messenger of god said, "Fine! I just have to go right?!"

Meanwhile in Hell. The black palace at the center of Hell.

A demon sat on Lucifer's throne with all of the other devils and demons were kneeling before him. Only one gorgeous angel with white hair and silver eyes stood next to this demon.

"All hail your majesty!"

"Silence! Tell me what happened to those angels you've caught," asked the devil seating on the throne.

A devil answered his king's question.

"All of the angels had either fallen or died. Their blood had been collected for the king to enjoy."

"Acceptable result. Continue to catch more for this king~."

"As you wish, your majesty!"

After the devils had been sent away, the two who were left behind had a conversation. The one seated on the throne looks exactly like Lucifer this includes the ability to control the darkness and the power of gluttony.

The angel with white long hair and silver eyes said, "You've exposed yourself. How can I capture Lord Chaos?"

"Don't worry. I will make sure to give him to you later," said the devil on the throne. "It's just that I can't find any traces of my elder brother and his people in this world. This is the only way I can lure him out."

Sigh~

"Don't be the one to get caught in the end," said the angel with long white hair and silver eyes.

Chapter 1565 21.22 Fifth Violet Star - Descending from the Heavens.

In the Bar 'Purgatory', Xiu Mo and Xue Lian had once again come over to check on Lucifer. Unlike their last two visits they did, this time they urgently entered the place and even grabbed Bartender Belphegor by his collar. The one ahead was none other than Xue Lian.

While grabbing the collar of the devil of idleness, he asked, "Where is your big boss? Has he returned yet?"

"Yes, he was on the dance floor," answered Belphegor.

As soon as Xue Lian got the answer he wanted to hear, he let go of Belphegor's collar and strides towards the dance floor.

Xiu Mo as he passed by the bar counter brought out an old parchment and ripped it. The time inside the bar had stopped except for those who are not human, most of them are just mortals and they were affected by the Time Stop Scroll Xiu Mo had used.

This time the devil Belphegor felt things weren't as simple as he thought. He couldn't understand where Beelzebub got such a treasure and even used it as dispensable. After all, skills that involve time are something that only the heavens possess.

Belphegor couldn't hold back and followed after them. Meanwhile at the dance floor, Lucifer who was enjoying the view of both females and males dancing sexily in front of him suddenly noticed that the time in the bar had stopped.

Lucifer mumbles, "Tsk! Which one from the heavens came over this time?"

He stared at the door and was surprised to see Xue Lian appearing with a weapon in his hands adding the murderous intent he is emitting, Lucifer's expression turned serious.

He casually blocks the dagger Xue Lian is using to stab him. Lucifer asked,

"What's the meaning of this Asmodeus?"

Xue Lian said, "Why don't you attack? Just attack!" As he once again raises his dagger and this time using darkness to enhance not only strength but also his speed.

Lucifer was confused by the actions of Asmodeus, but as soon as he saw his younger brother, Beelzebub, coming for him as well. He instantly understood everything.

Haha~

"Of course! Who else would try to kill me if not you!? Do you want to kill me again!? Beelzebub!" shouted Lucifer.

Darkness surges in the whole bar and even Belphegor who was confused for a moment understood that his king was in danger.

Belphegor shouted, "What the hell do you want to do?"

"Don't get involved if you don't want to die," said Xiu Mo as he waved his hand at Belphegor who was coming over to fly away and hit the wall with a loud noise.

As a devil Belphegor's body is quite strong, despite the impact he suffered when he was thrown, he immediately stood up trying to stop these two. But for some reason, his shadows had restrained him to where he is.

"What the...! Let me go!" shouted Belphegor.

Unfortunately, his opponent wasn't simply the devil of gluttony, but someone else that was at least as powerful as gods. Even as one of the Devil Princes, he won't be able to escape Tun Shizhe's restraints so easily.

Tun Shizhe said to him, "Stay there for a while."

Lucifer was being pinned by Xue Lian and saw that even Belphegor was easily restrained by these two people. Though he already heard about them from the God of Darkness, experiencing it while still alive is different. He was killed immediately the last time.

Actually, he already knows why he died that night, it's because of that death that he realized that maybe the real Michael had also died until he was resurrected by the God of Darkness and Void.

As twins their life is connected. Pain, death and sadness, these were emotions shared between the two of them and as long as one of them is still alive it would be almost impossible to kill them.

But he died, that means something had happened to Michael as well. Who would have thought that he would be resurrected by the God of Darkness? Moreover, after revival his connection with Michael seems to have been restored. It is just that Lucifer didn't know if the current Michael is still the Michael he knows that is why he asked those questions to the God of Darkness.

Now the Asmodeus and Beelzebub he knew was nowhere. They were replaced by these two fake ones in front of him but their vessels remain the same. He just couldn't understand that the beings of their world were being replaced by outsider Gods who would not even be interested in their planet.

Xiu Mo responded, "I just want to know whether you can revive yourself again after killing you for the second time."

"Lunatic. Do you think it is easy for you to kill me!?" exclaimed the king of hell, Lucifer. He kicked Xue Lian away and made a distance from these two men.

He unleashed his real form as a devil. A crown like horn appeared on the top of his head. His ears became pointed and his black hair turned longer with its tips covered in red fire. His huge black wings were unfurled and his tail slams the ground angrily.

Lucifer said, "This time I will not be fooled by you!"

Lucifer who used to be the brightest angel in the heavens had become an embodiment of the darkness after becoming a fallen. Compared to the other devils and angels he is considered one of the peak powers. It is just that compared to the Gods who can control divinity his current strength is useless.

Xiu Mo spoke, "This time we have no time to play with you either."

"Indeed. It's better to deal with it fast," said Xue Lian who suddenly appeared behind Lucifer, used his hand and stabbed the latter from behind until the former's hand passed through Lucifer's body.

STABS~

Lucifer was caught off guard as he couldn't understand why someone who he had kicked away would suddenly appear behind him.

Cough~

Blood strolls down after Lucifer coughs and unexpectedly, his blood was still gold despite having fallen.

Lucifer said in shock, "How... did... you appear... b-behind me?"

"Space Teleportation. I'm quite good with it," said Xue Lian.

Lucifer grins before taking his last breathe and muttered, "Damn fucking gods."

Coughs~

Just as Lucifer's heart slowly stops beating, he doesn't notice that his word grumbles through his words while coughing blood is heard by Belphegor, Tun Shizhe and Lord Chaos. They didn't expect Lucifer to know about the existence of outsider gods.

Just the fact that he failed to dodge Xue Lian's attack from behind was enough to say that he is just an aborigine of this world. Someone who couldn't even see the shadow of a god in human flesh. Xue Lian completely lost interest in Lucifer after killing him. Now he is sure that someone is interfering with his mind.

Xue Lian threw Lucifer's dead body on the floor with an expressionless face. He didn't even give him a second glance as he was busy cleaning his hand soaked in golden blood. Belphegor, at the side, can only watch from the side and look like he lost soul. He wasn't able to accept that his king was easily killed by Asmodeus.

Belphegor, who was in dazed after his king's death, recalled what his king said before he took his last breath. His face turned pale after realizing something. It seems that the Asmodeus and Beelzebub in front of him were no longer devils like himself. The souls inside the body were all replaced.

"Gods? These people are gods? How come they are worse than me, a devil?" Belphegor mumbles.

Xue Lian and Xiu Mo heard his words making them unable to ignore it. This sounds like an insult to their ears and couldn't accept why a mere devil was here speaking words to compare them to himself. It simply sounds insulting to them and they couldn't hold back their anger.

The moods of Tun Shizhe and Lord Chaos had been bad after learning that they found the wrong person again. This Lucifer wasn't the incarnation of the God of Void at all. The feeling of Lord Chaos was wrong for the third time.

"Who are you to judge me?" asked Xue Lian as he suddenly appeared before Belphegor.

With his neck clasped within the hand of Lord Chaos, Belphegor finally felt what it feels to have death looming over him. He is simply powerless before this person and no matter how much he struggles it is no use.

Tun Shizhe also felt that someone was playing with them and so he didn't stop Chaos from killing one another. But suddenly, they felt the space in the whole bar had been locked in and the effect of the time stop scroll, they've just used, had been overwhelmed.

The time in the bar had once again started moving, the mortals in the bar not only saw Lucifer lying dead on the floor but also saw Manager Xue Lian's left hand covered in blood which he hasn't completely cleaned just now. Adding the fact that he is strangling Belphegor at this moment, the stunned humans realized what just happened.

"AHH!! He killed someone!!!"

"Run! There's a murderer inside the bar!"

"Escape to the back door."

"What the hell is that?!"

"Horns, wings and tail!?"

"Lucifer is not human!"

The humans were in chaos. In their fear, most of the females screamed in fear. Others run out of the front and back doors. There are even some of them jumping out of the window. The commotion was enough to catch even the attention of the people outside the bar.

Xue Lian let go of Belphegor, sparing his little life. This time, he tried to use authority in the area to erase the memories of people who had seen Lucifer's dead body.

"...kuff~!"

Before he could utter a word, his voice was suddenly stuck and he was unable to speak the moment he tried to use Authority in this world. Before the two of them can understand anything, a voice echoes inside the bar. The voice sounds holy.

"Forget about everything that you've seen in this bar."

These words were full of laws and all mortals were affected by it and fell unconscious. Those who were still awake looked at the entrance of the bar and an angel with three golden halos appeared before them. This man was full of divinity.

The three who are devils summoned from this man's aura and felt burns on their skin. Only when they saw who it was that they realized who had arrived. The Leader of all Archangels and the current ruler of this world.

Belphegor calls in shock, "A-Archangel Michael?"

Chapter 1566 21.23 Fifth Violet Star - 'His' Incarnation

The appearance of the leader of the Archangels caught Xiu Mo and Xue Lian off guard. Before they meet Archangel Michael, it couldn't be denied that they look down on these angels. After all, as being of divinities why would they be terrified of things like angels which are lower than a god.

However, the Archangel that appeared before them is on a completely different level. Though he is a bit weaker than a Sovereign God, he is at least at the level of an Immortal God and an extremely powerful one at that.

The moment Belphegor opened his name and called the Archangel's name, Michael turned his head to look at him.

"I didn't allow a devil like you to call this king's name. You must be punished," said Archangel Michael.

Snaps!

AGHH!!

"I'm sorry! ARGH! I shall never call your name again!" shouted Belphegor amidst his wails.

With a gentle smile, he snapped his fingers and white fire surrounded Belphegor making him feel the pain of being burned alive yet this fire doesn't affect his body at all. The pain was so real that he fainted.

Thud!

Only once he fainted that the white flame and the darkness that captured him had melted and disappeared. The one who burned him white fire and made him suffer was smiling with an angelic face the whole time. The other two who were with him didn't dare to move at all. They felt restricted the moment they did so.

Archangel Michael spoke, "I descended because I felt something was stabbing me on my chest. The pain was too real to ignore then I remember Lucille. As expected, you guys tried to kill him for the second time."

Once those pairs of silver irises and phoenix-shaped eyes landed on Tun Shizhe and Lord Chaos, they understood that they couldn't defeat this person. Though this man's power wasn't as overwhelming like the God of Void and the God of Destruction, at least within this world they are in this man is invincible as he is the laws itself.

Lord Chaos hit the space beside him and forcibly broke the laws of space trying to escape and temporarily removing the rules of the world affecting them.

Archangel Michael's words sound like law in the area, "No one is allowed to leave in this space I am within."

The space fissure Lord Chaos had created immediately started to repair itself. Lord Chaos and Tun Shizhe knew that they had ended up being inside this Archangel's domain.

"You are forbidden to move now."

Ugh!

Lord Chaos and Tun Shizhe were restrained the moment Archangel Michael's words had fallen. Lord Chaos can only glare at the archangel on the other hand, Tun Shizhe felt stunned as he stared at the angel before him and only now understood who this man is.

"You are 'his' incarnation in this world," said Lord Chaos.

Archangel Michaels suddenly appeared before him and pinched his chin forcing him to look up at him. Once those two pairs of silver eyes clashed a sudden resonance had happened between the two. With the same origin, the two can always feel the connection.

"So, are you? Born with an ego like me yet... weak," said Archangel Michael.

The moment Lord Chaos was called weak his expression turned colder and his eyes became fiercer.

"It is not me who is weak. It is you whose strength isn't supposed to be at such a level! You've eaten this world's heavenly laws, haven't you?" said Lord Chaos.

"You aren't an ordinary incarnation. You can control Chaos energy!" stated Lord Chaos.

As if his words had hit the spot, Archangel Michael lost his angelic smile, instead an extremely cold expression replaced it. It was expressionless yet gave away a chilling feeling.

"Do you want to merge with me too? I can initiate force merging unlike you," said Archangel Michael.

Meeting those chilling eyes, which reflected his startled self made Lord Chaos enraged.

"Who did you just call weak?" Lord Chaos said with a cold tone of voice.

He started using all his powers without care for his vessel as a powerful surge of ice elements covered the whole bar with ice. Even the space elements were used to forcibly break through the restriction on himself. Moreover, he countered Archangel Michael's Authority on him.

"All skills used on me are denied!"

Clashes of skills and laws in the area caused the whole place to explode. Just outside the building the mortals were in panic as they couldn't understand what was happening in the world. Dark Clouds started to gather above the building that was shaking uncontrollably.

The police led by Captain Lou Ye and some angels in their human form were restricting the entrance of the mortals in the area. Among the angels that suddenly descended, there was Gabriel, Uriel and Zadkiel in their human form.

Their personality comes out as they dress as humans. Archangel Gabriel looks like a gentle yet naive . He possessed a cheerful and open personality with how he likes to wear white and easy to move clothings.

Beside him, Archangel Uriel was like a scholar wearing clothes that make him look smart, adding the glasses on his face and how prim his expression is. He looked like a professor.

As for Archangel Zadkiel, he was wearing semi-sport clothes which are easier for him to move. His muscles say that he possessed strength and most likely a martial artist with how he moves.

Archangel Gabriel asked, "Who are those two inside? They look like Asmodeus and Beelzebub, but is this strength? Will Michael be alright inside alone?"

"There's a feeling of divinity in those two. The vessel is indeed that of Asmodeus and Beelzebub, but it seems the soul had been replaced," said Archangel Uriel who was peeking at the scene through his ability, Divine Eyes.

Archangel Zadkiel asked, "Are we not going in? I want to fight."

"You better stay here! Those two are no longer... hm?!" Archangel Uriel's words stopped when his eyes landed on the one leading the police, which is Police Captain Lou Ye.

Archangel Gabriel asked, "What's wrong, Uriel?"

Police Captain Lou Ye noticed his gaze but ignored it for a moment and commanded his team.

"Surround and block the area of this building. Prevent everyone from coming closer to it. This is a terrorist attack!"

Captain Lou Ye immediately made an excuse that not only prevented civilians in the area but also did not approach it on their own. After completing the commands, Lou Ye approached the angels. Among the three Archangels the one who instantly took a guarded action was Archangel Uriel.

"Don't come closer than that! Who are you!?" questioned Archangel Uriel.

With these words, Gabriel and Zadkiel also treated Captain Lou Ye as an enemy. However, the Chief Warden didn't treat them as his equal but someone weaker than he is. He looked composed and nonchalant.

"Angels, that one inside is called Archangel Michael is it?" Lou Ye asked.

Archangel Uriel holds back his tongue, preventing himself from giving away any information. Sadly, the two beside him didn't think much as they couldn't feel anything different from Captain Lou Ye. After all, they didn't possess divine eyes like Uriel.

"Who are you? Since you are an enemy, I can beat you up right!?" said Archangel Zadkiel as he wanted to punch Lou Ye.

Archangel Gabriel, who believed in his sibling's strength, didn't stop Zadkiel and even watched with a smug look. Unfortunately, unlike him who couldn't see what kind of being is right in front of them right now Archangel Uriel urgently stops him.

Uriel, the angel of wisdom shouted, "No! Kiel! Don't attack him!"

"What?" asked Gabriel and even Zadkiel.

However, it was already too late. The fist of Archangel Zadkiel was just an inch away from Captain Lou Ye. The scene where Archangel Zadkiel made one's head explode didn't happen. Instead, a mere single finger of Lou Ye was enough to stop the whole force of Archangel Zadkiel.

Archangel Gabriel exclaimed in shock, "Impossible! How can he stop Kiel's strength with just a finger."

"That man is not an angel nor a mere devil. He's a demon god," said Archangel Uriel leaving the other angels in the area terrified.

After all, Demon Gods, and Evil Gods are considered legends. It was said that before they were created, their creator had lost his siblings from fighting against a Demon God. As for Evil Gods, there are myths that should never exist in their world.

The Chief Warden looked at Archangel Zadkiel and said, "I'm not here to be your enemy, children. I'm under orders to check the one inside the place and whether he is the one we are looking for."

With a simple flick from the chief warden, Archangel Zadkiel flew back to his group like a child. All the angels caught him, but fell on the ground with him. It wasn't due to the weight of Archangel Zadkiel but because of the force from the flick that came from Lou Ye.

With a frown and disbelief painted on his face, "Who is the one you wanted to check on?" asked Archangel Gabriel as he didn't hear the police captain's words from before.

Archangel Uriel said, "Is it Michael? Who are you and why are you checking on Archangel Michael?"

All the angels in the area were waiting for his answer when suddenly the ground under their feet shook badly and some mortals even fell. Before everyone's eyes, the land cracks emitting lava and fire that isn't supposed to exist in the city.

RUMBLES~

Captain Lou Ye frowned and mumbles, "There are here. Zhi Yue, Zhi Yang, create a barrier to separate and hide this location from the outside."

A small moon and small sun flew from behind him towards the sky. The two systems took their human forms and flew in opposite directions. They created a spatial barrier as per requested by the Chief Warden.

The Archangel, angels, devils and even mortals in the area were dumbfounded especially when a barrier so large that can cover the hundred meters land from the building where the bar 'Purgatory' is located.'

Archangel Gabriel was so confused as he looked what was happening around him and in his disbelief, screamed.

"What are they!?"

Chapter 1567 21.24 Fifth Violet Star - Caught you~

After Police Captain Lou Ye saw the other two who were about to join the spectacle inside the bar, he disappeared before the angels and heard Archangel Gabriel wanting to curse but unable to as he screamed in confusion and disbelief.

Back to the situation inside the bar...

Lord Chaos and Archangel Michael were about to clash once again when suddenly they felt a barrier that completely isolated the building they are in from beyond the barrier. It had an illusion effect from the outside and a mirror dimension. It means no matter how much they destroy the place, the reality will remain unharmed.

Knowing this, Lord Chaos and Archangel Michael laugh playfully. It seems that they would be able to have enough fun at least for tonight. As expected the two started fighting without holding back. A world of ice and light split the area with Lord Chaos and Archangel Michael at the center.

BOOM! Whoosh~

Only after shadows of the two conflicting figures and explosions can be seen even Tun Shizhe who was watching at the side was affected and had to place a barrier in front of him not to be affected. But for some reason, the two devils in the area: Lucifer and Belphegor were being protected by someone else.

Tun Shizhe mumbled, "Just who made this barrier? It's obviously a high-quality one that only gods can create. Hm!?"

Making Tun Shizhe a bit interested in who were the ones who erected such a barrier. But only ones he can feel outsider were angels and Devil Mammon who came over to pretend as a police officer again. When he tries to feel the other unknown presences he immediately frowned as he noticed two pairs of eyes falling onto him.

"Who the hell are these two presences? I can feel them but cannot pinpoint exactly where they are hiding," muttered Tun Shizhe as his guard was the highest at this moment.

What made it worse, these two seem to be hiding in the shadows. He might be the incarnation of the World Eater but his mad ability is gluttony. The only reason he can feel these two unknown presences is thanks to his vessel's identity as a devil whose nature is darkness itself.

Lord Chaos and Archangel Michael had completely destroyed the building they were in. The angels and demons that were left inside the barrier were shocked with what they were seeing. They couldn't believe why the Devil of Lust, Asmodeus, is capable of fighting the leader of all Archangels, Michael, toe to toe.

Archangel Zadkiel commented at the scene of the fight between Archangel Michael and Devil Asmodeus. At least in the eyes of the aborigines in this world that's what they are seeing at this moment.

"Since when did the devil of lust become this strong?" questioned Archangel of Zadkiel in incredulity.

Only Archangel Uriel who had processed all the information he had today knew that the souls inside the devil of lust and the devil of gluttony were no longer the same as they used to know. Foreign Gods now reside within those vessels.

"Two. Three? No, there are at least four or more of them. Just how many foreign gods descended in our world and what is their reason for doing so?" grumbles Archangel Uriel as he was trying to theorize the possible answers to all the questions in his mind.

The naive Archangel Gabriel couldn't understand the meaning of Uriel's mumbling and couldn't help but say, "Uriel, I can't understand what you are thinking about. However, don't you think we should ask Michael if he needs help?"

"They are fighting one on one, what help do you want to give? Give a moment of silence. I am about to reach the end of my theories," complained Archangel Uriel.

In the end, those who were watching couldn't help but cheer for the side they supported. The Angels supported Archangel Michael as for the devil, they supported Asmodeus. The fight between Lord Chaos and Archangel Michael intensified and the two of them were enjoying themselves.

Lord Chaos laughs, "It's been a while since I fought this wildly. You are indeed powerful. However, I am not weak either."

Even though there is a holy and gentle smile on Archangel Michael's lips, those who can see through those silver irises of his can definitely notice the madness swirling at the depths of his eyes. Both Lord Chaos and Archangel Michael possessed similar eyes. Mirth and excitement. They wanted to continue fighting until blood splashes or one of them ended up dying.

Archangel Michael said, "I think we should stop this now. Your vessel can no longer hold on."

Cracks on Lord Chaos's face and skin were exposed for everyone to see. It was as if his body could collapse any moment now.

Lord Chaos knew what the archangel was talking about. The vessel he was in was completely fragile. Not only is this a human vessel that the devils used to blend with the mortals of the human world, it held back too much of his capabilities.

Unfortunately, this world bans the existence of any other gods aside from Archangel Michael. The only way to avoid the heavenly rules that hunts other gods and oversee the world, they can only use a human body to be able to roam this world without a problem.

Lord Chaos responded, "Nonsense! Even if this body is destroyed, I will defeat you!"

He flew once again to fight Archangel Michael. Like the God of Destruction, all of the soul fragments connected to him all treated battles as a way of entertainment. They are the only thing that prevents them from getting bored.

Understanding Lord Chaos's feelings Archangel Michael no longer says a word about stopping him and instead fights back with power even greater than before. The clashes of their attacks, whether it was first or kicks, now even affected those angels and demons watching at the sidelines.

"AH~ Move away! The backlash of their clashes is affecting us even now!" an angel shouted.

A devil cursed upon watching such an unbelievable scene of fighting between the two races. "Fuck! How can they be this powerful!?"

Archangel Michael gave Lord Chaos an overhead kick from the sky and he fell like a falling meteorite from the sky even so the latter was still laughing like a madman.

Hahaha~

"This is good! Truly great~" said Lord Chaos.

He was too excited and didn't notice that someone who was lurking in the shadows was targeting him. Just as he fell kneeling on the ground about to jump up, the shadows under him wiggled without his concern. Among them, Archangel Michael, Tun Shizhe, and the Chief Warden who was pretending as a bystander noticed these moving shadows.

Tun Shizhe shouted, "Watch out for your shadow!"

"Huh? Shadow?" Lord Chaos heard Tun Shizhe's words and looked down to see his shadow.

Unfortunately, what welcomed him was simply his shadow but someone who looks exactly like the God of Destruction and the only difference is that his hair wasn't silver or light brown, but instead pure black. This man's eyes weren't even silver at this moment, but crimson instead. These are the features similar to the God of Void especially the darkness elements so powerful that he can even control the void. At this moment, Hei'An used his real body to capture Lord Chaos.

It was Hei'An.

With a mischievous smile at the corner of his lips uttered the words, "I caught you~" said Hei'An.

Hei'An grabbed Lord Chaos by his neck and immediately spread the darkness elements in him using the corrosion to weaken Lord Chaos. If he was in his god form, he would be able to escape, however Lord Chaos is now in the body of the devil of lust.

He didn't completely leave the Void he is in thus preventing the rules of the world detecting him as an outsider. After all, the void is the world of darkness itself. Darkness is a legitimate power in this world.

Argh!

Lord Chaos grab Hei'An's hand trying to pull it away. However, between the strength of a god and the strength of a mortal, Lord Chaos was helpless.

"W-Who... the hell... are you?!!!" asked Lord Chaos.

Hei'An smiled showing the mirth within those cold eyes and a mischievous lips upturned at this moment.

"I am Hei'An. Another incarnation of Ancient God Hunluan."

At this moment, it wasn't only Lord Chaos who was shocked but even Archangel Michael didn't expect another one of his kind to appear on this world aside from Lord Chaos.

"Chaos!"

Tun Shizhe tried to save Lord Chaos, but even he was caught. But he wasn't as vulnerable as Lord Chaos as he already felt the presence of these two the moment they arrived, it's just that they can't find their exact location.

"Stay where you are. My Hei is still not done yet." Gui Xiajun even appeared.

Countless shadow hands tried to restrain Tun Shizhe. Under the control of Gui Xiajun, who in this world sees him as Satan, the control of his darkness elements is even more powerful than the real Lucifer in this world.

Gui Xiajun said, "Once Hei'An got what he wanted, then you can fuck off. Pissed me off and I devour you instead."

Those similar features to the God of Void made Tun Shizhe annoyed. This is the face that looks like of Ye Xiajie himself. Just looking at that arrogant look of Gui Xiajun yet looking younger than both him and the God of Void made him want to beat up the young man.

Tun Shizhe immediately recognized this young man as well, "You are his younger brother and another incarnation of the World Eater, Gui Xiajun."

Chapter 1568 21.25 Fifth Violet Star - Come with me to Hell.

With Satan (Gui Xiajun) and Hei'An in this world as the Archangel of beauty, Jophiel, arrived on the scene, the situation had gotten even more chaotic. If not for the missing God of Void, and the God of Destruction as well as Warden Yun Ming who hasn't shown himself all this time, they would have gotten a full attendance.

Archangel Michael's face turned serious as he looked at the angel who introduced himself as Hei'An. Though the face and his features had completely changed, Michale will never not recognize any angels under his control as the Chief Archangel.

He asked, "What are you doing right now? Archangel Jophiel. Why are you with this man who calls himself Satan in hell?"

He responded to Archangel Michael, "Jophiel? Ah~ is that the name of this vessel? Forgive me. I accidentally got his soul corrupted and died on the spot. This body is now full of mine~" said Hei'An.

Urgh!

Lord Chaos said, "Let... go!" Still trying to struggle free from the one holding his neck.

From Michael's direction, he turns his head to Lord Chaos. "No, can do. I still need you to merge with me~" said Hei'An.

Because of the ruined building those who were watching from a distance saw the arrival of two new people on the battlefield. Moreover, These two new people even caught the devil of lust and devil of gluttony at the same time and they seem to be quite powerful as well. However what surprised them the most was the words of the Chief Archangel.

Even Archangel Uriel didn't expect this to happen, "Who is that? Is that Jophiel? That other person, is that the fake Satan? No way! Why are they together!?" exclaimed Archangel Gabriel.

Archangel Uriel, holding his temples, complains, "Can you shut up for a moment, Gabriel?"

"Can you explain it to me after you understand what is happening?" Archangel Gabriel said.

Archangel Zadkiel commented, "I think Uriel is saying that maybe if you don't talk he will explain the situation to you."

"Okay. I will be good," said Archangel Gabriel.

On the other hand, Archangel Uriel is observing the people in front of them and suddenly clicks his tongue as he can feel his head throbbing with pain.

"Tsk! I was wrong. It wasn't just two to four foreign gods that were hand descended. Maybe there are more than five of them. This is insane! What the hell do they want?" said the stressed Archangel Uriel.

"This is not good. Michael is alone and there are too many opponents. Call all other Archangels and angels to descend. We can't let anything happen to him!" added Archangel Uriel.

Though Archangel Gabriel and Archangel Zadkiel couldn't completely understand what is happening, they themselves can see that the Chief Archangel was on the losing side when it comes to numbers alone. Zadkiel pulls the white horn shaped necklace around his neck. The moment it left its neck it grew as big as a human and he blew it with all his strength.

A sound that seemed like a welcoming sound for war was heard. All the angels who were watching the scene with no care, looking so innocent before, had all changed and become serious the moment they heard the angel's horn. They all unfurled their wings and flew making a wall made of angels.

A bright light from the evening sky had fallen from above. Followed by it are thousands of angels descending all holding weapons and wearing armors. The devils who were watching the fun had all avoided the bright light and those low level ones turned to ashes once the bright light fell on them. Some devil had burned skin as his light was divine light itself.

"Run! These angels had used the War Horn!"

"Fuck! Are they insane?! There are only four enemies!"

"Damn it! Avoid the divine lights if you don't want to become ashes!"

Meanwhile in the sky, Police Captain Lou Ye who was watching from above was caught off guard and the bright light fell on him. But as if he was unmoved except for the slight smoke as his vessel was being purified, he is completely unharmed. After all, he is a god in reality.

The five men at the center noticed what was happening. The bright light fell onto them directly from the heavens that suddenly opened its gates. As expected, Gui Xiajun and Hei'An were like Lou Ye in the sky except for a few smoke emitted by their burning bodies. The divine light didn't harm them that much.

Gui Xiajun (Satan) said, "These angels aren't that smart. What's the use of sending food my way~"

With an evil grin on his face, the darkness under his foot surged and under that bright light, pure darkness moved under Satan's command. Some angels were caught and golden rain made of the angel blood fell from above. Archangel Michael watches this scene with an expressionless face. Only the other archangels were enraged by what Gui Xiajun had done.

"Satan! Unforgivable! What have you done?!"

"How can you kill the angels in our presence!?"

The ones who shouted were Archangel Zadkiel and Archangel Gabriel who couldn't bear the anger and sadness of seeing those little ones dying under Satan's hands. They unfurled their huge white wings and brought out their weapons to attack the devil. This time even Uriel supported them.

The speed of the messenger of heavens, the strength of the angel of mercy as well as the support buff from the angel of wisdom. Gui Xiajun who was wearing no one's vessel but his wasn't hurt by the attacks of the three archangels. He didn't even block their attacks intentionally. Sadly, their weapons fragment upon impact with Satan's body leaving all the angels except Archangel surprised.

Archangel Gabriel bellows, "Impossible! What kind of body do you have?!"

"God's Body, what else?" answered Satan nonchalantly. "Move away, ants!"

A powerful surge of aura came from Gui Xiajun and the three Archangels were forcibly pushed away. The angels caught them but just with the aura of Satan, they were blown away and were badly injured. The other archangels that just descended after hearing the angel's war horn flew down to them, especially the angel of healing, Archangel Raphael.

Archangel Raphael flew to Uriel who was the most injured of the three. He used a support skill that had the most impact on him. He was almost half dead just by being hit by the aura Satan had just blasted towards them.

Cough!

"Don't move. Don't speak. I'm going to heal you now, Uriel." The angel of healing, Raphael said.

He placed his hands above Archangel Uriel's chest and divine light flowed in the injured angel's body. Under this golden light, the injuries of Archangel Uriel gradually healed.

Whoosh!

The angel of love, Archangel Samuel carried the injured Archangel Gabriel and Archangel Zadkiel to the side of the divine healer of their angel race.

"Raphael, please heal these two as well," said Archangel Samuel.

Archangel Raphael said, "Lay them down on the ground."

He started healing the injured ones one by one. These three angels were suffering from corrosion of the darkness from Satan's aura. Thankfully, his divine healing can purify this miasma allowing these three to be cured and purified. On the other hand, Archangel Samuel's eyes were watching the guys at the center with glowing eyes.

The other even heard him mumbles, "How can someone's love relationship be this messy. All of them were connected to one another. How exciting~ Doesn't this mean that these people all have the same origin!?" said Archangel Samuel.

Archangel Raphael was startled at first and asked, "Samuel, can you see the red strings of fate?"

"Yes, it's my ability!" said Archangel Samuel as he turned around to look at their divine healer and gasp like a little girl. "Oh my~ why do you have a red string attached to you?"

Flinch!

The three injured archangels were startled and all looked at Archangel Raphael who looked calm and was smiling softly as he always did.

Archangel Raphael said, "Samuel~ don't play around at the time like this. How can an angel be attached to someone?"

With his tongue slipping out with a smile said, "I'm kidding. Don't be so serious Raphael~"

Archangel Uriel who just got healed looked a bit annoyed yet believed Archangel Samuel's words. This angel of love likes to play around like. Made because he loves to match people that his personality is too playful.

"Don't joke like that at a time like this, Sam! Can you see that Jophiel had been replaced already!? We can't have any more traitors in our race!" reprimands Archangel Uriel.

Pouting after being scolded, Archangel Samuel said, "I'm just kidding. Don't be so angry about it~. Okay I will stop now."

Back to the situation at the center...

After blasting away the puny archangels, Satan (Gui Xiajun) looks at Archangel Michael with arrogance on his face yet his eyes are dotting as he looks at him. The powerful chaos energy in him made him intoxicated in his memories as one of the incarnations of the World Eater. The Ancient God of Chaos used to possess this kind of aura and he felt nostalgic about it.

Satan said, "How about you come with me and I shall spare the angels in exchange for you? Come with me to hell, Archangel Michael."

Everyone could believe what they've just heard. They didn't expect Satan to be attracted to the Chief Archangel of the heavens and even invited him to come to his kingdom. At the same time, they are confused. Isn't Satan and Lucifer one person? Who was the Lucifer that was killed and who is this man who calls himself as Satan?

Chapter 1569 21.26 Fifth Violet Star - I killed it.

The question of Satan asking Archangel Michael to come with him to hell has made the whole quiet in disbelief. Even the usually mischievous soul fragments of the God of destruction look at him with disgust within their eyes. As for Archangel Michael, he turned deaf ears at him and immediately changed the subject.

Archangel Michael asked, "Why do you call yourself Satan? In this world, Satan and Lucifer are just people."

The reactions of the angel at the melon eating side.

"Archangel Michael just brush him off?" whispered Archangel Gabriel.

Archangel Uriel whispered back, "Shut up! Don't say something so obvious."

"This is weird. How come someone like Michael possessed a red string of fate? Aren't angels not supposed to be able to love except our creator?" mumbles Archangel Samuel.

All the archangels except for one were shocked by these words. Angels are entities that were born without emotions capable of loving someone beyond their creator. They were created to protect the heavens and oversee the humans for their God.

They are pure souls that cannot be tainted by anything except darkness. They were created as tools to stabilize heaven and the mortal world. They aren't supposed to have any connection with another angel or another race.

Archangel Uriel grabs the angel of love and says, "Look again! Check if there is truly a red string on him!"

"O-Okay~. Stop shaking me, Uriel" said Archangel Samuel while covering his mouth.

As he was asked, Archangel Samuel once again looked at Archangel Michael and showed a confused look.

"There... there is... nothing. Hm? Am I truly seeing things?" mumbles Archangel Samuel.

The angel of mercy and forgiveness hit Samuel on his back and said, "Stop scaring us. We thought he had become a god of something!"

"If Michael becomes a god, does that mean that... our creator is dead?" said Archangel Gabriel.

Archangel Raphael said, "Watch your tongue, Gabriel. It is taboo to speak of such a thing!"

"S-So sorry. A slip of my tongue," apologized Archangel Gabriel.

Unfortunately, the words exchanged between the archangels were overheard by everyone within the barrier. Regardless, they are angels or devils, they heard everything and most of them didn't know the situation of heaven. There are those who know, like Satan and Archangel Jophiel, who told him about it.

Satan chuckled upon hearing the conversation of the archangels and said, "Taboo is it? Are you white winged creatures trying to say that you didn't know what is happening in heaven? Or maybe all the archangels choose to hide it. Should I tell it to you instead?"

He was observing Archangel Michael's reaction as he said these words, unfortunately, this Chief Archangel remains expressionless and disinterested with his words. What should he expect from a man whose main personality is well-known for being shameless? Even if he announced all his doings in this world, this person would remain calm.

His halted words were completed by someone else, "How can there still be a God in this world when your dear chief archangel had killed him for his authority."

"WHAT!?"

"God is dead!!!"

This time the Archangels were also dumbfounded. They only know that their creator was missing and didn't expect him to be dead instead. They all looked at Archangel Michael standing in the air with huge white wings and three holy halos behind his back. His expression remains angelic as before as if he wasn't the topic of the current conversation.

"You're lying!" shouted Archangel Gabriel at Archangel Jophiel.

Snorts!

Archangel Jophiel said, "Ask him if my words are false. The Chief Archangel doesn't lie doesn't he?"

All angels no... it can be said that everyone was looking at Archangel Michael including the chief warden acting like a bystander of the scene.

Archangel Gabriel couldn't help but look at their chief and asked, "Michael, they are lying aren't they? You wouldn't kill our father. Tell them that you didn't do it and command us to exterminate these devils and that traitor!"

Everyone awaited for the next words of Archangel Michael, they watch as he slowly opens his mouth and said the following words:

"I killed it. It was no longer useful."

Silence~

These words echoed inside the barrier and everyone heard it clearly. They were so shocked that they couldn't believe what was happening. Only those who knew this man's personality couldn't help but chuckle, like Gui Xiajun (Satan), Tun Shizhe (Beelzebub), Hei'An (Archangel Jophiel) and Lord Chaos (Asmodeus). Even Zhi Yue, who was trying to hide behind Zhi Yang in their avatar form couldn't help but let out a laugh.

Pfft~

Zhi Yue said, [So confident. So similar to Lord Hei.]

[It is his soul fragment. It's normal,] Zhi Yang said.

HAHAHA~

Satan openly laughed and said, "I know you wouldn't lie, my dear archangel."

"Fuck off," curse Archangel Michael with straight face.

Gasp!

The angel didn't expect that the man they see not only as a leader but also their spiritual support to say cursed words they could never utter. There is a ban on speech when angels say bad words. Only Gods have freedom to do and say as they want. It can be said that humans had more freedom in speech compared to angels.

The expressions of the archangels all turned pale except for Jophiel and another one. They couldn't accept the fact that the chief they adored not only killed their father but also someone worse than can be compared to these devils they hated. It's the same feeling as knowing that your idol is using drugs.

Archangel Jophiel was annoyed by Satan's antics and chose to focus on the one in his grasp.

"Don't try to escape. It's no use," said Hei'An to Lord Chaos.

Lord Chaos suddenly spread his arm and hug Hei'An and said, "Who is trying to escape? I wanted to die with you~"

A powerful expansion of energy can be felt from Lord Chaos. With a playful expression on his face, he self-imploded on the spot. Destroying his current vessel and his soul perishing.

"Ah, shit!"

BOOOM!!!

A loud explosion of energy happened within the barrier. The barrier safely contained the explosion, but for those who failed to protect themselves. They ended up tragically and golden and black blood spread to the area together with some flesh or bones. Only the archangels remain unharmed. Some angels lost their wings or limbs due to that explosion when they tried to protect themselves.

Archangel Jophiel didn't die but wasn't completely unharmed. He was covered with burns on his chest and his arms were blown away. Even so, he still survived and was alive.

With a mad smile on his face covered in burns and golden blood, "Hahaha~ he is a madman as expected he is like him and us~"

Gui Xiajun turned around to check on Tun Shizhe, it seems that man took the opportunity to escape when Lord Chaos chose to destroy himself. He frowned for a moment and looked around. However, he can no longer find any traces of Tun Shizhe.

Satan murmured, "He escaped too fast."

"Are you alright, An?" asked Satan to Archangel Jophiel.

Archangel Jophiel said, "What kind of question is that? These kinds of injuries don't kill us at all. Unless we merge with our own kind, most of us are considered immortal though not completely like the main one."

Under everyone's gaze, Archangel Jophiel's burn started healing and his missing arms started to grow. Though his regeneration is taking awhile compared to Hei Anjing's immortality, this scene is still something that aborigines of this world couldn't help but to be surprised to.

"How could he survive that?!"

"What a monster..."

"Instead of being an angel, he seems like a demon instead."

Murmurs from the crowd can be heard from time to time. This time only the survivors had the opportunity to comment as most of them had died from that explosion caused by the devil of lust, Asmodeus.

Satan asked, "He died. How can you merge with him?"

Archangel Jophiel looked at him like a fool and said, "Those two come here thinking that Lucifer was the God of Void's incarnation in this world. Do you think they would come here without a backup plan? That body of Asmodeus just now was merely a clone with a wisp of his soul. He is controlling it from faraway. This is the same situation with the little one who caught yourself."

"But would my brother even kill them? Though I don't know about the one I caught, will he still kill Lord Chaos? He is his wife's soul fragment as well," said Satan.

Archangel Jophiel said, "You don't know, maybe the main soul had convinced him not to see his soul fragments as he did. After all, we are the Ancient God of Chaos's incarnation and not his real soul fragments. Well, since we have the same origin, merging with one will heal the other."

"But to be precise we are Ancient God Snow's soul fragments, but our existence is equal to himself. It is just that he received the purest power from our origin unlike the rest of us. Aren't I right, Michael?"

"I am not like you. I can control chaos energy," said Archangel Michael as a silver aura appeared in his hands.

This is chaos energy. The beginning and end of life. As well as something that existed in the past, present and in the future. The kind of power that can affect all existences whether it was for better or for worse.

Chapter 1570 21.27 Fifth Violet Star - World God

The moment chaos energy was mentioned, Archangel Jophiel (Hei'An), who seemed to be so confident before looked churned off. Satan looked extremely interested instead, as Chaos energy was one of the purest existence that can make him stronger. Archangel Michael was observing the reaction of the two intruders of his world.

The one whose soul was similar to his obviously backed off after hearing about chaos energy. On the other hand, the flirty bastard beside him looked like he wanted to devour him instead.

Chaos energy was a wild natural power that only the Ancient God Hunluan can control without getting mad. Likewise, even though it is a power that he can wield, controlling it completely was beyond that. As he was only an incarnation and not the Ancient God of Chaos's reincarnation.

Hei'An backs away as chaos energy is something beyond his control. The power of the void in him was already hard enough for him to control. If he tried getting involved with the chaos, going mad wouldn't be impossible. He glances at Gui Xiajun, who is obviously greedy for the chaos energy.

Little did he know that despite being one of the incarnations of the World Eater, it is impossible for him to control it. Using it a few times is no problem but long term is definitely impossible. It is also impossible to believe that Archangel Michael had perfect control over the chaos energy in his hands.

Archangel Jophiel said, "You are insane! Don't you know this world can end if you slightly release that aura to this world?"

"I know, but why should I care?" responded Archangel Michael.

In these words, the angels no longer treat him as their leader. A chief archangel that no longer cares about their well being is no different from a stranger for the angels. Almost all of the angels turned distant towards Archangel Michael at this moment.

Archangel Jophiel noticed the movement of the angels and commented, "My dear Chief Archangel, it seems you have lost your support."

"Is that so?" said Archangel Michael.

All of the sudden, his silver eyes glow with the power of the world. Everyone in the area noticed that the single huge white wings on the back of Archangel Michael had increased from one pair to three pairs and a powerful holy aura was emitted from him as if he was the brightest sun that ever existed. The angel race all kneel down under this aura, this is the power of the god, their creator. An authority they can never go against.

Feeling the powerful holy aura coming from Archangel Michael all angels had become his tools to control. For the holy creator, angels are his tools to control the world and this effect is not something the angels can decline nor can go against. They will feel their body and mind going against their control become expressionless like robots waiting for a command.

The angels had spoken like a robot collectively, "We greets our creator, the holy god!"

Satan commented, "I forgot. He is the God of this world."

Archangel Michael commanded, "Capture them both alive."

"Yes, your holiness!"

After the angels responded, they all made a move towards Satan and the traitor of their race, Archangel Jophiel. Even though there are lesser angels now after most of them were killed by the self-implosion of the Devil of Lust, Asmodeus. However, they move fearlessly as they can only follow the command of Michael who is using the power of the creator as of this moment.

As expected, Satan and Archangel Jophiel choose to escape seeing that they couldn't fight Archangel Michael who not only possessed angels under his command, but also the authority of this world as well as chaos energy. This is like fighting the final boss as a duo who was caught off guard.

Seeing the angels had escaped, Archangel Michael knew that their targets had disappeared thus, their command order was fulfilled leaving them in a frozen state.

Archangel Michael mumbles, "Two incarnations of Ancient God of Chaos and another two incarnations of the world eater. They are powerful but not just enough to make me move. I am more worried about the existence of the God of Void in this world. Since his warden is already around then... he is definitely on this world."

Snap!

Looking at the angels who look like statues as they don't move after their targets had disappeared, Archangel Michael snaps his finger removing the world's control over them. That finger snapped had instantly woken all the angels up from their controlled state.

Archangel Michael said, "You might have failed to capture those two, but you have done a great job. Resume what you wanted to do. You cannot escape my grasp as long as you are in this world. Be good children~"

The angels tremble under his words, especially the archangels who wanted to retort like Archangel Gabriel who was stopped by Archangel Uriel as he knew the difference of strength and authority they have from Archangel Michael. They've truly unable to breakfree from the control of Michael when he used the authority as the God of this world. Moreover they even felt that his efficiency was even more powerful than their holy father.

Archangel Michael approached the corpse of Lucifer and Belphegor on the ground. They were covered in debris of the broken building. These debris is what saved the Devil of Lust self-imploded just now.

"My lifeline connection with him as a twin is still there. How can he remain dead after all that?"
Archangel Michael mumbles.

He completely lost interest after checking on Lucifer's corpse. Then prepared to leave after doing what he wanted to do. No other archangel had stopped him nor spoken to him. They only silently watched as the six winged angel returned to the heavens. Just the truths about the death of their original creator or Archangel Michael being the killer of their holy father left all angels dumbfounded.

They remained in dazed even after witnessing everything that had happened. On the other hand didn't mind the result of Archangel Michael as being the new god of this world. After all, in hell and among the devil only the powerful had the right to speak.

Murmurings in the area can be heard spreading.

"Does this mean that Lord Michael is the new God of our world?"

"That's amazing! Did he kill the former god? How come no angel noticed it all?"

The angels glared at the devil who was gloating at the changes in the heavens and how foolishly blind they were that they didn't even know when and how their creator was killed by Archangel Michael.

Archangel Gabriel shouts, "At least our new leader is still the most powerful angel! How about your king?"

"Didn't he just end up as a corpse! How embarrassing was that!?"

The devil wanted to retort when they turned to the direction where the corpse of Lucifer was located, they couldn't utter a word after all what these angels are saying are all true.

"Did your highness Lucifer just crooked?"

"As a devil, how I feel so embarrassed of his ending!"

"It would have been better to be a badass like Lord Michael is our king instead."

"Indeed. He is a better king compared to the others."

All of the sudden, Police officer Lou Ye had descended from the dark sky to the ground. Hovering around him was Zhi Yue and Zhi Yang in their real forms. He glanced at the direction where the archangels were located and gave a smile to one of them. The angels were stunned for a moment seeing a devil like Mammon to show that kind of rare expression.

Archangel Gabriel shivers and said, "Did Mammon just smiled in our direction? What the hell is wrong with him?!"

"Maybe you should shut your mouth and calm down, Gabriel! Can nothing stop your mouth?" complained Archangel Uriel.

Sensing Uriel's anxiety and rage, Gabriel can only choose to shut up and mumbles, "If you are angry about what Michael had done, there is no need to throw your anger at me."

Archangel Zadkiel said, "Since Michael is so powerful I wonder if he will spar with me if I ask?"

"Ask him. He shouldn't mind. You might get beaten though!" said Archangel Raphael. "Don't worry I can heal you if that truly happens."

"So, the red string I saw before wasn't because I am seeing things," said Archangel Samuel, the angel of love.

All other archangels were startled by his words and turned to look at him.

"What do you mean?" They've asked as a group.

Archangel Samuel pointed to the direction where the corpse of the king of hell is, "Didn't Michael's red string of fate had always been connected to Lucifer? The real one seems to have arrived."

"Real one? What do you---!! Am I dreaming? How can there be two Lucifers?!" exclaimed Archangel Gabriel.

Pak!

Archangel Uriel slaps Gabriel's cheek and asks, "Does it hurt, Gabriel?"

With teary eyes, Archangel Gabriel retorted, "How about I slap you too so you can see if it hurts or not?"

"No need. With those tears as proof, I think it's painful," replied Archangel Uriel.

"You!?" screamed Archangel Gabriel.

Archangel Raphael said, "Do you want me to heal you?"

"Yes, please. Thank you, Raphael," said Archangel Gabriel.

Archangel Uriel complains, "Don't spoil him too much, Raphael. I didn't hit him with much strength."

"Uriel, I'm done with you!" said Archangel Gabriel as he jumped on Uriel and they started a brawl.

On the other hand, the rest of the people in the area were dumbfounded by the scene of the God of Void's arrival. Ye Xiajie was possessing the real body of Lucifer, so these angels and devils, he is none other than Lucifer.

He only appeared after watching Doctor Black fall asleep and hear what happened as he watched the whole thing through Zhi Yue's help as his system. He had watched the live broadcast that showed what happened to those two pains targeting one another and their endings were witnessed by him as well.

As soon as he appeared in the area after traveling through the shadows, his chief warden wearing the body of Devil Mammon came to meet him.

Police Captain Lou kneels on one knee and says, "Welcome, my lord!"
