

World Plot 1571

Chapter 1571 21.28 Fifth Violet Star - Live Freely

The God of Void's arrival on the scene caught everyone off guard, especially him looking so much like Lucifer. In their eyes, he is no different from Lucifer. With the evil of greed willing to kneel before him, it seems like he is the real Lucifer. Especially when his eyes roamed the area and all devils his eyes landed onto had kneel down before him.

The angels couldn't help but compare him from Archangel Lucifer before and felt that like Archangel Michael from before, this man possessed a strong presence and majesty that one cannot ignore or reject. He is completely different from the Lucifer they know.

Archangel Gabriel whispered, "Is that the real Lucifer? Then who was the one who died before?"

"Don't talk. Compared to the ones who faced Michael before, this one is a lot more dangerous," whispered Archangel Uriel.

The other Archangels felt serious at this moment as the aura of this man who looked like Lucifer is far more dangerous than Satan, and other devils from before. His aura itself screams danger. The angels couldn't help but move away from the center where the God of Void is.

The God of Void asked, "I've seen what has happened. You did good not to get involved with Michael."

"Master, what should we do now?" asked Devil Mammon (Chief Warden).

The God of Void said, "It's better to clean this place first. Remove the barrier afterwards once I'm done repairing the building."

Snaps!

This snap seemed familiar to the white flames Archangel Michael had used before. There are some devils who was curious about this black flames and reach out a finger to touch it. That become the last figure of them alive before turning into a pile of ashes.

"What a pretty color for a flame," murmured the devil who died out of foolishness.

AAAAGHH!!!

Whooshed!

A few angels gasped in fear and avoided the black flames like a plague, even the devils didn't dare to touch the black flames their king had created.

"Oh my god! He turns ashes in just a few seconds!"

"What is that black flame?!"

"If he is truly the real Lucifer, is that the flames from hell?"

However, unlike those white flames that can purify one without killing its opponent, the black flames and anything it burns would instantly turn the target into a pile of ashes. The God of Void burns down the blood and corpses of both the angels and the devils who had died when the devil of lust, Asmodeus killed himself.

The God of Void said to his warden, "Clean the ashes up."

"Yes," responded Devil Mammon as he stood up from his kneeling position.

With a wave of his hands a few wind tornadoes appeared in the area, instantly cleaning up the piles of ashes on the ground and transferring it somewhere it can merge with earth. Those who were watching couldn't believe what they were seeing, especially when the God of Void used his minor domain of time to revert the whole building Lucifer owns as if it wasn't demolished right from the start.

The God of Void then approached the corpses of Lucifer and Belphegor. Using his ability which is connected to death itself, he used darkness to bring these two back to life. This is only useful towards being born in the abyss and devils just happened to be one.

A wave of powerful darkness engulfs the two corpses once the darkness faded, they saw the supposed to be dead men waking up, alive and kicking. Though they feel a bit confused and groggy just the fact that they come back to life is simply unbelievable.

Lucifer groans as he holds his chest. The pain from having his heart dug out from his body still lingers. Even Belphegor couldn't understand who he had survived, but now he is even more bewildered why there are two Lucifers in front of him.

"Ugh~ aren't I supposed to be dead?" said Belphegor.

Lucifer, on the other hand, found another version of himself looking at him expressionlessly and immediately recognized this person as the God of Darkness. Even though this was his former and original body, after his vessel had been housed by the God of darkness, every feature of his was enhanced to perfection. Adding that majestic yet dangerous vibe he is naturally emitting, if one had to choose which among them was the real lucifer, Lucifer believes they would all choose the God of Void instead of him.

"My Lord, I failed your task," said Lucifer.

The God of Void said, "No, you did good. I heard Michael head descended for you. Even though you died I protected your soul and should be able to hear them talking even after your body died. Is he the Michael you know?"

"...Yes, the difference is that the Michael I know must be only his facade to lower the guard of our creator down. He said that he had killed our Holy Father," said Lucifer.

The God of Void said, "Since that is the case you shouldn't expect him to come back to how you remember him. The fact that after you have died and didn't revive even when he is still alive was because he had cut off his karma with you. The two of you might have been twins before, but now you two are just two individuals."

"Y-Yes!" responded Lucifer. He looked so down that even the angels were pitying him.

Based on the conversation of these two Lucifers, obviously the one who died once was the real Lucifer and this one in front of them was another being, most likely from another world. Just thinking how many foreigners there are in this world and all of them are stronger than all Archangels combined, the angel race felt helpless for the first time in their lives.

The God of Void said, "Xiu Xie, can cut your connection to both heaven and hell. Those places have new rulers. Live freely."

After saying these words, Ye Xiajie went inside the bar to rest in the suite above the floor, Police Officer Lou stayed to handle the rest after his master left. As for Lucifer, he looked at the bewildered Belphegor who couldn't understand why there were two kings of hell. If one added Satan then there are three of them in all.

Lucifer said, "I am no longer the king of hell, Bel. Are you still willing to go live freely in this world with me?" He stretched a hand toward this devil of idleness.

Belphegor was stunned only for a moment. It can be said that among the devil princes from hell only Belphegor remained loyal to Lucifer until the end. Except for the missing Leviathan, all other devil princes had their souls replaced by some from beyond.

"I will go with you, my lord," said Belphegor as he accepted the outstretched hand of Lucifer.

Both the angels and the devil watched these two walk away and disappear from their line of sight. Seeing that there is no hell, they can return to, they can only live in the human world blending and living with the mortals. They no longer wanted to get involved with the foreign beings that descended in this world and the God of Void had no intention of keeping them by his side as servants.

Seeing that the situation had completely calmed down and returned to normal, Captain Lou Ye spoke out to the lingering angels and devils in the crowd.

Claps~

"The show is over! Return to your human form if you are staying in the human world, if not then take your leave before the barrier completely cracks and disappears," said the police captain.

Crackles~ This is the sound of the barrier that surrounds the whole area. Because it was transparent in color, it felt like the sky was breaking with cracks on it. The angels and the devils made their moves. Some stayed and resumed their human forms and the others immediately left the place, either by flying or walking.

Among these guys, the one who stayed were unexpectedly the archangels. This is actually not a surprise, after knowing what Archangel Michael had done, it would be hard for the Archangels to treat him the same way as before. However, the changes in heaven didn't affect Michael as he is already the world ruler or domain lord of this star.

With Archangel Raphael leading the group after losing the rock-paper-scissors game between the archangels, they approached Police Captain Lou Ye who is supposed to be someone that served Lucifer who is overwhelmingly powerful.

Archangel Raphael grabbed the sleeves of Lou Ye lightly and said, "Excuse me, sir. Can we ask you something?"

Police Captain Lou Ye turns his head to stare at Raphael. Among all the archangels only Raphael possessed a healing aura. It was a natural and soothing aura making almost all living things feel relaxed around him. Moreover, Archangel Michael always has a gentle smile on his face making him look approachable and friendly.

At first, Lou Ye seemed to be uninterested until he met the eyes of Archangel Raphael, the hand that was about to pull the angel's hand halted. Instead, he let him hold his sleeves and turn around to look at him properly.

Lou Ye asked, "What is it? Just ask."

While Archangel Raphael and Captain Lou Ye were staring at each other, the other archangels felt what was like to be a giant light bulb and it was not just one light bulb, but a whole group of them.

Chapter 1572 21.29 Fifth Violet Star - Varying POV

As the archangels approached Captain Lou Ye of the police force, they wanted to ask him what they, the outsider of this world, planned to do in their world. Though he might not give them an honest answer, these silly archangels still wanted to try asking. This is an urgent matter to them that they ignore the sticky interaction between him and Archangel Raphael.

The one who started asking is as expectedly Archangel Uriel, the angel of wisdom and the brain of all angels.

Uriel asked, "We would like to know what you outsiders plan to do in our world. Are you here for Michael?"

"Do you plan to destroy this world? Let the devils rule it."

"What are your identities?"

Zhi Yue who was staying invisible couldn't help but morph in his human form, same as Zhi Yang. This started the archangels, but no longer surprised by their sudden appearance.

System Yue said, "You are too much! We are not here to destroy the world! This place is already broken."

"We are here to look for someone, and to repair this broken world as an afterthought," said System Yang.

Archangel Uriel looked shocked when he heard that their world is broken. After all, they didn't know about it and the world remains the same in their perspective. Not only him but also the rest of the archangels and the others around them didn't leave on time to hear such unbelievable news.

Archangel Gabriel said, "Are you crazy? If this world is broken how can we still be alive?"

"Fool. Broken World, not a destroyed one. Don't you know the difference?" retorted Zhi Yue.

Looking so confused, Archangel Zadkiel asked, "So, what's the difference?"

Police Captain Lou Ye explained. "A destroyed literally means no life and everything on it was dead. The world no longer exists. As for a broken world. There is no past or future, only present. No reincarnation, no life after death. As the laws of this world no longer exist. You guys are stuck here."

"Dying means death for eternity and not being able to reincarnate, while those who can reproduce are no more. No new life. Your world is out of loop for everything until it is ruined."

"The only reason you guys are still existing was because someone had taken the reins and kept the world intact. He added new rules and let this broken world run into minimum sustainment. If the one ruling this world leaves then..."

Zhi Yue was the one who completed the Chief Warden's words. "It's one ticket straight to your doom."

"Also one being cannot sustain the world on his own. Even if one becomes a god, every world always has one domain lord and one heavenly law to keep the balance. Archangel Michael is currently functioning as both," said Zhi Yang.

Zhi Yue said, "If this continues, he will perish in the end. Either by sacrificing himself for this world or by dying to keep things as they are."

"You should investigate the real reason for your creator's death. Maybe the truth is as he said," said Captain Lou Ye.

He looked at Archangel Raphael before taking his leave, "You should leave. This bar is no longer Lucifer's but my lords. As for our identities, just think of us as outsider gods, but there are at least three groups among us and you have seen who was with who. Just be careful not to anger them. Those guys did as they wanted. If you can't really avoid them, asking Archangel Michael for help will do. Whether he helps or not depends on his mood."

Zhi Yue and Zhi Yang had returned to their system avatar form and disappeared in the eyes of these angels. They flew over to follow the chief warden after glancing with Archangel Raphael.

Afterwards, the dimension had returned to normal and they saw mortals walking along them. Some were staring at them seeing that they've gathered weirdly at one spot for no reason as if they appeared out of nowhere. The strange eyes of the humans on them were so painful that Archangel Raphael couldn't help but suggest that they leave.

Archangel Raphael said, "How about we move places?"

"Let's go. I need to go somewhere quiet. Once I am done thinking, I will decide whether to return to heaven," said Archangel Uriel.

As he is usually the one who makes the decision in their group after processing most information in his head. Even Archangel Michael would listen to him. Archangel Gabriel suggested that they either go to a park or a cafe. They chose a cafe in the end as Zadkiel was hungry while Uriel wanted some coffee to keep his mind active.

On the way, Raphael ended up at the rear of the group watching over the rest who is in front of him until Samuel approached him and whispered,

"The soul in Captain Lou Ye is your lover isn't he?" Archangel Samuel said.

Even so, with this question Archangel Raphael remained calm and said, "I don't know what you're talking about, Sam?"

"You can't lie. Your red string of fate is connected to him. This is an impossible thing for angels. That means you are from their group. Are you observing Michael? Is he the one you are looking for?" Archangel Samuel whispered. "Don't worry, I won't tell anyone. I am an ally to all the couples in existence."

"What are you two doing there? You're almost left behind!" shouted Archangel Gabriel.

Archangel Zadkiel said, "Come quickly, I'm starving!"

"Yes~ we are coming!" said Archangel Samuel as he dragged Archangel Raphael with him towards the three in front.

Somewhere in the human world...

COUGH!

Lord Chaos woke up from his sleep and coughed a mouthful of blood. Tun Shizhe, who had just returned, supported him to sit up. His using self-implosion to escape the grasps of Hei'An was the last option he can do as this act will greatly affect his soul and injure it. It was hard for him to heal injuries in the soul. After all, if healing an injured soul was simple, the God of Destruction wouldn't have needed the other soul fragments to heal his soul.

Tun Shizhe said, "Are you alright? Your soul is wounded. We should leave this world before Hei'An tracks you again."

"No! His real target is most likely not me. It's Archangel Michael instead," said Lord Chaos.

Tun Shizhe seemed confused with his words and asked, "What do you mean?"

"He is using me to test the extent of Michael's ability. After all, compared to me, Michael's soul is stronger while mine had been under the control of the God of Destruction. He can't merge with me. That's why he didn't merge with me right away after catching me," said Lord Chaos.

Tun Shizhe frowned and asked, "Your soul is under the control of Jing'er? Since when?"

"After I killed the God of Void once," said Lord Chaos and pulled his cloth showing his chest. Above his heart is a black snowflake moving around as if it was alive.

Lord Chaos added. "This is a curse. I cannot die no matter what, I can only die in his hands. He is not forgiving to those who had harmed 'him'. Never. The only reason he didn't kill me yet was because 'he' treated me like I was a part of the God of Void. What do you think would happen to our soul fragments if the God of Void didn't give his affection too?"

"What would happen?" asked Tun Shizhe.

A mischievous smirk appeared on the corner of Lord Chaos's lips and said, "You guess~"

On the other hand, Hei'An and Gui Xiajun had returned to hell after escaping from the human world. They didn't expect Archangel Michael was that powerful. They thought that like the other incarnation of the Ancient God of Chaos, they will be restricted by the world until they are powerful enough to break it. Like what Hei'An did in his former world.

Gui Xiajun said, "I can't believe he possessed Chaos Energy. No wonder he was able to kill the heavenly laws of this world. Even you had a hard time breaking free from the control of the heavenly laws."

"But thanks to that, he is imprisoned in this world. As he became the God of this place, the whole domain was not only under his control but also prevented him from leaving. That's why he didn't have plans on repairing this world. Once it reaches its doom he will be free. Until then he can play as much as he wants in this place. As a God, he lives for eternity. Even after this world dies, he will still be alive." Hei'An said.

Hei'An explains, "The main soul is different. He is the God of Destruction. Even if he destroys as many worlds as he wishes, he will not receive a punishment unless he broke the other rules of the Divine Laws of this cosmos."

"However, our situation is different from his. We are not only restricted by the divine laws, even the heavenly laws of the world we are born into is exploiting us. Only when we are powerful enough to remove the restraints of the world can we leave that world."

"Archangel Michael used to be the same. The only difference is that he had eliminated the heavenly laws of his world and become this ruler. Even though the rules of the world can no longer touch him, leaving the world will take a while."

"Xiajun, I want him. Help me merge with him. As long as I can do that I will be able to get stronger and help you kill the God of Void."

Chapter 1573 21.30 Fifth Violet Star - Angel's Wings

After the building where the Bar 'Purgatory' had returned to normal returned to his master's side following with him are the two systems who seem bewildered by why the God of Void didn't appear when Archangel Michael was besieged. The God of Void was now at the couch drinking a glass of black coffee.

The God of Void asked, "Done cleaning up?"

"Yes, My lord." The Chief Warden responded.

The God of Void asked again, "Where is your lover?"

"He stayed with the angels to observe whether Archangel Michael was Lord Hei's incarnation," answered the Chief Warden.

With a short silence, the God of Void said, "Tell him to come back. There is no need to investigate Michael any longer."

A small moon hovers around the God of Void and Zhi Yue asked, [Why, master? Is Archangel Michael not Lord Hei's incarnation? But I saw him wield chaos energy.]

"Wield? Or did he just show you?" asked the god of void.

The silly little moon seems to be confused as it sways floating in the area as if it was groggy. The little sun had to bump it to catch its attention.

[There is no need to worry about my master. It can be said that his soul is close to being completely healed and these soul fragments that have hard similarities with the God of Destruction didn't literally mean that they are his soul fragments. They are just souls that possessed the same origin as my master and they are not originally part of him.] Zhi Yang said.

Zhi Yue looked bewildered and asked, [If Lord Hei is healed, why are we still descending in these worlds.]

The God of Void said, "The Trial of Resurrection can only be completed with descending these worlds. Moreover, Jing'er said that the chaos energy had started appearing at places it shouldn't have. He wanted me to investigate it."

[Then why is my lord kind to that doctor? Are you cheating on Lord Hei?] asked Zhi Yue who got slapped away by the God of Void's hand after his words were completed.

The God of Void said, "I never cheat."

Zhi Yue wobbly flew back to the group and asked, [Then why are you kind to that doctor, Master?]

"You guess," said the God of Void.

[Eh?]

"Sigh~ don't think anymore. Just ask Zhi Yang to explain it to you," said the Chief warden to the confused moon.

Zhi Yang had to morph in his human form and grab the small moon. After bowing his head to the Sovereign he excused himself for a while together with Zhi Yue.

The chief warden said, "Should I investigate the source of Michael's chaos energy?"

"No need. Just resume your current role. Maybe there are other sources in this human realm. You find some if there is. Also don't get too close to Archangel Michael. He is far more dangerous than all other soul fragments and... Hei'An and Lord Chaos are targeting him. There is no need to get involved in their fight."

"Also, keep track of Gui Xiajun. If possible, I want to catch him myself. Have you controlled those people who had seen me? Making sure that they only see Lucifer coming back to life on his own," said the God of Void.

The Chief warden said, "Yes, there is no worries about that. The angels will be handled by Ming'er."

"That's good. I will use Lucifer's identity for now. Don't worry about Michael, he might question how Lucifer had come back to life, but for him as long as it is interesting he wouldn't investigate much. Go back for now." The God of Void said.

The Chief Warden slightly bowed his head and responded, "Yes, my lord."

The Police Officer also left the bar and returned to the police station to continue his duties.

At the police station...

As the chief warden returns to the station, he accidentally bumps into Doctor Hei Yu who seems to be looking around with no goal at all. The other officers wanted to calm the doctor down but were afraid of being dragged to the morgue and welcomed with corpses, organs and more. Ordinary people can't bear to stay in that place for so long.

Doctor Black upon seeing Captain Lou Ye said, "Oh, you're back captain. We've been trying to get hold of you. There was a call saying that another victim had been found. This time the victim was said to be crucified and a pair of huge white wings had been found sewed on its back."

"Have you gone to the crime scene?" asked Captain Lou Ye.

Doctor Hei Yu said, "No. I was told not to move on my own and wait for you. Since you are back. Let's go now."

In an old abandoned church, this is where the new victim of the serial killer was found. The victim was none other than the other assistant of Actor Xiu Mo and Manager Xue Lian. As soon as Captain Lou Ye and Doctor Black arrived, the police officer protecting the crime scene saluted them.

"Captain! Doctor Black!"

"Where's the victim?" asked Captain Lou Ye.

A police officer answered, "We didn't dare to move him from the altar as the doctor hasn't arrived yet."

"I will go now. Hehe~" said Doctor Hei as he looked excited and ran towards the altar followed by his assistants carrying his tools.

The police officer at the scene reported, "Captain, the victim was none other than an assistant of Actor Xiu Mo. The vice captain left to check on the actor and his manager."

"I see. Have you found any evidence or traces on the scene?" asked Captain Lou Ye.

Another police officer said, "Like the past cases there are no traces of footprints and fingerprints. As if the victim was placed in here through air."

The police officers at the scene felt eerie about this serial killing case. It was the third one but they still haven't found anything that proves that the killer had brought the victim here.

"Captain, you don't think this serial case is strange? How come we can't even find a single fingerprint or foot marks? Is the serial killer capable of flight? That is simply insane!"

"If our killer is not human then it might be possible," said Captain Lou Ye.

Despite his expressionless face, his teammates were not afraid of him. They are close to him and would sometimes exchange jokes with him. Even though it was usually hard to know what kind of emotion their captain has with that face devoid of expression, they at least knew when their captain was joking or not. At this moment, he is clearly not joking at all but speaks of truth. That's why these police officers were terrified.

"C-Captain, are you serious?" a police officer asked.

Captain Lou Ye passed them the information Doctor Hei Yu had given to them. It's about the laboratory result for those huge black wings they picked up at the last crime scene.

"According to what the doctor had found, that huge black feather I pick up before was neither a rooster feather, nor any other bird type animal. It might have looked similar to chicken feathers but it was not. An unknown energy was found from it. Doctor Hei called it curse. Anything the energy in that feather had affected would impeccably die in the end."

"Captain, are you alright? Didn't you pick up that thing?" a police officer asked.

Captain Lou Ye said, "I, the doctor and other people who had touched the feather were all checked upon. Except for one who had touched the black feather with an open wound, the rest of us were cleared. Whatever the energy is in that feather, it loves blood and flesh. The doctor declared that whoever is the original owner of the feather was not human at all. He gave the serial killer an alias. The Fallen."

"The fallen? A fallen angel? Doesn't that make the serial killer a devil then!" a policeman who loves supernatural stuff and mythology exclaimed.

"Can we mere humans even fight against devils?" the police force wavered at the thoughts that they have to fight and capture devils this time.

Captain Lou Ye said, "Do not worry. The higher-ups had contacted a professional about this case. The Vatican will send some people to us."

"If it's the Vatican, then they should be able to fight against those evil entities!"

"Will we be able to witness live exorcism?"

"I think we should find the culprit first."

"Captain."

This time Doctor Hei had approached the police captain to begin his report about the autopsy result.

"Have you finished the autopsy?" asked Captain Lou Ye.

Doctor Hei Yu said, "Almost. However, you might need to report to the higher ups again."

"Is it that black feather from before?" asked Captain Lou Ye.

Doctor Hei Yu said, "No, but it is something similar." He held up a pure white feather he took from the huge wings attached to the corpse.

"This feather is a huge problem," said Doctor Hei.

Captain Lou Ye asked, "Is it dangerous?"

"No. It's the complete opposite. This white feather can heal. I don't know to what extent, but... there's a huge pair made of it. This... might be an angel's wings," said Doctor Hei.

The people in the area shouted in unison, "Angel's Wings!!!"

Chapter 1574 21.31 Fifth Violet Star - Martial Law

"ANGEL'S WINGS!"

Almost everyone was shocked by these words. Doctor Hei Yu as if anticipating their reaction had covered his ears. Only when Captain Lou Ye reprimands his team does he stop covering his ears and then explain things further.

Doctor Hei Yu said, "That's just an alias I've chosen to call that white feather. It was unknown whether it was real or not. But for it to have properties capable of healing, I don't know to what extent it can cure and what kind of injuries or diseases it can resolve. That needs further testing."

"I will report to the higher ups about this. That black feather from before is completely different from this white feather isn't it?" said Captain Lou Ye.

After nodding, the doctor said, "Yes. That black feather is full of negative properties. One can kill and has no cure. I think that should be destroyed, but I don't think the higher ups will agree to this."

"They won't however if you truly wish to destroy it feel free," said Captain Lou Ye.

Doctor Hei Yu was stunned for a moment and asked, "Captain, are you flirting with me?"

"No. I don't want to die," said Captain Lou Ye as he left to make a call.

On the other hand, his comrades and the doctor looked confused by these words, yet he was not there to clear their confusion.

"Why did the captain say he didn't want to die?"

"Doctor, do you have a lover?"

"... does the corpse in my morgue count?" answered Doctor Hei Yu. Then he suddenly recalled Lucifer's handsome face and then smiled.

"Maybe, I will... in the future~" Then he left the stunned police officers to continue his duties like Captain Lou Ye.

Having reported the probable existence of demons and angels, Captain Lou Ye also added that the possibility of the serial killer they are chasing was most likely a demon. As a proof, there would always be a black feather at each crime scene. In the latest case, a pair of huge angel's wings was even found.

Because of this the government had no other choice but to put the whole city under martial law at the same time they spread the possible existence of demons and angels in the human world. Normally, one would have kept quiet about this situation.

However, just the fact that the recent serial killing might have been done by no humans is capable of, the humans were frightened and had to spread the word just so not only to make those unknown creatures hesitate to show themselves and make sure the humans to keep vigilant at all times.

Flash news has been playing all day long and the topic happens to be demons and angels. Ever since the real Lucifer had left with Belphegor, the one that handles the bar were Zhi Yue and Zhi Yang. Of course, unlike before no women and men dared to approach or sit beside Ye Xiajie.

His presence alone prevents them from daring to approach him. However, the customer count had increased instead of decreasing. A lot of people come to Purgatory just for wanting to catch a glimpse of the King of Night, who oversees his territory. As for some women and men who lost control of themselves and wanted to jump in the arms of the God of Void, they were immediately captured by some void creature he summoned to pretend as guards and staff of this place.

Tonight, the God of Void was enjoying his whisky while watching something in the tablet bought by Zhi Yue for watching drama series. He wanted to see the current flash news about the serial killings as it involves Doctor Hei. Who would have expected that a flash news under the orders of the government is being aired.

FLASH NEWS:

[We apologize for an abrupt announcement from the government. This is an urgent news that the people of our city must all know. The government as of right now, announcement Martial Law.]

[Soldiers and police will be patrolling every night in the city and a curfew was issued. Starting tomorrow, no one is allowed to be outside after ten o' clock. Once you are found by the soldiers and police, you will be jailed for three days without food for first time rule breakers. Second time, you will be imprisoned for a month and third, you will be sent to jail for a year.]

[As for the reason the sudden martial law had something to do with the recent serial killings in the city. The police had found proof that the killer is... huh! Not human!]

[What the hell---]

[Cough!]

The newscaster was caught off guard by the script that was provided to him. He lost composure for a moment but was warned by the police captain that personally visit their broadcasting company.

[It was recently discovered that the existence of those who are called fallen angels or demons and holy angels had been proven real. They had found a few black feathers to every serial killing case that had happened in the city. It was said that this black feather is deadly poisonous and it had no antidote. Thus, the police force had greatly stated that the serial killer is possibly not human. It is a demon!]

[The existence of the holy angel had been proven as well. At the latest serial killing case, the police force had discovered a pair of huge white feathers that was said to be an angel's wings!]

The news was showing a projection of the angel wings that the police force had surrendered to the government. A quarter was given to the police force for this discovery.

[The white feathers of the angel's wings are said to be capable of healing any kind of injuries and illness. This includes regeneration of limbs as well as curing terminal diseases.]

[Please be reminded that martial law will take effect as soon as this flash news broadcast has ended. I repeat, Martial Law will take effect as soon as this broadcast has ended.]

[Thank you for listening. I hope you have a nice evening!]

The flash news ended at this moment. As soon as the news ended a lot of people checked the time and said that it's 9 pm in the evening. By ten o'clock in the evening, the police and soldiers will start their patrols and those who were caught will be captured and punished. They would be lucky if the soldiers and police were the ones to find them. What if they bump into that serial killer that wasn't even human? That will be quite a tragic sight.

The God of Void wasn't the only ones watching the flash news but also some customers of the bar. As expected, as soon as the news ended, a lot of them had bid a farewell to the Bar owner. Seeing that he was also watching the news there is no need to explain things further.

"Boss, we will go now. We only have an hour to catch a ride."

"How sad! Because of curfew we wouldn't be able to see Lucifer every night."

The God of Void said, "I have no plans on closing the bar. Though it would close at 9:30 in the evening every night?"

"Boss! how about an overnight option. We only need to stay at the bar all night without bothering you, the big boss!" a customer suggested.

The God of Void said, "I will not provide pillows nor a blanket."

"Hahaha! That's okay boss. We have no plans to sleep anyway!" The customers laughed and agreed to these words.

The God of Void said, "Do as you wish. I'm going up to eat dinner now."

As he stood up preparing to go to his suite and is now walking towards the elevator that would bring him to his flat. The customers happily send him off then resume to their night party all night. There are some who had left before the curfew and others who stayed for an all night party.

The curfew rule will not affect these customers as long as they are inside the bar and weren't found outside loitering around. At 10 o'clock sharp in the evening, the streets in the city were almost all empty. Soldiers and police will catch people who were found, but since this is the first night and the martial law will be strictly implemented tomorrow evening, these people were just scolded and sent home.

The serial killer watched the flash news and threw his phone to the wall in anger after learning what the human had done after his existence was revealed. Like the police had this murderer is not a human. He is the devil of envy, Leviathan, who was said to be missing from hell.

Crash!

Pants~

"Damn humans~ how the hell did they know that I am not human? How the hell did they find my feather? That thing isn't supposed to be easily seen by humans. Just who the hell within the police force is getting in my way."

"That stupid doctor must have revealed the effects of my feather and the original wings of Lucifer. I never expected that humans would be the first to find it, instead of Asmodeus or all other devils."

"Tsk! Which one should I kill first? I should start killing the pests. Should I pick the police captain or that mad doctor?~ Hehehe~"

Not faraway from him, on his table, there is a carefully sealed silver rose that doesn't seem to wilt. This is Leviathan's new source of power and also the source of his current madness.

Chapter 1575 21.32 Fifth Violet Star - Troublemakers and the Clinic.

With the serial killer hiding in the shadows of the night, martial laws and curfews are placed in the city. Now after ten in the evening, there are almost no people walking around the streets and even at the core of the city was left desolated with only a few soldiers and police officers patrolling.

Of course, regardless of the laws, there are still law breakers. Some of the soldiers and police officers are chasing after them in the back alleys. These people truly knew their ways at escaping using these unofficial roads and more of like crevices between buildings.

In the middle of the night a few officers led by Captain Lou are chasing after young adults who were sneaking around the back alleys using drugs.

"Should we chase after them?"

"No need. Follow me," said Captain Lou Ye.

He leads them to the Bar 'Purgatory' which has music playing all night long. This time it was even extended overnight and only stopped at sunrise where the customers can leave indoors and go home. The booming music can even be heard from the window and one can even hear people dancing and singing inside the bar.

A police officer couldn't help but comment, "I didn't expect that this bar would offer overnight services because of the curfew."

"But it is true that they are not breaking any laws. After all, they are inside the bar. As long as they are inside, it doesn't matter much to them."

"Are they partying crazily like this all night?"

"They can even sleep in the bar if they are too wasted."

"I think they just don't want to miss seeing Lucifer."

"The Bar Owner is like an incubus. He only needs to exist and people will get seduced."

"I heard that he is no longer sleeping around."

"Rumors says that he has a lover."

"Crazy! Who is this amazing person that made this flirt stick to only one."

While the police officers were exchanging words as they finally stopped at the entrance of the bar and the drug addicts that they were chasing were all tied up. They heard someone talking from the slightly open doors of the bar and saw Zhi Yang, one of the new staff of Purgatory, peeking at them.

They heard him say, "These people tried to force their way inside the bar. But they got a positive result in our drug test. The big boss said to throw them out and wait for your arrival. You can go ahead and capture them. I might have dislocated their shoulders a bit. Please resolve it yourself. Have a good evening!"

The door to the bar was securely closed this time after, Zhi Yang hung a new sign saying 'Those without overnight appointment cannot enter until the next opening hours.' The police officers were stunned for a moment until their captain issue a command and the groaning sounds of those tied up druggies echoes in the empty streets.

Captain Lou Ye said, "What are you still waiting for? Grab them all!"

"Yes, Sir!"

Then after capturing their targets they saw their captain looking above and saluted. There, they saw Lucifer wearing a casual black suit drinking his wine and he waves slightly at their captain.

On their way back to the station, a police officer couldn't help but asked,

"Captain, do you know why Sir Xiu runs a bar but doesn't tolerate those who do crime?"

"Did he run a bar just to catch those people if they ever wandered into his place?"

"The bar owner might be whimsical and it will be hard to believe he is a good person. However, he doesn't tolerate anything that brings impure things in his place. That's why he never hides a criminal. Though there might be a case that he will go against us. For example, evicting a good person with intentional evidence with bad intentions," explained the police captain to his team.

"Enough of this. Half of you send these people to the station. The rest come with me to continue the patrol."

"Yes!"

Meanwhile at the police station...

Soldiers and police had gathered as a group. Of course, they don't get along well. It can be said that soldiers and police had differences. First is their experience. Soldiers experience wars while police experience raids. The former is allowed to kill their enemies and they wouldn't hesitate. Hesitation in war will only lead to death. As for police officers, they give the criminals a warning.

Only when there is no choice that they shoot them down and take their lives. The reason for the difference is the environment. It is more dangerous for soldiers as there will always be danger looming over them while the police had a certain security as they were stationed in a place that is safer than the war zones.

The soldiers felt that the police were too soft hearted while the police thought that the soldiers were barbaric. That's why they don't get along. However, there are professionals of their own field thus if they were given a command or task, they will complete it no question asked.

Some police were supporting the vice-captain of Captain Lou Ye's team to Doctor Hei's office. Unlike his teammates his strength is weaker than they are and he couldn't be on field all the time. That's why he mostly stayed at the station as the information department head.

However, there are times that he is overworked as most office work in this station was resolved by him. He was also the one making the reports for the team. Whenever he overdoses, his juniors will bring him to the clinic and have the doctor check on him.

In the clinic, Doctor Hei was still investigating the black and white feathers that he got from the higher ups. He wanted to check if he could discover more about these two feathers. The laboratory connected to the clinic also works as a morgue or surgery room.

"Doctor! Are you here!?"

"The vice-captain had fainted again!"

Doctor Hei seems to be used to it and said, "Throw him on the bed. I will check on him once I'm done here."

"Then Doctor we will leave it to you as usual!"

After the police officers who carried their vice-captain to the clinic left, Doctor Hei resumed his experiments without even knowing when the vice-captain had stood from the bed and woke up. He suddenly appeared behind the doctor , reaching his hand towards him.

Meanwhile, at the station's entrance, Captain Lou Ye had just finished their patrols and they were welcomed by their teammates.

"Welcome back, Captain and you guys as well. Dinner will be served in an hour."

"Did something happen in the station?" asked Captain Lou Ye upon seeing the bruises on their faces the same as the soldiers not far from them giving them glares.

"It's nothing much, captain. These barbarians are just acting up again."

"Ah, yes. Something happened. The vice-captain had fainted again."

"It must be because he hadn't gone to sleep for five days."

Captain Lou Ye suddenly fell on his thoughts. He never took out his team to the list of those who are possibly the hidden serial killer of the recent cases about unique murders happening in the city. Even though he didn't directly suspect his vice captain, keeping Doctor Hei safe was actually one of his tasks from the God of Void.

The police captain asked, "Is he still in the clinic?"

"Should be. He had fainted again. It would take a while for him to wake up."

Captain Lou Ye took large strides towards the direction of the clinic, in which they were welcomed by blood on the white tiled floor leading to the other bed. Everyone was terrified by the scene of the clinic covered in blood.

An officer exclaims, "Oh my god! Is that blood?!"

Captain Lou Ye heard a rustling sound coming from one of the curtained beds inside the clinic and he urgently pulled it open only to see, Doctor Hei holding a white towel soaked with Vice-captain's blood even heard him scolding his patient.

Doctor Hei Yu said, "Don't lift your head! Lower it. Who the hell told you that you need to lift your heads up once you're having a nosebleed!?"

"Isn't that how it is supposed to be? (Is that how it supposed to be?)" asked the vice-captain Lev.

Doctor Hei scolded him, "Who the hell is the quack that told you such a thing? Hold your damn towel! How can you dirty my laboratory!?" He complains while still treating his patient.

The vice-captain said, "Okay~"

"What happened?" asked Captain Lou Ye to the doctor.

Doctor He said, "It's his fault. I was experimenting inside the laboratory. Who told him to sneak behind me just because he wanted to ask for a painkiller due to his gastritis acting up. A stood up abruptly in shock and almost smash his nose distorted"

"Daktor... itsh dishtorted allreafy," said vice captain.

Snort!

Doctor He said, "It's your fault for not speaking out and for surprising me!"

"Yesh~, I'm sorry," The vice captain lowered his head and held the soaked in blood towel.

Chapter 1576 21.33 Fifth Violet Star - Demons

Learning the reason for blood within the clinic was because of the vice-captain's nosebleed. The police officers all laugh. Who would have thought that the mad doctor is quite a tough character. The type that launches a punch to your face.

AHAHAHA~

"Vice-captain, your nose turned flat!"

"R-really!?" said vice captain Lev as he tried to touch his nose only to have his hand slapped by the doctor.

Doctor hei reprimands, "Don't touch! Do you want it to swell further? Don't you want your nose anymore?"

"Wants!" Vice Captain Lev said.

HAHAHA~

Everyone once again laughed and watched as the doctor injected him with some pain killer for his acute gastritis. Only then did their vice captain rested on a clean bed with a relaxed expression now even his nosebleed had stopped bleeding.

Captain Lou Ye sat at the bedside where Vice captain Lev was lying and asked, "Have you found anything, Lev?"

"Yes. I seem to have found the motive of the serial killer," Vice captain Lev said.

Captain Lou Ye said, "That pair of white wings. Before it was taken away by the killer , it seems all those he had killed were the first batch of humans who had seen it. According to my investigations, that pair of wings used to be owned by a wealthy man and he used those angel wings as decoration in his private villa."

"There were at least 20 guests that attended that man's housewarming party. Among them are those victims of serial killings including Actor Xiu Mo and Manager Xue Lian. Moreover, more than half of those who attended that housewarming party either had gone missing or were found dead by us," explained Vice captain Lev.

With a frown the police captain said, "If the catalyst for his murder is that white feather wing, the whole city had seen it as it was shown in the flash news."

"Yes, that's why everyone in the city is now a target," said vice captain Lev.

All of the sudden, an officer comes running looking for the captain. It seems something had happened tonight that he was being summoned by the higher ups.

"Captain Lou! Finally, I found you. The senior officials wanted you to come see them as soon as possible!"

"What happened?" asked Police Captain Lou Ye.

He noticed that the face of this intelligence division officer's face was pale as white and that he must have seen something unbelievable and terrifying to have this kind of expression on his face.

The police officer answered, "One of those creatures had appeared and eaten... killed a lot of soldiers and police officers."

As if recalling the live broadcast of human beings being eaten alive, the police officer immediately ran to the trash can and started hurling.

Blergh~

This is clearly not the first time he puked and might have done it multiple times before this. Though police were trained and experienced to see corpses or death scenes. The gruesome scene of humans being eaten alive, screaming and crying for help is a different story. It was as if hell had descended on earth like what was stored in myths.

"Eaten!?"

Captain Lou Ye felt something had gone wrong tonight and immediately left to find his superiors. Moreover, since it's the officials who were asking him to come over, it means that the situation is extremely serious.

As expected upon arriving at the conference, all of those who have positions as a team captain and above were summoned; this includes soldiers who are at least a major and above were all called over. The ordinary officers were asked to wait outside the conference room.

The walls of the conference room are glass even though it isolates sounds, the people outside can still see what is happening inside the room. Gasps and hurls were heard all around the station when they saw the video being played inside the conference room. The scene was devastating.

The scene of their comrades and brother being bitten around, stomped on, heads exploding like ripe watermelons, and being eaten alive by a huge red skinned cow that stood on two feet and has the size of half a building was being played on the video.

What made it worse is that this snake monster doesn't seem ordinary. Not only can it speak, it also possesses a strength beyond humans and his skin is tough making it hard for ordinary bullets to penetrate.

On the video recording one can see and hear a hoarse evil voice coming from the ugly black snake with red eyes.

{Haha~ So many snacks for me tonight~}

{Humans~ you shouldn't have taken what isn't supposed to be yours! Give us the king's original wings. Or you shall all be eaten by us demons.}

AHHH!

The video was cut off as the officer who was taking the video was eaten alive seeing that the last scene they saw was the interior of the snake monster's mouth.

The person in the highest position in the room asked, "What do you guys think about this?"

"Commander, it called itself a demon. So, it must have come from hell."

"It was talking about the wings from the last case. Though we didn't expect that it was indeed an angel's wings and one that was cut off before it became fallen."

"I don't know much about angels and demons or , is that what they are called?"

Obviously, this generation of leaders didn't know much about angels and demons as they were used to being rational and wouldn't not think much about fantasy-like things.

Doctor Hei's position in this station was special and was also called over after knowing he was interested in these called demons and angels.

He suddenly mumbles, "Lucifer."

"Huh? Doctor, are you talking about Bar Purgatory's owner?" the adjutant that replaced the sick vice captain sat beside Captain Lou Ye asked.

Doctor Hei Yu said, "No. I am talking about the fallen angel lucifer. Those wings might be his. He is the only one among the archangels who was said to get his angel wing cut off before being thrown to hell by god. After falling, he became the strongest demon in hell."

"What!?"

Even though the knowledge of these officers and soldiers about angels and demons are minimal, there is no way they don't know about the infamous Lucifer. It was said that he was the brightest and strongest angel that matches Archangel Michael in strength.

Captain Lou Ye said, "If it is indeed Lucifer then it's understandable that the demon calls those pairs of wings as their king's. He is the king of hell after all. Moreover, if this is true then... our opponent would most likely be demons and devil princes."

"But... How do you defeat a demon?"

"Can humans even defeat one?"

Doctor Hei Yu said, "According to the book, demons are weaker than devils. They can still be killed with blessed objects or holy water. It was hard to fight a devil instead. Those things reside in the evil of a human's heart and they mostly do not fight with the physical body. They possessed people. Only exorcists from the Vatican are able to defeat them."

A few soldiers and polices asked,

"So, do we need to inform the Vatican about this?"

"But would they even believe us?"

"Maybe they might think this recording is fake and not help us at all."

"How about trying contacting them first. See their reaction for now."

"Good idea."

"Implement it."

"Do it!"

Captain Lou Ye said, "We shouldn't forget about this demon first. Let's focus on it and keep an eye for anything else that may appear. I don't think this is the only demon that is interested in those pairs of wings. There might be more demons coming for it. Moreover, this demon seems to be a fool to show itself to the camera and it has no wings. He is not the serial killer."

"Why do you think so, Xiao Lou?" A superior of Lou Ye asked.

Captain Lou Ye answered, "From the latter cases we found, he hardly left clues. In reality, except for the last four cases, we didn't even find a black feather. This can also mean that he is intentionally revealing the existence of the angel and the devils. The pair of angel wings is a fact."

"Those wings might be even a bait for something. Though I don't know what truly are his plans, we cannot deny that we had become the target the moment the existence of those angel wings had been known to everyone in the city."

"You mean we will be targeted with more demons, not just the one in the video?"

"The probability of this is above 60 percent. We should prepare for the whole city to become hell," said Doctor Hei Yu.

The commander realized the heaviness of the current situation. He immediately decided to report it to the government to ask for assistance. The verdict from this call was only released the next morning and before the weekends, a lot of weapons with string fire power was sent to this city. They wanted to be ready to fight if the demons truly attacked them.

Because of the situation most people of the city were evacuated to the other cities or provinces and there were those who chose to stay and no matter how much police convinced them, they didn't leave the city. Among these people are those in Bar 'Purgatory' , especially the bar owner, Xiu Xie.

The city started looking like a ghost town, who stayed where considered as a brave soul that is fearless and dead in the eyes of the police and military. Among these men are the owner of Bar 'Purgatory' and his staff. They refuse to move and the military almost haul them away.

But after being beaten by Zhi Yang and Zhi Yue, Captain Lou Ye gave them permission to stay and in exchange they will not receive any help or support from them and their lives will be for them to protect on their own.

The God of Void agreed and they signed a life and death contract with the government. Only then they were allowed to stay in their own building. The martial law and curfew was taken back. After all, the people they needed to protect had mostly evacuated as for those who had stayed they were responsible for their own lives.

After all, even the police and soldiers aren't confident enough to fight against mythical creatures like demons and angels. Especially devils who control a mortal's body and do evil things with it. They cannot be killed by normal means and only through exorcism can they be eliminated.

Thus, the government asked for the help of the Vatican. The demons didn't make any moves to stop the evacuation of the citizens as their real target was only the angel wings that the government had taken possession of. That was their priority and killing humans was only done along the way as they were preventing them from taking what they wanted.

A week had passed since the evacuation was done. Despite not having his loyal customers, the God of Void keeps his bar open in the evening. The police officers and soldiers felt it was weird at first. But his bar became a rest stop for the patrolling men of the city. Among them, the one that is a frequent visitor is none other than the doctor who would come over every evening to smooch food.

Unexpectedly, the bar owner of the Purgatory would personally make dinner for the doctor every time he came over. It was said that Lucifer's cooking was a delicacy. Sadly, his cooking can only be experienced by Doctor Hei Yu and no one knows the reason why.

One evening at the Bar 'Purgatory', while the god of void was busying himself in the kitchen, Doctor Hei was waiting at the bar counter alone with a small glass of strawberry milk tea made from fresh strawberries and authentic tea leaves with added milk. As for Zhi Yue and Zhi Yang, they both excuse themselves and left the two of them alone, but in reality they've just returned to their system avatar form hovering around the doctor protecting him.

After a while, the God of Void pushes a cart over to the bar counter. The top tray had two plates and a few small plates. There is also a small cup of frozen chocolate mousse and a bottle of chilled red wine. The God of Void serves some white sauce fettuccine with meatballs and grated cheese. A small bowl of potato wedges and garlic bread were served as side dishes and chocolate mousse for dessert.

The God of Void said while serving the dishes, "Sorry for the wait. Here's dinner. Enjoy."

Doctor Hei looked at the dish for dinner with delighted eyes. Clearly, this meal was something he loves eating the most. He grins happily and even responds to his chef tonight.

"Thank you. Everything looks delicious!" said Doctor Hei Yu.

The God of Void also serves the doctor a cup of wine before eating together with him on the bar counter.

"Is it alright for you to come over alone? Don't you have work or something?" said the God of Void.

Doctor Hei Yu who was eating his pasta with urgency yet still looking well-mannered responded, "It's alright. None of the demons had appeared this whole week. Once they either capture or kill one, that's when it's my turn to work~. Hm~ delish~"

"I will send you back if there is no one to pick you up," said the God of Void.

Doctor Hei Yu said, "But isn't it dangerous for you to come back alone? There are unknown creatures that may be hiding in the shadows."

"Don't worry about me. If I don't have enough skills the police wouldn't have allowed me to stay in the city. I will be fine," said the God of Void.

Actually, he was only worried about what he heard from the chief warden. It's the situation that happened in the clinic at the police station. Though the other thinks that the vice captain called Lev suffered after being punched, the question is why he would sneak behind the doctor if he was asking for medicine. If his stomach is truly hurt beyond his limit, why was he able to stand up?

The God of Void thought of the scenario that the man was trying to harm Doctor Hei Yu but stopped at the last moment when he felt the aura he left scared him, allowing the doctor to land a punch on his nose. If that vice captain can truly feel the energy of the darkness he left in the doctor, that means that man is most likely a demon.

Doctor Hei Yu said, "Okay then. I believe you are indeed powerful. After all, the captain was so respectful to you~"

"Why do you say so?" asked the God of Void. It was as if the hidden meaning within the words of the doctor didn't move his emotions much.

The eyes of the doctor narrowed at this question and said, "Nevermind~ since you are trying to hide it."

The two ended their conversation and just enjoyed their dinner. As soon as they finished their meals, the two systems who were not around had suddenly reappeared to handle the dishes.

Zhi Yue said, "Master, please leave the dishes to us."

"Hm? When have you come over?" asked Doctor Hei Yue, surprised.

Zhi Yang said, "We were just waiting in the kitchen for dinner time to pass. We also had our meal there."

"I see no wonder," said Doctor Hei as he followed Lucifer to have some tea in the couch area.

The two stayed for an hour to get their meals digested before preparing to leave the purgatory to head to the police station. The two systems saw the two out and the two decided to just walk back as the station was not too far from the location of the bar. While Doctor Hei Yu and the God of Void were walking along the empty roads, they passed the time talking to each other.

The two enjoy the conversation that even an eerie and empty road is no longer fearful. However, they didn't even notice that the shadows that were behind them started moving and chasing after them. The doctor might haven't noticed it at all, but for the God of Void not to notice, is impossible. He just chose to ignore it.

When they reached the distance of one road from the police station, the demon following them had finally come out from the shadows and blocked the two. A minotaur looking demon appeared before the God of Void and Doctor Hei Yu.

{Humans~, you are out of luck. I feel the power of the king's wings on one of you. Give it to me now!}

He started attacking them, but before the two were hit, the God of Void's hands was enough to block the demon's strength in such a nonchalant manner. He even glanced at the doctor with a calm gaze.

He said, "The police station is near. How about you pick your tools and make this demon your new toy?"

"Really? You are going to give it to me?!" asked Doctor Hei Yu with an excited look like a child who found his new toy.

The God of Void nodded his head without hesitation and said, "Yes."

"Okay. I will be back soon!" said Doctor Hei Yu as he ran towards the station which is only a street away from their current location with an excited look in his eyes.

As soon as the doctor had gone to the distance, the cow demon looked at the God of Void with disbelief in his eyes. He actually noticed that as soon as his head was grabbed by the small hands of the bar owner, the cow demon realized that the darkness coming from this man was enough to restrain him.

{I-Impossible... they said that... the king is dead!} the Minotaur shouted.

Unfortunately, the God of Void doesn't care about his words and was thinking how to kill this demon without destroying its body, allowing it to keep the whole body intact.

"How to keep our body intact as I kill you? I know..." The God of Void mumbles.

The Cow demon felt the hand holding his head grips his skull with force and another small hand held his shoulder firmly.

"I should just cleanly separate the head from the body," said the God of Void as he ripped off his head.

The God of Void made sure to twist the head so the blood wouldn't splash on his side. his face remained calm with a pair of indifferent eyes looking at the demon in his hand as if he wasn't a demon but something that can be killed by him so easily.

Splash~

A blood fountain comes out from the headless body as soon as he removes the hand. It was instant death for the demon. Seeing that the body remains intact, he placed the head above the body and leaned at one of the night streets as he pulled out a cigarette to smoke. Not even a drop of demon blood fell on him.

Chapter 1578 21.35 Fifth Violet Star - Angel?

At the city's police station...

Everyone at the station saw Doctor Hei Yu arrive grinning so happily as if he had found a new toy. If the subject was only an ordinary person, the police at the station would only think that they had found something they loved the most, or something fun to play with.

However it is a completely different story if we are talking about the genius forensic doctor, Hei Yu. His interests are unique and it is something ordinary people will never be interested in. In short his life is something unique only for him. The world of the unknown and all kinds of corpses as well as their varying deaths. This is the interest of the doctor.

Thus, him looking so delighted now that he was so excited that he was about to jump around on the spot, means that he might have either found a unique corpse or something unrecorded in their world. For example, a demon remains, a living angel or possessed by a devil. That's why everyone inside the station turns vigilant and immediately asks him what is going on.

Doctor Hei Yu who just ran out of his laboratory carrying his instruments and all other things on his back was being stopped by his assistants.

"Doctor! Where are you going?"

"Teacher! Please return the equipment. You can bring those things outside of the station!"

"Nonsense! I need this to study my new toy! I'm bringing it all out with me!" said Doctor Hei Yu.

His assistant says again, "Teacher, can't you just bring the corpse over?"

"B-But... it's not dead yet," said Doctor Hei Yu.

Once everyone heard their lunatic doctor say that his new toy wasn't dead yet it means that he had seen something interesting on his way back to the station. Seeing that he was so excited to run out of the station meant that he was urged to get his tools and there was someone with him before he returned to the station.

Captain Lou Ye asked, "Doctor, didn't you have dinner with the bar owner in Purgatory?"

"I did. Lucy sent me back, but a demon blocked my way and he said that I should get my tools as he promised to give that demon's corpse!" answered Doctor Hei Yu as he finally struggled free from the one holding him back.

He said, "Don't stop me! Lucy said it's my new toy!"

Others failed to stop him as they were so shocked with what they had heard from the lunatic doctor. Only when their minds had digested the information that Police Captain Lou Ye immediately commanded for the police and military to follow Hei Yu.

Captain Lou Ye said, "Everyone, follow the doctor. We have a civilian fighting with a demon!"

"Yes, Captain Lou!"

Both the police and the military had run out of the station as soon as they were fully geared. But when they got to the scene, they saw their genius doctor all geared up dissecting the demon corpse from the video their commander shared to them a week ago. It was now lying on the cold street dead with its head being held in the hands of the doctor being admired.

Doctor Hei Yu was lifting up the demon's heads with his two hands and said, "Amazing. This is truly a cow's head, but with a human sized brain!"

On the other hand, they saw the bar owner sitting at the side bench watching Doctor Hei Yu playing around with the demon's corpse, even relaxing with a cigarette between his lips, giving them a disinterested gaze. All the police officers and military looked surprised as they looked at the corpse and the clean bar owner who looked not only uninjured but also not a single drop of blood on him.

Moreover this bar owner wasn't even interested in their arrival and focused on watching Doctor Hei Yu dissect the demon in front of him. Police Captain Lou Ye only observes the scene and most likely guess what his lord plans to do. Though doting the doctor is his main priority, getting the angels involved with the current situation in this human world was his secondary objective. That's why he had revealed his strength and intentionally defeated the demon targeting them.

As expected, both the police and the military couldn't believe what they had witnessed. Based on the recording they had found in the surroundings, they got the surveillance video and watched what happened before they arrived on the scene. They saw how the demon appeared from the shadows and blocked the doctor and the bar owner.

What is surprising was that the bar owner was unmoved and not even frightened when the demon appeared before them. On the other hand, their mad doctor looks excited seeing a demon with his own eyes. Thus, when the God of Void said he will give him the demon corpse and that he is to get his tools for better investigation, Doctor Hei Yu lost his happiness and ran back to the station.

As for what happened to the bar owner after he left, the doctor doesn't care. After all, that doctor with problems in his head would always take things seriously only at things that interest him. It was just that the recording they had witnessed was beyond normal. How can the bar owner defeat a demon on his own? A single human against a demon? That is simply impossible after all, both forces lost a lot of their men when the demon first attacked. That can only mean that this bar owner was most likely not a human. As expected they pulled out their guns on them and pointed them on Lucifer.

"What the hell are you!?" a police officer as he held his gun with shaking hands as he was terrified to imagine what kind of creature can kill a demon as powerful as the cow demon that looks like a minotaur.

The doctor saw them do such a thing and then looked at them like fools. This was done so Captain Lou Ye was even able to speak up.

"Ah~ look how beautiful this head is! Lucy, don't you think it's pretty?" asked Doctor Hei Yu.

The God of Void said, "You must be blind. It's ugly. It's just a stupid cow."

It seems that even though the God of Void pampers the doctor, he still sounds as sarcastic as always and would never mince his words with things like this.

Some police officers and soldiers were so nervous facing the bar owner that one of them pulled the trigger while shouting.

"Don't ignore us, you monster!"

Captain Lou Ye shouted, "Don't!"

BANG!

The gun was pointed in the direction of the God of Void and the bullet towards him. But under everyone's gaze, a huge white wing unfurled from the back of the bar owner's back and blocked the bullet with no problem.

The God of Void moves his gaze from the doctor to the group of police officers and soldiers. From his initial gentleness to coldness that freeze even the time to stop. Those who had met his gaze trembled so badly that they felt suffocated.

The bar owner said, "What is wrong with you humans? Did you just try to kill me, an angel?" He flapped his wings once, causing everyone except the doctor to fly a few meters away from him.

Everyone was stunned and was looking at the large white wing on Xiu Xie's back. The more they look at his wing, the similarities it has from the pair of wings they got from the crime scene before is evident.

A major among them spoke up as he noticed that the police captain, Lou Ye, wasn't opening his mouth to question the man... no, the angel in front of them.

"Are you an angel?" asked the major.

The God of Void averted his gaze from them back to the doctor who was enjoying himself at the street dissecting the demon's body. His icy eyes had once again gained softness that would fit someone of the holy creature.

Police Captain Lou Ye asked, "Are you the doctor's guardian angel?"

A slight smile appeared on the God of Void's lips and said, "That sounds a bit right."

"Then can you help us kill all the demons?" a police officer asked.

The God of Void said, "Why should I do that? I can't get involved with humans. Fighting demons indiscriminately may ignite the war between angels and devils. When that happens you humans are the first one to be killed. After all, you are far too weak~"

The humans in the area didn't deny it. Except for the Captain Lou Ye who is not human, only Doctor Hei Yu remains uninterested in the conversation. It can be said that he is enjoying himself so well that he is covered in blood splatters looking like a lunatic and a murder.

"Moreover, the reason why you are being targeted is because you possessed something humans shouldn't have. Those green things would never give up. As whatever that thing is with you is like a powerful tonic to them. An Archangel's wing had an ability to purify everything and this includes the bloodline of the demons," said the god of void.

"An object that is desired by all beings in this world. I wonder how long you can protect it though?"

Chapter 1579 21.36 Fifth Violet Star - One asks, the other answers.

The words of the God of Void made all the humans dumbfounded. It can be said that they didn't expect that the angel image in their mind would be broken this way. Words full of arrogance, sarcastic ways of talking, even those eyes looking at them with contempt. How can an angel possess this kind of personality?

Moreover, he is completely uninterested in humans except for the doctor. When Doctor Hei Yu had enough of the demon corpse, he checked on the God of Void's huge pair of white wings.

The God of Void didn't mind Doctor Hei Yu touching his wings all over and was even smoking despite being treated as an interesting test subject.

Hei Yu, this madman doctor, mumbles, "These wings are indeed similar to the white feather you gave me before. Was that one of your feathers?"

"Yes, I thought you might get interested in it. I pulled one out for you," said the God of Void.

The Doctor observed the angel in front of them say, "Why do I feel like black suits you more? A majestic and purest black wing in existence. White doesn't fit you at all."

"Is that so?" said the God of Void.

Then, under the eyes of everyone in the area, his white wings slowly turned black. It was as if the darkness itself had morphed to become his wings and a part of him.

Gasp!

Only Doctor Hei Yu and Captain Lou Ye were not surprised.

The God of Void said, "Does it fit more like this?"

"Now I am sure. That you are not the original bar owner of Purgatory and that you are not human nor a demon nor an angel. What are you?" Doctor Hei Yu said.

The God of Void smiled and said, "You can call me Xia. Only you thought."

"I had finished what I came for. You can go visit me at the store any time. That demon was my gift for you. If I catch something, I will send it to your place as well. Have a pleasant evening, Doctor."

He flew using his wings and disappeared from where he was. Everyone just watches, as they don't know the stance of that person in this situation. However, seeing that he is willing to approach the doctor means that he might not be their enemy.

A police officer asked, "Doctor, why do you mean that he wasn't the bar owner of Purgatory?"

"Their presences are completely different, and... this man's aura isn't as disgusting as the rest. The ones I've been seeing lately might be him. As for the ones you met before, it might be him or might not be him. There are two lucifers pretending to be one. However, recently the other is gone. So is the bartender named Bel."

"It is weirder that you guys don't even notice that they are two different people."

The doctor explained, leaving most police officers and soldiers dumbfounded. They actually didn't notice it at all. Moreover, when was Lucifer not Lucifer and when Lucifer was Lucifer, except for the doctor, maybe no one else noticed.

Doctor Hei Yu suddenly looked at the Captain and said, "You've noticed, haven't you, Captain? That Lucy is not the Lucifer we know. That's the reason you remained in the cafe when you picked me up that day."

The police officers and even the soldiers turn to Lou Ye's way, waiting for his answer. Actually, they didn't expect that aside from the doctor, their captain himself already noticed such a strange bar owner.

Captain Lou Ye said, "I wasn't sure at first. However, it seems that that was truly the case."

"Captain, should we catch him?" An officer asked.

When he asked this one question, everyone looked at him like a silly deer. It was as if he had said the wrong thing and he had asked something stupid.

"W-What's wrong? Did I say something wrong?"

Doctor Hei Yu snorted and said, "He is not a human, not a demon, and not even an angel. What do you think he was?"

"A monster?" The silly officer answered.

Captain Lou Ye said, "Monsters didn't have such intelligence."

"What is he then?"

"A God," Doctor Hei Yu said.

"WHAT!?"

Except for the police captain, almost everyone couldn't believe what they'd just heard.

What does it mean to meet a God? It's a being that is beyond them and has no clear distinction of good or bad. They don't directly get involved with humans but sometimes would have humans. They are whimsical creatures. But for some reason, after seeing what just happened, they somehow believe that the man who called himself Xia was indeed a god.

"A God. No wonder. He can possess the power of an angel and the power of a demon. He can create something out of nothing and is more powerful than any angel or demon."

"But why would a god appear beside the doctor? Is the doctor not human as well?"

"If I am not a human, I would have experimented on myself first. Unfortunately, my blood is only type AB and my organs are too healthy, which is no different than the others that I've lost interest in myself," Doctor Hei Yu said.

The others wanted to shout at the doctor, saying that:

'You really dare to treat yourself as an experimental subject! Should we thank God that you found nothing interesting on your body?! '

Captain Lou Ye spoke and said, "Enough. Stop gathering in one place. Someone picks up that demon corpse and continues the autopsy at the station. Maybe with it we will know their weakness and how to fight it."

"I found a few parts that needed to be kept. There are also some weak points that I found. However, I am not done with checking it thoroughly," the mad doctor said.

As everyone was busy bringing the corpse of the demon back to the station, they didn't notice the real reason why the God of Void had exposed his identity as a god. Maybe the Chief Warden had noticed, but it wasn't his task to provide help with the humans.

As for the doctor, he might have somehow known about it too but forgot to tell others as he is more interested in his new toy.

The news about the god called Xia was reported to the higher-ups, and as expected, they also believe that this fake bar owner might be a god in disguise as a human. Though they couldn't understand why he would be interested in their mad doctor, they still took this as an opportunity to get closer to him.

Thus, the usually busy Doctor Hei Yu would be kicked out of his own laboratory just so he could go to Bar 'Purgatory' to eat meals with the God of Void. The higher-ups told the doctor to ask a lot of things of this god in a more sublime manner. Who would have thought that the doctor would be so fearless that he would ask those questions straight to the point?

Today, an officer sent the doctor to the bar and accompanied him with Captain Lou. Thankfully, the God of Void didn't mind them coming over for meals. It's just that he would only cook for the doctor; as for the captain and the other officer, they can only borrow the kitchen to cook their meals or just watch the two eat instead.

The God of Void asked, "What do you want to eat this time?"

"I want some burritos!" said Doctor Hei Yue.

The God of Void said, "You want to eat that for lunch. No heavy meals?"

"It's fine. I ate a bit too much for breakfast," Doctor Hei Yu said.

The God of Void said, "That is also fine."

"Wait. I want to ask something? No, this is something I was told to ask you," Doctor Hei Yu said.

The God of Void showed a smirk and said, "Oh, go ahead and ask."

"Are you our enemies?" Doctor Black asked.

"I am neither your enemy nor your ally. I am just a bystander watching all the changes in this world. Of course, I might save you again if you are in danger," answered the God of Void.

"D-Doctor... Please... discreetly. A bit discreet."

The little officer wanted to pull away the doctor and tell him to ask questions discreetly. He was afraid that maybe they might offend this holy being and leave them rot in this place and die under the hands of the demons.

Captain Lou Ye held the little officer back and said, "Don't worry. I will intervene if things have gotten worse. But it seems that God doesn't mind anything and won't be easily offended if the one asking him was the doctor. Don't you see him smiling a bit towards the doctor?"

The little officer indeed noticed the slight upturned lips of the bar owner in front of them and decided to listen quietly while taking notes instead

Doctor Hei Yu keeps asking things.

"What are the weaknesses of demons?"

"As long as their head is detached from their head then they can die. Some demons have multiple hearts, so destroying their hearts isn't effective. Also, demons are creatures of the darkness; they are weak under the sun. Holy water seems to be effective on them as well. Why don't you try covering your weapons with it?"

"Great idea! But where can I get holy water that is effective against demons?"

"Isn't there a place called the Vatican? That place is blessed by the angels. You can get the most powerful holy water from that place."

"Is there no other way? That place is... a bit stingy if asked for bulk things."

"Just dumped a few angel feathers in water and asked a few devout priests to pray on it. That should have the same effect. It's just that the effect of diluted angel feathers can only last for three days. You guys only have one pair. Once that is all gone, it might be impossible to get another pair of angel wings."

This question and answer between the doctor continues like this, and they seem to be enjoying themselves.

Chapter 1580 21.37 Fifth Violet Star - Horse Demon

The question and answer between the god of void and the doctor continues; Captain Lou Ye and the other officer can only continue to watch and listen to the two of them.

"Do you want to help us or humans?" asked the doctor.

The God of Void answers, "Not interested."

"Are you going to help me then?"

"If you ask me to, with your own will."

"Why are you willing to help me?"

"Because you're interesting. Because you are you."

"What do you mean?"

"You guess~"

This conversation ended with the doctor pouting as he couldn't understand the last few sentences this bar owner was talking about. Their questions and answers ended at this point as the requested food by the doctor had been made.

The God of Void said, "Freshly made. Eat well~ do you want some soda with that?"

"I was a strawberry soda," answered Doctor Hei Yu.

Meanwhile, at a distance away from Captain Lou Ye, the other officer was watching, looking all dumbfounded. For some reason, no matter how much the unnamed officer is seeing, he couldn't believe that this man who looks like Xiu Xie is a completely different person from before.

From the face to his DNA, everything screams that he is the original bar owner.

The officer said, "This is truly weird, Captain. How come they look completely the same down to his DNA yet this one in front of him is no longer human?"

"Gods are whimsical. If they want to use something, they create or make use of something. It just happens that Lucifer's identity fits him well. It was lucky enough that we weren't his enemies. Having devils and demons targeting us is already too much for us," Captain Lou Ye said.

The officer finally shut up after finishing his notes and ate the snacks the two bartenders had served them. All of a sudden, a creature looked like a horse walking on a pair of feet like a human kicked the door of the bar entrance.

Zhi Yang and Zhi Yue stood before their masters and protected them. Captain Lou Ye also helps protect the other human officers with him. As for the God of Void and the doctor, they watch the figure with dull eyes as if not surprised.

{Kakaka~ damn humans! You killed my partner! How will you repay me? Maybe killing everyone here will be able to curb my anger,} said the horse-faced demon.

Zhi Yue said, "Another stupid demon. Why do they have to seek death like this?"

"They are no different than animals. What's surprising about it? They are animals," said Zhi Yang.

Zhi Yue observed the horseface demon, which was even next to him, making his lips twitch as he couldn't deny Zhi Yang's words.

"Indeed. It looks stupid," said Zhi Yue.

The words of Zhi Yue and Zhi Yang annoyed the demon. Among them, the only one terrified by the arrival of the demon is the unnamed officer who was hiding behind Captain Lou Ye.

The God of Void asked, "Do you want this as well?"

"No, I've lost interest in animal-shaped ones except for the heart and the brain; everything else is similar to the original organs of that animal. If it's a humanoid instead, I might get interested. But sending it to the state for an experiment can be exchanged with more equipment for my lab," said Doctor Hei Yue.

The God of Void said, "Yue, Yang, kill it. Don't dirty the interior of the bar too much with its blood."

"Yes, boss!" Zhi Yue and Zhi Yang said as they attacked the horse-faced demon with just the two of them.

The officer who was watching from a distance said with a trembling voice, "W-What are... they planning... to do? Are they trying to kill it on their own? That's insane!"

"They did ask for help. That means they can fight it on their own," Captain Lou Ye said.

"Are we really going to watch them fight it?" asked the human officer.

NEIGH~

The horseface demon shouted in rage after being mocked openly by the two systems.

{Who the hell are you calling a horseface!?! }

Zhi Yue said, "So, you are not getting angry for being called stupid?"

"Yue'er, go grab it by its neck; I'll break its legs," said Zhi Yang.

Zhi Yue said, "Roger that!" He immediately ran towards the horse demon fearless and jumped on its back, locking its neck with force.

The horse demon used its horse legs to kick onto the walls, creating small cracks and craters here and there. However, for some reason, the building walls aren't completely destroyed with holes.

Doctor Hei Yu noticed the changes in the bar walls and said, "You've done something to the walls of your bar."

"Enhance a bit. Anti-explosion, auto-repair, anti-holes, and auto-clean," said the God of Void.

The enhancement is totally what Doctor Hei Yu would like to do in his laboratory. His eyes sparkled at these words and said,

"I want it too!"

Chuckles~

"I lend you that couple to help you with your laboratory and protect you as well," said the God of Void. He was talking about Zhi Yue and Zhi Yang, who were playing with the horse demon, forcing it on four legs and riding it.

Woohoo~

"That looks fun."

Doctor Hei Yu suddenly felt interested in the scene of Zhi Yue playing and approached them.

"I want to ride it too! Me too!" Doctor Hei Yu said as he was helped by Zhi Yang, who placed him on the retrained horse demon being used as a toy by Zhi Yue.

Captain Lou Ye approached the bar counter where the bar owner was making some dessert snacks for the doctor while happily watching them play around with the horse demon.

Knock. Knock.

Captain Lou Ye asked, "Bar Owner, can I also ask a few questions?"

"My price is expensive," said the God of Void.

The human officer who was beside the captain said, "Hey! You can't ask a police captain for a bribe!"

He was speechless when he saw Captain Lou Ye pull a few photos from his jacket to the bar counter. These photos are just pictures of the doctor during his work, and all camera angles were great.

"Captain Lou Ye, are you sure you pulled the right thing? Is that the bribe?" The human officer asked.

The bar owner stared at the photos and said, "No repeats. Three questions."

"Fudge! It truly works!" whispered the human officer to himself.

The God of Void accepted the bribe from the police captain in exchange for the doctor's photos.

"Is there a demon in our station?" asked Captain Lou Ye.

The God of Void said, "No demon. Just a devil."

The human officer didn't accept that kind of response and shouted in disbelief.

"WHAT!? A DEVIL!?"

"Second question: Do you know who the devil is?"

"Of course! It's too obvious. It's that you humans that are too blind to his acts," said the God of Void.

The human officer suddenly butts in the conversation and asks, "Who is the traitor?"

"Can I take this as the third question?" asked the God of Void to the police captain.

Captain Lou Ye said, "Yes, please."

"It is someone very close to you~," said the God of Void. "Okay, all three questions are all. Thank you for your patronage."

NEIGHHHH!!

The horseface demon died after Zhi Yue accidentally struggled with it when the doctor tickled him from behind.

Oops!

Zhi Yue said, "Sorry, Horsie."

"It's dead. It can no longer hear you. Get down there. The corpse will be taken away by the humans," Zhi Yang said. "Doctor, please go down as well."

After the two men playing on the back of the horse demon, the police officers and soldiers who just finished the patrol had come to pick them up. They were a bit surprised that another demon's corpse was found dead.

When the officers asked if the bar owner killed it, the Police Captain responded,

"It's not the bar owner but his two bartenders."

"What!?"

"For real!?"

"They look like young adults!"

"Are they even humans?"

Doctor Hei Yu was with Zhi Yue and Zhi Yang. With him getting along with Zhi Yue and Zhi Yang watching over the two of them, they make such a great team.

Zhi Yue asked, "Doctor Hei, call us if you want to renovate your laboratory. We will give you a nice enchantment."

"Since the boss had spoken, it will be considered free. You may reach us anytime," said Zhi Yang.

Doctor Hei Yu said, "Of course. I will definitely call you as soon as tomorrow!"

A police officer called the doctor over, "Doctor Black, it's time to leave!"

"Yes, yes, coming~," said Doctor Hei as he bid farewell to the couple and the bar owner.

"See you tomorrow again, Xia~"

"Yeah, come over anytime," said the God of Void as he passed him a box of takeout sweets he just finished making. "Midnight snacks for you."

"Wow~ cheesecakes! Thank you so much. If you see a humanoid demon, can you catch it for me, Lucy?" asked the doctor.

The God of Void said, "Sure. If I found one, you should also be careful of those with white wings."

This warning meant that not all angels are good ones. There are evil ones like an angel of beauty, Archangel Jophiel, and Archangel Michael that might destroy the doctor once he finds him.
