Chapter 1581 21.38 Fifth Violet Star - A Warning?

The words of the bar owner linger not only in the ears of the doctor but to everyone who was there and heard his warning. Getting warned about angels was not nice to hear. After all, for humans, angels are God's people. They are embodiments of holiness and god itself.

Now someone is telling them to be careful of them, and this was a warning given to the doctor, which that man named Xia had personally given to him. It cannot be said to be the truth, but it also cannot be said to be a complete lie. After all, this man called Xia is only partial to Doctor Hei Yu.

This event was reported to the higher-ups, and another emergency meeting was made.

"Is he warning us about angels? Not just demons but also angels?"

Captain Lou Ye said, "Maybe the angels that were portrayed in the books were different from the real ones. Like how the demons we are seeing right now. Aren't these demons not completely the same as those in the pictures in the books?"

"Also, he told the doctor that there are no demons in this station. Only a devil."

Silence~

These revelations buried the room in silence. They now didn't know which is real and which is fake. Demons appeared before them, and thus they are real. Unfortunately, they are as ruthless and cruel as they remember, as well as more intelligent than they expected. Humans are almost powerless towards them.

Now even angels are mentioned. Are the angels not creatures of God? Are they not righteous or good at heart? Maybe they are. Friendly, good, and pure; however, they start to wonder how these creatures see humans.

If they look down on them and do not want to help them, what should they do? Thus, the faith of humans in these angels started to waver, and they became fearful of the unknowns.

"Devils? Are they the type that takes over the human body as their own? How to separate them from humans?"

"Holy water maybe? Is that what they are weak for?"

Captain Lou Ye said, "How about using an angel's feather to check? Devils are being made of pure darkness. Though we don't know how he was able to move that pair of angel's wings, would a white feather turn black when touched by a devil?"

"This is indeed a way to find the devil among us. However..."

The commander asked his subordinate to bring over a white feather, which was placed on the table surrounded by the people inside the conference room.

"Before this conversation continues, let's check if the devil is among us."

"Agreed."

"I also believe that's the right thing to do."

"Okay, let's just do it."

"How to do it, Captain Lou?" The commander asked.

Captain Lou Ye grabs the white feather with his hands and lets it stay on his palm, directly touching his skin.

He then responded, "Touch the feather for a few minutes. If it doesn't turn black, then one is a human."

He then passed the white feather to the old commander, who possessed the highest position in the room.

Captain Lou Ye said, "Your turn, Commander."

The old commander had no hesitation as he took the angel's feather from Captain Lou Ye. After waiting for a while, the feather remains white.

"Are you relieved now, Captain Lou?" The old commander asked.

Captain Lou apologized and said, "Yes. I apologize for my rudeness. It's just that I believe the devil will most likely choose a person in power to blend with us trying to control us from within. Commander is one of the greatest choices."

"You are indeed right." The commander said, "Apology accepted."

"This is an order. Everyone in this room must touch this feather and prove to us that you are humans!"

"Yes, commander."

While the other officers are trying to prove that they are humans, Captain Lou Ye also told the commander about the way to defeat the demons without sacrificing the lives of the police officers and soldiers.

The old commander exclaimed, "Are you saying that the bar owner told you how to kill demons?!"

"Yes. However, I do not think that those from above will like it though. This needs the usage of the angel's feather. One feather diluted in water can make it holy water. However, the effects are only for three days. It would become a disposable item to fight the demons."

This explanation from Captain Lou Ye had indeed made a frown appear on the commander's face. This is not because he felt that using the angel's feathers is a waste but because those above him will never allow such a thing.

The old commander said, "I will try my best to get as many feathers as possible. Tell that little madman to find a way to maximize the duration of the effects these angels have."

"I will tell him, but commander, you must prepare a reward for him for him to be interested," said Captain Lou Ye.

The commander thought for a moment and said, "How about using that half-human, half-fish demon the navy found as a reward? Since he is bored with animal-shaped demons, a half-humanoid might be more interesting to him."

"I shall pass the message to the doctor," Captain Lou Ye said.

"Commander, we are all negative

"That's good. Let's continue the meeting and plan how to discreetly test everyone in the station whether they are a devil or not," said the commander.

While the meeting is still ongoing in the police station's conference room, the doctor has returned to the clinic and is about to enjoy his cheesecakes.

All of a sudden the atmosphere around him had changed from an innocent lunatic to one with a more dangerous yet alluring presence. His silver eyes narrowed with a hint of smile at the corner of his lips as he slowly enjoyed the cheesecake on the table.

If there is someone else with him in the clinic, one would definitely notice the changes in the doctor's demeanor. Unlike his former self, who lacks noble demeanor, the current doctor is like an embodiment of the noble one.

The doctor mumbles, "Today's snacks are not bad. However... there is something dirty in this room."

At the corner of the doctor's laboratory, a small black snake that looks like a black mamba slithers in the dark corner of the room. If one looks at this black mamba closer, one can see its eyes glowing in a red shade.

As expected, the moment the door of the laboratory was pushed open, the waiting in dark, black mamba jumped out of the shadow, intending to bite the one who entered the room

However, before its poison fangs touch the white neck of the person who went inside, a silver flashes in the darkness, instantly stabbing the black mamba's weakness. The one that flew just now was a scalpel. It flew targeting the black mamba and now flew towards the wall, having it darted on the wall.

Once the lights were opened, the cold yet angelic face of Doctor Hei Yu appeared. A few scalpels were hanging pinched between his fingers, and his hand was covered with surgical gloves. He walks unhurried towards the black mamba, which was still alive after being stabbed at the inch where the snake heart is supposed to be located.

Doctor Hei Yu said, "Oh~ it's still alive. That's good. It will be a good toy for the other me~"

The strange black mamba was captured by the doctor and sealed in a glass bottle. The snake didn't dare to move under the gaze of those silver irises full of coldness and indifference.

The doctor pokes the glass as if poking the black mamba inside. He even said,

"This one is off limits~, little devil."

Meanwhile, in the heavens...

After the archangels had returned to the heavens, they thought that Archangel Michael would summon them for punishment. However, there is no such thing, and instead they were just asked to continue to live as they wished.

The heavens were run by Archangel Michael as before. It was just that this time, the other archangels that were supporting him had all stopped coming to his palace. The other archangels returned to their own palace, doing their part of duties.

Reports from the human world had come to them as well. It was reported that Lucifer's original pair of wings had been found in the human world and the police had taken possession of it. Because of the wings of an angel, creatures of hell started appearing in the human world.

Archangel Zadkiel, the angel of mercy and forgiveness, said, "Uriel, I want to descend to fight the demons!"

"I want to go as well!" said Archangel Gabriel, the messenger of God.

The angel of love, Archangel Samuel, said, "What are you guys going to do if Jophiel appears?"

"Fight?" Zadkiel and Gabriel said.

The angel of wisdom sighed and said, "Have you forgotten? He is no longer the Jophiel we know. What is inside him is a God as powerful or more powerful than our creator."

"Can you defeat him?" asked Archangel Samuel.

Thinking of how Satan and Archangel Jophiel fought against Archangel Michael and almost fought him toe to toe, Gabriel and Zadkiel knew they could not be compared at all and turned silent.

After finishing through his thoughts, Archangel Uriel said, "Let's inform Michael and ask Raphael to descend with us."

Confused, Archangel Gabriel asked, "Why Raphael? He can't fight that well."

"Do you really think so?" asked Archangel Uriel.

Chapter 1582 21.39 Fifth Violet Star - The Archangels Decision

The archangels were planning on descending however they couldn't decide whether to descend together or one at the time. They even wanted to invite the angel of cure, Archangel Raphael with them and since it was a suggestion of the angel of wisdom, Archangel Uriel all of them kind of believed him.

Almost everyone had questioned the capability of Archangel Raphael to fight yet in the words of the angel of wisdom, it seems that Archangel Raphael is kind of a fighter. The kind that wouldn't easily lose to fighting maniacs like Archangels Zadkiel.

Archangel Gabriel asked, "What do you mean by your words? Isn't Raphael incapable of fighting?"

"If that's what you thought? Go and ask him if he wanted to descend with us. It's better to have a healer than none at all if we are going to fight," said the angel of wisdom, Archangel Uriel.

The silly Archangel Gabriel didn't understand the hidden meaning in Uriel's words and like Archangel Zadkiel he is also out of the loop. Only Archangel Samuel turned muted not wanting to get involved in this conversation.

"Then I will ask Raphael now!"

But before Archangel Gabriel could fly away, Archangel Zadkiel grabbed him.

"What's wrong?" Asked Archangel Gabriel.

Archangel Zadkiel asked, "Aren't you afraid of Michael? Raphael is helping with his work. Are you going for sure?"

Archangel Gabriel looked terrified when he recalled the fact that Archangel Raphael was currently in the main cloud palace of Michael and was helping him with work and acting as the middleman between them and Archangel Michael.

"I suddenly don't want to go now," said Archangel Gabriel as his wings wilted before he could fly away.

Archangel Uriel said, "Don't worry. At this time, Michael should be away from his palace checking the situation of the borders. He is currently not in his palace. Go now before he comes back."

"Then I will be back!" said Archangel Gabriel as he happily flew away knowing that he wouldn't bump into Michael.

Archangel Samuel said, "Wasn't Michael's patrol yesterday?"

"Don't worry. I just wanted Gabriel to indirectly inform Michael about our plans and see how he would react," said Archangel Uriel.

Archangel Zadkiel said, "Uriel, you are such a bully. Gabriel will cry once he is back."

"He is silly. That's not my fault," said Archangel Uriel.

Meanwhile in the Palace of Clouds...

Archangel Gabriel shouted, "Raphael, Raphael let's descend to the human world. The humans are being attacked by... De...-mons. Why are... you..." His words become broken as he sees someone who shouldn't be here.

As happy Archangel Gabriel flew through the Palace of Clouds, the more he reacted the moment he saw Archangel Michael smiling at him.

Archangel Michael said, "This is my palace. Of course, I will be here. Did Uriel trip you up again?"

"Who plans to descend in the human world and why are the demon's attacking the humans?" Archangel Raphael asked.

Archangel Michael said, "Maybe because the human race got Lucille's wings before he became a fallen. I didn't expect it to attract the demons to the human world though. I was using it as bait to find someone."

The two archangels looked surprised by his words and couldn't believe that the chaos in the human realm was because of Archangel Michael.

Archangel Gabriel asked, "Do you no longer care about the humans anymore?"

"Oh~ as long as a pair of male and females exist among that race, they can propagate as much as they want. Who cares if a few of them die?" said Archangel Michael.

These words chills the being of Archangel Gabriel. Now he is sure that the Michael who was gentle and kind before was just a false figure. The real Michael might be worse than Lucifer. A cold-hearted one with no sympathy in his being.

Archangel Raphael asked, "Is it okay for us to descend and help the humans? You will not stop us?"

"No. Do as you wish. Why should I stop you for things you wanted to do?" said Archangel Michael.

The gloomy look of Archangel Gabriel fades and is replaced by confusion mixed with surprise. He didn't expect Michael to give them an answer like that. He might have changed to being nonchalant from overworking like before. His core seems to be still pure.

Archangel Gabriel asked, "Can we really go?"

"Of course. You're the one working your ass why should I stop you. Hehe~" replied Archangel Michael.

Archangel Gabriel said, "You..."

Hahaha~

Archangel Michael laughed at the childish reaction of Gabriel while Raphael was trying to stop him from coming over to complain.

Archangel Raphael said, "Then we are going now."

"Go. Come back later to continue your work," Archangel Michael said as he waves the two of them out of his palace.

As soon as the two disappeared, the friendly smile on Archangel Michael's face disappeared and only coldness was left behind.

Archangel Michael mumbles, "If I find him I should just kill him including his soul to get done with it. Getting involved with the man connected to the main soul is simply a bigger problem. With the subordinate of the main soul at my side, I cannot make any obvious moves. Tsk! So overprotective."

After rejoining with the rest, Archangel Gabriel and Archangel Raphael told the rest of the Archangels what happened in the Palace of Clouds, especially how Archangel Michael reacted to their plans to descend into the human world.

Before that topic continues, Archangel Gabriel grabs Archangel Uriel and starts complaining at him with bitter tears on his face.

"You lied! Liar! You said Michael will not be around. He was there! Alive and kicking seating on his throne nonchalantly. Boohoo~" complained Archangel Gabriel.

Archangel Uriel remained calm and composed at his brother's complaint and said, "Didn't you come back alive? Moreover, Raphael was there with you. How can Michael kill you? Silly~"

"It was scary but not at the same time. It seems that Michael truly changed, however he isn't completely cruel. He just became apathetic. So is that his real face?" Archangel Gabriel asked.

The Archangels turned silent at this question as no one knows how to properly answer it. It can be said that Michael no longer fits the purity angel possesses, he can curse out loud, say things that are full of indifference yet at the same time he doesn't kill them discriminately. It's just that he stopped caring not only towards the angels, but also towards the humans and the demons.

All together it can be said that nothing in this world interests him anymore which is why he is like a child throwing tantrums and acting like a villain.

Archangel Uriel said, "Maybe like you said he wasn't as bad as we thought. However, his indifference is what made his former self completely no longer exist."

"Moreover, he even said that he killed our Creator father in which I couldn't understand why he did such a thing. Is it for authority or something else? Also as we don't know the answer for this it will be hard to trust him again. At least, that's how I feel."

The other Archangels also understood Archangel Uriel's standing and at the same time, they are confused which place they should stand now as angels who not only lost their leader but also got their creator killed.

Archangel Raphael suggested, "How about focusing on what is happening in the human world first? Once that is done we can worry about the rest."

This suggestion was accepted by all archangels and they all made a decision to descend in the human world. Archangel Uriel was silently watching Archangel Raphael while the latter noticed him staring and gave him a gentle and healing smile.

In the end, all of them except Archangel Michael had descended to the human world. No one knows whether they will become the ally of the humans or just the enemy of those from hell.

As the Archangels descend to the human world being finalized, those in hell also hear about the existence of Lucifer's angel wings in the human world.

Satan (Gui Xiajun) sat on his throne listening to the demon's report about the happenings in the human world.

"Your Majesty! The angel wings of Lucifer with the humans. The feather on those wings can help not only evolve the demons but also the devils."

"Oh, so you guys are interested in going to the surface just because of bird feathers? Sigh~ fine. Do as you wish!" Satan said.

"Thank you, your majesty!" A lesser demon said.

Beside him, Archangel Jophiel (Hei'An) was trying to track where Devil Asmodeus (Lord Chaos) is. With three soul fragments with ego in this world, merging with one another is not impossible. It's just that once they merge one of them would disappear.

Satan asked, "Have you found him yet?"

"No. He is trying to hide in the space world. It can hardly track him as he can disappear to any timeline he wants to. There is also Michael who remains in the heavens fearless and proud as he is acting as the God and rules of this world." Archangel Jophiel said.

Satan said, "Your current vessel is an Archangel aren't you? Can you merge with the other archangels as your vessels came from the same origin."

"This is not a bad suggestion. It's worth a try," said Archangel Jophiel.

Satan said, "Shall we ascend to the human world then?"

Chapter 1583 21.40 Fifth Violet Star - Other Self

With both the angels and demons gathering in the human world, the human race didn't know what was about to come to them. Tonight they suffered some attacks from a lesser demon, which is weaker than the cow and horse demons before.

Even though this lesser demon is weaker, sacrifices from the human side cannot be prevented at all. A few soldiers and police officers died during the last attack. Even though they successfully killed this lesser demon, the dead won't return at all.

Meanwhile, in the police station's main clinic...

Doctor Hei Yu woke up with cream at the corner of his lips. Once he accidentally licked it, he recalled that Lucy, the bar owner of Purgatory, had given him some cheesecakes as a midnight snack. As soon as he remembered it, he looked around and saw a cake box with half of the cakes missing.

A note was placed not far from it saying,

{The cheesecake is great, especially the one with custard cream. Try it. I left half for you. Also, I caught you a new toy as a gift. However, if you want to dissect it, find the captain to help you restrain it.

Love, Another me.}

The doctor didn't seem to be surprised with this note and just held a fork to start eating the cheesecake.

He mumbles, "A gift? That's rare. He rarely comes out of the clinic."

After filling his stomach, he walks around the clinic and finds none of the said gifts. He went to his laboratory and found a glass bottle with black mamba in it. It's small and seems to be covered with black mist. What's surprising is its blood-colored eyes.

Doctor Hei Yu immediately became interested in this little mamba and was about to open the glass bottle when he recalled the note to call his captain for help with this little guy.

"Ah~ right! Call the captain first!" Doctor Hei Yu ran out of his laboratory to grab his captain, leaving the strange black mamba covered in a black mist.

After bringing Captain Lou Ye to the laboratory, Doctor Hei Yu showed off his newest toy. A black mamba that emits a dark aura that seems to be miasma.

Captain Lou Ye stares at the snake and says, "A hell snake?"

"You know what it is? That's good. Tell me everything you know about it. Then I can start dissecting it," Doctor Hei Yu said as he even carried a notebook and a pen with him.

The police captain, Lou Ye, didn't answer right away. Instead, he looked at the doctor and asked, "Doctor, can I ask who told you to find me?"

Doctor Hei Yu didn't hide anything and said, "It's my other self. You can call him my split personality. It's just that he is rarely awake. But when he does, he wouldn't sometimes eat my snacks or give me toys like this one. Is there something wrong?"

"I wonder if I can meet him?" asked the police captain, Lou Ye.

The doctor looked a bit unsure and said, "That might not be possible. I don't even know when he will come out. Moreover, I will always be asleep when he takes over."

"Okay. How long have you known he existed?" Captain Lou Ye asked.

Doctor Hei Yu asked, "Why are you so interested in my other self? Of course, he had always been with me. Aren't you going to help me with this investigation?"

"I will. The hell snakes are the kind that live in hell. They live in the dark area and feed on miasma and darkness. They are considered pets for those who live in hell. This little one might be someone's pet for hell. Most likely a devil. Do you still want to dissect it, doctor?" asked Captain Lou Ye.

Doctor Hei Yu unhesitatingly nodded his head and said, "Of course. Isn't it interesting to dissect something natural from hell? Something different from demons."

"Okay. What do you want me to do?" asked Captain Lou Ye.

Doctor Hei Yu asked, "Is it possible to place it on my dissecting table without dying? I also don't want to get poisoned."

Captain Lou Ye did not speak a word in response; instead, he opened the glass bottle and grabbed the demon black mamba. It tried to bite him as soon as he reached his hand out. But who would have thought it would suddenly stop moving the moment it met the police captain's eyes?

As if it met its nemesis, it froze stiff and didn't dare to move. Captain Lou Ye placed it on the dissecting table in front of the doctor wearing a gas mask.

Captain Lou Ye asked, "Do you want me to stretch it straight?"

"Yes, do it like a noodle!" Doctor Hei Yu said happily.

Captain Lou Ye did as he was asked and held the head and tail, both ends, and pulled it into a straight line before securing it on the table with wind no ordinary person could see.

"Go ahead," the police captain said.

The crazy doctor happily dissected the black mamba alive. He first pulled out its fangs and saved the poison. The moment his scalpel touched the snake's body, the black mist tried to corrode his knife, but an invisible wind prevented it from touching the scalpel even after it was used to slit a cut on it.

SHHAAAA~

The black mamba screams with an unknown sound. The owner of the snake, the devil of envy, Leviathan, was screaming as he felt the knife wound spread on his face. It seems that the other self of the doctor had done something to that snake and made sure that no matter what Doctor Hei Yu did on it would be felt by its own as punishment for sneaking in his place.

AAAHHH~

Leviathan screamed with his face scarred with a fresh wound and was even currently bleeding. Even he couldn't understand why that was happening to him.

"Who the hell is doing this!? How can I be affected by a mere pet!? Who is doing this to me?"

"My face! My beautiful face!!! Argh~"

"I will kill whoever did this!? I will kill!"

One of his eyes suddenly popped out of his eye. Leviathan had no other choice but to synchronize his sight with his pet and was stunned to see that mad doctor holding a scalpel and his eye, on the other hand, laughing so happily.

Doctor Hei Yu chuckled and said, "This eye is gorgeous. How can it be redder than ruby? This is quite a find. The fangs are also exquisite."

"Doctor, don't accidentally touch those things directly. Also, change your gloves now. I think it's melting," Captain Lou Ye suggested.

The chief gardener glanced at the snake when it felt like the soul of the snake shifted. Unfortunately, the soul inside this police captain is an emotionless chief warden. The moment he felt the soul shift, he suggested,

"How about taking out the other eye? That way it will be a pair," the police captain said.

Doctor Hei Yu said, "Oh, you're right!"

Then, under the immense pain, Devil Leviathan loses his sense of sight, and the pain elevates his connection to his pet. Only when his pet dies in pain does he wake up in his real body.

ARGH!!!

Trails of blood and blurred sight welcomed him as he opened his eyes; the pain of the wound on his face tingled as he breathed or moved his mouth or nose as it pulled the wound whenever he tried to move it.

"Damn, madman! I'm going to kill you! Kill you!!!" shouted Leviathan as the reflection of his face with a huge scar on his face. He almost couldn't accept this kind of ending for his face.

Back to the laboratory...

Only when two of the snake's eyes were removed did it take its last breath. The moment it dies, its corpse turns mushy like a gathering of black mist. What made it worse is that this black mist is simply corrosive.

Doctor Hei Yu said, "Ah? Did it die? I've just removed its eyes."

"It's a vulnerable type of pet whose eyes can be connected and shared with its owner. Its owner might have forcibly cut off their connection, and the black snake suffered from the backlash," Captain Lou Ye explained.

Doctor Hei Yu asked, "Doesn't that mean its owner had just suffered greatly for what I've just done?"

"Dealt a nice punishment to its owner," said Captain Lou Ye. "Its owner was definitely not human, so it should be alright."

"How sad. This thing doesn't even have organs. It's made of that black mist. The greatest part of it was its eyes. It is like gems," commented Doctor Hei Yu. He didn't even know that he had offended the devil.

Captain Lou Ye said, "Orders from above. The doctor must find a way to lengthen the effects of the angel's feather to be used as a weapon against the demons."

"Mission accepted," said Doctor Hei Yu.

A new verdict from the higher-ups was given. A whole half wing of Lucifer's angel wings was provided to the station. Under the commander's command, Doctor Hei Yu had experimented with the effects of it. It was done in a whole week from the initial three days duration of effect; he had successfully extended its effects to a whole month.

Chapter 1584 21.41 Fifth Violet Star - Offending the Bar Owner.

With the effects of the angel's feather helping the humans to fight against the demons attacking them, the human race had successfully survived to last for three whole months.

Thanks to the knowledge the bar owner had given to them, the commander personally went to purgatory to give his thanks. The old commander lowered his head towards the indifferent bar owner who was making crepes as breakfast for the doctor.

"Thank you for giving us knowledge on how to fight against the demons. We truly are thankful for that information, and thanks to it, we had a lesser death count as expected."

"Have you caught the devil on your side yet? Let me give you a warning. A devil that is an embodiment of envy will do everything to destroy its target in the worst way possible," said the God of Void.

An eerie silence fell in the area, making the old commander exchange eyes with Captain Lou Ye and the others. They knew that this bar owner was giving them a warning about the hidden danger—only the devil hidden in their station.

On the other hand, the God of Void frowned, seeing that the bad luck around the doctor had unexpectedly thickened.

He asked, "Doctor, what have you recently done?"

"I did do something strange. I've only done experiments and more experiments in this past month," answered Doctor Hei Yu while enjoying the strawberry chocolate creamed crepe on his plate.

The God of Void did believe him and moved his gaze to Captain Lou Ye, who is in the station and most likely to protect this silly quack while being away from him.

"He caught someone else's pet, a hell snake, and dissected it," answered Captain Lou Ye.

The doctor recalled that snake with gorgeous deep red eyes and made an earring out of it. He gave it to the bar owner as a gift.

Doctor Hei Yu said, "That's right! That's the snake with beautiful eyes. I made an earring out of it. Here you go! It's my gift!"

He happily placed the crimson earrings polished to gain the shape of a full circle. One can even see the traces of the snake's vertical eyes despite it being small. The God of Void picked up the earrings, and black mist surrounded them.

This sudden black mist looks similar to the ones the demons have, yet at the same time more dangerous than it. The humans in the area thought that this bar owner would finally make a move against them. But once the black mist disappeared, the earring, which was simply a stone, became a living snake eye.

The God of Void placed one of them on his own and the other on the doctor's ears.

"Keep it with you at all times. That way I will know if you are in danger or not. This snake used to be a devil's pet; however, it wouldn't betray you now because I told it so. It will help you find its original owner," said the bar owner.

The doctor doesn't seem interested in it and just says 'Oh' before he continues eating. He didn't notice that the old commander and the rest of the hand around them almost jumped on the doctor, wanting to borrow such a useful artifact.

The bar owner said, "It only listens to him, and thus borrowing it is useless. Don't get bitten. It used to be a black mamba, wasn't it?"

The old commander and the other superiors who were there heard the bar owner's words. It seems that taking something from the doctor that came from this man is practically impossible unless they want to die or offend this unknown being.

The bar owner added, "By the way, the archangels are about to descend and at the same time, the high demons from hell are about to surface as well. Try to survive~"

Some top officials wanted to ask more but were stopped by the old commander's gesture. They didn't know the extent of this man's power. However, there were some officers who were used to being above the others who couldn't accept the way the bar owner used against them.

"Watch your words!"

Even if they offended their commander, they wouldn't allow this bar owner to look down on them this way.

Bang!

They've used their gun loaded with blessed bullets on the bar owner before the old commander can stop them.

The old commander shouted, "What the hell are you doing?" However, his words were ignored.

"Who the hell are you to tell us that!?"

"We will definitely survive. There is no need for a bastard..."

Poofed!

The talking officials turned into a blood mist without others knowing what was happening. They just exploded into a blood mist; blood even splashed on the old commander and the other people in the area.

AAAH!!!

When they looked at the bar owner, they saw that all the bullets that they fired towards the bar counter had halted in the air as if a barrier was placed around the area where the bar owner and the doctor were.

Captain Lou Ye exclaimed, "Stop talking nonsense! Don't scream!"

Immediately the fearful screams halted as they covered their comrades' mouths and then watched as the bar cleaned the pool of blood and corpses in the bar. Zhi Yue and Zhi Yang were mopping it without caring about it being dead human or human blood.

Zhi Yue complained, "Idiots, stop making the lord angry so early in the morning. It's annoying to clean human blood, you know."

"Yue'er, I will burn the bodies. Get the vacuum cleaner," said Zhi Yang with a golden red fire on his hand.

With a snap of his fingers, all the dead bodies on the ground turned to ashes under everyone's eyes. Though its effects are not instant as the hell flames, it can still burn a human body into a pile of ashes.

Vroom~

This is the sound of the vacuum cleaner echoing in the bar. The old commands look at the nonchalant bar owner, who was covering the eyes of the doctor with a dotting gaze. Even ignoring the others in the area, only when all the corpses and the blood were cleaned up did he stop covering the doctor's eyes.

The God of Void said, "You might have forgotten. I was never on your side. So don't talk to me as if we are equal, Ants."

Argh~

The last word allowed all the humans in the area to see how heavy the murderous aura of the man they knew was not human; neither was an angel nor a devil. He is a God.

Captain Lou Ye raised his hand in surrender and said, "We apologize. It will not happen again."

"Lucy, don't overdo it," Doctor Hei Yu said.

Only when the doctor speaks for the other side does the God of Void spared them

The God of Void said, "Out!"

With these single words, except for the doctor, the old commander, Captain Lou Ye, and the other senior officials were thrown out of the bar. They just blink once and find that they are already outside the bar, leaving the other bewildered.

The old commander was stunned, yet only for a second. He turned around and scolded the others. As for those who said too much, they had indeed become a pile of ashes that was vacuumed like dust and dirt.

"Didn't I warn you not to antagonize him!?" The old commander said.

The senior officials and other captains lowered their heads. Like those who had died, they had the same thoughts. They couldn't stand how the bar owner with an unknown identity treated them. It is just that they kicked an iron plate this time, as the blessed bullets they are so proud of are useless against gods like the God of Void.

Captain Lou Ye said, "Commander, it seems impossible to ask this man's help next time because of this."

Sigh~

The old commander felt the fatigue of having foolish soldiers on his side. He couldn't help but mumble, "I shouldn't have brought them here with me. Now we have lost the only mercy God has given to us."

The senior officials with him can only keep their heads lowered in shame and regret.

"Next time we can only fight on our own. Go back to the station," the old commander said as he took the lead to leave the place.

After all, they no longer have the face to ask for advice from the bar owner who had been helping them all this time. Humans at the peak of their pride are nothing but foolish idiots.

At the station that night, under the command of the old commander, they had gathered in the hallway. The soldiers and police officers did not know what was happening. But they can only follow the commands of the man with the highest authority in the station.

At the control center, the old commander and the other senior officials who were cleared of being possessed by the devil were now implementing the plan to find the devil among them.

The old commander looked at Captain Lou Ye and gave him a nod. It's a gesture to implement the plan.

"Do it!" said Captain Lou Ye.

Chapter 1585 21.42 Fifth Violet Star - Leviathan

"Do it."

Captain Lou Ye commanded. At the control room, the officers cleared from being the devil as they were ordered and turned on the emergency sprinklers all over the building. The sprinkler deposits were made of holy water. If it's a human this holy water has no effect on them except receiving blessings. However, for demons and devils, this is no worse than punishment.

There are some among the people in the station who cried out in pain and started smoking as if they were burning alive. These are some humans affected by miasma. They might be in pain because of the holy water but it will cleanse the filth within them.

The people in the control room already know the existence of contamination from a long time of fighting against the demons. Demon miasma will sometimes linger in the body of the human slowly corrupting them from within.

The old commander frowned and said, "I didn't expect that a lot of our people were contaminated with miasma. It's a good thing we did this kind of purification method. Have you found the devil?"

"Not yet sir!" Captain Lou Ye answered.

The old commander said, "Keep looking for it. We can't let it escape! Check all monitors. We placed all the cameras in all the rooms for this reason!"

Everyone in the control room noticed that the camera in the clinic was suddenly destroyed. They saw Doctor Hei Yu doing his experiment in his laboratory so it cannot be him who destroyed the hidden camera.

"Reporting! The camera in the main clinic had been destroyed by somebody!"

The old commander said, "What the hell are you still doing? Save the doctor! If something happens to him we are all done for!"

Captain Lou Ye didn't even need the old commander's command as he immediately left the control room the moment he saw that the camera in the main clinic could not be seen. He ignores the fact that his cover will be blown over. His priority was to keep the Doctor safe.

Inside the clinic, Doctor Hei Yu was busy doing his experiments. This time he was trying to not only extend the duration of the angel feather blessings but also enhance its effect. He heard from Lucifer that prayers are capable of making the blessings powerful, however there is another way, that is to try blood sacrifice.

This way is unorthodox, as long as it didn't go beyond the threshold, it won't be considered unethical. After all, shamans and witches all do such a thing for their rituals.

He made a small cut on his finger and was about to use his blood when suddenly he heard something breaking outside his laboratory.

Crash!

"What the hell...? Did I just hear something broken?" mumbles Doctor Hei Yu.

His laboratory is supposed to isolate sound but he can still hear what is happening outside. The doctor forgot about the cut on his finger and removed the sound isolation headphones on his head. He didn't know if he was hearing things.

His blood accident landed on the red crimson eyes on his left ear. Unknown to him, the red orb hanging in his ears is like a summoning portal. The ruins placed by the God of Void had the effects of summoning. The vertical eyes blinked as if something was peeking at it.

Doctor Hei removed his headphones and was about to head out of his laboratory and was stunned to see his clinic devoid of lights. He doesn't remember turning off the lights on that side. This strange phenomenon made the doctor hesitate to come out of his laboratory.

At the very least, the glass walls of his laboratory can bear the impacts of explosion and destruction thanks to the ruins Zhi Yue and Zhi Yang made the last time they went there. Those two actually helped him not only renovate his laboratory but also make it sturdy.

Doctor Hei Yu crossed his arms in front of his chest and said, "You must think that I am a fool. No matter who you are, what can you do to me if I don't want to come out of here."

The taunting words of the doctor made the one hiding in the dark show itself. It was Vice Captain Lev, the only man who is the most authorized after Captain Lou Ye.

Vice Captain Lev said, "Doctor, I accidentally burned myself on my back during the last mission. Can you please treat it?"

Doctor Hei Yu looked at the Vice Captain beyond the laboratory's glass walls and said, "You don't think I am an idiot, don't you? Obviously, that burn is from you getting bathed with holy water, Mr. Devil."

The vice-captain stopped pretending to be human and asked the doctor, "Since when have you known, doctor?"

"Ever since you tried to harm me that one time by sneaking behind me. You are a devil, aren't you? Your name?" asked Doctor Hei Yu.

The vice-captain said, "Leviathan, the devil of envy."

"So, Leviathan, why are you targeting me?" asked the doctor.

Leviathan answered, "Nothing personal. I found you a bit annoying. You also killed my pet. The captain is always on your side and we always have to pick you up just because you don't arrive at work in time. How come you have so many people surrounding you? How are you different from me? Just because you're a genius doctor?"

"Woow~ calm down there. For nothing personal, you've listed quite a lot of things there. However, that might be true. But isn't that normal? I'm a genius under the police record. The reason the police are always on me is because they are afraid of me becoming the next Frankenstein." Doctor Hei Yu said.

Leviathan said, "You feel so proud ha!"

BAM!

"Come out there! Let me crush you like a little insect!" shouted Leviathan while banging on the laboratory's glass window.

BAM! BAM!

CRACKS~

The doctor watches calmly as the glass wall cracks under the devil's action. Even so, for some reason, he was so calm that even Leviathan suddenly stopped banging on the glass wall.

Doctor Hei Yu asked, "Hm? You've stopped. What's wrong?"

"You... Who the hell is protecting you? The last time I tried to kill you darkness came out from you and protected you from me. Do you have another devil protecting you? Only a devil no I only know one being who had that much darkness in him. You are Lucifer's person aren't you?" Leviathan asked.

Doctor Hei Yu looked bewildered and asked, "Can this Lucifer change his wings from white to black one? That the kind of person who is protecting me."

"The power of sacredness and power of evil? On one person? Is that even possible? No... That might be possible only a God can do so..." Leviathan mumbles as he suddenly punches the glass wall which finally collapses.

Crackles~

Leviathan said, "Hi doctor! And goodbye~"

A wave of black snakes similar to the one Doctor Hei Yu recently dissected crawls towards him wanting to overwhelm him and get him killed.

Leviathan was smiling as he was about to watch the doctor. He hates being killed by his snake but is stunned to see what suddenly appears behind the doctor. Without the doctor noticing the red orb earring on his left ear had opened a large summoning portal from behind him.

A huge black dragon head peeks out glaring at Leviathan. This dragon's head is five times larger than Leviathan's original shape. Just the nose of this dragon alone was larger than the whole whole they are into.

ROARS~

Leviathan exclaims, "What the hell!? Urgh!"

The huge black dragon destroyed the whole clinic and flew towards Leviathan with its mouth open trying to eat him whole. Leviathan to prevent himself from getting eaten alive had to turn to boost his human body and stop the huge mouth trying to bite him.

The whole police station was shocked to see something huge and black flying out of the station, even destroying the walls of the building like a bulldozer passing through.

The old commander and the other officers and military were shocked to see what this huge thing was.

"A black... Dragon!?"

Captain Lou Ye recognized who the black dragon was. It was ROI. The soul contracted the beast god of his lord. It's a Dragon God King. Seeing it wrap its tail around Doctor Hei Yu in protection and his vice-captain in its mouth he realizes what happened.

He mumbles, "The devil is actually my vice-captain!"

ROAAAR~

The howl of the huge dragon was heard in the whole city. What left the police and military dumbfounded was that this dragon was actually attacking Vice Captain Lev and seemed to be protecting Doctor Hei Yu.

"What the hell!? It's a dragon!"

"Damn! It's so big!"

"Is that the doctor on its tail? Did he get caught or what?"

"Look at Vice-captain Lev, is he still alive?"

"So, should we attack the dragon or not?"

Captain Lou Ye, who grabbed a megaphone somewhere, shouted to everyone in the vicinity.

"Don't attack the dragon! Don't antagonize him!!!"

The old commander arrived and approached Captain Lou Ye and asked,

"Don't you know what you are saying? If we don't attack it, how can we save the doctor and your vice-captain?"

Captain Lou Ye said, "Commander, look at Vice Captain Lev properly."

"What are you trying to say..." The old commander was shocked as Vice Captain Lev turned into a snake uglier than the majestic-looking dragon. It's a bit smaller compared to the dragon but it's more poisonous than it.

The black dragon tried to bite the snake but it escaped from its mouth. He was angry that its prey had escaped.

ROOAAR~

Chapter 1586 21.43 Fifth Violet Star - Satan and the Demons.

The sudden existence of the black dragon left both humans and demons speechless. This kind of thing isn't supposed to exist in this world. As expected, the rules of the world tried to reject it. Unfortunately, lightning tribulations were nothing but food for this black dragon, Roi.

Rumbles~

The black dragon, Roi, watches the lightning strike on the ground. It would only need everything that was coming his way. After the rules of the world failed to shoot down Roi, the dark sky faded.

ROARS~

With the appearance of the black dragon, this huge, ugly snake, which is Leviathan's real form, was no longer scary, and they thought. After all, comparing a snake to a dragon was never a comparison.

SHAAA~

{I've never expected for a dragon to appear at this point. It was a creature not from this world and was summoned somewhere else. Not even Lucifer was capable of such a thing.}

The humans, Devil Leviathan and his minions, as well as the black dragon, Roi, had gathered outside the slightly ruined police station. Roi, the black dragon, had carefully protected Doctor Hei Yue as if he were his priority.

Doctor Hei Yu asked, "Hey, little dragon! Did Lucy ask you to come over?"

The black dragon looked at the doctor and saw a vivid expression of bewilderment on its face. It can clearly understand his words yet seems to be confused about who this Lucy is.

Captain Lou Ye said, "He doesn't seem to know the alias of Xiu Xie. Tell him that name he told you to call him!"

"Is your master someone called Xia?" asked the doctor to the black dragon.

Hearing the name Xia made the black dragon nod its head happily, then they heard it speak even using human language.

{Xia? Yes, that's my master's name. The master said to protect you. Roi will protect you!}

At this point, Devil Leviathan was surprised. Dragons are mythical creatures. Because of that fact, they can hardly exist in the lowered realm world, much less in a broken one such as this star.

Now that not only did a real dragon was summoned, but it could even speak. Then it must have possessed a strength similar to that of a god.

The old commander said to Doctor Hei Yu, "As if why he appeared all of a sudden, Doctor?!"

Doctor Hei Yu did as he was asked by his superior and asked Roi, "Little Roi, why have you suddenly appeared in our world?"

{But aren't you in danger? I've sensed someone's murderous intent on you and come out as Master's command. He said not to allow you to get hurt. The chief warden is busy with his own role after all and cannot be with you all the time.}

The black dragon, Roi answered. His voice once again resounds directly in their heads.

The old commander frowned and asked, "Chief Warden? Is there another one we do not know about? An existence different from an angel or a demon?"

All of a sudden some police officers and soldiers came out of the half-destroyed station wounded.

"Commander! He... vice captain Lev is not human, and... he stole the angel feathers!!!"

Devil Leviathan chuckled and said, {Damn, humans. I wonder how you will be able to fight without any source of angel feather on your side! Hahaha~}

Ugh!

Suddenly some police officers and soldiers started falling on the ground powerless. Upon closer look, they saw that these police captains and soldiers were covered in snake bites, and some of them had started foaming in their mouths and fell to the ground, suffering from seizures.

Captain Lou Ye immediately checked on their fallen comrades and said, "They are poisoned. It must be snake venom and various kinds as well!"

"Someone take all my anti-venom serum in the clinic!" Recalling that his clinic was almost destroyed when the black dragon appeared, Doctor Hei Yu immediately added, "Contact the nearby hospitals and gather all kinds of anti-venom. No time to waste if they would all die from it!"

{Isn't the anti-venom made from snakes? Doctor, do you want me to catch that big one?} The black dragon, Roi, asked.

Doctor Hei Yu asked, "Little Roi, can you capture him alive?"

{He might escape if I only try to catch him. Is he barely alive, alright?} Roi asked.

Doctor Hei Yu said, "As long as he has one breath to spare, you can do as you want."

{Your wish is my command!} The black dragon carefully placed the doctor wrapped in his tail near the Chief Warden and immediately attacked Devil Leviathan.

Leviathan shouted, {Don't look down on me!!!}

The devil of envy, Leviathan's face, turned ugly when it heard the words of the dragon looking down on him. However, it cannot be denied that he is indeed lower level compared to a dragon that at least possessed the strength of the lesser god.

The clash of a dragon and a huge snake caused the area near the station to be demolished by the fight between these two figures. Their size alone was enough to destroy the whole city. It was two Godzilla-like creatures fighting for supremacy.

Devil Leviathan ordered his hell snake minions to attack the humans while he was fighting against this black dragon. The station was now surrounded by hell snakes preying on all humans in the vicinity.

Thankfully, they still had some blessed bullets in the warehouse and the blessed pool under the station, and they could only pray that it wasn't filled up by rocks after half the station was destroyed. However, these resources had limitations.

All of a sudden someone noticed that the moon above their heads had suddenly turned bloody crimson. As if the moon itself was dyed in blood, the whole atmosphere in the city had turned creepy.

A soldier pointed out the sudden changes in the moon.

"Ah! Look at the moon! It turned red like blood!"

"Oh my god! This is too eerie.

"Is it the end of the world?"

"Wait, something is flying over to our side!

"What the hell are those!?"

As those flying creatures got closer, some of them recognized that they were humanoid demons. Moreover, what the humans didn't want to happen the most had become reality. Satan had ascended to the human world himself.

Satan noticed the black dragon and recognized that it was a beast god connected to his elder brother. Moreover, he also noticed the existence of the Chief Warden, who was closely protecting a human behind him.

Gui Xiajun (Satan) spoke, "My, my, something that isn't supposed to be here is here, and... My brother's confidant is also here. Doesn't that mean my brother had longed to descend in this world?"

Archangel Jophiel also noticed the human being hidden by a human whose soul doesn't match what was inside and narrowed his eyes. He can't feel any similar or familiar power coming from that human doctor. However, if a person connected to the God of Void is protecting him, it means that he was tasked by that person to protect this mortal.

The angel of beauty mumbles, "This human is... under the protection of that man? Hm? Silver eyes..."

Archangel Jophiel noticed that Doctor Hei Yu's eyes had the same shade of silver as his and Archangel Michael's. Because of this single feature, he had a feeling that this human had a connection to the God of Destruction. He might be a soul fragment of that person. Maybe its because their eyes are similar, that Archangel Jophiel (Hei'An) felt this way.

The angel of beauty said, "This is quite a great find."

Seeing that there is a possibility that he can increase his strength, Archangel Jophiel becomes interested in Doctor Hei Yu.

He said to Satan, "I want that one. Don't kill it."

"That might be quite a tall order. Don't you see my brother's mount and his subordinate? Those two signed a soul contract with him unless he dies, which is now close to impossible as the soul of the God of Void is now connected to an immortal like the God of Destruction," Satan said.

Archangel Jophiel said, "I don't care. You give him to me!"

Sigh~

"Did I pamper you too much? Okay, I will try my best," said Satan.

Satan looked down on the humans under him and even at the black dragon and Devil Leviathan fighting not far from them. The humans noticed them as they recognized them as demons and devils.

Gui Xiajun grumbles, "Looking at people at this height makes me see all those under my gaze no different than trash."

The humans under Satan's gaze reacted:

"Are they all demons? How come they look very similar to humans!?"

"Humanoid demons or devils. They might be high-ranking devils!!"

"Who the hell is that at the lead? An angel? No, it's a black feathered wing. He might be Lucifer. The King of Hell, Satan!"

The devil of envy was stunned to see a powerful demon that wasn't the king he remembered but called himself Satan. Devils are sensitive to souls. After all, they needed to find a pure soul to corrupt.

HISS~

{Who the hell are you? Why do you look like the king, but the soul is completely different!!? } Leviathan shouted.

Chapter 1587 21.44 Fifth Violet Star - Archangel Jophiel and Doctor Hei Yu

The exclamation of the devil of envy made the human even more worried. They were already in despair, knowing that the demons and devils from hell had all ascended for the sake of Lucifer's wings in their possession. Only if they knew from the beginning that those pairs of wings would cause this chaos would they have destroyed it on the spot.

Now they had to suffer from the choice they made. The creatures of hell have all ascended from below and are coming for something that isn't supposed to appear in this world.

The old commander noticed the situation at the side where the police Captain Lou Ye and Doctor Hei Yu were located. They are clearly being targeted by that one called Satan and a man who looks like an angel with that pair of white wings yet is on the side of evil.

"Why are they targeting the doctor?" The old commander mumbles.

Meanwhile, the humanoid demons are staring at the humans like prey for a hint. They were all giggling and laughing as they watched the humans on the ground looking up at them with fear in their eyes.

Fear is one of the sources of strength devils and demons get from these mortals. The more terrified the humans are, the more their strength increases.

{Haha~ so much livestock!}

{We are indeed in luck!}

{These useless things are using the former archangel Lucifer's wings to fight against us!}

{The gall! Wasting such a rare resource!}

{It is better to give that wing to us!!}

{No, we will take it by force!}

The demon started descending from the sky and attacking the humans on the ground. Under the command of the old commander, they brought out their blessed weapons to shoot down these devils. The blessed bullets are still quite effective even for these high-ranked demons and devils.

Unfortunately, they couldn't instantly kill their targets as the physique of higher-tier devils and demons was stronger than the lesser demons that had been attacking the humans. It didn't take long for the humans to hardly protect themselves and if not for the black dragon lessening the burden brought by these humanoid demons and devils, they would have long been defeated.

The death count of the soldiers and police officers started to increase as more demons attacked them collectively. The human race can barely protect themselves.

"Commander, this is impossible to continue. Let's just give up the angel feathers!"

"That's right, commander! It is better to be alive than dead!"

"Fools! If we give it away the only thing that can protect us will be gone and we will be vulnerable!"
Rebuked the old commander.

Before the other humans can decide, the demons and devil take this as an opportunity to finish them off. All of a sudden before the demons could exterminate the humans, the Archangels had descended. Followed after them is a pillar of golden light that fell above the suffering humans on the land.

The humans were all amazed by this scene and looked up to find the reason for this healing pillar the angels they saw for the first time.

The old commander mumbles, "Angels? As expected, they truly exist."

Under this golden light, the injuries of the mortals started to heal fast, and they could once again contend against the evil that was trying to wipe them out of the face of the world.

Archangel Zadkiel shouted, "Demons! Who allowed you to ascend in the human world and create chaos!?"

"Breaking the treaty of the heavens and hell. Do you want to start another war?" Archangel Uriel asked.

Upon the descent of the Archangels are ordinary angels under them. They are enough against these humanoid demons. As for the Archangels, they had surrounded Satan and the traitor of the heavens, Archangel Jophiel.

"Traitor! How can you help Satan!?" bellowed Archangel Gabriel.

Sadly, the angel of beauty in front of him is no longer the original angel that is pure and born from this star. Instead, its soul was replaced, and another outsider was using its body to cause the star to be in chaos.

Archangel Jophiel looked at the archangels disdainfully. In his eyes, the aborigines of this world are far too weak compared to him. It's just that the leader of these angels happens to be someone who can contend against him.

"This is the first time an ant dares to voice a complaint. It's better to kill you all and get done with it. Maybe Michael will once again descend into the human world," said Archangel Jophiel.

Under everyone's gaze, his white wings and golden irises were tainted with the darkness. White feather wings to black feather wings signifying that this former angel had now fallen and was now completely on the side of evil.

A black mist comes out from him covering the city with it. Humans were easily affected and they started suffering from it. As if they were poisoned, they started falling on the ground wriggling in pain.

Black veins become visible in their skins their pupils slowly are eroded with darkness and their eyes turn crimson like the other demons. Then losing their insanity attacking the other humans. Hell had descended in the human world.

What the angel race had feared had become reality. The human race is vulnerable to demonic miasma. It is easy for them to get affected. The first effect of humans was being insane and attacking people indiscriminately. That is what is currently happening at this moment.

Because of this situation, the battle between angels and demons becomes unavoidable. They started fighting without any care for the destruction of the human world.

The old commander and other leaders of the human race watch as the two mythical creatures, angels and demons, fight one another without caring for the weaker race like the humans. In their despair, they had become suicidal.

Under the command of the leader of the human race, the commands released all deadly weapons the humans have. They no longer care about their safety.

The old commander, who was currently having a conversation with the leader of the human race.

{Commander Shun, you have done well all this time. Thanks for all your hard work. Yours and everyone's sacrifice will never be forgotten!}

The old commander finally lost all his respect for the current leader of their race and cursed him to his face. This leader even plans to bomb the city they are in. They wanted to kill both the demons, angels, and humans in this city all together.

[Fuck you! A useless figurehead of this shitty country wanted to sacrifice the living humans in this city! Just because you can't kill these demons and angels altogether, you wanted to use the strongest weapon that we have? This is simply insane!]

The old commander bellowed, and his anger was out of control. No one knew if their old commander noticed that their city was given up because of these mythical creatures. Did this leader of the country not know that this kind of ending will also become theirs in the end?

However, the leaders of the human race had decided. They choose to sacrifice this city to buy them some time to fight against these mythical creatures. They used nuclear bombs on them.

The president said, {Good work and goodbye, Commander Shun! }

Under the glistening light falling from above their heads, everyone is the most lethal weapon of the human race. The Nuclear bomb can instantly destroy a small country and allow it to disappear from this world.

Somewhere within the city, where the Bar Purgatory was located, Zhi Yue who was grilling some beef over fire noticed the falling nuclear weapon above the city. He didn't look terrified yet still reported to his lord.

Zhi Yue shouted from the veranda, "My lord, someone from this world had used a nuclear weapon on this city?"

"Should we intercept it?" asked Zhi Yang.

The God of Void, who was watching the evening sky, saw the distance where Doctor Hei Yu is being targeted by Hei'An after learning that he is his wife's soul fragment and not an alter ego like him and Archangel Michael.

"No need. I will go myself," said the God of Void as he disappeared on the veranda of his suite floor.

Back at the police station, Doctor Hei Yu under the protection of Captain Lou Ye noticed the incoming nuclear bomb above their heads.

Doctor Hei Yu cursed, "Fuck me! The country had become brainless! Do they think this nuclear weapon can kill mythical creatures like angels and demons?"

"They cannot be killed, but humans like you will definitely suffer~. How about trying to merge with me? I will be completely gentle," said Archangel Jophiel (Hei'An).

Doctor Hei Yu looked at Archangel Jophiel as if staring at a brainless fool and retorted, "It's better to die from the bomb that gets merged with you! I feel so disgusted just seeing you. Fuck off!"

The crude words of Doctor Hei Yu annoyed Archangel Jophiel. No one had looked down on him like this. Moreover, it's a weakling that didn't even have any power to protect himself from the nuclear weapon.

Archangel Jophiel (Hei'An) with an emotionless face said to the doctor. "I think it's better to pull out your damn useless tongue."

Chapter 1588 21.45 Fifth Violet Star - The One behind you.

Archangel Jophiel was so offended by Doctor Hei Yu's words that he flew down to grab the vicious-tongued doctor. Captain Lou Ye, the chief warden, protected the doctor as much as he could, and he even revealed his identity by suddenly pulling out his natal weapon so that he could defend Hei Yu.

Whoosh!

Flaps~

Hei'An as an archangel almost got stabbed by the chief warden's spear which was used by Captain Lou Ye. Everyone who had witnessed it was surprised.

Captain Lou Ye said, "Do not touch him." A powerful surge of wind had pushed the incoming Archangel Jophiel back to the sky.

"Hahaha~ just as I thought. How would that brother of mine leave alone a soul fragment that is most likely his wife's in this world? The Chief Warden with him by his side is understandable," commented Satan (Gui Xiajun).

Hei'An expression turned serious. After all, with the chief warden here means that the God of Void is also here.

On the other hand, the others regardless of whether they are angel, demons, or humans were startled by this scene. The golden spear that appeared out of nowhere in the hands of Captain Lou Ye is covered with the elements of wind and divinity. This aura was enough to say that this man isn't simple.

The old commander asked in disbelief, "Captain Lou, you are also not a human?"

"Yes," The Chief Warden responded and waved his spear a few more instantly killing all the demons coming from their way.

Doctor Hei Yu asked, "Do you serve Xia then?"

"Yes," answered Captain Lou Ye.

Satan speaks, "Chief Warden of the Nether System. Do you think you can protect that one alone against me, Hei'An, and all other demons?"

"I am not afraid," responded the Chief Warden as he stood at the forefront of all humans, securely placing the Doctor at the center among them.

The Archangels noticed that the existence of this human police was similar to that of the Lucifer they met that day. Using someone else's vessel yet the soul is not the same. However, they are all-powerful.

Archangel Uriel reacted the fastest and said, "Protect that human called Hei Yu. He might be the reason why these outsiders are all coming to our world. If something happens to him, we might get an ending we don't like to reach!"

The Archangels believe Uriel. Archangel Gabriel and Samuel stay beside Doctor Hei Yu while the rest of the archangels go to fight against the demons.

Archangel Gabriel said to Doctor Hei Yu, "Don't get separated from us! You're their mine target now."

"It seems that Lucifer's wings were just an excuse. Hm? You have quite a thick red string of fate. This is the first time I've seen this kind of fate connection," Archangel Samuel said.

Confused, Doctor Hei Yu asked, "What does that even mean?"

"He is a science man. He might not believe your string of fate, Samuel," commented Archangel Gabriel.

Archangel Jophiel was utilizing the angel abilities of Jophiel which charm us. As the angel of beauty, this is his most powerful ability. However, even though it seems useful to all kinds of races, using it for the Chief Warden is nearly impossible. This is a man with powerful control over himself and his emotions.

As the strongest warden in the Nether Prison, a lot of prisoners tried to seduce him. These sinners got their punishment double at third offense. The battle between Archangel Jophiel and Captain Lou Ye was a class itself. The destruction is no worse than what Devil Leviathan and Black Dragon Roi are causing on the other side of the city.

Humans can only be amazed by this scene. This is a battle between two individuals who are both not human.

The battle among them continues and the demons and angels are also fighting in their own way. The weakest race among them can only watch as the fight unfolds and are doing their best to keep their lives intact.

They are having a conversation on their own.

"I can't believe that our Captain Lou Ye was not a human!"

"Is he an angel? Or a demon?"

"If he is a devil, how come Leviathan doesn't recognize him?"

"The angels also don't seem to know him as well."

"This is insane. Once this battle is over, there will be nothing left of this city."

"How about hiding for now?"

"Where can we hide then?"

"Let's go to Purgatory. Maybe the bar owner will take pity on us and protect us from them?"

"If we are going it's better to bring the Doctor."

"Doctor, how about you come with us to Purgatory?"

Before Hei Yu could even respond Satan suddenly appeared among their group and no one, not even the Archangels beside Doctor Hei Yu noticed his arrival.

Satan said, "You cannot leave. Hei'An will get angry if you do. How about you tell me your name?"

He looks like a flirting young man talking to his crush, at least that's how it looks in the eyes of the other humans as long as they ignore the fact that he is the king of hell.

Doctor Hei Yu observed Satan quite closely. After all, for some reason, he felt a similarity familiar with this person's aura as if he had known it before.

"Hei Yu. Are you truly the king of hell?" Hei Yu asked. "Or any brothers?"

"Why are you asking such a thing, little darling? Who is it that looks like me?" Asked Satan (Gui Xiajun).

Doctor Hei Yu answered, "I'm talking about him. The one behind you!"

As soon as the doctor said these words almost everyone near him turned their heads and looked behind Satan. They might be powerless against fighting this man called Satan, however, moving their neck to look at others is still possible.

Actually, even Satan was stunned as he didn't notice that there was someone behind him. He only heard an eerily familiar voice.

"So, this is where you are, my younger brother," said the God of Void as he grabbed Satan by his neck.

URGH

In the eyes of the human race, he is the bar owner of the Bar Purgatory. In the eyes of the angel, he is just a human based on his form. On the other hand, the demons see him as their King, Lucifer.

Caught off guard, Satan (Gui Xiajun) failed to escape his elder brother's grasp, meeting those pair of crimson eyes full of anger and hatred.

Satan said, "N-Nice to... see you... Big brother."

"You know, forget about it. Do not call me brother anymore it is simply irritating!" said the God of Void.

Cracked!

He unhesitatingly broke the neck of Satan intending to kill him on the spot and throw him away from Doctor Hei Yu.

Satan's death was abrupt yet it left almost everyone speechless. Even Archangel Jophiel and Captain Lou Ye who were fighting suddenly stopped fighting. This state also happens between the angels and demons fighting. As well as the devil of envy, Leviathan who got left behind by the black dragon that suddenly flew away.

ROAR~

{Master, you are finally here!} The black dragon said.

Devil Leviathan was shocked and bewildered when he saw the face of the new arrival.

He calls out in surprise, "Lord Lucifer!?"

Archangel Uriel frowned when he heard that exclamation from the Devil of Envy.

"Is he Lucifer? For real?" asked Archangel Zadkiel. "But isn't Lucifer supposed to be dead?"

Archangel Uriel said, "Maybe his vessel is..."

The Archangels actually got their memories manipulated about the accident when Archangel Michael descended on the human lord and had some conflict with Archangel Jophiel (Hei'An) and Devil Asmodeus (Lord Chaos).

Archangel Gabriel and Archangel Samuel looked at the scene of Satan getting his neck broken with the supreme strength of the human? Who suddenly arrived did.

Archangel Gabriel whispered, "Do you think he is truly dead, Sam?"

Receiving no response, Archangel Gabriel looked at his brother and noticed that he was looking alternately between the man who killed Satan and the doctor in between the two.

"Samuel, what are you looking at? Are those weird eyes of yours seeing the fate between these two or something?" Archangel Gabriel asked.

Trickles~

He was shocked when he saw the eyes of Archangel Samuel were bleeding and immediately made him stop using his ability. Angel's golden blood trickled down from his eyes as if a very small waterfall of blood was falling from it.

"Stop using your ability to read their fate! Your eyes are almost wasted! What have you seen that makes you unable to move your eyes?" Archangel Gabriel questioned in disbelief.

Archangel Samuel got his eyes covered with a black cloth and answered Gabriel's question.

"Countless reincarnations and various worlds that are different from ours. A span of time that is close to eternity. A love that will last forever. I can hardly move my eyes, the fate between them is bittersweet, painful and yearning is almost an obsession. It was too much and I want to see more," said the angel of love, Archangel Samuel.

Archangel Gabriel looked flabbergasted and couldn't help but ask Doctor Hei Yu, "Are you not human as well?"

"...Science says that I am human thought..." Retorted Doctor Hei Yu.

Not far from them, they watched the bar owner mercilessly kick Satan with cold eyes and say, "Don't play dead."

Under everyone's eyes, Satan who was supposed to be dead slowly rises from the ground with his neck still broken and bones detached from his spine.

"You're becoming ruthless," Gui Xiajun (Satan) said to his elder brother.

A black sword appeared in thin air and was now held by the God of Void. Ye Xiajie responded to his brother's taunt.

"I need to be. As I decided to kill you the last time we met," said the God of Void.

Chapter 1589 21.46 Fifth Violet Star - Satan and Lucifer

Satan reattached his broken neck so simply as if attaching a Gundam's head to its body. Even the sounds of something clicking and matching the bones together can be heard by everyone in the area.

Crack!

Click!

Unexpectedly, Captain Lou Ye, who was supposed to be fighting with Archangel Jophiel, descends on the ground and greets his lord on one knee. This is in front of everyone with no hesitation in his actions.

The Chief Warden said, "Greetings, My Lord!"

"These humans are in the way," commented the God of Void as he slowly unsheathed the black katana in his hands.

"This subordinate understands," responded the Chief Warden.

Right now, he is no longer the police captain these people know. He is an unknown individual who is neither human nor angel nor demon.

Upon receiving his next task, the Chief Warden stood up and approached the mortals. He also asked for the help of the two systems to protect these weak races.

The Chief Warden said, "Yue, help me gather all humans in one place. No need to worry about the angels and demons. Yang, erected a barrier to protect them."

The small moon and small sun that were so visible to the eyes of these aborigines had transformed into humans before their eyes. In their perspective, two young men who some of them had met in Bar Purgatory recognize the two systems.

At that time, they only had an inkling that maybe they weren't humans like the bar owner. But now the fact was thrown at their faces as the two systems appeared in thin air.

Zhi Yue and Zhi Yang accepted the Chief Warden's commands and immediately made their move as soon as they turned to their humanoid form. Zhi Yue started teleporting here and there, all over the city, and grabbed the human who swayed out of the pack.

Zhi Yang, on the other hand, flew as high as he could and created two films of barriers. One that separates this city from the land beyond it and another barrier to protect the humans Zhi Yue had gathered in one area.

While they are working, the battle between the angels and the demons continues. Even though the demons flutter the moment the God of Void appears in Lucifer's vessel, their instinct to kill the angel becomes their priority.

The Chief Warden kept an eye on Archangel Jophiel as he stood in front of Doctor Hei Yu. Archangel Jophiel, after abruptly halting his fight against the Chief Warden, flew down and stood beside Satan.

Archangel Jophiel was observing the God of Void and felt the darkness within him was being suppressed. As a Soul Fragment of Soul who adapted to the power of the void after Snow died, he shouldn't be suppressed by the God of Void regardless that he is the owner of the abyss.

"What's wrong? Why did you stop fighting?" asked Satan to Archangel Jophiel, who descended to his side.

Archangel Jophiel whispered back, "The darkness in me is being suppressed. He is gaining full control over the void. If this continues, you and the others like you will be restrained by him."

"He chose restriction over elimination? That's unexpected. No, it might change in the end if he is taking this in a ruthless way," Satan said.

Bewildered. Archangel Jophiel asked, "What does that mean?"

"It means he wanted to capture me alive and in the most painful way possible. Such a bastard!" Satan cursed.

Archangel Jophiel didn't give a response to Satan's complaint and had the following thoughts instead:

'You're coveting his wife so openly. It would be more shocking that he isn't thinking of tormenting you.'

The archangels watch the scene between the Satan-Archangel Jophiel pair and the newly arrived, supposed to be Lucifer but not. Bar owner of purgatory.

Archangel Uriel mumbles, "With these two clashing like this, I hope this city will be the only thing affected by their fight.

"Those two are beyond us. Are we not going to report to Michael about this?" asked Archangel Zadkiel.

Archangel Uriel asked Archangel Raphael beside him, "Reporting it was not a problem. It's a question of whether he will be interested or not."

The two archangels couldn't deny Archangel Raphael's words. Just the changes that happened that night when Archangel Michael revealed his true face were enough for everyone to feel that he didn't have any attachments to the heavens.

He can even openly say that he killed their father, the creator, and even watch coldly as the angels die before his eyes, eyes devoid of emotions. He also returned to the heavens without giving his brothers any explanation. He also just watched Lucifer's corpse without any reaction on his face.

He is like a cold-blooded God with no heart.

Archangel Uriel signed and said, "Hold it back for a bit. Also, don't let Leviathan escape. He is the cause of this chaos."

"Leave him to me," said Archangel Zadkiel as he flew down discreetly, trying to catch the devil of envy off guard.

Meanwhile, the God of Void just gave Archangel Jophiel an indifferent glance. Even though this man looks similar to his wife's appearance, everything else is different, from his scent, the color of his soul, his personality, everything.

It was only now that he believed that these so-called soul fragments of Snow were not truly a part of his wife, Hei Anjing's soul. In this world, the only one that gave me the familiar scent was the doctor.

Satan observed the man; he acted as his older brother all his life. His life was a lie the moment he was born and learned about his power. It can be said that he had manipulated the life of the God of Void after he was reborn as Ye Xiajie. One sovereign God who lost his past life memory after reincarnation.

With the memories of the World Water, Gui Xiajun had already known that the God of Destruction was His Xue Hunluan, the Ancient God of Chaos's incarnation. He made plans to meet him and become a part of his life.

He had chosen Ye Xiajie to be his brother as his support and his protector until he was able to gain the original abilities of the World Eater. It's just that he didn't expect the person he chose as a tool to be someone like him.

One who had a previous life and someone whose origin is the same as him. A life born from the most powerful remnant fragments of the World Eater. It was only when the two of them met the God of Destruction in Vearth for the first time that Gui Xiajun realized that he messed up. The tool he had chosen became his strongest rival.

It was also the man who was chosen by the God of Destruction as his chosen other half. But isn't that role supposed to be his!? He planned all his life and wanted to make his first meeting with Hei Anjing the most memorable.

Who would have thought he would lose to his brother? He had been using it as a tool all his life. Isn't it a joke? He lost his most precious things to someone he didn't care much about. In the end, the one to become a joke was him.

That's why he manipulated even his fake mother and his father, Ye Mo, to kill this brother of his. He did everything that could be done while riding in the shadows. He even made sure that his soul would be shattered into hundreds—no, thousands—of fragments, making it hard for him to be reborn.

However, in the end, he did expect the God of Destruction to make all those sacrifices just to revive his bastard brother. How does it feel to go through thousands of worlds just to find wisps of someone's soul? Experience death and suffering as well as a life without your beloved.

It wouldn't be surprising if one went insane because of it. However, the God of Destruction did it all. He underwent all those worlds. He sometimes will find the God of Void's wisp soul, but most of the time he won't.

That's why he hated his brother's sometimes nonchalant reactions when it came to his death. Doesn't he know how traumatic his death is for Hei Anjing?

However, he also knows the sacrifices of their former self, the man who was known as the World Eater. Unable to control his gluttony, he killed and ate almost all the gods in existence. In his era, gods were still limited in number, and most of them were incompetent.

The gods he ate are those who cross the Ancient God of Chaos. Among the ancient gods, Chaos was the most powerful, and almost all gods, even his own parents, were afraid of him. Because of this, Hunluan is always alone, and it was also for this reason that the World Eater was created by him.

The World Eater ate everything that wanted to cause harm to his creator and his beloved and ended up being an existence feared and hated. Only the Ancient God Chaos loved him.

But Chaos hates loneliness; despite having him, he wasn't completely happy. That's why he became an evil one for him. Acted that he was losing control of his hunger and becoming a monster existence hated by everyone except for one person.

He wanted his beloved to become a hero. To be loved by all other gods of goddesses. However, in the end, the sacrifices he made only made his beloved unhappy, and it was because he was losing him that his sadness was almost out of control.

Only when the World Eater realized that his beloved sacrificed his soul just so he could accompany him in his death did the World Eater regret it. The two of them should not have cared for others in the first place and that having one another was enough.

Chapter 1590 21.47 Fifth Violet Star - Brothers

This regret and obsession spread as he shattered his soul together with his beloved. At the same time, Hunluan's undying love and sacrifice for him had also spread and shattered after his death.

Thus, the obsession and remnant emotions of these two ancient gods remained and split into their broken soul fragments, giving birth to an endless struggle of love, obsession, and sacrifices within the madness and chaos their origins had possessed. This continues to the present timeline of those who were born from them.

That's why the fragments of the world eater are obsessed with loving the fragments of Hunluan, the Ancient God of Chaos. The only fragment of Hunluan that received his undying love and sacrifice is the bloodline of the Mo Clan, which was said to be born from the chaos itself. It's because of this reason that the curse of their family only being able to fall in love with one person stems from this origin.

However, the Mo Clan was only born with the ability to love one person their whole life, but this has nothing to do with Hunluan loving the World Eater. After all, for him, only this man who had died together with him is the real person he loves, and beings born from his remnant fragments are free to love whoever they want.

Unlike the fragments of the World Eater, whose heart only beats for the descendants of the Ancient God of Chaos. Moreover, the more powerful one possesses the power of chaos, the more they are attracted.

The God of Destruction happens to be the strongest descendant born from Remnant Chaos, making him the target of the fragments born from the World Eater.

Obsession born from the world eater was out of control. This emotion fades as much as death is experienced. It can be said that the more of his fragments died and reincarnated, the more this feeling fades until it completely disappears.

That's why the God of Void, who had died more than once, can be said to have the weakest obsession born from being a fragment of the World Eater. Even so, his obsession with his wife comes from the love he has for him. He loves the God of Destruction not because he is a descendant of Hunluan, but because he is Hei Anjing.

Though it can be said that their fate originated from their previous lives as the God of Void Ye Jieye and the Incomplete Ancient God Snow, being reincarnated and experiencing multiple life and death in the Trial of Resurrection says otherwise. It's because they didn't give up on each other that the love they have for one another no longer has anything to do with their original origins.

Back in reality...

The God of Void had pulled out his innate weapon, Shenyuan, a god-slaying sword. Which means he is willing to kill the two gods in front of him. His cold eyes linger on his younger brother and Hei'An.

Though both are using other people's bodies, Ye Xiajie wouldn't mistake them for someone else. After all, their affinity with darkness and gluttony is beyond what this world possessed.

"The one called Hei'An, I had no intention of cutting you with that bastard beside you. If you don't want to get involved, leave. However, if you don't leave, I will kill you with him," the God of Void declares.

Under everyone's eyes, his normal light brown eyes turned deep crimson, and it got darker the more murderous he got. Even the aura around him became visible black mist, and it was a lot more powerful than all the demons the human race saw had used before. Upon closer look, this black aura doesn't seem to be purely darkness but instead a black flame that can melt anything in this existence, the hell flames.

The stern and cold gaze of the God of Void made Hei'An shiver. He can actually feel that seriousness within that pair of inhuman eyes and killing intent. He was so used to seeing Gui Xiajun's obsessed and doting gaze that he couldn't believe someone born from the world eater would treat him like an enemy despite him being a fragment born from Hunluan, the Ancient God of Void.

Flinch!

Hei'An, Archangels Jophiel, instinctively took a step back under the God of Void's gaze.

"He is serious. He truly wanted to kill me. But why... Even though I am weaker than the God of Destruction, our origins are similar. How can he, being born from the fragments of the World Eater, treat me like this?" grumbles Hei'An.

Even though Gui Xiajun felt things had gotten weird with his brother, he used to be like him, unable to harm any of the fragments of Hunluan. But now, as if he had diverted from the norm, he is no longer the same as him and is someone completely unmoved by the name of Hunluan.

The firm lover of Hunluan, Gui Xiajun, was enraged by his reaction. He felt that his beloved was being looked down upon.

"Brother, are you for real? How can you treat Hunluan's fragment like this? Kill Hei'An? Can you even kill your own wife?" asked Satan.

Ye Xiajie answered, "Killing Jing'er is impossible, but killing all others aside from him I can."

He suddenly disappeared to where he was standing and appeared before Satan and Archangel Jophiel. He raised his black sword, intending to make a slash.

"I will show you proof," said the God of Void as he intended to kill Hei'An with his own hands.

Gui Xiajun panicked seeing how serious the situation had become and pushed Hei'An before we were cut into two pieces.

"You're crazy!" He shouted.

Hei'An was stunned at the moment and saw the black blade of the God of Void's sword about to split him in half as well as the close-up of this man's face. Both eyes and face were devoid of emotions even when he was about to kill him.

Slashed!

Satan's left arm was cut clean, and the cut part was instantly burned by hell flames, turning into a mere pile of ashes blown away by the wind. Hei'An successfully escaped that sudden death.

Urgh!

Satan with a missing arm grabs Archangel Jophiel, who is looking at the God of Void in shock. He truly didn't expect this man to be decisive in killing him.

"Stand properly, Hei'An!" shouted Satan.

Everyone, including the wardens and systems in the area, was stunned by the action their sovereign had taken. They didn't feel any hesitation when he tried to cut the person.

The God of Void said, "I will not miss for the second time." Without them knowing, someone else was smiling within the crowd as he watched this scene.

At the sidelines...

Zhi Yue exclaims, "Am I seeing things right? Did the lord just try to kill someone connected to Lord Hei?"

"They are not connected by anything except for the fact that their original origins are the same. They are not even the same person. Did Master (Hei Anjing) convince him about them being different from him?" Zhi Yang said.

The Chief Warden commented, "This is quite serious."

As expected, Satan was enraged by this action from the God of Void. He stopped playing around with the current vessel he was using and decided to seriously fight against this brother of his.

Gui Xiajun returned to his original face and shed the appearance of Satan he was using. On the other hand, Hei'An was still in shock seeing how close he was to dying just now.

"I cannot allow this kind of foolishness, brother. Even though Hei'An is not as powerful as Jing'er, his existence came from Hunluan! How can you try to kill him?"

"Because he is not Jing'er and that I can kill him," said the God of Void. "I am different from you. My love and my obsession are only for one person. I only love a man called Hei Anjing and not a man called Hunluan."

Gui Xiajun pulled out his daggers, which were his natal weapon. He fought against his brother while angry.

"Brother, you are a failure. You cannot become a world eater just as we are destined to be!"

"I am not the world eater and Jing'er is not Hunluan. I am only Ye Xiajie and my wife is only Hei Anjing. Don't mistake us for ghosts that disappeared eons ago!" retorted the God of Void.

The brothers exchange moves from the ground to the sky, destroying everything in the area. Zhi Yue and Zhi Yang were having a hard time keeping the barrier up after all; the clashes between these two powerful gods are not something that can be easily controlled by the two of them alone.

Zhi Yue's face is distorted in hardship, and they can barely keep the barrier up.

Argh!

"If this continues, the barrier around this place cannot remain, and the battle between these two will destroy this world and kill all mortals that cannot protect themselves," said Zhi Yue.

Zhu Yang said, "We need to strengthen the barrier."

"I will help you with the barrier," said the Chief Warden as he used his natal weapon, his spear Chuankong, to become the core of the barrier in this place. Making him the source of divine energy to keep the barrier in place.

What they didn't know was that the others who didn't know what was happening felt the powerful surge of the void and immediately recognized who owned this energy.

Somewhere within the land outside the main city...

After hiding all this time from Gui Xiajun and Hei'An, Lord Chaos, who was still healing, and Tun Shizhe, who was watching over him, looked in a certain direction and felt the tremors that caused earthquakes.

Tun Shizhe said, "This vicious energy of the abyss. So, he had truly descended in this world."

"The other aura is familiar as well. Is he fighting against his younger brother? I want to watch," said Lord Chaos.

Tun Shizhe looked at his injuries and said, "With these injuries? I don't think so!"

Meanwhile, even the heavens shook under that clash between the God of Void and his brother, Gui Xiajun, affecting the nap of Archangel Michael on his throne.

His eyes turned colder as he felt the aura of the God of Void, and then he mumbled, "You've finally shown yourself, Xia."

Archangel Michael suddenly disappeared from his throne, and no one knows where he had gone, but most likely he had descended to the human world, where the chaos is happening.
