

World Plot 1611

Chapter 1611: 21.68 Fifth Violet Star - Divine Laws

After picking up the Sovereign God of life and death, as well as the Sovereign of light and creation, the God of destruction finally came home. The children welcomed him as soon as he entered the mansion.

"Dad (Daddy), welcome home!" said Ye Qinjing, Ye Jingxia, Ye Jingmo, and Ye Anxia.

Hei Anjing gave his children kisses and asked, "Is your father done with cooking?"

"Yes, Father, Uncle Lou, and Uncle Yun are about to serve the dishes," said Ye Qinjing.

Hei Anjing said, "Alright. Bring your Granduncles to the dining hall. I will go to the kitchen to check on your father."

"Okay~," said his four children who went to hold the hands of Mo Baojun and Shen Siwang, finally leading them to the dining hall. As for Hei Anjing, he went directly to the kitchen.

In the Mo family's mansion, the kitchen area...

Hei Anjing saw his beloved in front of the oven bringing out small cakes for desserts. Lou Wuye and Yun Ming were pushing some food carts to be sent to the dining hall. Lou Wuye and Yun Ming slightly bow their heads towards Hei Anjing before taking their leave.

Seeing his husband busy arranging some cake on the cooling tray, Hei Anjing hugs Ye Xiajie from behind.

"Are you done, my love? Let's go to the dining hall to eat together!" said Hei Anjing.

The hands which just finished moving the dessert on the tray suddenly stopped. Obviously, this job can be done early but Ye Xiajie took his time. He was actually a bit reluctant to meet Hei Anjing's parents and seniors as well as his own parents.

Hei Anjing asked, "Are you still worried about the World Eater? Don't worry about him. He won't be able to find this place unless it's the right time."

Ye Xiajie didn't respond right away and then looked at his wife. He wanted to ask why he was saying such things as if he already knew what was about to happen in the future. However, he didn't ask in the end, making Hei Anjing smile.

The God of Destruction held the cheeks of the God of Void and gave him a peck on his lips then smiled at him genuinely.

Hei Anjing said, "A'Xia will understand everything in the future. For now, let's just enjoy the time we have with our families. We are no longer alone. But if you feel more comfortable in the Void, the children and I will accompany you. Like me, the children born from both of us are recognized by the void. The abyss won't harm them."

Ye Xiajie hugs his wife. In the past, after going to Vearth, even in his own mansion, he only lives alone. That's why there is actually no difference whether he stays in Vearth or the Void. But everything is different now, he now has his wife by his side and four children. No matter where he stayed, there will always be someone with him. He is no longer alone.

Because of this feeling, sometimes Ye Xiajie forgets that as Ye Jieye, he was hated and treated as a menace by everyone in Vearth. But after meeting with Hei Anjing, even the fear of the gods, goddesses, and divinities starts to fade. He is no longer the hated Evilest God in existence.

While the couple were hugging each other, they didn't notice someone hugging their legs and when they looked down they saw their princess hugging their legs.

Ye Anxia said, "Papa, Baba, Xiaxia also wants a hug!"

"Us too!" said the three sons of the couple peeking at the door with only half of their bodies.

Hei Anjing chuckled and said, "Alright! Come over to Dad and Father, we will give you a big hug!" Beside him, Ye Xiajie didn't even know he was smiling and was staring at his family with a rare kind gaze he never had before.

While the family is happily playing around in the kitchen, there are lots of people watching over them from a distance. They were very happy for this family which finally completed after all the tribulations they had undergone. It's time for them to spend time in happiness.

Shen Siwang and Mo Baojun, who was about to call them, chose to return to the dining hall.

The former said, "It's been a while since I saw Xia smile like that."

"Because before he could only feel the hate that his face never showed a smile. With Xiao Jing'er by his side, he should be alright now," said Mo Baojun.

The latter couldn't help but mumbles, "It would be better if the world eater no longer wakes up in this era."

The whole family of Ye, Mo, and Hei had gathered in the dining hall to eat. Everyone was eating and talking at the same time. It was a nice family dinner. Ye Xiajie and Hei Anjing choose to stay at the Mo family's mansion for the night as they need to talk about what should be done in preparation for when the World Eater finds Vearth.

The seniors like the parents of Mo Yue and Mo Baojun chose not to get involved with this problem and left everything to their children. The same thing for Ye Xiajie's parents. As for the children, they were sent to sleep by Ye Xiajie and Hei Anjing before meeting the rest in the living room.

In the living room, there are Hei Anjing's parents, Mo Yue and Hei Sian. Mo Baojun and Ye Xiajie's brother, Shen Siwang, and finally the two wardens, Lou Wuye and Yun Ming. When Hei Anjing and Ye Xijaie arrived all eyes fell on them.

Mo Yue asked, "Are my grandchildren asleep, Xiao Jing, Xiao Jie?"

Hei Anjing said, "It was a bit hard so I can only go after my cousin to give them a dream." Beside him, Ye Xiajie didn't speak and just politely nodded his head towards Mo Yue. Stay tuned for updates on NovelBin.Côm

Mo Baojun said, "Okay let's begin. What do you guys plan to do now that the World Eater is awake?"

"My wifey is always straight to the point. However, it is indeed weird that Xiao Jing'er let the world eater be after meeting him. Is there something we should know?" Shen Siwang said.

Mo Baojun finally asked, "Xiao Jing'er, what is your connection to the Ancient God Hunluan and the World Eater? I don't believe you couldn't kill him the first time you met. After all, you've descended with your real body in the last world."

Everyone's eyes fell on Hei Anjing including Ye Xiajie. However, the latter is different from the questioning gaze of Mo Baojun and the rest. Ye Xiajie's gaze was full of trust as he even held the hand of his wife showing his full support.

Ye Xiajie also wanted to know however he didn't push his beloved with all the questions and waited for him to tell him everything. Hei Anjing upon seeing his beloved full trust smiled.

Hei Anjing said, "Let's begin from the very beginning. The era before worlds were created and there are only Ancient Gods existing."

"But before that... let me return to you your Origin's memories."

The God of Destruction brought out a glass orb of memories from his soul. This is his greatest secret and this is the only remnant from the Primordial Age. The Glass Orbs glow as they flee above the sky. The Divine Laws in Vearth started to materialize and a pair of hands held the glass orbs of memories.

A voice echoes to every mind of the titled gods in Vearth. This is especially true for the Sovereigns in the area. Among the sovereign only Ye Xiajie was shocked as he looked above the sky which is now glowing with silver shade and that pair of silver hands that held the glass orbs.

{Hei Anjing, if you wake me up right now means that he is already awake.}

Hei Anjing, who only shows his respect to his parents and the seniors of his family, finally kneels down on one knee.

{Yes. He is awake, Master!} Hei Anjing responded to the voice of the Divine Laws.

Shen Siwang, Mo Baojun, Mo Yue, Hei Sian, and Ye Xiajie were stunned to hear this unknown voice. However, the aura it was emitting is extremely familiar.

Mo Yue frowned and said, "Isn't this pure energy the Divine Laws?"

"Does the Divine Laws have its own ego?" Hei Sian said.

Mo Baojun mumbles, "The Divine Laws that control the reins of all Gods, Goddesses, and Divinity in existence. Regardless, of whether they are a sovereign or a titled god, once a divine law is broken you can be punished."

"How come Xiao Jing knows this being? Since when do they know each other?" asked Shen Siwang as he couldn't believe that the Divine Laws were a living existence. After all, it never spoke for eons until now.

Ye Xiajie stepped forward until he stood beside his wife and looked above the silver sky.

"Are you... Are you the Ancient God of Chaos, Hunluan?"

The voice in the sky responded, {Indeed. I am Hunluan. The former Ancient God of Chaos is now the Divine Laws that restrain all creation born from my powers.}

Everyone couldn't believe what they were hearing. Even the Ancient God that lives in a castle of clouds came out and stood before the silver sky. Lord Qiyuan comes out of his castle after sensing the familiar and lost aura of his beloved son.

Chapter 1612 21.69 Fifth Violet Star - Hunluan in Vearth [End]

The real connection between the Ancient God of Chaos, Hunluan, and the God of Destruction, Hei Anjing, was finally revealed. No one had expected that Hunluan was the master of the God of Destruction.

However, thinking about the incomplete ancient god, Snow, being Hei Anjing's previous life identity a connection had been found.

Somewhere in the Nether System.

Hei Jue and An Liang were watching the sky above their heads turn silver as well as that huge pair of silver hands. They have also heard the conversation between the God of Destruction and the Divine Laws, which is also the Ancient God of Chaos, Hunluan.

Lord God An Liang murmured, "No wonder. I've always thought that the Divine Laws had always been biased toward Xiao An. Even though he received some punishments before breaking some Divine Laws, nothing had taken his life on the spot. As for the rest of the sinners, they were almost all dead and crippled."

"Then all the proof pointing that Xiao Jing is Hunluan was because he intentionally moved the gaze of others to the Divine Laws. After all, if one investigates its existence, there will be nothing as it just happened to appear the moment Vearth was made," said Hei Jue.

Lord God An Liang asked, "Then is his action of chasing and resurrecting Xiao Ye also a part of his plans?"

"No. The curse of the Mo Clan about loving one person is real. Xiao Jing choosing him right after his birth is their fate. Like how the first generation God of Void, Xia Jieye, meets the incomplete ancient god, Snow," said Hei Jue.

Back to the Mo family's mansion...

As soon as Hunluan's presence was revealed, everyone from the Mo Family appeared and saluted to the silver sky. Like Hei Anjing, they were kneeling, after all, Hunluan is close to being their creator and their Origin. Their respect is like a child to his parents.

Lord Qiyuan said, "Mine own son! Is yond truly there? Thou art forsooth still alive! This is most wondrous! Thy fath'r shall beest joyous. Can thee prithee showeth thy visage to daddy?"

Translation: [My son! Is that truly you? You are indeed still alive! This is great! Your father will be happy. Can you please show your face to Daddy?]

The Ancient God of Origin, Lord Qiyuan was crying as he looked at the familiar presence of his son coming from the divine laws.

ZIPPS~ Crackles~ Boom!

However, before he approached him he was struck down by a bolt of divine lightning causing Lord Qiyuan to fall from the sky to the ground.

Lord Qiyuan asked, "W-Why? L-Luan'er!?"

The Ancient God of Origin covered with burns reaches out a hand towards the sky. He wanted to question his son why he was struck down by such divine lightning.

The Ancient God of Chaos, Hunluan said, "I nay longeth'r desire thy fake loveth. Shizhe wast all I needeth. Since thee has't did harm that gent bef're, thou art just our enemies."

Translation: [I no longer desire your fake love. Shizhe was all I needed. Since you have harmed him before, you are just our enemies.]

Lord Qiyuan fainted when he heard his son's words. Since it was indeed something they had done and the cause of the two to separate was also their doing, the ancient god of origin couldn't say a word to deny anything and fainted in an over-emotional state.

Ignoring his former parents, Hunluan finally looked at the God of Void.

The Ancient God of Chaos said, "Issue of shizhe, I knoweth what thee wanteth to knoweth. I shall bid thee what thee wisheth to knoweth as thee wisheth. Liketh how I did create Hei Anjing from snoweth, thou art eke did create by shizhe from gluttony. T's just bef're thee w're b'rn, thee w're stolen by mine own fath'r, jiewei. Those gents preventeth us from creating something. Yond's wherefore I did hide snoweth and not coequal mine own parents knoweth about t. T just yond bef're I did complete that gent, i kicked the bucket. Thee liketh hei anjing is eke an ancient god."

Translation: [Child of Shizhe, I know what you want to know. I will tell you what you wish to know as you wish. Like how I created Hei Anjing from Snow, you are also created by Shizhe from gluttony. It's just before you were born, you were stolen by my father, Jiewei. They prevent us from creating something. That's why I hid Snow and not even my parents knew about it. It was just that before I completed him, I died. You, like Hei Anjing, are also an Ancient God.]

Ye Xiajie looked at his beloved who just smiled at him as if he already knew about this fact.

Hunluan speaks, "I haven't done complete mine own vessel yet as I am missing a few soul fragments to maketh up f'r mine own hath lost soul. I wanteth thee to help me gath'r mine own fragments and in exchange, I shall fain rec'rd thy completion f'r the trial of resurrection and giveth thee this cosmos."

Translation: [I haven't completed my vessel yet as I am missing a few soul fragments to make up for my lost soul. I want you to help me gather my fragments and in exchange, I will gladly record your completion for the Trial of Resurrection and give you this cosmos.]

The Ancient God of Chaos added, "F'r anon, I shalt returneth thy previous liveth mem'ries. Most of thou art not newb'rn gods. Th're art lots of thee who is't art less'r ancient beings. T just yond thy death in thy previous life wast mine own fault. I can only revive thee with mine own death. Taketh thy mem'ries and the 'riginal pow'r thou art did suppose to has't."

Translation: [For now, I shall return your previous life's memories. Most of you are not newborn gods. There are lots of you who are lesser Ancient beings. It's just that your death in your previous life was my fault. I can only revive you with my death. Receive your memories and the original power you are supposed to have.]

The glass orb of memories in that pair of silver hands broke free and as if a meteor shower started falling each star fall hit one person in Vearth. This is especially true for the Mo, Hei, and Ye families.

Among the Mo family, most of them had reached the Sovereign realm and some like the current sovereign had become primordial gods or ancient gods. Now, they do not have to fear the God of Origin and the God of End.

The ascendance of Shen Siwang and Ye Xiajie as an Ancient God cut off their connection to the origin and the end. Even though they can be considered as their creation, now that they are on the same level, they cannot be restrained by them. Now even if Lord Qiyuan throws tantrums, Shen Siwang and Mo Baojun don't have to accept being hit or shouted at.

Hei Anjing spoke, "Mast'r, can thee taketh yond hence with thee? I shall eke bringeth ov'r the oth'r pair so prithee throweth those folk out of our cosmos 'r just locketh those folk on the ancient star."

Translation: [Master, can you take that away with you? I will also bring over the other pair so please throw them out of our cosmos or just lock them on the Ancient Star.]

Hunluan stared at one of his supposed to be parents which he had electrified enough for him to faint and grabbed him.

He said, "Its seemeth aft'r all these eons yond hadst hath passed the narrow bethinking of mine own parents hasn't hath changed at all. W'rry not. That gent wonneth't both'r thee anym're."

Translation: [It seems after all these Eons that had passed the narrow thinking of my parents hasn't changed at all. Don't worry. He won't bother you anymore.]

Ye Xiajie asked, "Shouldst we inf'rm thy partn'r about thy awakening?"

Translation: [Should we inform your partner about your awakening?]

The Ancient God of Chaos said, "Nay needeth. That gent shall not believeth thee. Alloweth that gent findeth me himself."

Translation: [No need. He will not believe you. Let him find me himself.]

Hei Anjing said, "But mast'r, that gent seemeth to has't mistaken me f'r thee."

Translation: [But Master, he seems to have mistaken me for you.]

Hunluan was silent for a moment as he could already imagine what his foolish other half would do if he truly mistaken his disciple for him.

"Thee can summon me once if 't be true that gent dares to crosseth the line. I'm leaving. I'm still busy creating mine own vessel and anoth'r cosmos. Once thee capture mine own oth'r fath'r just did throw that gent in yond cloud palace and I shall taketh that gent hence."

Translation: [You can summon me once if he dares to cross the line. I'm leaving. I'm still busy with creating my vessel and another cosmos. Once you capture my other father, just throw him in that cloud palace and I will take him away.]

After saying these words, the silver sky faded and so did the pair of hands carrying the unconscious Ancient God of Origin. No one knew where they had gone too and no one actually cared much.

As soon as Hunluan took his leave, everyone was looking at Hei Anjing. At this time most of their previous memories had returned and they realized that most of them were killed by the World Eater when he had gone insane.

They actually never confronted the world eater, they just died when he had gone mad, that's why the Ancient God of Chaos compensated them with a new life with their previous powers intact. Now they don't have to worry much about fighting the World Eater if he ever comes to Vearth.

Hei Anjing, who noticed the eyes that fell on him, asked, "What's wrong? Don't look at me like you want to eat me alive!"

He hid behind his husband while peeking at his angered parents, uncles, aunt, and grandparents. They never knew that right from the very beginning, Hei Anjing as Snow was the one who helped them be reborn.

Even though his soul at that time was incomplete, he still completed the mission of his master, Hunluan, to recreate them and help them be reincarnated. With the help of chaos energy he had gathered, they became more powerful than other gods.

Mo Yue said, "Xiao Ye hug him! Don't let him escape!"

"Yes!" said Ye Xiajie as he immediately wrapped his arms around his wife, preventing him from leaving.

Hei Anjing struggled a bit and pouted, "Xia, you don't love me anymore. Let go of me!"

Before he could react, Hei Anjing felt his elders pat his head, back, and shoulder softly while saying, "You've done well. Good work. Now take a rest. Leave the preparations for confronting the world eater to us and just focus on the mission Lord Hunluan gave to you."

"Hm. Okay!" Hei Anjing hugged his husband, hiding his face. No one knows if he is crying within that face hidden, but everyone knows what kind of suffering he has undergone all this time just to protect his master, to keep them safe, and to save the person he loves.

Chapter 1613 22.0 Vearth - Descending Once Again

With the ancient god of chaos appearing for the first time, they finally understood why Hei Anjing would always deny that he wasn't Hunluan despite the proof that points out that he is.

He is indeed not the Ancient God of Chaos, instead he is his disciple or the two creations after the World Eater, An Shizhe. It can be considered that the two are siblings just for the fact that they have the same creator. Like how Shen Siwang and Ye Xiajie are.

With the seniors taking over the preparations for confronting the World Eater, An Shizhe, once he found the existence of Vearth, the Ye family was now completely free. Their family of six were spending more time together. Today, they are in the Void. Planning about their house and about the rooms the children wanted to have. The master's bedroom was saved for the couple.

The whole family stayed in Vearth for years and finally, they decided to capture the lost fragments the Ancient God of Chaos needed to complete his revival. This mission will fall on Hei Anjing and the God of Void himself.

The usual group gathered in the core region of the Nether System. The God of Void, the God of Destruction, the two wardens: Lou Wuye and Yun Ming as well as the two systems: Zhi Yang and Zhi Yue. Hei Jue and An Liang are there to send them off as usual.

Warden Yun Ming asked, "Are you alright with descending with us this time, master?"

"Yes. No worries. I am fully healed!" The God of Destruction answered.

Zhi Yue hovers around Hei Anjing in his small moon avatar and happily says, [That's great. I can go with Lord Hei. I will assist you again as host, Lord Hei!]

"Aren't you supposed to be Xia's system though?" asked the God of Destruction.

The God of Void said, "Let him come to your side. He is so annoying that I feel like throwing him away multiple times."

[I'm alright with supporting Lord Ye, Master,] said Zhi Yang. He is completely spoiling Zhi Yue and letting him get whatever he wants.

Lord God 'An Liang' asked, "So, which world are you going to this time? There is still one gray star (E-class world), one red star (A-class world), one black star (S-class world), and one silver star (SS-class world)."

All five look at one person. Clearly, there is only one person who can decide where they will go next and it's the God of Destruction, Hei Anjing.

Hei Anjing smiled and said, "Let's go for the red one. Now too low and not too high in class. It should be enough for me to adjust."

"The red star then," said Ye Xiajie. The God of Void agreed to his wife's choice without any rejection.

Seeing that no one is rejecting it, the red star was held by Hei Anjing in his hands. He peeks through it and sees a world with a larger sea region than the land.

The God of Destruction asked, "Yue, do you know about the plot of this red star?"

Zhi Yue checked with the world database and learned about what kind of world plot it was. He showed a confused expression as if he couldn't believe what he was saying.

[What's wrong, Yue'er?] Zhi Yang approached his alter ego and checked the world plot as well. He also showed a bit of a startled reaction upon reading the world plot.

The Chief Warden, Lou Wuye, asked seriously when he saw the reaction of the two systems.

"What's wrong?"

Zhi Yue said, [This world had no protagonist, antagonist, or any other important character.]

Confused. Warden Yun Ming asked, "Is that even possible? Even a broken world like the last one had characters in it."

Hei Anjing said, "Explain further."

Zhi Yang explained, [There are no big characters as this is a dying world asking to be saved. It's a world that is about to fall into a disaster that can cause it to be ruined. There is only one mission. Save the star.]

[Moreover... Lord Hei, this world is open even in the God System. There are lots of world hoppers coming to resolve it, but a lot of them have already failed.] Zhi Yue said.

Ye Xiajie asked, "What caused them to fail?"

Zhi Yang answered, [The Sea God killed them.]

Silence fell in the area. This kind of disaster world is usually under the jurisdiction of the Repairers in the God System. But a lot of them had failed, thinking that this was a world that had connections to the Ancient God of Chaos's fragment; it's no wonder it appeared in the choice of the God of Void's Trial of Resurrection.

Hei Jue commented, "Doesn't that mean that the Sea God of the very fragment you are looking for? Moreover, it has a terrain advantage as well. That sounds fun~. How about I go?"

"Wife, please don't! I'm going to die of overwork!" said Lord God 'An Liang'.

Hei Jue looked at his pleading husband and averted his gaze, "I'm just joking."

Hei Anjing whispered to the Lord God, "He is definitely not joking."

"Xiao Jing!" called Hei Jue.

Hei Anjing chuckled and gave his cousin a playful expression before hiding behind Ye Xiajie. The God of Void firmly protected him, making Hei Jue glare at him. Not far from them Zhi Yue and Zhi Yang finally opened a space portal.

This time, they can only enter the world with their vessels. Of course, their divinity was sealed at the level that the world could bear. Of course, their bodies will be transformed into something that fits the world as well.

Zhi Yang said, "Masters, the portal to the red star has been opened."

"Alright! Let's go!" said Hei Anjing as he dragged Ye Xiajie with him and jumped inside the portal.

He said to his cousin, Hei Jue, "We will be back~"

"Be careful out there!" Hei Jue said.

Zhi Yue's word echoes in the portal, [Lord Hei, wait for me~]

After Hei Anjing and Ye Xiajie entered the portal, the Chief Warden and Warden Yun Ming also jumped after them followed by the two systems who closed the portal after them.

After the group disappeared, the portal completely closed off Hei Jue and An Liang's side. They could only return to work after the rest had left for what they needed to do.

Meanwhile in the Ancient Star where the incomplete ancient god, Snow was born.

Hunluan took over that star where he slowly recreated his vessel. Right now, he is only in his soul form and couldn't remain in solid form for a long time. Lord Qiyuan finally woke up when his body was finished repairing his burned body. He immediately looked around for his son as soon as he woke up.

Lord Qiyuan shouted, "Luan'r! Luan'r! Am I just dreaming I hath felt mine own son's aura?" Tears were falling on his face as he looked around.

Translation: [Luan'er! Luan'er! Am I just dreaming I felt my son's aura?]

The Ancient God of Chaos, Hunluan wanted to ignore this man until he saw his tears as he looked around confused, and did not see him at all. He showed himself in front of the Ancient God of Origin, Lord Qiyuan, who immediately tried to touch him. Unfortunately, he is currently just a soul.

The Ancient God of Origin looked confused for a moment, "I understand you not? Luan'r, Wh're is thee corse?"

Translation: [Huh? Luan'er, where is your body?]

Hunluan responded, "I've kicked the bucket by self-implosion. Doth thee bethink mine own vessel shall survive."

Translation: [I've died by self-implosion. Do you think my vessel will survive.]

Lord Qiyuan was speechless with this response from his son. He no longer asks questions that may incur his son's anger. He asked about his well being though.

"How longeth has't thee been awaketh? Is't good now if 't be true thee has't not a corse. How didst thee did survive?" asked the Ancient God of Origin.

Translation: [How long have you been awake? Is it alright if you don't have a body? How did you survive?]

The Ancient God of Chaos, Hunluan answered, "I've survived unknowingly. Howev'r, I has't nay controleth ov'r myself. I've to awaken'd as the divine laws with the holp of the god of destruction. I've been asleep inside his soul all this timeth and that gent did hide me until I can keepeth myself fully awaketh."

Translation: [I've survived unknowingly. However, I have no control over myself. I've awakened the Divine Laws with the help of the God of Destruction. I've been asleep inside his soul all this time and he hid me until I could keep myself fully awake.]

His expression suddenly turns gloomy as he continues to narrate what happened to him.

"If 't be true not f'r thy oth'r half causing that gent to beest lock'd in the void f'r a longeth p'riod of timeth, snoweth wouldn't has't to killeth himself. I wouldst has't awaken'd festinate'r if 't be true his incomplete state becometh completeth. The god of endeth did cause all mine own plans to faileth to resurrect," Hunluan said.

Translation: [If not for your other half causing him to be locked in the void for a long period of time, Snow wouldn't have to kill himself. I would have awakened faster if his incomplete state had become complete. The God of End caused all my plans to fail to resurrect.

Hunluan added, "Snoweth kicked the bucket because that gent did want to free mine own soul from his corse. That gent keepeth just his ego on one of the soul fragments while I keepeth the rest of those folk. I have the connection of those soul fragments to healeth mine own soul."

Translation: [Snow died because he wanted to free my soul from his body and because his soul is so tainted that he can't maintain his rationality. He keeps just his ego on one of the soul fragments while I keep the rest of them. I have the connection of those soul fragments to heal my soul.]

He added, "In sh'rt, thee partn'r causes mine own death. That gent hadst at each moment been valorous in pushing me to death and thou art valorous at keeping a blindeth eye ov'r t. Bethink not I nev'r known what thee didst to a'zhe. Thee did cause that gent to go nimble-footed and madeth that get the foe of the w'rld."

Translation: [In short, your partner caused my death. He had always been good at pushing me to death and you are good at keeping a blind eye over it. Don't think I never knew what you did to A'She. You caused him to go mad and made him the enemy of the world.]

The more Hunluan speaks, the more Lord Qiyuan feels guilty. As all of the words of his son are sins he and Jiewei had truly done.

Chapter 1614 22.1 Third Red Star - Aquarium

The Ancient God of Chaos and the Ancient God of Origin awkwardly conversed, so the former ended their conversation. Before returning to his invisible soul form, he said a few words to his father.

Hunluan, the Ancient God of Chaos says, "Stayeth on the ancient star with me from anon on. At which hour the ancient god of endeth wast hath found by mine own disciple and his group, that gent shall eke stayeth h're with thee. As f'r vearth and the cosmos t wast in, I planeth to giveth t to Hei Anjing and his partn'r, especially his family."

Translation: [Stay on the Ancient Star with me from now on. When the Ancient God of End was found by my disciple and his group, he will also stay here with you. As for Vearth and the cosmos it was in, I plan to give it to Hei Anjing and his partner, especially his family.]

The Ancient God of Chaos added, "Actually, coequal if 't be true thee didst moveth anyone on vearth, the one who is't shall suff'r is thee. Mine own disciple's pow'r is at the same leveleth as mineth at which hour I wast still alive and his pow'r of destruction and ice w're b'rn from within that gent and enhanc'd by that gent ev'ry aft'r death and reincarnation."

Translation: [Actually, even if you did move anyone on Vearth, the one who will suffer is you. My disciple's power is at the same level as mine when I was still alive and his power of destruction and ice were born from within him and enhanced by him every after death and reincarnation.]

He also said, "Likewise, mine own oth'r half hadst nay intention of letting thee wend. I can asketh that gent not to killeth thee but aside from that gent taking thy liveth I shall not careth. The hunluan wast b'rn from the 'rigin and the endeth kicked the bucket yond day. I am nay longeth'r the hunluan which is thy son. Thee hath killed that gent because of thy feareth f'r his pow'r and f'r scheming 'gainst his belov'd."

Translation: [Likewise, my other half had no intention of letting you go. I can ask him not to kill you but aside from him taking your lives, I will not care. The Hunluan was born from the origin and the end died that day. I am no longer the Hunluan which is your son. You killed him because of your fear for his power and for scheming against his beloved.]

The Ancient God of Chaos disappeared before Lord Qiyuan. He had just canceled his soul's solid form and once again turned invisible. The Ancient God of Origin, Lord Qiyuan had no voice to stop him but as his son wished, he chose to stay on this star.

Meanwhile in an SS world...

The Ancient God of End in human flesh was chained in an underwater cliff covered with unknown formations.

The Ancient God of End screams, "Let me out! How dare you chain me here!!"

He was screaming to be freed unfortunately no one could hear him in the ocean to the surface of the water. As for who could have captured him and sent him to this place, only those in this world can know.

In the Disaster World that Hei Anjing and Ye Xiajie together with the two wardens and the two systems had chosen to enter, they only felt what it was like to skydive from a few hundred meters with any tool on them.

Thankfully, they were allowed to use their own vessels as God but their divinity was currently sealed upon entrance. Moreover, some unknown power had forced them to split upon entering the world. The world had brought them to the timeline a few days before the world disaster struck.

The two systems were lucky enough to fly towards the two lords before they were split. Hei Anjing groggily opened his eyes and stretched his hands while looking around with a bored look. He only saw water everywhere and that he was inside this water. There was also an unknown sound from the machine but he couldn't find it immediately where it was coming from.

So, first, he checked what happened to his vessel.

The God of Destruction mumbles, "Hands? I still have a pair. Legs? Hmm, it was replaced with a gorgeous shade of silver tail. Whatever, it looks good~. My hair is the same shade as my tail and maybe so are my eyes. Did I become a silver-tailed mermaid?"

He keeps checking on his tail as this is a unique experience for him to become a fish. The God of Destruction started swimming around as he tried his tail. But he suddenly bumps into a transparent glass which Hei Anjing sees his own reflection on.

As he imagined, he had become a half-human, half-fish. The God of Destruction becomes a mermaid. However, he checked and realized that he could change into his human form however he wanted.

Hei Anjing observed the glass wall in front of him, he still hasn't realized that aside from him there are still some other mermaids in the area. Just as the God of Destruction was planning on returning to his human form, a huge round shadow looms in front of him. It was the Moo System, Zhi Yue.

Zhi Yue in his moon avatar form was hovering around outside the glass wall while staring at the God of Destruction.

He said, [Lord Hei! How come you have shrunk and even gained a tail!? Moreover, you have become so small!]

Bang!

Hei Anjing bangs the glass wall in anger and retorts, "Who the hell is small? You are small, your whole family is small!"

Bang! Crackles~

The God of Destruction and the Moon avatar system look at the crack that suddenly appeared in the glass wall that separates them.

Zhi Yue said, [Lord Hei, you broke your aquarium!]

"Fuck your aquarium!" Retorted the God of Destruction.

Zhi Yue wanted to tease Lord Hei for a bit longer and noticed the other small mermaid appearing behind the God of Destruction.

[Lord Hei, the aquarium cannot break, if it does, those little ones behind you will die from the fall in such a high place thinking of your size.]

The God of Destruction turns around and sees such colorful small mermaids like him. They were all looking at him with an innocent gaze as if being stared at by children. They looked frightened as the glass wall of their house was broken by Hei Anjing.

Cracks~ cracks~

Zhi Yue exclaims, [Lord Hei, the cracks are spreading!]

Hei Anjing immediately reacted and stopped the spreading of the cracks with his ice. He used ice elements to freeze the cracks on the glass walls which saved the huge aquarium they are in from breaking apart. Just as Hei Anjing and Zhi Yue sighed in relief, they noticed that the mermaid behind Hei Anjing had all run away as if seeing a monster.

Hei Anjing raised an eyebrow and said, "Were they afraid of me? I haven't done anything yet!"

Zhi Yue retorted, [Lord Hei you almost destroyed your aquarium and frightened the hell out of them.]

The God of Destruction glares at this straightforward system and says, "Do you want to become a frozen moon as well?"

Zhi Yue shook his round body saying it didn't want to become a popsicle when finally Hei Anjing noticed a presence approaching the room.

Hei Anjing commanded, "Yue, delete all recordings captured in this room. Especially the part where I froze this glass, go!" He instantly swims away the broken glass and hides in some kind of clamshell under some kind of rock formations and seaweed.

System Yue did as he was told and deleted all kinds of records of what happened a few hours ago and followed Lord Hei into his slightly open shell, peeking through the slit and waiting for the owner of the presence to show itself.

Lord Hei looked at the silly moon system in disbelief, "Are you a fool? You are a system, no one can easily see you in your system. Why hide in my clam shell with me instead of bluntly flying around outside."

Zhi Yue showed a sweating emoticon on his moon surface and there was even a pinkish blush to show his embarrassment.

[Sorry, Lord Hei. We've been going to worlds where some beings can see us so I've instinctively hid with you. Hehe~ sorry~]

Tsk!

Hei Anjing used his tail for the first time and whipped this stupid system out of his shell.

Bang!

This is the sound of the moon system hitting the fragmenting glass wall. Whether it was a coincidence or not, a human appeared in front of the aquarium and the glass hit by System Yue broke his face. A glass shard hit him directly. The next moment only the sound of a human screaming in pain.

"AGH! MY FACE!!!"

The God of Destruction was hiding his face muttering the words, "It's not my fault. Who told that stupid moon to solidify when he hits the glass wall? Either way, I need to keep the mermaids alive at least."

Hei Anjing controlled the water and made sure that only half of it could remain inside the aquarium and keep the little mermaids alive.

Chapter 1615 22.2 Third Red Star - Something in the water.

One of the aboriginal humans was injured by glass shards from the aquarium that suddenly exploded, causing chaos in the area. While peeking through the slit of his clamshell, Hei Anjing noticed that the room they were in was something close to a laboratory. This can mean he is currently a mermaid considered an experimental subject.

One human had his face stabbed by glass shards and was squirming on the ground while covered. By the time the other humans had arrived, they saw the scene inside the laboratory, and the one they checked first was the aquarium instead of the injured human.

A man in a white robe said, "Get another aquarium! The little mermaids will die with less water at such a young age! Who the hell destroyed the nest of these little mermaids?!"

AGHHH~

The man whose face was covered in shards was wailing and incurred the attention of the man who looked like the head of this place. He looked down on the injured human with an expressionless face and kicked him once.

Argh!

The man in a white robe said, "Useless thing! Do you want the Sea God to notice that our human race stole some of its eggs and fertilized them on our own! Don't you know how important these little guys are? They are mermaids! They can soothe a human's spiritual domain. They cost a lot of money each!"

"It... It wasn't... me... P-Professor!" said the man lying on the ground.

Hmp!

The man in the white robe called the professor and said, "Take him away! Also, bring me the recording of what happened today."

"Yes, Professor!"

The other men who came with this professor carried the injured man towards the clinic, and the other brought over the recording of what happened to this place a few hours ago. Unfortunately for them, Zhi Yue deleted the video of what truly happened and replaced it with another edited video. It was done so the others would believe the video they would be seeing was real.

In the video, they only saw some little mermaids playing around inside the aquarium when suddenly they felt someone's presence and started hiding.

At the next moment, a man stood in front of the aquarium, staring at it as if trying to find a little mermaid within the glass walls. He was so close to the glass wall when suddenly the aquarium exploded on the man's face out of nowhere.

It was caused by a huge rock crab no one noticed blending on the sands and rock formation of the aquarium. It hit the glass wall with a huge force, making it explode on the human's face peeking in the aquarium.

The sound of the man screaming was heard next, and the aquarium with a broken glass wall was also shown in the video. The man called Professor was enraged.

He shouted, "Find that damn rock crab for me!"

However, no matter how much people looked for the crab, it was done. No one knows if it has left safely or is still hiding somewhere. As for the broken aquarium, the little mermaids hiding in their clamshells were all transported to a new one.

"Master, the transport of the little mermaids in a new aquarium has been done. Are we finally going to sell them?" A man who seemed to be a student of this professor asked the man whose face got disfigured from the explosion.

The professor said, "Of course! The invitation had been brought out. All the invited nobles and military will come for a little mermaid of their choice. Even if the treaty between humans and sea monsters has been broken and catching weak sea monsters is forbidden, artificial little mermaids capable of healing are still accepted by everyone. After all, who doesn't want to have a thing that can cleanse one's spiritual domain?"

"But sir, didn't the Sea God announce that any place found mistreating any sea species will receive divine punishment from it?" A guard asked.

The professor responded, "That's why this artificial mermaid project was done in secret. Moreover, even if they are called little mermaids, these little guys are completely different from the real ones. They can't morph into a human-sized one or even turn into a human temporarily. They will remain pocket, and the only thing they can do is to sing."

"Anyway, the guests are about to arrive. Prepare everything!" The professor said.

Meanwhile, their whole conversation was recorded by the invisible Zhi Yue. A video streaming system window appeared in front of Hei Anjing, who was hiding in his clamshell.

Inside the clamshell, the God of Destruction mumbles, "Artificially made little mermaids. However, to create one, this means they had used the raw material of a real mermaid. Humans truly love to seek death."

Ocean floor. At the deepest trench in the ocean, a huge black dragon was chained under this cliff. It was now asleep without caring for the metal nails embedded in its flesh, which was continuously bleeding.

Its eyes were closed as if asleep. If not for its breathing, one would think that it was dead. It suddenly opened its eyes, revealing a tint of crimson. It only looked at the bright sky above the trench and then once again closed its eyes and fell asleep.

Somewhere within human land...

Chief Warden Lou Wuye opened his eyes and saw himself lying in a bathroom. Before he opened his eyes, he saw a vision of himself swimming in the ocean. He can even feel the water on its body and seems to be locked away somewhere. Suddenly, he woke up and saw himself as a human taking a bath.

He stood up from the slightly cold, water-filled bathtub and grabbed a towel to dry himself, then finally checked his appearance in the mirror. Black hair and violet-colored irises, the features of maturity, and a handsome face devoid of expression appeared in the mirror. This is the Chief Warden's real face.

Lou Wuye looked around and wore his clothes. After coming out of the bathroom, he looked around the place and noticed a military uniform hanging in the wardrobe. He couldn't understand anything and could only check with his subsystem what was happening around him.

The chief warden woke up his subsystem.

"Subsystem, check what is happening. Why did I wake up in this place with my real body and check if you can contact someone among the group?" said Lou Wuye, who sat on the nearby couch.

The sound of something rebooting and a robotic voice were heard from within his thoughts.

[Ding! Subsystem X is online]

[Requesting to be connected to the world database.]

[World Database connected.]

[Finding necessary information without leaving tracks.]

Hmp!

All of a sudden, the god of this world noticed the presence of a weak system prying in its world. With the pressure that comes from its scream, the subsystem was forcibly taken out of the world database, and its connection to it was cut off.

[Ding! Ding! Error detected. The connection with the World database had been forcibly cut off.]

[Copying data was halted. The world god had interfered.]

[Now processing the copied data to the host. A lot of crucial information is gone. Host, please accept the transfer of information.]

Chief Warden closed his eyes and said, "Transfer Approved."

{Broken bits of information were passed in the head of Lou Wuye. He saw the treaty between the sea monster and humans broken because the humans had killed the mermaid king, which enraged the sea god.

The forbidden capture of anything from the seas, or else the Sea God will attack the land once more. All outsiders, like world hoppers, will be thrown to the sea and live with the humans. Except for the powerful ones, whose souls will split into two parts that live in the ocean.

Those whose soul was split cannot leave the world unless their soul merged. They will be trapped in this world forever until the world is destroyed.}

The Chief Warden opened his eyes and mumbled, "Split soul. One human and one sea monster. No wonder before I wake up in my human body my senses are in the sea and when I wake up I will become human."

Lou Wuye was thinking about what to do next when he heard the sound of water being flipped. His eyes narrowed as he sensed another presence in the room. He stood up and walked towards the sound without any sounds from his footsteps.

Until he reached a room with a huge pool and saw a huge fishtail flicking within the pool. A shade of emerald light flashes before his eyes.

Splash~ splash~

The chief warden walked towards the pool fearlessly, and suddenly, the moment he stood near the pool, the sound of water flapping halted. Only silence spreads in the pool room.

Lou Wuye stares at the pool, which looks dark due to the lack of light. His eyes glow with violet shade, making them visible even in the darkness. The pool area isn't fully enclosed. The part of the ceiling was made of glass, allowing one to see the sky above.

It was now evening and the sky, which was devoid of stars, flashed with a bit of moonlight peeking through the glass. Just as the chief warden saw what creature was hiding in his pool. A huge emerald-colored fishtail came out of the pool near his feet and dragged him into the water. The sound of something heavy falling into the water was heard.

FLOP!

Chapter 1616 22.3 Third Red Star - Main City Hospital

The chief warden was pulled into the pool of water. He didn't fight back when his ankle was caught by something slippery, as he wanted to see who dared to sneak into his house and pull him into the water. He remained calm as he opened his eyes underwater. The pool was dark and devoid of light except for some moonlight falling from the evening sky.

He could feel a presence swimming around him, but it was a bit too fast for him to catch his gaze. But the moment a flash of emerald appeared in front of him, he immediately stretched his hand and captured it.

Within his hand is a slippery feeling, the same sense of touch when holding on to a fish. He pulled it out of the water as he himself also jumped out and threw it toward the sky.

As the moonlight fell on the creature's appearance, the chief warden was stunned. That's a face that is always in his dreams—the appearance that he always yearns for. The face of his beloved, Yun Ming. The only difference is that this is not a human but a half-fish, half-human one. The one who was called a mermaid.

The naked upper body of his beloved was exposed, with his wavy, long, dark brown hair flowing on his front and back. A pair of fin ears and a few scales on his cheeks.

The chief warden was mesmerized and forgot to call his lover. The emerald-tailed mermaid twisted his waist and gave the rude man who pulled him out of the pool a powerful tail whip to his face. He couldn't see the latter's face and went for the kill.

'Shit!' The chief warden raised his arm to block the incoming and was slammed to the wall of the pool room.

Warden Yun Ming, on the other hand, was still adjusting to his mermaid body. He first wakes up inside a clamshell which is only slightly bigger than an adult human's hand. When he saw his reflection and realized that he had become a little mermaid the size of a pocket watch with his real appearance he was stunned for a moment, then finally recalled that this world had no main characters, just beings that existed before the disaster.

He was looking around and found no other way to get out of the big aquarium. Plus, as a little mermaid, he must keep his tail wet or he will dry up. Since he had nothing to do, Warden Yun Ming meditated and checked his body. He can feel that half of his soul is missing and that his divinity is sealed as well.

He tried poking at his divinity and suddenly his little mermaid's body had grown. The little aquarium becomes too small for him. Thankfully, his main element was water, and saw a pool not far from him.

After controlling the water to remove him inside this aquarium, he was brought to the pool and was swimming around happily when he noticed a presence that arrived in the living room. The pool area is close to this receiving area.

There was no light in the pool area and I saw a figure coming closer to itself. Just as this figure stood a foot away from the pool, Warden Yun Ming took this chance and pulled the man into the water. It can be said that for mermaids, water is their domain.

Yun Ming did expect this person to be able to grab his tail despite his speed. It seems this man is no ordinary person. Moreover, he feels that his qi was leaning a bit toward this person as if he had some kind of spiritual connection. Before he could react after being caught, he was pulled out of the pool by force.

These actions angered Warden Yun Ming, who struggled to break free from the hold. Once his tail was free, he chose to give this person a huge slap with his tail. In that split second, moonlight hit the man's face, and Yun Ming was surprised; it was the face of his lover, Lou Wuye. However, it was too late to stop his tail, plus he was in midair.

Warden Yun Ming shouted, "A'Wu! Block it!"

The Chief Warden blocked the fierce mermaid tail coming for him, and he hit the wall of the pool area. Before he directly hits the wall, a thin veil of water protects his back, and a loud sound of something falling back into the water is heard.

Splash!

Urgh~

Despite the slight dizziness in his head, Chief Warden Lou Wuye immediately runs back to the pool to check on his lover. He heard him falling with such an impact and was worried about him.

Lou Wuye shouted, "Ming'er! Are you alright?"

The mermaid with an emerald-colored fishtail surfaced from the pool to the edge and met Lou Wuye's eyes.

"A'Wu!" Warden Yun calls.

Yun Ming's features become even more delicate due to his race being a mermaid. He reached out his arms, wanting to hug his lover's neck. Lou Wuye pulled him over and hugged him beside the pool, keeping his tail inside to prevent dehydration.

The two lovers hug each other until they calm down.

Lou Wuye asked, "Sweetheart, why did you become a fish?"

"I don't know. When I opened my eyes, I was a little mermaid. Thankfully, this is your home. I would have killed my owner if he was some kind of scumbag. However, I've checked my identity with the subsystem even though it was blocked at the last moment, and I've learned a few things. I am an artificial mermaid born from the genes extracted from a mermaid egg," said Warden Yun Ming.

Chief Warden Lou Wuye asked, "Can you turn human?"

Warden Yun Ming tried, but the energy in his body wasn't enough to do it.

He said to his lover, "For now, it is not possible. However, if I gather enough energy, I might be able to do so in the future. Even my current size is temporary."

"That means I have to sleep in the pool area with you for now. Until then I will investigate outside on my own. You can research things on the star web at home. Just don't hack into their system for too long. I don't know if the being that blocked our subsystem's contact to the world database had his clutches in the star web itself," said the Chief Warden.

Warden Yun Ming asked, "What is your role in this world?"

Recalling the uniform in his wardrobe, Lou Wuye answered, "I might be a soldier in this world."

Ring~

The Chief Warden's terminal was ringing. Clearly, someone was trying to call him. Seeing this, Yun Ming moves away from the line of sight where the camera will be seen and falls back into the pool.

Seeing this, Lou Wuye accepted the call request and saw other soldiers like himself.

[Colonel, the general had fainted again. His spiritual domain's damage had spread. We need to find him a mermaid that fits him before he completely loses consciousness.]

The chief warden asked, "Where are you right now?"

[Main City Hospital]

Lou Wuye said, "I'm coming over. Until then, don't spread the fact that the general had fainted. Try to keep him awake if possible."

[Yes, Colonel!]

Click!

The call ended when the conversation between Lou Wuye and the Lieutenant was finished. As the call was done, Chief Warden Lou Wuye looked at his lover.

Lou Wuye asked, "Sweetheart, do you think it's possible for you to turn into a small human instead?"

"I will try," Yun Ming said.

An hour later, Colonel Lou had left his house wearing a coat with a huge chest pocket. Inside the pocket is a miniature version of Warden Yun Ming with a small pair of legs. The two rode a hover car and headed to the Main City Hospital.

The main city hospital was in a secret lockdown. Though they're aren't any military personnel in uniforms, there are military men in civilian clothing spread all over the hospital and silently protect the area where the general is.

As soon as Colonel Lou Wuye arrived at the VIP area, the two soldiers outside saluted him.

"Sir Colonel!"

"Hm. Good work," said Lou Wuye as he entered the VIP room after it was opened by them.

Inside the VIP room, Lou Wuye and Yun Ming immediately recognize the general bedridden on the bed. Even though the general's eyes were closed, his handsome features were enough to tell who it was.

Lou Wuye mumbles, "As expected, it's the lord."

A soldier who called for him before saluted, "Colonel Lou, the general hasn't woken up after fainting, but the machines say it wasn't a deep sleep but a shallow one. However, for some reason, he doesn't wake up. The doctor says that his injured spiritual domain might be the cause."

"Also, there are three illegal little mermaid auctions we have found. Do we need to sneak in and save the little mermaids?"

"Standby for now. I will try to wake up the general. Until they remain on standby," Colonel Lou Ye ordered.

The soldier saluted and said, "Yes, Sir Colonel! I will inform the others. Please excuse me!"

Lou Wuye commanded the subsystem in his mind, 'Turned off all surveillance cameras and tools in this room, subsystem.'

Subsystem X responded, [All cameras and surveillance tools had been deactivated, host!]

Chapter 1617 22.4 Third Red Star - Not Waking Up

After the soldier left the room, Yun Ming peeked his head out from the Colonel's chest pocket and saw that only the three of them were inside.

Warden Yun Ming asked, "Have all the surveillance cameras in the room turned off?"

"I had the subsystem turned off," said Lou Wuye.

After hearing his lover's reply, Yun Ming, with a palm the size of an adult's, climbs out of Colonel Lou Wuye's breast pocket. The only difference is that his little mermaid tail is replaced by a small pair of human legs. He is now like a living doll, but gorgeous and petite.

Yun Ming said, "Pardon me."

Mermaid Yun Ming stood above the sleeping general's head and placed his hands above it without touching it directly. He extends his qi to probe into the general's soul domain. Just as he was about to spread his qi in the soul domain, fierce qi pushed him out.

Yun Ming, in reality, suffered a backlash and puke blood. However, he didn't open his eyes and continued to pour his qi into the general until the split soul of this man in the sea woke up. A loud, monstrous roar can be heard under the deepest trench of the ocean.

After forcing his qi to slightly heal the injuries in the general's soul domain while ignoring the backlash, Yun Ming with a pale face finally fainted. Colonel Lou caught his fainted lover and immediately pulled out a healing scroll in his personal inventory from Vearth. A golden glow fell on Yun Ming, and his white face slowly turned rosy.

After a few minutes, Yun Ming wakes up. The Colonel's worried face finally showed relief and pulled his lover near his face for a hug.

"Thank God! You're alright, Ming'er!" said Colonel Lou Wuye.

Yun Ming said, "Don't worry, A'Wu. I wasn't hurt much. There is no intention to kill from the Lord's qi. He might have recognized me, but for some reason, he can't wake up."

"The damage on his soul domain is too big. It might not be his original problem at all, but something this world had given to him. The star we are in is against him."

Lou Wuye frowned when he heard such a thing. This is the first world that showed such rejection towards his lord. Normally, such rejection isn't too powerful. Locking his lord in a body that couldn't move too much had happened to him before when he was the Ghost King.

However, this is the first time the world is preventing him from waking up at all. No matter who was the ruler of this place, it can be said his hatred towards the God of Void is too powerful.

Chief Warden Lou Wuye asked, "What should be done?"

"We need to find a master. He is the only person who can safely enter the lord's soul domain and wake him up," said Yun Ming.

The Chief Warden, as if remembering something, recalled that his lord was supposed to be accompanied by Zhi Yang.

He asked, "Where is Zhi Yang?"

The pair looked at each other and realized that something big must have happened to Lord Ye after they entered the world. He must have met someone, and Zhi Yang was taken away by that person.

With a serious expression on his face, Yun Ming suggested. "Let's use our subsystem to find Zhi Yue. He is definitely with Master."

"Alright. I will try!" said the Chief Warden, Lou Wuye.

"Subsystem X, initiate communication request with System Yue," commanded Lou Wuye.

[Ding! Subsystem X is now online.]

[Requesting connection to the Nether System in Vearth.]

[Connection has been approved.]

[Please input your recorded name and occupation.]

"Lou Wuye. Chief Warden."

[Record has been found.]

[The Subsystem is now connected to the Main Server.]

[Initiating Request Communication Request to System Yue.]

[Request has been approved.]

[Host is now connected to System Yue.]

Ping!

Zhi Yue spoke through the connection: {This connection request, it's the Chief Warden, right? }

Lou Wuye shared his thoughts with his lover, Yun Ming, and allowed him to hear the conversation he was having with Zhi Yu.

[It's me. Where are you right now?]

Zhi Yue screamed, {Save me! Lord Hei is about to be sold off as a half-fish!}

The two wardens realized that the God of Destruction's situation was similar to Yun Ming's. He must have become a little mermaid. The only difference is that Yun Ming was bought by him before they woke up in this body, while the God of Destruction is left in the place where the little mermaids are sold off.

They are actually not worried about the God of Destruction; after all, restrictions are useless to someone as powerful as he is. That's why Zhi Yue was asking to be saved by them, as he is afraid of dying due to being implicated when the God of Destruction made his move.

The chief warden said, [Give me your coordinates. We are going to pick you up right now.

{We are at the Underground Auction Hall in the Main City Hotel.}

After the connection between the two systems ended, Chief Warden Lou Wuye and Yun Ming left the hospital. He left a puppet to protect the general while they were outside.

As soon as they stepped out of the general's room, the lieutenant appeared before him, trying to convince him again to buy a little mermaid for the general.

The Lieutenant said, "Colonel Lou, please believe me. The General will definitely wake up once we buy him a little mermaid. I have an invitation for an auction for little mermaids that will happen tonight. We must."

"Where is the location?" asked Colonel Lou Wuye.

The Lieutenant answers, "Underground Auction Hall in Main City Hotel!"

The eyes of the chief warden and Yun Ming showed delight. They planned to sneak into this location as they didn't have any invitations. Illegal auctions are the hardest to enter without an invitation, as each guest is limited to only one card, which allows only one person to be brought in with them.

Colonel Lou Wuye said, "Let's go. I'm going with you."

"Alright!"

Midnight at the Main City Hotel...

Colonel Lou Wuye and the Lieutenant named Shaka arrived at the hotel wearing civilian clothes. The colonel intentionally looked like a bodyguard, while the lieutenant acted like a rich young master.

The kind of young master that is well-known for his wealth. It seems that Shaka is indeed from one of the richest families in the city. His family is even richer than the royal family.

The two approached the hotel's reception, and Lieutenant Shaka showed his invitation for the auction hall discreetly.

"Beauties, we want to check in for two~," said Lieutenant Shaka as he lightly tapped on his auction invitation.

The receptionist remained smiling as she took the invitation to check whether it was real or not. As soon as it showed that it was real, the receptionist rang the bell on the table, calling the staff of the auction hall, pretending to be hotel staff.

A hotel staffer bowed his head towards them and said, "Esteemed guests, I will personally show you to your presidential suites."

"Alright. Go stand ahead!" Lieutenant Shaka said.

The two were escorted by the hotel staff in a corner elevator, which was used as a private one for the hotel owner. As soon as the elevator door was closed, the hotel staff passed two half-face masks to Lieutenant Shaka and Colonel Lou.

The guide said, "I will be your guide to the Underground Auction Hall. Please wear your mask for the secrecy of your identities, and I would like to check if you brought assets. The minimum assets in this auction will be $500 million."

A card reader was presented before Lieutenant Shaka and Colonel Lou Wuye. It's the kind of tool that only reads the assets and not the personal information of the card owner.

Colonel Lou Wuye was prepared for this and didn't believe that this card reader only took information from the card but also the card owner's personal information as well. Thus, they prepared a separate account named to someone random; this is especially true for Colonel Lou Wuye.

However, Lieutenant Shaka's family is too famous for their riches. With him arriving at this auction will show that they indeed have enough money.

Lieutenant Shaka still played the role of a young master. "Alright~ isn't it just half a billion?"

He pulled out a card with his family's personal bank crest, and the guide immediately showed a grin.

The guide said, "So it's the young master of the Shaka Clan! There is no need to check the card. Your companion must do so though."

Lieutenant Shaka shrugged his shoulders and said, "Do you think I will bring a beggar with me? Whatever, just swipe the card."

Colonel Lou Wuye didn't speak a word and took out a black card. It looks like an ordinary card, but when the card was swiped, the assets deposited on it made the hands of the guide tremble.

"500... 500... 500 Billion!!!" The guide screamed, and it even echoed badly inside the elevator.

Chapter 1618 22.5 Third Red Star - Sealed Clamshells

"500... 500... 500 Billion!!!" The guide screamed, and it even echoed badly inside the elevator.

The Chief Warden remained calm even after hearing such a scream. The guide was trembling as he raised his head to meet the Colonel's eyes. Unlike the disdainful gaze he had before, his eyes were now glowing at this moment, looking at the colonel as if he were a walking bank.

The guide lowered himself before the colonel and said, "Oh my~ this servant is blind not to recognize a VIP customer. We will do our utmost best to provide the two esteemed guests with a personal room to rest during the whole auction."

"Hm. Then we will leave it to you," said Lieutenant Shaka.

The guide excused himself and went to the corner of the elevator, making a few calls. On the other hand, Lieutenant Shaka sneaks beside the Colonel and whispers something to him.

Lieutenant Shaka asked, "Colonel, where did you get such a large amount of money? I never knew you were also from a rich family."

"I am not. This money is his (General). I just borrowed it for now. After all, it is his mermaid that we are going to buy for," said Colonel Lou Wuye.

Lieutenant Shaka was startled. He didn't expect that Colonel Lou had access to the general private assets and was stunned for a moment. He, who suggested buying the little mermaid was an illegal action, was not accepted by the military. After all, he planned to buy a mermaid and give it to the General as a way to show his affection. Now such a plan might no longer be possible.

He mumbles, "I should have asked someone else."

However, since the current situation where the head is down and the need for the little mermaid is urgent, Colonel Lou agrees to his recommendation of buying a little mermaid for the general.

The Chief Warden observed Lieutenant Shaka. Likewise, Yun Ming was secretly doing it as well. The couple can only converse using divine consciousness due to the situation where they can't openly talk to one another.

In their thoughts:

Lou Wuye: What do you think, Ming'er?

Yun Ming: He seems to want to do something and most likely is trying to buy a mermaid to be given to the general. It might be because he likes him or wants something from him. Either way, you can't let him find his master and buy him for the Lord.

The Chief Warden, Lou Wuye, imagines a scene where he was bought by someone like Lieutenant Shaka and was given to the General, who is Lord Ye, as a sign of showing his love. Not only Lieutenant Shaka will die on the spot, but his milord will suffer as well.

Lou Wuye: Alright! We must find Lord Hei and Zhi Yue as soon as possible.

Ding!

The elevator finally reached the floor where the auction would be done. As soon as the elevator door slid open, Colonel Lou and Lieutenant Shaka were welcomed by a line of staff upon exiting.

"Welcome to the venue, esteemed VIP guests!"

Lieutenant Shaka is startled by this scene. However, the Colonel remains unperturbed by it.

The guide stepped in and said, "Lords, we have prepared a room for you where you can stay during the whole auction. The location is near the stage, and you can see everything from that room."

"Lead the way," said Colonel Lou Wuye.

The guide and staff happily escorted the pair to a private room. Though there were lots of esteemed guests in the auction, only Colonel Lou and Lieutenant Shaka were given such special attention. The reason for this is simple: it is because of their exposed assets, which are more than a billion. A lot of eyes had fallen on them as well, including the hidden royal family prince and princess within the crowd of guests.

Within the crowd, First Princess Rosa and Second Prince Rion were together in one corner wearing their masks. However, despite their faces hiding just the fact that both of them had blond hair, which signifies the royal family's bloodline, a lot of people already recognize them.

First Princess Rosa whispered, "Brother, that's a descendant of the Shaka Family, isn't he? That slick red hair of his is a family trait of the Shaka family. Will we be able to buy a mermaid with him here?"

"Don't worry. I will have a talk with him later. Even though the Shaka clan is wealthier than the royal family, they are still under the empire," the second prince, Rion, said.

The royal family in the empire is just a figurehead. The one ruling the empire is the military, or, in short, the general. However, since he had recently disappeared, those hyenas started coming out of their places wanting to take control of the empire while the ruler was gone.

Among these groups is the Royal Family. They have been secretly amassing knights under their command and to keep them in line, they need a little mermaid to pacify them. After all, almost all warriors needed a little mermaid to remove the taint within their soul domains. The First Princess and the Second Prince wanted to buy a few little mermaids to sing to their royal knights.

Back to the private room where Colonel Lou Wuye and Lieutenant Shaka were sent, a small table of luxurious pastries and snacks was laid on it.

The guide said, "If there is something you want to eat, please tell our staff right away!"

"Alright. You may go," said Lieutenant Shaka.

As soon as the other staff left the private room, Lieutenant Shaka was about to remove his mask but was stopped by the colonel.

Colonel Lou Wuye said, "Keep your mask on. Help me check if there is a listening device or hidden cameras in the room. Once we get surrounded and exposed we will be dead."

Lieutenant Shaka nodded his head and started looking around. As expected, they found a few and destroyed them. The staff noticed what they had done but didn't react much. What they did is something in line with the situation, and as the people who arranged the place, they shouldn't have done such a thing.

Meanwhile, the staff apologized to them after the broken tools were exposed to them. The pair was given a discount as an apology for what unfolded in the private room.

The guide said, "We apologize for what the other personnel had done. They wanted to see your faces and did such an unprofessional thing. Don't worry, they will be punished."

"Leave now," said Colonel Lou Wuye.

It is clear in his tone that his mood had gone bad from the initial impression. After Colonel Lou and Lieutenant Shaka entered the private room, the guides and other staff had gathered in one area. They were all collectively scolded by their boss.

"You told me you wouldn't be found out! Look what happened now!"

"Boss, I've definitely hidden it somewhere ordinary people shouldn't know!"

"Are you a fool? None of our guests are ordinary! The young man beside him was already someone from the Shaka Clan."

"Someone who can be accompanied by someone from the Shaka Clan is never simple."

"A discount card had been given. However, will they even use it?"

"How many percent was it?"

"30%."

"Tsk! That was our golden goose! I shouldn't have agreed to have their private room bugged. If they are offended and choose to not buy anything, it will be considered my fault."

Meanwhile, before the auction began, a few scientists ran to their professor's room.

"Professor! Someone bad is happening!"

The professor who was waiting to rack the gold was surprised with what just happened.

"What the hell are you shouting about?" exclaimed the angry professor.

One of his disciples came running towards him and reported the bad news.

"Professor, the latest batch of mermaids from the broken aquarium before had locked themselves to their clamshells. It cannot be pried open at all!"

"What are you doing? Can you do something about an ordinary clam bed!?" The professor retorted.

The professor followed his disciple to the preparation room. On a long table, a few tightly closed clamshells were exposed to the eyes of the professor. He grabbed one and tried to open it with his bare hands. However, it was no use.

Only his old face turned red from trying; he tried the other clamshells as well but failed to open even one. In anger, the professor took a metal hammer from his disciples and hit the clam with all he had. Unfortunately, the impact of his hit had no effect. This clamshell is now even harder than a diamond. It was the hammer that flew instead of the clamshell.

ARGH!

The professor was crazy about this scene and shouted in annoyance. No matter what they do with the clamshell, nothing happens to it at all. They couldn't understand why that was happening and how things happened like this.

A disciple said, "Maybe Senior Brother had frightened the little mermaids so much?"

"...so they closed themselves to their clamshell bed to hide?"

"How will they be able to eat though?"

Everyone stares at the clamshells and says the same thing. Will the little mermaids hiding inside be able to eat? The answer is yes. It was all thanks to Zhi Yue, who can freely control space. He will frequently throw in some seaweed, water, and food every day.

Their clamshell bed sealed like this wasn't done by the mermaids but by Hei Anjing instead. After learning that they would be auctioned tonight, he planned to escape altogether. The premise is that the little mermaids didn't want to be sold to hide in their shells, and they would be taken away by him.

Half of the little mermaids from the same aquarium as the God of Destruction agreed, while the other half wanted to find an owner for themselves. These were mermaids hypnotized by the humans that they would be given a house, a pool, and everything they wanted in exchange for their singing.

The professor was furious at this unsolvable situation.

"Professor, are we still going to auction these guys?"

"Auctioned them!" The professor said,

"B-But I don't think the guests will buy something unsure of whether there is a little mermaid inside the shell."

The professor said, "Prepare the ultrasound machine and use it live. As long as the shape of the mermaids is shown, it can be sold. As for whether the customer can pry it open, it depends on the buyer."

Chapter 1619 22.6 Third Red Star - Auction

After the long wait for the auction to begin, the stage was finally filled with people. First, a huge aquarium covered the whole stage. It wasn't completely covered, and all the guests could see a little mermaid swimming around it.

There are also countless sea clamshells closed with a slight gap allowing to meet a pair of eyes in them. Among these clamshells, one with silver color looks the cleanest. However, this shell is completely closed.

The host for tonight's auction is a gorgeous lady in a sexy, tight dress that emphasizes her curves and chest and shows off her jade-like legs. The hot-headed youths in the crowd couldn't help but stare at this beautiful host.

"Good evening to all of our invited guests! Welcome for tonight's auction for little mermaids. These little treasures were recently hatched and each one of them were created from the genes extracted from the mermaid emperor eggs our team possessed."

"The rarer the color of the mermaid is, the higher the auction base price will be. Common colors are blue, yellow and red. Uncommon colors are green, violet and orange. Rare colors are grey, white, brown and black. Unique colors like gold and silver are the rarest!"

"As you can see, except for silver, we have all the colors. Monotonous ones and dual colored. One with the same tail and eye color and those with different tail and eye colors."

"Are you excited? Let's begin. Let the first mermaid take a swim to our slide~"

A slide connected to the big aquarium appeared and the end of this slide is a slightly smaller aquarium which is closer to the area. Once one of the mermaids falls to the slide, he or she will be auctioned. Food was used as bait at the entrance. Once the mermaid appeared at it, a weak suction would pull them towards the slide and fall out.

As expected, once the food was scattered by the entrance, one mermaid would fall out of the slide and open his or her eyes with countless human eyes on him or her. The first one to fall in was a common blue-tailed mermaid.

Hugging a seaweed in her embrace, she peeks behind the plant in her hand and looks at the humans with a mask before her eyes. She was afraid. After all, the only reason she came out was because she was hungry. Her greed placed her into this isolated bowl aquarium, exposed to countless eyes staring at her with greed in their eyes.

The little mermaid with blue-tails was terrified. But the humans knew their importance and made sure not to frighten her too much. The auction on this place only needs to press a button to show your bet. The increase had also fixed buttons with the lowest being 100,000 and the largest being 1 billion.

The host started once again, "Our first little mermaid had arrived. She might be a common type, however, like we said, all of the little mermaids today are born from the Mermaid King's egg. Their bloodline is higher compared to the little mermaids sent out before."

"The base price for common colored little mermaids is 1 million. Everyone may bid now!"

Suddenly, the large screen on the stage showed the bidder's number and their betting price. Colonel Lou Wuye's number is 01, while Lieutenant Shaka is 02. The Second Prince, Rion, is 03 while the first princess, Rose, is 04.

[Bidder 09 bids 1.1 million]

[Bidder 07 bids 1.5 million]

[Bidder 17 bids 2 million]

[Bidder 04 bids 2.1 million]

The host of the auction said, "2.1 million going at once."

"..."

"2.1 million going twice."

"..."

"2.1 million going thrice."

"..."

"Alright! Our first little mermaid is sold!"

The little mermaids were sold in such a way and the most common and uncommon ones were bought by the First Princess and Second Prince. Some rare ones were bought by the other guests, and even a unique one had been solved, but Guest 01 didn't bid for any little mermaid.

Even Guest 02 had bought a unique colored little mermaid, but nothing seems to interest Guest 01 into buying. The staff thought they had offended the VIP guest and taken revenge by not buying anything. Just thinking of such a thing, the guide and the guys who arranged the private room were now pale and nervous.

Now only unopened clam shells were placed on a table, which replaced the bowl aquarium and long aquarium on the stage. There are at least five clamshells on the table with varying shapes and the smallest and ugliest one in the center.

The guests were all staring at the clamshells on the table with confusion in their eyes. They couldn't believe that the people at the auction were willing to sell something this ugly to them.

As expected an angry guest shouted at them, "What the hell are you playing at? Isn't that a clamshell bed for the little mermaids? How can you sell used ones!?"

"That's right! Are you playing with us!?"

"Who the hell will even buy those!?"

The enraged guests were all shouting at the people on the stage. The host and staff were almost trembling under this criticism.

The host said, "That's not it! There are little mermaids inside these clamshell beds. It's just that they are too shy to come out and we can't open the shell bed no matter what we do."

"Please believe us! There are truly little mermaids inside these clamshell beds! Someone uses the ultrasound machine on these clamshells."

A few staff held small ultrasound machines and started using it to check each shell. Though the guests couldn't see the color of the little mermaids inside, the moving shape of a little mermaid can be found.

Finally, they tried to use the ultrasound on the smallest and ugliest clamshell on the table and saw a lying little mermaid inside as if sleeping and not moving at all.

The guests whispered to one another.

"Ah! Is that Little Mermaid dead?"

"Oh my~ it's not moving?"

"Can that be sold?"

"How ruthless!"

The hosts and the staff were once again sweating badly at this scene. They started shaking and knocking on the clamshell to wake up the little mermaid.

The host said, "Please don't think it's dead. It's only sleeping!"

Knock. Knock. Knock.

"Damn! Wake the hell up!?"

In the POV of Colonel Lou Wuye and Lieutenant Shaka in the private room during the auction.

Lieutenant Shaka said, "Colonel, I've bought a few little mermaids for the legion. This way our legion's soldiers will not have to suffer much from mental erosion."

"Good work," said Colonel Lou Wuye.

His eyes had never left the stage as he was looking for someone. He is looking for that stupid and silly moon that will definitely appear with Lord Hei. As most of the little mermaids were sold, Lieutenant Shaka noticed that the colonel didn't even fancy any little mermaids for the general.

Lieutenant Shaka asked, "Sir, why didn't you choose a mermaid for Sire (General)? There are lots of Little Mermaids this time."

"Nothing was suitable. Most of these Little Mermaids are fragile with weak wills. What would have happened if they met with the Sire's suffocating aura?" Colonel Lou Wuye said.

Lieutenant Shaka thought for a moment and said, "With how fragile the little mermaids are, they might... die under pressure? But is there truly a little mermaid with a strong personality that won't lose to the general's aura?"

"There should be at least one of them," said Colonel Lou Wuye.

All of the sudden, when the clamshell beds were placed on a long table on the stage, Yun Ming peeked out from his lover's shoulder which startled Lieutenant Shaka.

Yun Ming spoke and said, "A'Wu, the smallest one on the stage. It's the Master. He is definitely the Lord! You must bring him home."

"Ah! Mph!!"

Colonel Lou Wuye covered Lieutenant Shaka's mouth, which was about to scream, and said, "Don't shout. Ask later!"

The poor little lieutenant glanced at Yun Ming, staring at him with gentle eyes, nodding his head like a pecking chicken.

Yun Ming was panicking as they saw the humans on the stage shaking the clamshell with the smallest size. He said, "Oh my god, what are they doing? That's the master inside of that shell sleeping!"

"M-Master, you don't mean... Leader of the mermaids," Lieutenant Shaka asked but the two wardens were so focused on the stage that they couldn't respond to his questions.

On the stage, System Yue was hovering around hitting the humans trying to shake away Lord Hei. Even though Lord Hei might be mischievous in nature, he is scared if someone forcibly wakes him up, especially in such a rough way of trying to wake him up.

[Ah. Ah! Stop that! Are you insane!? You'll be pissed off, Lord Hei! Stop. Stop. Stop!!]

Unfortunately, no one can hear the panic of the little moon system or see the terrified expressions of the two wardens inside the private room. The guests were all intently staring at the ultrasound's result on the huge screen.

At this moment, the small camera on the table beside the ultrasound machine took a record of what's happening on the table. The moment the smallest clamshell slightly opened what met the eyes of everyone in the area was a pair of cold and fierce yet gorgeous silver eyes.

A freezing cold voice echoes in the whole floor saying,

"Who the hell shook me awake so roughly? Do you want to die?" said Hei Anjing, who was holding his head with a huge bump on it.

Everyone who was staring at the camera was dazed. They never expected to meet such a pure silver-colored little mermaid and one that has intelligence such as this one.

Everyone's thoughts at this moment: 'A little mermaid that can talk!'

Chapter 1620 22.7 Third Red Star - King of Mermaids

Everyone's thoughts at this moment: 'A little mermaid that can talk!?'

They were surprised to see a little mermaid capable of speaking like a human being. This is the first of their kind. They all look at Hei Anjing, this silver-tailed little mermaid with greedy eyes, which does not make Hei Anjing feel disgusted by the way he is being gawked upon.

In the private room, Lieutenant Shaka was already running around the room in shock. He thought the little mermaid in the Colonel's breast pocket was a strange little mermaid that could talk, but seeing a second one said another thing.

Lieutenant Shaka murmurs, "Another little mermaid that can speak! Does that mean that the little mermaids can speak human? How come no one has discovered this all this time?"

"Maybe because you see us, little mermaids, as tools to heal your soul domains and not treat us as your equal. Why would we waste our saliva on beings that don't see us as mere tools for healing?" said Yun Ming.

This is actually an original thought of the identity he is using. Most little mermaids in this world thought the same thing.

{There is no need to speak. Humans already treat us as tools. If they learn we can communicate, will they experiment on us?}

Because of these collective thoughts, none of the little mermaids dared to speak. Maybe there are some who do, but that is only towards someone who gains their full trust.

These words of Yun Ming were like a hammer hitting the head of Lieutenant Shaka. He fell seated, thinking of the little one at home. Even though he had treated his little mermaid better than the others. One cannot deny the fact that he also treated his little one as a tool.

He would only speak with him at that time. He didn't ask if he was hurt or what he wanted to eat. He just provided everything to the guide. He doesn't even carry around his little mermaid like how the colonel does. He does seem to be a failure in the eyes of his little mermaid. Someone who cannot be trusted and someone he doesn't need to speak with.

Just thinking of this situation made him feel guilty like all the other guests in the auction hall.

On the stage, the humans looking at Hei Anjing with greedy eyes made him look at them with contempt. He is very disgusted with them.

Hei Anjing said, "Your eyes are disgusting! Making me want to pierce through them~"

His playful words sound terrifying. These words were enough to wake most humans, who are greedy but not bad at heart. There are some who felt even more attracted, as they wanted to have him more.

Even the professor from the backstage appeared with excitement on his face, climbing up with excitement and staring at Hei Anjing like a new subject to experiment on.

The professor said, "A talking, little mermaid! You cannot be sold! You must return to the laboratory with me!"

He reached out a hand, trying to grab a little mermaid, Hei Anjing. Due to his excitement, the professor didn't notice the disdain within that part of the silver eyes. Just a few inches away from Hei Anjing, the extended hand of the professor was suddenly covered with ice. From the tip of his middle finger to his entire hands up to his arms, the moment the ice spread, everyone in the area was shocked.

ARGHHHH~

Hei Anjing watched the professor with a cold face as he slowly turned into a human popsicle.

His sarcastic words echo in the hall: "Among all the humans I've met, you are the most disgusting among them. You even stole the Mermaid King's Egg. Once those in the ocean hear what you did, your human race will be over~"

"Ah? You can no longer hear me," said Hei Anjing. He snapped his finger, and the frozen professor exploded into broken pieces of ice. He no longer existed after the God of Destruction cleaned him up.

AHHH!!!

"HE KILLED HIM!"

The moment the professor was killed, someone within the crowd shouted. The fear that lingers in the auction hall intensified. The staff in the area gathered the guards and pointed guns at Hei Anjing. The host and other staff had long run down the stage.

The guards said, "You've killed a human! You are not suitable for existing!"

"Oh~ is that so?" asked Hei Anjing.

He once again slapped his fingers, and all the guards that pointed a gun at him ended up the same way as the professor. They turned to ice faster and exploded into pieces afterward.

The God of Destruction once again looks at the humans seated in front of him. This time no one dares to speak, to scream, or even to look at him. The greed was now replaced with horror. Especially for the little mermaid owners who treated their mermaids so badly.

Hei Anjing said, "A fair reminder~ since I am awake, the little mermaids' inherited abilities will awaken, and those who abuse and torture their little mermaids, I can only say: Good Luck~"

Among the humans, there is someone who is brave enough to ask questions to Hei Anjing. They realized one thing after hearing his words. This outspoken little mermaid must be some kind of high-class mermaid.

"S-Sir, can I... ask something?" A human asked.

Hei Anjing only glanced at him and yawned.

"What is it?"

"Do you little mermaids hate humans like how those sea monsters are?" The human asked.

Hei Anjing wiped his gathering tears from yawning and said, "If we do, why are you still alive?"

This response was sarcastic but is a clear answer that made the human who asked feel relief.

"However, not all humans are like you who treated your little mermaid as a family. Those who are abused will kill their owners and return to the sea. While those who received their love will now be able to hear their voice. That's the gift that was given to my kin after I woke up."

"This situation cannot be avoided. Those who tried to save those who harmed and abused them will also be killed. I have given you a warning, right? It's time for me to clean off the trash among you~" said Hei Anjing.

The moment his words fell, those guests who abused their little mermaids started running. However, the moment they stood up, they instantly became a human popsicle, breaking into countless pieces as well.

Hmp!

"Trying to escape? That's not possible~," said Hei Anjing.

The surviving humans realized that this silver-tailed little mermaid was so powerful.

Hei Anjing spoke, "As for the guests who bought a little mermaid tonight, take care of them well. Either way, once you abuse them, you will be dead anyway."

With a wave of his hands, the closed clamshells floated around him and said, "These little ones didn't want to get involved with humans and will be sent back to the ocean. But the way, if there is a human that killed a little mermaid, expect my personal visit~ you have been warned."

Hei Anjing directly teleported to the private room where Lieutenant Shaka and Colonel Lou Wuye were. He suddenly appeared before them making the dormer terrified and hid away from this dangerous little mermaid that appeared out of nowhere.

At this moment, Yun Ming came out of the pocket and bowed down towards Hei Anjing.

"Master, you're back," said Yun Ming.

Hei Anjing nodded at Yun Ming and then glanced at Lieutenant Shaka. He voiced a word with his 'Authority' skill.

He said, "Sleep."

Lieutenant Shaka fell asleep after he said this word. He fell head first on the couch in such a comical way. Seeing that the only outsider was down, the God of Destruction asked them a question.

"Have you found Xia?" Hei Anjing asked.

The Chief Warden and Warden Yun Ming nod their heads. However, their expressions don't look good. Hei Anjing noticed that, and his face turned serious.

The God of Destruction asked, "Something happened to him?"

"Master, I've checked his soul domain, and its defensive measure was fully activated. I couldn't even temporarily wake him up no matter what I did," said Warden Yun Ming.

Chief Warden Lou Wuye said, "Zhi Yang had gone missing."

[WHAT!? TAKEN AWAY!] Zhi Yue exclaimed when he heard that his partner was taken away.

The God of Destruction asked, "Do you know or have seen who did it?"

"No, Master. We only found his human alter ego in comatose. Our souls had been split in this world. One that lives on land and the other in the ocean. But those who were reborn as little mermaids like us didn't get our souls split. Only those who woke up as humans do" said Warden Yun Ming.

Hei Anjing frowned and asked, "Your split soul in the ocean is a part of you or a different you?"

"It might be the latter. Humans and creatures of the sea in this world are enemies," said the Chief Warden.

Sigh~

The God of Destruction said, "For now, bring me to Xia's human form. I will try to wake him up. Zhi Yue, don't try to save Zhi Yang on your own. If someone can capture him, then whoever did that is on the same level as us. It is either the soul fragment of Hunluan or... someone else."

Zhi Yue's mood turned depressing at the thought of Zhi Yang being captured but did dare go against the order of the God of Destruction.

[Yes, Lord Hei.]

Hei Anjing comforted him, "Yang was created using my soul essence as core and also signed a soul contract with me. He won't die unless I do. So don't worry, Yue."

A small moon was crying as he rubbed himself on Hei Anjing's face. He was truly afraid that something might happen to Zhi Yang and that he couldn't do anything to save him.

While carrying the sleeping Lieutenant Shaka, they replaced themselves with a puppet and took their leave after removing all traces of the scene. It didn't take a while before the news of a high-level little mermaid was reported. The military had come over to investigate. They were actually shocked when they watched the recording that night, especially the warning of this intelligent little mermaid and his ability to control ice.

Their thoughts had been centralized on one topic: 'The king of Mermaids had woken up.'