

World Plot 1621

Chapter 1621 22.8 Third Red Star - Awake

After the group left the auction hall, they went straight to the Main City Hospital to check on the comatose general. Hei Anjing immediately turned into his small human form and was placed on the head of the sleeping general.

He immediately entered the general's soul domain and found himself in the deepest part of the ocean. Looking at the two wall cliffs on his left and right, the God of Destruction realized that he was in some kind of trench within the sea. He looked around and saw a black sea dragon chained and wounded, sleeping peacefully on the ocean floor.

The God of Destruction approached the sleeping sea dragon fearlessly and headed to the chains around the sea dragon. He tried pulling out one, but the moment he touched it, his divinity was sealed along. He felt helpless like a fish out of water.

Hei Anjing complains, "Why the hell there's a divine-sealing chain in his place!? Alright! Now, I'm pissed! Who the hell said I can't destroy this damn chain!?"

WHOOSH!

He was about to touch the nearest chain beside him when suddenly he felt the world swirl. He was suddenly grabbed at the waist by something. When he opened his eyes, he met two large, crimson, vertical iris staring at him. Looking down at his waist is a dragon claw that caught him firmly.

Hei Anjing was still fearless and smiled sweetly at the black sea dragon. "Hello, my love. Are you awake? Wait for me! I will definitely remove or destroy one or two chains so you can wake up."

The black sea dragon didn't respond and just kept staring at Hei Anjing, who was still looking at him with silver eyes full of warm affection. Even though the black sea dragon couldn't recognize this silver fish that fearlessly appeared before him, he is also not willing to harm it as well. He gently threw it away towards the top of the trench.

However, the clingy silverfish didn't let go and hugged his claws without fear. He was afraid that the little fish would get cut into half by force if it continued and immediately stopped the whirlpools he made to bring him to the surface.

When Hei Anjing opened his eyes, the whirlpool had disappeared, and he looked at the black sea dragon with eyes that looked like he was being bullied badly. Though his tears are nonexistent underwater, his crying sounds very pitiful. Especially when his emotions are intensified when his other half is involved.

Hei Anjing said, "You don't love me anymore. You want to send me away. Wuwu~"

The amnesiac black sea dragon was dumbfounded; he froze and didn't know what to do upon seeing the silvery fish cry. In reality, Hei Anjing was just acting. He wanted to know to what extent this sea dragon, who can't even remember him, is willing to pamper him.

As expected, the black sea dragon lowered his stance and placed one of his paws closer to Hei Anjing. The chain on this right paw had traces of breaking compared to the rest of the chains. The sea dragon didn't speak; however, his actions showed his thoughts. He wanted the silverfish to stop crying and did allow him to do as he wanted.

Hei Anjing stopped pretending to cry and happily hopped on the nearby dragon paws, holding on to it while checking the chains encircling it. There is a bit chipped part and a crack on the chain; however, it might look like a crack, but this chain is harder than steel. It can't be easily attacked again.

The God of Destruction avoided touching the chain as it made him feel weak. The moment he touched the chain, his divinity would waver and fall into a weakened state, which no one wanted. He climbed on the sea dragon's paw but avoided touching the chains and observing their effect. He wanted to find the right element to counter the chains.

Hei Anjing used all elements he could wield to test its effect on the chain. As expected, it caused the elements to disperse half an inch away from the chain itself. That's how the divine sealing chain's effects are.

It was even more restrictive towards divine energy, making a god become no different from a mortal once they wear this kind of chain. It was because of this chain that the Sea Dragon couldn't leave this trench and was imprisoned here.

The God of Destruction tried freezing the chain; however, the whole ocean was almost frozen with it. Thus, he can only try using his natal weapon and summon his death scythe, Juedi.

A silver-tailed mermaid holding a death scythe is such a unique combination. But aside from the quiet black sea dragon, there is no one else there to see this scene. Juedi spoke through his mind to his master's thoughts.

Juedi said, {Master, this is a divine-sealing chain. I can indeed cut it, but with your soul state, cutting one chain will lead to qi depletion, especially the fact that the moment I hit it, it would try to restrict us both. Do you still want me to try?}

The God of Destruction looked at his soul state and thought for a moment. He then decided, that even though he would be forced back to his physical body the moment he used Juedi to cut the chains, it was still worth a try.

'Alright. Let's do it after I say a few words to him,' responded Hei Anjing to his natal weapon's spirit.

Hei Anjing met the eyes of the black sea dragon and said, "After I cut the chain on your right wrist, you might be able to wake up in your other body. Even if you fall asleep again, we will meet again the next time I try to cut your chains again."

The black sea dragon didn't respond, but he kept his eyes on the silvery fish. There he saw him suddenly turn big, holding in his hand a deep red scythe lifted up for him to see. The next moment, a gorgeous glow of silver can be seen. This is a slash that directly targeted the broken chain on his right wrist.

THUD!

This is the sound of a broken chain falling to the ground. The black sea dragon looked at his freed right hand speechless and only heard the delightful and beautiful voice of the gorgeous silver fish, which he couldn't take his eyes away from.

Hei Anjing exclaimed, "Alright! It's cut!"

However, as soon as that part of the chains fell, the backlash of using all of his qi to cut the divine-sealing chain could no longer support his soul form. He started to fade before the eyes of the sea dragon. The black sea dragon tried to reach out his now-freed right hand, but his paws passed through the fading body of his silverfish friend.

Before completely fading, Hei Anjing reached out his pair of hands and held the now-free right paw of the sea dragon. The cold touch was enough for the sea dragon to feel the existence of the silverfish before his eyes.

"We will see each other again soon, Xia~"

Hei Anjing smiled at him while hugging his right paw and said before completely disappearing from the ocean. The black sea dragon tried to catch him, but only a cluster of bubbles was left behind.

ROAR~

The sea dragon's cries were full of anxiety and dissatisfaction. But after he howled, he was once again assaulted by sleepiness. The black sea dragon slowly closed his eyes and once again fell into a deep sleep. All it wished was to see that silverfish that brought light into his dark life.

In the Main Cities Hospital...

The monitoring machines around the general started beeping as a new set of heartbeats could be detected.

BEEP~ BEEP~

The Chief Warden Lou Wuye, Warden Yun Ming, who was playing chess on the side table, immediately stood up to check on the general. Zhi Yue had entered sleeping mode as his mind was filled with anxious thoughts making him uncomfortable. The sound in the hospital room woke him up, though.

Even Lieutenant Shaka, who treated himself as air and was still thinking of how he could get his little mermaid to speak with him, was also startled by the unexpected sound of the machines in the room.

Ugh~

The general sleeping on the bed finally opened his eyes, revealing a pair of crimson irises. He can feel a presence leaning on the top of his head and that familiar scent of snow and flowers. He gently grabbed the small thing leaning on his head and saw a sleeping Thumbelina version of his beloved.

He murmurs with a hoarse yet deep voice, "Jing'er?"

He sat up with the support of the Chief Warden, his subordinate, and also saw a small-sized Warden Yun Ming at the side table looking worriedly at the other small figure in his hands. Before he could understand everything he heard someone shout which made his sleeping wife frown in his sleep.

Lieutenant Shaka exclaimed in shock, "General Ye! You are awake!!!"

"Shut up!" responded General Ye Xiajie, who finally woke up after arriving in this world.

The whole process of the God of Destruction trying to wake his lover up had lasted for a whole week, and the former didn't even wake up even once to rest. Hei Anjing stayed in his soul domain and finally found his split soul in the ocean.

Of course, he couldn't clearly recall what happened in the ocean before he woke up and only looked dazed as he watched his beloved sleeping with peace in his hands. This experience was something a possessive man like him loved the most. The feeling of holding the treasure of your life within your hands is satisfactory. It's just that it worries him at the same time; no matter how much he calls his beloved's name, he wouldn't wake up at all Chapter 1622 22.9 Third Red Star - Sea God

In the Main City's Hospital. General Ye's Private Room...

After the general woke up, the military had finally gained their confidence and started ignoring the pressure from the royal family and blocked all that they were trying to bypass through the military's command. When the general was out of order, those hyenas started walking through them without care, as they did not have a leader who could suppress them.

But now that the general was awake, those who tried to use the military had all been punished. There are those who were dealt with the death penalty, especially those involved in the illegal creation of little mermaids.

Creating artificial mermaids was allowed; however, the facilities must pass the threshold of the military. The subjects for creation must not be taken from the ocean, as this will cause the treaty between the land and water to be broken.

That's why last night's auction was considered illegal, as the military found a mermaid egg that was disassembled into pieces and made countless artificial little mermaids with it. That's why an especially powerful little mermaid like Hei Anjing was born among the group and was treated as the king of little mermaids.

Well, with how powerful he is, the humans still look down on him. After all, he is only a little mermaid with the size of their fist. These turns were flipped over though when he showed his ability to kill humans. It was simple, fast, and almost unblockable.

Those who died had deserved it. The God of Destruction only needs to see through their memories and learn what they have done to their little mermaids. Most of the people in the crowd at the auction hall said that knights were good humans who cared for their little mermaids, and a few abusers and torturers of little mermaids were also found.

After these abusers were killed, the tortured little mermaid smiled and thanked their king. Some of these little mermaids had escaped and returned to the oceans, and the others died peacefully, returning to the oceans for rebirth.

The general who finally woke up was staring at his sleeping little mermaid in his hands. He was listening to the report from his subordinates about what happened while he was asleep.

Lieutenant Shaka said, "Lord general, the royal had been pressuring the military to give up its position after you fell into a coma. As for the traitor who had told your situation to the royal, he had been captured and tortured."

"Lou Wuye sent a final warning to the royal family. A few nobles were captured together with a record of their crimes and punishment, right? Push ahead those that need to be executed so the public can see what kind of nobles stood above them," said General Ye Xiajie. "Also, execution for those involved with illegal selling of unrecorded little mermaids."

Colonel Lou Wuye saluted and left the room to do as he was told. Of course, Yun Ming left with him. After the colonel had left, the Lieutenant wanted to approach the general and ask his state.

But as soon as he saw the sleeping little mermaid in his hand, he recalled how this gorgeous, doll-like little mermaid killed people without batting an eye. He immediately stepped back. The general noticed his reactions and didn't care much.

General Ye said, "I heard that you had suggested going to that auction house and even invited Colonel Lou with you. Normally, according to the protocol, you should be dismissed from work because of breaking it. However, it was thanks to this that I woke up and punishment was, and you won't be receiving any rewards for it."

Lieutenant Shaka was startled at first and then terrified next only when the general gave him a word that there would be no punishment that he sigh in relief.

"Thank you, General!" said Lieutenant Shaka.

General Ye said, "You may leave."

After Lieutenant Shaka had left the room, the supposed-to-be bedridden General stood up straight without any problems with his body. He used light elements to remove the fatigue on him and gently created a small nest for his beloved to fall asleep.

Zhi Yue, who was quiet the whole time, turned into his human form and asked the lord about Zhi Yang.

"My lord, where is Zhi Yang?" Zhi Yue asked.

The God of Void's face turns cold. He recalled what happened to him as soon as he entered this world together with the rest of them. As soon as they split up to find an identity to stay in this world, he was intercepted at the ocean area and his soul was captured and split up. Half of it was chained under the ocean and the other half was left to wander in the land.

As if the whole ocean has a mind itself, he was not only caught off guard but also overpowered. Recalling the soul fragments of the Ancient God of Chaos, Hunlun, Ye Xiajie immediately knew that the one who caught him was the Sea God that caused this world into the brink of destruction.

The Sea God had spoken. {Doth not int'rf're! The only way f'r me to leaveth this w'rld is f'r t to beest did destroy. Yond sir hast woken up and that gent shall forsooth findeth his remnant fragments liketh thou art and englut thee to receiveth stout'r. This is the only way to preventeth that gent from finding thee. Thee wilt only waketh up at which hour the destruction is beside thee}

Translation: [Do not interfere! The only way for me to leave this world is for it to be destroyed. That man has woken up, and he will definitely find his remnant fragments like you are and devour you to get stronger. This is the only way to prevent him from finding you. You must only wake up when the destruction is beside you.]

{I wanteth not to cometh backeth yet. As I haven't cleans'd the filth in this w'rld as mine own mission. Alloweth me b'rrow this dram guy. I needeth to contact someone from the upp'r realm. W'rry not. I shall alloweth that gent returneth to thee lief.}

Translation: [I don't want to come back yet. As I haven't cleansed the filth in this world as my mission. Let me borrow this little guy. I need to contact someone from the Upper Realm. Don't worry. I will let him return to you soon.]

After taking Zhi Yang away, the God of Void entered a coma until he was awakened by his wife, who came for him in his soul domain.

After hearing the explanation from his lord, Zhi Yue was slightly relieved. After all, it was the fragment of the Ancient God Hunluan who borrowed Zhi Yang's connections to the Nether System, and it's most likely to ask permission to speak to the soul of the Ancient God of Chaos, Hunluan staying in the upper realm.

The God of Void said, "Don't worry about Zhi Yang. He will be alright no matter what. He had signed a soul contract with me and Jing'er. Unless we both die, you and Yang will remain immortal. He will be back soon."

Zhi Yang said, "That's a relief. But what happened to Lord Hei?"

"Expanded his soul too much just to find my split soul in the ocean. That soul was sealed with divine-sealing chains. He used Juedi in his soul form to cut one of the chains off, and only then did I wake up," Ye Xiajie responded.

Zhi Yue asked worriedly, "Will Lord Hei be alright?"

"Don't worry. He is just tired and overused his qi. He will wake up after a night of rest. Zhi Yue, investigate the situation in this city. Do not go to the ocean," said the God of Void.

Zhi Yue returned to his avatar form and flew away to do his mission. After he left, the General looked after the sleeping little mermaid. A smile and a gentle one were shown on his handsome face. The coldness he had shown before is now gone. Within that pair of crimson eyes is a darkness that shouldn't be there.

Somewhere within the ocean, the God of Sea was located somewhere under it, surveying every water region. The Sea God is a huge mermaid with a silver tail and amethyst eyes. His size was at least as large as a small mountain. He was surrounded by large sea mammals like whales, dolphins, and such. However, he is cradling a black clam in his hands.

The whale spoke to him, "Sea God, is that thing still sleeping?"

"It's asleep. Let him rest a bit more. His soul was almost devoured, but he is resilient," the God of Sea said.

A dolphin asked, "Master, why did you save that thing? That one isn't even a human."

"Because it is my fault that he was caught off guard. Maybe I shouldn't have split his soul and let the other half fly back to the land unattended. Now his state is like this in deep sleep. That crazy one will get angry if he learns about this," said the God of Sea. The last sentence was whispered in remorse.

A little sun was hovering around the black clam and asked, "Then who took over the Lord's body?"

"Someone evil. You need to warn your companions," said the God of the Sea.

Chapter 1623 22.10 Third Red Star - Black Sea Dragon

Within the Ocean...

Zhi Yang, the sun system that is supposed to be taken away by the Sea God is now hovering around the black clam. Inside of it was the real human half-soul of the God of Void. As for whoever is inside the current body of the general, it is still unknown who was inside of it.

Looking at the sleeping soul of the God of Void within the black clam, Zhi Yang was thinking about how to tell the others. He can inform Zhi Yue about it, but telling him directly will put him in danger. The person capable of injuring Lord Ye like this must be someone powerful. The only safe way to resolve this situation was to indirectly tell his master, the God of Destruction, about this.

Moreover, with how sensitive his master's intuition is, there is no way he wouldn't have noticed that the man by his side is not his other half. Just in case he needs to inform the two wardens as well.

Zhi Yang first thought of the two subsystems in possession of the Chief Warden and Warden Yun Ming. He could forcibly send an encrypted message to them that only the wardens could understand.

It's just for now that it is impossible for him to appear before the group, as this will make the man who stole the body of the sovereign Ye realize that he is a fake God of Void.

While Zhi Yang was initiating contact with the two subsystems owned by the two wardens, a conflict like blocking their connection had been happening.

At first, Zhi Yang couldn't understand. After realizing that the person who took the vessel of Lord Ye was powerful enough to overpower him, there was no way that being wouldn't be able to cut off other foreign connections within that group.

If this is truly the case, he won't be able to contact the group by normal means. If there is a way, he can only use his soul connection with Zhi Yue. However, that's the last resort.

Zhi Yang looked through his camera system—the world's point of view—and observed the situation on the other side. The two wardens were sent away for a mission while Zhi Yue and the God of Destruction fainted from overusing his soul while restricted from using their divinity.

[Master is still asleep. Once he is awake, there is no way he won't notice that the one beside him is a fake one. However, if that man was truly who I thought he was. I might need to contact the main system and ask for help to contact that person. After all, that's how dangerous that being is.]

He was peeking through the world camera when suddenly Zhi Yang noticed that the General lifted his head and looked directly at him. The supposed pair of crimson eyes of his creator had turned deep black and sent shivers to his soul as this man gave him a creepy smile. The system interface before him exploded.

[ARGH!!!]

[WARNING! WARNING! The system had been damaged by unknown energy.]

[Issuing force hibernation for reconstruction.]

[Hibernation countdown is 24:00:00.]

System Yang was affected by the backlash and suffered a few errors in his system. This is the first time this has happened. Though this error wouldn't kill him, it would force him to enter self-hibernation until completely healed.

Zhi Yang said, "He got me! There is no other choice!"

He looked at the Sea God without speaking, but as if the former could understand what he planned to do, the Sea God pushed the black clam towards him.

{Go! However, if this man plans to block my plans, I will also make my move. This world must end for me to become free.}

Zhi Yang said as his countdown to hibernation was still ticking, "The Ancient God of Chaos, Hunluan's soul had woken up. He is in Vearth. He is reconstructing his real body. Don't you want to go back with him and merge with him? Also, even though you are his fragment compared to the resemblance of my master, that being won't notice you at all."

{Maybe you are right, however, I still wish to try. Also, you don't need to worry. It is impossible for that man to devour my soul. He would never devour that person's soul. He is his only source of sanity.}

Zhi Yang was pushed by the waves and the black clam in his possession. The waves as if they had their real minds keep pushing him and clam towards the deepest trench where the sleeping black dragon is.

{By the way, the black sea dragon in that trench is my supposed-to-be father in this world, and the mermaid king is my son.}

Zhi Yang was stunned and looked at the Sea God, who was giving him a mischievous smile. His expression was stuck for a moment as he was washed away.

However, if that black sea dragon is indeed the father of the God of Sea, doesn't that make him the half-soul of the God of Void's soul's son in this world? Not only will he have to call the God of Destruction 'Mother' because of the relationship between the God of Void and the God of Destruction in reality. General Ye, whose vessel was stolen by that person, will have to be called father by the Sea God, and the God of Destruction will need to call him grandfather.

What a strange relationship! The hierarchy within the sea god's family is so strange.

Zhi Yang heard the laughter of the God of Sea as he was pushed along the waves. It was only at this moment that maybe the mischievous nature of the God of Destruction was inherited from his master, the Ancient God of Chaos.

Somewhere in the Ancient Star, Hunluan, who was busy rebuilding his body, suddenly sneezes.

Achoo!

Not far from him, Lord Qiyuan was serving him some tea and snacks. Though the relationship between father and son is awkward, this doesn't prevent the Ancient God of Origin from living with his son.

Lord Qiyuan asked worriedly, "You sneezed! What if you catch a fever? You're overworking. How about a short rest?"

"I'm a soul. I won't get sick. Maybe someone is talking bad behind my back," said Hunluan as he took the cup of tea passed to him by Lord Qiyuan.

At the ocean's deepest trench...

Zhi Yang saw a huge sleeping black sea dragon. Seeing only the right hand of the dragon freed, Zhi Yang observed the chains all over this dragon. It seems the one who locked him down here must be that man's doing.

"Divine-sealing chains. To think such a thing would exist in this place. I have no other choice but to wake up the Sovereign," mumbles Zhi Yang.

However, just as he entered the range of the black sea dragon, he almost froze upon being that pair of crimson eyes. That pair of eyes was like blood itself. The more you stare at it, the deeper you fall into the abyss.

Zhi Yang was unaffected, as he was a creation made by the God of Void. The right paw that was extended about to crash down to him had been retracted and the stare at him became heated as if asking him to speak.

Noticing this, Zhi Yang took a deep sigh in relief and checked the countdown before his hibernation.

It took more than half a day to reach this place, and he only had ten hours left before he was forced to sleep for reconstruction and repair. He will be sent directly back to the Nether System once he falls asleep.

Zhi Yang immediately opened the black clam and placed it before the black sea dragon.

"My Lord, I can free you from your chains and give you this human soul. With it, you will be able to go aboveground where you can meet the silverfish who you like so much. He is in the human world."

At first, the black sea dragon was completely uninterested when being human was mentioned, but when he heard about the silverfish, the bored black sea dragon became interested.

"The silverfish was stolen by a bad guy who stole your original human body. The Lord can only come to the surface with your real body and morph into a human form. You need to be careful about that thief! He is ridiculously powerful and is obsessed with the silverfish."

The black sea dragon could no longer wait when he heard those words and picked up the black clam. As soon as its paws held the clam, it disappeared, and only the sleeping soul of the God of Void merged with the sea dragon.

The fusion of two half souls made it complete once again. It took a few hours before the fusion was finalized. The God of Void woke up and noticed the chains on his body.

"Where the hell is that bastard!? How could he devour my qi again? I will kill him even if he is my origin! I am not his fucking battery!" screamed the God of Void.

The enraged roars of the black sea dragon resound in the whole sea, terrifying everything in it. Only the sea god was unaffected and waved his hands to block his terrifying aura.

Chapter 1624 22.11 Third Red Star - Dream World

The God of Void was thoroughly enraged after experiencing someone once again taking away his qi. No, someone stole it again. Moreover, it's the same person. After shouting in anger for quite a while, the roaring sounds had faded. This is because the God of Void had vented enough and finally calmed down, though he was still very annoyed.

It was only when the God of Void had calmed down that he noticed something was weird with Zhi Yang. He made a grasping nature and absorbed a small sun in his sun and investigated the state of this sun system, and unexpectedly, he noticed that the core of Zhi Yang was damaged, causing an error.

Tsk!

The God of Void said, "If there is something wrong with you, speak up right away,"

Zhi Yang said, [I'm... sorry... C-Creator... Low... energy... about to... self-hibernate.]

"Since I am here, there is no need for that," said Ye Xiajie.

If this error isn't resolved, it will be forced to sleep. Ye Xiajie frowned and immediately repaired the broken parts and area on Zhi Yang. However, Zhi Yang is a system that signed a contract with his wife. To completely repair Zhi Yang, he needs his wife's power. Normally, he will find his wife and allow him to add his power, but thanks to the marriage imprint, he is capable of wielding the powers of his other half.

After repairing Zhi Yang, Ye Xiajie wielded his wife's powers and then added them to Zhi Yang. In the process, he was stunned as he could feel the power of glutton surging in his body.

The God of Void mumbles, "This is gluttony? Is my powers mixing with my wife's ability pool? What is happening?"

In a while, Zhi Yang, who was repaired on the spot, had some changes on him. The pure crimson ball of the sun had hints of a bit of violet and silver in it. Violet is the shade of a glutton, and silver is chaos. Just in case, Ye Xiajie checked his ability and discovered something he didn't expect. His ability to wield chaos had gotten stronger, especially after his qi was stolen from him twice by the same person.

The God of Void grits his teeth and mumbles, "An Shizhe! What the hell did he do to my body!?"

Zhi Yang has undergone a reset and will need a whole day of sleep to completely return to normal. Meanwhile, the God of Void checked his state and realized that his soul had merged with the body of this black sea dragon. No wonder he felt weird when he realized things were a bit smaller than usual. So, it became that he had become a dragon.

"No. I can't waste my time! That old bastard stole my vessel in this world again! I need to take my wife away from him!"

The God of Void was about to leave when he finally realized that he was chained, and it was the chain that blocked his divinity. Unfortunately, these chains are useless against him. Since it can only block divinity, then he can only use his natal weapon, Shenyuan, to cut the rules on this chain. A black sword was summoned by him.

Shenyuan, this God-Slaying sword, had appeared and cut the rules on these divine-sealing chains. After the rules were removed, it became an ordinary chain that broke with a bit of movement from Ye Xiajie.

Clang. Clangs~

The chains fell on the ocean floor broken and scattered on the ocean floor. Ye Xiajie stared at the broken chains and narrowed his eyes, mumbling something.

The God of Void grumbles, "Will this thing that can restrain divinity work on that old bastard? Well, to support himself in a body that isn't supposed to him, then I guess he used divinity to keep it intact. Let's repair it just in case."

He stayed under the cliff for another night repairing the divine-sealing chains into another lock, making it a weapon. He also waited for Zhi Yang, which was recently repaired, to wake up and reboot.

Once the next day had arrived and the sun had just risen, Ye Xiajie and Zhi Yang had finally surfaced above the ocean and stood on the surface of the sea itself. At this time, the huge black sea dragon had turned human. However, he can hardly hide his horns.

Zhi Yang said, "My Lord, your horns are showing."

Ye Xiajie touched his horn and retracted it. His eyes were also vertical irises and could only be masked with normal human eyes. From slit vertical irises to circle ones, his eyes remain crimson as well. It's just that his human form looks very similar to his original appearance, and the human body intended for him but was stolen looks exactly the same as it was supposed to do.

It is just that the vessel was housed in a different soul, making it follow the appearance of the soul inside the original owner of the body.

Ye Xiajie looked at the main city in the distance and couldn't help but miss his wife as always.

"Jing'er, wait for me. I will take you away soon."

On the other hand, the unconscious God of Destruction was having a conversation with someone in the dream world. He contacted his cousin, the God of Dreams: Mo Wanyi. The request of Hei Anjing is to meet Hunluan in the dream world and for Mo Wanyi to pull him into his domain.

Mo Wanyi, sleeping in a large cloud, hugging a huge sheep pillow and a blanket over him appeared in Hei Anjing's dream.

"Cousin, if I didn't say your name, that Ancient God of Chaos would most likely destroy me! Why didn't you explain things to him ahead of time?" complained the God of Dreams.

Mo Wanyi is the eldest son of the Sovereign of Life and Death, Mo Baojun and Shen Siwang. They have two sons; the other one is the God of Magic, Mo Yaolan.

Hei Anjing looked at his sleepy cousin and said, "It's an emergency. You should go back to sleep. Just leave me an exit so I can leave the dream world."

"Yes. Yes. Where's my reward?" asked Mo Wanyi as he extended his hand towards his cousin.

Hei Anjing waves his hand, and countless snacks and desserts fill Mo Wanyi's little cloud and finally flies away after giving his cousin permission to leave and enter the dream world.

The God of Destruction met Hunluan in the usual sight of broken dimensions and the world. He entered Hunluan's dream. This location is where he and the world eater perish together and also the place where Hunluan and An Shizhe live together. Now, it's just a broken space and time. No house or anything just traces of destruction.

Hunluan said, "You're finally here, Snow."

"I've thrown away that name. I am not Snow. My name is Hei Anjing," retorted the God of Destruction.

The Ancient God of Chaos, Hunluan, chuckled and said, "Alright. Baby Jing, don't you know how weird it is to be called Master the last time? Call me 'Mommy'."

"Even though I was first born from you, that connection had faded after dying as Snow. If you don't want to be called Master, I will be an old man," said Hei Anjing as he joined Hunluan at the table he was seated at.

Hunluan noticed that the God of Destruction was annoyed for some reason, but it was not with him when he thought of something.

The Ancient God of Chaos asked, "What's wrong? Is that one annoying you again?"

Hei Anjing nodded his head and pouted, "Can't I just throw him where you are?"

"That is not possible right now. My body hasn't been fully reconstructed yet. Did he do something again?" asked Hunluan.

Hei Anjing said, "That old bastard stole my husband's vessel again. Old man, I can beat him up, right?"

"Well... as long as you keep him alive in the end, you can do as you wish," said Hunluan. Few

Hei Anjing said, "Good. Who told him to bully my husband twice in a row? Old man, your fragment in the world we are in might be a god. If you merge with him, making that vessel you wanted can accelerate its creation. I will bring it back for you."

"Then I will wait for it. If he does something you don't want, be free to beat him," Hunluan said.

Hei Anjing turned quiet for a moment and said, "The remnant resentment soul of those ancient gods he killed had started waking up as all."

"Let him clean those on his own. Just don't let him die again," said Hunluan.

Sigh!

"Alright. I will keep an eye on him. But he and Xia kept meeting each other first, and your man likes to steal his vessel," said Hei Anjing.

The Ancient God of Chaos, Hunluan, said, "That cannot be helped; those two had so many similarities. That's why the vessel that fits your other half is very compatible with him. Those two just don't notice."

"I will go back now. I am just here to complain because he stole my husband's vessel again," said Hei Anjing.

Hunluan said, "You are free to tell him the truth so he will stop pestering you."

"No way! I had a feeling he would be more annoying when he learned about us," said Hei Anjing.

The God of Destruction finally stood up and prepared to leave. But he was stopped by Hunluan and put something in his body.

Hunluan said, "Just in case, keep that with you. It will only activate when it has gone out of control or you are in danger."

"I'm leaving now," said Hei Anjing as he was prepared to leave the dream world.

"Be careful. By the way, if there is a fragment that doesn't want to come back... feel free to destroy it," said Hunluan.

Hei Anjing said before disappearing, "I will keep that in mind."

Chapter 1625 22.12 Third Red Star - Hei Anjing and the World Eater

After the God of Destruction left the dream world, he woke in reality and saw the unknown ceiling he didn't recognize. He reached out and felt his hand touching something. Only then did he realize that he was inside a clamshell bed for little mermaids.

Hei Anjing recalled what happened. When he fainted from overfatigue, he wasn't completely asleep at that time. He can hear what happened in the room as he had his eyes closed. It was then that he realized that someone else had taken over the body of his beloved once again and had a guess of who was capable of doing such a thing.

There is only one person in this world capable of doing such a thing. The original world eater, An Shizhe.

The moment Hei Anjing opened his eyes, he pushed open the clamshell bed and was welcomed by the smiling General Ye. The Chief Warden and Warden Yun, as well as Zhi Yue, were all present. They were no longer at the hospital but in the mansion owned by the general.

General Ye says, "You're awake, darling."

The God of Destruction didn't react much and just stared at him with an expressionless face. The moment the two wardens and Zhi Yue saw the God of Destruction acting like they made them guess what had happened.

Hei Anjing said, "Why did you steal my other half's vessel once again?"

The smiling, gentle face of General Ye changed into a playful smirk. General Ye answered,

"Who told him to have the best compatibility with me? Plus, he is my strongest soul fragment. What is wrong with me taking back what is originally mine?" said the World Eater.

Hei Anjing morphed into his human form and came out of his aquarium. In his human form, he is no longer in his small size but in his original size and body.

The World Eater, An Shizhe, stares at him as he turns to his original form. The smile on the world eater seems to fade a lot upon Hei Anjing's real appearance. The God of Destruction had never looked the same as the Ancient God of Chaos.

It didn't take long for the smile on General Ye's face to fade. He reached out a hand and pinched Hei Anjing's cheeks like a bully who kept playing on someone's cheeks.

The World Eater, An Shizhe, said, "Why do you not look the same as before? Though this face is beautiful itself, I am not used to it, Hunluan."

Sigh~

Hei Anjing hits the hands, pinching his cheeks red, forcing the latter to remove his fingers from him.

The God of Destruction said, "How many times do I need to tell you that I am not Hunluan?"

"Impossible! You have his aura and energy of chaos in you! Stop playing around, Luan'er," said General Ye as he was about to reach out his hand to touch Hei Anjing but halted when he heard his words.

Hei Anjing said, "Have you never questioned why you couldn't kill the original owner of that vessel and that stolen qi on you? This is already the second time you have stolen his powers, but you failed to kill him."

"What are you talking about? I didn't fail to kill your lover. I just chose not to kill him," said the world eater.

Hei Anjing said, "You are wrong. It's just you cannot kill him at all. Like how you cannot harm me the same way. You already know in your heart that I am not Hunluan, but keep on denying as you don't want to lose your own clue to find where he is."

As expected, when the God of Destruction said these words, the World Eater's demeanor had completely changed. He is no longer nonchalant but completely becomes serious. He put his hands down, and the smile at the corner of his lips disappeared.

As Hei Anjing said, he couldn't bring himself to harm him and couldn't kill Ye Xiajie no matter what. An Shizhe couldn't understand the reason why, but he also guessed that only the young man with Hunluan's aura before him knew where he was.

The World Eater walks away and takes a seat on the nearby single couch. Seeing him approaching the two wardens, Zhi Yue moved to the side of the god of destruction, where they felt they were safe.

An Shizhe said, "You know where Hunluan is, right?"

The God of Destruction nodded his head and said, "But right now, you and him aren't ready to meet each other yet. You also feel that it's dangerous for you to meet him right now."

"Why do you say so?" asked An Shizhe.

Hei Anjing said, "Resentment Souls of the Ancient Gods you killed had started to wake up. The ones who you sealed with your death and the insanity you had stripped away from your soul."

"Why do you say I can't meet Hunluan?" asked the World Eater.

Hei Anjing said, "Because those resentment souls need to eat his power to regain their original sanity as they died because of him."

"Alright. I believe that you are not Luan'er. Even Luan'er didn't know about that reason. Now I am more interested in who you and that other half of yours are and why you know so much about me and Luan'er," said the World Eater.

An Shizhe and Hei Anjing exchanged gazes. But one between lovers, but the kind that tried to see through one another. Hei Anjing remained composed the whole time, and An Shizhe couldn't see through him at all.

A playful smirk appeared at the corner of Hei Anjing's lips and said, "How about you guess?"

Sigh~

The World Eater said, "This playful personality of yours is very similar to mine, but your stubbornness of not saying anything even if I kill you is like Luan'er. If not because you don't look like us and I know that you are a youngling, I would have thought that you are his and my children."

Hei Anjing remained silent at these words.

An Shizhe added, "That lover of yours has the same short temper as me and the carelessness of Luan'er when it comes to the matters of his life. You should look after him more closely."

"I will," said Hei Anjing.

The World Eater mumbles, "What a tough nut to crack. So much like my Luan'er." He disappeared into the room, and only his voice lingered for a while, saying the following words.

"Your lover should be awake. He will be back soon. Since we look so similar, he can still act as General Ye in this world with his current body. Stay away from the resentment souls of those old bastards. With how similar your aura is to Luan'er, they would definitely mistake you for him," said the World Eater, An Shizhe.

The moment the world eater disappeared, the two wardens and Zhi Yue took a deep breath. The pressure around that person is so suffocating that none of them dares to breathe loudly.

Warden Yun asked, "Master, why did the world eater appear by your side?"

"He wanted to check if I knew where Hunluan was before he could focus on doing what he wanted. He was not our enemy," said the God of Destruction.

The Chief Warden asked, "Then why did he steal the vessel meant for my lord?"

"That's right. He is so powerful that he didn't need to take the lord's vessel," said Zhi Yue.

Hei Anjing said, "Because as the world eater he is hated by all world wills. They feel pressure from him, the kind when a prey meets his predator. That's why he can steal someone's body. It just so happens that A'Xia's vessels in this world are completely compatible with him. That's why he keeps on targeting that careless husband of mine."

Warden Yun Ming thought for a moment and asked, "Then why is his soul so compatible with Lord Ye? Are all his other fragments the same?"

"No. Only Xia had that compatibility. The other world eater fragments are just his prey," said the God of Destruction.

Warden Yun Ming asked, "Master, what is truly your and Lord Ye's relationship with the Ancient God of Chaos and the World Eater?"

"Why do you forgive him when he has stolen Lord Ye's vessel? You also allowed him to approach you. Normally, you will kill anyone who dares to do such a thing," asked the Chief Warden.

All three of them were waiting for the answer of the God of Destruction. They've noticed that he is giving that man a bit of a leeway. Though it wasn't as doting when he treated the God of Void, these small actions were surprising themselves. After all, the God of Destruction is only kind towards his beloved and family.

It's impossible for the world eater to be Lord Hei Anjing's man, as they've met the Ancient God of Chaos, Hunluan, for the last time. So are they related somewhere? Family? But how?

Hei Anjing said, "You will understand in the future."

"For now, focus on the situation at hand. The fact that he didn't come for Hunluan's soul fragment in this world is weird enough. Don't believe in any words the soul fragment of Hunluan says."

"But Master, how can we bring away the soul fragment if we are not going to approach it?" asked Warden Yun Ming.

Hei Anjing said, "There is no need to approach him. He will come to us on his own. After all, I am the only one who can sever his connection to this world."

Chapter 1626 22.13 Third Red Star - Clash

After the World Eater had left with the vessel of the General, everyone hid the fact and used a puppet to take over the role of the General while waiting for the God of Void to return. After all, it's impossible to kill the God of Void alone. For him to truly die, you need to kill him with the God of Destruction, whose life was shared with him.

Colonel Lou Wuye and the puppet handled the military while Warden Yun was helping the little mermaids who escaped the auction hall that night with the God of Destruction adjust to their new lives. He taught them how to speak and write as well as how to communicate with humans.

Lieutenant Shaka also brought his little mermaid to Warden Yun Ming, where he learned to speak and write with the other little mermaids. The Lieutenant is a good master to his little mermaid. He treated his little mermaid as family. Give him what he likes. Whether it's food or toys, even dresses were all provided to him.

It is just that, as an artificial little mermaid, he didn't know how to speak properly even though he knew the way, and Lieutenant Shaka could only ask simple questions like apple or orange for questions. His little mermaid only has to choose between choices.

As for Hei Anjing, he remained asleep in his clamshell. The wardens and System Yue knew that he might not be in the mood to move around without the God of Void around.

Moreover, the news about the King of Mermaids is still ongoing, especially after the events of that night had been revealed. The existence of the mermaid king completely changed the situation of the little mermaids. Those who had abused their little mermaids were also reported as flash news, and reports about murders, missing mermaids, and mermaids killing themselves just to bring down their enemies with them had happened a lot lately.

Because of this situation, the way the humans saw the little mermaids had changed a lot. They stopped looking at them as tools and started seeing them as living things who helped them cure their injured soul domains.

After all, the video where the King of Mermaids is killing those who abused its own races has spread all over the world. There are some who have freed their little mermaids in the sea, as they are afraid that they will be killed as well.

Only those who treated their mermaids as a family kept their little mermaids on their side. They are more pampered and start teaching their little mermaids how to properly speak.

As for the disappearance of the Mermaid King that night, all personnel were looking for him. Both the royal family and the military wanted to find him first. As it was obvious that the one who had him by their side would be able to control all the little mermaids in existence.

Of course, there are those who condemned the Mermaid King for breaking the treaty between the land and the ocean. They seem to have forgotten that the mermaid king himself was born artificially and had no direct connection to the ocean race except the extracted blood of the mermaid from the stolen egg, and if this fact is reported in the news, the one that will suffer will be the human race.

Meanwhile on the boundary of the ocean and the land...

The God of Void had finally reached the nearest seashore, where the main city is located. As soon as he and Zhi Yang surfaced from the ocean, An Shizhe, who was wearing the vessel of General Ye, appeared to be waiting for him to come out of the sea.

Of course, the face of General Ye right now had been transformed by the World Eater to his liking, or else he and the God of Void would have the same face in this world.

The World Eater, An Shizhe, said, "Yo! You truly took your time in the ocean."

As soon as the God of Void saw this wild man, his anger from being separated from his wife made him extremely angry. Without any thought, he pulled Shenyuan, his god-slaying sword, and tried to kill the world eater on the spot.

Ye Xiajie, with his cold voice echoing in the area, said, "I'm going to kill you!"

The World Eater dodges his attacks without much effort, as it's harder to dodge a rational swordsman's attack than an irrational one.

While dodging murderous sword slashes coming for him, An Shizhe said, "How about calming down for now? Why the hell are you so angry? Is it for stealing your vessel? It's not like it hasn't happened before."

"You! You keep on coming to my wife like a pest. I'm going to exterminate you!" screamed the enraged God of Void.

When An Shizhe heard the real reason why this young evil god was angry at him, the World Eater was stunned for a moment and suddenly laughed out loud.

Hahaha~

The World Eater exclaims, "You two are truly great! Haha~"

"One is someone who can immediately notice that his man's vessel was stolen at first glance. The other is enraged for being separated from his beloved. He was not even angry from getting his qi and vessel stolen, but jealous that his position was taken over by someone else."

"You two youngsters are truly unique. What a couple! You don't seem to fear at all. Even that soul fragment of Luan'er under the ocean was terrified of me. How come you two were never afraid?" asked the World Eater, An Shizhe.

The God of Void said, "Who is afraid of you? I'm so angry that I don't care who you are!"

"You and that little one are truly up to my taste. Alright, I will not tease you anymore and do what I came for. Haha~" said An Shizhe.

A huge sword slash came for the World Eater, which completely destroyed the seashore they were in. However, this attack was also easily parried by An Shizhe. Seeing this scene just annoyed the God of Void more.

BOOM!

On the other hand, An Shizhe, who heard Ye Xiajie's answer, was entertained. After hearing enough, the World Eater jumped into the sea and morphed into a huge sea dragon.

"Let's fight again next time! You guys are truly interesting." The voice of the sea dragon echoed from the sea as he disappeared into it.

Zhi Yang said, [He is gone like that? Did he only come to steal the sovereign's human vessel?]

Tsk!

"What an annoying old man! Much more irritating than the Ancient God of End!" Ye Xiajie grumbles.

Zhi Yang said, [Lord Ye, I reconnect my connection with Yue'er. I know where they are now.]

"Let's go home then," said Ye Xiajie.

Zhi Yang said, [Let me point out the way.]

The battle between Ye Xiajie and the man who had become the Sea Dragon was caught on camera.

On tonight's flash news, the scene of General Ye fighting against a sea dragon at the shore had become the hottest news. As for Ye Xiajie, he had returned to the General's mansion and was welcomed by his wife's smile.

At the General's mansion, Ye Xiajie had finally arrived and was tackled by a hug from his beloved who turned from a little mermaid to a human on the spot.

Click!

Ye Xiajie spoke as soon as he entered the mansion, "Baby, I'm back!"

"Xia!"

Hei Anjing, who heard his beloved's voice, pushed open his clamshell bed and swam to the surface of the aquarium, immediately jumping out and turning into a human. With his clothes morphing with him and using his ice elements to dry himself immediately, he jumped into the man who had just arrived.

Unlike his detached and cold reaction when meeting General Ye, whom he had seen when he first woke up, his excitement and his expressions cannot be hidden at all. This is because he is sure that this person is indeed the person he loves.

The couple hugs one another tightly, ignoring all others in the area. Zhi Yue was also crying as he found Zhi Yang with the sovereign, who came back at this moment.

Zhi Yue said while wailing, [A'Yang, Wuwuwu~. When they said that you were taken away, I was so worried. Boohoo~]

[Don't cry, Yue'er. I'm alright.] Zhi Yang said.

As for the two wardens, they quietly saluted towards the God of Void and welcomed his return. Only Lieutenant Shaka, who couldn't understand the scene, watched the scene with a stupid and dumbfounded look.

After all, in his mind, the General just left for a meeting just now and had returned at this moment for lunch. But he noticed the lukewarm welcome of the Mermaid King from before, unlike the compassionate one at this moment.

In reality, only he was given an illusion by the An Shizhe so he and the rest could have a proper conversation without involving aborigines in the mix. Because of this, what Lieutenant Shaka remembers is different from what truly happened.

However, regardless of how confused he is right now, there is no one to explain this to him. He can only pretend to understand and turn on the television.

A flash news was airing at this moment. The scene of General Ye fighting a man who became a sea dragon in the end after jumping into the sea was played as a recording.

A news announcement was heard all over the world.

[Flash News! General Ye was found confronting a man who had turned into a sea dragon as soon as he jumped into the water.]

[This sea dragon looked completely human before he jumped into the sea. Does this mean that high-ranked sea monsters are capable of morphing into a human form? Moreover, they look completely no different from ordinary humans.]

Chapter 1627 22.14 Third Red Star - Royalty

The news about high-level sea monsters coming to land greatly terrified the human race. They thought the mermaid king who could control water and ice was already a unique existence, but now a humanoid that looked completely no different from humans suddenly transformed into a big sea dragon.

This sea dragon is one of the nightmares of the human race, who was said to be hiding and living at the deepest of the ocean. Forget about the depths of the ocean. This monster cannot only turn humans. It can even speak their language. Mixed within the crowd, it would be hard to separate them from ordinary ones.

Now no one knows if the person beside you might be a transformed sea monster or just an ordinary human. Just the fact that monsters from the sea are a lot stronger than ordinary humans and a single one of them can kill a group of humans.

While the people in the main city are panicking about the existence of sea monsters that can talk, the God of Void and the God of Destruction are quietly watching the flash news featuring the world eater, An Shizhe, and the God of Void (black sea dragon), Ye Xiajie, fighting at the shore.

The military had called upon the general, the colonel, and the lieutenant. Unfortunately, the God of Void only sent them away with a puppet version of himself to work. Warden Yun Ming still stayed to watch over the little mermaids for his master. As for the two systems, they choose to rest together after being separated for a while.

Meanwhile, the couple nonchalantly watches the television in the mansion without caring for the panic in the city.

Hei Anjing asked, "Did he intentionally wait for you at the seashore?"

"Yes. He seems to already know that I would be coming to the surface at that exact time," said Ye Xiajie.

The God of Destruction said, "He cannot stay in this mansion as I exposed him as soon as I woke up. There is no way I will mistake him for you. It's just... I didn't expect him to catch you off guard for the second time."

"...Even though I was careless, he seems to have a way to hide his presence from me. I haven't learned how he did that though," said the God of Void.

Hei Anjing noticed the familiar aura of chaos lingering on his beloved.

"So you've met Hunluan's soul fragment. What do you think? Did he want to leave this world?" asked the God of Destruction to his husband.

The God of Void responds, "He seems eager to leave. He says that he needs to destroy this world to be freed."

"However, he didn't ask for our help," asked Hei Anjing.

Sigh~

The God of Destruction leans on his beloved and closes his eyes. This is the peace he has always wanted and finally can joyously enjoy. Since the world was not so chaotic that it was out of control, the couple chose to watch for a while and see how things would unfold.

At the Royal Palace...

The second prince, Rion, and the first princess, Rose, come back to the palace with the little mermaids they bought from the auction that night. However, there is no way they will ever forget what they saw and experienced that night.

There is no way to forget that speaking, gorgeous little mermaid, at least for the second prince, an obsession was born in his heart. He wanted that silver-tailed mermaid. He believes that getting that silver-tailed little mermaid on his side will allow him to become the real heir to the throne and possibly defeat the crown prince and become the future king.

Because of this obsession, he sent a lot of people to find that silver-tailed little mermaid. Even though the mermaid king had disappeared that night, he believes that the silver-tailed little mermaid still remains in this land.

A royal knight kneels before the second prince reports their discovery about the mermaid king.

"Your Highness, the second prince, we tried to check on all the clients that appeared in that auction hall that night except for that VIP guest, but we couldn't find the silver-tailed little mermaid."

Second Prince Rion said, "That's not the answer I want to hear. Continue to investigate. This time find that one from the Shaka Clan. The silver-tailed little mermaid, the Mermaid King, needs to become mine no matter what!!"

"Yes, Your Highness!" The royal knight saluted before taking their leave to continue their mission.

Tsk!

The second prince, Rion, curses. "Useless things! They couldn't even find someone!"

"Second Brother, maybe that mermaid king returned to the ocean. If so, there is no way he would be on the land anymore," said the first princess, Rose.

These words annoyed the second prince, and he said, "That is not possible! If he is here to watch over the little mermaids, then he will only stay on the land to supervise them!"

"But it's hard to find him, especially if the military learned about this," the first princess Rose said.

Second Prince Rion said, "Enough. Just focus on controlling those little mermaids in your hands. They must remain obedient. As long as we are not hurting it, the mermaid king will not be angry. Hm?"

"What's wrong, second brother?" asked the first princess Rose.

The second prince, Rion, mumbles, "Right! There is that way."

A smirk appeared on the face of the second prince, and obviously, he had thought of an evil plan that would force the Mermaid King from coming.

"However, such a plan must not be executed by me. Hm? Rose, prepare a banquet for me. Invite all nobles who are against the Mermaid King's decree. Those guys can become my tool to summon the little mermaid king before me," said the second prince, Rion.

Princess Rose can only answer, "Alright. I will arrange it for you."

The first Princess didn't know what kind of plan her brother was planning. But, just based on his reaction, it might not be a good plan. Their second queen mother told her to support her brother and help him become the future king.

In the crown prince's chamber...

The crown prince was listening to everything his brothers and sisters were doing, and all their plans dragged him down from his set as the crowned prince. However, there is something they couldn't expect. This Crown Prince named Nokto was a world hopper who descended into this world to prevent the destruction of this world. He is a world repairer, and his executioner had also come down with him.

At this moment, in his room, the crown prince was laying tummy first on his bed, watching what his second brother and first sister were trying to do. On his bed are snacks found in this world. As for his personal knight, he just came out of the bathroom and sat beside him.

Such action is normally considered rude in the royal family. However, with the soul of the crown prince and his personal knight replaced as lovers, this is supposed to be normal.

The crown prince mumbles, "This stupid second brother of mine. He wants to take control of that mermaid king without even knowing what kind of being it is. He is foolish enough to think he can control a real god!"

The royal knight named Wolfred said, "Nokto, Xion will try to make contact with the military as you wish. However, I don't feel it would be easy to meet the General. Xion said that the general in the military is currently only a puppet."

The Crown Prince has two royal knights that serve him. They are named Wolfred and Xion. Xion was out for a mission, while Wolfred stayed to protect the crown prince.

The Crown Prince frowned. "A puppet? You aren't talking about that kind that can act like a real copy of a certain being. Those things are extremely expensive even in Vearth. Are you up against high-ranked gods? No, it's not yet sure if they are enemies or not."

"However, since this involves the military, it is safe to say that they might have taken the identity of those in the military and someone from the highest rank as well," said royal knight Wolfred while helping the crown prince comb his hair.

Crown Prince Nokto said, "I guess I should try to meet those in the military once. It won't be a problem if they are a registered world hopper like us, but if there is a world destroyer then... our mission will become an extermination one."

"Shall we prepare a banquet to invite the general over? Or should we wait for Xion's return first?" asked royal knight Wolfred.

The crown prince turned around and reached out his hand and hugged the neck of his royal knight.

"Let's wait for Xion. I do hope nothing bad happens to him as he probes the military though," said Crown Prince Nokto.

The royal knight leaned down and met the soft lips of the crown prince that pulled him over towards himself. It seems that the relationship between the crown prince and his two royal knights is not simple.

Chapter 1628 22.15 Third Red Star - Intruder

Meanwhile, at the military headquarters, a siren was ringing within the whole building. It was said that the general was acted by an assassin and that the culprit had run away.

The runaway assassin was none other than Royal Knight Xion, covered in an all-black outfit that hid his face and features. The soldiers were all chasing after him.

"This way! He ran this way!"

"Go encircle over this route and block his path!"

"Something is strange. The security control all over the base is out of control!"

"Tsk! How dare he run after harming the general!?"

"Capture him!"

"Inform the Colonel and Lieutenant Shaka!"

Ugh!

Royal Knight Xion escaped and forced those soldiers who were chasing him to become unconscious, but he didn't take their lives. He only came to investigate thought. Who would have believed that the general is indeed just a puppet? That upon touch it would be broken. He kept running away, and his only thought was to leave this place.

'Shit! Wolfred should be the one doing this kind of strenuous mission! I only like using my brain, but I can't fight this many people!'

Bang!

Royal Knight Xion dodged the bullet and saw Lieutenant Shaka blocking his path with a gun.

Lieutenant Shaka said, "Stay where you are intruder? How dare you harm the general?"

'An aborigine? I can still...'

All of a sudden, Royal Knight Xion felt incoming danger and dodged to the side. He dodged. However, his arm was still cut. When he turned around, he saw Colonel Lou standing on the second floor, looking at him coldly and quietly. Just one look was enough to send shivers down Xion's spine. He was attacked countless times and failed to completely dodge all those attacks and is now covered in all kinds of wounds, which intentionally avoided his vitals.

He no longer hesitated and tore a space teleportation scroll, which is a life-saving item he brought with him to escape without worries. Colonel Lou noticed it and immediately jumped down from the second floor and reached out to grab the intruder.

However, the man parried his hand and still escaped. He disappeared on the spot while an emblem was grabbed by Colonel Lou. Staring at the familiar emblem in his hand, Lou Wuye immediately hid it to be given to the general.

Lieutenant Shaka was dumbfounded by the scene of the intruder disappearing on the spot.

"What the hell is that!? He just disappeared!! Is that a ghost!?"

Colonel Lou Wuye stared at the area where the intruder had disappeared and saw remnant traces of spatial scroll being used. This kind of scroll can only exist in Vearth and can be exchanged with points by the gods there. Moreover, the trademark of the Hei Clan was also left behind, which completely erased all traces of space elements in the area.

"Colonel, you also saw that, right?! He disappeared on the spot! Is that teleportation? Maybe he is not even a human."

Lieutenant Shaka was freaking out. Even though this world is quite futuristic, teleportation is not possible unless they are using a spaceship for a space leap.

Colonel Lou Wuye narrowed his eyes as he fell deep in thought, only to be annoyed by his subordinates' words.

"Calm down. Help with the injured and clean up the place. Tell the guard team to keep vigilant."

"Yes, sir!" said Lieutenant Shaka.

Back to the Palace. In the Crown Prince's chamber...

The man who was being chased by Colonel Lou Wuye and Lieutenant Shaka suddenly appeared. It seems that the teleportation endpoint was wherever the crown prince was.

Whoosh~

Thud!

Royal Knight Xion was badly injured after he was attacked by Colonel Lou Wuye. Lieutenant Shaka can still be avoided. However, the sneak attacks of someone of Colonel Lou's caliber are hard to predict. Xion was still too late to dodge that man's every strike.

"XION!"

The Crown Prince and Royal Knight Wolfred were stunned by Royal Knight Xion's state. He indeed looks bad, and if not treated, he might lose a lot of blood.

Crown Prince Nokto frowned as he and Wolfred caught Xion before he fell. The scent of blood spread inside the room, and the former no longer hesitated and used his ability to control plants to grow healing plants on the spot.

This green aura came from the crown prince, and the plant essences entered the body of royal knight Xion, healing his wounds on the spot. Once all the wounds on Xion had closed, Royal Knight Wolfred fed the patient a pill that nourished blood. Only then did the complexion of Royal Knight Xion return to normal.

Crown Prince Nokto asked, "Had it healed his wounds well? My abilities are restricted, especially when we are not in a forest area."

"Don't worry. Xion is all right now. Those wounds were not vital, but they were too deep, and bleeding for too long would cause him to die slowly. They might have intended to capture him. That's why Xion had no other choice but to use a teleportation scroll to come back," said Royal Knight Wolfred.

Crown Prince Nokto asked, "What do you think of his opponent? Can you defeat him yourself?"

"Very strong. It's impossible for me alone. With Xion, there is a possibility that, with your support, we could defeat him. But..."

Royal Knight Wolfred cut off his word, leaving it incomplete, but Crown Prince Nokto had completed his sentence for him.

"But there is no possibility that he might be alone. If he had a partner by his side, then... it might be impossible for us to defeat the man who Xion fought," said Crown Prince Nokto.

Royal Knight Xion finally woke up and saw his lovers looking serious while watching over him. As for why he had lovers, it's because the soul in the Crown Prince's body is his chosen mate. All three of them came from a beast world as their origin, where it's normal to be polygamous. They had been together even before they ascended to Vearth.

He couldn't help but ask, "What's wrong?"

Crown Prince Nokto hugged him in relief, "Xion, your wake. Thank God. You suddenly fainted."

"Who did you meet?" asked Royal Knight Wolfred.

Royal Knight Xion comforted Crown Prince Nokto before answering Wolfred's question.

"The youngest heir of the Shaka Clan and... the direct subordinate of General Ye as well as the youngest colonel. The General at the headquarters is a fake. As a mere puppet, the one who injured me is Colonel Lou," answered Royal Knight Xion.

He added, "The general might be in a coma, as the hidden report said before. Also, that Colonel's strength is beyond this world's capabilities."

"Are you saying he is like us, an outsider?" Royal Knight Wolfred asked.

Crown Prince Nokto said, "That might be possible. The reason we were sent into this world is because of countless failures of the other world hoppers. It is impossible that the system only sent us over to repair this world."

"This world is giving me creeps. It is as if the ruler of this world is not just the Heavenly Laws, but something else more powerful than it," said Royal Knight Xion.

Royal Knight Wolfred said, "A lot of things have been happening lately: the silver-tailed Mermaid King, the sea dragon that can transform and speak human, and finally someone capable of hurting us. What should we do next?"

The two royal knights looked at the crown prince. When it comes to the final decision, the wife between couples has the highest authority. This is something the three of them had decided on and had been used to.

The crown prince, Nokto, decided and said, "Let's find a way to make contact with the military. If they are an outsider like us, then we can make an alliance."

"What if they aren't like us?" asked Royal Knight Wolfred.

Royal Knight Xion suggested, "If not, then let's find the silver-tailed little mermaid king. When it killed humans before it used teleportation, he was said to have disappeared on the spot. That little mermaid might have used the same item as I do. A teleportation scroll!"

"Alright. I will make some arrangements," said Crown Prince Nokto.

A few days later...

The royal family had arranged two banquets in the palace. One is arranged by First Princess Rose for her brother, the Second Prince Nokto. Those who were invited were all nobles of the second prince faction.

They had all gathered as per the invitation from the second prince. As mere nobles, they didn't have the right to decline the second prince's banquet invitation and thus, they all arrived.

The banquet was a private one and only those of the same faction of the second prince had gathered. As the host of the banquet, Second Prince Rion had started the party.

The Second Prince Rion said, "Welcome to my banquet. You guys have all arrived. Let's begin the event."

The First Princess gestured to the servants to bring in the food for the guests. Countless dishes were brought in, making all the guests feel hungry. However, no one begins to eat unless the Second Prince is the first to taste it.

After the second prince took his part he looked at the guest and said, "Dig in. This banquet was arranged by me for a reason. We can talk after eating." With his permission, the guests had all started eating and his night party had officially begun.

The second prince's banquet had a gloomy atmosphere compared to a normal banquet. First, the nobles who were called over had no choice but to come to this party. After all, their families and clans sided with the faction of the second prince and the first princess.

The dinner was so heavy that the guests could hardly eat properly. However, in the eyes of the second prince, the careful actions and silence of the guests reflected a submissive demeanor toward himself, and he liked it a lot. He is quite a narcissistic person who likes to look down on those under him.

"It's good that everyone has arrived today. There is something I need you to do."

"Find me a way to summon the little mermaid king. I need to meet him myself. You should be able to think of a way, right?"

"You won't be so useless that you don't even know how to do such a thing? At least I believe that I don't have someone stupid as a subordinate."

Some of these noble young masters were there with him during that auction that night. They saw the appearance of the mermaid king and heard the warning in his words. Thus, it won't be hard for them to understand what the second prince is trying to say.

However, most of them love and respect their little mermaid. There are even some who treat their mermaids as family. But they can't openly revoke the evil plan the second prince is indirectly commanding them to do. So, they can only shut their mouth and pretend to listen when in reality all the words of the second prince enter their right ears only for them to come out on their left ears.

The thoughts of the guests in the area

'Did the second prince go insane? Why is he indirectly commanding us to harm our own little mermaids!?'

'Can't he do it on his own? Ah, right. How can he do it? The mermaid king threatened them with their lives if they ignored his warnings.'

'Of course, there is no way that the second prince will do anything against the threat of the mermaid king. After all, it was he who wanted to meet him.'

'This prince not only sees the little mermaids as tools but also us, descendants of the families that served the second queen.'

'Is he insane!? How can he ask us to torture our own mermaids just so he can forcibly summon the missing mermaid king.'

But it cannot deny the fact that there are some people among the group who are indeed loyal to the second prince. The type that is loyal to this evil man and is voluntary to follow all his evil plans.

"Your Highness, leave it to me! My clan has received the little mermaids from your side and will definitely do as you command."

"Hmm? Did I give you a command?" said the second prince. This is obviously a warning for the young master to take back his words about him giving commands to the little mermaids.

The young master caught up immediately and took back his words, "Oh, of course not. Your Highness hasn't given me a command. I am just annoyed by how useless the stupid fish at home is and how it needs to be punished for his foolishness."

A meaningful smile appeared on the second prince's face, which was immediately covered up by an intentional frown and worry on his face.

He said to the young master, "This young master should know about the warnings from the mermaid king. His words don't seem like a joke."

Snorts~

The young master declares, "Who the hell is afraid of a talking fish!? Those little mermaids should know their place and just serve their masters. Singing a whole day must be a must! Or else what's the point of buying such a tool?"

Upon achieving his goal, the second prince pretended to be angered by the young master's words and instantly sent the guests away, pretending that he was annoyed by the young master's arrogance.

"Alright. My mood had worsened. Everyone can now take their leave and go to their own businesses," said the Second Prince.

Everyone left the second prince's banquet after what Prince Rion wanted to do had been achieved. Though not every one of them did as he requested, at least there are some fools who are willing to sacrifice for his sake alone.

No one responded, and all took off after being permitted to leave. However, most of these young masters looked at the foolish young master who was chosen to sacrifice himself just so he could summon the mermaid king.

After most of the guests had left, the first princess approached her brother and asked, "Brother, will that young master be able to summon the mermaid king?"

"He should be. The question is whether the mermaid king will appear or not," said the second prince.

Meanwhile at the General's mansion...

The chief warden and Lieutenant Shaka had returned from work. The clean-up after the intruder had taken a while as there were many injured soldiers during the escape of the intruder, who killed the puppet of the general.

"Greetings to the General and the Mermaid King!" said Lieutenant Shaka.

Hei Anjing said, "Welcome back. Shaka, you can go ahead and check on your little mermaid. He should be able to speak a few words now."

"Please excuse me!"

Lieutenant Shaka showed a delighted look when he heard about this good news. He immediately saluted the couple for the second time and took his leave.

After Lieutenant Shaka had left, the Chief Warden started his report for the day.

"My Lord, Lord Hei, the intruder at the headquarters might be an outsider like us. He was using a teleportation scroll that can only be exchanged with points through the system mall."

"The teleportation scroll had left traces of the Hei Clan's imprint as a maker. He is definitely an outsider," the Chief Warden reported.

Ye Xiajie asked, "Did you know where he had come from?"

The Chief Warden showed the imprint on the uniform he grabbed from the intruder before he completely disappeared. It was a royal imprint only a royal guard was allowed to wear.

Colonel Lou showed the imprint. "This is something I took from him at the last moment. It's a royal family insignia."

"Whose insignia was it?" asked Ye Xiajie.

The Chief Warden responded as he had investigated everything before returning to the general's mansion.

He said, "It's the Crown Prince's bearing."

The God of Destruction commented while holding a banquet invitation from the crown prince himself. The insignia on the invitation is completely similar to the insignia the Chief Warden had shown to them.

"Oh~ this is quite interesting," said Hei Anjing.

Ye Xiajie asked, "Is Baby interested in meeting the Crown Prince? I can bring him over for you."

"No need. Let's go meet him together instead," said Hei Anjing. "There is already an invitation. It's a waste not to come."

"Well, I will go with you," said the God of Void.

With that, the couple decided to accept the invitation from the Crown Prince and attend his banquet as per the invitation shown.

The God of Destruction said, "Let's forget something that had been decided. How is the situation in the headquarters? Have you cleaned up all the pests (spy)?"

"Yes, Lord Hei. It's not that hard to find them among the crowd. That intruder was the last of them. However, he was only pointed out when he tried to touch the puppet of the general, and the staff thought the general was harmed, which led to the situation of him escaping," said the Chief Warden.

The God of Void said, "Are those fools trying to check whether I am truly awake or not? Maybe I should make a declaration and appear before them."

"That can wait, my love. We must check the crown prince first. After all, I had a feeling that he might not be the only world hopper in this world. It would be alright if it's only an ordinary world hopper; it would be annoying to have world destroyers in this kind of world where remnant resentment souls of Ancient Gods exist," said Hei Anjing.

Ye Xiajie frowned when he heard that the resentment soul of an ancient god was mentioned. According to the memories returned to him by the Ancient God of Chaos, those kinds of souls are deadly even for high-ranked gods like themselves.

After all, the primordial souls of ancient gods are the hardest to defeat. Those things cannot be easily defeated by divinity alone. You need a fire that can purify one's soul until there is nothing left behind, especially for evil souls from the origin of chaos itself.

This is also the reason why the World Eater had stolen the God of Void's vessel. He cannot fight those things without a vessel, or he will be devoured by them. Those things target anything born from the chaos, especially those connected to the Ancient God of Chaos himself. Only by eating something from the chaos they can regain their previous memories and strength before their deaths.

With a frown on the God of Void's face, he asked, "Doesn't that make you a target as well, Baby? After all, you have connections to Hunluan."

"I do not need to worry. After all, you will protect me, won't you, my love?" said the God of Destruction.

Ye Xiajie hugs his wife and declares, "As long as I exist, nothing can harm you ever again, Jing'er."

Chapter 1630 - 22.17 Third Red Star - Mermaid King's only rule for humans.

In the territory of the young master who promised to fulfill the desires of the second prince, Rion. Started making his plans to summon the mermaid king. The only way for the king of mermaids to appear was for a little mermaid to call for him.

That's why for him to appear, the little mermaid must suffer undeniable pain and suffer. An agony that comes from their heart and soul. Only then will the king of mermaids be summoned and punish the evildoers.

The young master looked like a lunatic as he walked urgently to the mermaid room of his family. He immediately opened the place and looked at the big aquarium his family bought to keep three little mermaids for the family. When he arrived, the little mermaids were happily sleeping in the aquarium, having no problems with food, and were even playing around.

That was until the evil arrived and destroyed everything. He approached the aquarium with evil thoughts, and the little mermaids, as if sensing him, all hid themselves instinctively. How could all of them hide at the same time? One of them was caught, and their ending was tragic.

The young master mumbles, "Everything is for the second prince. Everything is for the second prince."

He keeps mumbling these words like a lunatic and harms the little mermaids in the aquarium. None of the three little mermaids were spared.

At the General Ye's Mansion...

Hei Anjing was casually watching the television with the two systems as for his husband, Ye Xiajie, who went to the military headquarters with Colonel Lou and Lieutenant Shaka. It seems they had made preparations for the banquet of the crown prince to which they were invited.

All of a sudden, Warden Yun Ming urgently looked for his master as the little mermaids were acting weird. They started screaming all of a sudden, leaving Yun Ming confused. It wasn't until a certain pain passed through his mind that he understood what was happening.

Someone extremely painful was happening to some little mermaids, and they were all asking for the other little mermaids' help.

"Master, the little mermaids..."

Warden Yun Ming hurriedly looked for his master, only to be surprised with what he had seen. He saw blood and tears falling from the eyes of the God of Destruction. It seems that the pain he experienced is directly connected to the little mermaids who were harmed.

"Master, your eyes!"

However, he is a person with a high tolerance for pain. He might not feel pain that much, but the overwhelming emotions of the suffering little mermaids had been directly passed to himself.

Hei Anjing looked at the blood teardrops falling from his eyes, which immediately turned cold as he saw through the suffering of his kin. The God of Destruction was greatly angered.

He said, "A'Ming, come with me."

"Yes, Master!" responded Warden Yun Ming.

With a wave of Hei Anjing's hand, a door made of spatial elements appeared. Zhi Yang and Zhi Yue had turned humanoid and opened the door for the God of Destruction. As soon as they opened the door, a tragic scene was unfolding before them.

They saw a young man covered in the blood of mermaids. There used to be three little mermaids in the aquarium, but now the clear water no longer exists, and there is only reddish water that exists in the aquarium.

On a table near the young man, mutilated little mermaids that died miserably can be found, and among the three, only one left was alive. Hei Anjing and Yun Ming arrived on the scene in their little mermaid.

As soon as they arrived, they couldn't move their gaze away from the little mermaid with dying breath reaching out its little hand over them.

{S-Save...me...}

With blood tears falling from its small eyes, he tried to ask for their help. However, the evil human who noticed that had ripped his arms away like playing with a toy forcibly.

The mad young master was even happily laughing as he ripped apart the little mermaid. This made Yun Ming frown as he saw his master no longer showing any emotions on his face.

The young master was looking at them with a delighted look while covered in the blood of the little mermaids.

"That's great! I did it. I didn't do it! Hahah~"

"That person will definitely be delighted by this result. The mermaid king he always wanted had appeared. Keke~"

The God of Destruction looked at him like a piece of trash but the mad young master didn't even notice anything, and he kept laughing happily.

Hei Anjing finally said, "A'Ming, gather the little mermaids."

Warden Yun Ming bowed his head. "As you wish, Master!"

The God of Destruction commanded, "Zhi Yue hacked into the Starweb and used real-time broadcasts. Play the scene where he killed these little mermaids, then the scene of their arrival until the time we leave the area."

"Zhi Yang, capture everyone in this mansion and everyone connected to this family by blood. The scene of the children must be replayed by their parents."

"Yes!"

Zhi Yue and Zhi Yang kneeled on one knee and followed the orders. They split and did their tasks. As for the young master, he didn't expect to hear the mermaid king speak their language until he opened his mouth and was a bit stunned by how beautiful the voice that comes out from those small mouths is.

The young master said, "Hm, your voice is amazing. Is it because you are the mermaid king? Haha~ I will capture you and give you to that person."

"Is that so?" A cold voice comes from the God of Destruction.

Hei Anjing appeared beside him and gave him a face slap with his tail. The force was so powerful that his impact destroyed through the walls of the room until the front yard of the house. Hei Anjing floats in the air with a cloud-like water covering his silver-tail which is now covered with the blood of the human he just slapped.

BAAAM!

The location had changed from the interior of the room to an open area in front of the mansion owned by this young master's family.

"YOUNG MASTER!?"

By the entrance of the mansion, there are some guards who see their young master flying from inside the house and realize that there is someone who has intruded into the mansion.

"Oh my god! Are you alright, young master!?" Find your next read on Freewebnovel

"What is happening!?"

It was only when they saw a floating silver-tailed mermaid followed by a green-tailed mermaid hugging a huge water droplet with mutilated little mermaids inside that the guards of the house understood what happened. The young master was indeed harming the little mermaids of his clan, but never to the extent of this kind.

The servants, including the guards, already heard the call of pain and help from the little mermaids. However, they had turned a blind eye to it, as the one causing all of this was none other than the young master of the house. They pretended not to hear anything.

The young master with a swollen face said, "S-Stop... Stop the... Mermaid... King..."

The guards exclaimed, "M-Mermaid King!!?"

{I had given your human race a warning! Do not harm my kin, and in exchange, they will cure you of your illness. Harming them is equivalent to incurring this king's wrath. Did you think of my words as a joke?}

{Well then I shall show you all the punishment that you will receive when you harm a little mermaid.}

The silver-tailed mermaid king snaps his fingers, and all humans in the mansion are teleported to the open area they are in. They were all captured with a waterball, which prevented them from leaving or escaping.

All of the servants, guards, and even the other young master, young misses, were summoned. What made it worse was that a man with long red-orange hair appeared as he teleported. In his hands are the noble parents of the young master, who was supposed to be working outside at this time.

In shock, the young master with swollen cheeks looked at his parents in disbelief and called, "Father? Mother?"

Zhi Yang had dragged them like chickens and was completely rough with them. He kneeled before the God of Destruction and said,

"Master, I have captured that human's parents back as you will."

Hei Anjing said, "Good work. Stand back!"

With all the members of the family that the young master had, he gathered this whole progress from his sin of harming the little mermaids, and the arrival of the mermaid king and his confidant was live-streamed on the Starweb as Hei Anjing wished. No one can change the channel and can only watch the whole scene.

All humans can only watch as they see that young man happily torturing and killing the little mermaids. Those who love their little mermaids immediately send theirs away from the television, preventing them from watching the gore scene of their kin's death.

But when the mermaid king arrived before the door that appeared out of nowhere, only then did the human race recall the Mermaid King's warning.

{Do not harm the little mermaids.}

This is the only rule the mermaid king had asked the human race to comply with. Now that it was broken by someone from their race, adding the fact of this channel not being changed or turned off, they are now forced to see the execution the mermaid king will bestow on the sinners who harmed his kind.
