

World Plot 1721

Chapter 1721: 23.40 Second Grey Star - Temporary Awakening

City Tournament Ice Figure Skating

The opening entertainment will be a group of veteran ice skaters following a certain routine. They were given their part to dance the role they were provided and do a freestyle sequence on ice. The background story of this group dance is Angels and Demons. That's why the veterans were split into two colors: black and white, with white signifying the angel race and black signifying the demon race.

The first ones to go to the center were a group of ice skaters whose role was to show the war between the two races. The clashes of white and black on the ice stage, with each pair of white and black dancing different kinds of loops and techniques in their area without conflict, were a sight to behold. Their fierce expressions and gestures showed how they hated each other.

This sequence shows that the war lasted for a few minutes before they finally fell to their deaths and froze in the center, entangled in a way with their enemies.

The second phase dragged their faction's people and showed a quite peaceful interaction, yet full of hidden malice. The angels and the demons signed a treaty while hiding the hatred in their hearts.

The next sequence is the first meeting of the black king and the white king. The center stage's spotlight fell on Hei Anjing and Ye Xiajie. With the latter chasing with an evil smile on his face, and the former staring coldly with his beautiful face. This is their first meeting, first interaction, and first confrontation.

The audience was mesmerized by the story behind the dance and was captivated enough that they could hardly move their eyes away. This opening entertainment possessed a vivid story that, even if there aren't any words exchanged between the skaters on the ice stage, everyone can see the story with their eyes alone. The more the dance on the ice rink progresses, the more people can't move their eyes away. This is like a stage play on an ice stage. Fascinating and intriguing.

The tension in the area intensifies when the Ice King appears. He acted as if he had fallen in love with the archangel. The white king is playing, causing rivalry with the black king. The exchange and clash between these two men was another sight to behold. The whole atmosphere in the area turned tense and thrilling. Especially, the expression of these two men was too vivid, as if they truly wanted to kill each other. In the end, the Ice King was defeated while the Black King and the White King finally fell in love. The story continues to progress. It reached the climax and finally reached the end of the dance.

In the waiting room of An Zhe and Yun Luan...

They were focusing their line of sight on where their teachers were and noticing the action taken by Sirius Frost.

An Zhe commented, "The Ice King had gone crazy. Why does he keep bothering your teacher in front of mine? Does he want to get killed?"

"There is something wrong with the state of that coach. It is just like when we first bumped into Yun Hun and his group; he kept on staring at the coach," Yun Luan commented.

An Zhe added, "This is the first time I have seen someone who wants to seek death."

After finishing this event, Sirius Frost made some moves on their way out, making Hei Anjing frown and angering Ye Xiajie. It was only thanks to the others within the crowd that no incident happened while the camera was rolling. However, as soon as they ended the special room for them, Ye Xiajie beat up Sirius Frost, even with the others stopping them.

"Oh my god! Someone stop them!"

"Break them apart! Don't let them near each other!"

"Mr. Noir, please calm down!"

However, the Black King, Ye Xiajie, ignored him. Some turned their heads to ask the white king for help, but the person was so calm as he watched the fight.

The white king, Hei Anjing, said, "He will stop before he kills him."

Everyone felt that the white king might be smiling, but he is merciless himself. Sirius Frost, the ice king, as if used to this kind of reaction from Hei Anjing, just laughed while getting beaten by the black king, Ye Xiajie. Only when the whole face of Sirius Frost was smashed from all angles did the Black King stop his actions and give the man a warning.

Ye Xiajie said, "I will say this again. Stay away from my wife."

The black king and the white king changed their clothes and left the room. They head to the waiting area for their students, An Zhe and Yun Luan. An Zhe and Yun Luan saw their coaches come back, but seeing some stains of blood on Ye Xiajie's fists, the two young men understood almost instantly that maybe their teacher had beaten that one from the Frost Clan as they expected.

Seeing their students staring at the hands of his husband, Hei Anjing said to them, "Don't worry. The conflict between Sirius Frost and Coach Ye was known by the whole industry. The Frost Clan doesn't dare to make things hard. They are afraid I will retaliate."

"Focus on your performance. This isn't a problem for you to care about," said the Black King, Ye Xiajie, as he casually cleaned his hands of blood.

After waiting while watching the commentary and performance of the singles division, no one from the Frost clan had come over to complain, and none of the staff came to give their teachers a warning. It was only that they finally sighed in relief and continued watching how the competition unfolded while waiting for their turn. In a while, the two were finally called to do the sequence and perform with perfection as they did their best.

After the singles division had done their part, the host started the commentary for the duo division. The figure skaters had done their job well, but the only ones within this division that excelled greatly were Yun Hun and his new partner. Everyone was watching as this pair went on stage, and everyone was stunned by the change in Yun Hun. If he is considered an average contender, he has now become the star of the stage in the duo division. He had changed so much that even his partner became a mere prop for him to dance on the stage.

Yun Luan and An Zhe, who were watching from their waiting room, were dumbfounded. This is a dance that cannot be done by someone not as talented as Yun Luan. This is more like a dance that matches Yun Luan in talent. Seeing this unfold before them all, An Zhe couldn't help but look at Yun Luan. For some reason, An Zhe didn't see the shocked expression on his face. Instead, it was a focused expression with a serious face. However, he can see the disdain within those usually clear eyes. This is absolute confidence; An Zhe had never seen Yun Luan before.

Yun Luan... No, Hunluan, who just woke up temporarily, watches as his soul fragment acts like a clown on the screen. He couldn't hold back the disdain and reprimand within those eyes, which now emit the same silver shade as the God of Destruction. He suddenly noticed An Zhe looking at him with a dazed look. This is the first time in eons that he had seen such pure eyes coming from his other hand, and he couldn't help but tease him.

He reached out a hand and lightly pinched the chin of An Zhe, and with a slight smile on the corner of his lips, he whispered, "When are you going to break through your restrictions, Xiao Zhe?"

Before An Zhe could react, both Yun Luan fell on him as he fainted. The real soul of Hunluan is simply too powerful for the immature body of Yun Luan, making him lose consciousness when the force the vessel can bear reaches the limit.

An Zhe woke up from a state of trance and panicked as he hugged Yun Luan. "Luan'er? Luan'er, are you alright? Luan..."

"He is alright, just too tired. Let him take a nap for a while," said Hei Anjing as he took Yun Luan from An Zhe and carried the young man to the couch, letting him sleep properly.

"Coach Hei, is he... alright? Just now..." An Zhe said.

The adults noticed the conversation between them and also witnessed Hunluan, the Ancient God of Chaos, waking up temporarily just now. They knew that An Zhe was confused by the sudden change. However, they also knew that it wasn't the time yet for that person to fully wake up, and they could only pretend not to notice.

Hei Anjing, the white king, said, "Just now? What are you talking about?"

An Zhe thought that the coach didn't notice the change in Yun Luan just now and shut his mouth. He wanted to check on Yu Luan when he woke up later, and didn't notice that the eyes of the adults in the room had also turned serious at this subject when he turned his head to look at Yun Luan.

He said, "Um... Never mind."

Unfortunately, when Yun Luan woke up, he had returned to normal, and when An Zhe asked what had happened before, the person himself didn't know what he was talking about. An Zhe can only question himself if the person he just met before was real or just his imagination.

Chapter 1722: 23.41 Second Grey Star - Key

The city tournament ended in such an anticlimactic result. The results were the same as usual. With Yun Hun and his new partner winning the duo division, and the singles division resulting in Yun Luan being champion and followed by An Zhe as first runner-up. They all gain the quota for the world tournament. Yun Hun failed to cling to An Zhe after the tournament, after hearing what his coach, Sirius Frost, the ice king, did and what happened to him. Though he had guessed, he could not blame those children for beating him up for what happened.

Nothing much important had happened except for the fact that Hunluan's soul had temporarily woken up before the end of the tournament, and that the situation had left An Zhe bewildered all day. Because of this, the God of Destruction, Hei Anjing, and the God of Void and Darkness, Ye Xiajie, were watching An Zhe quietly on their way home. Even the current Yun Luan noticed the changes in An Zhe after waking up and asking all those questions before.

On their way home, An Zhe had fallen into his deep thoughts, almost ignoring Yun Luan the whole way. Even after they had returned to the mansion.

Yun Luan grabbed An Zhe and asked, "Zhe, what is wrong with you? You've just been acting weird since we got back, and I woke up."

"I'm alright, just a bit tired," An Zhe responded as he walked past Yun Luan.

The moment he walked past Yun Luan, An Zhe didn't notice the shocked expression of Yun Luan.

This situation had actually left An Zhe a bit distant from Yun Luan. For the reason that it made him uncomfortable that the Yun Luan who had smiled at him in that room was just a figment of his imagination. The sudden distance made Yun Luan feel empty. This is what he had always felt when Yun Hun started stealing anything from his side. So, Yun Luan started thinking that maybe even An Zhe, whom he thought would never leave his side, could change like this one day.

Yun Luan also started to change, especially on the day when the last conversation between him and An Zhe took place. He becomes even quieter and no longer easily approaches everyone except his coach, Hei Anjing, who would check on him as he is worried. Even when training, Yun Luan asked if he could train alone in that former ice rink, which he used to train in, and not in the private one where he would see An Zhe.

The God of Destruction, Hei Anjing, thought that the tension between An Zhe and Yun Luan might become a catalyst to wake the real Hunluan. He agreed to Yun Luan's request. There is also the case of An Zhe; he also wanted to try forcing the world eater to wake up. For that, stimulation or a burst in feelings is needed.

Like today, An Zhe still hasn't noticed the changes in Yun Luan and even asked for a leave of absence.

An Zhe said, "I will be back for dinner." He didn't even notice that Yun Luan no longer looked at him or cared for him like before. He is now treated no differently than air.

He left without noticing the awkwardness of the area and how people in the dining area were sneaking a peek between him and Yun Luan.

Yun Luan also finished his breakfast and said, "Coach, I will go train for the whole day and return for dinner."

"Alright. Don't overdo it," said Hei Anjing.

After Yun Luan took his leave, those who felt awkward in the dining hall couldn't help but react.

Ye Jingxia whispered to his elder brother, "What the hell is wrong with the two of them?"

"Um... This is just a lover's spat. Don't get involved, Xiao Jing," said Ye Qinjing to his younger brother.

Ye Jingxia looked confused and tilted his head as if he couldn't understand why his elder brother thinks he will care about what is happening with the two lovers. He couldn't even understand the emotion between the two.

"I won't. Do I look interested?" Ye Jingxia said.

Hei Anjing said, "Alright. Just eat."

The White King, Hei Anjing, and the Black King, Ye Xiajie, noticed the awkwardness between An Zhe and Yun Luan. They knew that An Zhe started meeting Yun Hun after the city tournament. This is not because he is attracted to Yun Hun, but because he wanted to investigate if something was wrong with Yun Luan. Whether he had a split personality or not.

Yun Hun knew that the world eater's vessel in this world wasn't truly attracted to him like he was. After all, he is only a soul fragment, and if there is someone whom this person is going to recognize, it can only be the original Yun Luan. However, as a part of the original Hunluan, he couldn't ignore his attraction to An Zhe, the mortal vessel of the world-eater of this world.

Somewhere at the mall...

Yun Hun and An Zhe met as An Zhe requested. He wanted to observe the Yun Luan he thought he dreamed of that day, the one in front of him. He noticed that the presence and personality of Yun Hun are closer to the one he met that day. However, meeting Yun Hun right now, he felt that this man was merely a copy and not the same as the one whom he had met. They were having a conversation at the cafe, and An Zhe immediately got bored after a few exchanges of lines.

Yun Hun wasn't offended, as he knew the real personality of the world eater, An Shizhe. This is the man who only acknowledges the original and never its soul fragment. For him, soul fragments are disposable things. I can be used, ignored, or even destroyed at will. However, affected by the feeling of the original, Yun Hun can hardly hate the man. Thus, leading to the current situation.

"Alright, let's end the small talk. I know there is something you wanted to ask. Say it. What is it that you want to know?" Yun Hun asked with a smile.

When Yun Hun smiled, An Zhe was stunned but only for a split second before finally frowning. He said out of nowhere, "Can you please not smile? I feel uncomfortable."

"Is there something wrong with me smiling?" Yun Hun asked.

An Zhe averted his eyes and said, "...Nothing. I just... don't like it."

"Alright! I will not smile," said Yun Hun.

An Zhe took his time to think as he hesitated before finally asking what he wanted to ask.

He said, "Do you know a man called An Shizhe?"

The moment the name An Shizhe was mentioned, Yun Hun's face turned serious. He thought that the man was fooling him. However, after observing An Zhe, he looked so innocent and clear. He knew that this question wasn't to test him. But simply a question he wanted to ask.

Yun Hun asked, "Where have you heard this name? Did my brother call it out?"

"No, I just heard it somewhere," said An Zhe, trying to hide the fact that Yun Luan was involved in this situation.

Yun Hun knew that An Zhe was trying to lie. He pretended to fall for it and gave him an answer that was half-truth and half-lie. Hiding a smile behind his cup, he took a sip and enjoyed his espresso before speaking. As for An Zhe, he looked at him as if he were drinking mud instead of coffee.

He said, "An Shizhe, I know this man very well. Isn't that my elder brother's lover?"

When Yun Hun mentioned the word 'lover,' it made An Zhe's heart beat in excitement rather than anger. He couldn't understand why his heart was reacting like this and held the clothes above his chest with an expression of incredulity on his face. Yun Hun, who was observing him, thought that he was affected by jealousy, causing him to be happy. As long as he makes An Zhe distance himself from Yun Luan, it will be his win.

However, he thought wrong. The obsession An Shizhe had towards Yun Luan was too strong, especially as he prepared for it so he wouldn't mistake someone else as his beloved. Thus, when his real name was mentioned and words like lovers, husband, and beloved were mentioned, his heart would race, and the real reason for it was yearning. He was yearning for the person he fell for and chose with his whole life. This is the trump card or the key the World Eater had prepared so he could wake up in this world despite the restrictions on them.

Yun Hun tried to look worried and was about to reach out a hand to touch An Zhe. "Are you alright, A'Zhe?" he asked. Unfortunately, that is the wrong move at this moment.

An Zhe had slapped his hand away and said, "Don't worry. I'm fine. I want to use the bathroom first."

"Go ahead," said Yun Hun.

He didn't think much and felt that he had succeeded in creating a gap between his original self and this man. After all, as long as those who aren't supposed to get involved don't enter the fray, he should be able to win. Unfortunately, he had guessed wrong.

Chapter 1723: 23.42 Second Grey Star - The World Eater, An Shizhe

After An Zhe excused himself and went to the bathroom within the cafe, the dizziness in his head worsened, and he swayed as he found his way to the bathroom. Upon seeing his pale face covered in cold sweat, a worried staff member approached him and asked if he was alright. In his eyes, he looked like someone who was ill and was about to fall unconscious.

The cafe staff asked, "Sir, are you alright?"

"I'm fine. Can you show me the way to the restroom?" asked An Zhe.

The cafe staff nods his head and leads him to the restroom. This facility is unexpectedly quite big, with five stalls and four faucets with a mirror. Before entering, he dismissed the cafe staff and entered. He walked towards the faucet to wash his face. The more he washes his face, the dizzier he gets. What followed was the ringing in his head that almost made him feel like he was deaf.

Finally, he fainted for a moment while leaning on the bathroom faucet.

Once he woke up, his whole demeanor had changed. A pair of sharp eyes looked around and finally stood up properly. He smooths the creases on his clothes, and the wetness caused by his hands magically dries up. He once again washes his face and flips his wet hair up. His sharp gaze was shown in his reflection in the mirror, with a devilish smirk at the corner of his mouth.

He mumbles, "It seems that my disciples' way is indeed useful. With obsession and a trigger, I woke up at this moment. The one outside... is simply outrageous? How dare a mere soul fragment go against my Luan'er~"

After the World Eater, An Shizhe woke up; it took a while before he came out of the restroom. However, unlike his pale complexion from before, he looked completely different from before. He looked refreshed, and his complexion was in good condition. What made it even more surprising was that his presence had intensified. Even though his features were still a bit immature, his demeanor turned sharper with a hint of arrogance. Adding his handsome face to the mix, he looked like a handsome young master.

Those who were staring fell into a trance and could hardly move their eyes from him. Even the cafe staff who helped him over were stunned. It was as if the person he first met changed completely in just a few minutes. Such a thing was simply impossible. However, it happened before them.

Meanwhile, Yun Hun, who was waiting for An Zhe to return, noticed the commotion in the cafe and saw An Zhe returning from the restroom after washing his face. His clean face was exposed, and his hair was a bit dry, leaving a bit of a sexy feeling. When he joined him at his table, Yun Hun didn't even notice that he had fallen into a daze and was blushing as he stared at An Zhe's face.

The world eater had done this intentionally. He didn't want this thing that made his other half suffer to get away with it so easily. Let him suffer more about wanting something but never being able to get it.

An Zhe said, "Sorry for waiting, but I need to return now... Just now, my coach called me to return. It seems he found out that I was sneaking away from training. I apologize for leaving all of a sudden."

"D-Don't worry. If your coach was summoning you, it must be for preparations for the world stage. See you on the world stage, An Zhe," said Yun Hun with a smile.

Though he stumbled with his first word, he spoke clearly next. If it is the original, Hunluan would remain calm even if the world is about to end before his eyes. An Zhe's eyes slightly narrowed at this moment, yet returned to normal before Yun Hun noticed. After saying a few more words, he took off without turning his head back. Compared to a mere fragment, he is more worried about his beloved, who hasn't fully awakened in his vessel due to the restrictions of this world.

An Shizhe mumbles, "I wonder how I can help my wife wake up?" He looks at the dark cloud gathering in the sky, but it instantly disperses as if it were helpless, as he couldn't punish it as well.

After all, he regains his memories without an outsider's help, and because of this, the world is incapable of descending a flash of heavenly lightning on him as punishment. He didn't break any rules after all.

"Heh~ It's helpless against me now~ As long as I don't use my abilities, I can retain my original memories and keep my wife by my side," the world eater mumbles as he prepares to head back to find his beloved in this world. He also needed to see his son, disciple, and grandchildren, who had descended to this world to support him.

Back to the cafe, after An Zhe took his leave. Yun Hun was still in dreamland even after the man left. Even though he knew that the reason for his reaction was mostly due to the feelings of the original, he couldn't deny that his attraction towards the vessel of An Shizhe in this world was beyond his control.

It took a while before Yun Hun calmed down and was finally determined about something. He mumbles, "I have to get him. He is the only worthy person to become my partner on the ice stage."

"Moreover, if I truly get An Zhe, will my elder twin brother break down?"

He looked excited, thinking about this possible future. After buying another cup of coffee, he left the cafe and prepared to return to the Frost Clan. It was thanks to his planning that not only did the Yun family fall under his control, but even the Frost Clan became his. As for Sirius Forest, he made sure his obsession would make him lose his mind. Though he is worried about his son, he knows that with the Sovereign God of Void and Darkness with him, he will remain safe from any harm.

Yun Hun murmurs, "I can't wait to see my brother's reaction when he sees the news this time."

He noticed some paparazzi taking his and An Zhe's photos. He was the one who hired this reporter. This way, Yun Luan will think that An Zhe had betrayed him.

At the ice rink where Yun Luan chose to practice on his own. However, his mind was not focusing on the sequence he was practicing, and he recalled the reaction of An Zhe last night and this morning. In the eyes of Yun Luan, An Zhe seems to be intentionally ignoring him. For the first time in his life, he slipped while skating. Thankfully, this is a private place, and no one has seen what happened to Yun Luan.

Yun Luan forgot to loosen his gloves; thus, when he fell, not only did he scratch his hand, but he was unlucky enough to get wounded by his fall. It was such a bad fall. But the man who had slipped just sat down, even ignoring the wound on his palm. He waited until the pain in his knees subsided and lowered his head for a bit. He checked his phone only to receive a message from his twin brother. The content of the message was simple. A single sentence and a photo of An Zhe he secretly took while the man was ordering his drink.

{I've borrowed him for a while, brother~}

Seeing this photo, Yun Luan easily recognized him as An Zhe. It was the same An Zhe who had been ignoring him since yesterday and didn't even greet him this morning, which he usually does. A stabbing pain in his heart made Yun Luan uncomfortable. He wanted nothing of anything for now and rest. He decided to end his training for today.

Without the mood to continue practicing, Yun Luan prepares to leave to take a nap in the rest area. But before he could stand up on his own, someone had carried him away. It was An Zhe who hurriedly came over to this place after calling his son to ask where Yun Luan was.

An Zhe, with a worried expression on his face, carried Yun Luan within his arms and asked, "I saw you fall just now. Are you in pain, Luan'er?"

Yun Luan was surprised to see An Zhen appear here all of a sudden.

He asked, "Why are you here?" Even though his words were cold, his voice was hoarse, as if he was about to cry anytime now.

An Zhe feels like a jerk. Even though he had lost his memories, he shouldn't have treated his other half like this, especially after what happened this morning. Because he was confused about something and it involved Yun Luan, he unconsciously ignored the person due to awkwardness.

He responded as he skated towards the exit and responded, "I suddenly missed you, Luan'er~. That's why I came to find you."

After coming out of the ice rink, An Zhe gently placed Yun Luan on the seat. Seeing this, Yun Luan was about to remove his shoes, only for his hands to be grabbed.

"Don't touch. You'll dirty your wound. I will do it," said An Zhe as he served Yun Luan even more naturally than before.

Yun Luan watches An Zhe move. All the uncomfortable feelings he had before had now burst out. His tears started falling regardless of how expressionless his face was while staring at An Zhe.

He whispers, "Please... Please don't ignore me next time."

Chapter 1724: 23.43 Second Grey Star - Zhe-yeye

The world eater had just awakened his ego and come to find his beloved, only to see him alone at the ice rink, lonely and desolate. He panicked when he saw Yun Luan falling on the cold ground, and it looked like it was a bad fall. He immediately looks for his skating shoes just so he can take away his injured beloved on that cold stage.

An Zhe was very careful when he carried Yun Luan out of the ice rink and even placed him to sit on a padded couch. He intended to remove his shoes before carrying him away to the clinic, only for him to hear his beloved's pleading voice saying,

'Please... please don't ignore me...'

Such a simple request. Anyone can do it. However, Yun Luan begged for such a simple thing. Is it because he used to have everything, only for it to be stolen away? After not having expectations in life, Yun Luan finally met An Zhe, who started changing his life. However, he didn't want An Zhe to disappear from his life. After all, he is the first person in this world who changed his life for the better and the only man who treats him as someone important.

Yun Luan was afraid of changing again. He is already tired and helpless. In his current life, An Zhe and the Ye family are the ones who changed him. However, comparing the Ye family to An Zhe, for Yun Luan, An Zhe is positioned higher than the other in his heart. That's why An Zhe's action changed last night. The one most affected was Yun Luan.

When Yun Luan received a message from his twin brother about meeting An Zhe, he finally broke down. His perfect control over himself was out of control. It was because of this that he had slipped and gotten to his current state of being injured.

If it's the former, An Zhe, the young man, might be overwhelmed by the situation. However, the soul in An Zhe's body is no longer the immature soul who doesn't know anything. But the world eater, An Shizhe, who loves Hunluan the most in this world. Thus, for him, only Yun Luan, who is the real vessel of Hunluan, was his beloved. Yun Hun, the soul fragment of Hunluan, could never enter the line of sight of An Shizhe. For him, who possessed countless soul fragments scattered all over the universes, he sees them as something merely disposable.

If not for the trial of taking back the soul fragments, An Shizhe would have killed Yun Hun the moment he woke up. He only kept him alive because he needed to be alive for the trial of his son and the need for this soul fragment to heal his beloved's soul.

Seeing the tears of Yun Luan makes the world eater uncomfortable. However, he cannot immediately initiate closeness, as the relationship between the two of them is still innocent. None of them has reached adulthood; their vessels are still young. He can only pull a handkerchief out of nowhere and gently wipe Yun Luan's tears.

While whispering gently to Yun Luan, An Zhe said, "I will not ignore you in the future. I promise you this, Luan'er."

The gentle touch and the softness of the cloth used to wipe his tears made Yun Luan realize that An Zhe had once again changed. He is no longer distant like this morning. Nor is he as childish as when they first met. He feels stable now, and it has made him extremely comfortable. But this is a change that even Yun Luan can notice. Moreover, he seems to be more gentle and a lot more biased towards him. Even though Yun Luan couldn't understand An Zhe's reason for this, it made him happy at this moment.

Yun Luan didn't even notice that he could smile now as he looked at An Zhe, and the corner of his lips was slightly upturned.

He said, "I believe you, A'Zhe."

"Let's get your wounds treated in the clinic. If I brought you back without treatment... Our s—. Your coach will definitely get angry," said the World Eater, An Shizhe, as he was about to call Yun Luan's coach, Hei Anjing, his son.

Just as An Zhe was about to support Yun Luan to the clinic, the latter unexpectedly raised both of his arms towards An Zhe without saying a word. This action of his just made An Zhe happier, who didn't hesitate to carry him in his arms, and the two quietly headed to the clinic to treat Yun Luan's wounds. Upon checking Yun Luan's injuries,.

Apparently, not only did he hurt his palm. He also scratches a bit of skin on his knees while leaving light wounds and bruises. It looked bad on Yun Luan's fair skin, and it made An Zhe a bit worried. That's why he also carried him back to the mansion without letting him even take a few walks back to the mansion.

Upon arriving at the mansion, An Zhe still carried Yun Luan in his arms, who had fallen asleep. On their way in, the two of them bump into the God of Destruction, and the God of Void instantly notices the changes on An Zhe. Ye Jingxia and the rest of the children also noticed and hesitated in approaching An Zhe, as this was the first time they were meeting their other grandfather.

Ye Jingxia runs towards the entrance upon hearing that An Zhe is back.

"Zhezhe, let's play... Hm?"

An Zhe smiled at his grandchildren, but this smile is different from before. They can feel the same feeling of an elderly person watching their grandchildren be playful. Seeing this, Ye Jingxia instinctively hid behind his elder brother, Ye Qinjing.

Ye Jingxia said, "Dage, he feels different than usual."

"Don't be rude, Xiao Jing," said Ye Qinjing. He clasped his hands and saluted as he even lowered his head. "It is a pleasure to meet Grandfather An."

If their Grandpa Hunluan's aura is similar to their dad's, Hei Anjing. An Shizhe is like their father, Ye Xiajie, with an even more dangerous aura that can devour them anytime. They didn't know the personality of this grandfather, and they hesitated for a moment.

Ye Jingxia was surprised only for a moment and looked excited as he stared at An Zhe. "World Eater Grandpa?"

"How about calling me Zhe-yeye instead?" An Zhe said. "However, your grandpa is sleeping. No shouting."

The children of the God of Destruction and the God of Void no longer show hesitation in approaching An Zhe, as they know that he isn't a stranger. Moreover, regardless of the overbearing aura the World Eater possessed,. It doesn't seem to affect these children at all. The twin ran towards him and hugged his legs.

Ye Xiajie said, "Let your Zhe-yeye put Hun-yeye to sleep first. You can play with him after that."

An Zhe nodded at the couple and teleported directly to Yun Luan's room and placed him on the bed gently. He stayed over for a while before he took his leave to meet his children and grandchildren. He didn't teleport back and just walked instead. In the living room, he saw his son and his family spending family time together. He can still recall when he and Hunluan got their son the first time. They live quietly on the Ancient Star and spend their lives ordinary yet full of happiness and satisfaction. The world eater misses those days, especially upon seeing this scene.

Upon joining them in the living room, An Zhe's grandchildren cling to him. The two wardens, who were usually out to keep the couple's schedule arranged, served some drinks and snacks to the room and left. They cannot act like the children who act unaffected by the scary aura of the world eater.

The God of Destruction asked, "How did you wake up early?"

"I just did what my disciple did to easily find you and wake up in the lower realm worlds. I used my own obsession and yearning, plus a keyword to wake me up. It seems useful~," said the World Eater, An Shizhe.

"Seems like it," Ye Xiajie commented.

Hei Anjing said, "Then we will leave Hunluan to you. If you need us for something, just say a word."

"Alright. He learned to smile... It won't be hard for him to gain the rest of his emotions. When he does, Luan'er will wake up naturally," said the World Eater, An Shizhe. "However, that soul fragment of his is annoying. I can't kill it, can I?"

"Hunluan needs it to strengthen his soul. After all, his vessel hasn't been completely created yet," said Hei Anjing.

An Zhe understood the importance of Yun Hun to his other half and decided to keep that annoying one alive for now.

"Alright. If he doesn't agree to voluntary merging, we can use force," An Zhe said.

The couple agreed to this plan and nodded in agreement. Hei Anjing stood up, preparing to go to the kitchen, and said, "I will prepare dinner now. Look after the twins."

"Dad, I will help," said Ye Qijing.

Ye Jingxia said, "Me too!"

Everyone from the Ye family said, "No! Don't go to the kitchen, Xiao Jing!" It seems that the second son of the Ye family is a kitchen killer like Ye Xiajie before he learned how to cook.

Chapter 1725: 23.44 Second Grey Star - Cinema

Ever since the awakening of An Zhe's ego, the World Eater, An Shizhe, that day. Hei Anjing and Ye Xiajie no longer worried about Yun Luan too much. After all, An Shizhe can be considered someone stronger than them when it comes to strength. Moreover, under his protection, Yun Luan will definitely be safer even if Yun Hun, the soul fragment of the Ancient God of Chaos, Hunluan, contests against them.

Ever since the day An Shizhe had taken over and repaired his relationship with Yun Luan, the latter had become so attached to him that he became a bit clingy. For An Shizhe, he didn't mind this closeness. Of course, the God of Void and Darkness, as well as the God of Destruction and Ice, didn't change much about this. These two husbands aren't that much different from them after all. The ones who were stunned and sometimes speechless were the children and the servants in the mansion, especially the old butler.

Just like today, Yun Luan wanted to train and go to the ice rink. Unlike before, when he would only inform everyone that he would go on training and take a leave after getting permission, this time he would grab An Zhe's sleeves.

Yun Luan asked, "A'Zhe, I want to go training."

"Alright. I will go with you after breakfast," said An Zhe while patting his beloved's head.

Everyone was staring at them, yet this sickeningly sweet young pair didn't care about them at all. Those who knew their real connection to the Black King and the White King would all think that this kind of sickeningly sweet interaction and shamelessness is something that was inherited.

Ye Jingxia whispered, "Dage, we will not become like this if we find our other half in the future, won't we?"

Ye Qinjing didn't answer right away and hesitated, "Don't jinx it."

"Are we going to train with them? I don't want to eat dog food all day," said Ye Jingxia.

An Zhe, who overheard their conversation, grabbed their heads from behind and said, while grinning. "Damn brats, you know we can hear you, right?"

"Granddad, you are hearing things," said Ye Jingxia. He had perfectly inherited the playful nature of this old man and his dad, Hei Anjing.

An Shizhe retorted, "Hehe~ I don't think I am though~"

Owie~

An Shizhe wasn't offended and just pinched his second grandson's chubby cheeks until the brat was in tears and hid behind his elder brother. In the end, before going to training, Ye Jingxia and Ye Qinjing, together with An Zhe and Yun Luan, brought the twins to the mall with the old butler. They decided to watch a movie. Hei Anjing and Ye Xiajie didn't come with them and just spent their day at the mansion with the two wardens.

After the children left the mansion, Yun Ming and the Chief Warden came to report something from Vearth.

The Chief Warden, Lou Wuye, said, "Reporting to the Masters, I had contacted Vearth's Lord God An Liang. They said that Zhi Yang and Zhi Yue were found. They had returned to Vearth after being kicked out of the lower realm world."

"They were kicked out as expected," said the God of Void and Darkness, Ye Xiajie.

Hei Anjing, the God of Destruction, said, "Unlike before, where there are only four of us descending, though the children don't count, having three ancient gods, a sovereign, and two high-ranking wardens is still too much for this lower realm world. It can only kick out the one with the closest connection and place heavy restrictions on those who have descended."

"That desperation led to the world finding something near the same level to block it. Because of this, the soul fragment of Hunluan in this world had become a chosen one," said Warden Yun Ming.

Hei Anjing said, "A lot of things would change now that the old man is awake. It wouldn't take much time for Pops to wake up again."

"Then there is no need to interfere much, unless another outsider that isn't supposed to be in this world appears and gets involved with our family," Ye Xiajie said.

At the mall, the group of children, together with an old butler, heads to the cinema...

Yun Luan, who wasn't used to the crowd, would cling to An Zhe. On the other hand, the World Eater, An Shizhe, had his hand wrapped around the back of Yun Luan, comforting him. He can feel the discomfort of his beloved. If not for the twins wanting to watch a movie with their grandfathers, An Zhe and Yun Luan wouldn't have come. Especially Yun Luan, who felt sick in the crowd.

The twins are holding the hands of An Zhe and Yun Luan, making it impossible to do tasks like escaping. These two didn't want the twins to cry because of them. After all, they didn't want to see the twins cry. As for Ye Qinjing, he had to look after his younger brother, who is like a free spirit. If he didn't watch over him, he didn't know where Ye Jingxia might fly off and do something without thinking.

In front of the ticket booth, where Ye Jingxia had dragged his eldest brother.

The second son of the Ye family said, "Dage, what are we going to watch?"

"Let's wait and ask everyone," said Ye Qinjing.

Ye Jingxia pouted and said, "I don't want to watch horror. It's boring as it seems unreal."

"If others want to choose horror, I'll accompany you to watch whatever you want," Ye Qinjing said while patting his younger brother's head. Ye Jingxia happily smiled under this touch.

When the others had joined their group, the twins had no choice but to watch children's animation films with the old butler, as they couldn't watch anything else. Ye Qinjing accompanied Ye Jingxia to watch action, while An Zhe and Yun Luan wanted to watch horror. After buying their respective tickets, they went to the snack bar. The twins drag their brothers, including their Zhe-yeye, but Luan-yeye seems to be a bit dizzy from the crowd and was tasked to wait for a seat.

An Zhe helped Yun Luan to sit nearby and said, "Luan'er, stay here and rest. There are fewer people in this corner. I will get you some water."

"Young Master An Zhe, this old man can look after Young Master Xiao Luan. Please bring my twin young miss and a young master to the snack bar," said the old butler.

Yun Luan, seeing An Zhe looking at him worriedly, said, "Zhe, go ahead and buy some food. I will be alright here with Grandpa Butler."

"Alright then. I will be back as soon as possible!"

An Zhe nodded his head and held the hands of the twins. As for Ye Jingxia, he had longed to drag the eldest of the Ye family with him before the two youngest. He is even more childish than the twins. After they left, Yun Luan's face once again turned pale. Clearly, this kind of boisterous place isn't for him. This is also the reason why he only borrows the ice rink the night before. As he didn't want to be surrounded by many people, it made him see.

The old butler looked at him worriedly and offered a mint candy. "Xiao Luan, eat this. It will make you feel a bit better."

"Thank you, Grandpa Butler," said Yun Luan.

Grandpa Butler thought the dizziness of the young man would lessen as long as he couldn't see the crowd.

"Use this handkerchief to cover your eyes and rest," he said.

The old butler took out a handkerchief and wet it with water. After making sure there isn't any more moisture, he helps Yun Luan lean on the seat with his head slightly up. The wet handkerchief covered Yun Luan's eyes, and the darkness somehow calmed him down.

Not too far from them, Yun Hun, who had brought out his new partner for fun, saw his elder brother. Seeing that he is here is rare, as he knows how much his twin brother hates the crowd. Seeing him outside and in such a crowded place was rare. He approached Yun Luan, which made the old butler frown, and immediately positioned himself near Yun Luan.

The old butler said, "Please do not approach. This is a patient."

"Senior, you know me. Moreover, he and I looked alike. There is no way you wouldn't believe that the two of us are connected," said Yun Hun.

The old butler's eyes turn a bit colder while staring at Yun Hun. He said, "Xiao Luan is not feeling okay. Please do not approach him."

"Alright~." However, slyness flashed within the eyes of Yun Hun.

SLAP!

He made moves that even the old man failed to stop. Just as Yun Hun was about to remove the cloth from Yun Luan's eyes, his hand was slapped away by someone, and Yun Hun had no other choice but to take a few steps back in surprise. He looked up and saw the familiar face of the man in his dreams. It was An Zhe who had returned on time to stop him.

An Zhe said with a cold voice and fierce glare, "How rude! Do you have no manners!?"

Chapter 1726: 23.45 Second Grey Star - Commotion

Yun Hun's forceful actions towards Yun Luan were halted by An Zhe, who had returned on time and stopped him. The old butler immediately protected Yun Luan, who was feeling sick due to the crowd. He stares warily toward this young man who looks like Yun Luan yet possesses an opposite personality. The old butler, due to the action taken by Yun Hun, made him dislike the child. In his eyes, this man called Yun Hun is such a rude child.

An Zhe said with a cold voice and fierce glare, "How rude! Do you have no manners!?"

Yun Hun didn't expect An Zhe to be here as well. He knew that his action just now wasn't likable, and he felt embarrassed that he had exposed himself like that in front of An Zhe. He now felt like he had done something he should have. He wanted to apologize to An Zhe.

But I was surprised by him the most when Yun Luan suddenly made a move and hugged me.

"A'Zhe! You are back!" Yun Luan happily wrapped his arm around An Zhe's waist.

This sudden cheerfulness and clinginess stunned Yun Hun, and he stared at his eldest twin brother in disbelief. He truly cannot believe that Hunluan can do such a thing. Then that leaves one possible thing: Hunluan in Yun Luan's body has not woken up yet, and this action was all Yun Luan's doing himself.

The World Eater, An Shizhe, on the other hand, is delighted by such a gesture. His Luan'er had never shown such childish reactions. It was usually he who would stick to his beloved like a dog plaster. With a smile on his face, An Zhe rubs his chin on Yun Luan's head. He would have loved to hug him back if not for the drinks and food that needed to be carried with two hands. Moreover, their movie is about to start.

An Zhe said, "I'm back. The old man said, You aren't feeling well. How about now? Do you still want to see the movie? Here, have a drink." He passed a huge cup of soft drink for Yun Luan to carry with both his hands. As for their food, An Zhe was carrying it for them.

As for Yun Hun and his partner, he was forgotten by them as they could only watch them walk away. Such a gesture of pretending to be blind and ignoring his presence annoyed him the most. Just as he was about to follow them, he saw the children of the God of Destruction and the Sovereign God of Void and Darkness. He hesitated to make a move. Even for Yun Hun, he didn't want to become the evil one in the eyes of his own grandchildren.

Yun Hun can only click his tongue in annoyance and pull away from his partner, who had remained quiet the whole time. This man acts like a stone. He didn't make a decision for himself alone. He needs someone to make a move for him. Being dragged like this to join the fray was something it didn't expect to experience.

He mumbles, "This is unbelievable. Is it even Hunluan? Maybe that wasn't him, alright? However, how can Hunluan act like a clingy child when his ego hasn't fully awakened yet? The worst is that An Zhe is now treating these actions as a gesture of love from his beloved and was so happy about it."

Yun Hun was definitely not happy with the closeness of the two. If it were the original soul doing such a thing, he wouldn't be jealous at all. After all, a real Ancient God of Chaos with his intact memory and the Hunluan who didn't are something that can be considered worlds apart. That's why he had been able to bully Yun Luan when they were young. These sudden changes made Yun Hun uncomfortable.

He was about to turn around and leave with his partner when he accidentally bumped into someone holding nachos in his hands. It's no wonder that such an accident occurred. Plus, it was Yun Hun who was in the wrong.

"Ah! My nachos!!"

"Can you watch where you are going?"

This is said by the couple Yun Hun had accidentally bumped into. Now his clothes were covered in cheese and salsa, making his current situation worse. Moreover, he is the one being blamed. He immediately lost his temper and hit the lady's hand, who was still carrying nachos, which were supposed to be their snack, towards their faces, and then snorted.

"You are not telling me that I am blind, are you? I was walking slowly. If you hadn't directly bumped into me, you wouldn't have wasted your damn food! Don't blame me for something I haven't done!" said Yun Hun. He was enraged to the point that he was screaming at the couple in front of him.

Well, as for his unnamed partner, he was only watching the joke unfolding before him quietly, and his reaction is almost similar to when Yun Hun wanted to confront his twin brother but stopped only thanks to the children.

What they didn't know was that not far from them, Ye Qinjing and Ye Jingxia were watching the ruckus caused by the soul fragment of their Yeye (Grandfather). Ye Jingxia was happily watching the scene unfold.

Hahaha~

Ye Jingxia said, "This is funny. He is so angry that his face is red."

"To think you will intentionally lead a commotion just to hold him back. Alright, you have done enough. Let's watch the movie," said Ye Qinjing, carrying all kinds of snacks like a huge bucket of popcorn, nachos, fries, crepes, etc.

Ye Qinjing sighed helplessly, and he said, "You didn't buy everything in the snack bar, did you, Xiao Jing?"

"Eh? I did, though," responded Ye Jingxia.

Sighs~

Ye Qinjing gave up and chose not to scold his brother in a public place. "Let's go, the movie is about to start."

"Okay~," Ye Jingxia said. He glanced at Yun Hun and his partner, who had become the center of the commotion.

The two of them, these brothers, finally entered the cinema of their movie choice.

After the movie was watched by them. Everyone came out and met at the restaurant with a private room, as they had planned. This will allow Yun Luan to no longer suffer sickness, as there is no crowd aside from them. The twins happily played around inside the room while they were telling the waiter to list the food they wanted to eat.

Ye Qinjing asked his brothers and sister, "What do you guys want to eat?"

"Braised Pork!" Ye Jingxia answered.

Ye Anxia answered, "Custard pie!"

"You can only eat that as dessert, Xiaxia~," said Ye Jingxia.

Ye Jingmo said, "Dage, I want to eat grilled salmon."

"Alright," Ye Qinjing looked at the other adults holding the menu with them. He made sure to ask the guest for a menu with no price.

The old butler only ordered a four-treasure porridge. As for An Zhe, all he ordered were meat dishes, while Yun Luan chose a few vegetarian dishes to balance the overall meal. After the waiter had left and they were waiting for the food, Ye Jingxia started talking.

Ye Jingxia said, Is that your twin brother? He doesn't seem to have a good temper. After we entered the cinema, we saw him fighting with another couple over bumping food. They had to be dragged away from the area because of the commotion. Haha~"

"Indeed. Both were at fault, but they were simply ignoring their mistake and blaming one another. They are causing a ruckus because the other customers have reported them," Ye Qinjing said.

The old butler added, "That child is too rude, the complete opposite of Xiao Luan."

"Anyway, they had been dragged away, so there shouldn't be any problem," said Ye Qinjing.

Meanwhile, the laughter of the twins running around the room made the adults in the area smile at them. The group happily enjoyed their meals and finally went home. In the mansion, the couple, Hei Anjing and Ye Xiajie, had been waiting for them to return. The old butler passed the twins to the couple.

The Sovereign God of Void and Darkness, Ye Xiajie, said, "You've done well, butler. Take the rest of the day off."

"Yes, Master." The old butler is no longer young anymore. Just a half a day of journey left a toll on his body. It was just right to let the old man rest after looking after their twins.

The other children sat in the living room with their parents. An Zhe and Yun Luan included, as the mini desserts they bought for their coaches were served on the table.

An Zhe said, "Try this new dessert. We bought it for you two."

Hei Anjing loves sweets. Knowing this, they bought some on their way home. Ye Xiajie took a small plate and fed his wife and the twins.

The God of Destruction enjoyed the varied flavored mousse cakes. There are even mini ice cream cakes. He said, "It's delicious."

Hearing this compliment, Yun Luan unexpectedly smiled, which left everyone in the living room dumbfounded.

They even heard him say, "As long as you guys enjoyed it, it was a good buy."

Chapter 1727: 23.46 Second Grey Star - Before Dinner

At the police station...

Yun Hun and the couple were sent to the police station after their ordinary argument turned into a brawl, causing injuries to the crowd who tried to stop them. They had injured too many people and even started a stampede that harmed children and old people among the crowd. In anger, the families of those who were injured had sued Yun Hun and the couple, with the ending being their being sent to the police station. Thankfully, no one had died.

Except for Yun Hun's unnamed partner, the couple and Yun Hun were jailed. It took a while before everything was cleared. Sirius Frost personally came over to bail Yun Hun. At this point, Yun Hun already had the whole Frost Clan under his control.

A police officer approached the jail where the couple and Yun Hun are staying. He opened the locked cell, looking like he was in a bad mood, while looking at the three people inside the prison cell.

He said, "The one called Yun Hun, come out! Your guardian has bailed you out. How lucky you are, being a minor and having a rich family as a backing. Those who were injured can only stay in the hospital to heal, while the culprit can come out with just a bit of money."

"If you have a complaint, then ask someone to change the law and lower the age of those considered minors so you can be put back in jail," Yun Hun scoffed at the police so arrogantly that it made all the police in the area frown at his words.

Sirius Frost ignored the collective ugly faces of the officers in the area and said, "Let's go back. You have made enough ruckus for today."

"I saw my elder twin brother. You know how much I hate him. On my way back, I had to bump into that annoying couple. Don't let them come out of there so fast. It's better if they rot in there!" Yun Hun said as he walked ahead.

His words were heard by the couple and all the police officers. This leads to the couple cursing him loudly while the police become completely unwelcoming. Even though the police officers didn't wish to listen to this request, with their superior's orders, they had no other choice at all. The couple were locked in jail for a month, regardless of their families trying to bring them out.

This news was reported to Hei Anjing and Ye Xiajie by the two wardens. Even the news that connects Yun Hun and this event was spread all over by the media. Yun Hun almost lost his chance to perform on the world stage.

At the Ye family mansion

Everyone was watching the television news report while waiting for dinner to be served. The news is about Yun Hun's scandal of almost causing the deaths of ordinary people at the mall. Together with him is the couple who were sent to jail, unable to leave the prison due to the difference in age. After all, Yun Hun is still a minor, and he won't be responsible for what happened at that event; meanwhile, the couple was already in their late twenties and had no means to escape the lawyers of the victims suing them.

An Zhe no... The World Eater, An Shizhe, is seriously dissatisfied with how stupid this soul fragment is. He was so disgusted thinking that someone like this could be born from his beloved's soul. Like Menace, almost everybody hated his personality.

"I can't believe that someone's soul fragment will change this much just because they have become the world's beloved child. What an embarrassment!" An Shizhe said, but he made it so Yun Luan would hear something different.

Hei Anjing said, "Without memories or with a different personality affecting them, it's not a surprise it would become like this."

"Or maybe this is him being controlled by his desires. A mere clone sometimes would love to replace the original, especially when they were born with their own ego," said Ye Xiajie.

Ye Jingxia commented, "That Yeye's soul fragment... I don't think he would stop just because of this event. He showed a strong desire and greed when looking at Zhe-yeye in the cinema this morning."

"His desire is too strong. He will definitely appear before you again," said Ye Qinjing.

Ye Jingxia asked, "Is the death of the soul fragment harmful to the original? Is it painful?"

Hei Anjing and An Shizhe answered, "Not much."

The God of Void, Warden Yun Ming, and the Chief Warden answered, "Yes."

These two answers left the children dumbfounded and confused. They collectively have an expression saying, 'Which is it truly? '

The World Eater clicked his tongue and said, "Those with Luan'er's and my bloodline are not affected by the death of our soul fragments. We don't feel pain and will just feel a bit weakened, and when the soul is cured, everything will be back to normal again."

Hei Anjing, he explained to his children.

"Normally, the death of a soul fragment is extremely painful. After all, they are a part of the original soul. The pain is at the level of something or someone ripping up a piece of your soul."

"Dad is so unsure?" Ye Jingxia asked.

Sighed. Hei Anjing stood up and sat beside Xiao Jing. Under everyone's eyes, he cut a small wound on his second son's finger, which instantly healed. Then he broke his wrist, which also healed immediately.

The God of Destruction asked, "Do you feel the difference in pain, Xiao Jing?"

As expected, Ye Jingxia shook his head. The whole process of his finger cut and broken wrist took a few minutes to heal, yet he remained calm and unmoved as if he didn't feel the pain.

"No. How can there be any diff—... I understand now, Dad."

Ye Jingxia cut off his words himself when he realized what his dad was trying to say. For them, who not only inherited a high tolerance for pain, they also possessed an immortal physique, making all kinds of injuries and fatal wounds no different than a few tingling sensations in the body.

Ye Qinjing also realized what his dad meant. Then look at his father, "Is the pain level different for you, Father?"

"Yes, I can bear the pain of getting my heart dug out, but lingering pain from a wounded soul makes me feel a bit weak and uncomfortable. It is worse for other gods. You've seen those sinners in the Nether Prison who were punished for being burned alive under the hell flames, haven't you? The pain should be similar to that. However, the pain from an injured soul is at the peak level of pain—the kind that cannot be adapted to, cannot be soothed, and can only be endured," said Ye Xiajie.

Hei Anjing said, "To understand the level of pain, maybe sealing your immortal physique might do the work. The level of tingling sensation differs at a certain level. I experienced it before; however, you can get used to it. At least, I did."

"Don't try it again, Jing'er. I don't like you torturing yourself even if you can't feel the pain," the Sovereign God of Void and Darkness, Ye Xiajie, said.

The God of Destruction returned to the side of his other half and, with a smile, hugged him while saying, "Alright. I won't do it anymore. I promise~"

"Um..." Ye Xiajie kissed his wife's forehead with a smile on his face. He knew that his wife would always keep his promises to him.

Everyone is already used to this couple throwing dog food at every moment of the day. He ignored the sweet atmosphere and continued the conversation.

Ye Qinjing asked, "Then is there any effect on the soul fragment if the original soul died for real?"

"If it's true death in which one's soul perishes forever, then yes. Once the original soul dies, all other soul fragments die with it. That's why Yun Hun is not trying to kill Yun Luan. Once he dies, he will as well. After all, Hunluan had descended with his true soul," said Hei Anjing.

Ye Jingxia said, "No wonder he only bullied him but didn't kill him! Then he will most likely approach Zhe-yeye again... The excitement in his eyes is completely different."

"Let him come. I can play him to death," said An Zhe.

All of a sudden, Yun Luan, who was just listening but hearing a different thing from the conversation, felt sleepy. Seeing this, An Zhe decided to take Yun Luan for a short nap before dinner was served.

An Zhe whispered, "Do you wish to take a nap? I will wake up if dinner is served."

"Alright. I will sleep for a bit," responded Yun Luan, who bid a short farewell to everyone and went back to their rooms.

After An Zhe and Yun Luan left to take a rest, everyone continued the conversation.

Ye Jingxia asked worriedly, "Luan-Yeye has been sleepy lately. Is there something wrong with him?"

"The real soul had awakened once. His body is trying to adjust to this change and wants to mutate to a vessel that can house the sealed soul," Ye Xiajie explained.

Hei Anjing said, "That means the Ancient God of Chaos, Hunluan, is about to wake up."

Chapter 1728: 23.47 Second Grey Star - Identical

Even though it was prophesied that the ancient god of chaos, Hunluan, would be fully awake soon, there is now clear proof of this prophecy. However, it can be said that Yun Luan is slowly gaining his emotions, and once he gets everything back, so will his memories.

The only difference in the relationship between An Zhe and Yun Luan is that they have gotten closer, with Yun Luan becoming clingier to An Zhe. However, no one in the Ye Mansion seems to question their interaction, even though the old butler is supportive of their relationship.

The training continues, and there are still a few months before the world tournament begins. After the World Eater woke up, the God of Void stopped teaching him. Now Ye Xiajie can accompany his wife longer and doesn't need to care for him. Yun Luan still remains unawakened. Because of this, his training was split between Hei Anjing teaching him and An Zhe practicing with him.

Yun Luan had become more attached to An Zhe than to Hei Anjing, his coach. He couldn't understand why he felt completely uneasy around An Zhe. Even though he tried to find an answer, what was given to him was a headache that made him dizzy. This made him helpless, and he decided not to question it at all.

Actually, Yun Luan already noticed the changes in An Zhe that day they reconciled. However, there is a budding emotion within that yearns to be by this guy's side. His heart would hurt if he tried to deny it. While his heart would be delighted if he clung on to An Zhe. Between the uncomfortable and the comfortable, he chose the latter. That's why the more they get together, the closer and more inseparable they look.

As the children had expected, Yun Hun didn't stop looking for him to make a mess. Even though he didn't dare make things awkward for the Ye family, every time An Zhe came to leave the Ye Mansion, he would see Yun Hun, especially during their training. Yun Hun would pretend to be Yun Luan and would be able to enter the private ice rink under the Ye family.

Just like today, An Zhe and Yun Luan choose to go for training today and head together to the facility. As soon as they reached the gates, the guards at the entrance all looked surprised as they looked at the pair coming over; to be precise, they were looking at Yun Luan as if they had seen a ghost. Seeing their reactions, not only Yun Luan but even An She was annoyed by their stares.

An Zhe asked, "Speak! What is the issue? Why are you looking at Luan'er like that?"

The guards finally speak, seeing one of the Ye family members confronting them. Their eyes looked like they had seen a ghost, and they pointed at Yun Luan.

"It is this person... We are so sure that he had just entered through this entrance alone before you two had arrived."

"It was definitely him... someone with the very same face."

"Now that you think about it... there is something weird about that young man."

"A person with the same face had entered the place."

Upon hearing the words spoken by the guards, Yun Luan and An Zhe learned that someone who looked like Yun Luan had entered. There is only one person in the world who looks exactly like Yun Luan. That is the identical younger twin brother of Yun Luan, Yun Hun.

An Zhe turned his head to look at Yun Luan and asked, "What do you think, Luan'er? Do you wish to have him dragged out from the inside?"

Yun Lua thought for a while and finally shook his head. He brought out his Entrance ID, which his Coach had given to him, and said to the guards,

"Next time, always check if I have an entrance ID on me before letting me in."

"Y-Yes,"

The guards are terrified. The entrance ID card in this young man's hand is the highest one. It is similar to the one that was crafted for the owner of this facility. The guards collectively saluted and listened to the command.

"Yes, sir!"

To have such an ID meant that it was personally given by the owners of this place, and everyone who was working there knew who the owners of this place were. They are so famous that almost everyone in the world knows about them. They were also the kind of people they couldn't afford to offend, and this is the same for the guests they had approved.

A guard asked, "Would you like us to capture the intruder?"

"No need. I will talk to him and send him on his way," said An Zhe.

The two entered the place and headed to the ice rink. As they got closer to the place, the sound of someone skating nearby could be heard. When the two got closer, Yun Hun, who had sneaked inside, noticed them coming. His eyes immediately fell on An Zhe with a smile, and their hands holding each other, which completely erased his smile.

Yun Hun said, "Elder brother and Brother An are truly close. How enviable~"

"Why are you here? You even pretended to be me," said Yun Luan with furrowed eyebrows as he looked at his younger twin brother.

Yun Hun, who had lost his smile upon seeing them getting closer to one another. Before, they were distant, and they would not hold each other's hands in public. He had heard the rumors that these two are getting closer, but to see it with his own eyes is a different story. Now he is annoyed.

He asked, "Aren't the two of you getting too close?"

"What is it to you? Why did you sneak into our place?" questioned An Zhe. He instinctively protected Yun Luan behind him.

Yun Hun, who was staring at Yun Luan, noticed that the latter's gaze was giving him a smug feeling and contempt, as if he was being looked down upon. Seeing this, Yun Hun glared at his elder brother... No, at this original self of his. He knows what Yun Luan is thinking just by seeing what his eyes are trying to portray. He might be an expressionless man, but he isn't emotionless. The disdain and mirth within the eyes of Yun Luan were seen by Yun Hun, making the latter angry.

"How dare you look at me like that?!" said Yun Hun as he hurriedly removed his shoes and approached Yun Luan, wanting to slap him.

Ever since he was chosen to become the world's beloved son, he has been able to get whatever he wanted. From the family to his elder twin brother's partner, his standing in the figure ice skating industry isolated Yun Luan from the world. A few years were enough to achieve this effect. The whole world was backing him up, after all.

Who would have thought that everything would have changed the moment the children descended into this world? Because he was afraid of making it awkward for his child, he used clones to create the conflict and even gave fireworks as a greeting gift. [The firework he is talking about is the car explosion that happened on the highway], which involves Hei Anjing and Ye Xiajie.

Moreover, the first time he saw An Zhe, he instantly realized that he was the world eater's vessel. Maybe because of his connection to the main soul, he felt attraction towards this man who was chosen as Hunluan's other half. By instinct alone, he loves him and wants him to be mine. Unfortunately, this man only has eyes for the original soul, which is Yun Luan.

It was also for this reason that he tried all possible means to get closer to An Zhe before the main soul woke up. But An Zhe himself was distant from anyone aside from the Ye family and Yun Luan. If not for the last time An Zhe sought him because he heard the name An Shizhe, he wouldn't have met with him secretly at all.

It was just that before they spent more time together, the man had to leave. Before he could let his plan be of use, the target had taken his leave. But at least he believes that he has created a distance between An Zhe and Yun Luan. That's why he couldn't believe that the two would get so close that they held each other's hands like lovers.

The hand that was about to hit Yun Luan's face was grabbed by An Zhe. An Zhe pushed Yun Hu, ensuring he couldn't reach Yun Luan at such a distance, and looked at him disapprovingly.

An Zhe asked, "What the hell are you trying to do? Luan'er didn't even say anything. Why are you trying to hit him?"

"That's not it, An Zhe. His eyes... His eyes were looking down on me," screamed Yun Hun.

But when they turned around to look at Yun Luan, the latter's eyes were devoid of emotion, looking like an innocent one who didn't understand what they were talking about. As expected, An Zhe got angry.

An Zhe shouted, "Yun Hun, do you want to bully Luan'er again!?"

"No! You just didn't see it! He is pretending!" Yun Hun retorted.

An Zhe scoffed.

"Is he the one pretending, or are you?!" An Zhe questioned.

Chapter 1729: 23.48 Second Grey Star - Hunluan Awaken

Yun Hun suddenly accusing his twin brother, Yun Luan, out of nowhere finally made An Zhe snap at him. This surprised Yun Hun; he couldn't believe that An Zhe was siding with Yun Luan without thinking much. Recalling how the two of them arrived in this place while holding hands made Yun Hun feel he was a third party.

He asked, "How can you just believe, Yun Luan?"

"Who am I supposed to believe if not Luan'er?!" said An Zhe.

This response rendered Yun Huan speechless. He thought that he was successful because the relationship between these two had a gap after one meeting with him. But he was wrong; it seems that he is being played for a fool. But how can there be such a situation? He was the first one to regain his memories, then the original soul. He couldn't accept that he was still not being chosen despite all his efforts.

Yun Hun said, "What the hell is wrong with you? I am the one who awakened my memories first. How can you only appear before him first and then appear before me?"

"He was ignoring you even after meeting you first, but I was interested in you the whole time. Why do you ignore me?"

"I like you the same as he does. How come you ignore my feelings!?"

Countless questions had come out of Yun Hun's mouth after his emotions burst at this moment. He was so emotional that he didn't even notice that An Zhe was looking at him coldly with a smirk at the corner of his lips, looking at him like a fool. As for Yun Luan, he looked cold and indifferent, as if what he was hearing wasn't interesting at all.

Only when Yun Hun had calmed down somehow and met the face of An Zhe did he flinch. Especially when he saw the expression of indifference on Yun Luan's face and the smirk on the face of An Zhe. Only then did he understand something as his eye shifted between An Zhe and Yun Luan. He even took a step back instinctively upon meeting the eyes of these pairs.

"Y-You're not... not..." Yun Hun stuttered with fear within him.

An Zhe asked, "Done going crazy? I can answer those questions of yours, but you have to answer mine as well. Do you understand?"

"Y-Yes."

Yun Hun actually wanted to say 'no' to An Zhe. No, to this world eater who had finally completely descended into this world but held back his tongue when he met Yun Luan's eyes of indifference. This is an expression that never appeared on him in the past. Because he knew these were usually the eyes of the powerful being whom he feared with his whole soul.

An Zhe started talking.

"For your first question, you wanted to know why I didn't appear before you and only came over when we were at this age? It is simple. I was abroad with the children, and at that time, I hadn't awakened my memories at all. I only returned to this country because of the regional tournament and because those children told me to come. That's all there is for a reason. If you want to know the real reason, then there is one thing."

"It is fate. I am even in a situation where I don't have an awakened ego. Fate controls everything. It created a perfect time for me to come back here and for me to officially meet Luan'er. That is all."

These are the words of the World Eater, An Shizhe.

"My first question is simple. I wanted to know why you kept on bullying Luan'er all these years. At that time, even though you had your own memories, a soul fragment would not dare to offend its original soul for no reason. Tell me why you made such a choice."

Yun Hun hesitated. He actually didn't want to say the reason, especially not in front of the original soul. However, he is so powerless and can only answer.

He said, "This is because he said that there is a way for me to completely detach myself from the original soul. That method is... to destroy the unawakened soul within the vessel of the original soul. However, it is almost impossible for me, a soul fragment, to kill the original. That's why I wanted to make Yun Luan insane enough to kill himself. To achieve my goal, I can only bully him until he reaches the end."

"But the soul of Yun Luan is too powerful. Even though he had lost everything, he never despaired. His will is so strong that even if he is alone in this world, he would never care about it all. Hahaha~ I can't believe you fell for such a kind of mon--MGFF!!"

His mouth was grabbed by the World Eater, and he looked at Yun Hunt with a demeanor completely different than before. He is completely menacing, as if saying another word would make him completely lose his temper here and there. This time, even as the soul fragment of the ancient god of chaos, he is completely helpless against this person.

The world eater, An Shizhe, said with a threatening voice, "Hold your tongue if you aren't going to say something that makes me happy."

Yun Hun, overwhelmed by such an overbearing aura, can only shake his head with fear in his eyes. An Shizhe was annoyed seeing that and threw him down.

An Zhe clicked his tongue and said, "Don't look at me like that with Luan'er's face. He will never look at me in such a way and never fear me at all. As expected of a mere soul fragment, there are too many that didn't match the original."

Thud!

This is the sound of Yun Hun falling after being grabbed around the neck by An Shizhe. Even in the body of a mortal, the original strength of the gods might be sealed, but they are still stronger than most humans, especially now that An Shizhe's soul has woken up.

Cough, cough!

Yun Hun was finally completely awake now. Especially when the world eater tried to kill him just now. However, he couldn't understand why this person stopped at the last moment and didn't kill him. Then his eyes couldn't help but glance at the original, who was now not looking at him, completely disinterested.

In reality, like the world eater treats his soul fragment like batteries that are not only consumables but also not a living thing in his eyes, Yun Hun is now receiving a similar look from Yun Luan, who was keeping quiet the whole time. They had actually forgotten about him for a while.

An Shizhe said, "You wanted me to love you? You cannot even hold back your fear in my presence, so how are you going to live with me in such a state? Don't dream so big~"

Yun Hun lowered his head when he heard these words and felt pain in his heart. He was truly thinking about something so big. He is truly fooling himself. An Shizhe, who was treating Yun Hun so coldly, approached Yun Luan, who was quietly watching on the side. When the world eater, An Shizhe, met with Yun Luan, he was stunned for a moment before happily hugging the young man.

The World Eater, An Shizhe, was delighted at this moment. Unlike the blank look of Yun Luan before, he had changed, at least at this moment. He stares at An Shizhe with eyes full of yearning and love. Despite his expressionless face, such strong emotions coming from his eyes say otherwise.

"Luan'er, I miss you a lot. I...I..."

Hugged tightly within the embrace of the world eater with his aura spreading in the area, Yun Luan, or should I say Hunluan, is calm. Even Yun Hun was terrified, and the power of gluttony spread in the whole area. However, the ancient god of chaos, Hunluan, only needed to lift his hand to throw Yun Hun out of the place and create a barrier in its place.

Yun Luan tried to contact his son and son-in-law, as in his current state, he wouldn't be able to completely seal this power of gluttony when it fully spread. Then... This world will be completely over for good. For An Shizhe, this kind of small world is no different than a snack for his power of gluttony.

In the Ye family mansion, Hei Anjing and Ye Xiajie were in the garden planting some flowers with the children when they suddenly heard Hunluan's voice and felt the power of gluttony spreading in this world.

{Jing'er, Xiajie, come help me seal the space for a moment. I need time to speak with your father.}

"Xiao Qin, Xiao Jing, look after your brother and sister. Your father and I need to go somewhere first," said Hei Anjing as he held his husband's hand and disappeared on the spot. He had used teleportation to leave the place urgently.

Back to the private property of the Ye Family...

Yun Hun appeared in thin air, shocking the guards in the area. They were about to panic when Hei Anjing and Ye Xiajie appeared. The two made a move as soon as they arrived and put the guards to sleep, manipulated theirs, and then sent them away. Ye Xiajie looked at the building that was falling apart and frowned.

Ye Xiajie said, "How can he suddenly lose control?"

"The last time they met was when Hunluan self-destructed to destroy him. It is only right for him to become this emotional. I'm going to seal the area. My love, block the heavenly laws," said Hei Anjing.

Ye Xiajie noticed the dark clouds emerging in the sky, and after a while, a pair of hands came out from it. It seems to be intending on either crushing the place where the power of gluttony is or throwing the two troublemakers out of its territory.

"Leave it to me, baby!" said the God of Void and Darkness. "True Domain of Darkness. Abyss Descend!"

Chapter 1730: 23.49 Second Grey Star - Barrier

The darkness has descended on the world as the Sovereign God of Void calls for it. The whole world turned dark at this moment, and even the Heavenly Laws had lost their way, and it bought some time for the God of Destruction to create a barrier that isolated what was inside from the world. The action of the couple had no hesitation, and the reason they did it is for the sake of family. Yun Hun watches things unfold with a stunned expression.

Hei Anjing finished the barrier and said, "It's alright now, A'Xia. Take back the domain before the Heavenly Laws take notice of you."

"Is it done? I will take back my domain," Ye Xiajie said as the darkness retreated upon his command. "The Void, return."

After the God of Destruction erected the barrier, the Sovereign God of Void and Darkness cancelled his domain. For those who had experienced the total darkness that lasted only for a few minutes, it instantly returned to normal when the darkness receded. Once the world returned to normal, all humans felt they had a certain three-minute gap in darkness in their memories. Only the Heavenly Laws appeared above the couple, looking like they wanted to strike down Ye Xiajie with lightning. But the moment Hei Anjing stood in front of him, the heavens couldn't help but hesitate.

After all, unlike the Sovereign God of Void, it is impossible to restrict the Ancient God of Destruction. He is an existence that kept everything in balance, and he had the right to destroy a small star as long as he wished for it. The Divine Laws are now capable of holding back, especially after Hei Anjing had woken up in his real body and his injuries had completely healed.

Behind his wife's protection, the God of Void is snickering at the world, which felt helpless in the presence of the God of Destruction and was annoyed by the smile on Ye Xiajie's face.

Chuckles~

The heavens can only glare at the couple and retreat. It even took away the blessing of Yun Hun as this world's beloved son. With the world plot of this world gone, it would definitely undergo a reset the moment their group left the world.

Ye Xiajie was slightly pinched and heard his wife say, "Don't tease it. What would you do if it took revenge on you while you were away from me?"

"Away from you? No way! I will not leave your side at all!" The God of Void responded.

A voice coming from their back, seemingly full of denial. "This can't be! How can the heavens take away my blessing? No. NO!"

It was only when Yun Hun felt his blessing from the world had faded and he was going crazy for it that he was noticed by the couple. Hei Anjing and Ye Xiajie turn around only to see a despairing child. Reborn in such a young body with no real abilities from the original and only memories given, Yun Hun is helpless. He had no other way but to continue living a mediocre life despite the powerful ancient god's memories.

When Yun Hun actually woke up in this world with the original's memories, he felt his difference from the others himself. It is just that only memories of the original flow in his mind. However, none of the original's powers or abilities had awakened him. He felt like a helpless bigshot without any ability. But he had the memories of overwhelming the orders, no matter what he did.

It's just that he was born average. For a man who had the memories of standing above everyone, an ordinary person's body is no different from hell. Much less to be born with a brother possessing all the talents, which is a dignified vessel of the original soul. Yun Hun felt envious of Yun Luan. No, he is jealous of the ancient god of chaos, Hunluan, himself.

He couldn't accept that he was born mediocre when a mere vessel of the Hunluan was a lot more talented than he was. Isn't that a slap on his face? A downright disdain for being just a part of the whole. As if saying to him that he, a mere soul fragment, will never surpass the original. Because of that reason alone, he started planning on destroying the vessel before the ego within the body wakes up.

He bullied Yun Luan. He took away everything that existed to support him in his growth. His family, friends, and even the coach of his career. Only for the reason that he couldn't accept that he is weaker than a vessel that was meant for the original. What he means is that he already exists; why is another vessel made to house the original? Can't he just become the powerful vessel instead and wait for the original to wake up?

Yun Hun finally broke down at this moment.

"Why take away my blessing? That's the only thing I have left!" Shouted Yun Hun in despair.

Seeing him like this, Hei Anjing can no longer just watch and approaches Yun Hun. Yun Hun was no longer in the right state of mind, but he could still recognize the God of Destruction. Seeing one of his most beloved in this world, Yun Hun, who possessed the memories of Hunluan, definitely sees Hei Anjing as his son.

Yun Hun reached out a hand, which the God of Destruction didn't avoid. Hei Anjing held the trembling hands of Yun Hun.

"Son...? Son, are you here to pick me up?" Yun Hun said.

The God of Destruction said, "I do. I can bring you back home. Why don't you sleep for a while, Pops?"

"I see. I see..." Yun Hun, with a groggy face, slowly closes his eyes.

Hei Anjing hugs Yun Hun in comfort until the vessel he is using turns into ashes, leaving only a soul orb with countless cracks. The couple looked serious when they saw the state of this soul fragment.

The Sovereign God of Void and owner of the Nether System noticed the state of Yun Hun's soul. He commented, "How come this soul looks tormented? Had he been tortured?"

"That's impossible. This is just an ordinary world," commented the God of Destruction.

The God of Void didn't believe it, as the torture that this soul had suffered is what this world isn't capable of. He spreads his divine consciousness all over this world and finds nothing at first. But he didn't give up and found a strange fissure in the land on some deserted island. When the God of Void tried to enter the weird fissure, a power of contradiction, he clashed with his divine consciousness.

Ugh!

Ye Xiajie mumbles in surprise, "Ancient power?"

"You truly found something, my love?" Hei Anjing asked worriedly and also spread his divine consciousness. However, whatever attacked his husband's divine consciousness had long escaped somewhere.

"Is it gone?" murmured Hei Anjing, as he truly couldn't find anything of the sort.

Thankfully, whatever attacked Ye Xiajie had no intention of harming him. But it seems to be avoiding Hei Anjing; to be precise, he is avoiding his bloodline.

The God of Void commented, "The feeling I am getting from that one is similar to the ancient gods in the last world. However, he is complete and isn't as careless as the ones from before. Moreover, he might be able to suppress me, as he is someone from ancient times and not from the current era."

"If it is from the ancient era, his powers might be purer than yours. If your abilities weren't sealed, you wouldn't have been able to retaliate. Let's go back and rest. They should be alright inside the barrier," the God of Destruction said as he teleported back to the mansion with his husband and the tortured soul of Yun Hun.

On the other hand, inside the barrier...

Countless space fissures were surrounding An Shizhe and Hunluan. Because the World Eater had lost control of his emotions, that gluttony had gone emotional as well. The scars on the space were the doing of Gluttony to show his discomfort and his greetings to the Ancient God of Chaos, Hunluan.

The two hug each other like this, as this is their first meeting after their deaths a few millennia ago. Even after waking up in the current era, An Shizhe didn't immediately look for Hunluan, as he, himself, was unsure if his beloved was able to reincarnate after imploding his soul to end both of them.

Who can bear the reality that your beloved had to sacrifice himself just to save you?

That's correct. Hunluan didn't self-destruct that time, not because he wanted to save the existence of the ancient gods or those beings who despised his other half. It was because his beloved had gone insane to the point of wanting to destroy everything, even himself. Hunluan couldn't watch his beloved perish completely. That's why, to save his soul, he can only use it to seal himself somewhere. In the end, it worked with his backup of saving a wisp of soul in the incomplete body of Snow that he was able to hide temporarily.

After the incomplete god, Snow, killed himself. Hunluan was brought to Vearth by his son, who was reincarnated in the Mo family, while he had hidden himself somewhere in Vearth and created the Divine Laws that appeared out of nowhere. Thanks to his preserved soul, he was able to sleep as he healed, while his son tried to find his other father, but instead found the soul he created and was reborn in this world as the Sovereign God of Void and Darkness.

Hunluan asked, "Have you calmed down, A'Zhe? If you do... Can you control gluttony? Your son and I had found a way to fully prevent you from going crazy when using such an ability."

"Is it the Trial of Marriage?" asked An Shizhe as he raised his head to look at Hunluan, but kept his arms around him.

Hunluan asked, "You already know how?"

"Hm. I saw that brat, Ye Xiajie. You and our son used the contracts and runes, making them rewards for trials. If it's a reward for a trial, then its existence is justified. I will agree to everything you want to do, Luan'er," said the World Eater. "As long as you stay by my side."

"Alright. This time, I will eliminate everything that might go against us. This time we aren't alone. Our son has created a clan with our bloodline. The gods of this era will no longer be on guard or fear us anymore," said Hunluan.

The World Eater said with a smile, "Our Jing'er has done well."
