

World Plot 1751

Chapter 1751: 24.12 Sixth Violet Star - After a Year

After countless mission failures located at the ancient forest, this kind of job had become unpopular among the beast masters of this world. It didn't take long for the humans to realize that the words of the beastmen had become reality, and they could only treat that ancient forest as a deadly zone. Anyone who ventures from that place will never be able to return. Now, the mission to go to the ancient forest and capture some beast eggs has become a legendary job that no one wants to do.

The human race chose not to force itself into the ancient forest. However, the demand for beast eggs continues. Since the human race cannot get it from the ancient forest, they can only try to get some from the barren land where the beast lives. At least the beasts don't work in groups like the human race and the beastmen race. They also don't crowd or live together in one place. Beasts are aloof. They were used to living on their own, which makes it easier to ambush them in groups.

Their demand for beast eggs cannot be halted, so more and more humans go to the barren lands instead of sneaking around in the ancient forest. It is harder to fight an intelligent race that uses their brain to fight like humans than a beast that can only fight and fight to death.

--

Years had passed since the beastman race joined the war. However, unlike the other two races, they didn't send warriors to occupy the others' land and just protected the ancient forest. Unless humans enter their forest, they wouldn't care about the fights outside their territories. It is for this reason that the humans didn't fully guard themselves from the beastmen and focused on the barren land for conquest.

The protagonist of the world had finally matured, and he had now entered the Beast Taming Academy as the world's plot unfolded. The name of the beloved son of the world is Long Juedi. He is the youngest grandson of the former and current marshals of the human race, making his standing no different from a human being who had lived in the spotlight since his birth. The expectation of the human race for him was the biggest. That's why on the day his beast eggs were about to hatch, everyone gathered to watch.

At the marshal's mansion...

Two huge eggs the size of a small car were standing side by side, as if one could hardly separate them. One is a silver egg with a galaxy pattern, and the other is a blackish-purple egg with the same galaxy pattern. It can be said that these two eggs are mostly related. But this hatching event is one of the biggest failures in the life of Long Juedi.

Before the hatching ceremony arrived, the Long clan had visited the two eggs, which were watched over by countless healers to monitor their states. They had been monitoring these two eggs for a whole year now, and this is to ensure that the beasts will come out healthy. Long Juedi watched the egg with an excited look. He had cared for and waited for his eggs to hatch all this time. Marshal Long came with his youngest son to check the eggs.

The marshal asked, "How are the eggs?"

"Everything is alright, Marshal! The two eggs are healthy and will be hatching soon."

"But, Marshal, are you truly going to let people watch the process of hatching?"

The two caretakers of the eggs were questioned.

"Is there a problem? My beast, the fire lion, was born in front of everyone. It was a successful show of strength for everyone to witness," the current marshal said. "My father's beast, his earth dragon, was also born the same way."

The faces of the caretakers were not good. Even though they had been watching over these eggs for a year, they realized that the beast inside was unexpectedly too smart. In short, if it didn't want to hatch at the destined time, the one who would lose face is the young master, Long Juedi. However, they had no intention of telling them this, as they knew that they wouldn't believe their words. They also had an inkling that these beast eggs aren't ordinary and can easily be controlled.

However, they still give them some warnings.

"We hope that the marshal will think twice. The beast eggs of this era are completely different from before, when everything was under control. No, we can hardly guess what is inside the eggs, as we didn't know what kind of beast they were before the beast egg was born."

"There is also that case from a year ago. Didn't they say that the beastmen were also born from eggs and that their cubs were born with a beast form, but gradually can turn human after a certain period? How can you be sure that a beastman will not hatch these eggs?"

"Moreover, if a beastman was hatched in one of these eggs, then... our human race will have another war to fall into, not against the beast race this time but against the beastman race."

The current marshal frowned when the beastmen race was once again mentioned, making his face stern and speechless. He truly didn't want to have anything against the beastman race. Just the countless failed missions in their territory show how hard they are to handle. They knew covert assassination and war strategies and even possessed abilities and strength ahead of humans. They even have two forms, which sometimes make them mistaken for both a beast and a human. They can play either side perfectly, and no one will know unless you tell them to transform.

The young master Long Juedi, instead, asked the caretaker of the eggs. "Is there a way to differentiate a beast and a young beastman after hatching?"

"There is! A young beastman will always hatch as a young cub, while a beast egg will hatch into a mature beast."

"Plus, a beastman cub is fragile at birth. Though we don't know about other mutations, as we have never seen a beastman egg hatch by us."

The father and son hesitated as they truly didn't want their reputation to go awry at this moment. There are lots of foxes that wanted to drag down the current marshal from his position, and most of these people were from the faction that wanted to teach the beastman a lesson just for the sake of their pride. It was also most of them who had hired people to be sent to the ancient forest to get a beast egg. As if wanting to prove that words of the mixed breed had nothing to fear. However, in this whole year, no one's attempts have been successful. Instead, it just proves that beastmen are stronger than beastmasters for the human race.

Now faced with a problem of probability, the current marshal and Long Jue hesitated to continue the hatching ceremony. Their conversation was also overheard by the old marshal, and gave them a way out.

The old marshal said, "If you are truly worried, then stop the hatching ceremony. Tell them that this old man is sick and the hatching ceremony will be canceled, and then... we will watch the hatching of these two eggs ourselves. However, if a beastman cub were truly born, we need to think of a way to turn them into the beastman tribe. Do not harm it and care for them until they are brought back to their tribe."

"It's just that it would be hard for them to believe us that we didn't steal their cub at this time," said the current marshal.

Long Juedi said, "Then how about letting it grow with me, and I will explain everything until it grows up and returns home on its own?"

The adults think this plan is feasible. However, they wanted it more for this situation not to happen. Instead, it's too much of a headache.

"I hope more than this wouldn't happen instead, so there will be fewer headaches for me," said the current marshal, Long Tian.

The old marshal, Long Huang, also leans toward his son's words, as it's hard to make enemies with the beastman at this point, where the war between the humans and beasts is still ongoing. After all, because of the demand of humans for beast eggs, they had to enter the barren land where the beast lives. This just intensified the relationship between the two races.

"Son, I wronged you this time," said the marshal to his youngest son.

Long Juedi smiled and said, "Father, I know the reason. Even if these two eggs can't hatch a beast that is for me, I can still try again. It's better to be late than sorry. I also don't want to intensify the war we are in. Father, you also need a rest."

His father and grandfather were delighted that the boys were too understanding of their family's situation. Even though he might look down upon the sudden cancellation of this hatching ceremony, the child didn't care much. For him, the safety of his family and the human race matters more.

Marshal Long Tian sent a message to the people about the cancellation of the egg-hatching ceremony, which is a tradition of all beast masters. Everyone thought that maybe there was something wrong with the Beast eggs of Long Juedi. But they didn't investigate much, as this situation had happened more than once this year due to the unstable route of the beast eggs.

What Long Juedi didn't know was that this choice made the two inside the eggs see him in a good light. Even though Hunluan and An Shizhe had been pretending to be good eggs. When in reality, they are using their systems to observe humans this whole year.

In their conversation, through their thoughts, thanks to the system link,

The world eater said, "This brat is not bad. Compared to the one in the last world, this aborigine has no connections to any outsiders."

"Since the child cannot sign a contract with the two of us as we are too powerful, we can only bring him to the barren and choose the most suitable beast for him," said Hunluan as he glanced at his other half's form. "But that will wait after you leave your infant stage."

"Dammit! Why did it have to be me who became a beastman? I have to undergo infancy, unlike you, who matured in just a year," complains An Shizhe.

Hunluan said, "I am a beast. My infancy stage is done inside the egg. Don't complain. It's not like I haven't taken care of you as a baby."

"Oh God! Luan'er, please don't dig up my Black history," pleads the world eater.

Chapter 1752: 24.13 Sixth Violet Star - Restoration

The beast eggs that house the Ancient God of Chaos, Hunluan, and the World Eater, An Shizhe, were finally about to hatch after a year had passed since they had descended into this world. Though they had stayed in the human land for a whole year as an egg, they still had contact with the others. Thus, they know that the God of Destruction and the God of Void were brought back to the ancient forest where the beastmen lived. As for the two wardens, they were hidden in the small world of Hei Anjing and would reappear in this world when their masters hatched from the egg.

After the hatching ceremony had been cancelled by the marshal's mansion, the guests had just sent the gifts over to the mansion, and most of the gifts were sent by their butlers, inquiring about the situation of the beast eggs under the young master, Long Jue. However, all the news they got was that the eggs hadn't hatched yet when they were supposed to do so, and many nobles thought that these eggs were failures, as they expected.

Ever since the ancient forest was closed, it has been very hard to get a healthy egg without defects. That's why, regardless of the high price, a lot of them wanted to get a beast egg in the ancient forest. However, no human had ever succeeded in coming out of the ancient forest alive.

Marshal Long Tian had no choice but to return to work after the hatching ceremony of his youngest son was cancelled. The old marshal, Long Huang, was the only one to accompany Long Juedi to wait for the two eggs to hatch.

Long Juedi asked, "Grandfather, if these two eggs had hatched and they had no fate with me, can we just leave them be? Or if a beastman cub were truly to come of them, I wish to protect them even if they couldn't be my contracted beast."

"Alright. We will do as you say," said the former marshal as he watched his youngest grandson staring seriously at the two huge eggs in front of them.

The caretakers had gone home after their working hours. Now, only the butler of the old marshal was there to serve them. The fireplace within the room had been lit, with the fire warming the room. The grandfather and grandson duo stayed all night to watch over the eggs. Eventually, Long Juedi succumbed to his sleepiness and fell asleep beside his grandfather, now using the latter's lap as a pillow to sleep.

The old butler asked, "Master, the young master has fallen asleep. How about turning in for tonight? It's bad for the master's health to stay awake this late."

The old marshal glances at the two huge eggs in the room and sees it not moving at all and that it has passed the time they're supposed to hatch. There is a possibility that these eggs are dead ones. He couldn't help but sigh and thought how unlucky his grandson was to buy two dead eggs in the beast egg auction a year ago.

With a frown on his wrinkled face, the former marshal said, "Tomorrow, ask the caretakers of these eggs to check on it. These might be dead eggs, seeing that they didn't hatch when they're supposed to hatch tonight."

"Yes, Old Master," answered the old butler.

The old marshal said, "Have someone carry Xiao Jue back to his room."

Thud!

Just as they were about to leave the hall, they heard the sound of something bumping into something. The two old men were startled as they turned their heads to see two eggs shaking so badly as if they were about to hatch.

Thud! Thud!

The commotion of the two huge eggs not only caused the young master to wake up but also caught the attention of everyone in the mansion. After all, what was shaking was not only the two eggs but the whole mansion itself. Even the current master, Long Tian, was affected when he was doing a video meeting in the study room.

Long Tian frowned, feeling the shaking of the house. "Meeting adjourned!" Seeing that the situation at home was not good, the video meeting he was having just now ended abruptly because of the situation at home.

"Someone, come!"

"This servant awaits orders." A maid came and saluted the marshal while her footing was shaking like the rest of the people in the mansion.

The current marshal said, "What is happening? Is there an earthquake?"

"No, Master. It's those two eggs of the young master. They're about to hatch," the maid answered, and the marshal hurriedly left the study room to find his son.

Back in the living room, the moment the marshal had returned, a bright light was emitted by the eggs, and the Long family heard the sound of cracking. When the light faded, they saw a beautiful silver-furred tiger with wings on its back and a crown on its forehead. No one had seen a beast this majestic and gorgeous. The three members of the Long family were all dumbfounded.

Long Juedi couldn't help but murmur, "So beautiful~"

But what happened next surprised them: the lion beast of the current marshal and the crippled beast of the old marshal had materialized from their beast's nest on their own and procrastinated before this beautiful beast.

The old marshal Long Huang and the current marshal Long Tian were speechless at this scene. They had only witnessed this kind of event once during the war between the beasts and humans before. When all other beasts lowered their heads towards a certain being, this existence was simply close to the existence of the special beast in the myth. It's the only beast in this world that has enough intelligence to converse with humans. A Beast King.

Long Huang mumbles in shock, "A beast king cub?"

"Impossible! Can a beast king cub exist?" Long Tian exclaims as he couldn't believe what was happening.

Long Juedi knew about the existence of the beast king and also their quirks of having intelligence to converse like humans and beastmen. The only difference is that this being doesn't have a human form.

He couldn't help but strike up a conversation. "H-Hello, can you understand me?"

Long Huang and Long Tian pulled back the youngest while on guard while watching the beautiful beast before them. They waited and finally saw the silver, winged tiger open its mouth and speak human language.

Hunluan, in the form of a winged tiger, spoke: {Human cub, can you prepare a basin of warm water and a towel as well as a hairdryer?}

The three humans heard a slightly cold yet gentle voice coming from the winged tiger. They were shocked to hear and see a newly hatched beast able to speak to a human. Now they are sure that this beautiful beast in front of them is indeed a beast king. One of those frightening ones that can destroy a city at its whim.

Long Juedi, on the other hand, was delighted. At least this beautiful beast is willing to talk to him, and he was grinning as he nodded his head before running off while shouting,

"Someone, prepare my basin with warm water. Get lots of towels and a few hair dryers! Wait, I will go help you get it."

Meanwhile, the two adult humans who were left behind couldn't help but look at the winged tiger vigilantly. However, they knew that it was impossible for them to win against this being, seeing how terrified their beasts are in his presence. This is a beast king that could lead hundreds or thousands of beasts if it wanted to.

Hunluan spoke, {Humans, there is no need to be on guard. I may be a beast king, but I have no connection to the beasts in the barren land. I am a beast king created by that facility, and my priority is limited to a few.}

Long Huang and Long Tian noticed the small black thing cradled within the arms of the winged tiger and then looked at the two broken eggs behind it. They realized that whatever that black thing is in its arm was most likely the other beast that hatched from the other egg. Based on their color, this silver, winged tiger hatched from the silver egg, and that small black beast hatched from the black egg.

Long Tian asked, "How can we be sure that you are telling the truth? A beast king can destroy a whole city if he wishes to!"

{That is indeed correct. However, my main ability is different,} Hunluan said as he raised a paw and pointed at the crippled lion beside the old marshal. {That crippled one, come before me.}

The crippled lion beast communicated with its master and informed him that he cannot defy the command of this beast king. He might be able to ignore the other beast king in the barren land, but not the one in front of him. His existence is akin to a beast god in their eyes. Moreover, this beast king doesn't have malice in him and, clearly, had no intention of harming it.

"Alright. Do as you please, old friend," said Long Huang to his contracted beast.

Only when the old marshal was convinced that the crippled lion walked over towards the winged tiger with silver fur. When the paws of the beast king touched the crippled lion beast, a golden light flashed from the crown on its forehead, which now covers the crippled lion. Under everyone's eyes, the crippled lion beast's missing limbs regrow, and even all its other ailments were also healed under this golden light.

Due to the connection of the old lion beast and the old marshal, the injuries and weakness of Long Huang had also healed under this golden light.

Long Tian mumbles, "H-Healing, no... Regeneration? But it doesn't look that simple."

{My ability is Restoration. Returning one's body to its original state. Nothing more and nothing else.}

Chapter 1753: 24.14 Sixth Violet Star - Kind Soul

Healing the old marshal was just a simple reward for the Ancient God of Chaos, Hunluan, and the World Eater, An Shizhe. The ailments of Long Huang stem from his connection to his crippled beast. Since his beast lost its limbs, he had lost the feeling in his limbs as well, preventing the old marshal from getting up like a normal person. This was actually done intentionally by Huzi, the mythical nine-tailed fox beastman, as punishment for his inability to control his own people, his own race. An injury that human medicine and machines can never heal.

After all, contracted beasts aren't easily hurt. Even if they do, they can heal thanks to their connection with their master, and likewise, they will also get stronger as long as their master gets stronger. In a way, the two are connected with one another. Injuries to the beast will affect its contract master, especially the closer their bond is. For the old marshal who had reached the closest relationship with his beast, the backlash on him due to his beast's injuries is the heaviest.

Long Huang and Long Tian were stunned by the sudden event before them. No one had expected that there was a way for a beast to get healed after being bound to a human. Beasts, once contracted, will become an entity not completely of that of flesh but something beyond. Not only will their lives be bound to a human, but they will also be pulled into another place connected to their master. In this place, they can exist forever as long as their master is alive.

However, this place is beyond the scope of what humans can enter. They knew about its existence, but they were unable to influence it directly. That's why when their beasts are wounded, they have no means to cure them, but this place can heal the wounds of the beasts. Fatal ones are impossible to heal, though.

Now, a beast king capable of healing its own kind had appeared before them. Not only can they converse using their own language, but they seem to be no different from a human being when they talk. The two were dumbfounded by such a scene. When Long Juedi had returned, he was surprised to see his grandfather standing up on his legs, and the towel in his arms almost fell on the ground if not for the servants catching it at the last moment.

Thud~

Ling Juedi stares at Long Huang with a startled look on his face. "Grandfather... Your feet... Are you finally cured?!"

"Haha~ it is all thanks to this friend here. We can continue the conversation later. Give what they had requested," Long Huang said as he let the servants bring over what was asked by the silver, winged tiger, and asked them to leave after putting things down.

Long Tian went out to issue a silencing order and said that anyone who broke it would be considered a traitor and would be killed on the spot. The loyal servants were unafraid as they never had any intention of betrayal. As for the spies within the family, they tried to escape, only to be killed by Long Tian. They knew the moment the marshal said those words meant that the spies today could not escape death.

The hallway was filled with the scent of blood after the marshal had executed the spies within the mansion. His beast had ripped them to pieces and suffered the worst pain. After cleaning up outside, the guards were also informed that the Long family isn't accepting any guests for today.

The marshal glanced at the bodies on the ground and ordered, "Clean up the place."

"As you wish, Marshal!"

The loyal servants responded.

After things outside were handled, the marshal stared at the closed door of the hall but didn't enter. He looked at himself, covered in blood, and chose to wash first before rejoining the others in the hall. He walked back and returned to his room.

Meanwhile, inside the receiving hall.

Long Huang and Long Juedi stare at the little black cub that the silver, winged tiger picked up from its arms. They watch as the silver-winged tiger gently places the black cub into the basin with warm water. He rubs here and there to get the beast cub all cleaned up. Once he had finished cleaning the black cube, he lifted it from the basin. Upon seeing this, Long Juedi helped with drying the little one.

This is the first time they had seen a beast this small. After all, once the beast egg had hatched, it would come out as an adult like this silver-winged tiger in front of them. Obviously, the other egg didn't possess a beast but something else.

Long Juedi was extremely careful carrying the little black cub in his arms. His thoughts at this moment: "So soft, so small." I need to be as gentle as possible, as I might hurt him.

"This is... Is this a beastman's cub?" Long Huang asked.

The silver, winged tiger nodded its head and said, "Indeed, he is a beastman cub." However, the soul inside is not that of a cub. This is an adult beastmen that had regressed because of what you humans had injected into him in that place.}

"Beastman cub? Regressed? Injected?" These words left Long Juedi confused, as the old marshal instantly understood the identity of the two beasts in front of him.

The old marshal, Long Huang, asked, "Are you two from that facility in the ancient forest?!"

{Indeed, we are. There were only six of us who had survived that place. Taken away by a group of beastmen. However, in the end, one of them was an undercover human pretending to be a beastman. He had stolen the two of us and sold us in that auction hall where your grandson bought us, Hunluan said.

Long Juedi, who couldn't understand the conversation of the adults, asked while holding a sleeping little beast cub in his arms. "He fell asleep. Is he okay with not eating first?"

{Don't worry. Let him sleep first. He is just sulking that he was born in this form instead of an adult. He needs another year to mature. But in half a year, he should be able to walk on his own. When that comes, once we get in contact with people in the ancient forest, we will help you get a beast egg that is the most suitable for you. Until then, you can pretend that I am your beast.}

Hunluan, like his son, the God of Destruction, is soft towards children of all races. Why is he gentle toward Long Juedi, who was not only pure at heart but also a kind soul? At the very least, the ancient god of chaos chose to protect this child until his fated beast was found.

Long Juedi was delighted and said, "Really? You are telling the truth!"

{Once my mate wakes up, we'll help you get your own beast. Until then, we will protect you as well. This is our thank you to you all this time you cared for us in our egg form. That was our most vulnerable state. Even so, you had taken good care of us. We shall repay this debt in the future.}

Long Juedi asked, "Can't you stop the war? Because of the war, I rarely saw my father. They also said my mother was killed by those bad beasts as well. I don't want to lose my father, my brothers, my sisters, and my grandfather as well because of war."

Long Huang was stunned, as he didn't expect that his grandson had been worrying about this all this time. He passed the little cub back to the silver-winged tiger and hugged his grandson. But Long Huang understands the loneliness of this child. Almost all of the adult members of the Long family are a part of the military. Because of this, they rarely get home, and as the youngest of all in the family, Long Juedi can only stay in the mansion alone with the servants.

He patiently waits for them to return. It was just that a year ago, he had indeed returned but came back crippled. He still remembers how much this grandson of his cried over his injury. At that time, they all thought that he was frightened by his ailment. In reality, the child was relieved that he had come back alive, regardless of his injuries and his ending.

Long Huang said, "Thank you for always waiting for us. Xiao Jue is very kind and a good boy. Because you are here, that grandfather at his lowest wasn't lonely or crippled. You accompanied Grandpa because you are afraid I will be in pain?"

"Don't worry, Grandpa. I asked Uncle Doctor. He said that as long as you drink your medicine, it will no longer be painful. Ah! But didn't the senior cured Grandpa just now? There should be no pain anymore. Grandpa, don't cry," said Long Juedi.

The ancient god of chaos, Hunlun, said, "The kindness of this child is what made us like him." Don't worry, child. As long as we find my son, he and his mate should be able to handle the situation. Though at this moment... They might have just hatched at the same time as us.}

—

At the hidden nest within the Ancient Forest, a commotion had been made because one of the caretakers of the nest shouted in incredulity, especially with two eggs placed at the center hatched, but their contents were missing.

"Ah! The young masters are missing!!!"

Chapter 1754: 24.15 Sixth Violet Star - Found

The whole ancient forest was in chaos. Today was supposed to be the hatching day for the two eggs of their leader, the nine-tailed fox Huzi, but the ones looking after the nest had lost them. He only took a bathroom break for a few minutes, and when he returned, the two eggs were broken, but what was inside was gone.

Panicked, he shouted as he ran out of the hidden nest area.

"The two young masters are gone!!"

"Someone search the vicinity!"

"Oh no, watch out for cubs!"

"They shouldn't have gone too far!"

"Report to the leader!"

The beastmen race was chaotic when their leader's cub was lost. They look around the area, trying to search for them. In reality, Hei Anjing in his black nine-tailed fox form and Ye Xiajie in his baby form with round white ears were hiding in the shadows.

This is Ye Xiajie's doing. Hei Anjing, to be allowed to be hugged by his partner, can only shrink itself to look like a black fox cub while being embraced by his husband's chubby, small arms.

Hei Anjing was snuggling at his husband's face and kissing his chubby cheek full of cuteness.

"My love, you look so cute~ let me kiss you a few more times~"

As soon as they had hatched from the egg, Ye Xiajie grabbed his wife despite his small size. As it's supposed to be, his Jing'er was born as an adult black nine-tailed fox, while Ye Xiajie was born as a beastman cub that can turn both animal and human. He accelerated his time and at least allowed himself to take a human form, albeit too young and only a toddler, not even one year old.

Hei Anjing loves his wife's toddler form, but it made his man uncomfortable, seeing him larger than he is, and he couldn't hug himself because he can only transform into a small black fox instead. Only big enough for the toddler to hug him in his arms.

The Sovereign God of Void and Darkness complained, "This small body is so annoying. But if I force the time too much to grow, the heavenly laws will punish me. I can only transform to this extent."

"Well, at least that's less milk drinking and diaper changing," the God of Destruction teasingly said.

Ye Xiajie said, "I don't need such a thing. Where are Yue and Yang?"

"Send them to the small world. I had a feeling that those two would hatch as well," Hei Anjing said as he was talking about the two wardens who are their direct subordinates.

The God of Destruction saw his husband yawning and looking sleepy.

"My love, are you alright?" Hei Anjing asked worriedly.

The Sovereign God of Void and Darkness was too sleepy but didn't forget to hug his wife even when he was about to fall asleep. The God of Destruction didn't struggle and was about to go to sleep with his husband when suddenly, he noticed someone's presence. This presence appeared out of nowhere and pulled the two of them out of the shadows.

—

After the caretaker of the hidden nest shouted that the young masters had disappeared after hatching, they immediately reported to their leader, Huzi, about the situation. That time, Huzi was having a meeting with the elders of the race, planning what to do about the humans who still dared to trespass on their territory.

The annoyed elders complained:

"Those humans are no different from cockroaches. You will kill one, and another one will come. Even if you exterminate a group, another group will appear!"

"The Elder Shamans had created the walls; it was unknown how those humans were still able to pass through."

"Humans had lots of modern weapons unknown to us. Plus, we didn't forbid beasts from entering. They've used this as a flaw in the barricade wall."

"That race has always been annoyingly smart."

"What should we do? Forbid the beasts from entering the forest as well?"

Huzi, the mythical nine-tailed fox, spoke. "By doing so, it meant making enemies of the beast race. We had nothing against them; they cannot be blocked from entering this forest."

"But this will make the entrance of those humans endless."

"We cannot let them steal our eggs again!"

"Isn't that why we created the hidden nest? That place will prevent others from coming inside without permission. It can be considered safe," Huzi said.

However, after saying these words, the messenger from the hidden nest came over with bad news in urgency.

"Leader! There is an urgent message that this one has to report! It's about the hidden nest and the leader's eggs!" said the messenger. Rawr

Huzi felt that this was bad news, and as expected, everyone was surprised by it.

"Leader! It's gone. Your cubs are missing!"

The moment Huzi heard that his cubs were missing, he immediately adjourned the current meeting and found his cubs. He urgently took his leave as soon as he heard what had happened.

Huzi said, "The meeting is done for today. Everyone is going to leave!!"

"Yes, leader!"

After the elders had taken their leave. The expression on Huzi's.

"Speak! What do you mean that my cubs are missing? Did they break through their eggs?" Huzi asked with urgency; after all, it involves the heir and is a part of his family.

The messenger answered, "Yes, leader! There are two broken eggs in the hidden nest, and the people on guard duty, as well as the caretaker, were welcomed by two broken eggs. The caretaker only took his eyes from the eggs for a bathroom break. When he returned, only the broken shells were left behind, and the contents of the eggs were missing."

"The cubs are missing? Are you sure you didn't see or hear anyone leaving or entering the nest?" Huzi asked.

"We are sure that no one has left the nest except for the caretaker who took off," answered the messenger.

Huzi stood up, planning to head to the hidden nest and investigate the situation, even calling out for backup. After all, the ones that have gone missing are the only family of the current leader of the beastman race. Almost all of them had headed to the hidden nest.

Upon arriving at the hidden nest, Huzi investigated the whole area himself. The guards were trembling to see their leader personally come over to the broken eggshells and noticed that the hatching was complete. There were no traces that the egg was harmed. Adding the fact that the guards of the nest and the caretaker saw no one leave the nest, Huzi was sure that the cubs hadn't been in the vicinity.

He walks around the hidden nest trying to look for clues about the whereabouts of the two missing cubs. This time, Huzi checked the area within the hidden nest and the vicinity of it. Huzi found no trace within the area except for the fact that the shadows within this area are denser and darker. Suddenly, the leader, as if finding something, went to the place with a darker shade of shadow and reached out his hand without thinking much.

—

Within the shadow realm...

The hand grabbed Ye Xiajie by his clothes' back collar and pulled the two of them out of the shadow realm. Even for the sleepy Sovereign God of Void and Darkness, the two of them are fully awake now. The world suddenly turned bright compared to the interior of the shadow realm, which was full of darkness. The God of Destruction saw the person who had captured them. It is Huzi, the leader of the beast race.

The two cubs and Huzi looked at each other in surprise. Even the others who were in the surroundings didn't expect that their leader would be able to pull out the missing children inside the shadow realm, which only he could control. Being able to enter this realm meant that the situation of them not being the children of their leader was not possible. The ability of shadow used to be exclusive to Huzi's spouse.

Ye Xiajie asked, "How did you... know?!"

"There were no footprints in the area of the hidden nest, which meant that you guys hadn't moved around the moment you both hatched from your eggs, but there was no trace of you, and you disappeared. In the area around the eggshell, I noticed that the shadows had become denser in one area. I guessed that you might be hiding in the shadow realm. I checked and finally caught you two~"

It was only at this moment that Huzi noticed that the cubs were different from what he expected. The beastman cub in his hand can already turn into a human in a semi-human state. The beast, which is supposed to be as large as an adult, looked completely like a beastman cub. Everyone didn't know how the two young masters did it, but it seems they had evolved faster and possessed abilities that helped them control their size.

Huzi asked, "You are supposed to be born into a small beastman cub. How come one of you looks like you are about to turn one year old, and the other can even control or transform?"

"How did you enter the shadow realm?"

Chapter 1755: 24.16 Sixth Violet Star - Shadow Realm

"How can you enter the shadow realm?"

The leader of the beastmen questioned the two cubs. The moment he saw them, he instantly realized that these two were different from the other cubs. There is no beast cub that can immediately turn into their human form, or a beast that can transform after hatching. He immediately noticed that these two are special. After all, they are eggs he laid because of that being.

The God of Destruction and the Sovereign God of Void and Darkness pretended that they couldn't understand the question of the leader who leads the beastmen, Huzi. Huzi was not affected by their silence, as he knew that they were pretending about it. However, he still carried away the two cubs in his arms. He also noticed how protective the beastman cub is towards the beast in its arms. That's why he didn't dare to separate. But the others thought so, especially the caretaker of the nest, who now can be blamed for his negligence.

The caretaker made a move before talking and caught Huzi by surprise. He had never expected that there would be someone in this world who would make a move before his eyes. He saw the brave caretaker trying to grab the small black fox from the toddler's arms.

"Young master, let go of that beast. It might bite you," said the nest caretaker.

However, before he could touch the black fox, his own shadows had eaten him. In his fear, he reached out to grab anything, but his eyes met the cold gaze of Ye Xiajie. He is looking at him like some kind of trash that didn't know its place.

"W-What is this?!"

Agh. Ahhh~

Seeing the situation, Huzi made a move and pulled out the caretaker, now covered in wounds and face tainted with tears, trembling. The caretaker couldn't believe that he almost died just now. While trembling, he hesitated to look up and take one look at the toddler in the arms of their leader. He saw it looking at him with disdain while carefully cradling the black fox within its arms. It was greatly offended by his attempt to take away the being within its embrace.

Huzi scolded him for his actions: "Fool! Who allowed you to take away his mate?! Leave and get yourself treated."

"Y-Yes, leader," the other beastmen took away the caretaker.

While the others can only watch as their leader takes away the cubs with him and leaves the hidden nest to return to his abode. The others didn't stop the leader from taking away his cubs. But after witnessing the dangerous power that the cub possessed, no one dared to speak up. None of them wants to end up like the caretaker who made a move.

Only when the leader took his leave did the other beastmen finally sigh in relief. They had witnessed what happened to the caretaker. The bystanders had seen the scene more clearly than the ones involved. The caretaker was the one in the wrong. He shouldn't have made a move before the cubs and the leader.

"Did that cub just use the shadow realm that the leader can use?"

"I thought the shadow realm was exclusive for the leader's use."

"They're their cubs. What is surprising about them being able to do it?"

—

At Huzi's cave...

As soon as he returned to his cave, he placed the two cubs on the soft bed. He also took a seat not far from the bed and made a coffee for himself to drink. He also prepared some baby food for the two cubs. He watches them eat without forcing them to speak. He waits until they finish eating and is finally willing to look at the beastman in front of them.

The couple was having a conversation through sound transmission.

"This beastman seems to be one of our parents in this world," Ye Xiajie said.

Hei Anjing looked at his form and said, "He must be a nine-tailed fox like I am, and the color was taken from the other father. Do you know what kind of beast form you have?"

"I might be a bear, but I'm not so sure about it. I will turn into a beast for you later. You can check what beast I am when that time comes."

"What should we do with him? We cannot just ignore him like this."

"I will talk to him."

When they finished eating the soft baby food, the couple had also ended their conversation through their divine consciousness. They stare at Huzi without taking the lead in talking. In the end, Huzi spoke once again. His question was the same as before.

"How can you use the shadow domain? That is something your other father had given to me. Is it because you are his son that you can use it?" Huzi asked.

The Sovereign God of Void and Darkness just nods at the questions of their dad. It was already surprising enough that one of them was already using their human form at such a young age. Doing so will just make them no different from a monster. Huzi accepted that these brats could not give him the answers he wanted to hear and decided to bring a basin to bathe the toddler and the little fox.

Huzi mumbles, "I might be insane asking babies about things they do not understand."

After the couple was all cleaned up, they were placed inside a crib where they pretended to fall asleep. They waited for the beastman to leave so they could go to their small world and check on the other two, Yun Ming and Lou Wuye.

—

Inside their small world...

The two had temporarily returned to their original form and found the two wardens. The two systems, Zhi Yue and Zhi Yang, had approached them the moment they had appeared in this dimensional world.

[Lord Hei, My Lord, you guys are finally here.]

[The two wardens had also hatched a few hours ago and used a time scroll so they could grow into adults.]

[My lord, your form is so cute~]

The God of Destruction said, "I know, right? He indeed looks so cute as a baby."

"You guys, that's enough. Call on the wardens; it's time for them to leave this small world and come out," the Sovereign God of Void and Darkness.

It didn't take long for the wardens to come over as they were summoned. After hatching from their eggs, they immediately used a time scroll to reach adulthood. At the very least, they need to do this so they immediately support their lords, who are most likely born as babies outside this dimension.

"When we leave this small world, you guys have to look after us. We couldn't force growth, as one of the parents of our current vessels had seen us already," said Ye Xiajie.

Hei Anjing said, "Once we come out, you will head to the human city and find those two. They had most likely hatched at the same time as us. We should learn about the situation of this world. This world is most likely at war."

"Though getting involved in that seems fun, we cannot get involved in our state. Maybe we can only make our move to handle this situation. This world is a bit weird. There is too much chaos. We should find Hunluan and ask him about the situation."

The Sovereign God of Void and Darkness: "In this world, it seems you can be the shadow realm. There is a being in this world that can use darkness and create a shadow realm. Be careful not to use your abilities too much."

"Let's go out now. I feel someone is coming," the God of Destruction said.

With just a thought, all of them had come out of the small dimension. Ye Xiajie and Hei Anjing returned to their real form. As soon as they come out, the two wardens immediately leave with the two systems, Zhi Yue and Zhi Yang, to learn more about this world. There are simply too many weird things in this place. Moreover, the war between the humans and the beasts continues. Now, with the involvement of the beast race and the lockdown of the ancient forest, the standing of the humans had weakened a bit. They lost their source of beast eggs after all.

As soon as they got out, the two wardens and the two systems used teleportation to leave the village. After all, beastmen are a lot more sensitive and possess a keener sense of smell and intuition. They would instantly be caught if they left the normal way. When Huzi returned after asking for a few things used by babies from the tribe, the four had already taken their leave.

As expected, the moment Huzi had returned, he checked on the two cubs and saw they were still asleep. However, his face turned serious when he noticed an unknown scent that lingered a bit within his abode. No other beastman dares to enter his place without his person. That's why the scent left behind was noticed by him almost instantly.

With a frown on his face, Huzi mumbles, "Someone was here just now? It's not from our tribe, though."

"Forget about it. I will just ask the warrior to strengthen the security within the village."

Chapter 1756: 24.17 Sixth Violet Star - Force Contract

Huzi noticed that someone had suddenly appeared in his cave. Though he couldn't pinpoint who it was, the scent left behind by the wardens was picked up by him. Now he was even more vigilant, as he couldn't understand how these people had been able to enter his abode. If Huzi were alone, he wouldn't be afraid, but seeing his two cubs in the bed, he felt that he might need to strengthen the defensive formation around his cave.

He mumbles, "Forget it. Let's increase the formation around the cave. I would be the one at a loss if I lost my cubs again."

Hei Anjing and Ye Xiajie looked at each other as they heard Huzi's mumbling. They thought that this father of theirs was too distant and didn't care much about them. He doesn't even treat them as babies and talks to them like adult beastmen. Now they realized that it wasn't because he felt that they were special that they were treated in such a way. The real reason is that he doesn't know how to take care of cubs of their age. This is a new dad without experience in parenting.

For the God of Destruction and the Sovereign God of Void and Darkness, this kind of parent is better for them. They don't need to pretend so much like cubs and could even communicate with their daddy of theirs easier than those other beastmen, who would definitely feel doubt upon seeing such strange cubs like those two of them.

The leader of the tribe left again for a bit to gather materials to create more formations. He only left when he saw that his cubs had taken their nap on the bed and covered them with a blanket before leaving the cave. He had tasked some beastmen to guard his abode while gathering materials he needed for creating formations.

The two cubs who were supposed to be napping opened their eyes when they saw that their dad had left. They tried to contact Hunluan and An Shizhe through the system, but the heavenly laws had interfered, preventing them from using the system link with the other system.

Ye Xiajie said, "The heavenly laws are interfering again. Is it telling us that the use of other things not compatible with this world is forbidden?"

"No, something is weird in this world. I had already asked permission for this world to use the system like always. How come even communication between systems is forbidden? It seems to be forbidding anything connected outside in communication with those who are outside. After all, the main medium for contacting Vearth's two main systems is the systems given to each host."

"I can feel something calling me to the south. What land is located in that area?" asked Hei Anjing.

Ye Xiajie pulled his wife into a hug and said, "We can ask about that later. How about sleeping with me? This body is so weak that I can barely keep my eyes open. Yawns~

"

"Alright. Let's take a nap for now," Hei Anjing said as he noticed that at some point his beloved had long fallen asleep.

—

At the human territory, Marshal's mansion.

Hunluan in his beast form and An Shizhe, who finally completely woke up after being bathed and fed, were now staying at a detached manor within the mansion of the Long family. This is per the request of Hunluan. To give them a private space, allowing the two of them to live while hiding among all other humans.

Right at this moment, the toddler World Eater is questioning his life. He woke up in the middle of bathing after they hatched and saw Hunluan in his white tiger form and a young boy looking at him as he was bathed. He instantly woke up at that moment and tried to leave the basin. Unfortunately, he is a baby, and his current strength is too weak to do anything else.

A silver-winged tiger was also napping on the bed created to accommodate his huge body. He didn't even notice that his other half's soul was about to leave his body in depression and embarrassment.

The World Eater, An Shizhe, mumbles, "Why did I have to be the one to become a toddler? This is simply unfair."

He was talking to himself all along until he noticed someone was approaching the mansion they were in. Unlike the rhythmical sounds of normal walking, this person's footsteps are light yet clumsy. He immediately turned to his beast form, a small, dark violet lion cub, and crawled towards his sleeping beloved and hid within his embrace. His small size was enough for his wife to find him within the fur.

He waited and finally saw who the person was. It was a young man, at least a few years older than Long Juedi. Based on this man's sudden appearance in this world, this one didn't have good intentions towards them. This man is Long Juedi's cousin, Long Teng.

The World Eater heard the young man mumbling, "Father said it was supposed to be here! The rare, healing, uncontracted beast of the Long Family. I couldn't understand why that fool Long Juedi didn't contract with it. Didn't he know how rare a beast with healing abilities is? If you don't want it, then it can only be mine!"

The existence and ability of the silver-winged tiger were unexpectedly known to the people of the Long Clan. It seems that even though the marshal had warned the servants who were in that room that day not to spread the existence of Hunluan and An Shizhe, their existence still spread among the Long Clan.

Now, a brat even comes over to this place to try to force a contract with them. And Shizhe's eyes are now full of murderous intent.

The young man called Long Teng, upon seeing the sleeping silver-winged tiger, was delighted. It seems that the medicine he tasked the chef to put in this beast's food was effective. What he didn't know was that Hunluan was only sleeping because he was truly sleepy; as for the human medicine he was fed, that had no effect on him whatsoever.

Long Teng said, "Hehe~ you can finally become my beast. A rare one like you should be under my possession. I especially killed one of my best to make space for you, my precious beast."

He brought out a parchment scroll of the contract. He was chanting with full seriousness and with greed in his eyes. Long Teng didn't even notice the hidden killing intent coming from the direction of the sleeping, silver-winged tiger.

Just as he was about to finish the chanting for the force contract, An Shizhe jumped out and tore the contract, making all the power of it backfire on Long Teng. The power of a broken contract was enough to make one stupid—that's the beastmaster, who would usually have one to guard them while chanting. Long Teng knows that there are only two beasts that live in this manor. That's why he didn't bring any guards, as he didn't believe there was a beast that could go against its master when a contract was formed. He was so excited that he had lowered his guard enough for An Shizhe to exploit.

AGHHHH!!!

The agonized scream of Long Teng echoes in the whole manor. It woke up not only Hunluan, who was napping, but even the beastmaster guarding the manor heard the loud scream. When they entered the mansion, they saw Young Master Long Teng holding his head while shouting in great pain.

The beastmasters thought that the two unique beasts might have done something to the young master and immediately informed the marshal and others about it.

It didn't take long for the recently healed former marshal, Long Huang. The current marshal, Long Tian. The young lord, Long Juedi, and another man of middle age arrive at the manor. They immediately questioned the beastmasters as soon as they arrived.

Long Tian asked, "What the hell happened here? Didn't I forbid people from coming to this manor? What is Teng doing in this place?!"

"A'Teng!?" The other middle-aged man seems to be Long Teng's father, Long Kian.

They looked worriedly at Long Teng, who was holding his head, and noticed that something had happened to him. When they look at the two beasts inside the manor, they can somehow guess what has happened.

The World Eater, An Shizhe, spoke and slammed the broken contract scroll under his small paws. His irritated yet adorable voice was heard in the area.

{That stupid brat tried to force a contract on Hunlun! I destroyed it at the last moment to wreck him. Did you think that just because we are recently hatched and young, we can be bullied?! } said An Shizhe.

Everyone was surprised to see a beast cub able to speak in such a manner. It was as if talking with some adult possessing a grumpy temperament.

Long Juedi took the torn contract from under An Shizhe's paws and noticed that it was indeed a force contract between the beastmaster and its beast. He passed this torn contract to his father.

Long Tian holding this one proof was enough to know what had unfolded. He looked at his brother with a sharp gaze and questioned him.

"You wanted your son to sign a contract with my son's beasts?! What kind of bullshit do you have in your head!?"

Chapter 1757: 24.18 Sixth Violet Star - Barren Land

The Marshal, Long Tian, instantly understood everything when he saw a broken contract scroll near the two beasts that lived in this manor. Force contract: the culprit wanted to force a contract on a beast that was unaware of the situation. Thankfully, Long Teng didn't know that there were two beasts, and he was taken in by one of them and successfully destroyed this contract. This action of theft is clearly done by Long Teng, but it is impossible to do such a thing unless it was intentionally done by someone. The Marshal knew that it was instigated by his younger brother, the uncle of Long Juedi and father of Long Teng, Long Kian.

"You wanted your son to sign a contract with my son's beasts?! What kind of bullshit do you have in your head!?" Bellowed Marshal Long Tian.

Upon hearing the ugly words of his elder brother, Long Kian had also lost it. Why do his elder brother and his family get the best of everything? It was simply unfair in his eyes. He just wanted his son to get the best beast that can do healing. Healing is a rare ability, and a person who signs a beast of this kind will be considered by them as the most important. Moreover, in battles, the healer was the one who was tightly protected by the group.

That's why he sent his son to force a contract with this beast, all because he can acquire it, and as long as the contract between him and the beast was made, no one else can say anything. Who would have thought that Long Teng would be caught off guard and would be caught while in the middle of stealing? Now he might have become a fool as a backlash from the contract scroll being destroyed.

Long Kian finally snapped and talked back to his elder brother: "Bullshit? If not for you and your family taking most of the resources of this clan, I wouldn't have done such a thing. With how limited the eggs that can be bought in the market are, how come your son has two uncontracted ones in his possession!? Isn't that unfair?! I am also a father's son! How come you get everything, brother!?"

"I think you are getting the wrong idea here. The two eggs these beasts had come out of weren't something Father had given to Jue'er. This is something he had bought with his own money. He was lucky enough to find an auction and bought it with his own savings. It had nothing to do with Father!" said Long Tian.

Long Kian said, "I don't believe you! You are just saying nonsense!"

"Why the hell should I lie? If there is someone who has received support from your father about the eggs, it was you and your son! While my Jue'er bought his own eggs. Now you still want to steal a junior's beast. Aren't you embarrassed?" the marshal, Long Tian, said. He is definitely angered by this situation.

The brothers were fighting and didn't even notice how annoyed the World Eater, An Shizhe, was. They just have to cause commotion in the area where he and Hunluan live. Moreover, they were too loud, and Hunluan was still sleeping. Finally, he couldn't hold back anymore and snapped at them.

"Too fucking noisy! Can't you two bastards fight somewhere else?" The World Eater, An Shizhe, said in his human form.

His words were almost a curse on himself, and the brothers, who never got along, were both caught by surprise. They suddenly stop fighting and look for the source of that small voice, yet his words are full of thorns.

"WHO IS TALKING!?"

"I do. Do you have a problem with it?" The World Eater, An Shizhe, said.

The Marshal, Long Tian, and his younger brother, Long Kian, turned their heads to the source of the voice and saw a small, black lion cub looking at them with contemptuous looks and even looking at them like some kind of trash. Long Tian was still a bit okay as he knew that this small beast was not completely a beast but a beastman cub. The type that is powerful enough after just being born, and has the ability to learn language well.

The most surprised among them was Long Kian, who now looked like he had seen a ghost. He exclaims, "What the hell is this thing? It can speak!"

"You guys are truly annoying. Get the hell out!" An Shizhe shouted as he used wind to push them out of their manor.

WHOOSHED!

All the humans who were inside the manor just now were sent out stumbling from the mansion. Then, a scary blackish-purple mist surrounds the mansion. This mist prevents anyone from going to the mansion, and those who try to forcibly go inside will suffer delusions caused by the strange-colored mist around the mansion. When the old marshal learned what had happened, Long Kian was punished, while the two of them were scolded by the old man as soon as he returned with Long Juedi.

The angered voice of the old marshal was heard in the mansion of the Long family. Long Kian was scolded and punished for what he had done.

He wanted to complain and rebel. "Father! I am not wrong! What is wrong with me wanting the best beast for my son!"

"I told you those are my son's beasts; he had them hatch themselves. Be thankful that they didn't kill the two of you. Those two beasts were no ordinary beasts. One of them is a beast king; do not play with your lives," said the old marshal.

Long Kian couldn't believe that he had just sent his son to a beast king's lair, and just thinking about him made his face turn pale. What kind of existence is a beast king? That's a beast that can lead a horde of its kind. Powerful, intelligent, and someone who cannot be easily provoked. Who would have thought that his two sons would ignore that kind of existence and even fight in front of it?

The old marshal said, "You guys are forbidden from approaching that manor! Do you understand?"

"Yes, Father!"

—

In the barren lands, the territory of all beasts, the two wardens and two systems were walking around unhindered by any beasts. The reason for that was that most beasts in this place are sensitive to danger. If they scent the smell of humans, they would definitely come out and attack his people. Unfortunately, they don't smell something like that coming from these two. There are even two systems that were unknown to them.

System Zhi Yang said, [There is a strange aura coming from that direction.]

Zhi Yang had pointed in the direction that gave the two wardens an eerie feeling. Whatever that thing is in that direction made them shiver. However, they couldn't back out. Only when everything in this land was explored by them could they go back to report to their masters.

System Zhi Yue said, [Are we truly going?]

"Don't stay close. If something has gone wrong, immediately teleport us away. For some reason, I think that a bit of this aura is similar to Master's. It is just that it was too weak compared to Lord Hei's aura," Warden Yun Ming said.

When the other three heard his words, they became more vigilant. A power similar to the one possessed by the God of Destruction. That is a simple power. It might be something extremely powerful and dangerous. Moreover, this is the territory of the beasts. The Chief Warden might be alright, as he is born a beast in this world, but Warden Yun Ming is born as a beastman. With such unknown power, he would be in danger if it's something that affected beings that aren't beasts.

The Chief Warden, Lou Wuye, said, "Ming'er, hold my hand. If there is danger ahead, you mustn't hesitate to leave."

"I know. Don't worry. I will become your burden," said Warden Yun Ming.

The chief warden said, "You are never a burden to me."

The four of them walked in the direction Zhi Yang had pointed. They had hidden their aura just in case. What they didn't know was that as soon as they left the area they just rested in, a large number of various beasts had come out. They were looking at them as they ventured deeper into this unknown land. At the center, the drying earth of the barren land, they saw something they had never expected. A sea of silver flowers, and at the center is a colossal black beast that looks like a bear. I was asleep. But what caught their attention wasn't the beast itself but the silver flowers surrounding it.

"Chaos Flower," Warden Yun Ming mumbles.

His mouth was suddenly covered by his lover's hand as he noticed the chief warden looking so vigilant as they tried to walk slowly back. This is a flower that couldn't just be touched so easily. This is a flower filled with chaotic energy. Its effect was already well known to everyone. A power that makes one stronger but influences one to spread insanity and distortion in existence.

It's just that when they were about to leave, they heard the sleeping beast at the center of the flower garden waking up.

The chief warden said, "Run!"

Chapter 1758: 24.19 Sixth Violet Star - A Chaos Creature?

After finding the core region of the barren lands, the two wardens and two systems immediately run for it. The secret hidden within the center of the barren lands is simply beyond their control. Moreover, they truly didn't want to be affected by chaos energy. Even though this power is willing to make them stronger, as a consequence of accepting it, one can either turn into a crazy one who seeks endless battle. An urge that is extremely hard to control and it's worse than gluttony. If one is lucky and possess compatibility with this power they are able to transform into Chaos Creatures.

Chaos Creatures are protectors of Chaos flowers. They exist to prevent the flower of chaos from falling into someone else's hand. They exist only to protect chaos from spreading to something else. Its existence only had something to do with chaos itself and only those who can control chaos can see them.

That creature that suddenly appeared at the center sleeping in the middle of that flower garden. I was supposed to be in a deep sleep. However, when uninvited guests like the wardens and systems are around they can only quietly leave. They might be gods of the highest-grade, but even any divinity is useless against chaos. That's why the wardens instantly felt danger when they noticed that the being in the middle of a garden of chaos flowers was about to wake up.

They were horrified. This is an existence that can turn even the smartests god into a being of madness. Something that cannot be cured or controlled as it exists only for one thing. Creating distortion in existence itself. The two wardens wanted to quietly leave the area urgently. Who would have thought that a creature at the center will suddenly shift its movement and show signs of waking up. They can only run for it.

Thankfully, that sleepy being isn't interested in them and once again closes its eyes, ignoring the existence of the wardens and the systems. The two wardens and systems had long run off away from where the center of the barren lands is. They flee as far as they could only to notice that whatever that being is, didn't chase after them.

Warden Yun Ming sighed in relief and finally had time to calm his erratic heartbeat.

"It didn't chase. That's good," he said.

System Zhi Yue cursed after that experience. [That was scary as hell. What the hell is that being? A Chaos Creature?]

[The aura is the same as a Chaos Creature. However, there is something different about it.] System Zhi Yang said.

The Chief Warden said, "A stronger presence. It is close to divinity, but a weaker kind of god?"

"Yes. That kind of feeling. That one might be a godly existence in this world," Warden Yun Ming said, "Regardless what it is... We must report it to the lords."

"Let's go back for now," responded the Chief Warden.

—

Back to the Ancient Forest. At the beastman's leader's abode.

The two cuties who had just fallen asleep had finally woken up. Their young vessels had at least gained enough strength to keep themselves awake. They look around and notice the interior of the cave which makes them recall where they are right now. They are in the abode or cave owned by that mythical nine tailed fox beastman.

Growls~

As well as a sense of hunger which the two never had to suffer from before. They looked around near the bed and saw nothing of the sort that can be used as food. The two cubs looked at each other and finally at their tummies which had a duet at this moment.

The Sovereign God of Void and Darkness said, "Baby, are you hungry? Wait for a bit. There should be something around in this place that can be used as food." He was about to jump off the bed and suddenly someone caught him. A pair of hands and a familiar presence.

It was their daddy in this world, Huzi. Who is simply too kind in this world. After all, there is no way he wouldn't have noticed how strange his hatched eggs are. Despite this weirdness, he still treated the two of them as his real sons.

The nine tailed fox beastman, Huzi, asked, "Where are you going this time? Is it hunger?"

Growls~

Huzi noticed his pretty beast son, Hei Anjing and was also carried away in his arms. He said, "Is my darling little fox also hungry?"

It seems that both of their parents in this world had secrets of their own. This nine tailed beastman fox gave birth to them whose bloodline was mixed by something. While the information about this beastman's other half doesn't seem to be normal as well. Of course, the two Gods of Destruction, Hei

Anjing and the Sovereign God of Void and Darkness had their own secret. Thus, the couple decided to pretend for a few more years and waited for their vessels to mature before making a move.

Huzi had moved them to his stone table with three cups of porridge. One had chicken on it and the other two had pumpkins on them. The leader of the beastman started feeding his two sons with a smile on his face. Seeing that even his fox eyes had gotten slimmer giving an alluring feeling, the two cubs remained the same.

"My cuties truly act like adults sometimes. Dad will no longer blow it for you since you don't want it. Let's wait for it to naturally cool down," Huzi said as stopped feeding the two with his two hands.

This nine tailed fox beastman watches his children eat slowly on their own while smiling. As for the two whose tummies had growled a while ago. They no longer hesitated and ate the food before them. These three had enjoyed their first meal as a family in this world. After playing with them for a while, Huzi was once again asked to meet one that wished to meet him. It was another beastman and also his subordinate. Clearly, asking for a word about their usual duties and a report.

"Leader, the reports about the changes in both the human and barren lands had been compiled. It seems that the ruler of the barren land had slightly woken up before for a reason. But as always he keeps sleeping."

"Also due to the lack of beast eggs for the current generation of humans, the human race decided to enter the barren land instead. However, the barren land isn't simple."

"There is also the hatred of the beasts towards the human race. This is the race that had created that so-called beast taming and it was the kind of the beast race that was subjugated because of it."

"That's why the moment the humans sneaked into the barren lands, the beasts would immediately gather around them. Their only mission whenever they see a human is nothing else but execution.

"Should we gather more information? As of now, this humble one can only gather this much information."

Huzi responded to his subordinate. "No more information gathering. I want you guys to report all the changes in both races. Just in case something happens and we become their target. You can now leave."

"Yes, Leader!"

After the other beastman adult had left, the serious expression on Huzi had disappeared and once again smiled at his own cubs enjoying their company together. This situation lasted until Ye Xiajie grew over his stage as a toddler.

—

At the human lands...

The people of the Long family had gathered asking for forgiveness to the two beasts that were offended by the actions of someone in this clan. It can be said that because of this An Shizhe almost decided to massacre the Long Clan. If not for the existence of the protagonist of this world, this can would have long perished under the power of the World Eater.

In reality, it was only his vessel that had shrunk. His abilities and powers still remain albeit restricted. However, this restriction is only enough to seal his ability to instakill the world itself. As for the rest it won't be able to hold back this menace.

"Please forgive my children's rudeness. I will make sure they will no longer bother you in this manor," said Long Huang.

The World Eater, An Shizhe said, {This one is a little smart.}

{A'Zhe, leave them be. Focus on growing. So no more time shall be wasted,} said Hunluan in his silver winged tiger form.

The little black lion cub said, {Alright. Human, this will be the last I shall experience such humiliation. These two aren't allowed here. You two should avoid coming over. Also, only that brat who had helped us can come see us.}

The old marshal, Long Huang, brought over his two sons, Long Tian and Long Kian, to apologize. Unlike these two foolish sons of his, Long Huang, can definitely feel that these two beasts aren't as ordinary as they portray and maybe the title as the beast king was already a humble position in these two. At the very least, he knew that these two are powerful enough to kill his whole family if they feel like it. The only reason that was holding them back was his grandson, Long Jue, who had brought them out from the auction when they were still eggs.

These two might felt gratitude towards his grandson and as they said, they would help him find a beast that suits him. Maybe after that, these two would disappear once that job is done. That's why we cannot offend them now.

The world eater, An Shizhe said, {You can go now.}

Chapter 1759: 24.20 Sixth Violet Star - Find them!

At the Marshal's Territory...

Just after the Long family left the detached manor where the two beasts were staying, Long Kian among the three was dumbfounded. Who would have expected that those beasts he thought were just beasts, are capable of speaking in their language. This is different from talking directly through minds, it was verbally done. The only one capable of such a thing is the beast king.

Long Kian heard from his father that the two beasts are capable of speaking through words. Of course, he doesn't believe it. Those words are seemingly ridiculous in his eyes. That's why he couldn't believe it when he heard and saw that small, black lion cub opening its mouth and speaking. It's as shocking as hearing your dog speak your language complaining that dog food is not delicious.

"Dad, did those beasts just speak human language? Is that truly possible?" Questioned Long Kian as if questioning his life.

The old marshal, Long Huang said, "You've experienced it firsthand and now you are questioning your life. Believe what you have seen and experienced. That is all real."

"Even I was shocked when I first heard them speak. But, thinking about what they are, I gave up overthinking," said Long Tian. "Moreover, those two are kind only towards my son, and your son pissed them off in such a way. You should be grateful that our father pleads for them to cure your son."

"Shut up! If I'd known they were that dangerous I wouldn't have sent Teng'er there! Who told you to keep secrets within the family!" Retorted Long Kian.

Snorts~

"Keeping secrets your ass! You haven't been home for a long time. The servants weren't allowed to tattle after that day. What would they say to you? In the end, didn't the servants secretly tell you about it as well! If not for me giving permission to that you would still be out of loop!" Rebuked Long Tian.

The current marshal had always been known for his straight to the point, thorny words. Long Kian is used to it, but he himself is short tempered. Well, this is how they get along as siblings. All brawls and verbal fights. The old marshal beside them can only already feel his ears ringing because of his sons' verbal fight.

"Enough! Can't you talk without shouting!?"

The old marshal complains as he hits both of his sons on their heads and walks away.

He left to find his grandchildren. However, after watching their fathers for a long time, Long Teng and Long Juedi also picked up their bickering side. This is the major headache for the old marshal.

—

At the ancient forest, in the abode of the beastman leader, Huzi...

Ye Xiajie and Hei Anjing were finally allowed to come out of the abode after their protective daddy placed a lot of defensive formation, artifacts and spells on them. Moreover, these two were introduced to everyone in the clan as the children of their leader. Beastmen can be considered protective of their cubs. In their eyes, the cubs of their race are everyone's children. That's why I love seeing these two cubs crawling around and would be giving them lots of snacks as gifts.

The whole ancient forest is owned by the beastmen race and ever since they closed off the whole forest except for the area near the wooden wall, no other race appeared in the other parts of the forest. So, as long as they don't come near the outer region of the ancient forest, there is no other race that beastmen can appear in.

After the God of Destruction and the Sovereign God of the Void and the Darkness were given permission to come out of the stage. They would run out of the village to play in the forest. In the eyes of adult beastmen, cubs love playing in the forest the most and they could understand why. After all, young beastmen can only follow their instinct and at such a young age returning to the forest is their nature. That's why no one stops them from leaving the village.

Only when they are out of the forest, that the Sovereign God of Void and Darkness would stop pretending as a cub and instead of crawling, he stood up on his pair of chubby legs carrying a gorgeous black fox cub carefully in his arms. On his chubby face is a mature and dignified expression as if an emperor was walking around within his palace.

However, it was such a funny scene. After all, his vessel is not even a year old but with this expression, he looks like playing pretend making him look adorable instead of majestic. As for the lazy fox in his arms, it yawns as if it just woke up.

"My love, have you received the message from Ming'er and Wuye?" asked the God of Destruction.

The Sovereign God of Void and Darkness, Ye Xiajie, replied, "Yes. I gave them our current coordinates. They should be coming back soon from the Barren Lands. Based on the frantic message scroll from Yue, they should have found something unexpected."

"Why didn't Xiao Yue just write their report in that message you've just received? Are they in danger?" Hei Anjing asked.

Ye Xiajie said, "Don't worry about them. If they are able to send a message it means they shouldn't be in any life threatening danger."

"I wonder what they would have found in a place where the Beast Race lives. I heard the land of the beast is no different from a desert. At least a desert has a little life with an oasis in it, because this place is called barren. It means a dry up land without any grass in it at all. Did they find the center of the barren land?" asked Hei Anjing.

Ye Xiajie responded, "We should know what they found when they got here."

While the two are waiting at the coordinates they had given to their subordinates, they lay a picnic mat on the ground and rested. On the top of the mat is a small yet soft mattress and pillow. The God of Destruction made a small nest out of it and brought more pillow before pulling his lover to lay down with him.

Hei Anjing said, "Alright. Nap before they arrive, With your current body, not napping now will mean you will be sleepy later."

"Alright. I will listen to my wife," said Ye Xiajie as he slowly closed his eyes while hugging Hei Anjing who had returned to its original size.

An adult black, nine tailed fox, appeared in place of the black fox from before. Such a gorgeous creature. It was so easy for him to play the role of a pillow for Ye Xiajie, with their difference in size, Hei Anjing can easily hide his lover's figure with his nine fluffy tails. He had also slowly closed his eyes after sensing his lover's sleep.

The couple was napping for an hour when the two wardens and two systems had arrived. Zhi Yue as always was loud as he felt the aura of his Lord Hei. Seeing a huge and rare obsidian furred nine tailed fox in front of them, the group hesitated for a moment until they noticed that this nine tailed fox possessed the familiar looking silver irises in their memories.

The one that arrived is a huge wind hawk carrying a small water snake beastman cub around its neck like a necklace. Unlike when they used their original forms in the barren land, they can only use their vessels in this world to enter the ancient forest so they wouldn't get attacked on the way.

In his avatar form, a small moon, System Zhi Yue said, [Lord Hei~ I miss you~]

However, before he, Zhi Yue, could even approach the God of Destruction, a small yet powerful hand had grabbed the floating moon and everyone saw a small child. The one who had grabbed him is none other than its master, in his human form as beastman no looking like a year old baby boy who is currently grumpy while squeezing the small moon in its hand like a squishy toy.

The Sovereign God of Void and Darkness said, "So loud. Did you not see me sleeping?"

[M-My lord, you are also... here? Hehe?] Zhi Yue said while being treated as a toy.

Seeing that his stupid system is still the same as always, Ye Xiajie just clicked its tongue and pinched the small moon until he had enough and let go of it.

The God of Destruction asked, "You came back from the barren land? What did you get from that place?"

[Master, it's quite a big deal. We saw a field of chaos flowers at the center of the barren land. There's even a protector guarding it. Based on the chaos guardian strength is most likely at least at god state,] said Zhi Yang, this calm, little sun.

The God of Destruction looked at the two wardens who were nodding at the words of the two and realized that they were saying the truth. The situation had finally turned serious. The existence of chaos flower in the territory of the race which is most likely the most vulnerable from it would mean that the possibility of world calamity falling in this world is high.

He commanded, "You four. Go to the human land. Find Hunluan and An Shizhe. If there is someone who can stabilize this and save this world, it can only be done by them."

"Yes, Lord Hei. As you wish!" The two wardens and two systems left once again but with a different mission.

Chapter 1760: 24.21 Sixth Violet Star - Pei Jin

An urgency caused by the existence of chaos flowers and energy made everyone nervous. The God of Destruction didn't want another world to turn to a land of madness due to that energy of chaos. Just one being of life being affected by this energy meant downfall for this world. They should be thankful to the Chaos Guardian that had appeared in the garden. It was because of it that they were able to find those flowers before a breakout took place. That area must be completely isolated or be absorbed instead.

The God of Destruction said, "This news about the chaos flowers can either be a good one or a bad one."

"What do you mean?" asked the Sovereign of Void and Darkness.

Ye Xiajie also didn't want another world to be manifested by such tyrannical energy. Moreover, once it begins, the energy is easily passed as well. Like an out of control virus, which would cause insanity to spread in the whole world. Plus, with the existence of the Ancient God of Chaos, this energy will get even stronger. That is until it was absorbed by Hunluan or himself.

Hei Anjing said, "It is good news for Hunluan. As long as he absorbs this chaotic energy his soul will get stronger. As for the reason that it was bad news, one mistake to spread a single flower of chaos was enough to give birth to countless wars and allow an insane individual to be born. It would be endless and the only way to prevent this power from spreading in the universe is to..."

"Destroy the star and let the energy perish completely with the world."

The one who completed the God of Destruction's words is none other than the Sovereign of the Void and Darkness. It was actually so easy for him to notice it. After all, he had witnessed worlds ending up in such a way. He is also one of the gods who destroy the world to keep the energy from spreading.

The God of Destruction said, "Yes. That can be the only ending once the chaotic energy spreads in this world. I wanted to visit that barren land itself. But you can't come..."

"Why is that? Aren't the effects of chaos on me less than the others?" said Ye Xiajie.

Hei Anjing said, "That is correct for the adult you and your god form. However, at this moment, as a baby your body is weak. That vessel is not yet matured. It is better not to have contact with chaos energy at this moment."

"Are you going to go right now?"

asked the Sovereign of Void and Darkness.

The God of Destruction responded, "Not right now. I might drop by in the evening to place a formation to isolate the whole garden. You cannot come with me."

Sigh~

"Seriously, being a baby is so inconvenient," mumbles Ye Xiajie.

Hei Anjing chuckles at his lover's expression of frown. If he was in an adult form this expression would either make him look stern and cold. Yet on a baby, it made him look cuter and lovable. The God of Destruction took him in his arms and rain kissed Ye Xiajie's face. All of a sudden, they heard calls from the adult beastmen and the God of Destruction returned to his petite size and pushed the Sovereign of the Void and Darkness down to the picnic map which is now full of pillows and a blanket making it a small nest.

The Sovereign pretended to sleep on the pillows while hugging the small black fox in his embrace. This is the scene the adult beastmen had witnessed. They were seeing such cuteness as these two up as they were brought back to the village to eat lunch.

—

Meanwhile, with the help of the two systems, their group comes out of the ancient forest to look for the two seniors. The two wardens turn to their original forms and pretend as humans while looking for clues about where Hunluan and the world eater are. They lurked in the nearest city beside the Ancient Forest.

They had been pretending to be humans and were asking around. When they saw a human child lingering around the area where they are in.

Warden Yun Ming mumbles as he notices Long Juedi in the crowd.

"isn't that the protagonist of this world?" He said.

The chief warden and the two systems looked at the young man and noticed that Warden Yun Ming's words were right. This is indeed the protagonist of this world.

System Yang noticed the lingering aura around the child and thought that maybe he was sensing things wrongly. It wasn't for the fact that they are in the black market area that Long Juedi would definitely not pass by them.

All of them noticed that terrifying aura of gluttony on him when he approached them. Because this aura is simply too scary and dangerous to be touched, the group simply decided to follow Long Juedi back to his place.

Long Juedi, who was looking around the black market of beast eggs were disappointed as the beast eggs right now were so rare thanks to the high demands on of. Unlike before where they can see beast eggs anywhere in this city. However, that is something that happened before the humans had offended the beastman race.

The young man mumbles looking so lethargic due to the sadness in his heart. He mumbles, "No beast eggs again. Should I customize a mission?"

Long Juedi looked at the mission board not too far from him and noticed that this board was full of missions about helping them get a beast egg. But the mission involving the Ancient Forest was considered a death mission, there are hardly any humans accepting quests about beast egg retrieval. That's why when Long Juedi was about to post his request, a lot of people started talking behind his back.

"Another rich fool!"

"Dreaming to get an egg from the Ancient Forest."

"He is just wasting his money and time. There is hardly anyone who wants this kind of mission."

"He looked quite rich but he is just a dreamer."

"Stop bullying the child!"

The conversation around the area was heard by Long Juedi and grips on his mission request. He is now hesitating to post his mission. After all, he is being treated as a fool. Out of nowhere another young man who was wearing clothes that screams luxury appeared before Long Juedi. The young protagonist frowned upon seeing this young man's eyes. This young man is the villain of this world. He is called Pei Jin, he is from the family of Pei that lead the other faction that goes against the rule of he marshal.

Pei Jin spoke, sounding so sarcastically, "Who do we have here? The loser who didn't even have a contract beast~"

"What the hell do you want? Fuck off, Pei Jin!" Shouted Long Juedi back.

The young man, Pei Jin, enjoyed seeing this look on Long Juedi. It gives him the feeling that he is above the person in front of them. He felt excited thinking that he stood above Long Juedi who was considered his fated enemy in this world.

Hahaha~

"Long Juedi, how about you just give up becoming a beast master? Not only you do not have a beast to sign with. Those precious eggs from the auction are even duds. How unlucky you are that your hatchin ceremony was cancelled~" said Pei Jin with a smirk on his face.

Long Juedi wanted to fight back against Pei Jin when suddenly a loud exclamation coming from behind them was heard from the crowd.

"What the hell!? He is seeking death!"

"Quite down, Young Master Pei. Once the beast hatched from the egg, I looked after it for me."

"Someone just took that deadly request!"

Everyone watched as the Chief Warden, Lou Wuye, looked at the young protagonist of the world. He said, "Are you the one who posted this custom mission about getting an egg of a beast in the ancient forest."

"Y-Yes," Long Juedi panicked for a moment and met the cold eyes of the Chief Warden.

Warden Yun Ming pulled away his lover who was scaring the kid and said to Long Juedi. "Ignore his scary face. However, my lover didn't mean bad things. We just wanted to clarify about this egg you requested."

"It was indeed me who posted that mission. Please go and ask as you wish," answered Long Juedi. "Is there a problem with my request?"

"Well not really. We just want to check if this beast egg request of yours must be any type of beast egg as long as it was a beast egg. Your egg request, any kind of beast egg as long as it's alive?" Warden Yun Ming said.

Long Juedi said, "Yes, I don't care as long as it's a beast egg. Any kind of beast egg is acceptable."

"Haha~ give up trying to gain an egg Long Juedi!" said Pei Jin, This young master of the Pei Clan is still taunting as always.

The two wardens and Long Juedi ignore Pei Jin and reach a conclusion.

"Alright. We will accept this mission. Since their detailed request about the beast egg, the young man had been cleared. Excuse us, we will contact you again when his mission has been completed," said the Chief Warden as he and Yun Ming walks away.