

World Plot 1871

Chapter 1871: 24.132 Sixth Violet Star - What should I do?

While the current marshal is still mourning an emergency report comes to the aide waiting from the outside, a soldier from the command room personally comes out to report about this report.

"Report! Report! Emergency Report!"

"What is this report about? Tell me I will inform the Marshal!" The Marshal's aide said.

Bang!

The door behind the aide opened with force, the aide and the soldier who were standing outside were both stunned as they didn't expect for the Marshal, Long Tian, to appear at this moment.

What they didn't know was that the moment the marshal heard about the emergency report he immediately changed his state of emotion and focus to which is important.

"Order! Report to me!"

The two soldiers fell on their knees and saluted. The word order is something the marshal rarely uses as it means no soldier can defy his command when this word is uttered.

"Yes, Lord Marshal! Young Master Pei Jin appeared!"

Marshal Long Tian and his aide were so shocked that the surprise on their faces could not be controlled for a moment.

"What did you say!?" The aide exclaimed.

The Marshal's eyes turned a bloodshot but calmed his temper the best he could.

"Say! Where the hell is he right now!?" asked the Marshal, Long Tian.

The soldier answered, "He had appeared at the walls of the Ancient Forest chasing after the children led to escape by Lord Kian to the Forest of Ancient. Young Master Juedi is also there!"

The Marshal is not surprised that his son, Long Juedi is currently in danger and is currently in the same place as that young devil, Pei Jin. He acted calmly and composed.

"As expected, fate will move as it was destined!"

"Marshal, what should we do next?" The Marshal's aide asked.

Long Tian thought for a moment and believed that things aren't as simple as it.

Sigh~

"Our enemy is not human. It's the most pure evil among the demonic beast. As well as one of the Beast Gods now existing in the mortal realm."

"This isn't something humans can decide on our own. Send a letter to invite the leaders of all races. Also, welcome and treat the leader of the beastmen race and his dao companion as important guests," The General said.

The Marshal's aide asked, "What should we do about the children and Lord Lian?"

"I will personally go to the Ancient Forest to pick them up," Long Tian said as he walked away preparing to take his leave to head to where Pei Jin and his son are.

He was about to walk away when suddenly he stopped and said, "If I failed to return... the one who will take over my position will be... Mu Liao."

The two soldiers were dumbfounded, however, even though they still couldn't accept a new leader, it was unknown what would be the result if their marshal truly died at this first real conflict with the Pei Clan's Young Master, Pei Jin. But everyone already knew that the Marshal's possibility of returning is closer to zero.

One is a little devil with an evil beast god by his side and the other is just a human, with limited lifespan and had to fight to protect the rest of his family members. It is clearly an unfair battle but no one truly knows how the ending will unfold.

The two soldiers can only salute. To be the first among all races to go stand against the Young Devil and his Evil Beast God in possession. The connection between the two runs in countless lifetimes and it was only at this time that an Evil Beast God was reborn. Usually, Ouroboros is only born as a Demonic Beast King at most.

After the gods from the upper realm descend the planet has been adjusted to fit their actions which leads to the limit of strength of the world to reach beyond the Beast God realm. Godhood was supposed to be reserved to Mo Minkong, the Guardian of the Garden of Chaos Flower. As these flowers were the origins of the world's qi and nutrients, they must be protected by the strongest.

But with the existence of the Ancient God of Chaos, the World Eater, the Sovereign God of Void and Darkness as well as the God of Destruction himself, the balance in this world was broken. Upon their arrival in this world, the four gods were intentionally split to avoid the accumulation of divinity in one place. Two were placed in the human city and the other two in the beastmen race which is supposed to have no role in this world. After the four beast eggs hatched the world plot was directly affected, even though each action these gods had taken were simple, it completely went against the destined story.

To keep the plot the world made a move without the Heavenly Laws permission and allowed an Evil Beast God born from a foreign soul to be born. It wanted the destined son to lose those he is destined to lose. The first one is his grandfather. Long Huang who was saved with the help of two ancient gods isn't supposed to head to the Barren Lands. He is destined to be assassinated by Pei Jin's schemes. However, each time it was supposed to be, it always failed.

The second one is the heroine's family. They were supposed to die under the hands of Long Tian and have her hate the Long Clan. She is destined to have a love and hate relationship with this world's protagonist, Long Juedi. Like the old marshal, the parents of the heroine had survived and this was because the God of Destruction and the Sovereign God of Void and Darkness had taken an action. The world couldn't move against the heroine as the one backing her is Hei Anjing.

Even if the world wanted to restore the story, it could never go against someone like Ancient Lord Hei Anjing. His identity is much more important than the Ancient Gods like Hunluan and An Shizhe. That's why the world can only kill the Mu Patriarch to replace the death of the parents of the heroine. This would weaken the influence of Long Juedi with the Mu Clan. As both the elders of Long and Mu Clan had died the connection between the two had become awkward

The world wanted the protagonist, Long Juedi, to experience all the suffering needed. He needs to lose people to reach his destined strength. The peak of this world and defeat Pei Jin and Ouroboros like how it was supposed to be. Unfortunately, the world didn't know the extent of danger the foreign soul possessed and its identity of being someone from beyond their cosmos. It's a pest that can destroy their own cosmos and lose everything if it was left alone. Once this was known by the guardian, the consequences will be heavy.

At the borders of the human city and the ancient forest...

Pei Jin's arrival to the scene includes the arrival of thousands of undead. These are all his minions who would all move under his command and were created all for him to control. The one who made the undead as Ouroboros and it's simply a toy for Pei Jin.

His arrival had caused shock to everyone from the side of the living, now that a hole was opened in the wooden walls by Heri, the scent of the undeads lingers into the ancient forest which bothers the sleeping lion in the ancient forest. This is something even Pei Jin or Ouroboros would have never expected. Currently, the first confrontation between the destined villain and the protagonist of the world is happening.

Long Juedi recognized Pei Jin. This is the only person in this world that hates himself even though he hasn't done anything to this person. At first, he was confused why this person hates him. It was only at this moment when his life and their lives were in danger that he realized. Hate is hate. Do you even need a reason to hate someone? Maybe you are just destined not to get long.

Pei Jin asked Long Juedi if he missed him. Sadly, this young man couldn't understand anything as unlike the latter this person didn't even have any memories of his previous life and he is no different than other children of his age though is the luckiest one among them.

Long Juedi responded to Pei Jin's words.

"Sorry. But why should I miss you? We are not even friends," Long Juedi retorted.

The dislike between these two was engraved in their souls and just by seeing each other they would instinctively feel uncomfortable. At least this is the case of Long Juedi whose situation is not like the current Pei Jin. The young master of the Pei Clan was speechless. He truly didn't expect this kind of response.

Ouroboros inside of him said, {He didn't have the same set of memories as you have. In his eyes, you are currently just a stranger or a distant acquainted person. You cannot blame him for that reaction.}

"This is unfair!" Pei Jin's strong reaction made the others feel unease.

{There is one way to get the Long Juedi that you know.}

"What should I do?" Pei Jin asked.

{It's simple. You just need to kill his father.}

Chapter 1872: 24.133 Sixth Violet Star - I will kill you now!

The conversation between Pei Jin and his main beast was unknown to others but the content of it was chilling. As to be expected from an Evil Beast God, he is asking his own master to kill the father of the Protagonist to stabilize his role as this world's greatest villain. Normally a boy at the age of Pei Jin would have thought twice of being asked to kill someone. However, the soul inside of that boy's body is an adult man with a past who had lived his lifetime once. For him, killing is as simple as breathing and he has done it multiple times already.

"Good idea~ It would be better to do it in front of him!"

A madman's smile appeared on Pei Jin's face and agreed to the suggestion of his main beast, Ouroboros. He believes that by killing the current marshal, who is also the father of the protagonist, he will be able to get what he wants.

"But isn't that old man hiding in his little island? Can we even catch him?"

Pei Jin remembered that the marshal is hiding in the military compound even though he didn't die due to the interference of the old marshal and Mu Patriarch, he is almost at the brink of his death. There is not much difference if he is killed right now or later as he couldn't have lived for too long.

The Evil Beast God communicated with his master through his thoughts and said, {Don't worry. He is already on his way here to save his son. There is no need to do something to force him to come out.}

"This is a better situation than I expected," Pei Jin mumbled.

He commanded the undead and said, "Half of you, kill the other humans coming over except for the one leading in front."

The undead didn't respond and they only followed orders. Half of the original number of the undead that come with Pei Jin had run back to kill the incoming humans who are trying to save these human children. Of course, they also heard the voice command Pei Jin just made.

"Kill the incoming humans? Someone chased after us! Impossible! I told them not to leave the island!?" Long Kian said.

Long Teng commented, "But dad, uncle never listened to your words."

Sigh~

"I should have known how hard headed that fool is," Long Kian grumbles.

He pushed all the children to Heri's care intending to bring them all inside. However, this did not escape the eyes of the Evil Beast Go, Ouroboros. He immediately told Pei Jin about this attempt. Once the protagonist had gone inside the forest, it would be hard even for an evil beast god like him to get him to come out. After all, someone that can kill him was living in that forest.

{Pei Jin, they are sneaking the children inside.}

Pei Jin had just turned around to give orders and the ones he wanted to kill are now trying to escape.

He turned around with an ugly look as he glared at Long Juedi and the other on his side. He couldn't help but shout,

"Long Juedi, if you dare come inside those walls I will dismember your father!"

These words were chilling especially when a boy the same age as the children behind them said such cruel words. Long Juedi was so angry that there were tears in the corner of his eyes. Even though he is enraged by Pei Jin's words, he was so scared that his father would be killed by this bastard whom he doesn't care at all.

Pei Jin added more fuel to the fire and informed them about the death of the old marshal, Long Huang and Mu Patriarch, Mu Yao.

"By the way, your grandfather, the old marshal, Long Huang and his aide, Mu Yao are already dead. Don't you know that?~"

At this news, the three from the Long Clan were stunned as they didn't expect such news. Long Huang and Mu Yao were supposed to be resting in the military compound so unless the island was filled with undead there is no way for these two to die.

Long Juedi shouted, "YOU'RE LYING! GRANDFATHER CANNOT BE DEAD!" His eyes were full of tears as anger was painted all over his face. He even forgot the fear he had for this monster.

Long Teng said, "Dad, that's a lie, right? There is no way Grandpa is dead!"

"...I don't... I don't know!? Teng'er, please don't ask anymore!" Long Kian recalled the unknown pain in his heart when they were still in the tunnel.

That pain came suddenly for no reason. But the bloodline is stronger than it should be. Long Kian had a feeling that maybe his father was already dead as what this little devil in front of them is talking about. However, he also couldn't believe it. He doesn't want to believe it at all!

Long Kian's changes made the two young boys, Long Teng and Long Juedi, panic. This is the first time they are seeing Long Kian wear such a blank look as if denying reality and they couldn't hold back their tears at this point.

The former elf king was annoyed by how unreliable this Long Kian is as an adult and hit him on the back of the head.

"Compose yourself! If you break down, who will protect these children!" Vega was so pissed that he couldn't hold back hitting Long Kian.

Long Kian was surprised at first and looked around to see his son and nephew looking at him crying. Even though he felt that this little devil was not lying about the old marshal's death, he also as an adult couldn't break down before these children. If even he fell, who would be able to protect these two least descendants of their Long Clan.

He hugged both Long Teng and Long Juedi and pacified them, "Don't cry. He is not telling the truth. Don't listen to him. Don't listen to the words of a devil."

Seeing this scene, Pei Jin couldn't help but laugh. The despair of the Long Clan was something he had witnessed and caused in his previous life. Doing it all over again, why won't he dare?

Pei Jin chuckles, "Hahah~ Do I even need to lie about that? Those two old things died because they wanted to save the current marshal. The leader of the human race! Do you want to know how they die?"

The three members of the Long Clan glared at Pei Jin while Long Kian was trying his best to cover his son and nephew's ear so they couldn't hear any nonsense of this devil.

Long Kian chanted, "Don't listen. Don't listen. Don't listen!"

Important things need to be said thrice.

Pei Jin said, "I will tell you how they died~. The Marshal who was about to sacrifice himself to protect the rest of the weak humans on that island was about to get killed only to be pulled back by the two old men and take his place. Of course! Those two tough old things didn't want to get eaten. So do you know what they did?"

"Hahaha~ they are so smart copying what I had done before. They had strapped countless bombs around them and suicide by explosion."

"Dammit! They've killed too much of my toys(undead)."

"However, thanks to that they didn't even leave behind a single bone. Much less ashes. Hahaha~ It's so long and hilarious to watch it happen."

The tears on the three members of the Long Clan can no longer be held back. Though they have an inkling that maybe the grandfather (father) is dead. Who would have thought they had to die so miserably that they had to prepare a funeral with an empty coffin.

Long Juedi was dazed as his memories with his grandfather flashes within his mind. From when he first met his grandfather, to the times he accompanied him to play when he was a child. His grandfather's sad smile when he lost his leg, his joy when he got it back and the things he was cuddling within that warmth.

Now that the old marshal is gone, there will be no one to protect him from his father. No one to spoil him and his brother, Long Teng. No one to secretly teach them beast taming and all. Nothing at all. After all, their grandfather, Long Huang is now dead.

He died even before he recovered from his assassination. He left even before they last saw him. He is now gone even before they can go home. No more. They no longer have a grandfather.

Thinking about this anger fills Long Juedi's eyes as he glares at Pei Jin as if he is an enemy he needs to kill to ease the pain stabbing his heart.

He shouted, "Pei Jin, I'm going to kill you! I swear that you will die by my hands!"

Hahaha~

Pei Jin laughs as he retorts, "Do you think you will even get that chance? I came here to kill you now!"

Chapter 1873: 24.134 Sixth Violet Star - Long Tian's Predicament

After learning that the death of his grandfather had something to do with Pei Jin, Long Juedi who is usually mild tempered couldn't help but shout words that involved killing. In his eyes, this Pei Jin is just a madman who kills for fun and for some reason he is targeting his Long Clan. However, even if he wanted to do something he is simply too weak to make a move.

Unfortunately, his opponent is different. Now that Pei Jin intended to kill him, Long Juedi had nothing he could do to protect himself. His uncle, Long Kian, and his elder cousin tried to protect him with their bodies.

Pei Jin just finds this scene laughable. He sneered at this scene. However, deep inside of his heart there is a time when he yearns for the same family love. Sadly, all he got was malice from his step mother who killed his mother and disdain from his step siblings. His father doesn't care about him and ignores him, who was weak and bullied by the rest of the family members.

The Pei Clan is a cold hearted clan who emphasize more on talent than bloodline. In this family, only the strong had the right to ask for more while the weak can only remain obscure. They are completely opposite of a loving family like the Long Clan.

Maybe because Pei Jin and Long Juedi had lived a completely different life that their ending was different as well. One became a villain who can only kill to get what he wanted while the other had to get stronger to protect his loved ones. In the eyes of Pei Jin, Long Juedi is just a spoiled brat who was born with everything. That's why he hated him so much in their past life. Everything he couldn't have this person have it.

In their previous life, the death of the old marshal, the current marshal and the rest of Long Juedi's family members is not done by Pei Jin. They died because that's what they are fated to be. It was just that he had fallen in love with the heroine, Haerin, that's why he went against Long Juedi. There is also the fact that their beasts were meant to clash.

Long Juedi is destined to have light attributed beasts as the protagonist while he only has Ouroboros who is the only known demonic beast. In his previous life no one knew that the Pavilion Master, Xie Yun, was a demonic beast. As the latter had no way to return to his beast form and his master never woke up and they never recognized each other after Xie Hei was reborn as a Beast King.

Branded as a beast tamer who controlled a demonic beast, Pei Jin who wanted to get the love of the heroine betrayed the human race and sided with the beast race. He caused the downfall of the main city. It's just in this life, he had become a true villain who had caused all the deaths that were meant to happen naturally.

Now even killing Long Juedi early was his decision alone. Living one lifetime is tiring. Much less living a bad life all over again. Even though this time he wasn't bullied much, and he had killed everyone from the Pei Clan except himself. The loneliness of being the only one in this world is simply too much for Pei Jin. That's why he was willing to take drastic measures to remove this loneliness and boredom in his heart.

Pei Jin was about to command the death of Long Juedi and have the undead kill him.

"Undead do---Cough!"

Caught off guard he didn't notice that someone had sneaked behind him and stabbed him from behind. Ouroboros also didn't take this human seriously as he is a God that would overlook ants under his line of sight. It's not like his master can die with him being contracted with his godly self that's why he didn't inform Pei Jin as well.

"W-What?" Pei Jin felt pain in his chest because he didn't feel like he was dying.

The one who stabbed him is none other than Long Tian who had just arrived and witnessed the scene of short exchange of words between his son, Long Juedi and this little devil, Pei Jin. When he heard that this little bastard wanted to kill his son, without any hesitation he wanted to kill Pei Jin before he could make a move.

Long Tian said, "You cannot kill my son! You damn devil!!!"

Long Juedi and the rest didn't expect for Long Tian to appear here except for Beastman Heri who had foreseen the death of this marshal.

"Dad!?" Long Juedi calls.

Heri panicked for another reason. "Get away! He is the cause of your death!"

Long Tian heard the voice of the only adult beastman in the crowd with his son and recognized him as the prophet of the Beastman Race as well as the biological brother of the Beastman leader, Hezi.

The marshal warned, "Back away!"

Pei Jin looks at Heri and finally recognizes him as one of the fathers of the Heroine, the prophet of the Beastmen Race, Heri. He is supposed to be dead the day his existence in the main city was exposed and be killed by the marshal of the human race. But in the end, he and his partner, the former king of elves survive thanks to the direct interference of Mo Minkong, the Beast God.

Pei Jin had always thought that it was weird for the beast god guarding the Barren Land's core region to appear in the human city. He just thought that the changes in the plotline was a butterfly effect of his rebirth. The existence of a prophet is an annoyance as regardless of how the future changes he can see it as well.

Pei Jin's thoughts upon seeing Heri: 'This prophet must be killed or he would be annoying in the future.'

Ouroboros, who heard his thoughts, asked, "Do you want me to do it?"

'No. You cannot be exposed for now. I will kill him myself!'

"Undead. Kill all the living in the area!" Pei Jin commanded.

The undead who was at standby without doing anything had finally started moving and ran towards the scent where the living was. Upon seeing this, the adults continue to push the struggling children to the ancient forest. Even though Ouroboros didn't appear, he had made a move and controlled the darkness which is the closest element to his power. The small opening in the wooden wall was suddenly blocked by some kind of gray film which prevented others from escaping.

"Huh? The door is blocked by something!"

"I can't enter! Stop pushing!"

"He must have done something. I need to ask the help of the elder shamans!" Heri said as he used a flare which his race used to call for reinforcement. He uses red to signify an emergency.

The former elf king, Vega took the vanguard with Long Kian protecting the others behind.

"Don't move and stay behind us!"

Vega used his bow and added wind elemental and natural energy in it. He raised it pointing towards the sky and what followed afterwards is a rain of wind arrows and natural energy that accelerated growth on the land purifying the taint the undead had brought. There are at least a hundred of arrows in that attack and was enough to impede the march of the undead in their group. He also took the highest point and pointed an arrow at Pei Jin who was fighting with Pei Jin.

Pei Jin felt the incoming danger towards him and dodge while blocking the attack of the marshal. He is annoyed how he is besieged like this with just two people.

Pei Jin shouted, "Dammit! You damn fake elf! You should be dead together with that prophet!!"

"Hah! It's not possible for you to kill them. They are family with the Beast God from the Barren Land," The Marshal said as he tried his best to kill this brat.

For some reason, despite the young and immature vessel of the latter, it possessed a lot of strength and could even overwhelm him with power. Because of this, he had to concentrate not to fall among the undead or to get blasted away by this boy's attack.

"Argh! You guys are so annoying!" Shouted Pei Jin who was so annoyed that he couldn't understand why can't kill them as easily as those useless bastards of the Pei Clan.

"Shadow! Help me kill this old man!"

This command allowed Shadow who was hiding in his master's shadow to appear and started fighting with the marshal working together with Pei Jin. Those who were on the ground were still fighting against the undead and couldn't help the marshal.

Long Kian shouted in anger, "Unfair! Two vs. One!"

"Do not think that only shadow is my subordinate!" Pei Jin summoned the other undead kings.

Now with another two Undead Kings and shadow working to fight against Long Tian they are finally able to suppress him. Of course! They left the last attack which is the killing one to their master.

"DAD!!" Long Juedi shouted as he saw Pei Jin stabbed his dad multiple times on the chest.

Chapter 1874: 24.135 Sixth Violet Star - The Marshal's Death

Clearly, Pei Jin avoided the vitals to let Long Tian have a slow death and fall in front of Long Juedi's eyes. The three from the Long Family couldn't help but focus on catching the fallen figure of Long Tian. Seeing this, the elf king Vega had no other choice but to support them as they caught the marshal in their arms and carried him to safety. Pei Jin didn't stop them from taking the wounded Long Tian nor did he ask the undead to stop attacking them. He just watched the scene with mirth in his eyes.

Long Juedi cradles his father with tears in his eyes. Long Tian, covered in multiple wounds, stopped himself from puking blood and slowly stretched his hand to wipe his son's tears with a smile.

"Jue'er, you must... stay strong. My... death is not... your fault. Do not... blame yourself."

"Dad... Dad, I don't like this! I don't! Grandpa is gone. You can't be gone too!" Long Juedi said as he held the big hand of his father which is now slowly turning cold.

Long Tian said, "Be...strong. Don't... be defeated... by something... evil." Long Tian said to his son and finally looked at his elder brother.

"B-brother..."

"Hm?"

"My position... Do not... take it. Jue'er and... Teng'er... Only have you... now," said Long Tian.

Long Kian understood the meaning of his younger brother's words. In the first place, he doesn't fit that kind of job in which he is willing to give up everything for the human race. He can only make sacrifices for his family alone. His tears lingered at the corner of his mouth as he tried his hardest to control it.

He said with a hoarse voice while holding the other hand of his brother, "I know. I will protect them. I will definitely protect them with my life! I promise you!"

"Thank you... Big brother," Long Tian finally took his last breath as the life in his eyes faded and the pain in the heart of his remaining family could not be held back.

"N-No... NO! DAD!!!" Long Juedi shouted as he hugged his father's corpse.

Pfft!

This tragic scene was disrupted by Pei Jin who suddenly let out a laugh. He was looking at Long Juedi with extreme ecstasy in his eyes as he saw his pain, sadness and anger. These are the very same eyes Long Juedi would use to glare at him. This is what he wanted to see.

Long Juedi glared at Pei Jin afloat in the sky, "What the hell are you laughing at!?"

"Hahaha~. Of course, I am laughing at you! This is it... This was supposed to be your fate! The death of the Long Clan members. They were all destined to be dead. There are still two left~ if I also kill them I wonder how much would you change~" Pei Jin said.

Long Kian couldn't help but pull the two youngsters of his family behind him while calling Pei Jin names, "MADMAN!"

"Of course, I am insane! I wouldn't have become like this if my family only treated me like you. If they loved me, if they didn't kill my mother, if only I wasn't jealous of your happy family. If only your grandfather or father isn't so overprotective of you. If only you had lived my life and I lived yours. I won't become like this!"

Pei Jin looked like he had finally completely lost it. He was saying words out of his control as if pouring all his heart out for them. However, they didn't sympathize with him. Who would destroy someone else's family just because yours is not good and you are jealous of someone else? Only one that is not of the right mind would do such a thing.

Long Teng said, "But that is not a right reason for you to harm our family!? We got nothing to do with you!"

He shouted in anger. The pain of losing not only his grandfather but also seeing his only uncle die in front of him is too much to bear and the culprit was someone so powerful that he couldn't even take revenge for their deaths. Just how unfair the world is, to give power to such an evil man!

Pei Jin said, "Indeed, I have nothing to do with you? But... Who cares~ I targeted you because I feel like it. There is no other reasons~"

"You Lunatic!" Long Teng shouted as his father was stopping him from fighting Pei Jin.

His son is far too weak compared to this little devil who can even fly when no other beast master is supposed to do so. If there is a difference between them then it could only be the evil Beast God on his side. Even though it's an evil beast. A god is still a god. It would make its master closer to such a being as well.

Sigh~

Pei Jin looked bored, "I am actually getting bored already? Nothing new is happening~"

All of the sudden, the Evil Beast God in his mind shouted, 'Dodge to the right, Xiao Jin!'

Pei Jin was caught off guard but still was able to dodge to his right. The next moment he knew, someone appeared behind him trying to punch him. The punch was powerful enough to make his undead in that area to explode

BOOM!

"Oh~ you dodge that. Not bad~" the man who suddenly appeared and attacked him said.

Pei Jin distanced himself from this man who looked like in his late twenties. Arrogance and aggressiveness, this is what this man with an attractive face emits naturally.

The one who arrives is none other than Ancient God An Shizhe, the World Eater.

He said, "Brat, bring out that beast hiding in your body. There is something I wanted to check~."

"Who the hell are you old man?!" Pei Jin shouted.

However, the World Eater had no interest in this child at all ignoring his words. "Show him to me, if not..." He suddenly once again appeared behind Pei Jin and unhesitatingly kicked the boy.

Pei Jin blocked this kick with both his arms and flew far away even hitting a few buildings in the vicinity.

"If not I can only beat you up until it comes out~" Ancient Lord An Shizhe said while whistling as if entertained by how much the kid flew far with one kick but is not even dead after losing his two arms from that attack.

The World Eater commented, "You are quite beatable~."

The remaining Long Clan members recognize An Shizhe and were shocked to see this person who had disappeared after leaving the Long Clan and heading to the Barren Lands with Long Huang that one time. It was said that the couple had bid their farewell to Long Huang and Long Juedi in the Barren Lands and gave the boy a map which allowed them to gather high grade beast eggs for the human race.

Long Juedi calls, "Senior An?"

"Hello, kid! It seems the beast egg we had chosen for you hasn't hatched yet. No wonder you are so helpless against the brat!" Ancient Lord An Shizhe frowned when he saw the dead body of Long Tian in the hands of the child.

He commented, "We tried to change your fate when you were young and prevent your grandfather and father from dying. In the end, they couldn't escape their destiny."

"So father is truly dead?" Long Kian asked in shock. His brother didn't mention their father and he hoped that the little devil was only feeding them lies. Who would have thought that the old marshal who is considered a legend to be truly dead.

Ancient Lord An Shizhe answered honestly, "He is gone. Not even a body was left for him to be buried."

"Senior... Senior An, can you revive my grandfather and father? You are a god too aren't you?!" Long Juedi asked.

However, he is already crossing the line. After all, Ancient Lord An is not from the human race. Helping their clan before is only because they had saved them before they were born. All debts from before had been repaid, that's why Senior Hunluan and Senior An finally left when they had fulfilled their promise of giving Long Juedi the most suitable beast egg for him.

As expected, the air around Ancient Lord An Shizhe turned icy and even looked at them with emotionless eyes.

"Kid, I am not your god, nor do I have an ability to revive someone who is dead. I only know how to kill."

These words sent shivers to those who recognize him. The former elf king and the beastmen prophet also trembles under this cold gaze. They felt suffocations looming above their head making it hard for them to breathe.

Meanwhile, at some distance...

Pei Jin stood up among the ruined buildings and looked down on his healing arms with a hideous look on his face.

He growled in anger, "Who the hell is that old bastard!?"

'Be careful. That is a God much more powerful than the Beast God that you know. It's an Ancient God from the world beyond this one. Let me out. You will die if you don't let me go out and protect you.'

"Is there no other way?" Pei Jin was reluctant in letting Ouroboros out.

Not because this demonic beast is weak but because he is too powerful. He didn't want the battle to be done so easily.

Ouroboros said, 'If you don't want to get devoured by the divinity in front of you, you can only let me fight him. At least I am stronger than this god. Moreover, there is another one watching from the darkness.'

"Alright. I know. I will let you fight them!" Pei Jin only flew back to the sky after his arms had fully regenerated.

Chapter 1875: 24.136 Sixth Violet Star - Coercion of the Evil Beast God

The coldness in Ancient God An Shizhe's left all the living in the area dumbfounded. Even for Long Juedi who mostly couldn't understand the world felt fear towards these seniors he revered. Trembling under the emotionless eyes of the World Eater, Long Kian pulled his nephew behind him and kneel before Lord An Shizhe and apologize.

Long Kian said, "Ancient Lord An, please forgive this child's rudeness. He didn't mean anything with his words."

"There won't be a second time." The World Eater said.

He looked at the undead under his feet numbering at least more than a thousand and frowned after smelling their rotting scent.

Ancient God An Shizhe spoke, "Such disgusting scent... if my child noticed it he would definitely hate it. Let it disappear. Devour it, Gluttony!"

A few black violet shadows that look like dragons eat all the undead in the area in an instant. The land littering with many undead disappeared without a trace.

Tsk!

"This thing barely has any energy in it. Is it because it's undead? Blergh~ I feel sick as if I ate something bad," said Ancient God An Shizhe "Mortals go inside the wooden walls. What is blocking must be undone by my disciple. Get the children inside. It would be bad if my son wakes up from all this noise."

When everyone turned around they saw the hole in the wooden walls covered in a dark veil disappeared.

"Get inside!" Beastmen Heri said.

Long Kian carried his son and nephew entering the wooden walls. As expected, the moment they entered inside the Ancient Forest they saw Ye Xiajie in his body as a young boy in this world. He had round silver eyes on his head and was staring at them with beast eyes.

"Get in but do not run around inside the forest. There's a lot of wild beasts there. Huh? Who is there?"

The first one to notice him is Vega, who is sensitive with presence. Even though this young nephew of his tries his presence with the shadows, the powerful aura within him cannot be ignored.

The former elf king calls, "Xiao Ye, you are awake?"

"Uncle Vega, Uncle Heri, tell them not to be too noisy. Jing'er is sleeping. I will also close the hole in the walls now. Before more of those lingering disgusting scents spread inside the forest," said Ye Xiajie.

The Sovereign God of Void and Darkness stares at Haerin who was worrying about Long Juedi who is still hugging his father's dead body and frowned.

He said, "Humans, the scent of blood cannot linger in the forest. You will summon all beasts in this area."

Hearing the cold voice of Ye Xiajie, the children all started crying which made the Sovereign God's eyebrow twitch in irritation.

Tsk!

"So noisy," said Ye Xiajie intending to burn Long Tian's body into ashes.

But his hand was stopped by Heri, who looked scared but still made this move.

"Xiao Ye, you cannot just turn someone's family's corpse into ashes without permission," Heri said.

Ye Xiajie stared at Heri and the fire in his hand disappeared.

"Alright, it's only because you are Dad's brother. I am willing to listen," said Ye Xiajie. "But that brat can get all mushy with Haerin, our little sister cannot be with someone who cannot even protect himself!"

Seeing a young boy a bit older than Long Juedi pointing at him with such disdain in his eyes, adding up the words he had spoken, everyone looked at Long Juedi and the little girl who was wiping his tears with her sleeves. They looked like sweet childhood sweethearts, at least in the eyes of adults. But for the young lady's brothers, like Ye Xiajie, Long Juedi is like a kidnapper who wanted to steal their sister. No wonder Ye Xiajie was acting so unfriendly towards them.

Haerin pouted upon hearing her elder brother's words. "Xia-gege, so noisy. Don't bully my little brother!"

"I'm going to kill that brat," mumbles Ye Xiajie while Beastman Heri held back the boy.

Beastman Heri said, "Calm down. Honey, help me." But when he turned around he saw his mate looking at Long Juedi with the same unfriendly face as their nephew.

The former elf king, Vega grumbles, "I didn't notice it before. Is this little bastard planning to take away my daughter? It's better to throw him out."

"Agreed. Since that little devil is outside, just throw him towards him and that ends everything," Ye Xiajie said.

Long Kian and Beastman Heri were trying to hold back the two lunatics while Long Teng and the other children were laughing at the side. Though they couldn't understand the content of the conversation, the reactions of the adults still look comical in their eyes.

"Calm down. That's just a boy. He still cannot steal your daughter," Long Kian said.

The former elf king, Vega, retorted, "It might be a little piglet for now, once it grows into a pig, it will steal my sweet cabbage(daughter)!"

"Uncle Vega, let's butcher it," Ye Xiajie declared.

As the situation beyond the wooden walls is going well, Pei Jin, who was kicked away before, has finally come back and shown himself before the World Eater. Unlike the state of Pei Jin which seems to be untouchable, he is now missing two sleeves from his clothes. The broken arms had been regenerated glaring at Ancient God An Shizhe as if thinking how he should be killed by him.

Pei Jin said, "Old man, you made me angry! I'm going to make sure you will pay for harming me! Ouroboros, Come out!"

Under the command of the young master of the Pei Clan, Pei Jin, a three head black dragon had come out. This is the first time the Evil Beast God had shown itself after it hatched. Even though it's a recently hatched beast god, its size and strength is already at the realms of the gods and this world is unable to restrict its existence as it was considered a necessary evil by the world itself.

ROAAR~

A towering three headed dragon roared upon its first summon which was heard by everyone in the main city and ancient forest. Now everyone had felt the pressure it had released. It never cared about anything, especially the mortals. That's why when it first came out it spread its aura without hesitation. It pressured everything near it and its aura affected the whole city and even the ancient forest beside it.

For Ancient Gods like Lord An Shizhe this pressure is simple. It didn't affect him much. Normally, all kinds of aura is useless against him, but now for some reason even he was suppressed with surprise. Among those who are not affected by this aura, there are only three of them. The Ancient God of Chaos Hunluan, the Sovereign God of Void and Darkness Ye Xiajie and the all powerful God of Destruction, Hei Anjing. If the World Eater had absorbed the stone from before he wouldn't be affected as well.

Because he wanted to test the ability of the outsider that he didn't absorb the stone from the God of Destruction leading to this result.

Ugh~

"Is this why Jing'er said to absorb that stone? This must be the power from the cosmos beyond. A power even he didn't know about. Interesting~" The World Eater mumbles.

At the Military Compound, all other races had gathered even Mu Liao who had just returned and heard about the tragic news about his father's death had gathered in one room. In this room, only the leaders of each race and their partners had gathered. At this point they still haven't felt the coercion of Ouroboros descent. The current King of Elves, Valerion, the new leader of the human race, Mu Liao, the leader of the Beastmen Race, Huzi and his mate, Mo Minkong, the beast god, the leader of the dwarf race, Garan.

They had all gathered in one place and all of this is because of the invitation of the human marshal, Long Tian, who happens to not be here. The leaders of the other races were frowning, learning that the one who had summoned them is not around and was even replaced by someone they don't deem worthy of his position. Among the four races, only Huzi and Mo Minkong were calm and did not involve themselves in the conversation..

Dwarf King Garan hit the table with his fist leaving traces of crack on it and started complaining with a grumpy tone.

He said, "Where the hell is A'Tian?! He called us here for a meeting for what? Undead appearing on the territory of the humans? Who is so insane to do such a thing?!"

"That Hideous Undead race! No wonder the scent of this land is awful. So it's because of them?" Elf King Valerion said while covering half of his face with his sleeves.

Mu Liao retorted towards the dwarf king, "Complaining to me is useless! I don't even know where Long Tian went. Moreover, who told him to give his position to me!? I don't want it at all!" Mu Liao complained.

Huzi, the Ninetailed Beastman leader, spoke with a sarcastic tone.

"You guys haven't changed at all. Still fighting with no other reasons and wasting time. Do you think the Evil Beast God will wait for us to finish this meeting? He would most likely kill the former human leader by how much time you had wasted!"

"Damn Fox! Watch how you speak!" The Dwarf King Garan shouted. He had always been hot tempered.\

ROAAAR~

All of the sudden they suddenly heard a loud roaring coming from somewhere and heavy pressure landing on them. The kings of elves, dwarfs and the new marshal all fell face first on the table and couldn't move at all. Huzi almost suffered the same fate if not for his mate protecting him even though Mo Minkong also suffered some damage. But thanks to the blessings of the Ancient God of Chaos and the God of Destruction, they didn't get affected by the coercion from the roar of the Evil Beast God and could somehow still move.

UGH!

"Is this the presence of the Evil Beast God!?"

"How could it be so powerful!?"

Chapter 1876: 24.137 Sixth Violet Star - Ancient Gods are hard to kill.

The sudden presence of the Evil Beast God had caught everyone's attention. Whether they are in the human race's main city or in the Ancient Forest. This is how powerful his presence is in this world.

At the military compound, the four leaders of their respective races all felt the pressure the Evil Beast God had just released. Though it didn't last that long, that coercion was enough to make the Beast God, Mo Minkong frowned with discomfort.

Mo Minkong, who was frowning, stood up and looked out the window towards the direction of the Evil Beast God, and let out a loud roar. A sound only a monstrous bear beast can shout. This roaring shook the whole island but it caused the pressure released by the Evil Beast God to fade.

Almost everyone inside the room was dumbfounded, they didn't expect that the gentle looking and handsome man like Mo Minkong would be able to let out a monstrous roar that is not weaker than the one that forced them to fall on where they are. It seems that Beast God Mo Minkong intentionally did that to negate the coercion allowing everyone to be able to move again and breathe without problems.

The Ninetailed fox beastman, Huzi, didn't expect his mate to react this way. It was as if he was worried about something.

"Dear, what's wrong?" Huzi, the Beastmen Leader, asked.

Mo Minkong said, "Wife, we need to go back. That coercion just now. I felt it from the direction of the Ancient Forest!"

"What!?" Huzi was so shocked that his eyes widened in disbelief and even his fangs were revealed at this moment.

"Are children staying in the forest? We must return now!" Huzi said.

The two were in such a hurry that they didn't even bid farewell to the other leaders of the other races. Their figure disappeared from the meeting room, the moment they learned that their home might be in danger. The beings left behind in the room were speechless as well.

They can barely move when the Evil Beast God makes a move and if not for the Beast God beside the Leader of the Beastmen, they would most likely have to suffer more.

Mu Liao said, "Let's forget about the past problems between our races. If the Beast God from the Ancient Forest cannot defeat the Evil Beast God, we must make plans for the future."

"What should be done? I have no problem with working together for the safety of the world." The current Elf King, Valerion said.

The Dwarf King, Garan, snorted and said, "Us dwarfs will never run from a fight!"

"Then after the Beastmen race Leader and his mate return we should talk about the alliance of our four races. The common enemy will be the Evil Beast God and the Beast Race,"

Mu Liao said.

"Agreed!"

"Since there is nothing much to do right now. We will help you clean up the remaining undead in this city."

"It is also better to make an alliance building and a centralized school for all our children to interact with each other."

"Let's make a plan for those things needed by the alliance."

While the three leaders of the other races had made an agreement of alliance. The World Eater is having a face to face confrontation with the Evil Beast God. He was surprised to feel a bit of suppression he had never felt before except from his wife, the Ancient God of Chaos, Hunluan.

However, instead of confusion or fear, what appeared on Lord An Shizhe's face is more of excitement with hints of ecstasy in those deep purple eyes of his. Gluttony is attracted to those powers which can greatly increase its strength. After all, he only needs to eat it to gain their power. That is him and his ability as someone born with the power to devour.

"You've revealed yourself. Aren't you afraid of being devoured by me?~" The World Eater spoke as countless dragon heads bigger than the size of the Evil Beast God appeared around him.

These aren't real dragons but simply his gluttony taking the shape his master had wanted. Their life is connected to the Ancient God itself and wouldn't completely disappear unless the World Eater, Lord An Shizhe dies. Everything it chomped will be devoured by its ability, turning its power as if it was his own.

This was Pei Jin's first time seeing a God fight. Just the fact that this man flies without hardship or the fact that his aura can turn into living things or that his presence felt dangerous, made him feel a bit frightened. However, when he looked at his beast who was calm in face of such heaven defying beings, he had also calmed down.

The Evil Beast God, Ouroboros narrows its eyes at the sight of An Shizhe and recognizes the power he is using.

"The power of gluttony. Are you the brethren of the Ancient God of Chaos?" Ouroboros asked. "I heard that the Ancient God of Chaos is supposed to be dead. If his brother is still alive it means he isn't dead. Then how come only one guardian is protecting your cosmos?"

"My son's guess is correct. You are indeed a foreign individual from beyond our cosmos. However, how are you able to sneak into our cosmos?" The World Eater asked.

Though he didn't know much about the world beyond the cosmos and the details of such outsiders, he had heard at least that these outsiders aren't supposed to be able to enter this cosmos as they were born from a different one.

Ouroboros answered, "Of course, purebloods from our cosmos can enter. But those who are able to make a child with the beings of your world and make it our own was enough to make a clone that allows us to sneak inside this cosmos. Moreover, there is something wrong with your Cosmos's Guardian."

A sudden seriousness was painted on the World Eater's face. If there is something wrong with their cosmos guardian then things will not be simple. After all, the current guardian of their cosmos is their son, the God of Destruction, Hei Anjing.

Ancient God An Shizhe asked, "What do you mean?"

"After our lord killed his partner, he had never rested and stood at the boundaries with his domain activated all this time. There are even rumors that he had fallen asleep and currently only his domain puppets are protecting your cosmos. There are also rumors that he is about to die as well."

"When that happens, then your cosmos, all universes, all worlds will become ours~"

The foreign god in this Evil Beast God had fully angered the World Eater. All Ancient Gods had reason for existence. The Ancient God of Origin which signifies the beginning and the Ancient God of End which signifies the endpoint. The Ancient God of Chaos is the purest source of power. It had both bad and good effects. The World Eater was born to devour barren worlds for a new star to be born. As for the God of Destruction, he who is born to become the most powerful Ancient God in existence was born to protect the cosmos.

"You talk too much. Everything will be over as long as you are destroyed. However, seeing that you know a lot of things, you should be captured instead." The World Eater said.

HAAHAHA~

"I wonder~ why the possessor of the power of gluttony believes he can defeat me~"

The Evil Beast God and the World Eater had finally started clashing. The collision of their attacks creates space cracks within this star and if they go even beyond this level of power, this star itself might be destroyed by these two.

Even though the World Eater is currently weaker than this foreign god, it doesn't mean he will be easily defeated by such a newly born Evil being. It took a few hours of clashes for the area to be in complete ruin much cleaner than the situation in the east region where Mu Liao came from.

The World Eater can barely leave a serious wound on the Evil Beast God. This itself was surprising. Meanwhile, Ancient Lord An Shizhe seems to be in a much worse state compared to the Evil Beast God. The difference in the capabilities of their vessels, the restriction of the world and that unknown power that can even steal his strength just by short contact is a huge problem. If only Lord An Shizhe had obediently absorbed the silver stone that was given to him by the God of Destruction his situation would not be this dire.

Pei Jin was delighted seeing the old bastard that thrashed him around before looking more miserable at his current state.

He said, "Ouroboros, kill him! He dared to kick me before. The debts must be repaid."

"He cannot be killed. This is not his real body but only his soul. Even if I kill him, it's not possible to do so. Ancient Gods are so hard to kill." Ouroboros said.

Pei Jin throws tantrums, "No! I hate this old man! If he cannot be killed. Let's just cripple him!"

"...Good Idea~" said Ouroboros.

Chapter 1877: 24.138 Sixth Violet Star - Done something you shouldn't have.

The world eater didn't expect that he couldn't even kill this Evil Beast God with his gluttony. This hasn't happened before. However, he had to acknowledge that his current state cannot be considered his peak strength as he just recently got reborn. What left him confused is that he couldn't even devour the power of this foreign soul.

Moreover, this mortal's body is weighing him down, he can barely use his abilities afraid that this body might die before he can even complete the Mateship Ceremony with his other half, Hunluan. Covered in wounds, Ancient God An Shizhe can feel the pain and stiffness of his vessel.

The World Eater's thoughts at this moment, 'This vessel is too tired. I can't fight properly this way. Should I absorb the stone?'

As the World Eater was thinking what should be done at this point, he was suddenly captured by the Evil Beast God who transformed into his human form. This Evil Beast God had an adult human form as a young man in his twenties.

Restricted by spatial distortion, the World Eater frowned. He tried to devour the space itself but it barely moved under his abilities. It seems to be a higher dao of space which is something only beyond the cosmos can be found. The power to control the cosmos itself, though this Evil Beast God had no full control over it using it with some elements strengthened one's control over that element. It makes the opponent deflect his attack. That's why the World Eater's gluttony cannot devour the space around him. As it's a power beyond Chaos itself.

Pei Jin chuckles, "Old man I will make you taste what it is like to be a cripple!"

"Heh~ stupid brat! Do you truly think this little pet of yours is undefeatable? How ignorant~" said the World Eater, Ancient God An Shizhe. His tone is clearly a taunt and this is extremely useful for arrogant children like Pei Jin who thinks he is the top of the world after being reborn.

The smile on Pei Jin's face faded and said, "Ouroboros, break his right leg!"

Cracks!

Groans~

"Haha~ Is this it? That's all you can do?" The World Eater said while looking at Pei Jin like he is a fool but was still smiling arrogantly amidst the pain.

This level of pain is useless against the World Eater. After all, like Hei Anjing he also possessed an immortal physique and his body wouldn't die even if it was borrowed. It's just that compared to his original body the healing might be slower but the pain is still real. Getting used to a broken body and death, the family of Hunluan had a high tolerance for pain. Even if one broke all the bones in their body they wouldn't even scream and groaning might be the least you can hear from them. Especially for the God of Destruction, even if his heart was dug out he won't react much at all as he couldn't truly die and pain is just numbness for him.

Pei Jin got angry as this is not the reaction he wanted to see.

"Argh~ Break his other leg and his arms!"

Cracks! Cracks. Cracks!

"Hm~ this pain. It's been a while since I felt it. Not a bad thing at all~ it helps clear the mind."

Ancient God An Shizhe commented as both his arms and legs were hanging loosely clearly broken but the owner of these limbs are acting nonchalant about it.

"Insane! What the hell are you? Can you not feel pain!?" Questioned Pei Jin.

This is the first time he had seen someone like this. He had tortured a lot of people before and breaking their bones one by one is the most effective torture but this old man is not even screaming in pain and was even smiling. If not for his cold sweat and paleness, he would have thought he doesn't feel it at all.

The World Eater responded to the child's question.

"Pain? There is. It's just that when you get too used to it. It becomes as natural as breathing."

"Crazy! You're a pervert!" Pei Jin screamed in disbelief. "Can we just kill him? He is giving me a bad feeling?"

The Evil Beast God who was acting like tool for torture looked at his little master and sighed. Actually, he was thinking that he had seen or felt this scene a bit familiar. It's just that he couldn't remember where. He also notices the other Beast God who was born in this world but unlike himself, whose duty is to destroy this world under the command of his master, this Beast God's duty is to protect the world from destruction. In short, they are meant to become enemies in the end.

The one who had arrived were Huzi, the Ninetailed Fox Beastman Leader and his mate, the Beast God of the Barren Land, Mo Minkong. The couple was surprised to see the Evil Beast God in his human form, the human child that commands it and that senior they had met before was so powerless before the Evil Beast God.

Huzi calls, "Senior An!?"

Mo Minkong made a move and attacked the Evil Beast God, Ouroboros. With the blessing of the world, even though Ouroboros is the destined evil beast, he can still be pressured by the power of this world's protector. Seeing this Pei Jin panicked as he didn't expect that there is another Beast God aside from his beast.

Under everyone's gaze, Mo Minkong transformed into his beast form, the World Chaos Bear. It possessed a black fur glistening with some kind of silver light as if his fur was made of galaxies itself. He used his big paws to force the two afloat to fall from the sky to the land. The impact was so powerful that a bear paw crater was left on the ground.

However, Pei Jin and the Evil Beast God were unharmed by that attack which made Mo Minkong who lifted his paw frowning as he didn't expect this newly born beast god possessed enough strength to block his attack.

Mo Minkong said, "What the hell are you? Why are you stronger than the power of Chaos?"

"As expected to a beast born from chaos and blessing of the world. You are quite sensitive to energy. That's right I am an outsider this world had created to become a villain. I can even kill you~" Ouroboros said.

His hand turned into a big dragon claws intending to slashed the huge bear in front of him. Mo Minkong was on guard when all of the sudden, the figure of Ouroboros who is supposed to be fighting Mo Minkong appeared before Huzi and was about to attack him. Everyone was caught off guard.

Ouroboros said, "Killing this mortal is more useful against you than attacking you!"

"HU'ER!!" Mo Minkong tried to save his mate but Ouroboros was too close.

The World Eater upon seeing this scene was also panicked. This is one of the mortals his son likes in this world. If something happens to this one, he will definitely be angry and this world will be gone for good.

However, before the claws of Ouroboros had landed his shadows had restrained him completely and a young man stood before Huzi staring at the Evil Beast God with crimson eyes.

Huzi calls in disbelief, "X-Xiao Ye?"

"Stay back, Dad," Ye Xiajie said. As for Mo Minkong he returned to his human form and stayed by his mate's side. He was terrified by the fact that he had almost lost his mate just now.

The World Eater felt relief and complained, "Damn disciple! Why didn't you come out when this old man was in danger?!"

"Master is at fault. Jing'er told you to absorb the stone and you didn't, which landed you in such a state. Serves you right. You won't die anyway," Ye Xiajie retorted as he healed Lord An Shizhe and freed him from the restrain of the space.

The Evil Beast God used half of his qi to break free from those shadows. He tried to take control over it but it wouldn't budge. It was at this point that Ouroboros realized that this young man in front of him can control the energy of Cosmos like himself.

Ouroboros was stunned as he didn't feel this young man's move. Though he had seen him watching, he had never expected him to make a move and possessed enough strength to block his attack.

Pei Jin shouted, "Who the hell are you?!!"

"You've done something you shouldn't have," The Sovereign God of Void and Darkness said.

His crimson eyes glowed for a moment and the two legs of Pei Jin had exploded in the mist of blood but Ye Xiajie frowned as his intention was to kill this villain but the world itself had prevented him from doing so.

AHHHH!!

"Ouroboros, my legs! Heal my legs! It hurts!!!" Pei Jin shouted in pain.

Seeing the situation, Ouroboros finally felt the pressure of Ye Xiajie's presence. He had a feeling he had seen this man before but he couldn't recall where he had seen him. The cries of his master were annoying and tried to heal his missing legs. But for some reason his ability is not working on his young master.

Ye Xiajie said, "Stop wasting your time. Those legs will never regrow unless you reincarnate with a new body."

Chapter 1878: 24.139 Sixth Violet Star - You smell different.

The Sovereign God of Void and Darkness uses blood manipulation to make the legs of Pei Jin explode into a blood mist and corrupted his blood preventing it from healing in any way possible. When Pei Jin heard about such information his face turned pale white and even the Evil Beast God was dumbfounded. It tried to heal his little master's legs but like the young man had said something was preventing his power to cure it.

Ye Xiajie spoke, "One wanted to harm our dad and the other crippled my master. That should be enough punishment for you."

Pei Jin's reaction to his words was insanity. He screamed like a madman while glaring at the Sovereign God of Void and Darkness. Because of his uncontrollable emotions, he poured almost all of his qi to Ouroboros who was forced to enter a berserk state due to his master's mental state.

"Kill. I'm going to kill you! Ouroboros, kill him. Kill him!!" Pei Jin commanded.

Controlled by the contract and sudden surge in qi, the Evil Beast God had no other choice but to follow the orders of his little master. His current strength had drastically increased making even Ye Xiajie who was expressionless lightly raised his eyebrows. The World Eater who had just gotten himself healed leans his head on Ye Xiajie's head. The height difference between an adult and a young man is just enough for this scene.

Ancient God An Shizhe said, "Get off! It's heavy, old man!"

"What should we do now? That one doesn't look like it would be easy to repel~" said the World Eater.

The two looked at the Evil Beast God's berserk state but unlike the anxiety in the eyes of Huzi and Mo Minkong, the reaction of the two gods are too calm and composed. Obviously, these two would remain like this even if the world itself was destroyed before their eyes.

Ye Xiajie wanted to say that he can throw them forcefully using the darkness but that will force the night to descend and cause chaos in this world. However, before he could open his mouth, he felt someone's presence coming over. The presence of someone who is supposed to be asleep at this time.

The World Eater noticed the dazed look of his disciple and said, "Brat, are you listening?"

"Master, have you absorbed the stone yet?" The Sovereign God of Void and Darkness asked.

Ancient God An Shizhe responds, "No. Not yet. Why?"

"Master, you reap what you sow," Ye Xiajie said.

The World Eater was so confused that he couldn't understand the word of this annoying disciple of his until he saw the figure of his son appearing in front of the Evil Beast God and Pei Jin, with a grumpy expression on his beautiful face.

How many times are you going to scream? I can't even sleep even if I wanted to." Hei Anjing said as he appeared after being unable to bear the noise beyond the wooden walls.

He had also witnessed this Evil Beast God torturing the World Eater and almost harming his dad in this world. This made his already bad mood even worse.

At first the Evil Beast God thought that this beautiful young boy is just an aborigine which he can nonchalantly kill and was about to wave his hand to attack the God of Destruction. Only when his claws were caught by those small hands that he realized that something had gone wrong. This bad feeling becomes reality when he meets those familiar looking silver irises which are looking down on him.

Ouroboros fell into a state of reminiscence. A scene he could never forget in his life, he didn't even notice that his claw was currently in the small hand of the beautiful young man in front of him slowly getting covered in frost.

Those pair of silver eyes perfectly landed on his figure making him feel so small. He trembles slightly under this gaze. This is his instinctive fear which was engraved in his soul.

Hei Anjing mumbles, "Your soul smells different?"

These words made the Evil Beast God feel extreme danger targeting him and finally noticed his claws covered in ice. He didn't hesitate to cut it off and grabbed his little master to run away. His leaving figure was done with urgency as if escaping from death itself.

The God of Destruction, bored and uninterested in such beings, only glance its fleeing figure a glance and descends to where Ye Xiajie and the others are. He ran to hug Ye Xiajie with a sleepy look.

"Who is that just now? He smells weird~" said Hei Anjing.

Huzi sighs in relief. He was scared when he saw his youngest confronting the Evil Beast God which even his mate is unable to defeat. He is not surprised that his children had appeared as he knew that they were in the ancient forest and any chaos beyond the wooden walls will be felt by them. Ancient God An Shizhe's presence confused him though. Moreover, he just saw him being tortured by the Evil Beast God which he didn't expect.

The Ninetailed fox beastman asked, "Xiao Jing, are you alright? Did that beast hurt you?"

"No. I am fine!" Hei Anjing said as he was taken from his lover and was carried by his dad in this world.

His other father, Mo Minkong, the Beast God was also checking on him. Only when we saw that he had no injuries did he pat Hei Anjing's head gently.

Mo Minkong said, "Next time stay away from strange beasts like the one before. That one is dangerous."

The God of Destruction nodded his head like a good boy and finally looked at the Ancient God An Shizhe who wanted to sneak away.

"Old man, I will tell Senior Hunluan about what you did! You let yourself get torture! I will tell on you!!"
Hei Anjing said.

The World Eater pleads, "Little one, don't! If Hunluan heard this I won't be able to sleep in the bedroom! Also, I was just testing the extent of his ability and..."

"Too late..." The God of Destruction said as he looked at something behind him.

When everyone turned around to look they saw the Ancient God of Chaos, Lord Hunluan with a smile on his usually expressionless face. Upon seeing this smile, the World Eater, An Shizhe, trembles and wants to escape.

"L-Luan'er? I can explain..." Ancient God An Shizhe said.

Before he could run, his ears were grabbed and look at the other couple greeting them. He also thanks the two youngsters who saved the ass of this reckless bull and was teleported back to the Barren Land by System Yue and System Yang who had escorted Hunluan to this place.

After the two seniors left, Huzi's shoulders finally relaxed. He couldn't completely calm down around those two seniors.

He said, "When we saw Lord An being tortured, I thought he was truly unable to fight against the Evil Beast God. Thinking of this, then your father will truly be helpless against that one. Who would have thought that Lord An would even play with his life. This is simply..."

"Master is just being stupid. He will get scolded because of what he did. He will not do it again in the future," said the Sovereign God of Void and Darkness.

The God of Destruction yawned and said, "Are you done with work? Can we go home? I'm sleepy~"

"Alright. Let's go home," said Huzi.

The family of four returned to the Ancient Forest. They had also temporarily arranged a place for the children to stay with Long Kian. As for Long Tian's corpse, it was properly handled and placed in an ice coffin to properly preserve the body until they can prepare for the funeral. Though with how the situation of the human race is, it would be hard to know when the city can be rebuilt.

Meanwhile, the sudden escape of the Evil Beast God had caught even Pei Jin who was supposed to be crying in pain dumbfounded. They flew towards the Barren Land but they had to cross the borders first.

Pei Jin noticed the paleness and hidden fear in Ouroboros' eyes. He has also seen the appearance of the young beastman that suddenly appeared beside them and how those small hands easily caught the huge claws of his beast and handled him so easily. That frost which was still spreading, to save himself Ouroboros cut that hand which was frosted with ice. The bleeding was instantly stopped by him as well.

Ouroboros is thankful that this arm wasn't destroyed like how Pei Jin's legs are. His arm was still able to grow back unlike Pei Jin's legs.

Pei Jin, whose pain and bleeding had eased thanks to his beast help, asked, "Is that him? The Guardian you are talking about? Isn't he too young?"

"That isn't his real body but something he borrowed to descend in this world. The one who took your legs is the same as him. They are from what you call the Upper Realm World." Ouroboros said. "That is truly the guardian. If he wanted to interfere, whatever we wanted to do would be impossible to achieve."

Thinking that he might not be able to kill Long Juedi as he desires made him wear a hideous look on his face.

Pei Jin said, "He might not be interested in this world," He can still recall the bored and languid expression of the God of Destruction when he appeared.

Chapter 1879: 24.140 Sixth Violet Star - Alliance City

Fleeing from the main city, Ouroboros and Pei Jin were welcomed by a group of human beast tamers waiting for them. After receiving the warning from Long Tian about the existence of the Evil Beast God, Commander Gu who had suffered from the clash with the World Eater and the Sovereign God of Void and Darkness, made a thorough preparation enough to defeat a God class opponent. He didn't hesitate to bring out the big weapons.

As soon as they saw two beings flying heading towards the Barren lands, the soldiers who were waiting for their arrival immediately reported to the commander of the borderland.

"Commander, two beings flying through the sky were found. One of them can be identified." The soldier who reported to Commander Gu said.

Commander Gu asked, "Who was it?"

"It's the young master of Pei Clan, Pei Jin," The soldier answered.

Commander Gu mumbles, "So the Pei Clan had betrayed the human race." He had recently got some news from the capital and heard the deaths of the old marshal, Long Huang and the current marshal, Long Tian.

At first, he couldn't believe it. However, seeing another pair of beings that can fly freely in the sky, he can only believe in the existence of the so-called gods.

Commander Gu commanded, "Bring out everything from the warehouse. Use range to attack them. Don't get too close. We might not be able to bring them down. However, we must injure them badly!"

"Yes Sir!!" The soldiers saluted as they all made a move.

Unknown to Pei Jin and his Evil Beast God, Ouroboros, what was waiting for them at the borders was another round of attacks from the human race's heavy weapons.

As soon as they entered the borderlands, countless weapons were fired towards them and the injured state of Ouroboros can barely block this series of attacks from heavy weapons that can easily bring down Beast King grade beings from the Barren Lands.

Pei Jin was dumbfounded, "W-What the hell is happening?!"

"We are under attack by humans," Ouroboros got his scales burned by these heavy weapons. Though this injury is not fatal a series of it is still painful especially for his weakened state.

Urgh~

"Little Master lets us flee to the Barren Lands first. I can't defend against another wave of this kind of weapon in my weakened state," said Ouroboros, who had traces of burns on his scales and limbs.

Upon seeing this Pei Jin finally realized that by facing the guardian, they were not only hopeless but also weakened a lot. It's no wonder Ouroboros runs away as soon as he can move completely, wanting to avoid the one who can easily defeat them.

"Commander, they've escaped! Should we chase?" a soldier asked.

The commander of the borderland responded, "No need. Make preparations to strengthen and increase the height of the walls. Now that the Beast Race will have a leader, it won't be harder to defend against them."

Commander Gu watches as the figure of the two people fades to the depths of the Barren land.

After escaping from the territory of the human race, Ouroboros and Pei Jin head to the Barren Land to rule above the beast race. It took a while before they ruled over the barren land. The Beast Kings were defeated and left their territories escaping for their lives, no one knows where they had gone to. They because they didn't want to serve the Evil Beast God as their leader.

Yes, had passed since the tragedy of the human race had happened. Ever since the main city had been besieged by the undead under the command of the Evil Beast Tamer, Pei Jin, the alliance between the four races had gotten stronger.

The main city had been rebuilt with four races working together. At the core of the city became the alliance's main territory and the main city was further split into four regions. The north region had been handed to the dwarven race. Many blacksmithy stores and weapon stalls had appeared in this region.

The east was given to the Elven race. They had replanted a lot of trees, building treehouses and buildings made of trees. This region became a depot for potions and medicines of all kinds which the elves are good at taking care of plants especially herbs.

The west region where the small island of the military base was moved had become the territory of the human race. This region became well-known for its food and all kinds of inventions. There is also a military ground for training soldiers in this place.

The south region which is the closest to the ancient forest was given to the beastmen race. Though the beastmen race still forbids other races from entering their forest, the south region becomes a place for them to sell beast eggs from their forest. It became the most popular region of the main city and is now called the Alliance City.

Five years had passed since the birth of the evil beast god. It was said ever since Pei Jin and the Evil Beast God stayed in the Barren Lands, the beast race would frequently attack the Alliance City and there would be new beast kings and commanders leading those packs.

Commander Gu, who protects the border land, has been promoted and his position is only second to Mu Liao. He is now called General Gu. The human race was split into two factions. A group led by Mu Liao and made up of Long Tian's people and his newly added subordinates. The other is led by Gu Ling and his troops from the borderland. He is now one of the leading groups in the human race.

His faction is quite strong that even Mu Liao was feeling pressure despite seating on the position as Marshal. However, Mu Liao knew that Gu Ling couldn't accept that he was not even someone from the military to take over the position of the Marshal just because Long Tian had spoken an order for it. General Gu believes he is the most suitable one to sit on the position of marshal after the Long Clan declined with the deaths of the old marshal, Long Huang and the former marshal, Long Tian.

Meanwhile the center region of this land was transformed into a beast taming school for all four races. All youngsters of the four races had to enter this school as a mandatory by the alliance creed made by the four leaders of the four races.

This year, the protagonist is destined to enter this Beast Taming Academy with Haerin. Hei Anjing and Ye Xiajie as representatives of the Beastmen Race were also entitled to enter the school with their little sister, Haerin. There are also rumors that Pei Jin in disguise had entered the academy as well. Pretending to be someone us and his reason for entering is of course, to cause Long Juedi to die which is his sole desire.

The children of that day had now reached the age of 15 to 18 years old and were invited to enter the Beast Taming Academy. There are also some representatives from the other races like the Elven race and Dwarven races. Well, there are also some sneaky adults who entered the academy to watch over the children.

On the first day of school, Long Juedi who had lost all his baby fat looking a bit like a young, handsome young man stood at the entrance of the Beast Taming Academy together with an adorable young lady by his side. These two were Long Juedi and Haerin in their school uniforms. Though it is called a school uniform, it's more like a soldier suit which is made of flexible materials which doesn't restrict one's movement especially when fighting.

Long Juedi stares at the academy where he would be living for a few years before he can officially go to the borders to fight beasts. He is determined to get strong and avenge his father and grandfather who died because of Pei Jin and his Evil Beast God.

Haerin pulled Long Juedi over towards the school, "Jue-gege~ let's go. We will be late for the school's opening ceremony!"

"W-Wait. Don't pull. Also don't run, if you trip your brothers are going to kill me, Rin'er!" Long Juedi said as they ran inside heading for the entrance hall where the opening ceremony will take place.

The Beast Taming curriculum is made up of more lessons in fighting with your contracted beast and anything related to fighting beast. There is also a genius class where children born with purest bloodlines gather.

Those who have pure bloodline or strong bloodline cannot spar with ordinary children as their physical strength, latent abilities, etc. Are cut above par the normal children. To avoid ordinary children from getting hurt due to the big difference in strength, children born with just abilities were placed in the genius class.

Long Tian who is a human and Haerin, who is weaker than both beastmen and elven race were placed in ordinary class.

Chapter 1880: 24.141 Sixth Violet Star - Beast Tamer Academy

Beast Tamer Academy, Entrance Hall.

The opening ceremony for new students is ongoing. All new students from the four races had gathered in this hall. Among these students includes the protagonist of this world, Long Juedi, and the heroine, Haerin. After the day Pei Jin left the human city, the rest of the undead were killed by the alliance of the four races and they slowly rebuilt the main city which is now called the Alliance City where four races live together.

The entrance hall full of students are listening to the opening remarks of the teacher on the stage.

"The Beast Tamer Academy is the only school in the world which teaches how to properly work or fight together with your contracted beast. The difference and type of beast as well as their strength and weakness. We will strive to allow the students to become a real beast tamer who can fight properly on the battlefield."

"The beast race is now taken over by the traitor of the human race, Pei Jin. He had contracted an Evil Beast God and he had become a menace of all races. He wanted to end all the living in this world and his desire for chaos is the strongest as well."

"Students, learn and train properly. The war between the four races and the beast race can happen anytime. Our borders had suffered beast waves in the past few years. However, our land was defended by professional beast tamers and soldiers."

"If you want to protect your family you can only get stronger. If you want to save the weak, you must have enough strength to back up your desires. If you want to fight for your race, then we will teach you how to become a real fighter."

"The Beast Tamer Academy's goal is world peace. To get the peace we wanted, war cannot be a voice. Fight for the future! Fight for your family! Fight for your dreams!"

Some hot-blood students were affected by the remark the teacher on the stage had spoken and cheered along with this man's speech. In the rows of chairs, Long Juedi and Haerin had sat together. The Heroine had both the beauty of elves and the ninetailed fox beastmen bloodline in her veins. Because of it her features were more refined making her possess the elegance of the elves and a bit of seductiveness of a ninetailed fox.

These made most men's eyes fall on her. However, unlike the insecure Heroine in the original plot, Haerin had been living in the ancient forest with her parents. Under the protection of the beastmen tribe and dotiness of the elders and her two elder brothers, Haerin can be said to have grown up no different from a noble princess who can get everything she wants just by asking. Moreover, the God of Destruction and the Sovereign God of Void and Darkness spoils her a lot.

On the other hand, Long Juedi who had grown up in the Ancient Forest was bullied by the two for getting the liking of Haerin. In the beginning, Long Juedi was annoyed by the bullying. Though it's called bullying it's just a simple action like flicking his forehead or pinching his cheeks by the two elder brothers of Haerin. For a boy like Long Juedi who had lost his emotional support after his grandfather and father died, these actions were no different from real bullying.

In the end, when he ran away in anger and almost died in the forest only to be saved by Hei Anjing and Ye Xiajie, he learned that they were only teasing him and didn't truly hate him. It's just the way they treat their young brother and young sister is a complete contrast.

A young sister can be spoiled while a young brother must be trained to stand on his own. So when they, the elder brothers, aren't around it would be the younger brother's turn to protect the younger sister. Moreover, even though the two love to tease Long Juedi about what Haerin gets, he gets the same thing as well. When Haerin got Beast Kings as contracted beast, Long Juedi's beasts were trained by Hei Anjing and Ye Xiajie to have the same potential. He only needs to get stronger so his beast can reach the peak of their potential.

Haerin was so excited looking around in the hall. She was so fidgety that Long Juedi had to hold her hand or she would run off somewhere like a child.

Long Juedi sighed. "Rin'er, calm down. You cannot walk around during the ceremony."

"I won't! I'm looking for my brothers! Jing-gege and Xia-gege are also attending this school. Even though they are only a year older than us, they've just entered the academy this year," said Haerin.

Long Juedi recalled what happened last year, when Haerin heard her brothers are leaving for school and threw a first tantrum of her life. In the end, Jing-gege and Xia-gege chose not to enter the academy last year and ended up entering this year with them.

Haerin asked, "Jue-gege, do you think they would be in the same class as us?"

"That is not possible. Both are direct descendants of Uncle Huzi and Uncle Mo, their strength is even above the teachers of this academy. They can only enter the Genius Class, not an ordinary one like ours," Long Juedi said.

As expected, the teacher announced the one who will be doing the speech for the top of the genius class this year.

"Let us all welcome the top scorer for the Genius Class, Hei Anjing."

Everyone's attention was on the stage. They saw a young man with long black hair braided with an exquisite snowflake pattern hairpiece. He stood straight walking elegantly on the stage while wearing a military uniform that enhanced the shape of his thin waist and supple bottom. With a pair of phoenix eyes and silver irises, he possessed all inherent features of a nine-tailed fox beastmen. Gorgeous and seductive. Adding that mischievous upturned smile at the corner of his cerise lips, his natural charm had seduced both male and female inside the hall.

"Wow~ he's so beautiful~"

"Are those eyes natural?"

"I couldn't even see a single pore on his face!"

"Is she a beastman, why are there no ears or tails?"

"I heard powerful beastmen can fight their features and look exactly like humans."

"He is so young but so powerful."

"Who the hell is this student?"

"He is one of the top scorers from this year's news students from the genius class."

The students in the halls including the teachers were all stunned by the appearance of this student. Not only did he possess a high face value, his aura and strength is obvious to see. Ninetailed Fox is infamous for their charm abilities and illusions. Right now, this young ninetailed fox beastmen had full control over his natural charms attracting all kinds of people in the hall. Of course, this attraction isn't the force or hypnotic one, but a natural charm one can hardly defend against as it is as natural as breathing.

Hei Anjing was used to being the center of attraction, he lightly tapped the microphone on the podium which echoed in the whole hall. For some reason everyone turned silent as if they were commanded. Everyone was shocked in their mind when silence descended in the hall.

Tap

The one on the stage didn't even say a word asking them to be quiet, but just one action for him, they all naturally kept their mouth shut. If it's only one or two then it can only be considered coincidence, but it's everyone who was affected. This shows that the one on the stage possessed a strong charisma to lead a group; his presence is enough to get their attention.

"Good morning, everyone. I am Hei Anjing from the Genius Class. I have nothing much to say. You've entered the academy for a reason. Whether it's personal or something else, only you know. To reach your goal all you need is hard work, and opportunity. Though talent lets you ahead of everyone. In the battlefield, only those who are not afraid of death and persevere can survive. Will you be the hero that protects what you want to protect or be a fool who will die under the claws of those beasts? So, which are you? You have four years to find an answer. That's all I wanted to say. Thank you for listening."

The speech of Hei Anjing was nothing like a taunt nor advice. All he did was speak the truth. In war or on the battlefield, what your ending is doesn't need your background or your talent. What you need is rational thinking and an opportunity to survive. Only those who returned alive will be considered heroes.

There was only silence after the speech was made and Hei Anjing was nonchalant to their reaction and slowly went down to the state where Ye Xiajie was waiting for him. Only after everyone had digested his words that they all shouted that they wanted to be a hero that protected what they wanted to protect. No one wants to be a fool who will only die in war.

A loud and collective applause echoed in the whole ceremony hall. Every student was affected by the words of the God of Destruction striving to become a beast tamer that can fight on the battlefield without dying like a fool.

This speech had also lowered the egos of those from the Genius Class though some of these students don't seem to accept how Hei Anjing belittled their inborn talents which separated them from the ordinary beast tamers.
