

Worlds Plot 401

Chapter 401: 9.20 Second Blue Star - Lord Hei?

Carrying Xue Yan on his back, Fox God Hu Yue left the Village clean up to his servants and Ou Ya. As he said it only took him one hour to arrive in front of the Ghost King's Territory. Before them is a huge ancient mansion that used to look old and barren but now before them are still the same mansion with a slightly modern touch. The former walls with cracks due to age were replaced with a newly painted wall.

The dead trees around the house were all replaced with new ones, there are bushes of full-bloomed black roses outside the mansion climbing on the house walls giving an aesthetic feeling of nature. Though the huge trees gave the land more shaded regions as the owner of the place is the Ghost King who hates the sun. Seeing the modern palace before them Xue Yan and the Fox God was stunned.

Stunned Fox God, "W-What the hell happened here?!" asked Hu Yue in surprise.

The gates suddenly opened and the two were welcomed by Ghost servants wearing butler and maid attire. Though these servants used to wear eunuch robes and palace maid clothes.

Servants with their heads lowered, "Welcome. Fox God and Sire Xue Yan. The Master and the Lord Consort have been waiting for your arrival."

Xue Yan asked, "Excuse me. Is this the Ghost King Palace? Why does it look so... modern?"

"Answering to Sire Xue, this is indeed the Ghost King Palace. But since the Lord Consort is a modern person, the master had renovated the whole place with a modern touch." Answered politely by the servant wearing a butler suit. "Please follow me. I shall escort the guests to the Water Pavilion where the master and the lord consort rest."

Xue Yan and Hu Yue followed the servants inside the palace. They were brought to a pavilion surrounded by a huge pond. There are full bloom plum blossom trees in the area while at the center is an open pavilion. Once they were near the pavilion they heard a mellow voice. It's the heavenly voice of a man singing a tune of a song they haven't heard before. It seems to be an original ancient song.

Everyone who heard the song fell in a trance as if hearing angels singing. The servants seem to be used to it as they still properly lead the two guests to an area of the pavilion, at the center of the place they saw figures of two handsome men in modern clothes. A young man with short white hair with red highlights sat on a fur carpet laid under him. He had phoenix-shaped eyes and crimson irises which showed tenderness as he looked at the sleeping man whose headrest was on his lap. The sleeping man had his eyes closed as he held his lover's hand into his, laid on top of his chest. His slumbering figure looks serene. As his captivating features were barely laid under the beautiful man's tender gaze. It seems that he is enjoying his lover's singing. The servants only escorted the two by a certain distance and instantly lowered their heads standing by the side waiting for further orders from their masters.

Servant butler, "We can only escort you until here. Please go ahead and enter, esteemed guests."

Xue Yan said, "Thank you." Before walking forward to approach his younger brother by the distance. Fox God hesitated for it before following Xue Yan inside the pavilion to where the couple was.

The Ghost King felt their presence the moment they entered his palace but kept a mild reaction as the two guests were the ones they had been waiting for. One is his foolish Fox God subordinate and the other is his wife's elder brother. Xue Hua stopped singing when he saw his elder brother approaching with a fox masked man following behind him. Hovering around him is a glowing moon, this is clearly System Yue who is only visible to a few people.

[Host! They are here. The elder brother of your vessel, Xue Yan, and the Lord's subordinate, the Fox God, Hu Yue.]

Xue Hua spoke with his system through his mind, "Yue, are these two the usual pair?"

[Yes, Host! There are the same souls that are always with you.]

System Yue had informed Xue Hua about the other pair that always come with him and his husband through worlds. The job of this pair is to serve them. They are supposed to be the prisoners and wardens from the Nether System.

"Do you feel any presence of a system like you?"

[Only one. The system is the same as I do. I know him. Its Executioner 44. If I remember correctly he is monitored by a Prisoner called Yun Ming.]

"Yun Ming? This name seems familiar. The other one?"

[Host, he's... I'm sorry, host. I'm not allowed to say.]

"Okay, I understand. Just one question. Is this man's identity greater than your superior?"

[No, Host. His authority is a level lower than the lord and he serves the Lord God directly while I answer to a different person. We don't serve the same Authority.]

Once Xue Hua heard the answer of his system a knowing smile appeared on his face while looking at the pair before them. Ghost King Xie Mo woke up and sat up properly when the two arrived. Like before his expression is cold and arrogant unless he is facing his wife.

Xie Mo looked at Hu Yue, "You are late."

Hu Yue saluted properly in Xie Mo's presence. "Forgive me, My Lord. I wasn't able to attend your wedding. Greetings to My Lord Consort."

Xue Hua gave them his usual mischievous smile, "Hello. Fox God. Brother, I'm happy to see you safe. Fox God must have protected you as usual..."

The three flinched and looked at Xue Hua's smiling figure before them. It's obvious that they were all surprised by what he said. Only the two arrivals really understood what he meant though they've heard that Lord Hei had no memories in this world, for him to know about them might be because of System Yue hovering around him.

Fox God, Hu Yue had the largest reaction. He showed a shocked and excited expression. "My Lord! You're..." but when he saw Xie Mo's bewildered expression and Xue Hua's knowing smile he understood that the beautiful man beside his lord schemed him to speak up. Hu Yue immediately stopped his words on time. "Please forgive my rudeness..."

Xue Hua has been observing the two the whole time. He spoke vague words to catch them off guard on purpose. System Yue who saw the whole scene would be covering his face if he is in humanoid form because of Shen Li's obvious reaction. As expected his smart host threw the bait and caught the targets he wanted to bite.

"Hm~ so he is the one that serves Fujun and the other one..." Xue Hua was staring at Hu Yue at first then moved his gaze to his elder brother who was sitting silently beside that person. "So you aren't my real brother ha?" he asked.

Xue Yan politely replied, "In this world, I am indeed your elder brother. But just in this one, in the original world, your real elder brother is a cousin older than you from your father's side. His name is Hei Jue. He is also the one who tasked me to protect you and the same person who gave you that artifact hanging on your neck."

Looking down Xue Hua touched the plain-looking necklace on his neck, he was silent most of the time as if thinking of something but couldn't remember a thing. Suddenly he felt his headache a bit and held it

THROBS~

"Y-Yue, give me something from the System Mall to block the eyes and ear of the Heavenly laws of this world," said Xue Hua who was still holding on his aching head. Just these words were enough to show that his memories are returning bit by bit and everyone was surprised by it.

[A-At what extent does the Host remember?]

"Nothing much. Just a few vague memories of the Nether System."

[I see. Host, I have redeemed the time the Host wanted from the Mall.]

"Go ahead. Give me my requested Item and keep the whole palace free of other people."

[Host, I have redeemed a consumable item that fits the host's request. An Item that opened a God's Domain for a period of time. It only lasts for 3 hours. I've redeemed the item without any tickets as the Lord God ordered. The host can redeem anything from the system mall.]

A glowing glass ball appeared out of nowhere within Xue Hua's eyes. Once Hu Yue saw the item in Xue Hua's hand, he knew what the latter wanted to do and wanted to run away.

Xue Hua spoke with a playful tone but his words were all full of threat. "If you run away~ I will kill the soul of that one~," said the playful little devil to the escaping Hu Yue who froze the moment he saw Xue Hua pointing at Xue Yan.

Everyone was rendered speechless this time, now Xue Hua started to act a bit like usual playful yet dangerous persona. Within those golden orbs, the Ghost King noticed some glints of silver which made his heart be filled with fear that his wife would remember everything and he would be left alone right after marriage. Xie Mo couldn't help but pull Xue Hua closer to him and hug him from behind. Xue Hua on the other hand was suffering from a throbbing head that he didn't notice what his husband had just done.

Hu Yue gave up from leaving but he was glaring at Xue Hua. Even though he knew his real identity he doesn't fear him as he currently doesn't have any memories and most of his abilities were sealed including his real cultivation. He was only angry for threatening him with Xue Yan's life. Xue Yin remained silent the whole time as he noticed that this group is full of outsiders like him though he doesn't have his original memories just the fact that these men were outsiders was enough to remain where he is.

Moreover, he could feel his system shaking as if he was scared of the beautiful man who wears the body of his current identity's younger brother. Xue Hua used the item in his hand and casually threw it at the center of their group. Instantly a sphere domain covered them.

[This is a God Domain that will protect us for 3 hours. Within those 3 hours, the heavenly laws would not see us. We can speak freely for 3 hours~. Please go ahead, Host]

Within the temporary God's Domain. Silence and tension ascended. There's silence in the area while only Xue Hua is wearing a playful smile on his face.

"Shall we begin? I believe there is nothing I need to introduce as among everyone only I had problems with my memories. You guys can begin your introductions." said Xue Hua

"I'm Prisoner Yun Ming. I only remember my name. This is my 53rd world." Said Xue Yan. Hearing his name Xue Hua frowned for a moment as if trying to remember something, the pain in his head was a bit too much and his face started sweating.

Xue Hua murmured, "Yun Ming? This name I truly heard of before. Are you the one following my orders in every world?"

"Yes, my task is to serve Lord Hei for every world since your first world in the Nether System," answered Xue Yan.

"I see. I want to talk to you later. Would that be alright? And I will still treat you as my big brother while my memories haven't fully returned." said Xue Hua.

Xue Yan responded, "As you wish, Venerable Lord Hei."

Only then did Xue Hua move his eyes towards Hu Yue who was giving him mocking gazes, "How about you? Who are you?" he asked, though his eyes were not smiling as he always thought this man was rude.

Hmph!

Hu Yue wanted to ignore Xue Hua. He knew his current situation and even knew who he really was. But at the moment he doesn't fear him as he knows that almost everything about him is sealed, including his strength. He is currently weaker than him. He wanted to say he didn't want to answer until Xue Hua's figure appeared before him. He teleported instantly to appear before him.

Xue Hua smiled at him but unlike his usual casual playful smile, there's no emotion on Xue Hua's face at the moment. Only cold and indifferent, staring down at Hu Yue like he is some kind of ant whose life and death are within Xue Hua's hands.

With his golden irises suddenly turning to silver at this moment, Hu Yue knew he had angered this God of Destruction unexpectedly. "Rude thing. Since when a mere warden dared to ignore the presence of this Lord? For a servant, you seem so unqualified~" asked Xue Hua.

[Lord Hei!?!]

Chapter 402: 9.21 Second Blue Star - Each couple's circumstances.

[Lord Hei!?!]

Hu Yue felt a strong power pushing him on the ground, "Urrg!! P-Please... for...give..." He tried pleading for forgiveness but the silver-eyed man looked down on him with an icy gaze. Within those argent eyes were nothing but aloofness and indifference.

It only took a split second for everything in Xue Hua to turn cold at that moment. His demeanor and temperament change to something akin to ice. His current gold eyes turned silver, gazing down on with disdain and indifference. His face is expressionless at the moment and he gave out an aura of an emotionless being who bears an overwhelming presence pressing Hu Yue's whole being down. Hu Yue's whole being including his soul felt being crushed down under Xue Hua's icy gaze.

He couldn't help but puke blood from the immense pressure but when he looked up to see Xue Hua, his expression remained emotionless as before. Hu Yue finally remembers the fear he felt when he first met Hei Anjing. Before his soul got completely crushed Xue Hua was suddenly pulled over by a force. Xue Hua landed on Xie Mo's firm embrace with his whole body in his husband's arms. Then he heard a familiar way of calling.

"Baby~ calm down. I will tell you some things instead. Don't kill my confidant." Said Xie Mo but when Xie Hua looked up he saw Xie Mo's original silver eyes turned into special obsidian irises with hints of galaxies within those black orbs. Xue Hua's cold mood diminished and hugged this man who was his everything.

His silver eyes met those black ones and stared at each other for a few seconds. The first one to move away from his gaze is Hei Anjing. He slowly closed his eyes as if avoiding him. As those eyes once again opened, those silver eyes were gone and reverted back to gold. The cold temperament in Xue Hua had all faded and his aura returned to a clear and innocent demeanor. This is Xue Hua that they knew but not the Hei Anjing they wanted to see. Like how he suddenly appeared he also disappeared in a flash.

[He's gone again. My Lord, do you think Lord Hei is...] Avoiding you?

System Yue didn't speak the last two words out loud but everyone with eyes had noticed what happened. The moment the Lord God had pulled Xue Hua within his embrace, Lord Hei's presence instantly disappeared, and only Xue Hua who is the mere vessel of his wife remains.

"Fujun~ My head was hurting a lot just now..." said Xue Hua as he moved his body and faced Xie Mo straddling on his legs and hugged him tightly on his waist while burying his face on his chest. "What happened just now?" Xue Hua only acts spoiled in front of Xie Mo

The smile on Ye Xiajie's face faded when witnessed the reaction of his wife, Hei Anjing. He was astonished to the point his face paled and his face retorted with regret and grief. He wanted to talk to Hei Anjing but unfortunately, his wife is avoiding him like a plague.

Xue Hua noticed his Fujun's weird expression and felt something had gone wrong in the middle of the conversation but he couldn't remember what it was.

"Fujun, are you okay?" asked Xue Hua worriedly.

Meanwhile, Hu Yue was finally free from that strong pressure Hei Anjing had released just now. He could only weakly call, "M-My Lord!?" while Xue Yan helps him wipe the blood and look worriedly at his partner.

"Stupid. Where have you left your manners to? Is the Venerable Lord someone you can be rude to!?" scolded Xue Yan.

Ye Xiajie's expressionless face turned even darker when his eyes moved to look at Hu Yue who was coughing blood on the ground. If he didn't stop his wife just now, Hei Anjing would most likely crush his soul into nothingness.

The Ghost King reprimanded his confidant. "Warden Luo Wuye! This is the last time I will forgive you for being rude towards my wife!"

Hu Yue, who was called by his real name by his lord, immediately kowtowed before his master. "It will never happen again my lord!" replied Luo Wuye. movelusb.com

"Leave and heal yourself. Go now." Said Ye Xiajie as he waves his hand pushing the figure of Xue Yan and Hu Yue out of God's Domain.

They were ushered out against their will and with an overwhelming strength that they couldn't defy at all. The Ghost King took his time as entertained Xue Hua until the latter had fallen asleep. Once the little is finally quiet the friendly and gentle expression on Xie Mo faded. He stared at the distant horizons that showed the city. The Ancient Palace he lives in is located in a mountain, not far from the city but at the same time not within the city. His head was patting Xue Hua's hair with careful movements but his mind was left in that scene when he met those silver eyes from before.

Thinking that Hei Anjing was inside Xue Hua watching silently without reacting, Ye Xiajie knows that his wife isn't sleeping inside Xue Hua all the time. Most of the time he is watching him through the eyes of Xue Hua. It's just that he isn't willing to meet him. It seems the anger of Hei ANjing from what happened in the last word hasn't disappeared yet. So even though he had found him, Hei Anjing wasn't willing to see him.

Thinking for the last 500 years he hasn't seen his wife in the last world and those blood tears his wife had shed when he watched him die in that world made Ye Xiajie realize that he had been taking his wife's presence for granted all these time. The one who was being spoiled and protected in all those worlds wasn't only done by him to his wife. His wife was also doing the same thing for him. Moreover, it was his wife who was doing more things as most of his soul fragments were just pieces of his soul. They are him but at the same time not.

This is why these soul fragments who had to live their own lives wouldn't make his wife their top priority as all he had passed on these fragments were just a few hints of his feelings for Hei Anjing without any memories to back it up, it can only be considered as a fleeting emotion that could disappear anytime.

After realizing this Ye Xiajie knew how much he owed his wife all this time. The selfishness he had done in the last world was indeed the last thing that would definitely anger his wife. He had indeed made him angry, to the point that not only his wife had left the world alone and also imprisoned him in that world for a few years. Plus now that his wife is not willing to meet him, Ye Xiajie finally feels how much of a jerk he is.

He can now only wait by his wife's side until the latter is willing to talk to him.

"Baby~ I will not force you to come out. But I will stay by your side in this world no matter what. You don't have to forgive me but my only wish is that you don't push me away." murmured Ye Xiajie as he kissed the back of Xue Hua's hand. His face is full of heartache that cannot be hidden.

Not knowing that the person who was supposed to be asleep slightly opened his eyes revealing argent irises. The Xue Hua at this moment is devoid of any emotions as he listens to the ghost king's words. He did not react and was not willing to reply to the man's words as he just closed those phoenix-shaped eyes once again in silence.

System Yue who was watching his lords in silence had witnessed his Host opening his eyes but those silver eyes were cold and expressionless. It was dull as if lifeless, he noticed Lord Hei awakening but didn't inform the Lord God. This is a quarrel between a married couple as a System his only job is to help and guide them. As for the problems of feelings, they can only do something about it themselves.

Meanwhile, in one of the guest quarters within the Ghost King Palace, Xue Yan is treating Hu Yue's internal injuries when Xue Hua crushed him using just his overbearing aura. There's only silence between the two since all pretense from the former worlds disappeared and the two felt awkwardness between them. After all, they've been married couples and lovers in the past 8 worlds while acting their roles. But this time even though their tasks were to be lovers like before, they couldn't help but feel the real distance of love and pretense. Unlike Hei Anjing and Ye Xiajie who truly loved each other, these two were only following the task given to them. Well, mostly only Xue Yan followed his tasks while Hu Yue did whatever he wanted.

Hu Yue loves Xue Yan, but Xue Yan doesn't know if what he feels for Hu Yue is real love or just duty. Especially when Xue Yan learned that Hu Yue was a person of the Nether System he was tied with. He didn't know how he should believe the man's love for him at the same time he couldn't accept it as it was his task to accept this person's love. Bound by his tasks, Xue Yin didn't know if what he feels towards Shen Li is his real feelings or not. After all, a failure of a task means the obliteration of his soul.

Xue Yan can convert his qi to heal. This is one of his special abilities. "You are healed. Next time watch your mouth. My brother has always been short-tempered." He said while acting his role as Xue Hua's elder brother.

Understanding the meaning of Xue Yan's words, Hu Yue felt bitterness for the first time. He knew that with his identity being exposed the person before him would have a hard time trusting like before. But he couldn't blame his Lord's wife as it was his choice to hide things from this person. He could only accept the current situation and this person's decision to follow their roles in each world.

Hu Yue smiled with bitterness, "Thank you. I will accept your decision. Take your rest, Yan'er." Said the Fox God as he gently caressed Xue Yan's face staring at him with sadness in his eyes despite his smiling appearance. He disappeared within the mist after bidding his farewell.

Seeing the leaving figure of Hu Yue and that sorrow within his eyes made Xue Yan uneasy inside. He couldn't understand why he felt the pain when he saw Hu Yue's sad smile.

"I couldn't understand why you smile like that even though you are sad. A silly man like always. Why love a heartless man like me? I am someone who has destroyed someone's fate because of this so-called love. My dear cruel Lord of Destruction, I do not know whether the memories you have returned to me are helpful to help me move my heart to another person instead of that man." Murmured Xue Yan silently.

With the Ghost King's permission, Xue Yan and Hu Yue were allowed to live in his palace. This is a result because of his wife's begging. These two couples were awkward at the beginning until they got used to it like in the past worlds. A week passed by without them knowing.

Chapter 403: 9.22 Second Blue Star - Ghost Festival

Evening. 10 p.m.

It was pitch-black on the banks of Han Lake. The vast and boundless lake water was enveloped by the colors of the obsidian. Countless stars and a huge crimson moon were reflected on the surface of Han Lake. Many humans who live near the river were camping by the side of the lake, spending the night in the open, walking on the grass, and having fun. However, they would never have thought that at this very moment at the center of the lake, the gathering of the greatest ghost market of the ghost world had already begun.

Xue Hua walked along this long passageway of ghost fire for approximately five minutes holding the hands of his husband. Behind them, his elder brother and the Fox God follow after their steps. They were currently walking on the surface of the Han River far from the eyes of human lands. When they reached the end, the Ghost King, Xie Mo, extended his hand to cut apart the dense fog that obstructed them. novelusb.com

Everything suddenly became clear. Thousands of ghosts and inhuman beings had already gathered at this ghost market. Of course, there are some humans but most of them wear a mask to hide their appearance. Only Humans with abilities to protect themselves like shamans and ghost controllers could have the confidence to attend such a large Ghost Festival.

Xue Hua stood in the corner of the ghost market to observe. The ghost market was hovering above Han Lake, covering at least a hundred thousand square meters. At this time, a ghost guide was currently standing at a corner of the ghost market. There were countless ghosts who had set up small stalls on the surface of the lake in a seemingly disorderly manner but were in fact orderly disorder. They faintly formed into a perfect ten-sided figure. Xue Hua and his group were wearing ancient robes which are supposed to let them blend easily into the crowd.

The Ghost King just wore his usual ancient black and red robes when he was in his real form, though his hair was short like when he is in modern human form to match his wife's short white hair. There is supposed to be no need for him to cover his face with a mask as his aura was enough to tell every being in the area that he is a ghost king but his wife asked him to wear a black mask that covered half of his face revealing everything below his nose.

Beside him, his wife is wearing ancient red and black robes unlike what the ghost king wore, his robe had more red than black which is opposite of what his husband wore. On his face is the black-colored veil which hid the face of his face revealing only his phoenix-shaped crimson eyes.

Meanwhile, the other couple wore a different type of clothing. The Fox God, Hu Yue, just wore his usual kimono covering himself with his black fox mask. Beside him, Xue Yan was forced by him to wear a white black striped kimono and a white veil-like his little brother on his face. The truth is Hu Yue wanted him to wear a white fox mask instead, but Xue Yan disagreed saying that he hated something covering his face, the veil was already within the boundaries of his tolerance.

This is why instead of the fox mask, the Fox God instead put an illusion spell on Xue Yan making it that a pair of fox ears appears on his head hiding his human ears even changing his original black hair to white. The same fox ears appear on the Fox God's head. Black Fox ears.

Looking around Xue Hua found that the ghost festival is not that much different from the ordinary festival. Human food stalls can be found as well though there are more ghost stalls that sell antique things like old calligraphies, porcelain vases, and such.

Xue Hua saw a stall that sells ice cream and immediately pulled his husband to buy it for him. "Fujun, I saw ice cream."

Ghost King Xie Mo who let himself get pulled while protecting his wife from the crowd, "Qizi don't run." He said while dragged over towards the said Ice cream stall by his wife.

Hu Yue and Xue Yin looked at the couple who left them alone to buy ice cream.

The Fox God asked, "Do you want to eat Ice cream too, Yan'er?"

"If there's dark chocolate flavor." Replied Xue Yan.

The Fox God smiled as he gently held Xue Yan's hand and escorted him to the same Ice cream stall where the Ghost King and his wife are.

Xue Hua bought a large bowl of Ice cream with 3 huge scoops with different flavors. Xie Mo is holding the bowl for him as he still needs to lift his veil to be able to eat. Xue Hua shares his ice cream with his husband and shares the same spoon as usual. The other couple just bought one scoop each on a cone. Their group took lots of gaze falling on them.

First, both couples were eye-catching and wore couple clothes. One human couple with an ancient Chinese theme while the other is a Japanese kimono and a fox couple. Especially Xue Brothers whose appearance was only concealed with a thin veil that didn't hide their phoenix-shaped eyes. Giving them an appearance of mysterious veiled beauty. Moreover, at this moment both the Ghost King and the Fox Ghost hid their domineering aura to avoid creating chaos during the festival. Even with all the eyes on them, the group ignores it as usual.

The two couples were enjoying the festival while ignoring the eyes of strangers on them. They've eaten and played a lot. The Xue brothers enjoyed the shooting game their husband's won them half-human size plushies. A black rabbit and A black cat. The rabbit was hugged by Xue Hua while the cat was carried by Xue Yin.

Not far from them, the Protagonist gong was watching them. More like staring at Xue Hua with widened eyes when their group passes in front of him.

"Pure gold-colored soul. A golden soul!?" he murmured in shock as the drinks in his hand fell as he unintentionally let go of it in his dazed state.

This protagonist gong is wearing a pure black Chinese tunic. With his dark brown hair which glows golden under light, comb up, and his green eyes which slightly glow with gold when he uses his Yinyang eyes. The truth is that when that eye-catching group passed in front of him he was resting at the near rock seating to pass his time. The group causes commotion in the crowd when they walk around. He could hear the ghost and supernatural entities saying,

"Look what beautiful pairs of couples. A human and fox couple together are rare to see."

"Don't you think that tall handsome man in ancient clothing feels familiar?"

"Wow~ that young man must be his wife. Holding his waist all the time. So sweet~"

"That Black fox mask. Isn't that the Fox God!?"

"I didn't hear news of the Fox God getting married?!"

"The fox bride is not bad as well. He looks like a silent beauty."

Feng Hou who heard a couple of ghost girls not far from where he is seated looked at the said couples the ghosts were looking at. When they saw the group he could instantly perceive through their disguise. The said fox couple in front. The black fox had a divine aura around him. though he tries to hide it with his eyes he could see that this black fox is a Fox God at God level. His partner is a human who was disguised to look like a fox creature. It seems that this human is indeed this God's Fox Bride.

His eyes then wander on the other couple. Seeing them he was shocked by what he saw. The tall handsome man is a ghost at King's level. It is obvious by seeing his hidden aura that he is a Ghost King and the strongest one he had seen in his life. This Ghost King is even stronger than him or that Fox God. Seeing that Feng Hou couldn't help but frown at the thought of a Ghost King of that level roaming unhindered around the human lands. He decided to inform his family about this Ghost King. His Yinyang eyes move at the last figure standing beside the Ghost King.

Seeing that their interaction seems to be too intimate he could conclude that this veiled human must be the ghost king's partner. This is why he intently observes the human beside the Ghost King. The beautiful man whose waist was held by him is an ordinary human at first sight. But Feng Hou felt that a human who is chosen by the Ghost King at such a frightening level would never be an ordinary human which is why he used a spell to temporarily open his Heavenly eyes only to be such with what he had seen.

With his Heavenly eyes he saw that the human has a special physique of Extreme Yin but what stunned him the most is that this human has a pure golden colored soul. In short, his soul is the purest among humans. Even the humans protected by the Fox God only have a light golden-colored soul that matches the Fox God which is also surprising enough.

"W-Wait. Please wait!!!" said Feng Hou as he ran after the two couples.

In his dazed state, he runs over to block the group, but his eyes only wander between Xue Yan and Xue Hua. Everyone around them stopped to watch what this human shaman is going to do, to that group of beautiful men. The Ghost King and Fox God noticed that the human shaman that suddenly blocked their way kept on staring at their partners and instantly took a vigilant gesture to protect their lovers behind them.

Hu Yue glared at Feng Hou and blocks his way, "What do you want human?" he asked.

Xue Yan raised his hand and pinched the Fox God's back for blocking his sight. "Don't stand in front of me, A'Yue."

"Ow. Ow... Wuwu~ I won't Yan'er~" said Hu Yue who held Xue Yan's hand and moved aside barely to let Xue Yan see the one who blocked their path.

Xue Hua on the other hand couldn't move his husband in front of him and could only peek from behind his husband revealing only his head.

"What's wrong? Who came?" asked Xue Hua.

"Stay behind. Don't move." Said Xie Mo to his naughty wife behind him.

Xue Hua tries to avoid his husband's hand and said, "What's happening? Let me see~"

Feng Hou was treated as a pervert by the two gongs, could even ignore the two pairs of eyes glaring at him as his eyes still wander at the Xue brothers which are together with the Ghost King and the Fox God.

Feng Hou asked, "Why? Why are you two humans staying by the side of a Fox God and a Ghost King?"

Chapter 404: 9.23 Second Blue Star - Meeting the Protagonist Gong

While enjoying the festival made by the ghosts and supernatural entities at the boundaries of life and death in the Han River. The Ghost King and the Fox God were having such a good time eating and playing around with their lovers that they ignored most of everyone's eyes on them regardless of whether they were from ghosts, demons, or humans they didn't care about. Until one courageous human young man tried to block their way and kept one looking at their partners which is the Xue Brothers.

Once the words like Fox God and Ghost King came out from Feng Hou's mouth, most ghosts within the festival kowtowed in Xie Mo's presence. Leaving only humans standing with a shocked expression on their faces. Among the humans, within the group, Lou Clan's disciple led by Lou Lan witnessed the whole scene. Lou Lan was shocked to see that the infamous Ghost King whom his clan feared was an extremely captivating handsome man like the figure before him. Seeing that his disguise was peeled off, he could only reveal his real form.

Long obsidian hair flowing behind him. A pair of silvery orbs that shows arrogance and disdain to those he looks down upon. The proudness and nobility of a dragon as his domineering aura spread around him putting everything around him under his overbearing presence.

Everyone could feel the pressure of his aura and almost most of them, humans, ghosts, and other creatures, were forced to kneel before him. At this moment the Fox God, Hu Yue envelopes Xue Yan with his aura protecting him from the pressure the big boss is emitting beside them. He could feel that Xie Mo lessening his pressure on their side and giving much more aura towards the rude human who destroys their fun. With only the Fox couple standing, only Xue Hua didn't feel anything different even when he saw that almost everyone suddenly kneeled when his husband showed his real form.

Feng Hou's thoughts at the moment, "What's with this heavy aura!? Is he that much stronger than me!?" Even he the youngest descendant of Feng Clan was forced to kneel in the presence of the angry Ghost King.

Seeing that things are going badly and noticed his husband's bad mood. Xue Hua could only make his move and pulled his husband's sleeve while looking sad at the moment.

Xue Hua holding Xie Mo's robes, "Aren't we here to enjoy the festival? Don't get angry, Fujun."

Once Xie Mo heard his wife calling him Fujun, his bad mood instantly dispersed. The domineering aura he spreads suddenly disappears as his features soften when he looks at his wife who was looking sad at the moment. He could only move his arms and wrapped them around his wife's slender waist pulling him over towards him. He gently caresses his wife's wrinkled brow, smoothing them.

Xie Mo coaxed, "My Qizi. Don't be sad. Fujun isn't angry anymore. Smile okay?" kissing Xue Hua's forehead.

Xue Hua who got coaxed successfully held his husband's hand and revealed a smile behind his veil. "Un. But I'm tired. Can we rest somewhere not noisy, Fujun?" said Hua to his husband.

"I have a pavilion near here. Let's rest there and watch the stars instead." Replied Xie Mo.

Xue Hua, "How about brother?" he asked as he looked at Xue Yan.

Xue Yan nods his head and said, "We'll buy some drinks and snacks. After that, I and A'Yue will join you. Don't worry, Xiao Hua."

"Don't worry. I'll protect your brother, My Lady." Said the Fox God respectfully. Ever since that day he almost got himself killed. Hu Yue had treated Xue Hua like how he treated his own Lord.

"Okay. Take your time." Said Xue Hua with a smile as he wrapped his hands around his husband's waist. Before disappearing with the Ghost King like a mist.

Feng Hou wanted to stop them, "Ah! Wait!!!" but the couple already disappeared before them.

It took a moment before the rest stood up from the ground and resumed what they were doing. Some of them left in the hurry to report about the Ghost King's Consort and everything that happened that night. Feng Hou on the other hand, who was left behind, was throwing an angry tantrum at the moment.

Feng Hou exclaimed in anger and envy. "Fuck! Why!? Why did someone with the purest golden soul get married to the Ghost King!? I don't believe this!?"

"Stop embarrassing yourself. If you want to know why my brother ended up marrying the Ghost King you should ask our clan. After all, they were the ones who brought my little brother as the substitute sacrificial bride for the Ghost King." Said Xue Yan as he moved his gaze to the pale Xue Bing and his group as he removed the veil on his face and the illusion spell put on him by the Fox God faded.

Lou Lan was shocked to see Xue Yan standing before him. He was already envious to death seeing how much the Ghost King is spoiling Xue Hua. Why would someone who is supposed to be dead be here and he is even together with a Fox God? The other disciples and elders with them instantly recognized him.

"Y-You! Xue Yan! Why are you still alive!?"

"Aren't you supposed to be dead!?"

"Did you just say your brother married the Ghost King!?"

"Is that Young man just now, Xue Hua!?"

"Explain properly to this old man!"

When an elder tried to grab Xue Yan, fox servants who appeared out of nowhere block them from approaching while Xue Yan is tightly protected within the Fox God's protection.

"Mere humans dared to harm this God's bride? Do you wish to die!?" Fox God yelled as he revealed his aura as a demigod giving the crowd a second round of scare like how the Ghost King got angry just now.

People of Xue Clan all kneeled in fear,

"Don't dare! Don't dare!"

"Please calm your anger, Fox God."

"We vow to never harm your chosen bride!"

"Mercy. Please spare us~"

"Only this once." Said Hu Yue as he held Xue Yan's hand and was about to leave the area. "You shouldn't bother the Lord... The Ghost King's Consort if you don't wish to die. The Ghost King loves his wife very much. I had warned you, There's always been the unsaid rule of never angering that King of hell."

Once the other couple disappeared within the crowd the elders that were escorting their scion and their young disciples were in panic. They have never expected that the illegitimate children of their Clan Leader would become the Ghost King and Fox God's wives.

With how they treated the two especially the Ghost King's Consort who was beaten first by their scion and thrown to the Ghost King's Palace as a substitute sacrificial bride, they now realized the reason for the deadly curse bestowed on their scion and those youngsters before. It was because they harmed Xue Hua, his chosen bride that the Ghost King bestowed a death curse on them.

Lou Lan within the crowd wore an envious expression on his face that when Feng Hou observed him from the corner that he could only feel disgusted towards the young man with a soul of slight highlights of gold. If he hadn't seen the light gold soul of the Fox Bride or the pure golden soul of the Ghost King's Consort, Feng Yan would definitely be attracted to this young man with an innocent face.

Feng Hou averted his eyes and moved to one of the elders within the group and formally introduced himself. He spoke to one of the elders in front of him.

"Elder. I am someone of Feng. The youngest and strongest shaman of Feng Clan. Feng Hou. I would like to ask a few things with regards to the young men who were with the Ghost King and the Fox God. According to your conversation just now. It seems both of them are members of the clan. This Feng would like to know the details."

When he spoke of these words he was secretly observing the people of this group gauging their reactions. As he expected most youngsters had an ugly expression when he finished speaking but the elders scolded secretly not allowing him to see through more of the clan's affairs.

An Elder of Lou Clan gave him an amiable smile, "Of course! We are glad to share information with an esteemed young lord like you. If possible please come back with us to Lou Clan. Our Clan leader will do the honor to exchange words with the young lord."

"That would be a great idea, but I would like to finish a few tasks first. I shall visit your Lou Clan by tomorrow instead." Said Feng Hou who took his leave after saying those words.

Seeing things are getting out of hand, the elders decided to end this mission as they found the person they have been wanting to meet. They also have to report to the Clan Leader about the two illegitimate young masters, Xue Yan and Xue Hua. In the end, their scion failed to make the Young shaman's pay any attention to him. Their group left instantly.

That night despite the events that happened beyond control like the Ghost King's appearance as well as the Fox God's presence, the news about their brides spread like a wildfire within the world of Yin and humans. Special clans like Feng and Hua heard that the Ghost King had been really married to a human. But only Feng Clan knew more about the Ghost King's bride.

The news of the Ghost King and the Fox God appearing in the ghost festival while pretending to be ordinary ghosts just to spend some time with their wives had spread in both the human and supernatural circles. The current leading Sect of Celestial Master, the Lingshen Mountain Sect, was informed about this event. No one expected that the notorious Ghost King would suddenly wake up one day and marry a human boy. Plus with the Fox God on his side who is interested in the brother of the Ghost King's Consort would definitely stand with them making their side the strongest group with only one deviant Ghost King, a Fox God, and two human beings.

These rumors had long spread all over the Celestial Master's Circle and even with the other sects.

"Did you know that the Strongest Ghost King in history had woken up!?"

"Fuck! Didn't they say that the Ghost King is said to possess power that could even slay Gods and Deities!?"

"I thought they said he died a long time ago? How can I suddenly get married to a human more or less."

"What's weird is that the Fox God is staying with them? They say his bride is the elder brother of the Ghost King's Consort?"

"Doesn't that mean the Ghost King and that Fox God would be on the same side thanks to their wives!?"

"Watch your words! Don't be a Jinx!"

At some pavilion within the territory of the Lingshen Mountain Sect, Lou Ye is entertaining a guest. This guest is unexpectedly Ou Ya who is currently enjoying the tea and snacks served to him. They've been here long enough that they overheard the rumors spreading within the sect.

Lou Ye asked, "A'Ya, did Huahua really get married to that Ghost King of the Ancient Palace?"

While savoring the tea in his mouth Ou Ya took a while before he answered, he did this to tease this dead fish-eyed childhood friend of his. As expected despite his languid demeanor this Lou Ye is astonishingly a short-tempered person.

"Speak, else I'll throw you out of the mountain!" threatened Lou Ye.

Ou Ya clicked his tongue and said, "Tsk! You still can't take a joke. It's real. Huahua is indeed married and Yanyan would as well with that Fox God in the rumors. I told you last night to come with me to enjoy the ghost festival. I would have introduced you to them. Who told you to be busy?"

"Why... didn't Huahua invite us to his marriage?" said Lou Ye with a gloomy expression.

Ou Ya spoke, "About that it is not that he didn't want to invite us, the marriage itself is done on the spot due to the contract of Lou Clan with that Ghost King. If that Contract isn't implemented on the same day something bad would happen to everyone connected to Lou. This includes you and me."

"Does this means that Huahua was forced to marry that Ghost King?" said Lou Ye as his expression turned even darker when he thought that his savior was being forced to do something he didn't want to do.

Ou Ya smiled at this moment and said, "I thought so too from the beginning but when you meet them yourselves you would understand."

"I will make some time this month. Go with me to meet them," said Lou Ye.

Ou Ya's smile widens even more and said, "Sure~ As you wish Young Lord~"

"Shut up!" rebuked Lou Ye.novelusb.com

Chapter 405: 9.24 Second Blue Star - Feng and Lou Clans

At the Feng Clan's Mansion

Feng Hou hurried home after leaving the Ghost Festival. Took the fastest way to return back to his clan. Even wasting his emergency Teleportation Charm that was given to him by his grandfather just so he could speak with his father and grandfather about Xue Hua. He reported every detail of what happened during the ghost festival. Even the part where he forcefully opened his heavenly eyes just to see through that group. Feng Yan's father is the current Leader of their clan, Feng Ku. His grandfather is one of the highest elder and former clan leader Feng Shi. This old man is the strongest Shaman of their clan.

Feng Shi spoke to his grandson, "Hou'er you did a good job returning and reporting this important thing to the clan."

"Inborn Extreme Yin Physique. If this is real then we need to have those children enter our clan." Said Feng Ku.

"A'Ku sent people to gather information about those brothers. After we verify things I will go with Yan'er to meet the child myself." Said Old Shaman Feng Shi.

Feng Hou spoke, "Grandfather, Father if we need to bring him over to the clan then this child is willing to marry him in."

Once he spoke of this everyone inside the room was shocked and rendered speechless. This is their clan's prince. He is the sole scion of their Feng Clan and had the strongest strength after Old Shaman Feng Shi. Because of his prestigious standing, no one except the old man is able to move his decisions. His father and the elders have been trying to ask this young prince to get married to someone. They wanted someone to support him.

It really doesn't matter to the Feng Clan whether their prince married a woman or a man as their clan had ways to make a man bear a child for them. With the help of their ancestral bloodline of the Phoenix Race, their clan was never fully human. But this young prince has never had any romantic bone in his body like a bloke of rock unmoved on anything well until today. This is the first time this young prince says that he is willing to marry someone and that someone happened to be the Ghost King's consort.

Stunned Feng Ku asked, "Are you, sure son?"

"I am serious, father. If it is him then I am willing to marry him as my only wife." Replied Feng Hou with a serious face.

Feng Shi held his long beard, "Hou'er, tell this old man why you are so obsessed with the Ghost King's Consort. This must be the real reason why you decided to inform us about his special physique. If your reasoning is sufficient this old man is willing to help you get your chosen person." Said the old shaman.

Feng Hou was reluctant at first as he knew that his grandfather sealed his Heavenly eyes. Telling him the reason is like informing the old man that he removed seals without permission. But his obsession with Xue Hua outweighs his fear of getting scolded and honestly gave the old man an answer.

"With my Heavenly eyes, I saw that his soul has the purest shade of gold. The golden soul is something Xue Hua possesses."

Once his answer was out, everyone in the room was rendered speechless. This time even the old shaman was shocked, and their slumbering ancestor's soul woke up suddenly speaking out.

Phoenix Ancestor soul's voice resounds in the area. "Child! Did you surely see a pure gold soul!?"

Everyone from Feng Clan greeted, "Greetings to the Esteemed Ancestor Feng!?"

"Okay. Enough with greetings. Child of Feng. How sure are you that the human child you saw possesses a pure gold soul?"

"I am 100% sure, Ancestor! I've used my heavenly eyes to check. Xue Hua indeed possesses a pure gold soul and his elder brother Xue Yan possesses a light gold soul which even matched the Fox God's current soul cultivation. I can swear with my life!" replied Feng Hou.

Once Feng Hou finished those words their ancestral phoenix god descended before them in a human form. A young man with long crimson hair and a pair of orange inhuman vertical irises appeared before them with wings of flames on his back. It is obvious that he is a Phoenix God that the Feng Clan reveres. Those who are of Feng Bloodline kneeled in his presence including in this group is old man Feng Shi and his direct family line as they had the purest bloodline of Feng.

"No need to salute twice. I've descended for only one reason. It is because of those children whom you said possess shades of gold soul. This deity's name is Feng Houye. You guys can call me Lord Feng."

"This little one is called Feng Shi. Lord Feng, do you wish for us to take the children with golden souls before you?" the old man shaman said.

Feng Houye asked, "I heard that he is married to a Ghost King. Are you talking about that Ghost King that the Lou Clan serves?"

"Must be Lord Feng. I heard that his wife was called Hua surnamed Xue." Replied Feng Hou.

A frown appeared on Feng Houye's face once he heard his descendants answer. It seems he knew the real identity of the Ghost King that the Xue Clan serves.

Feng Houye spoke, "If he is indeed him then it is not possible to take his wife by force. Even though I am a Full God, that Ghost King which a Fox God serves really decided to fight for death then this world will end. He is a being that is supposed to be the first one to ascend in the Immortal Plane but decided to remain here only for one reason."

"My Lord, what is his reason?" asked Feng Shi respectfully.

"He told me he was waiting for someone. He stayed in the mortal plane for a whole millennium waiting for something he didn't know what it was. If the one he was waiting for is his current wife then... we can only bring over the gold soul if we are able to kill him." said Feng Houye with an extremely ugly expression on his face. "I will make my decision once I see the gold soul myself but first I need to see the Xue Clan descendants check on something."

Feng Shi, "This old man shall accompany Lord Hou."

"Prepare luxurious gifts. After going to Lou Clan I will meet the Ghost King Xie and his consort." Said Feng Houye.

Feng Clan Members, "Understood Ancestor Feng Houye!"

At the Lou Clan's Place.

The Current Clan Leader of Lou Clan, Lou Ming heard the report about his two illegitimate children as well as Feng Hou's request to visit their clan to inquire about what happened regarding his current consort, Xue Hua.

Lou Ming asked his son, Lou Lan. "Lan'er what is the meaning of this? You've told me that Xue Hua and Xue Yan are dead! What is this now? One married the Ghost King while the other is the Fox God's Bride to be!"

"D-Dad. They were really dead. I got men beat Xue Hua half dead before we threw his body in the Ghost King's Palace. This is true! As for Xue Yan, I had someone send him and that annoying Ou Ya to a village as sacrificial pawns. There is no way he could return alive!" said Lou Lan. "You must believe me, Dad."

"Sigh~ Lan'er I..." before Lou Ming would complete his words to coax the child, a messenger entered his office urgently.

"Clan Leader!" yelled the messenger who suddenly came over.

"What is it now!?" asked Lou Ming.

"L-Leader. You should read this." Said the messenger who passed him a message with the crest of phoenix.

It's a letter from Feng Clan. Seeing this Lou Ming reads the letter seriously only to be shocked by the content of the letter. According to the letter it says that Old Shaman Feng Shi will be accompanying an esteemed elder of the Feng Clan as well as the Feng Clan's Young Prince to visit the Lou Clan for tomorrow. There are no other details but just the fact that Old Shaman Feng Shi is coming over is enough to shake the whole Lou Clan into chaos. It is obvious that in their spiritual world the name of Feng Shi is a prestigious one. It could be said that he is a famous figure and is well known to be the strongest shaman of the said Feng Clan.

A frown emerged from Lou Ming's face as he finished reading the letter. "Make preparations for the guests tomorrow." Ordered the clan leader to his clan's men.

The messenger then left the office together with the servants to follow their clan leader's orders. Lou Ming looked at his son beside him and his frown disappeared as soon as he did.

Lou Ming smiled, "Lan'er, come with dad. It's time for you to meet our ancestors."

Lou Lan asked, "Ancestor? Dad, what are you talking about?"

"Come with me?" said Lou Ming as he pulled his son and brought him to some basement.

In some hidden basement under the Lou Clan's Territory.

The underground was excavated to clear a huge area. Within the wide cave, a black altar was standing, within the place, the pungent scent of blood and flesh lingers. As they got closer to the altar the awful smell of death and blood got stronger. Lou Lan felt fear and wanted to run away but his father is gripping his wrist tightly preventing him from leaving.

"D-Dad. Where are we? This place is disgusting. I'm scared." Said Lou Lan while acting pitiful towards his father but within his heart, he had cursed his damn old man to death.

Lou Ming spoke with his son gently trying to coax him but he didn't let go of his grip on his thin wrist. "Dad is going to introduce you to our ancestor, Lan'er don't be scared."

Lou Lan was pulled by his father towards the altar. Before the altar is a huge bed, Lou Lan was horrified with what he just witnessed. On the huge bed, countless naked young female and male bodies were splattered on the floor. There are numerous black bruises on their skin, bloody bite marks, and traces of vigorous sex. If one would look closer he could see that the holes used for sexual activities were abused to the extent that cannot be explained in words. The eyes of these people were long-lifeless and dead. If not for the slight movement on their chest that one would think they were all corpses.

As they got a meter away from the bed, the sound of flesh slapping and ambiguous sounds of squelching can be heard. A hoarse but loud screaming from pain and pleasure resounds in the whole place. On the top of the bed, Lou Lan saw a handsome but evil-looking man banging a naked young man under him mercilessly with an evil grin on his face. This person bears long white hair and black inhuman eyes. He has white and pale skin. This man is a fallen celestial deity, a Yaogui King.

A Yaoguai spirit is a malevolent animal spirit or fallen celestial deities who acquired magical powers through the practice of demonic means. Their goal is to gain immortality and subsequent deification. They were literally called demons. Demonic beings who get stronger through the means of consumption of holy or virgins. They eat the blood and flesh of virgin beings to cultivate their means. They are lustful and evil.

This man is the very reason why the Lou Clan was not afraid of going against the Ghost King in the original plot. According to the real ending of this world's story, After Lou Lan successfully married Feng Hou, he brought him over to this ancestor and shared with this man. Lou Lan becomes the bait that brought over men with the structure to share with this ancestor.

Adding the fact that his constitution is more useful when he is alive, this man lets him live, using him as a honey trap to get new prey with a special bloodline like the Feng. After the Protagonist Gong and Villain died the world slowly fell under this Yaoguai control making the world hellish and inhuman.

Chapter 406: 9.25 Second Blue Star - Tragic Lou Lan

Continuation to the scene at the Underground Basement.

Lou Ming waited until the man finished his bed activities. The man on the bed had an extremely handsome face. His features are beyond what normal human beings possess, the ethereal aura he emits makes him even more inhuman. His long black hair dangles behind his back. His skin is white all over under the light it glitters like gemstones. His thin almond-shaped eyes were narrowed in satisfaction as his lips were arc in an evil smirk. Waiting on the side is Lou Ming and beside him his son, Lou Lan is dazed-looking like a love-struck fool at the handsome evil being.

Meanwhile, the young man under him had long fainted and there's traces left on the skin leaving numerous marks of bites and bruises. The man upon finishing his deed cleaned up while ignoring the presence of the two who just arrived. He lazily wears his pure black robe on him covering his muscular build but lets his long white down casually behind him.? Once he got his fulfillment he threw away his partner who was overused and lost all of his life energy, instantly becoming a corpse. The smell of sex lingers in the area and with just a wave of his hands it fades.

Then he sat by the edge of his bed looking down at the father and son below him. On his handsome face is a small smile but his face remains cold and indifferent. Lifeless and evil.

"These sacrifices you gave me are too unsatisfactory," said the evil being named Ye Gui

The clan leader fell on his knee and pulled his son with him. Greeting the evil being with his greatest respect.

"Lou Ming greets the Ancestor." Said the current clan leader of the Lou Family.

Lou Lan on the other hand continues to stare at the evil man with a dazed state like he was bewitched by a demon fox unable to free himself of his lovestruck trance. This evil man is called Ye Gui. Ye Gui glances at Lou Lan making the latter flinch in astonishment but sadly the former doesn't seem that much interested even if the young man's physique is a bit unique.

He moved his gaze after a few seconds, completely uninterested in Lou Lan. The disdain and indifference was the only thing that can be found within those crimson eyes. Lou Lan on the other hand felt despair seeing his unconcerned gaze.

"What do you need?" asked Ye Gui.

"Ancestor, Lou Ming brought to you my son, Lou Lan. In all the generations of our Lou bloodline, this child's talent and physique are the highest." Said Lou Ming.

The evil being once again moved his crimson eyes and stared at Lou Lan's figure looking at the thing which made this mortal unique as Lou Ming says. His crimson irises were tainted with contempt as he narrowly observes this young man whose eyes were clouded with lust and desire, he had obviously fallen for his charm as every other mortal does. He is like the other mortal that was given to him, shallow and greedy. But he still noticed the slight golden aura only him but this is not enough for him to be totally moved. He only needs to move his hand secretly to take away the golden aura that lingers on Lou Lan's body.

Ye Gui raised one of his eyebrows and looked at Lou Ming with a mocking gaze. "Surname Lou, are you playing with this deity?" but Lou Ming could feel the man's anger through his cold voice.

"W-What does the a-ancestor mean?" replied Lou Ming while trembling. He couldn't understand how he made this powerful evil man mad.

Ye Gui replied, "This child indeed has a unique physique but this is not the rarest physique among your descendants."

"...???" Lou Lan looked at the man with a bewildered expression.

"Do not tell me you didn't notice those two children with special Yin Physiques. One of them even possessed the rarest Supreme Yin Physique that complements me the best. The other one is not bad as well as he possesses a Three Yin Physique. Where are those two children who are of your direct bloodline? Lately, I no longer feel their presence within your territory."

The confused Lou Ming couldn't understand what the man was saying. "Ancestor... Lou Ming doesn't understand what you mean? What children? Among my children, only Lou'er possesses a special physique. I have two illegitimate sons, but one is a fool and the other is only average talent."

"Are you fooling his deity!? A fool and average talent? Among your descendants, only those two were inborn with Yin Yang eyes plus a special yin physique. Their talents are above what that thing besides you have. You previously treated a mere furnace then the two inborn talents. Do you have a brain, Lou Ming!?" admonished Ye Gui.

Once they heard Ye Gui's rebuke the father and son had different reactions. While Lou Ming showed expressions of disbelief and shock, Lou Lan on the other hand showed the reaction of stunned, envy, and jealousy instead. Seeing his reaction Ye Gui knew that the young man knew about his half-siblings' rare talents.

Lou Ming was stunned, "Eh? Xue Hua and Xue Yan are inborn possessors of special physique and Yinyang eyes?!"

Lou Lan's thoughts, 'I knew that Xue Yan has the sight, but never would I have expected that both Xue Yan and Xue Hua were born with Yinyang eyes and possess special physiques as well!? I should have killed them in the past!!! Those Illegitimate bastards!!!'

Observing Lou Lan in silence, Ye Gui noticed that this boy emits a familiar aura on him. It's the aura of that man he hates the most. Ye Gui's face suddenly becomes ugly. Lou Lan floated in the air to his hands. Ye Gui grabbed Lou Lan but his neck as his expression turned ugly revealing his real face as a Yaogui. White dry face like a corpse and eyes full black like a fierce ghost. Seeing his handsome face turned like those hungry ghosts, Lou Lan screamed as he struggled from his grip.

"AAAAAAHHHHHH!!! Ghost! MONSTER! Save me. Dad! Save me!!!" yelled Lou Lan as he struggles from Ye Gui's clutches unfortunate no matter how much a mortal fights against an immortal, the weak cannot slay the strong.

Frowning Ye Gui bellows, "Why do you have that bastard's aura around you!?"

"Gyaa~ Dad save me!" shouted Lou Lan as his face showed immense fear.

Lou Ming on the other hand bows down while trembling, turning completely deaf ears to his former favorite son's screams.

"If you continue shouting I don't mind pulling your tongue out." Threatened Ye Gui whose face returned to being handsome as he held back his anger.

The former arrogant young master finally knew what real fear is after being threatened. He instantly stopped screaming as he felt horrified at the evil man before him. All of a sudden Ye Gui tore his upper clothes and looked at the cursed seal left by the ghost king on his back. He could also see the seals that tried to stop the curse from spreading but such low-quality seals were unstable and incomplete.

"Cursed Seals. Why would the Ghost King give you such a malicious thing? Did you go against the oath of marriage contract you had with him?" said Ye Gui.

The Lou father and son tremble upon hearing his question. Their reactions show that he indeed guessed it right. Lou Lan thought of something and lied through his teeth.

"N-No I didn't. He... T-The Ghost... K-King didn't want me... He took Xue Hua instead and... and threw me back with t-this curse."

"Xue Hua? Is that the child with hints of gold on his pure white hair? That boy with exquisite beauty." Said Ye Gui with a sweet yet longing smile. His reaction is as if he's thinking of his lover that he had missed for a very long time.

It was Lou Ming who answered. "Y-Yes."

Tsk! Ye Gui clicked his tongue as he let go of Lou Lan making him fall on the ground of flesh and blood. "He even stole my prey. That boy is the one who possessed the Supreme Yin Physique. An extremely rare delicacy. Someone that is destined to be mine and you dare to give him away!!!" novelusb.com

"What does ancestor wish to do?" asked Lou Ming.

"Go visit that bastard. Tell him that Xue Hua is this Ye Gui's chosen bride. Bring that thing below instead. That was supposed to be his bride in accordance with the oath he had written before. Even he couldn't go against the heavenly laws." Said Ye Gui. "Remember you must make sure that my chosen wife is unharmed by anything. If he saw traces of injuries on his skin, your Lou Clan would cease under the hand of this deity!"

"Yes, Ancestor!" Replied Lou Ming as his eyes could help but wonder about Lou Lan who is supposed to be his sacrifice for tonight. "How about this child?"

Not even glancing at Lou Lan, "Give it to you. I don't need it. You can share it among the others. Now scram!" said Ye Gui as he threw them away from his place.

After getting thrown out of the underground basement, Lou Ming and Lou Lan returned to the main mansion. As soon as they entered the interior of the house, a group of elders came to welcome them. They were waiting for the news about what their ancestor had decided but seeing Lou Lan following behind the clan leader the faces of the elders turned ugly.

"Clan Leader, did the ancestor didn't take a liking to the scion?" asked one of the elders.

Lou Ming only glances at his youngest son before answering. But unlike his usual pampering gaze, his eyes, when he looked at Lou Lan, were completely cold. Lou Lan noticed his father's changes but couldn't understand why. Only then did he remember what happened in that basement, his father going to sacrifice him to that evil being who feeds pleasure and desires but sadly that monster is only interested in Xue Hua and not him. He was even called a furnace without him understanding his current situation.

Lou Ming, "The ancestor didn't want him. He wanted Xue Hua instead. The orders were to send Lan'er to the Ghost King as his ghost bride and take back Xue Hua."

The elders of the clan didn't expect this result. The reason they've treated Lou Lan with such care is because of the possibility of him becoming that being's future bride who would have thought that the Ancestor of their Lou Clan to dislike the once they've carefully catered and wanted that fool who was thrown out of the Clan.

"That... but there is no way the ghost king would..."

"Are you a fool!? Don't you remember that the Ghost King had made an oath with the Heavenly Laws?"

"Isn't the oath that the Ghost King shall receive a bride from Lou Clan in exchange for his protection?"

"It means we have the choice to give him someone from the Lou Clan. As long as we are giving, he has no other choice but to accept it."

"That is unless he wishes for the Heavenly Laws to give him punishment."

"The ancestor said to bring back Xue Hua. While you're at it, bring back Xue Yan as well." Said Lou Ming.

"Clan Leader how about Lan'er?" asked an elder.

"The Lord said you can share. It's not like the Ghost King would accept him away. You can have him." said Lou Ming as he walked back inside the mansion ignoring his supposed-to-be beloved son.

Lou Lan, seeing that his father is treating him no worse than trash, fell in despair as he saw the group of elders looking at him like some rechargeable battery to level up their cultivation. For the first time in his life, he saw the usual dotting eyes of the elders he grew up with to be filled with lust and excitement as they stared at him. That night Lou Lan's life turned into a nightmare. Pulled in endless pain and disgusting lust. He could remember how many men had topped him that night. All he could remember is the disgusting feeling of domination and agony. He lost his purity to a bunch of beasts in the human body.

Meanwhile back to the basement, Ye Gui was bathing at the manmade river within his territory. He unrobes himself and entered the river. Unlike what he looks like when he showed himself in front of the Lou Clan's Clan Leader, his appearance suddenly change as he washed his face. On the reflection of the water show a familiar appearance that is similar to the Ghost King. No, it is more correct to say that this evil entity's face is a mirror image of Ye Xiajie's original appearance. But unlike Ye Xiajie's obsidian irises this man's eyes were crimson red as if dyed in the blood itself.

Without any expression on his face, Ye Gui caressed a black snowflake insignia under his left eye.

"Who the hell are you that you are able to tie your soul with me? This Deity is someone, not even the Origin God could control. I wonder how did you a little one who is a mere fragmented soul do such a thing. Truly interesting~" murmured Ye Gui as he could see the reflection of Xue Hua and Xie Mo's interaction on the water. His eyes were intently looking at Xue Hua's figure.

In the Ghost King's Palace.

Xue Hua watched the whole scene with the help of his system while lying on the bed on his stomach. He was currently laying on top of his husband after finishing their nightly exercise. Ye Xiajie is currently awake in Xie Mo's body. So he could see what kind of scene his wife is currently watching with the help of his system. None of them spoke a word about what they had witnessed but among them, System Yue and Xie Mo knew that something was up with that man who shares the same appearance as Ye Xijie.

"This being... he has the same face as you do, Fujun. Do you know him?" asked Xue Hua innocently, he totally didn't notice that he was being targeted not just by the Feng Clan but also by that unknown being that looks like the Nether System Lord God.

The Ghost King and System Yue had a tacit understanding that acted that something hadn't gone wrong with that scene just now. Thought deep within their hearts no one could explain their confusion and anxiety more than others. Xie Mo decided to change the topic and not get his memoryless wife involved with this.

Xie Mo said, "Wife, you should watch such disgusting things?" while caressing the naked back of his wife.

Languid in tiredness Xue Hua asked Yue to turn off the system's surveillance of the protagonists. He rested his head on the top of his husband's bare chest listening to his heartbeats as if it was a lullaby. Currently hugging his huge human size water bottle, Xue Hua closed his swollen eyes to rest.

Xue Hua spoke, "Fujun, are the heavenly laws of this world really harmful for you?"

"Hm... Qizi, are you talking about the oath? There is no need to worry about such a thing since... I haven't broken any oath I've said." Replied Xie Mo.

"What do you mean?" asked Xue Hua.

"My oath's content is: 'In exchange for the Lou Clan to become my vassal serving under me. I will receive one wife with the current leader's bloodline from the Lou Clan.' Meaning only the one I've accepted personally shall become my wife. We've exchanged vows and everything. The Oath has been considered complete the moment we had exchanged the nuptial cups that night." Explained Xie Mo with a doting smile as he landed a soft kiss on the top of his wife's soft hair.

"I see. Then there's no problem at all." Replied Xue Hua.

Xie Mo spoke, "Forget about me. Why don't we talk about that Feng Hou and Ye Gui? Aren't they coveting you? My wife..."

Hearing his husband's complaint, Xue Hua couldn't help but giggle. He then moves his head to look at Xie Mo. On his slightly flushed and weary but exquisite face, one could see his lips slightly upturned with hints of teasing. Within the depths of those golden orbs can be seen with sentiments of mischievousness and sneering. Seeing that expression, Xie Mo could feel that someone was tickling his heart.

"Hmm~ what should you do~ indeed?~~," asked Xue Hua teasingly. "By the way, I'm not going to lift a finger when they come over to take me back. But you'll not allow others to take me away right? Fujun~" as he lightly bit on his husband's chin.

Such a playful gesture made Xie Mo unable to control himself and exchanged positions with his wife. With Xue Hua pressed under his body, their skin touch shares the same warmth from their body's temperature. With his hand moving around, up, and down, from his wife's waist moving downwards to his hidden place. Xue Hua's sensitive body made a slight hoarse moan as he felt his husband's hand reaching in that place, but he didn't do anything to stop him.

"Hm~... Ngh!"

Xue Hua could feel his husband's long fingers entering him once again. Opening up his cavern for his impending entry. He could feel his husband's lips on his skin leaving more traces than before while the fingers under him were thrusting within him. The speed increases as his moaning become more and more rapid. But before he could reach his climax those fingers inside him were suddenly pulled out and impeded his release.

Then he heard his husband's deep and teasing voice linger near his ears, "Qizi should be punished. You can only be mine and mine alone. Never think of things like others coveting you, Those guys wouldn't exist in the future anyway..." whispered teasingly by Xie Mo to his wife's ears.

Xie Mo could feel his wife's squirming because of his unsated desires. He has been teasing him even now. Knowing what he wanted but not giving it until he asked for it. With an evil smile on his lips.

The Ghost King asked, "What do you want? If you don't tell me in words I wouldn't understand it, Qizi~" whispered Xie Mo while playfully nibbling on his wife's earlobe.

Being teased this badly Xue Hua's breathing becomes heavier and his slightly swollen eyes are misted with lust as he glares at Xie Mo. No one had teased him with lust like this before. He didn't know what was happening to him. According to his current memory, he is nothing but a young virgin, and this hooligan before him is his first man. But for some reason, his body would melt under this man's touch making him unable to struggle and indulge in pleasure instead.

He tightly gritted his teeth holding back his moans. "Ha~... B-Bastard..." murmured Xue Hua while glaring at her husband.

Xue Hua didn't beg for it. He is too proud to ask for it. Instead, he flipped position with his husband, Xue Hua placed himself on top of the Ghost King taking him by surprise. They've been naked this whole time as they've just finished their nightly exercises with numerous rounds from before. For the nth round, Xue Hua placed himself on top of Xie Mo because of his husband's teasing. The Ghost King was stunned by this action. Caught by surprise, Xie Mo watched his wife spread his own legs and rode on top of him. With a squelch, his giant object managed to pound straight deeply in one thrust. Xue Hua immediately covered his mouth and nearly let out a scream.

"UM! So big... Hot~ So deep~ Why the hell... you're so big~ Hah!" said Xue Hua as he couldn't control his body from moving above Ye Xiajie.

Under him, Xie Mo could only enjoy the movement his wife is making. He watched as his wife struggles to move to lift his ass, moving up and down, on his own while shamelessly moaning near to his ears. Xue Hua constantly moans on top of him. Riding him like a slut and swinging wildly his thin but flexible waist. Letting his huge member ram into his body. The Ghost King could only watch his wife as he enjoys the pleasure coursing throughout his whole body while staring at Xue Hua's lascivious appearance on top of him. He even move his waist to meet his wife's movement while holding that soft midriff that gifted him of his wife scream in pleasure. They move faster and faster to meet each other's demands.

After moving his hips up Xue Hua slightly trembles as the numbness on his legs can be felt and sat down on that thick thing piercing him from below. He continues to move his hips up and down as the pleasure spreads through all out of his body unable to control himself from moving. "Hah~ so amazing, it feels too tight and full inside~ So good~"

This time Xue Hua was able to see clearly the connection between him and his Fujun below. He could believe how such a huge and hot thing was able to enter that small hole of his leaving him an addictive feeling and couldn't help but want more. The rim of that pink and tender hole was clamping tightly on that heated cock inside him. His hole was so amazing that it didn't break with such a thing thrusting in him.

Only when he felt that his wife's movement slightly slowed down that he took the lead once again. Tightly gripping such a lean waist pulling him downwards to meet his upwards movement. Xie Mo couldn't hold back anymore and pushed Xue Hua down on the bed. Leaning on the top of his wife's body, he quickly thrust his hips against Xue Hua's wet hole, "Qizi's little hole is born to be fucked by Fujun's huge cock!"

"Ah~ Ngn~"

Xie Mo's caught Xue Hua's legs and pulled them farther apart revealing the hole which was covered in juice from fucking. The thick cock penetrates Xue Hua's little hole deeper and stronger than before. in a while, he finally deeply thrust his wife inside as they've released at the same time. Xue Hua couldn't hold back his scream at the last moment before losing all his strength and falling boneless on Xiajie's chest while feeling breathless.

Calming down once. Ye Xiajie kissed Xue Hua on his forehead, ignoring even his sweat.

Ye Xiajie asked worriedly, "Are you okay, Qizi?"

"Hmm~ so sleepy~ Leave you... the rest~..." replied Xue Hua as he fell asleep from fatigue. Even ignoring the thing that was left inside him.

A gentle and loving smile remained on Xie Mo's face as he slowly pulled out. He carried Xue Hua in the bathroom and cleaned him up as always. System Yue had to change the blanket and bed sheets while his lords were in the bathroom while doing so he couldn't help but rewatch that recording of that man with crimson eyes yet held the appearance of his Lord God.

Zhi Yue murmured, "Who is this person? Why does he have the same face as the Lord God yet feel totally evil? Is he the Lord's Soul Fragments but... he seems to have some memories..."

After changing the bedsheets Zhi Yue once again returned to his avatar form. He left a note to his lord that he wanted to check on this person who looks very similar to him. Cultivators and Immortals who live in Vearth usually only have one appearance in their whole life. This is because they do not need to enter reincarnation with their long-lasting lifespan. This is why it is totally impossible for someone to have the same appearance as his Lord God.

When Xie Mo returned to the bed, he noticed Zhi Yue's note and decided to leave it to him. He once again lied down on the bed with Xue Hua.

Xie Mo mumbled, "A fragment that has memories like myself? Aren't I supposed to be the most dominant soul fragment? Who the hell is he?" After thinking about it for a long time, Xie Mo decided to sleep for the night.

In the middle of the night, Xue Hua who was supposed to be sleeping so peacefully opened his eyes revealing silver irises that only Hei Anjing has. He controlled his subsystem and rewatched the scene of that man called Ye Gui. He watched it countless times as if imprinting the man's appearance and comparing it with the ones in his memories. Without any reason, his tears suddenly stroll down on his cheeks and stare at Ye Gui's face with loving and relieved emotions within those argent eyes.

"Thankfully it is not too late. I've been looking for you all this time. For you to appear once again my..."

With an extremely weakened soul, Hei Anjing couldn't fully stay awake and had fallen into a deep sleep once again. The words he murmured were overheard by the man who was beside him. At this moment Ye Xiajie's expression is unexplainable. Mixed emotions of confusion, anxiety, fear, and for some reason regret... fill his heart. He knew that Hei Anjing would wake up sometimes in the middle of the night but he never approached or talked to him in fear of making the latter hate him even more. He could only pretend to be asleep but didn't expect to witness this scene.

Ye Xiajie held his wife's face and caressed it gently. "Baby, what else are you hiding from me? How do you know that man who looks like me? Or is he me like I thought so...?" Murmured the ghost king.

No one answered his question and only the sound of Xue Hua's rhythmically breathing can be heard in the silent bedroom. He lowered his head and captured those lips in silence. That scene left a thorn within his heart. He can only wait for his wife to tell him who that person is or... he just has to know it on his own.

Chapter 408: 9.27 Second Blue Star - Envy

At dawn in the Lou Clan's Mansion.

Within the largest room in the mansion, two to three old men naked with only a few pieces of clothing on them were sleeping on the huge bed with satisfied faces in their sleep. In the middle of those men was Lou Lan who was covered in bite marks and bruises from intense love making. He looked like was ambushed with a few traces of semen all over his face and body. Like a broken doll, Lou Lan stared at the ceiling of the room in despair.

It just took one night for his life to turn over. He used to be an arrogant Young Master that was feared and cared for by everyone in the Clan. But once that monster didn't favor him, he was treated even worse than a servant or a prostitute. At least the prostitute can receive money from sleeping with some but he on the other hand was taken against his will.

A fishy scent was left in and out of his body and that disgusting thing that pushed him to the peak countless times was left inside of him. These old men's fingers would still caress his sensitive parts even in their sleep. His nipples and lips were swollen from too much bite and rubbing that it almost bleeds and the numbness and pain all over his body made him recall that night he was drugged and taken in turns the whole night.

Ngm~

Taking out that softened thing in his asshole, Lou Lan grabbed a fruit knife on the side table inside the room. With his eyes full of hatred and anger, he stabbed the three elders to death in their sleep. Ignoring the splurting blood all over him and his face Lou Lan with a maniacal grin on his face continuously stabbed these three elders who had gang raped him last night.

"Die... DIE... DIE... Just fucking DIE! You dare to do that to me!? You better die for this young master!!!"

After Lou Lan had killed off the three elders who had slept with him that night. He took a bath and changed his clothes. He packed his uniform, savings, and things that can be sold in his bag and escaped from home. Since the deed of murder was done while the sky is still dark Lou Lan thought no one would see what he did, never would he have expected that the handsome Yaoguai whom he treated as the monster was watching the whole scene in the darkness.

Lou Lan muttered, "I better live before the other wakes up. Shit! My body is in pain. I will never forgive them for this!" as he left the mansion without telling anyone and ran away from home.

A man who looks like Ye Xiajie but with crimson eyes appeared from the shadows. He is wearing dark red and black robes which match his hair and eyes. He glances at the three lifeless bodies of the three elders of Lou Clan with a nonchalant gaze. With a wave of his hands, the body of the three dead bodies was drained and he left a message on the wall using the blood of these corpses.

{They were killed by Lou Lan.}

That was what was written on the wall. Ye Gui looked in the direction where Lou Lan had disappeared too. He played with the darkness that gathered in his hand materializing a red butterfly made of blood.

"Follow the trash. Even if he is already useless a Protagonist will always bump into the other characters that involve him. If you find that person, report to me as soon as possible." said Ye Gui to the blood butterfly before it flew after Lou Lan. Then once again he disappeared within the darkness and no one knew where he had gone to,

Morning, Monday,

Xue Hua went to his usual spot under the bridge to meet the two old men who welcomed him with grumpy expressions on their faces. Xue Hua has been spending more time at his new home, the former Ancient Palace and has forgotten to pay a visit to these old men.

Well, he was spending some time with his husband and had no time for his stall but he sent his elder brother to give them some Talismans to sell. He gave them 100 Protective Talismans. 50 Ghost Repelling Talisman, 20 Cleansing Talisman, and 30 amulets to sell.

He also didn't forget to send them meals for breakfast and lunch with afternoon tea snacks included. On his way to school, he drops by the bridge with breakfast in his hands. This time Xie Mo took a human form and drove his wife on his way to school. But since Xue Hua wanted to drop by the bridge he followed his orders and drove in that direction.

Xie Mo helped him carry a few lunch boxes he made for the two elderly, acting like a henpecked husband who followed whatever his wife wanted.

Xue Hua approached the two grumpy Celestial Masters with a friendly smile.

"Yahoo~ I'm here for a visit and brought you breakfast. Today you can have toasted bread with fruits and jam plus hot milk tea. Did you miss me ba?~" said Xue Hua.

Master Ling hmphed at him and ignored him. Master Yi instead laughed at the little brat who forgot to show his face to see them.

HMPH!

"You still know how to visit us, little brat. You didn't come over for almost a week. We thought you got married or something!" said Master Xie Ye.

Xue Hua who heard the word married felt his face flushed and his cheeks instantly turned scarlet rendering Master Shen Ling and Master Xie Yi stunned. Though Master Yi was just joking when he said those words just now, who would expect him to hit the jackpot this time. Xue Hua, who was holding Xie Mo's hand on the way, pulled him over and introduced him to the two elders before him.

Introducing the elders first, Xue Hua said to his husband, "Fujun, these are my elder friends. Master Shen Ling and Master Xie Yi. They are Celestial Masters, ones with real ability."

Xie Mo ignored the two elders' astonished expression and said, "Pleasure to meet you... Elders? Um~" He greeted them in novelusb.com

"Ahm~ This... This is my husband, Xie Mo. He is a... Ghost King." said Xue Hua.

Xie Mo and the two Demigods looked at each other before the latter pair suddenly put their strongest guard up against Xie Mo. With their sight alone, they knew that this man called Xie Mo is not an ordinary being. His aura is too pure to be considered ghastly or evil. It was similar to the golden aura Xue Hua possessed yet with more red aura mixed in it. This means this person used to kill people on a daily basis. He is not a good man.

Master Ling hid Xue Hua behind him and his partner, they glared at Xie Mo who was looking relaxed as if the aura coming from the two Demigods before him could never move him at all.

"Xiao Hua, get over here. Why did you marry someone like this... this... anyway he is not a good person!" said Master Ling.

Master Yi stood before his wife and the little brat regardless of the pressure Xie Mo's aura is emitting. That suffocating aura alone is enough to make him breathless.

"Are you... that Notorious Ghost King in the legend? The one who is said to be able to become the First Divinity to ascend only to decline the enlightenment and remain to the Mortal Realm?" asked Master Yi.

Xie Mo looked through the memories of his current identity and found that he is indeed supposed to be the first divinity in this realm. He lightly nodded his head and agreed to Xie Yi's words.

"Hm~ I couldn't remember the past that clearly anymore. But that should be me indeed... Could you please return my wife to me? He would be late for school if you continue to hinder us like this," said Xie Mo with an amicable smile on his face but he looks like he is threatening them because of his majestic aura.

UGHS~

"Fujun, your aura is spreading again. Head it back you won't be able to place lots of humans in your current state," warned Xue Hua.

Xie Mo noticed that his domineering aura as the Ghost King had come out without him knowing and could only seal it in his human form to avoid causing problems to his wife.

"Oh~ I am still not used to this form. Forgive me I didn't do it on purpose. I'm glad that you both were Demigods or something bad might happen." said Xie Mo not totally caring about the state of the strangers. He then took back his wife from the two and said, "Qizi, don't get too attached with mortals. They cannot live for too long like us..."

"Eh? But I'm a mortal too?" said Xue Hua.

Xie Mo smiled and hugged him, "No you're not. Believe me, you can never be a mortal."

"What do you mean, Fujun?" asked Xue Hua.

but Xie Mo avoided answering that question and said, "You will be late for school. Let your husband send you there." He carried his wife back to the car after giving the two Celestial Masters a glance which made the two flinched.

Only when the car was long gone in front of their sight that Master Yi and Master Ling had let out a breath of relief. That atmosphere around that being is truly hard to bear. Plus the fact that he doesn't care about anyone except his wife, he seems to be the type to never care about strangers.

Master Yi cursed out, "Fuck! Who the hell said that the King of Hell is dead!? Isn't he alive and kicking enough to get married!?"

"Why did Xiao Hua agree to marry that man? He knows that he is a Ghost King and he is a Celestial Master?" Just why did they end up being together?" asked Master Ling with bewilderedness painted on his face. His expressionless face is now distorted with a frown.

Xie Yi thought for a moment and recalled the little brat's dreams.

"Hm? Isn't that man's eyes black? Is he the one the little brat said he met in the dream?" said Master Yi.

Master Shen Ling's face turned uglier with this comment, "If this is really the one in the dream then why do I feel he is also the same person in my prediction. The person with crimson eyes would kill Xiao Hua in the end. He makes me extremely uncomfortable. This is the first time I've felt this after becoming a Demigod. A'Yi, I feel that something will happen in the future. Something that would change this whole realm."

"Are you saying that the world disaster is connected to Xue Hua and that Ghost King? Impossible... There are just two of them. How could they do that?" said Master Yi with a disbelieving expression on his face.

Shen Ling looked in the direction where the couple disappeared, his face still covered in a frown, and mumbled, "I don't know. But it seems like it's fated."

In the School Gate where Xue Hua goes too, a luxurious car stopped in front catching everyone's attention. The car was not only brand new but a limited edition under one of the most expensive car brands in the world. When Xue Hua came out of the car followed by a handsome man with short black hair and dull grey eyes behind his glasses, almost everyone in the area was stunned. The appearance of this pair is too high class and too fitting to one another. One is a Celestial beauty with rare white hair and golden eyes making him look like an angel with a gentle temperament due to his sweet smile. The tall man who looks a few years older than the Celestial beauty looks like an otherworldly being with his cool ambiance and aloof aura.

This cold-faced man only looks gentle when his eyes land on the smaller man beside him. A rare smile appeared on his lip which was slightly arched.

"Qizi, I will pick you up again after class. Don't leave with strangers okay?" said Xie Mo as he kissed his wife's forehead as a goodbye kiss.

Xue Hua returns the kiss and pecks on Xie Mo's cheeks, "Please pick me up by the bridge later, Fujun."

KKKYYYAAAAAAHHHHH~~~

This scene resulted in a loud squealing in the audience and most of them came from girls. Though same-sex marriage is already allowed in this country, this is the first time they've seen such a pair of beautiful and handsome men. They looked like celebrities.

But not far from them a glare full of jealousy and envy was targeting Xue Hua who was being lovey-dovey with her husband. It was Lou Lan who had escaped from home and hid in school as he didn't know where to hide. He stares at Xue Hua as if he wanted him to die multiple times but with his current situation, he couldn't allow the others to know where he is or the Lou Clan would definitely drag him back home.

Lou Lan murmured from the distance, "How the hell can you smile when I had to suffer because you exist!? Xue Hua, everything that you have right now is supposed to be mine!"

Chapter 409: 9.28 Second Blue Star - Who are you?

Xue Hua only went to the school when he saw his husband's car had left for the road. As soon as the car had left some classmates of Xue Hua jumped on him with their faces full of grins. There's a hint of teasing within those glowing eyes. Especially the girls who love boys' love scenes like this one.

"Wow~ Our school's Male God suddenly disappeared for almost a week only to return it another Handsome man with him~"

"Xuexue you've kissed just now. You called him Fujun and he called you Qizi, is he your real husband for real?"

"Did you get married to him that's why you took an absence that long!?"

"Amazing~ One is beautiful while the other is handsome. A gentle beauty uke with his cold yet henpecked handsome husband!" Drools* Drools* Drools*

"When did you get married? What is his name? How did you meet?"

Being bombarded but countless questions about his relationship with his husband made his face crimson in embarrassment. He is still a young man who had experienced love for the first at least not based on his real yet hidden identity. Since he has no memories as Hei Anjing, this Xue Hua is no different from another person. Because of that he couldn't control his expression and would be showier with regards to his feelings than the real Hei Anjing.

With a sweet smile on his face, he listened to his classmate gossiping about his married life, he felt shy yet proud to be married to someone like Xie Mo.

Xue Hua whose cheeks were blushing like a red tomato said, "E-Enough. I will tell you in class. So...bye~" He ran off leaving a group of stunned students who didn't expect their usually cool and gentle Male God to leave them behind just to hide his shyness.

They couldn't hold back a laugh and run after Xue Hua.

"Xuexue, Wait for us you haven't told us a thing!"

"Capture him and make him confess everything!"

"Hey! Wait for me! I want some gossips too~"

In some hidden corner, Lou Lan glared at Xue Hua the moment he appeared in the school gates until he disappeared to run inside the school building. If a glare could kill no one knows how many times Xue Hua had died under Lou Lan's eyes. Somewhere within the shadows, an invisible being watches the scene between the Ghost King and his consort, he just stares as his crimson butterfly follows after the embarrassed Xue Hua.

His murmurs can either be heard or not and said, "This one is different from the one in my memories. He doesn't have that much of emotions on him except towards us. A fake or..." his words were suddenly cut off when he saw Xue Hua whose shy expression suddenly fades and looks back towards his directions.

Within those gold orbs were glints of silver that no one would notice unless one would stare at those eyes longer but the charm this young man possessed is beyond normal and no ordinary existence can stare at the depths of those eyes and see what was hidden in it.

Under the facade of that gentle appearance is an unknown danger that is carefully hidden within those golden orbs. What's more surprising is that Xue Hua would smile sweetly towards him out of nowhere and before he could reach the latter was long gone.

"Hm~ we should see each other soon~ hahaha~"

Only then does the hidden being finally take his leave. Xue Hua who had Hei Anjing's soul temporarily awakened stood in some desolated corner in the hallway after looking out of the school building's window stared down at his slightly trembling hands.

"Not yet. Not enough qi to keep me awake." Murmured Hei Anjing his eyes at the moment were silver once he blinked. The coldness around himself had disappeared, replaced with the innocence of a young man in his age.

Xue Hua blinked his eyes and looked around with a bit of confusion in his eyes, "How did I get here? Aren't I supposed to be on my way to class?"

Familiar voices of his classmates were heard from the hallway and Xue Hua poked his head in the corner he woke up and was spotted right away.

"There he is! Get him!"

"Xuexue it is unfair to keep it to yourself! Spill the beans, how did you meet such a hottie!"

"You and your husband have the best quality ba~ can you give me a couple of pics?"

Xue Hua said, "No, Fujun is only mine!" he suddenly declared which caused sudden quietness in the hall. This silence was instantly broken by someone who couldn't hold back his laughter. They were only teasing Xue Hua but never expected this Male God's reaction to being this cute. They couldn't help but cuddle this adorable person.

"Okay~ he's yours. No one is taking him from you~"

"Cutie~ I don't want the couple picture anymore. Just give this elder sister a pout. Come on~"

"Who is a cutie!? This Xue Hua is a man!" exclaimed Xue Hua but everyone just felt he was trying to be cute towards them and tease him more. They only stopped the commotion when the teachers arrived to break up the crowd.

"What are you brats still doing here? Go back to class and wait for your teachers!" said the old dean.
novelusb.com

The student collectively answered, "Yes, Dean!"

Once the students had dispersed, Xue Hua finally let out a breath of relief. When he turned around he saw the old dean smiling at him.

Xue Hua flinched for a moment before asking, "Is there something wrong, dean?"

"Hoho~ Nothing dear. This old man just thought that our little genius had indeed married a good man. Your husband's subordinate called the other day when your absence had taken too long. He explained the reason and the school understood but your husband is too amazing as an apology he bought the empty lot next to our school and donated it to the school. Now we are planning on making another school building in that land. The money for the building's expenses was paid by your husband as well. He is indeed a good man."

"Eh? What!?" asked Xue Hua in disbelief.

DING. DONG. DING

Once again the conversation was suddenly cut off as the bells started ringing. This signifies the start of the first class.

The Old Dean said, "Oh it's time for class. Hurry along and go to your room. Hum~"

This old educator's mood is at best today that he started humming happily with his hands on his back as he walks away. Leaving the bewildered Xue Hua who attended his class dazed.

Meanwhile in front of the gate just before Lou Clan's Mansion, a luxurious white sedan escorted by a group of the black sedan stopped.

Countless bodyguards wearing semi-modern and ancient clothes in uniformed design style came out of the black cars and surrounded the white car in all angles. Among those men, an old man in a tunic with a profound aura surrounding him approached the white car. The aura around this old man isn't simple at all.

Those who knew things about cultivation could feel that despite his age this old man is stronger than a muscled man in younger age. He is obviously a martial artist that works for the Feng Clan.

The old man opened the door and slightly lowered his head and spoke to the ones inside the white sedan.

"My Lord, Masters and Young Lord Feng. We had arrived at the Lou Clan's Mansion."

As soon as these words were said, a few people came out of the car. The first one to disembark is a handsome man with long crimson hair, but it wasn't the same shade as that of blood but instead, it had hints of orange mixed with red. It had the same shade as the sunset. His features were first class and like Hei Anjing's eyes this person has phoenix-shaped eyes hidden within is a red-gold iris that makes him even more inhuman.

But unlike Hei Anjing's phoenix-shaped eyes which exclude the coldness and elegance of snow-capped mountains which makes him unapproachable and unattainable, this scarlet golden-eyed man emits majestic as a king. His eyes were like staring at his servants that he deemed to serve him as his majesty.

Wearing an ancient robe on him, he looks like those immortals in the legend. A god-like man whose existence itself is considered as a miracle.

This person is the ancestor of the Feng Clan. A purebred Phoenix whose cultivation attainment had reached Godhood allowing him to have a human body. His name is Feng Houye.

Following him is the Old Master of Feng, Feng Shi, and his son, the current master, and father of the protagonist gong, Feng Ku. Last but not the least, this world's most beloved son of heavens. The Protagonist Gong who had the role of the youngest yet strongest shaman in this world, Feng Hou.

Lord Feng or Feng Hou looked around the territory owned by the Lou Clan but he wasn't admiring the scenery that the sight beholds. Instead, his eyes could see a different kind of image from the trees of wisterias scattered around the place spreading the scent of floral and nature in the area.

What Lord Feng could see is a dark qi that spreads in this whole territory covering the Lou Mansion and prevents anything or anyone from seeing through what was hidden inside.

Those phoenix-shaped eyes of Feng Hou narrowed when he witnessed such a thing. He is an ascended God himself though he had descended in this mortal plane once again his capabilities are still that of a Deity. For this black aura to prevent him to see what's in this Lou Lan meant that there is another deity living in this place and this unknown entity is an Evil being with a God Cultivation stage.

A serious expression appeared on Feng Houye's handsome face and said, "You told me that the Lou Clan serves the Ghost King, Xie Mo, right?"

"Yes, Lord Feng. This clan had signed a master-servant contract in exchange for power. They had also made a promise to let one of their descendants as the Ghost King's Consort which ended up making that pure golden soul marry him instead of the Lou Clan's Scion, Lou Lan," answered Feng Ku.

Feng Houye, "It seems this Clan had two sources of power then. After breaking their connection with Xie Mo, they seemed to have found another patron to serve. But this one is pure evil yet stronger than Xie Mo or me. We are retreating!" he said as he wanted to take his leave from this place only for the darkness to suddenly descend above them.

In an instant, they were imprisoned in a black dome with no entrance nor an exit. The darkness had surrounded their entourage and couldn't see anything around them. The bodyguards that came with the Feng Clan were all trained Celestial Masters, though they weren't on the same level as Master Xie Yi and Master Shen Ling. They were still professionals. Pulling out a personally made talisman from their pockets they've made a temporary light source around them.

But it was no use as this darkness had no beginning nor an end, it was the abyss itself.

Feng Ku asked, "Just where the hell are we? There is nothing in all directions, only darkness."

"Quiet, Ku." reprimands Feng Shi to his son. Then turned his head towards their ancestor and politely asked, "Pardon me for this rudeness but this one wants to ask a question. Does Lord Feng know where they are?"

Feng Houye, the Phoenix God from the upper realm looks around in the darkness but still couldn't point out where the owner of this space is.

Feng Houye answered, "This is a God's Domain. All those who had reached enlightenment and got the strength of the deity would possess a domain in accordance with the main element they have. Just by looking at this domain, the owner of this might have specialized in Dark Elements."

He was patiently explaining to his descendants what kind of space they were in when they suddenly heard peals of laughter from an unknown direction.

Hahahaha~

Everyone had heightened their guards and pulled out their weapons though most of them are afraid they could still somewhat calm down with Feng Houye by their side as a backer. But what they didn't know was that Houye himself was at loss, because inside this domain he couldn't feel any qi in his body at all as if he had become a weak human who had no capabilities of cultivation.

Feng Houye asked, "Who are you?"

Chapter 410: 9.29 Second Blue Star - Coveting him means death.

Feng Houye asked in that darkness, "Who are you?"

A deep and magnetic voice answered him but the tone this man had used was nonchalant as if looking down on a godly being like himself.

"Heh~ You can be in the place I reside yet you speak as if you own this place," replied Ye Gui.

Feng Houye said, "You live in the Lou Clan? Impossible isn't the Lou's connection of power comes from Ghost King Xie Mo?"

"That is also true. Though I am not completely involved in this Clan of mortals, they are still connected to me. Let's say that they treat me as their Ancestor." said Ye Gui. "Let's get to the main topic. Why are here coming over to see the Lou Clan? Answer the question and maybe I can allow you to leave~ if not then you can only stay within this darkness I've made."

"Tsk! What the hell are you? You can even restrain my abilities as a Deity! How can you have such strength? This is impossible. Isn't the only divinity left in this mortal realm is Xie Mo, that Ghost King? Who the hell are you?"

"Haha~ If you like answering just shout for me. By the way, don't compare me with him. But you aren't totally wrong~ that Ghost King and I are the same people yet at the same time not. So who do you think I am~" Once Ye Gui's voice faded all light sources in the area once again faded and no matter how many times they would light up the area it would blow out as if something was preventing it from lighting.

Recalling the playful tone of Ye Gui's voice made them shiver, they were being threatened yet none of them could do a thing within this dark space as if they were within the abyss itself. There is only darkness in this place and nothing more. In the beginning, they still had the will to stay strong with Feng Houye as their backup but who would expect that the ancestor they revered to be powerless before this unknown being. They could even bring them out of this domain and their mentality started to break. It

"We can't get out of this place!?"

"It's so dark! This is so uncomfortable!"

"Let me out! I had nothing to do with this!!!"

"Shut up! I paid you to protect me but you couldn't prevent this from happening!? Useless!" yelled Feng Ku.

"That is a being that is close to a God. What can we mortals do against it!"

"That's right! Why don't you ask your so powerful Ancestor to break us out of here? Ah right~ he couldn't do it. His powers were sealed in this place hah~"

In the end, Feng Houye snapped and killed those who spoke as opposed to him. Unlike these mortals, he isn't completely blind in the darkness. He could still see their outline and their movements based on their breathing which is why he could pinpoint which of these humans had talked down on him.

What was sealed as his qi but his bloodline ability and his physical strength is still there. As a born mythical creature like him, this godly phoenix is not someone a weak entity could look down upon. He insta-killed those who had bad-mouthed him and the last thing they could hear was the painful screams they made before taking their last breath.

AAAAHHHHH!!!

"Forgive me! I'm so sorry! Urgh!"

"No! How can he see us! Argh!" movelus.com

"I... Urghs~"

Then Feng Houye's cold voice echoes within that darkness, "Is this Deity something you useless mortal could talk to? Absurd! Hmph!" he threw away the last corpse he had killed with his hands.

Due to the darkness, no one else could see what was happening but there would be some wetness splashing on them as they were cuddling with each other. The warm liquid that fell on their faces and skin obviously this fresh blood from those people the ancestor had killed. Now, they were even more terrified with this darkness and most of them had shut their mouths in fear that they might anger the only being that could see in this darkness.

Once Feng Houye had snapped, Ye Gui who was watching the scene with an entertained gaze finally decided to take back his domain.

"Hahaha~ humans are indeed interesting beings and those bastards from the upper realms are still as short-tempered as before. Anyway, you can visit the Lous, they made kind preparations for your arrival," said Ye Gui as he removed the domain of darkness that had spread all over the place.

As soon as the darkness had disappeared the original scenery of luxury was now tainted with blood. Under the feet of Feng Houye were a few corpses and his robes and hands were bathed in scarlet blood. The stickiness left behind by the blood of the other made him disgusted and instantly cast a cleansing spell on himself which immediately removed all stains on him including the blood. Feng Houye coldly glanced at the corpse under his feet and snapped his fingers. With a snap, red flames burn all those dead into ashes including the blood pooling under his feet.

In front of the gates, Lou Ming and some elders from the Lou Clan had come to welcome them. They've also witnessed what that handsome inhuman man had done. Seeing a fire ignited with just a snap of fingers made them a bit fearful towards this being. Moreover, the Ancestor said that this person is not a human being but instead a godly mythical creature who had ascended in the upper realm. What is the upper realm? Isn't it the land where only deities and Gods could leave, this man called Feng Houye seems to have come from such a place?

Feng Houye took the lead this time and walked towards the members of the Lou Clan. He looked at Lou Ming who was smiling like a sly fox and clicked his tongue.

Tsk!

"Where is your ancestor? This deity wants to meet him," said Feng Houye.

Lou Ming and the rest of the Lou Clan members were taken aback for a moment. Normally it was only their Clan Leader who could see the Ancestor. But this man in front of them is another God like the ancestor, they didn't know how they should be treating him.

Lou Ming, "T-This..." while thinking of the words he had to say to the Deity before him, Lou Ming suddenly heard his ancestor's voice in his head.

'Bring that stupid bird to me. As for the rest, you can deal with them as you wish.' the voice of Ye Gui lingers near the ears of Lou Ming. The latter pretended not to hear it so the man before him would catch on. It seems that their ancestors took a liking to this inhuman being before them.

With a friendly smile on his face, Lou Ming treated Feng Houye with respect and said, "Then allow this little one to escort this lord to the Ancestor's side. The rest please come with the elders and they would entertain you for a bit while I am gone."

Feng Shi, Feng Ku, and Feng Hou followed the elders of the Lou Clan in another place. Feng Houye on the other hand was escorted to the underground basement where Ye Gui resides.

At the underground basement, Ye Gui was seen at the side table near the river having tea. He was watching someone's reflection show on the water. It was Xue Hua. Once Feng Houye saw the back figure of Ye Gui, especially his silky black long hair running along his back without care and his body which was covered in firm muscles made his heart beat fast. It only took a moment for this Phoenix God to be bewitched by the aura Ye Gui held. This is one of his characteristics as a Yaoguai. Even though he is a monster he used to be a God that was demoted from the upper realms.

Ye Gui isn't merely an ordinary God, like Feng Houye. He is a being that had a connection to Ye Xiajie and the Highest Realm which is Vearth. Like Hei Anjing his appearance is already beyond all races and they were top quality in all worlds. Adding up their own unique temperament to their attractiveness is abnormal.

Feng Houye's thoughts, 'Who is this man for him to possess such aura and demeanor. The Majestic presence he possesses could even outclass the current ruler of the Upper Realm (Heaven) and most Gods and goddesses couldn't even hold a candle over him.'

Lou Ming lowered his stance and spoke to his ancestor without meeting his gaze. Ever since this boss had started using his real appearance, even he wouldn't escape being bewitched once he met his gaze. This is why he would avoid meeting those crimson eyes of this inhuman being.

"Oh~ you can go back and do what you are supposed to do," said Ye Gui as he shooed away Lou Ming as if he was in the way.

Lou Ming bowed for the last time and walked back to the surface while Feng Houye approached Ye Gui with a dazed look. He didn't even realize that he had stretched his hands out to touch Ye Gui only when the smile on his handsome face faded that Feng Houye realized what he just tried to do.

Ye Gui spoke, "For the God of all Phoenix in this world you have a weak will that can be influenced by someone. Ha!"

A crimson blush appeared on Feng Houye's cheeks as he was thoroughly embarrassed by the word Ye Gui had said about him. He murmured to himself, "I am not weak-willed. You are just too handsome. Even more attractive than the Immortal King in the Upper Heavens."

Ye Gui who heard his murmuring just snorted and chose to ignore him.

"Now that you see me, what do you wish to do?" asked Ye Gui.

Feng Houye thickened his face and said, "How about considering me a partner. I am the youngest phoenix in our race and my bloodline is the purest. Though your main element is darkness and was somehow in contrast with my element which is fire, doesn't that makes us compatible with contradiction?"

Ye Gui stares at him from head to toe and his eyes linger on those crimson orbs then he averted his gaze showing his disinterest and said, "My ideal is someone who can be said to be the embodiment of moon or snow. Argent irises that wouldn't allow me to move away my gaze from and cold temperament that would make me want to tease him. As for you... you would never fit me. Go back to where you came from..."

He then returned his eyes to the river showing the face of Xue Hua. When Feng Houye saw the figure of the young human on the surface of the water, he could see some gold aura radiating from this young man. The aura was so pure that even Feng Houye couldn't help but stare longer at Xue Hua's figure.

"T-This... This... isn't this the human who possesses the pure golden aura!? Are you interested in the Ghost King's Consort as well?" asked Feng Houye.

But what he received from Ye Gui is a cold and warning gaze, the possessiveness within those deep red orbs was so clear that made Feng Houye shut up immediately. He suddenly reached out his right hand and grabbed Feng Houye's neck and clamped on it with force enough to suffocate the man and then his voice turned completely devoid of emotions and feelings. The sharp gaze that landed on him made Feng Houye trembles, he felt the looming aura of death hovering around him.

"Did you come over here because you covet him as well? If so then I... can only kill you~" said Ye Gui as his crimson eyes turned fierce as if he had gone mad.

Thoughts of Feng Houye, 'Impossible!? The human is already married to the Ghost King. Thought his possessiveness is beyond normal how come he isn't confronting Xie Mo instead of watching the human in secret.'

"Y-You... are you connected to the Ghost King, Xie Mo?" asked Feng Houye but the latter only gave him an evil smile and replied,

"Didn't I've already told you? He is me and I am him. We are the same yet at the same time different."

Feng Houye, this Phoenix God finally knew what fear of death is, under this man's hand his death would be permanent and he would never be able to be reborn at all.
