

Worlds Plot 641

Chapter 641: 12.43 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Fragrance of Lotus

At the shrubs.

Two of the three police cars had stopped in front of an abandoned church. Jie Yun and Wei Lou were both wearing civilian clothes and their hands were cuffed. Officer Ying Wu was the one who appeared before them

Officer Ying Wu said, "Please follow me to the church. The one who temporarily freed you is waiting for you."

The two of them followed after the young police officer. Inside the abandoned church, even though it was slightly dim and the wooden benches in rows look a bit old, most of them are still usable. The place was cleaned up before it was occupied. The outside was in ruins but the inside is livable.

Police Officer Ying Wu left for a moment when he didn't spot their superior in the church. He had no other choice but to temporarily leave the two criminals with their hands still cuffed.

Wei Lou started acting like the thug he is. He sling his arm over Jie Yun's shoulder and said,

"Little Bro, do you know what is happening here? You're from the prison as well right?"

.....

"Unhand me. Brute," said Jie Yun as he elbowed the man hanging on his shoulders.

Wei Lou reacted fast as he pushed away the man and dodged the fatal blow. If that elbow landed on his body his left rib cage would mostly be shattered by impact.

"Not bad~ little bro, are you a professional killer? Your move just now is too deadly~" said Wei Lou.

Jie Yun coldly narrowed his eyes on the former mafia not far from him and said, "A remnant of a Fallen Family ha. No wonder you act so unfriendly."

Wei Lou lost his smile with this comment. He hated it when others mentioned his broken clan. The two were about to break a brawl on the spot when they were stopped by the arrival of Ye Yuyan who washed his face to remove the scent of alcohol on him.

Ye Yuyan passed between the two and sat at the wooden bench looking at them.

"What's wrong? Continue fighting. It's just about to get interesting..." said Ye Yuyan.

Based on how he is acting he doesn't even care if the two of them beat up each other until they kill one another. They are criminals and Ye Yuyan's reputation in the criminal world is quite high.

Jie Yun said, "Aren't you are, Prosecutor Ye? So you are really alive?"

"That demon prosecutor? I heard he lost once to a young murderer and lost his omega and child. How sa..." Wei Lou suddenly shut up when he saw Ye Yuyan's sharp yet fierce gaze. He looks more like a killer with this look.

He knew that if he mentioned one more word about his deceased partner and child the gun he is holding in his left hand would definitely shoot him down. That's how dangerous the vibe he is getting towards this mad prosecutor.

Tsk!

Wei Lou could only click his tongue in anger and fear. He wasn't willing to put his life on the line just to test Ye Yuyan's mood.

Ye Yuyan glanced at Police Officer Ying who came with him and said, "Uncuff then and start the explanation."

"Aren't we gonna wait for the last one to come, Sir?" asked Officer Ying Wu.

Ye Yuyan rolled his eyes and recalled Hua Heiyu which instantly put him in a sour mood.

"That bastard. You only need to give him a few words and he will understand the whole story. Just focus on explaining to these two who need that long explanation to understand the whole situation. Get started." said Ye Yuyan while closing his eyes as if taking a nap when in reality he is trying to contact his wife through telepathy.

Young Officer Ying Wu began his explanation while Wei Lou and Jie Yun temporarily calmed down in the presence of mad police like Ye Yuyan. He knew this person wouldn't hesitate to shoot at them if he felt like it.

Officer Ying Wu said, "Please sit down. I will begin now. Listen carefully."

He pulled a wooden board filled with photos of people, houses, streets, and locations.

"What you see here is the information about the unsolved serial murder case in this city. So far there are 8 deaths."

Wei Lou interfered in the conversation, "Why are you telling us this?"

"Of course! You need to catch the culprit. You guys are not completely free okay. Wei Lou is sentenced to 30 years while Jie Yun to 25 years. The last one is sentenced to 50 years I think."

"Between the three of you, only the person who can catch the killer would get his sentence reduced by 5 years."

"Are you guys interested now?"

Jie Yun asked, "Are your words credible? I think your too young to have such the privilege of reducing one's sentence."

"Of course! He does not have that kind of authority. But I do... Each length of sentence reduction would depend on the case. It could be just 3 years, five years like right now, or even 10 years worth. The harder the case the longer the reward would be. In each case, only the one who catches the culprit would get their sentence decreased. This is a competitive society so I guess you understand." said Ye Yuyan.

Wei Lou said, "If we catch that punk, our sentence would be cut. Is this only it or are there other conditions?"

novelusb.c/o\mm

“Of course. There are. Drinking is prohibited. Women are prohibited. Driving is prohibited. Well since everything is prohibited just do everything, I don’t care. How can one live without drinking? How can you catch the culprit without violence? To me as long as the culprit is caught I live I don’t care if it is missing a few limbs~”

“But there is another catch since you aren’t completely freemen but yes... Let’s consider you volunteers. You guys would need to wear a tracker plus locator for me. Then go ahead and go wherever you want. My first rule, if you are summoned come on time. If not you shall be punished.”

“Ying Wu put the bracelet on them,” said Ye Yuyan.

Wei Lou and Jie Yun didn’t dare to resist as Ying Wu put the black bracelet which is almost a perfect fit on their wrist and seems to be unable to be removed by normal means.

Ye Yuyan said, “Oh~ those bracelets are made from special materials unless you are willing to cut off your hand, that cannot be removed without my biometrics.”

Officer Ying Wu was observing the scene from a distance when suddenly his phone rang. It was a call from their ministry of defense. A piece of shocking news was reported to him.

“Prosecutor Ye! Something happened to the last criminal. He escaped!” exclaimed Ye Yuyan.

Ye Yuyan murmured with deep anger, “Just as I thought, that kid wouldn’t make things easier for us. I will reduce your sentence for 3 years only to the first person to bring back Hua Heiyu.”

“Hua Heiyu? You don’t mean the young man you police officers deemed as the youngest serial killer. Heh~ he is the first minor to be put in jail. I heard it was our good Prosecutor Ye who overused his authority to it and even exchanged his position just to put him behind bars.” said Jie Yun.

Wei Lou said, “I’ve seen that kid too. He looks so small and slender. Making you wonder if he could kill a person.”

“What do you know!? When I got home there were no other traces than him being there alone standing as he watched my house with the dead bodies of my omega and child burning into ashes!!! The security camera caught nothing but he alone was there standing watching my house burn without any expression on his face.”

“If he was innocent why didn’t he call for help?”

“If he wasn’t the killer, why would he appear there at the exact time an explosion happened in my house.”

“It can only be done by him. Only he who was there knows what truly happened but when I interrogated him, he didn’t speak a word. He just stared at me silently as if he was a mute.”

Ye Yuyan’s sudden outburst rendered everyone speechless. Even Ying Wu didn’t expect his superior to lose his cool all of the sudden. It seems he hates Hua Heiyu more than anything in the world yet at the same time he knew deep in his heart that the young man might not be the one who killed his family. If so... Why isn’t he saying a single word to help solve that case? It was because of this that he hated Hua Heiyu with all his heart.

“Spread and try to find him. Capture him back!” said Ye Yuyan.

Meanwhile at the same gas station where the last police car was stopped. Ye Yuyan and the other three had followed over to listen to the two police officers who were supposed to bring Hua Heiyu to the shrubs.

Their faces were all beaten up as if they were treated as sandbags by someone. As soon as Ye Yuyan saw their faces like this his eyes turned cold. The two police officers thought he was angry with them. Officer Ying Wu was the one who asked for their testimonies.

Officer Ying Wu reported to Prosecutor Ye, “Sir, they said Hua Heiyu pretended to go to the restroom to pee. In the public restroom, Hua Heiyu caught them off guard and beat them up one by one, and escaped after stealing the keys to the handcuffs.”

Wei Lou sarcastically laughed at the two beaten blue uniform-wearing policemen.

“Aigoo~ You guys really worked hard. Heh~”

Jie Yun is more practical and twisted their arms over their head and slid down the sleeves of their uniforms and forced them to show their fist to see. One fist from each police officer had traces of fighting and it was a bit swollen. The bruises on their faces were obviously manmade.

“Your fist is swollen. Even if you tried to lower it by pouring water over your hands it would instantly disappear as you wish. You two beat each other and gave us a lie as your confessions.” said Jie Yun.

Officer Ying Wu looked at his police comrade in disbelief, “You guys are lying!? Why don’t you tell us the truth? What is your purpose!?”

“What can they say? It is very hard for Alphas like them to confess that a weak omega like Hua Heiyu was able to escape from them,” said Ye Yuyan.

Wei Lou said, “So that kid is an omega. No wonder his cell was solitary for his own use only.”

Ye Yuyan stared coldly at the two police officers. His eyes were dull and his face was expressionless. Everyone then knew how angry the prosecutor was at this moment.

“First offense, lying to your superior. Second, giving false testimonies, and third, failing to fulfill tasks given. You guys already have three offenses. If you have enough brain left in you, you know what you should do next.” said Ye Yuyan before walking out of the public restrooms.

The two police officers who were tasked to bring Hua Heiyu and lied were now helpless as they looked like they’d lost their souls. Wei Lou and Jie Yu. Followed without a second thought and went outside as well. Only Officer Ying Wu gave the two former police comrades a bit of advice.

Officer Ying Wu said, “Resign voluntarily. At least you can still work as a police officer in some other city or province. If the Prosecutor reported this case, you would lose your credentials and would no longer be a policeman.

Sir, is not blaming you for lying. Because he knew what kind of criminal Hua Heiyu was. Isn't the type to be strong physically but he can influence others to abide by his commands. Until now no one knows about his special ability. Tell me what you know so your hearts will be free."

The police officers looked at each other. Only the driver of the police car who was with Hua Heiyu at that moment confessed what he had experienced.

"I only smell the scent of mint and flowers. Ah! That's right. He said it was the fragrance of lotus flower."

Chapter 642: 12.44 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Escapee Hua Heiyu

After Ye Yuyan left the public restroom. He heads straight to the police car parked at the gas station. He didn't hesitate to take down the dashcam inside the car and watch the recording. Standing beside him are Wei Lou and Jie Yun. There is only a recording so they haven't known anything about the pheromones Hua Heiyu had released to take over the control of the mind of that unlucky police officer.

They watched as Hua Heiyu sat in the back seat of the police car with his arm tied to the car handle inside the car. He was staying silent as he looked at the scenery outside the car window with a nonchalant expression on his face. In the video, they can see the police officer peeking at Hua Heiyu as if he was intoxicated by his beauty. Everyone who had met Hua Heiyu knew that he was a very beautiful young man who had a gentle and elegant demeanor which made others easily like him.

Suddenly they heard the police talking nonsense out of nowhere.

The Police officer in the driver's seat, "Hm? What is this fragrance? Mint? Flower?"

Hua Heiyu, "It's the scent of a lotus flower."

{Mr. Police Officer~ would you be so kind and uncuffed me please~}

"Good job!"

{Go to sleep now~}

The three who were watching the video only heard Hua Heiyu saying the following sentences and noticed the reaction of the police officer who was with him inside the car acting weird. He first fell into a state of daze. Seeing his eyes dull and lifeless, it can be said he had fallen into some kind of hypnosis.

The one who is obviously controlling him is Hua Heiyu. Only this beautiful young man's voice can be heard talking on the video recording. Then as if following Hua Heiyu's command, the police officer lost consciousness and had fallen asleep. They even heard him snoring in the video.

The scene afterwards is as expected. Hua Heiyu stole the keys and removed the handcuff tied on the car handle. Took the money from the police officer and walked away gracefully as if he wasn't an escaped criminal at all. He even didn't forget to smile at the dashcam and the whole thing was recorded.

His expression at the end is clearly an act of provocation as he knew that the police to be exactly Prosecutor Ye would check on the recording.

Ye Yuyan almost destroyed the camera on the spot. Thankfully, Officer Ying Wu had taken it away from his hand before he had thrown it to the ground due to rage.

Officer Ying Wu said, "Please don't ruin the evidence! Sir!"

"What is this? Did he know we will check on the dashcam recording and leave an annoying smile directed at us?!" said Wei Lou.

Jie Yun commented, "This smile is not for you. It is for him..." he gestured with his chin that the last smile Hua Heiyu had flashed at the camera and was recorded was left for Ye Yuyan. This psychopathic genius obviously predicted that Prosecutor Ye would notice the dashcam in the police car which most people hadn't taken notice of.

"It seems that... He knew your personality too well. Does that mean you also know where he should have gone next?" asked Jie Yun.

With silent anger swirling in his heart, Ye Yuyan clicked his tongue and replied, "... Yes, I think I know where he is... Sigh~ that damn brat!" muttered Prosecutor Ye as he walked away from the gas station walking towards the nearby café which one would pass by before reaching the gas station.

Wei Lou, Jie Yun, and Officer Ying Wu were dumbfounded by the hidden yet simple-looking Café by the road. The exterior of the store was made to complement the surrounding forestry. It looks like it's made from expensive wood and possesses a semi-modern and eco-friendly design that both looks aesthetic and minimalist.

The ambiance this cafe emits is that of the natural beauty of nature and modernism in it. Since the store is near the road, only those who pass by the highway would be able to come and visit the cafe. Just based on some luxurious yet low-key expensive cars at the distant parking lot offered by the store, this place seems to be available only for elite and wealthy people to visit. The store also ensures privacy for those who want a silent environment and to enjoy nature at their own pace.

Wei Lou who looks like a thug, Officer Ying Wu in his police uniform, and Ye Yuyan who looks like a drunkard received scrutinizing gazes from the customers of the cafe. Only Jie Yun looks a bit compatible with the location set as he was wearing a comfortable suit on him.

"Um. Their eyes are quite uncomfortable," commented Officer Ying Wu.

Wei Lou clicked his tongue and said, "They are obviously looking down on us. Oi! What are you looking at!?"

"Stop it! Don't act like a thug. So unrefined." said Jie Yun.

Ye Yuyan remained cool-headed and ignored the eyes wandering on him. He might look like a drunkard but his physique and face alone allowed others to overlook his disadvantages plus he is a dominant alpha, ordinary alphas, and betas couldn't help but fear while omegas are captivated.

Tsk!

"So annoying. Jie Yun let me borrow your suit, just the upper one would do," said Ye Yuyan.

Jie Yun leads him to his suit coat. He watched as Ye Yuyan, who was wearing a white t-shirt, wore the suit coat over and even combed up his hair into a semi-formal attire. The languidness of his eyes disappeared and was replaced with a serious gaze as he rearranged his cuff and buttoned up his clothes. His casual demeanor completely changed from a handsome drunkard to an elite-looking man.

Whistles~

“Not bad. You look like your old self this way,” said Wei Lou.

Ye Yuyan glared at him and said with a threatening cold tone, “You shut your mouth.”

“Whatever~ are you going to hit me? ~ go on. Try me~” said Wei Lou trying to taunt this infamous Prosecutor of the legends.

Ye Yuyan ignored him and said to Officer Ying Wu, “Watch over them. If they try to escape, just shoot them down.”

“Oi. Oi! What is this tyranny!?” said Wei Lou.

Jie Yun said, “So noisy.”

“What did you say!?” said Wei Lou as he grabbed Jie Yun’s collar.

Jie Yun looked at him calmly yet coldly, “Let go if you still want your hand.”

“Don’t fight here. How embarrassing!” said Officer Ying Wu.

Ye Yuyan ignored them and headed to the café to look for the runaway criminal. His face is not good obviously his mood is not on the right side. His steps were heavy as if he didn’t wish to walk towards this place but he couldn’t do anything but follow the plan he and his wife had made as the Syndicate had once again made contact with Hei Yuhua even in his disguised form.

The real reason why Hei Yuhua in the identity of Hua Heiyu noticed the signs of summoning from the Syndicate. He saw a person in a black suit with a face unfamiliar to him holding a bouquet of red hydrangeas in his hand by the window of the police car which was on its way to the shrubs.

This is the reason he intentionally frightened the two police officers who were escorting him on the way leading them to be terrified of him and would make them. Instinctively, I want to pee. When the police car stopped at the gas station he had already planned his escape which wasn’t in his original plan.

A few hours ago.

At the suburbs, in the abandoned church.

It was just at that moment Ye Yuyan closed his eyes to connect his mind with his wife through telepathy.

Ye Yuyan: {Wife, are you near the shrubs yet? I miss you so much~}

Hei Yuhua: {We’ve only been separated for a day or two. We will see each other soon.}

Ye Yuyan: {Where are you now?}

Hei Yuhua: {About to reach the gas station near the shrubs... Hm! Change of plans. I'm going to escape. I saw Nightshade. It's a summon. Pick me up at the Café before the gas station. Make sure to show an act of hate when you do. Use your gun. Don't worry I can dodge a bullet or two.}

Ye Yuyan: {...Can I... not do it?}

Hei Yuhua: {Do you want to sleep on the sofa tonight?}

Ye Yuyan: {I will do it. I love you, Yu'er.}

Hei Yuhua: {I love you too, A'Yan. Your assistant will receive a call soon about my escape. Please act well. If Nightshade comes over he must be checking if there's a conspiracy between us. He is a paranoid person.}

Ye Yuyan: {Be careful, wife.}

Hei Yuhua: {I will. You as well, darling.} novelusb/c\oM

Half an hour later Officer Ying Wu indeed received a call about Hua Heiyu's escape and they all went to the nearby gas station which led to the current situation.

Inside the café, a few hours before Ye Yuyan and the rest arrived at the scene.

Hei Yuhua disguised as Hua Heiyu was sipping a strawberry latte frappuccino he ordered and paid by Nightshade for him. They had just finished their business and Hei Yuhua was reminded of his mission to seduce Prosecutor Ye.

Nightshade spoke, "You must do anything to seduce that Demon Prosecutor. Make sure to keep him away from our main mission locations. I don't mind if you sacrifice the small ones."

"That's quite a tough job. The meaning is the same as before. I will only do it if you let me meet the leader. Otherwise, forget giving me missions." said Hei Yuhua.

Nightshade chuckles, "I will convey it to the leader. You are a newbie executive, it wouldn't be possible to let you meet Poppy without any achievements."

"Speak. What do you want me to do," asked Hei Yuhua.

Nightshade spoke, "Hydra, keep the police away from the pier at the end of this month. Hyacinth and Azalea would step into the country by water. If you do it, I will pass your message to the leader."

"....I accept." said Hei Yuhua.

"Good. Your current teammates are already here. I will leave you here to rejoin them. Good luck, Hydrangea." said Nightshade who took his leave after paying for the drink and desserts Hei Yuhua had ordered.

The small space in front of Hei Yuhua was filled with small empty plates. There seem to be traces of varying cake icing and flavorings.

Nightshade was wearing a business suit and his disguise was that of a foreigner with light blonde hair. His white suit made him look like a prince and his fox-shaped eyes paired with a pair of violet eyes were captivating enough. As for whether this is his real appearance no one knows.

Hei Yuhua heard System Yang's comment about Nightshade's appearance.

'What do you think, System Yang? Is that his real face?' asked Hei Yuhua in his mind.

System Yang said, [He is wearing a human mask, but those pairs of eyes are real.]

"A fox-like yet deadly person with purple irises. No wonder he calls himself Nightshade."

System Yang commented, [That's not a 'he'. It's a woman with a build closer to a male. It's a female alpha.]

'What!? Nightshade is a woman!?' exclaimed Hei Yuhua in his thoughts.

[I've scanned her whole body with technology, not from this world. I will give you a copy when we get home. You can check for her identity afterwards. For now, calm down. You still need to act out a play of hatred with your mate.]

'I know. I will act well.'

[Yuyan is here. That Nightshade was watching from a distance and at an angle at which she could clearly see the interior of the cafe. Don't let her notice that you both are just acting. Make it realistic.]

'I will inform A'Yan through telepathy.' said Hei Yuhua in his mind.

The sound of the café's entrance door opening was heard. There's a small bell attached to the door to indicate the arrival of the customer.

Chimes~

Chapter 643: 12.45 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Chaos

CHIMES~

As soon as Ye Yuyan step inside the cafe, he heard his wife's voice in his head informing him about Nightshade watching in some corner within the store. He even told him what Nightshade's disguise is. A foreigner in a white suit with a slightly slender figure for a man. He looks around as if trying to look for Hua Heiyu but in reality, he is looking for a man in a white suit. He saw one silently drinking his coffee while looking outside the mirror walls. As if he wasn't interested in anyone in the store. Once Ye Yuyan spotted him he move his gaze to look for his wife's figure only for the staff to stop near him and did their routine of welcoming the arrival of the customer. The nearest staff bowed partially before Ye Yuyan and greeted him in a professional manner.

"Welcome to Deep Forest Café!" novelUSb.c/o\m

Ye Yuyan, wearing a deadpan expression, lightly nods at the alpha who greeted him. Meeting his eyes, the staff stiffly stood near the side of the door nearly forgetting his manners. As a dominant alpha, the presence and aura Ye Yuyan emits are enough not only to overwhelm him but also to attract everyone's eyes.

There are even some omega customers inside the cafe who fell in love at first sight with Ye Yuyan almost unable to move their eyes on him.

Ye Yuyan's handsomeness is something he was born with. A dominant alpha is the cream of the crop. Everything about him is above everyone he possesses. Though he wasn't as heavenly attractive as Gods like Hei Anjing or Ye Xiajie. For the people of the mortal world, no one would call themselves the most handsome as long as they exist.

He had a tall nose bridge, thin lips, exquisite features, and a well-defined face. His sharp eyes were dazzling yet fearsome. What is shocking is his perfect figure, that even an ordinary t-shirt and a cheap suit would make him look like an elite that is unparalleled by the others? His elegance and gracefulness are natural. As if he is a noble-born himself.

Unfortunately, his pair of golden irises were always cold and dull. He looks expressionless and indifferent as if he was dead inside. He had always looked like this in front of the others, especially after everyone learned that his partner and child had died due to an attack from a notorious Syndicate that had targeted him.

After that day his family died, and he lost his emotions, ambition, goal, and reason to live as a human. If not for revenge he wouldn't have lived all this time. Everyone knew how much he hated that one person. The sole person who appeared at the location of Prosecutor Ye's burning house, watching the whole house burn lively under the reddish-orange fire.

The only reason for Ye Yuyan's living and the target of his revenge. The youngest serial killer was captured by the Police headquarters a few months ago in front of Prosecutor Ye's house. The criminal, all police officers, was deemed a psychopath, Hua Heiyu.

Now, this Hua Heiyu appears in front of Ye Yuyan. His appearance hadn't changed at all. Unsympathetic pair of silver eyes, refined yet soft features which made him look like a delicate beauty and slender physique. These features alone scream out he is an omega with some problems in the head. No wonder he is well known for being the youngest psychopath that the police ever captured.

Ye Yuyan's gold irises met with Hua Heiyu's argent eyes. As if the sun and the moon had collided, there is only rejection from both of them. The prosecutor's eyes were instantly filled with iciness and hatred lumped in one.

"How can you enjoy yourself... when you killed them for your selfishness? How can you be carefree and nonchalant as if you haven't done anything wrong...? Why is it? Why? Why?" muttered Ye Yuyan upon spotting Hua Heiyu at the table delightfully enjoying his drink without care for the world. As if he is an ordinary person and not a criminal on the run.

Seeing Hua Heiyu's carefree and happy figure enjoying himself made him despise him more. As a person who had destroyed his life and killed his family, Ye Yuyan always thought it was unfair for this man to live. So unfair that he wanted to kill the person with his own hands.

In the end, Ye Yuyan lost himself to hatred and couldn't help but started strongly questioning Hua Heiyu. He was even forgetting the location they are in.

"Why?... Why... did you... kill my daughter... and mate?!" exclaimed Prosecutor Ye Yuyan out of nowhere.

Bewildered by the sudden outburst of this weird Prosecutor, Hua Heiyu looked at him with disdain on his face, "I don't remember those whom you're accusing I killed. Since I don't remember then I didn't do it, Mr. Prosecutor." he said with a provocative gaze.

As expected, Prosecutor Ye responded while in rage. "Bastard! You damn Psychopathic Murderer!"

With a slight frown on his forehead, Hua Heiyu was looking at the mad prosecutor in front of him like looking at an idiot. He would never accept this man's accusations even if you kill him. That's what his expression right now has on his face.

"Excuse me!? I'm mentally ill (Psychopath), not Amnesiac! Don't accuse me of something I didn't do. I don't remember killing your partner or your child. Just because you saw me in that place alone doesn't mean I did it you know. Is your brain that useless?" said the psychopath Hua Heiyu coldly as an answer to Ye Yuyan's craziness. "Moreover, so what if they died? It is none of my business!"

Snap!

This last sentence from Hua Heiyu was the last straw. Ye Yuyan's last restraint which held down his anger had finally cracked. He pulled out the gun hidden on his back and pointed it at Hua Heiyu.

Chaos descended in the whole store as Ye Yuyan pulled the trigger and the sound of the gunshot was heard not only inside the store but also outside.

BANG!

Officer Ying Wu, Wei Lou, and Jie Yun who were waiting outside also heard the loud sound of a gunshot followed by a large group of people running out of the store as if running for their lives.

Officer Ying Wu exclaimed, "A gunshot?!!"

"Oi. Are police unrestrained nowadays?" commented Wei Lou.

Jie Yun said, "Let's go inside."

Screams coming from the customers' rubbish for their lives.

"Ah! He pulled a gun!!?"

"Run. Run!! That man had gone crazy!!?"

"Fuck! He suddenly started shouting at that young man as soon as he entered the store. He must be crazy."

"Someone call the police!!!"

The three tried to get inside but the people going against the flow of people running away from their lives had hindered them for a while. Officer Ying Wu took the lead in calming down the civilians while letting Wei Lou and Jie Yun enter the store ahead of him.

A man in a white suit almost tripped and fell on Officer Ying Wu, he saw the other customers pushing him from behind and supporting him on time.

"Are you alright sir?" asked Officer Ying Wu.

"Are you the police? There is a crazy man inside who suddenly started shooting inside. Stop him! He wanted to kill a young man. I saw it!" said the man in a white suit.

Officer Ying Wu tried to settle down the commotion outside the cafe

"Please leave it to me. You guys calm down first." using his eyes he gestured to Wei Lou and Jie Yun to enter the store to stop the Prosecutor.

Jie Yun run-in with an expressionless face while Wei Lou clicked his tongue in annoyance but still followed inside. Officer Yung Wu who was left behind tried to pacify the panicking civilians.

As soon as they got inside the store, they saw Prosecutor Ye glaring at Hua Heiyu who was still expressionless as he stood up while sipping the cup of Frappuccino in his hands. His eyes were looking at Ye Yuyan like dead fish eyes unconcerned that the man in front of him tried to kill him.

Hua Heiyu said, "You are the mad man for pulling a stunt like that in public Mister Prosecutor~"

"Fuck you!" said Ye Yuyan as he once again lifted his gun trying to pull the trigger for the second time but was stopped by Jie Yun who averted the direction of the bullet to hit the ceiling instead.

Wei Lou said, "You crazy dipshit! This is a public place. Did you forget you are the police?"

"Don't stop me. I'm going to kill him," said Ye Yuyan.

Jie Yun said, "No one is stopping you. Before you do that again look around you. Your little assistant is trying to do his best just to handle this shit of yours."

Wei Lou fearlessly approached the counter and saw the staff crouching under the table. He was even afraid of a young and weak-looking omega like Hua Heiyu.

"You are not bad. You escaped just to eat cake and buy some milkshakes?" said Wei Lou.

Hua Heiyu glanced at him and said, "This is a Frappuccino. It is made more with ice, coffee and chocolate, not milk." replied Hua Heiyu.

"Whatever you say~" Wei Lou looked down at the counter and said, "Can I order a cup of cappuccino to go?"

"Hey! Buy me something sweet as well," said Jie Yun.

"I want a second cup too," commented Hua Heiyu.

Wei Lou glanced at the trembling staff who courageously stood up from under the counter and took Wei Lou's order.

“Heard them? Actually, just make five drinks to go,” said Wei Lou. “Add up the total bill, include the destroyed tables and chairs to that mad prosecutor.”

Hearing their nonchalant exchange of words between the three criminals under his team, Ye Yuyan finally calmed down and hid his gun at his back once again. He returned the suit to Jie Yun and took a few deep breaths to return to normal. Ever since the death of his family his anger issues had gotten worse. Pinching his aching temples, Ye Yuyan avoided seeing Hua Heiyu’s face. This is to avoid losing his mind again.

Sigh~

“Add two more iced americano to go as well,” said Ye Yuyan as he could only take a seat and waited for their orders before leaving the cafe. They needed to wait for Officer Ying Wu to finish sending people away before they could leave and go back to the shrubs.

Outside the store, Officer Ying Wu was trying to take over the place, preventing others from starting a stampede.

“Are there people injured!? Please stay calm and don’t push!!” shouted Officer Ying Wu.

Unknown to him the man in a white suit whom he bumped into on the way towards the cafe had long walked away hiding within the group of frightened people and had longed walked away from the scene. A black car was waiting for him at the corner of the road and went inside. Inside the car, the man in a white suit ripped the human mask on his face revealing an attractive woman with long black hair and purple eyes.

There is a young man with light brown hair and orange eyes. His skin is so fair, even more, white than a lady’s. His body is so skinny that one would mistake him for a girl. This young man is one of the youngest executives of Red Poppy Syndicate. His codename is Iris.

The woman ordered the driver, “Drive.” Then the car started moving along the highway.

On the way,

Iris asked, “How is Hydrangea, Nightshade?”

“He is as beautiful as always at the same time as emotionless as before. A bit lively since I’ve bought him some cakes. I guess the prison doesn’t give criminals some sweets~” replied Miss Nightshade.

Iris responded, “For someone with a sweet tooth like him, it might have been torture being in that prison. Did he accept the mission?”

Nightshade answered, “He didn’t give a word but... He would do it. Just make preparations to pick up Hyacinth and Azalea at the end of the month. But really~... He is so obsessed with wanting to meet our leader and even wonders if he is a spy or something? What do you think, Iris?”

“He must have wanted to see the man who made his parents throw him away when he was a child? His childhood life is just so sad. Even the orphanage that he grew into was burned to ashes by the Syndicate. He must have hated Poppy so much and wanted to see him for himself.” said Iris.

Nightshade said, "Hm~ you know him too well. He looks so expressionless that it is hard to guess his thoughts just by his face... but he is that emotional he wanted to take revenge on us?"

"Maybe not totally revenge... but he needed all the information before making his final decision or something? He is a double edge sword. Well, more of a ticking bomb or something... I've helped you change his route and remove your traces don't forget to give me my money." said Iris.

Nightshade, "Tsk! I know you money grubber!! Can't you make it free for this beautiful sister?"

"No. Hydra is prettier than you."

"I'll throw you off the car."

"Pay me first!"

Chapter 644: 12.46 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Everyone's Circumstances

At the suburbs.

The group of five returned to the abandoned church after cleaning up the mess made at the cafe. Hua Heiyu as an offender who had tried to escape was brought back with his hands once again handcuffed and was directly under strict observation of Officer Ying Wu.

Hua Heiyu was ignoring Prosecutor Ye who has seated on the same wooden bench yet such a wide distance from each other. The former was focusing on his cold drink while the latter was stealing peeks at the former. After calming down for a while Prosecutor Ye Yuyan felt that he had let his anger cloud his mind and this made him pull a gun and use it at Hua Heiyu as he was blinded with hatred.

Ye Yuyan said, "I wasn't in the right mind just now. I shouldn't have pulled the trigger. But things cannot end this way, you shouldn't have escaped just to buy cakes and drink because you crave it."

Hua Heiyu moved his head and glanced at Ye Yuyan, "If I had asked... Would you have bought it for me?"

"... No..." replied Prosecutor Ye Yuyan without hesitation.

Hearing this reply the other three people in the church reacted quite coordinately. Wei Lou snorted, Jie Yun sighed while Officer Ying Wu's lips twitched. novelusb/c/o\MC

.....

Hua Heiyu instead smiled and said, "There's your answer."

Tsk!

"I will buy you whatever you want if you solve a case," said Ye Yuyan.

Hua Heiyu said, "You heard him. If he breaks his promise then he is a pig."

"Heard it," said Jie Yun.

Wei Lou chuckles, "I'm not deaf."

"Sir, since you said it. Keep it," said Officer Ying Wu.

Grumpy Prosecutor Ye Yuyan responded, "I know. There is no need to keep reminding me. By the way, Ying Wu, did you see someone who looked suspicious come out of the cafe? When I shot the gun, was there someone out of place? Like a foreigner with a white suit?"

Once the white suit was mentioned all three who were waiting outside the cafe at that time remembered the weak-looking man in a white suit. It was the same man who bumped at Officer Ying Wu on the way.

"We do!" said Officer Ying Wu, Wei Lou, and Jie Yun.

Hua Heiyu commented, "You should have grabbed her. She is one of the heinous criminals under the Red Poppy Syndicate. She came to recruit me."

"How did you respond?" asked Officer Ying Wu with a taut expression on his face.

Hua Heiyu once again smiled yet everyone who saw this smile felt a shiver climbing up on their back.

"I told them. I will think about it," said Hua Heiyu.

As expected, not only Ye Yuyan but also Officer Ying Wu's face turned cold at this honest answer.

Officer Ying Wu commented, "You are quite bold. That Syndicate is world class and you have them wait for you."

"My actions depend on my mood. Only sweets and cold drinks could somewhat move me. They bought me lots of cakes and drinks before you arrived. So I told them I will think about it." said Hua Heiyu.

Ye Yuyan said, "I already told you I will buy whatever you want. Just solve the case for me."

"Heh~ whatever," said Hua Heiyu as he was about to take his leave.

Ye Yuyan said, "Where are you going?"

"Find somewhere to live too until the next day's work is given," said Hua Heiyu.

Ye Yuyan said, "You guys are not going anywhere out of sight. You will live in my condominium building. You can leave and return as you please but not you, Hua Heiyu, the headquarters prerequisite of allowing you out is being by my side 24/7"

Jie Yun, Wei Lou, and Hua Heiyu's dumb speechless. "..."

"Can I still return to jail?" asked Hua Heiyu.

An evil smirk appeared in the corner of Ye Yuyan's lips and said, "Too late for regrets. Let's go. I will show you where you guys would live."

He then brought them to his condominium building. There are lots of free rooms in this place but some were occupied by Ye Yuyan's shadow guards. There are more than a hundred of them living here. This is why a lot of criminals and Syndicates considered this a dead zone.

All criminals and bad guys who entered this place never came out alive.

Wei Lou said, "This place is eerie~"

“So many shadow guards and all of them are skilled,” said Jie Yun.

Officer Ying Wu asked, “You know? Can you see them?”

“No. Their watching eyes were hard to ignore,” said Jie Yun.

“Get in. I will give you a room. Jie Yun and Wei Lou are in the same room. Hua Heiyu... You are going to live with me.” said Prosecutor Ye Yuyan.

Hua Heiyu’s expression turned dark when he heard about his living condition and immediately wanted to return to the prison where he had his own room to live in.

“I’m an omega and you are an alpha,” said Hua Heiyu.

Ye Yuyan said, “Even if you are the last omega in the world I would never touch someone like you. Stop dreaming!”

After all three of them were settled, Officer Ying Wu took a day off and left as he finished his duties for that day. Hua Heiyu lives in the same room as Prosecutor Ye Yuyan while the other pair live in Officer Lou Wei’s room which was left empty after the officer was transferred temporarily somewhere else for work.

As the rooms were closed, behind the doors.

Point of view in Wei Lou and Jie Yun’s place.

Wei Lou who looks and acts like a thug becomes a silly dog man in an instant as he helps Jie Yun remove his coat and wash it for him.

Wei Lou said, “Honey, I will draw you some warm bath. Good work for today.”

“Um. I’ll make some dinner. Take a shower yourself first.” said Jie Yun.

Wei Lou kissed Jie Yun’s cheeks and said, “I will Jie’er. I want to eat some meat tonight~”

Jie Yun acted as if he didn’t understand and said, “I will cook steak tonight.”

“That’s not it~”

“Bah~ Get in the bath! Don’t bother me when I’m cooking.”

Jie Yun heads to the kitchen to cook while Wei Lou, like a depressed dog, goes to the bath and takes a shower.

At the Prosecutor Ye Yuyan’s room.

Before the door was closed, Hua Heiyu looked expressionless and dull-eyed as if he was walking toward his death row. But as soon as the door was closed behind them, Ye Yuyan hugged his wife and carried him to the living room, and cuddled. The scene of him pointing a gun at Hei Yuhua reminded him of the past regardless if it was an act or not.

Hei Yuhua could feel his husband slightly trembling. The trauma left by their previous life had quite a big effect on Ye Yuyan. He had no other choice but to coax his man. Hugged him back and gently pats Ye

Yuyan's back while whispering the same words 'It's okay.', 'It's all in the past.' and 'It won't happen again.'

It took a while before Ye Yuyan calmed down. He stared at the unfamiliar face of his wife under him yet those argent eyes crescented as he smiled made him instantly recognize him no matter what.

Hei Yuhua smiled at him and said, "Work has already ended. Let's talk more about something else, something like... Lower your head. I had something to whisper to you."

He lowered his voice as he gestured to his husband to lower his head. Ye Yuyan approached as he was told to do so. In the Ye Family, the orders of the wife cannot be ignored.

He gave his wife an aggressive kiss as if trying to make sure that he was indeed alive and was staying by his side. Yet, Hei Yuhua reached out his arms and wrapped them around Ye Yuyan's neck, and pulled him down letting their lips meet.

After a short kiss, Hei Yuhua teasingly asked his mate, "How is it?"

Ye Yuyan, "..."

"Come on, darling. Give me a reaction," complained Hei Yuhua.

Ye Yuyan, "..."

"You are so cold. Don't you know how much I miss... you!! Mfffft!!!"

Before he could finish his words, Ye Yuyan dived down and kissed him more aggressively than the kiss he gave him. With rough motion, their lips collide and a tongue slips through Hei Yuhua's lips until both their lips and tongues intertwine with each other.

Hei Yuhua lightly pushed away the aggressive beast above him, "W-Wait. Let me breathe~ Nfft!! Hmm!"

He was once again pressed down by Ye Yuyan on the sofa and was kissed until he was out of breath.

Once their lips had parted a silvery line connected their lips which instantly cut as the distance was made between the two. Ye Yuyan used his thumb to wipe the lingering saliva at the corner of his wife's lip and was once again about to kiss his mate when he heard a growling sound underneath him.

Grumbles~

It is the siren of his wife's stomach telling him he is hungry. Ye Yuyan was caught off guard and saw Hei Yuhua's face turn red in embarrassment.

"Yu'er?"

"Shut up! Cakes can't make me full. I haven't eaten a meal all day." said Hei Yuhua.

Seeing his wife's scarlet face Ye Yuyan couldn't help but laugh at what his mate had said before. He had missed Hei Yuhua a lot even after being only separated for a day.

Chuckles~

"I'll make you dinner, wife. You should take a bath first," said Ye Yuyan.

Hei Yuhua said, "Can't we take one together?"

"We would still take one together later~" replied Ye Yuyan while giving a meaningful smile to his mate. He even kissed his forehead lovingly before getting up to head to the kitchen.

Understanding his husband's words, Hei Yuhua could only cover his crimson face as he ran away. Taking a bath is only an excuse. Seeing his mate's cute antics Ye Yuyan heads to the kitchen in a good mood.

.....

Meanwhile, inside Hei Yuhua's soul domain, System Yang and System Yue were informing Hei Anjing who had just woken up about how Lord God Ye had woken up for a bit while he was asleep.

Hei Anjing said, "A'Xia, woke up but went back to sleep shortly?"

System Yue said, [Yes, Lord Hei. It was his temporary host, Ye Yuyan, who had spoken to him that day. At that time Ye Yuyan had fallen into a state of preconsciousness and was almost imprisoned in his own subconsciousness.]

[Ye Yuyan tends to fall in trance every time he sees his past memories.] said System Yang.

Hei Anjing spoke, "Humans are sentimental beings. That is normal. As for A'Xia if he went back to sleep that means he is almost done merging his soul fragments. No need to wake him intentionally. He should wake up on his own."

"For now, gather all information that involves the Red Poppy Syndicate. We must complete the wishes of the two hosts and leave this world as soon as possible. There is only one world left before the second trial of revival ends."

"Go now and collect information. I will go back to sleep."

System Yue and System Yang accepted his orders and left the spirit domain of Hei Yuhua. Just after the two systems left, Hei Anjing looked at his hands which he had hidden inside the wide sleeves of his robes. He could almost no longer see the tips of his fingers. It seems his soul had weakened enough that it could no longer fully materialize like before.

A feeble smile appeared on Hei Anjing's lips while he stared at his fading fingers.

"I'm running out of time. I need to at least solve A'Xia Soul Mission before I completely..." whispered Hei Anjing in nothingness.

Sadly, there is no one who can hear his whisper and no one is there who can help him solve his current situation. It was destined that he would end up like this as the second trial ends. After all, he who had his full memories wouldn't be there for the final trial.

Chapter 645: 12.47 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Yi Rouya's Stupidity.

Morning.

While eating breakfast together Ye Yuyan and Hei Yuhua had a conversation about the Red Poppy Syndicate. Hei Yuhua told his husband about his new mission from Nightshade.

Ye Yuyan said, "He wanted you to remove the attention of the police on the pier at the end of this month? Why?"

"Two Executives outside the country would be coming in ours through the sea. You had tightened the control over airlines so they couldn't nonchalantly pass through airports as they wish now. Sea route is currently the safest for them." explained Hei Yuhua.

Ye Yuyan asked, "Who are those two? You know their codenames?"

"Azalea the witch doctor and Hyacinth the sweet talker. They are both experts in their fields. Azalea is even a well-known surgeon abroad." answered Hei Yuhua.

Ye Yuyan thought about their disguise using human masks and asked, "Would they come over disguised?"

.....

"Maybe not. Unlike our disguised pill which cannot be removed by physical means, Human masks need delicate maintenance. It must be kept at a high temperature to keep the skin fresh or it would rot." said Hei Yuhua.

Ye Yuyan said, "Then I will send people to at least take a photo of their real appearances. All we knew about the executives is that Nightshade is an alpha woman while Iris is a young man most likely an omega. After this month we should at least know what four of their executives look like in reality."

"But it is best not to send drones. Iris would definitely be there. He would always use radars to check on weird spy gadgets every time he comes out. Plus, Nightshade's combat is stronger than ordinary alphas. She could almost contend with you." said Hei Yuhua.

Ye Yuyan frowned and said, "We can't use gadgets and much less send people to their graves. What should we do?"

System Yue suddenly appeared and said, [How about I go? I will collect their data secretly. In this world, only Gods would be able to notice my existence.]

Hei Yuhua asked, "Is it okay for System Yue to be away from A'Yan?"

System Yue answered, [It's okay. The ones who were resting are the Lords. I and A'Yang can be separated from you no matter what distance.]

Ye Yuyan said, "Then please help us with this. Thank you, System Yue."

[No worries~ it's our job to help you guys.] said System Yue before once again disappearing into thin air. He must have returned to Ye Yuyan's soul domain to check on Lord God Ye's situation.

Hei Yuhua was about to finish eating breakfast when he saw the time and noticed that it was almost time for Officer Ying Wu to arrive. They need to act like water and oil once again.

"A'Yan, Officer Ying Wu is about to arrive." reminded Hei Yuhua

Ye Yuyan just finished eating and was about to place the empty plates on the sink. His movements paused for a moment before placing down the plates and sighing.

Sigh~

Hei Yuhua said, "It's alright. At least we still live together. Moreover, they wouldn't be with us 24/7. Bear with it as we go to work." he came over to hug his mate from behind acting spoiled which is rare but Ye Yuyan knew he was coaxing him on purpose.

In the end, Ye Yuyan was easily coaxed by his wife and gave up his unwanted thoughts. They wouldn't be free unless the Red Poppy Syndicate was destroyed.

Ye Yuyan twisted his body to face his mate and gave him a kiss on his forehead.

"Be extremely careful when interacting with those guys from the Syndicate. You might have become their false member but you shouldn't overwork yourselves. We had made necessary preparations even for faking the deaths of those they would target just to test you. Don't overwork yourself, Yu'er." said Ye Yuyan.

Hei Yuhua smiled and kissed his husband's chin as he smiled afterward.

"Don't worry, my alpha. You are talking to the only dominant omega in the country. Except for you no other alphas would be able to hinder me if I wanted to restrain them." said Hei Yuhua.

Ye Yuyan warned, "Your safety is the top priority."

"I know. I will keep it in mind," replied Hei Yuhua.

While waiting for Officer Ying Wu to arrive, Ye Yuyan put a black bracelet on Hei Yuhua's right ankle. It is a compressor that is extremely territorial once the wearer gets out of the allowed range he is supposed to go, a strong electricity would jolt the target paralyzing him on the spot. This is what the old men from the government had issued in exchange for allowing a serial killer like Hua Heiyu out of prison.

Of course, the one on Hei Yuhua's ankle is just for show. Ye Yuyan tinkered with the ankle bracelet as soon as he received it, he removed the electric Punishment and left the warning sounds whenever the wearer was about to go out of range.

The couple was in the living room and Ye Yuyan was putting on the ankle bracelet as Officer Ying Wu needed to see Hua Heiyu wearing it. Everything that happened under his watch would be reported at the end of the day to the group of police superintendents or directors of each unit. Prosecutor Ye Yuyan's team was under strict observation his teammates are all notorious criminals after all.

At exactly 8:00 in the morning, a knock would be heard on the front door of Ye Yuyan's condominium.

[A/n: Hei Yuhua would be called Hua Heiyu whenever Officer Ying Wu is around or they are solving a case.]

Knock. Knock. Knock.

Hua Heiyu stood up and pushed his husband to sit on the couch and even opened the television as he passed him the daily newspaper.

“Be good now, A’Yan” says Hua Heiyu.

Ye Yuyan couldn’t help but chuckle for a moment before opening the newspaper and starting their act. His smile faded as Hua Heiyu walked towards the entrance, leaving a grumpy face early in the morning.

The sounds of the doorbell being pressed multiple times annoyed Hua Heiyu. To discipline police like Officer Ying Wu, it is impossible for him to continuously press the doorbell like an impatient child. As he peeks through the peephole he sees someone he hates the most in his life and couldn’t help but smirk coldly.

The one beyond the door was Inspector Yi Rouya and Officer Ying Wu. The one pressing the doorbell is none other than the schemer, Yi Rouya. This world’s original protagonist shou. Unfortunately, for the guy, his story was destroyed the moment the time was reversed and everything was already under the control of Hei Yuhua and Ye Yuyan.

Hua Heiyu didn’t open the door right away. He wanted to piss off the annoying man outside the door.

Beyond the entrance door of Prosecutor Ye Yuyan’s unit.

Yi Rouya complains, “Why is there no one coming over to open the door!? Is Ye Yuyan still asleep?”

“Stop pressing it like that. You’ll annoy the Prosecutor and he will send you away again,” said Officer Ying Wu.

Inspector Yi Rouya from the Police headquarters, “He cannot send me away. I am the one bringing the case for him. He must work together with me to solve this case.”

“The Prosecutor doesn’t need you to help him with the case. He made his own team after all. You are only here to give him the case.” retorted Officer Ying Wu.

He had always disliked this inspector who used the backdoor to get his inspector status in the headquarters. His boss even said that this omega inspector is the most useless one in their district. He only knows how to coax the higher-ups but has no skills as a police officer. Sadly, this man can also be considered his indirect superior as he is only a small-time officer under Director Yu Xi.

Inspector Yi Rouya as expected got pissed and said, “What did you just say? You are just a small office and you dare to scold me on my face? You are fired!”

The worst scene of this man trying to hit Officer Ying Wu was done, thankfully an alpha like Officer Ying Wu is more agile than an omega like Yi Rouya. He steps back to dodge the incoming punch of Inspector Yi Rouya.

Dodges, “How rather unfortunate. The only people who can fire me from my current position are only two people. One is Prosecutor Ye Yuyan and my leader, Director Yu Xi. You just an inspector had no right to fire a special officer like me!” rebukes Officer Ying Wu.

Inspector Yi Rouya was about to explode in anger when the door to Ye Yuyan’s unit opened abruptly and was pushed from the outside. Inspector Yi Rouya who wanted to hit Officer Ying Wu for the second time bumped into the opening door and fell on the floor kneeling. Officer Ying Wu escaped on time and didn’t even help Inspector Yi Rouya to stop his fall.

BAM!

Thud! “Ah! That hurts!!!” screamed Inspector Yi Rouya.

Hua Heiyu stood at the entrance with an irritated expression on his face. He obviously didn’t wake up nicely as the person who hates him the most wouldn’t allow him to have a good time in his own home. In reality, these eyebags were just special makeup used by Hua Heiyu to keep appearances that match his acting.

Officer Ying Wu greets Hua Heiyu.

“Good Morning, Heiyu. Is the Prosecutor awake?” asked Officer Ying Wu who treated almost everyone with such respect. He just has good manners.

Hua Heiyu grumpily answered, “He is awake. As soon as he woke up he ordered me to make coffee and breakfast. I almost burned his kitchen. Hehe~ anyway, get inside and close the door after you. I can step out of the house with this thing on my ankle.” he said while shaking his right ankle with a black ankle bracelet clasped around it.

Officer Ying Wu looked down and recognized the compressor on Hua Heiyu’s ankle. It seems that Prosecutor Ye Yuyan had followed what the Headquarters told him to do. Well, he acted like he didn’t see anything but before he could even step forward Inspector Yi Rouya suddenly stood up from the floor and suddenly grabbed Hua Heiyu’s collar.

The case files which are supposed to be brought in by Inspector Yi Rouya were scattered on the floor’s hallway when he fell and Officer Ying Wu had no other choice but to pick them up for him. As for the chance of him stopping Inspector Yi Rouya’s boldness of grabbing the collar of the youngest serial killer in their district.

Inspector Yi Rouya asked while holding Hua Heiyu’s collar, “Who the hell are you? Why are you living in Ye Yuyan’s place!?”

Hua Heiyu raised a brow in confusion, not completely interested. So he shouts at Ye Yuyan from the entrance asking, “Ye Yuyan who is this rude thing? A police officer? He seems so useless. You have a lover like this. Your taste sucks~”

“Don’t talk nonsense! I’m a married man. I have no lovers!!! Stop wasting time and get inside.” said Ye Yuyan whose voice was coming from inside the condominium unit.

Seeing this scene made Yi Rouya extremely jealous. The eyes staring at Hua Heiyu turned into a glare.

“You thieving bitch! How dare you!?” screamed Yi Rouya. He was about to punch Hua Heiyu.

Officer Ying Wu was about to step in but stopped when he saw what Hua Heiyu had done. He dislocated Yi Rouya’s arms in an instant and only the sounds of bones cracking and Inspector Yi Rouya’s wails echo within the hallway.

Cracked. Crackles~

AAAAHHHH!!!

Yi Rouya screamed as if he had fallen into hell. His voice was agonizing as if he was a chicken being slaughtered. His screams caught lots of people's attention. Even Jie Yun and Wei Lou who were taking their time next door couldn't help but get out of the room and witnessed the scene of Hua Heiyu who cruelly disjointed Yi Rouya's arms. His moves were so professional as if he knew all the bones in a human's body and had ways to separate them without breaking a thing.

AAAH!!

Wei Lou commented, "Wow~ that looks like it hurts so much. See his arms dangling like it's broken."

"It's not broken at all. It's only dislocated," said Jie Yun.

Officer Ying Wu chooses to turn a blind eye to the scene. The one at fault was Inspector Yi Rouya anyway. novelusb/c/o/M

"You came out on time. Please come over, we are about to leave to head to the suburbs," said Officer Ying Wu.

Ye Yuyan who could no longer wait for walls towards the door and saw the scene of Inspector Yi Rouya crouching on the floor in pain. As an omega, we weren't used to this kind of injury. Dislocation is extremely painful as if your bone was pulled out and you've lost control over it.

He uncaringly glances at Yi Rouya before looking at Hua Heiyu with narrowed eyes.

"Did you do this?" asked Ye Yuyan.

Hua Heiyu said, "Be thankful that I didn't choke him on the spot. He suddenly grabbed my collar, called me a bitch, and wanted to punch me. This is legitimate self-defense. What are you going to complain about?"

"No. This time you did a very good job," said Ye Yuyan as he pressed deactivation for the ankle bracelet on Hua Heiyu's right left. He took his coat from the hanger near the door and walked out of his house ignoring Yi Rouya's pain. He treated him as if he didn't exist in his world.

He took the case files from Officer Ying Wu and said, "You solve that shrieking thing and return it where it came from. I don't need anything useless in my team." said Ye Yuyan to Officer Ying Wu.

Officer Ying Wu responded, "Yes, sir!"

.....

Ye Yuyan then glanced at his other teammates from the next door and at Hua Heiyu standing beside him and said, "Let's go. It's time to work."

Only then did the four of them leave the building. Officer Ying Wu would join them afterward after he solved Inspector Yi Rouya's problem.

Chapter 646: 12.48 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: First Case – The Killer's Motive.

Just right after Prosecutor Ye Yuyan had left with his team of criminals, Officer Ying Wu and Inspector Yi Rouya who were left behind only have awkwardness and silence between the two of them. The inspector's eyes were wet in tears as his arms hung on his side as if it was boneless. Hua Heiyu had mercilessly dislocated both his arms for pissing him off. What's funny is that Prosecutor Ye Yuyan had even instigated his action delightfully.

Officer Ying Wu who was left behind had no other choice but to clean up the mess left behind by his team. Despite his dislike for Inspector Yi Rouya, Officer Ying Wu didn't leave indifferently like the Prosecutor. He even helped the Inspector to reconnect his arms. But this ungrateful one didn't even thank him and tried to slap him. He dodges on time thanks to his reflexes. novelUsB\c\o/m

Tsk! "Thankless person! Go back, the case files had been delivered. Don't you know how much Prosecutor Ye Yuyan hates you. Would you only stop after receiving a bullet in your head!?" scolded Officer Ying Wu.

Inspector Yi Rouya didn't even retort as both his arms are numb and painful. His body as an omega is too fragile, when he got his arms dislocated the pain afterward was very hard for him to bear. There are even bruises left on his skin when Hua Heiyu forcefully dislocated his arms and when Officer Ying Wu reconnected his arms.

"How can he do this to me? Who is that man? Why is he living in Ye Yuyan's place!?" like hysteria, Yi Rouya started shouting the same words as before.

Officer Ying Wu immediately lost all his patience and told him everything in a provocative way.

"You know what? The identity of that man who dislocated your arms. Very well. You are so courageous that you've tried to raise your hand to the one who was deemed the youngest psychopathic serial killer in our district. Only by staying by Prosecutor Ye Yuyan's side can the headquarters be sure he wouldn't suddenly begin killing like before.

Here you are... an unlimited-life cockroach. Someone who dared to grab the collar of a cold-blooded killer who likes to kill women and omegas like you! You are so brave, why don't you try it again!? Be thankful that he didn't kill you on the spot! Stop bothering my work and return to where you came from!" shouted Officer Ying Wu at Yi Rouya.

The inspector on the other hand was frightened silly by this explanation. That pretty young man he thought he could bully anytime was someone who kills for fun and a psycho as well. Just the fact that Hua Heiyu might remember him because of this terrified Yi Rouya to his core. Even if the headquarters had given him the courage to appear before Prosecutor Ye Yuyan, standing in the presence of a dead person like Hua Heiyu scared him to death.

Officer Ying Wu cheered in his heart when he saw Inspector Yi Rouya's pale face.

"Finally afraid now. I will inform you of this ahead of time. Hua Heiyu would be staying beside Prosecutor Ye Yuyan 24/7 this is to ensure he wouldn't be doing anything against the law for the second time. The Prosecutor is his only restraint and you wanted to separate them. You are courting death." said Officer Ying Wu as he pulled him out of the building and looked for his car to follow the rest to the suburbs. He still needs to do his job after all.

Ring. Ring.

Click!

With a grumpy face, Prosecutor Ye Yuyan asked, "What do you need?"

[You cannot treat Inspector Yi Rouya like that. He was sent there to help you.]

"You, old men, don't mean to become my burden right? And for your information, the one who dislocated his arms is not me but an omega like him. You should be able to remember Hua Heiyu right? He is an omega and fighting between omegas is not something an alpha like me would get involved in."

[You should warn that psycho with you. He can't harm people just because he wanted to.]

"The dutiful Inspector you guys had sent to my house was so brave that he grabbed his collar as soon as he saw Hua Heiyu. What's funny is that he even tried to punch him. Be grateful that he wasn't killed on the spot for his rudeness. If there are any new cases, have Ying Wu send them to me. Don't send useless burdens that would hinder my job. If not for me giving warning to my guards ahead of time they would have shot him before he could enter the building. Tsk! How lucky he is~"

Ye Yuyan one-sidedly ended the call on his side. Hua Heiyu and the other two who were with him all smiled. They have teasing smiles on their faces with just them in the car, there is no need to continue the disguise.

Lou Wei asked, "Captain, you acting a madman was quite a show~"

Bang!

Ye Yuyan kicked the back of the driver's seat. Lou Wei who was driving was hit on the back by that kick.

(QAQ)

Yun Jie said to his lover, "Don't be so nosy so early in the morning. I'll feed you bread while driving who told you to skip breakfast."

"I didn't. I didn't intentionally skip meals. That Yi Rouya suddenly squealed like a dying pig and thought the captain had beaten him up to death." said Lou Wei.

Yun Jie said, "Stop being dumb. Brother and brother-in-law know how to hold back. Even if Yi Rouya is as annoying as before, they couldn't kill him in front of Officer Ying Wu."

"Oi, you also can't kill him with no one around okay!?" retorted Lou Wei.

Yun Jie said, "Shut up and focus on driving."

In the back seat, Hei Yuhua and Ye Yuyan were seriously reading through the case report from the folder Inspector Yi Rouya had brought to them.

Ye Yuyan asked as he saw his wife checking through the photos of the victims within the folder.

“What do you think, Yu’er?” asked Ye Yuyan.

Hei Yuhua responded, “I can’t see much with the photos. I need to see the body next time. But this is obviously a serial killer one with a professional touch. I need to see the body. An autopsy would be okay too.”

“Sure. Let’s go to the morgue,” said Ye Yuyan.

But before he could ask Lou Wei to head to the morgue he received a call from Officer Ying Wu.

[Sir. A new victim had been found! Please come over as soon as possible.]

“We are coming over. Send the location.”

[I am at xxxxxx.]

“We are on our way,” said Ye Yuyan before the call ended.

He then told Lou Wei to go to the address sent to him by Officers Ying Wu. Unknown to when the rain had started falling the interior of the car had fallen into silence. He and Hei Yuhua were reading through the case reports about this serial killer. Most of the murderer’s culprits are weak prey. Like a woman or a young omega.

He would cut their tummies avoiding any organs from being sliced in the process. The knife wounds were all clean cuts which are why Hei Yuhua said that the serial killer is a professional with his hands.

“I’ve seen this kind of case before. A’Yan you should ask Officer Ying Wu for slashing stomach cases 1 to 2 years ago. He should find something similar. I need to compare.” said Hei Yuhua.

Ye Yuyan silently nods his head and calls Officer Ying Wu once again, this time ordering him to come back to the headquarters to look for old and similar cases.

Yun Jie and Lou Wei asked, “What should we do Brother (Madam)?”

“There’s a behavioral pattern for this man’s murder. First, women and omegas who live alone in short those without partners to protect them, and second, rain. He only kills when it’s raining as he couldn’t smell the scent of blood because of rain.”

“Gather information about females and omegas who are either windowed or single within this area. The killing range of this killer is limited to just this area. So we need to filter the possible future victims as soon as possible. Brother Lou and A’Jie can split up to gather as much information as possible. I and A’Yan would head to the crime scene.” said Hei Yuhua.

“We understand, brother (madam),” said Lou Wei and Yun Jie.

After dropping Ye Yuyan and Hei Yuhua at the crime scene, the other two drive alone to do their duties. It was raining as expected when the new victim was found.

The scene of the crime was isolated by the police and a yellow line with the words do not enter had been spread in this certain alley. As soon as Prosecutor approached the scene the police on duty all saluted him.

The policeman said, "Welcome Prosecutor Ye!"

"Good work. We will enter now," said Ye Yuyan as the police on duty helped him lift the yellow line and allowed Ye Yuyan and Hua Heiyu with him.

With the sound of the falling rain as the background, the scent of blood was strongly spreading within the alley at the dimmed small road hidden from the main road a young omega was laying down on his own pool of crimson blood. His eyes were closed as if sleeping but the wide wound on his stomach was as if a pregnant woman who had undergone a cesarean surgery.

Ye Yuyan frowned and asked, "What do you think?"

"I'm sure now. This is not the first time. You should have Officer Ying Wu find similar cases. Tell him there is another requirement. Victims must be a month or two pregnant without partners and live within this district. Tell the other two about the update as well." said Hua Heiyu.

Ye Yuyan silently agreed to his words and held his wrist as he pulled him away from the scene. In his heart, he was afraid that his wife would be affected. Hei Yuhua is after an omega like the victim they've just seen.

"Stay. Don't you dare leave my side without permission? I will call a taxi to bring us to that place." said Ye Yuyan as he held Hua Heiyu's hand over his large hoodies.

To others, it looks like Ye Yuyan was holding Hua Heiyu's wrist trying to restrain his movement and not letting him leave without permission. Only Hei Yuhua knew that his mate was indirectly holding his hand hidden within his sleeves. He allowed him to hold his hands as there was no one there to see it anyway.

A few hours later.

Ye Yuyan and Hua Heiyu were the first ones to arrive at the abandoned church in the suburbs. Wei Lou and Jie Yun arrived the second as they were suddenly called back before they could complete their mission. The last one is Officer Ying Wu who returns to the group holding the requested files Ye Yuyan had told him to bring over.

Officer Ying Wu arranged the case photos of the victims on a wooden board with written information about the location and the time-date when the victim was killed. The new cases were included in it as well.

Ye Yuyan said, "Let's begin. Give me something about the case."

Wei Lou clicked his tongue and said, "You suddenly call us back and I haven't even found my people to check the crime scene. I have nothing!"

"I've also seen the latest victim before returning here. The weapon he used can never be a regular knife. It must be small and extremely sharp for him to slice the stomach. It's just that one... A scalpel." said Jie Yun.

Officer Ying Wu said, "The forensic doctors said the same thing. They saw the slash wound was too clean as if it was done by a professional. Let's consider the scalpel as the weapon."

"What about you, Hua Heiyu?" asked Ye Yuyan as everyone's eyes moved to him.

Everyone in this church knows if there is someone who might notice all the hidden details and motives of the killer, only someone as intelligent as Hua Heiyu could formulate some guesses or theories.

Ye Yuyan asked, "What might be the killer's motive for murder?"

"The smell of blood and hate for unwanted unborn children. Because he likes the scent of blood he kills people. That's also why he kills on rainy days because when it rains the scent of blood is stronger but also isolated by the veil of rain. It's a perfect time to hunt his prey."

"Plus what he targets is not the woman or omegas but instead their unborn children. His reason must be... A savior mindset. He thought he was saving those unborn children thinking that they are unwanted as only one parent remains to care for him. This killer had a traumatic disorder. He must have been an abused single-parent child and grew up with such a psychological burden." explained Hua Heiyu.

Silence engulfs the whole area and only the sound of the falling rain and lightning can be heard.

Chapter 647: 12.49 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: First Case – Alive Victims

Somewhere within the district.

At some small hidden clinic within the slums area.

A man had returned from somewhere wearing a black overall raincoat that hides his whole body including his head and face. If one closely looked at the trails of his steps on the ground a slight droplet of blood was washed away by the rain leaving no traces of blood coming from this man. He went to his backyard, a part of it protected by the rain. He burns up the pile of dry leaves and wood to create a fire.

After removing his black raincoat, he flung it to remove the excess raindrops allowing it to dry. Since it was made from a waterproof material it dried almost instantly and threw the raincoat at the bonfire he made. He watches as the raincoat which was splashed with the blood of his victims slowly burns into ashes. As for the remaining traces of blood, it had been long washed away.

With prayer beads in his right hand, he murmured, "Another poor soul had returned to the side of God."

At the abandoned church in the suburbs.

.....

Ye Yuyan had gathered his team and together with Officer Ying Wu, they planned to solve it. He first asked what the motive of the killer and Hua Heiyu had given them one. But when they heard it wasn't the first time this killer had been killed, Officer Ying Wu was surprised as Hua Heiyu also had the same thoughts as Prosecutor Ye. Unknown to him it was the same man who asked Ye Yuyan to gather similar old cases like this current case.

Officer Ying Wu said, "You are amazing. As if your brain works exactly the same way as Prosecutor Ye."

Pfft!

Wei Lou covered his nose as if he sneezed despite him just holding back his laugh.

"S-Sorry... Hehehe~ it's cold," said Wei Lou as he pretend it was a sneeze instead of him laughing.

Officer Ying Wu said, "It's raining. So it would definitely be colder. You should have worn long sleeves instead of just a T-shirt."

"It wasn't even raining when I left the house. Who thought it would suddenly start raining," complained Wei Lou.

Ye Yuyan ignored Wei Lou's stupidity and asked Hua Heiyu, "What do you mean by that? Other cases... Why do you believe that?"

"It's simple. His attacks are especially clean. One stab and he killed the incomplete fetus. No hesitation in his recent cases at all. He must have perfected his technique over time. So there must be past cases about it. Cases that show his mistake while killing his target until now that he had perfection over it. He might be a hidden surgeon or an unlicensed one with a traumatic disorder like what I've said before. He had a history of abuse as a child." said Hua Heiyu.

Hua Heiyu stared at Ye Yuyan's eyes with apathetic eyes as if what he had explained had nothing to do with life and death. As if he was telling a bedtime story, natural and direct to the point.

Silence descended in the church as everyone waited for Ye Yuyan's decision. Only Officer Ying Wu felt cold all over, he was tasked to find the files by the Prosecutor who had found some cold cases with results of clumsy killing with the same way of attack and targets. The most recent ones were just a year ago and the most perfected ones were 3 to 2 years ago.

At the corner, Wei Lou whispered to Jie Yun, "Why did it feel like while I'm totally lost about what to do in the case, he is already on the way directly to the truth of the case?"

"Wait. You will know then if he is bluffing or not. But seeing that young officer's face he must have guessed it all correct." said Jie Yun.

Both he and Wei Lou noticed Officer Ying Wu's serious expression. It was in contrast to his usually jolly expression. His hands were even trembling slightly.

Finally, after a short silence, Ye Yuyan clicked his tongue.

Tsk!

Ye Yuyan commented, "Just as I thought your head is extremely useful as I thought it is. Ying Wu the files."

"Ah? Yes, Sir!" said Ying Wu as he started posting the requested files of Hua Heiyu.

Ye Yuyan stood up and walked away from Hua Heiyu and approached the wooden board in front. He even knocked on it and said,

"You have guessed everything right? There are especially bloody cold cases that occurred last year. Same targets women and omega who were pregnant for only one to three months as well as single parents. But unlike the current victims, their situation is more like a break-in with burglary as a facade while killing the victims in their sleep. Normal police officers would take this case as one of stealing homicide but...

The strangest thing about last year's cases is that all targets have their blood drawn. Needle marks were left behind on the victim's body. As if the murderer was so obsessed with taking the blood of his victim as his greatest reward. You are correct Hua Heiyu. This killer had indeed perfected his technique over time. Plus..."

Ye Yuyan's cut-off explanation was continued by Hua Heiyu.

"He is under competition with someone. Another murderer... He kills not only to resolve his perverted desire but also to strive to become one the best." said Hua Heiyu.

Ye Yuyan said, "Correct. Two to three years ago before he started his killing a murderer was caught for killing 21 victims in cold blood. His targets were all abusive single fathers towards their children. This murderer cut off the limbs of his target leaving a limbless victim and a compiled detached arms and legs beside him. He was caught after targeting the wrong victim for his 22nd killing. It was a policeman who just happened to stay over at a relative's house and the child was bullied at school."

"The limbs cutter case? I know that. In the end, when the murderer was caught he had always thought he is a savior but killed those abusive men to their children. They are indeed alike. This time the murderer must think he is saving unborn children. Both are crazy." said Officer Ying Wu.

Jie Yun commented, "If you are not mad in the head would you kill? The desire for something or for money? All killings have a reason even without one. Isn't there a reason 'Because I feel like it' is enough?"

Hua Heiyu was well known for his obsessive-compulsive disorder. Noticed something that made him frown and said, "He made two mistakes. How stupid."

"Haha~ you also noticed that!? You are indeed a perfectionist. Last year, two of his targets survived. One is the sister whom he had killed that night and the other is someone who used to be in a coma. Now both are single mothers who are now currently two to three months old. I need you guys to do something. Go to these ladies and protect them. Catch the killer and get your sentence reduced." said Ye Yuyan.

Hua Heiyu asked, "What about me? I already helped you solve the case."

Cough!

"I will buy you anything in that café as promised," said Ye Yuyan.

Hua Heiyu retorted, "No, I'm bored of that now. There's a new dessert shop that sells different flavors of soufflés. I want all flavors except the ones with veggies or herbs."

"That high-end dessert shop at the 23rd street? I heard their soufflé was the best. You are talking about that. But I heard there are 15 flavors and only 5 had vegetables and herbs in them." said Officer Ying Wu.

Ye Yuyan's lips twitched and murmured as if restraining his anger, "He wants to eat 10 in one go!? Would that even fit in his stomach?"

"Fine. Once the killer is caught I'll buy you 20 with drinks. Get the case done as soon as possible." said Ye Yuyan.

Hua Heiyu's eyes sparkle with determination. For a man who uses his brain more than everyone, his intake of sugar is more as well. Plus, he loves sweets. This reward is better for him than reducing his prison sentence.

The next morning the team once again split up to do the work. Hua Heiyu stayed with Ye Yuyan as he couldn't move freely unlike Jie Yun and Wei Lou.

Jie Yun worked alone and once again checked on the crime scenes and looked for the routes and did a shadow image of the events that unfolds in the area. novElusbc\o\m

"No CCTV. No witness. Hidden Alleys with lots of routes to take to hide from other people's eyes plus the veil of the rain protecting him. He might not be as overly smart as his brother but... If he has knowledge of every crook of the alleys then avoiding the roads where the police patrols are possible." murmured Jie Yun as he walked from alleys to alleys like a shadow. He is looking at the center point of these hidden routes.

It took him three hours to go through all the alleys and found an inconspicuous clinic within the slums area. He stares at this clinic and remembers something that Hua Heiyu had said yesterday.

Suddenly someone from the alum tapped his shoulders and said, "Hey! Why are you looking at Doctor Shen's clinic?"

Meanwhile on Wei Lou's side.

He went to small unaffiliated mafia groups which were made by his former subordinates. In reality, these people suddenly just appeared a year ago out of nowhere. These gangsters had hidden identities. They are undercover police officers and Lou Wei's most special elite with connections to Aster.

He knocked on the ordinary wooden door of the money loan officer and leaned on the door.

Knock. Knock.

The men who were looking like gangsters all moved their eyes on him with a menacing gaze. If Wei Lou didn't know they were tough policemen under his command before he would have believed they were real thugs instead.

With a grin on his face, Wei Lou asked, "Have you got the information I wanted from Aster?"

"Leader."

"Leader Lou!"

"You bunch of bastards! What a Leader! Call him Big Brother!!!"

"Ah? I forgot. We are gangsters right now."

"Hehehe~"

“Big Brother. We had approached Aster as we got your requests about what you have messaged me yesterday. The victim’s information was found immediately but... The list of suspects was still down to three. They said it is better to let Agent Hei check the information himself.”

Wei Lou who received the information said, “Good work. No worries. Let’s buy some afternoon snacks and protect the victim first.”

“Yes, Big Brother!” said all the thug-looking men inside the money loan’s office.

At the suburb’s abandoned church.

Office Ying Wu, Jie Yun, and Wei Lou were tasked to get more information and protect the victims. Only Hei Yuhua and Ye Yuyan were left alone in the church. This time an unwanted guest was here once again. Inspector Yi Rouya was given a mission to observe them.

The two collectively ignored him. Ye Yuyan was focusing on predicting the killer’s next move while Hei Yuhua was waiting for new information to be gathered. Officer Ying Wu had given Hua Heiyu a jar of chocolates to keep his brain useful.

At this moment, some of these chocolate wrappers were rolled into a ball being thrown at Prosecutor Ye Yuyan.

Bonk.

Bonk. Bonk.

Bonk. Bonk. Bonk.

Ye Yuyan finally got pissed and glared at Hua Heiyu.

He bellows, “What the hell do you want!?”

“It’s lunchtime. I’m hungry. Aren’t you going to feed me?~” said Hua Heiyu.

Tsk!

“No. Eat your chocolates. Ying Wu gave you a big jar right?” said Ye Yuyan.

Hua Heiyu said, “No! I want to eat burgers and fries right now! Buy me some!”

.....

“Buy it yourself!”

“So can I leave?”

“No!!!”

“Stingy!!”

Their conversation abruptly started and abruptly ended. There is an obvious conflict between the two men. They look like they can’t get along, but have no other choice but to stay together. Inspector Yi

Rouya who was watching the two of them can obviously notice the two hated each other. Still, due to some circumstances, the two can't get separated from one another.

Suddenly Hua Heiyu glanced at Inspector Yi Rouya and revealed an evil smile. He approached the frightened man and said,

"You heard it right~ I'm hungry. How about you buy me some burgers, fries, and drinks?"

"W-Why should I listen to you?" asked Inspector Yi Rouya.

Hua Heiyu said, "You wanted to stay here and observe right? That workaholic bastard wouldn't buy me some and he won't let me leave. Since you are free, buy me some food or else... you might not be able to leave this church alive anymore~"

Inspector Yi Rouya shivered when he heard the last sentence Hua Heiyu had whispered into his ears. When he saw those glacial silver eyes staring at him like he is a delicious prey, he knew immediately that this criminal is not kidding. He is the youngest psychopath recorded on the headquarters list of most wanted criminals.

"I... I... I just have to buy you some right? I will buy you food right away!!" said Inspector Yi Rouya as he ran away.

"Buy enough for five people," commanded Ye Yuyan.

Inspector Yi Rouya almost tripped when he heard Ye Yuyan's orders as he walked away from the church with hurried steps. Ye Yuyan and Hei Yuhua even heard him saying 'Psycho' multiple times. As Yi Rouya this hidden spy left the area, Ye Yuyan finally stopped acting cold and hugged Hei Yuhua from behind acting clingy as always.

Hei Yuhua said, "I don't know how he was able to stay by your side in our previous life?"

"Before you were ignoring him as if he didn't exist and I did not openly oppose the old men from the higher-ups. All he had in his head was how to seduce me which was useless," said Ye Yuyan.

Hei Yuhua said, "Oh, really?~"

"En... I was this close to killing him multiple times before. Because he keeps hindering me from doing my job. Anyway, that's in the past. Let me hug you more~" said Ye Yuyan.

Chapter 648: 12.50 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: First Case – Finding the suspect

At the house of one of the alive victims of the current case's murderer. Officer Ying Wu came to visit and asked a few things about the former victim.

In the victim's house,

A lady in his mid-twenties was hugging her knees while looking around in fear despite being inside her own home. This lady was one of the victims who survived because it was her elder sister who was targeted at that time and she was still a virgin young lady. It was because of this reason that she was spared. That day was the source of her nightmare. It was the night that she lost her elder sister and unborn nephew or niece.

"I... I do not know what you want me to say. All I could remember that night is that the rain was so loud that my sister's screams could almost not be heard from the outside. I witnessed the death scene of my sister and unborn nephew or niece. But sadly unable to see the murderer's face. This is because I didn't dare to open my eyes at that time," storied the victim.

Officer Ying Wu's expression is quite serious and sympathetic.

"Did the man that night say something?" he asked.

The victim responded, "H-He sounds... Sounds exciting and... Happy? The scent of blood is too strong. I don't know. I can't recall very well. He was laughing... As if he is crazy...?"

.....

"I see... You heard his voice, don't you recognize it?" asked Officer Ying Wu.

The victim said in a panic, "No. No. No! I can't remember. I must not! He told me he would kill me next if I recall who he is!?"

"Please calm down. Calm down, Madam. You are currently pregnant and you can't lose control of your emotions. It wouldn't have any good effects on your baby!" said Officer Ying Wu.

The lady had calmed down hearing about her child. She gently touched her still flat tummy and smiled. This unborn child is her only family now, she must protect it well.

"You are right. You are correct. I have a baby now. I can't get upset or angry now. Do you know that I only adopted my deceased elder sister when she herself was an orphan? My elder sister is a good person. She is hardworking and kind."

"You know how children who come of age are asked to leave the orphanage. My elder sister is one of them. When she was young no one wanted to adopt her, thankfully, the orphanage was run by a nice person. She let the old children go to school before they became full adults and when they completed a vocational course they would be free to leave their own life."

"My elder sister is a graduate of a 2 years course in hospitality. She is a receptionist in a big hotel. Her life should be a good one until her boyfriend cheated on her. That scumbag! At that time, I ran out of the orphanage looking for someone. I was looking for another orphan whom I treated as a younger brother but... I got lost in the city."

"My older sister was the one who picked me up. She wanted to bring me back to the orphanage but I told her I don't want to. I wanted to look for my younger brother. My sister had been lonely after her breakup and asked me if I wanted to live with her for a while, I said Yes."

"We were living happily until the day my sister started getting nauseous all morning. When we went to some small clinic for a check-up... We learned she is pregnant from her former boyfriend."

The word clinic caught Officer Ying Wu's attention. Like Jie Yun, he remembers well what Hua Heiyu said that the murderer might be a hidden or an illegal surgeon. This kind of doctor usually worked in small clinics doing some unlicensed surgeries.

Officer Ying Wu's thoughts, 'A small clinic?'

The victim still continues her story.

“At the beginning, I thought my sister wouldn’t like the baby and so I asked if this clinic is doing some abortion surgery. They said yes, but my sister said she doesn’t want to abort it. She said even if she becomes a single parent with my help, we should be able to become happy.”

“But... But... Who would think that one night everything had changed? It was so rainy that night I couldn’t sleep because it was too cold and there were too many mosquitoes. My sister was okay. She drank the supplements we bought from the clinic and she fell asleep so deeply that night.”

Officer Ying Wu’s thoughts, ‘Supplements can make someone fall into deep sleep?’

“Then... That man... That man suddenly entered our house as if he knew where we live. But I’m sure I locked all the doors and windows that night then... Then... Then...”

The traumatic scene of her sister’s death at that time is still vivid in her head. Just thinking about it made her extremely sick. She suddenly ran out towards the bathroom as soon her stomach churns and started vomiting.

Blergh~ Urrggg!

Officer Ying Wu helped pat her back as she puked. It took half an hour for her to calm down and return with him to the room they were in before. The officer supported her weak self.

“No need to tell me what happened that night. But please answer a few of my questions. Would that be alright?” asked Officer Ying Wu.

The victim nods her head in agreement.

“That small clinic. Can you tell me where it was located and what was the doctor’s name of the one who checked on your sister?”

“It was a small clinic in this slums area. As you know... How low class this place is. The name of the doctor is... Hmm, yes! We all call him Doctor Shen. He is a young man nearing his thirties. It was said that his family was also poor and he lost his mother in a pandemic. His father becomes crazy after his wife’s death and drinks himself to death as well.”

“Rumors say that Doctor Shen lived in a temple for a while but was kicked out when he reached adulthood for some reasons. They also say that Doctor Shen was adopted by an old doctor who formerly owned the old clinic and he inherited the clinic after the old doctor died.”

Officer Ying Wu asked, “Is he also your doctor now? How are his skills?”

“Doctor Shen is so kind. He is also skilled. When he heard I was having a hard time sleeping at night due to depression, he gave me supplements to help me fall asleep at night.”

“Can you let me see those supplements?”

“Sure.” He watched her rampage at her bedside cabinet for the medicine and when she found it. She gave it to Officer Ying Wu to check. “Here it is.”

Officer Ying Wu checked on the various colorful tablets of the so-called supplements. Most of them are vitamins that strengthen one's body. He couldn't see anything weird.

"I will need the help of the narcotic police department for this," murmured Officer Ying Wu.

"I would like to confiscate these medicines. The truth is you are in danger, Ma'am. The killer from last year is starting his actions. Within these few months, already 6 people are dead. Adding up his former victims which include your sister, there are already 20 victims in total. His targets are all single pregnant parents with one to three months old babies."

The victim's face turned pale as a terrified expression appeared on her face. She even started trembling as she remembered how Officer Ying Wu confiscated her supplements and that she kept on asking about the small clinic.

"Is it Doctor Shen? But the one who checked on my sister last year was his adoptive father. Old Doctor Shen! If... If... If... It was indeed them then... Then doesn't that mean I'm the one who caused my sister's death!? I don't believe it. I don't believe it!"

Officer Ying Wu panicked as he noticed that the victim started to become over-emotional. He had to call the doctor and the team who came with him hiding outside the house on guard.

"Medic! Get inside. The victim is in a crazed state!"

BAM!

The front door of the house was forcefully opened and a group of policemen including the medic went inside the house. The doctor in the team checked on the victim and had to tranquilize her as it was bad for her baby if she continues to be this emotional.

Before the victim completely fell asleep, Officer Ying Wu heard her murmurs.

"If it was really them then... I gave our address for a doctor's home visit because... My sister's death..."

A deep frown appeared on Officer Ying Wu's face as he listened to the words the victim had said.

The medic said, "Captain. She is asleep." novel Lust for Power

"Good. You guys stay here and protect her. I will ask the Prosecutor what should be done next. Keep her safe and prevent everyone from seeing her no matter who they are." said Officer Ying Wu.

His subordinates saluted at him as they all accepted the orders when suddenly a policeman guarding outside run inside and reported,

"Captain, a man saying he is the lady's husband came over."

"Let him in. I want to talk to him," ordered Officer Ying Wu.

"Yes Sir!"

On the other hand, in the case of Jie Yun, who was caught by the people in the slums, lurking around the slums area was surrounded by residents. They thought Jie Yun was a bad man. A wealthy person surveying the whole area.

Jie Yun said, "I'm not here to survey the area for renovation. I'm not even rich."

"Oh? So what are you doing here?"

"Sightseeing? How funny. This is the slums area. What can you see here unless you are trying to send us all away."

"Would you believe me if I told you I'm lost? I was looking for someone!" said Jie Yun.

"Hm? Are you an omega? Brothers, let's sell him to a brothel to get money."

"Are you crazy!? There are lots of police cars patrolling in this area again."

"I heard there are lots of murders going on in our area."

It was at this moment that Wei Lou and his thug brothers witnessed this scene. When Wei Lou saw his lover being encircled by people like an animal he asked his brothers to scare the residents away.

Wei Lou said, "Oi! What the hell are you lots doing? Let go of him!"

"Big brother, leave it to us."

"We love beating people regardless of age~"

Jie Yun saw Wei Lou and hid behind him. He was terrified of being surrounded just now that he had almost forgotten his current identity as a contract killer. The little brothers Wei Lou brought with him had shooed the residents away by scaring them. It didn't take long for them to be the only ones in the alley.

"Are you okay?" asked Wei Lou worriedly.

Jie Yun asked, "How did you know I am here?"

"The bosses told us to return. They gave me your coordinates to pick you up. Who would expect you would be in that situation right now. What happened? What are you doing here?" asked Wei Lou.

Jie Yun answered, "I checked the routes and found this place as the center point. That small clinic over there is the endpoint. When I was about to investigate further I was caught by the residents thinking I'm some kind of wealthy person who wanted to destroy their home and ended up like that."

Jie Yun's situation was okay at first but suddenly ended in such a sticky way. Wei Lou thought it was funny and started laughing.

Hahahaha~

"I even heard them wanting to send you to a brothel. But aren't you a beta? Hahaha~" said Wei Lou.

"I'm an omega now. I've differentiated last year," said Jie Yun.

Jie Yun kicked his butt and angrily went to the car leaving Wei Lou who had fallen on the ground like he was kneeling.

Ouch!

The little brothers of Wei Lou surrounded him and said,

.....

“Big brother, how can an omega kick you like that!?”

“Aren’t omegas all weak?”

“Idiot! Didn’t you see that my sister-in-law is trained!? He must be a powerful agent.”

“Hey! Watch your mouth!”

Kneeling on the ground Wei Lou who was growing some mushrooms in depression was still sulking from being thrown out of the bedroom.

(QAQ) “I don’t want to sleep in the living room...”

Jie Yun shouted once more, “If you still don’t come over. You are sleeping in the hallways tonight?”

“Big brother, sister-in-law is calling for you. If you still haven’t come over.”

Wei Lou woke up from his remorse and said like a loyal puppy.

“You guys scatter and get some people to watch over that small clinic. Don’t approach closely and don’t get noticed. Do it secretly.” ordered Wei Lou.

“Yes, sir!”

Jie Yue shouted for the third time, “Come over here you dolt!”

“Coming, sweetie~” replied Wei Lou with a grin as he ran towards the car and left with Jie Yun.

“Will our captain become a henpecked husband in the future?”

“So what!? Isn’t Prosecutor Ye one as well?”

“Shush! Don’t talk like that about your superiors. Do you want to get beaten up? Moreover, are their mates someone ordinary? Both are top agents from Aster. One is the Top undercover agent and the other is the top intelligence agent. Why do you think Aster agents are kind to us ordinary policemen? Because our department and theirs are connected by marriage!”

Chapter 649: 12.51 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: First Case – A Rainy Evening

The night just after the sun had set.

At the Suburbs, Abandoned Church.

Everyone had gathered once again. They need to try solving the case as soon as possible so the gathered information would be shared with the team for the second time. When Officer Ying Wu, Wei Lou, and Jie Yun arrived at the scene, they saw Ye Yuyan and Hua Heiyu fighting over a burger. With Hua Heiyu half lying down on the wooden bench and Ye Yuyan pushing him with one hand and pulling a paper bag with the other.

That burger happened to be one of the three burgers for the three people who hadn't arrived at the venue. Inspector Yi Rouya on the other hand had left immediately after getting someone to send the five burger sets to the abandoned church.

He was terrified that Hua Heiyu might lose control over his craziness and kill him on the spot. He also didn't believe that Prosecutor Ye Yuyan would save him if the psycho indeed jumped on him. He knew how much Ye Yuyan disdained him. He wasn't even looking human in the eyes of this mad Prosecutor. Now he guessed that these two get along a bit well since they both had problems in the head. He is a normal person and he doesn't want to get involved with crazy people.

Ye Yuyan said, "Give that to me! You ate three burgers already!"

"No! I already gave you one. The rest are mine!" retorted Hua Heiyu.

.....

"You even ate the other's set!? Are you not afraid of getting fat as a pig!?" said Ye Yuyan.

Hua Heiyu pulled Ye Yuyan's hair like a child and said, "Who are you calling a pig! You are the pig. Your whole family is a pig!"

"Idiot! If you say that then you are a pig yourself!" said Ye Yuyan as he thought no one else was inside the church aside from the two of them.

When Wei Lou and Jie Yun noticed that their boss had slipped up for a moment. Wei Lou kicked the wooden bench to show their presence.

THUD!

Ye Yuyan and Hua Heiyu froze.

Wei Lou said, "Oops~ You want to continue flirting go ahead! Don't worry about the burger. I already ate outside."

Jie Yun and Officer Ying Wu who hadn't eaten all this time looked at each other and sighed.

"Don't worry I will order some more food," said Officer Ying Wu.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan felt he lost face and was stunned that Hua Heiyu got him off guard. He got kicked in the stomach and fell off the bench. Plus the burger they are fighting over was taken by Hua Heiyu who ran off with a large cup of coke and didn't even forget to grab another set of fries.

Ye Yuyan failed to catch him and said, "You come back here! I only ate one!" he shouted.

Officer Ying Wu commented, "I'll order you another set, Prosecutor Ye."

"Then... Okay," said Ye Yuyan as he averted his face. No one knows if he is pissed or shy.

Hua Heiyu said, "Me. Wuwu, buy me some Ice cream!"

Ye Yuyan twisted his body and glared at Hua Heiyu and said, "Don't eat anymore!"

Hua Heiyu rolled his eyes at him as he grabbed Officer Ying Wu's sleeves and then let go.

"It's raining. Don't eat something cold in such weather. It's not good for your health," commented Jie Yun. "Change it to hot chocolate instead."

"Sure. What about you?" asked Officer Ying Wu to Wei Lou.

Hearing this reply Hua Heiyu happily sat down on a wooden bench where he left his burger and fries and resumed eating.

"Coffee with milk," replied Wei Lou.

They waited until the order for delivery which Officer Ying Wu had booked arrived. They ate as the meeting continued.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan said, "What have you guys found?"

Officer Ying Wu was the first one to speak.

"I've just returned from one of the victim's houses. The other victim doesn't want to get involved with the police and told us to stay away from her. So I no longer cared about the first one and went to the second one. novELuS&dotC/o/m

The second victim is the sister who survived when her elder sister was killed. They aren't related by blood but they treated each other as one. Like the same targets, she met all the requirements. Single parent, pregnant, and lives alone. I was told that she was awake when her sister was killed a year ago. But sadly, she didn't see his face in the dark.

But she heard his voice and was not willing to identify him because of trauma and fear of being retaliated if she told the police." said Officer Ying Wu.

Wei Lou asked, "Doesn't that mean she recognizes the killer by his voice? Why doesn't she tell the police? Is she protecting him?"

"Maybe not. In case of immense fear, you need extreme protection to get her out of her mental fear. It seems the police cannot give that to her," said Jie Yun.

Ye Yuyan was frowning as he tried to think deeper about the case. It looked creepy as he was munching on a burger while he kept staring at the bloody photos of the victims pinned on the wooden board in front of him.

Then he suddenly glanced at Hua Heiyu, "If you're done eating, do your job!" said Prosecutor Ye Yuyan.

Hua Heiyu was currently drinking his hot chocolate. But for someone with a cat's tongue like his, drinking hot beverages is not possible. He will just get his tongue burned. He had to wait for it to become lukewarm before he could drink it.

“Who is her doctor? The one who checked her current state as a pregnant woman. She didn’t go into a big hospital. I’ve seen that victim Wuwu mentioned.

Orphaned. Single parent. Deceased sister. Living alone. In short, she is poor with no family or husband to lean on. There is no way she would go to a big hospital to check on her child. But slums had so many alleys, there should be clinics at least.” said Hua Heiyu.

At this point, everyone except Ye Yuyan was looking at Hua Heiyu as if asking what his brain is made of. How can his thinking be that elaborate when he was in this church all this time and only had Officer Ying Wu’s statement and the victim’s information alone. Did he speculate everything and choose the only path that fits the situation? How can he do that?

“What are you? A monster? Just what is your brain made of?” asked Wei Lou in shock.

Jie Yun commented, “Geniuses had a different way of thinking than ordinary people like us. Don’t think too much about it? You’ll just make your head hurt.”

“Are you indirectly saying I’m an idiot!?” said Wei Lou.

Jie Yun said, “You are the one who said that. Not me!”

“You... bastard!” said Wei Lou about entering a fist fight with Jie Yun but was stopped by Prosecutor Ye’s sharp glance. He could only click his tongue in anger and went back to his seat.

Tsk!

Ye Yuyan said, “Continue.”

“Yes, Sir. Her doctor is someone called Doctor Shen. As Heiyu speculated, he is a doctor in the slums area.” said Officer Ying Wu.

Hua Heiyu said, “Doctors usually give pregnant women some supplements before birth. Since you came back late you must have the results of her medicine. Does it have forced sleeping effects like sleeping pills?”

Officer Ying Wu no longer acted surprised and he already expected it but... It still left him speechless. Maybe if he told Hua Heiyu every clue he got, he would long to point out the culprit for this case. Prosecutor Ye Yuyan was also strange. He immediately believes what Hua Heiyu says as if he knew he wouldn’t be wrong.

Ye Yuyan said, “Give me the result of that medicine.”

“It’s this one. It had the components of a sleeping pill as Heiyu said. Can we grab Doctor Shen with this?” asked Officer Ying Wu.

Ye Yuyan and Hua Heiyu said at the same time, “Not enough evidence.”

The two looked at each other with hatred and averted their eyes almost simultaneously.

Tsk!

Officer Ying Wu was confused on the other hand.

“Why can we bring him down?” he asked.

It was Jie Yun who answered his question, “The medicine is not enough evidence to say he is the killer. After all, that victim is as you said traumatized. She must at least suffer from depression and insomnia. He can use this as an excuse to remove suspicion on himself.”

“Ah~,” said Wei Lou and Officer Ying Wu at the same time.

The others could understand Officer Ying Wu not noticing this but Wei Lou on the other hand is an old officer. Seeing him react like this made Hua Heiyu and Jie Yun give him a second look.

Ye Yuyan on the other hand already knew that his confidant was not gifted in critical thinking. He is more suitable for field tasks.

“Don’t look at him like that. That one is only useful in the field,” said Ye Yuyan.

Hua Heiyu and Jie Yun instantly understood when Prosecutor Ye Yuyan said such a thing.

Officer Ying Wu asked, “What should we do next, Prosecutor Ye?”

“Send your team to protect the second victim. We will focus on the first victim first. The murderer must already know about your visits and how she declined the protection of the police. She is in danger.” said Prosecutor Ye Yuyan.

Hua Heiyu noticed the loud sound of rain falling and commented,

“It might be already too late. His territory... had appeared. For someone, competing with another killer. He wouldn’t waste any given opportunity.”

“Which is the most possible location of the crime scene!?” asked Ye Yuyan who suddenly grabbed Hua Heiyu’s collar.

There is a rage painted on his face as well as urgency while there is only indifference and unsympathy on Hua Heiyu’s face.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan asked, “I’m asking where is the most possible location he would go for a kill!?”

“Based on the current time, day, and the first victim’s daily lifestyle. She might currently be on the road on her way home. Holding an umbrella that blocked her sight under this heavy rain.” said Hua Heiyu.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan and the rest no longer waited time and went to the car as fast as they could. Officer Ying Wu even asked some comrades of his to go to the location Hua Heiyu had mentioned. Wei Lou even took this chance to capture the culprit and ordered his little brothers to move.

Inside the abandoned church, only Jie Yun and Hua Heiyu remain.

The sound of the rain made even the silent atmosphere inside the church noisy.

Yun Jie asked, “Brother, do you think they can save her?”

“No. It’s too late. She must be dead by now.” responded Hei Yuhua as some theories and probabilities were all calculated in his head.

As the former top undercover agent like him, he had perfect calculation at his every move. He would also choose not to move if the situation is already beyond what he can do. He was trained to sacrifice someone even himself if the situation had a need for it. So he longed to be indifferent to the lives of others that are not important to his life.

But Prosecutor Ye Yuyan, Lou Wei, and Officer Ying Wu are different. They are police officers. This main job is to save civilians above everything. So even though Hei Yuhua had told them it was already too late. They couldn't give up the hope she might have lived.

.....

Maybe if Officer Ying Wu reported everything ahead of time, Hei Yuhu would have come up with such a situation to save her. But not only did he return late from visiting the second victim's house. They even took their time to eat dinner. It might look coincidental but it had been a perfect calculation of fate instead.

Hei Yuhua remembered the information about the second victim's background. The name of the orphanage she came from was familiar to him.

"A'Jie, you said before that in the orphanage you grew up from, you used to have an elder sister right?" asked Hei Yuhua.

Yun Jie replied, "Yes. Is there something wrong, brother?"

"There is a 70% percent possibility that this second victim is the elder sister in your past. Why don't you... visit her... to check?"

Before Hei Yuhua could complete his words Yun Jie had longed to run out to do what Hei Yuhua had suggested. His lone figure at that abandoned church made him even more cold and lonely. As if he was differently made from the rest. After all, he lacks sympathy for the people he doesn't care about. To him, their lives had nothing to do with him.

Ring. Ring. Ring.

In that abandoned church, Hei Yuhua who was looking at the falling rain with dull eyes suddenly heard a phone ringing. He looked around the church and saw that Officer Ying Wu's phone had been left behind in his hurry.

When Hei Yuhua saw the flashing unknown number on the screen he nonchalantly answered the phone call.

Hei Yuhua, "This is Hydrangea. Mission Accomplish."

[Good work, Hydra. I, Nightshade, had never been proud of getting you into the organization. Azalea and Hyacinth had successfully entered the country. The leader, Poppy says if you completed two more missions, he would agree to meet you. Are you happy with this news?]

"What is the second mission?" asked Hei Yuhua.

[Kill Prosecutor Ye's confidant, Lou Wei!]

Chapter 650: 12.52 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: First Case – Killer on run.

[Kill Prosecutor Ye's confidant, Lou Wei!]

Hei Yuhua said, "I don't know who he is. After Ye Yuyan was reinstated he also left the headquarters and even went abroad. He must be chasing after the traces of the organization."

[He is... Surprisingly, he is even working with an agent from Aster. What's the name of that former subordinate of yours? Yui... Yon...]

"Yun Ming? Of course, he would help Lou Wei. The two of them are secretly lovers." commented Hei Yuhua.

[No wonder. Our organization no longer has headquarters in another country. Poppy says he wanted to stay in this country, that's why we moved everything here. But if those two keep following the traces left behind they would sooner or later come back to this country. When they returned. You must fulfill the second mission if you feel like doing so.]

Hei Yuhua spoke, "After completing two more missions, I would be allowed to meet Poppy as you've said, right?"

[Yes, that's the condition Poppy wanted you to fulfill. For an agent like you, killing a man like Lou Wei should be easy. Thought that Mad Prosecutor might end up killing you if he learned you were the one who did it. Well~ do as you see fit. Are you going to accept the second mission, Hydrangea?]

.....

"Of course. Wait for the result," said Hei Yuhua as he ended the call.

He also removed all traces of the call and placed the phone in his pocket. He took an umbrella and walked out of the abandoned church walking under the rain. As for his destination, obviously, he left to meet his other teammates.

Meanwhile somewhere within the district, a man wearing an all-black coat was sniffing at his hands covered in blood. Squatting near the body of a woman with a huge wound in her stomach, she lay on the cold and wet floor lifeless. This lady is one of the surviving victims of last year's serial killing.

She was lucky the first time and everything ended today as she still died under this person's hands.

Sniff~

"Hah~ it's fresh and... Comfortable~ The 21st sacrifice. One more... Only one more to win against my foster father's record. Hehehe~" mumbled the man covered in a black raincoat as he walked away after finishing his task for that night.

Blood strolls down from his raincoat but is washed away by the falling rain. As more time passes by... there would no longer be any more traces left behind and he would be free from being caught once again.

Brakes!

By the time, the murderer had left the scene, a police car stopped at the exact location where the deceased is as Hua Heiyu calculated.

Wei Lou said, "Fuck! It's really here!!!"

"How can this happen? Did he guess it or calculate it? How can he predict it exactly like that!?" exclaimed Officer Ying Wu in disbelief.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan frowned as he remembered himself grabbing the collar of his wife a few moments ago. He truly cannot change. For the sake of justice and righteousness, he couldn't even see what was right in front of him. Thinking of this he couldn't ignore the churning pain in his chest but still calmly acted according to the situation.

"The murderer must have not fled that far yet. Look for a man in a raincoat with the scent of blood on him. Search the whole area!!!" commanded Prosecutor Ye Yuyan.

Officer Ying Wu started talking in his waking talkie and commanded some police who were summoned by the Prosecutor to search the whole area. Wei Lou himself sent orders to his little brothers to search for the murderer.

Once Officer Ying Wu and Wei Lou leave to follow his command. Prosecutor Ye Yuyan, who was left behind, didn't even move. His wife's words still echo in his ears.

{It might be too late.}

Staring at the dead body just near his foot, Prosecutor Ye Yuyan is even more depressed in his heart.
Sigh~

"I should have brought him with me then left him alone in that ruined church," mumbled Ye Yuyan. "I just hope Yun Jie has stayed as well."

Then he brought out his phone and started calling a few people who would handle the crime scene. He waited there until those professionals in forensics came over to take over.

Meanwhile, all over the district, police officers and men who looked like thugs were running all over the place looking for someone in a raincoat. They've bumped into multiple people wearing raincoats but they haven't met one smelling blood on them. They've been roaming around the area for hours but haven't seen anyone of such.

Wei Lou was already so pissed that he stopped by the store to rest for a moment and buy a cigarette to calm his nerves down. He entered the small store which was open at this time and bumped into someone wearing a black shirt and carrying an umbrella with him. Since Wei Lou didn't smell any scent of blood or see a raincoat on the person he ignored him and shouted to the boss of the store that he wanted a smoke.

"Boss, give me a box of cigs and a lighter!" said Wei Lou.

The store owner said, "Okay. Here you go."

Wei Lou was about to pay for the cigarette when he noticed a splash of blood on the back of his left hand. This was the hand that bumped into that man in the shirt. Even though he wasn't a genius with critical thinking, his instinct as a police officer when finding criminals is even sharper than Ye Yuyan.

As soon as he saw the blood on the back of his hand, Wei Lou knew that this man was most likely the killer that was on the run. He immediately comes after him.

Wei Lou looked serious as he stared at the man holding an umbrella in front of him. He was ready to jump on him if the man even tried to run away

"Hey! You?! The one holding that black umbrella. It is you right? The one who bumped me inside the store just now!! Huh? Do you think you can just be me and leave just like that!? Come over here! Here!!" said Wei Lou.

He is pretending to be the mafia he currently looks like. This way if this man is indeed the killer, he would think that an ordinary thug is making things hard for him.

The store owner noticed the fight in front of his store and noticed a thug asking someone he is familiar with for a beating. He shouted at Wei Lou to show his support for the acquaintance.

The store owner said, "Oi! Doctor Shen didn't even bump into you intentionally. My store is too small, it is normal for someone to be inside. Don't ask to fight unreasonably."

"What!? He is Doctor Shen, Officer Ying Wu mentioned!?" Exclaimed Wei Lou as he glares at Doctor Shen.

Doctor Shen thought things weren't right when he saw Wei Lou's reaction and immediately ran for it. He dashes like a marathon athlete who ignores even the falling rain on the top of his head

Wei Lou instantly chased after the man and cursed, "Damn! It's really that killer! Don't run!!!"

He immediately used the walkie-talkie and sent messages not only to the policemen but also to his little brothers. novelus3dotC\o/m

"Suspect sighted! Suspect sighted! He wasn't wearing a raincoat anymore. He is wearing black pants and a black shirt and is currently running. He is running through the alleys!! Fuck!" said Wei Lou as he immediately sprinted to chase after the criminal.

Officer Ying Wu who received this message instantly issued the pursuit command. In the middle of the night under the rain, numerous men were running all over in the direction Wei Lou had mentioned trying to corner the culprit. But Wei Lou forgot to mention the existence of his thug brothers to the policemen causing conflict between the two groups.

When Wei Lou finally caught up with Doctor Shen, they fought toe to toe and noticed that both of them were skilled enough. Doctor Shen's move was fast and precise; all attacks had the intention to kill. But Wei Lou is different. He is fast and stronger than Doctor Shen but his movements were done more to subdue him than kill him.

Doctor Shen also noticed his peculiarity and learned which group Wei Lou came from. He sneered and said while exchanging moves,

“Your movements I can see that you are not a thug as you portray. Instead, you look more like a field police undercover,” said Doctor Shen.

Thoughts of Wei Lou, ‘How did he know?!’

Wei Lou was stunned as he thought his identity was busted and showed an opening at that last moment. Doctor Shen, a killer who honed his knife skills to perfection, didn’t waste this opportunity and wanted to slit Wei Lou’s main artery in the neck.

‘Fuck! I’m dead! I miss Jie’er~’

He had an arrogant smile thinking he won this fight but Doctor Shen didn’t notice the arrival of someone who wasn’t supposed to be there. Just when Wei Lou thought he would be a goner someone grabbed his head and pulled him away from Doctor Shen barely dodging the knife that almost reaped his life.

OUCH!

Suddenly, a merciless thrust came from the man who appeared out of nowhere holding a closed umbrella in front of Doctor Shen and Wei Lou. The tip of the umbrella was targeting the head of Doctor Shen and he dodged it only for the tip of the umbrella to dip and stab at his right shoulder.

Whooshed! Stabbed!

AAHH!!!

Doctor Shen’s thoughts, ‘This person is different from that undercover police. He intended to kill me without hesitation!’

“Shit!” Doctor Shen ran away but Hei Yuhua didn’t pursue him. Wei Lou tried to run after the man as he saw that Hei Yuhua wasn’t chasing.

Hei Yuhua stared at them with emotionless eyes. His silver eyes look colder than the temperature of the ice rain falling on his head. No one noticed the trembling legs under him as well as some traces of blood tinting his white shoes together with mud.

The same evening in the middle of the night, almost at dawn, near the house of the second surviving victim from last year’s serial killing. Doctor Shen who was on the run bumped into a police officer hiding in an alley near his final victim’s house.

“There are lots of police protecting her like this. Thankfully, I made some preparations in advance and ask that man to work for me,” mumbled Doctor Shen as he hid in the corner treating his stabbed wound in his right shoulder.

It was the same wound Hei Yuhua stabbed mercilessly.

Hiss~

“Who the fuck is that man?! He looks like an omega but how can he have that much strength on his slender body. He is more dangerous than that thug police officer! Anyway, I need to hide first... This place is the safest.” murmured Doctor Shen as he stole the officer’s clothes he took from the police he had just killed in the alley. "I can use that man..." then he looked at the dead body of the officer and thought of a plan to control the current situation and avoid being caught by this man who just arrived.

Then he saw someone running towards the house who was wearing a black suit. It was Yun Jie who is wearing the disguise of Jie Yun. After his conversation with Hei Yuhua at the abandoned church, Yun Jie hurriedly ran away and went to the recorded address of the second victim whom Officer Ying Wu had interviewed the last time.

Yun Jie stood in front of the house gate for a long time. He even forgot to bring an umbrella with him when he ran out. As a differentiated omega, he might be stronger than normal omegas but... He wouldn't be stronger than ordinary alphas. Bathing under such a cold and almost freezing rain would definitely make him sick. Even so, he still stood there without any reaction as he hesitated to knock on the gates.

One of the hidden police protecting the house recognized him as someone from Prosecutor Ye Yuyan's team. They gave him an umbrella though it was a bit too late as he was already soaked through by the rain.

The police officer who approached him asked, "Sir. You are someone who worked with Prosecutor Ye and Captain Ying Wu right? Was there a problem?"

Jie Yun stared at this police officer then suddenly approached him and smelt a strong scent of medicine on him. But he is a medic from Officer Ying Wu's group on a mission to protect the last surviving target of the serial killer.

"The first surviving victim was killed tonight. I came over to check for the other surviving victim," answered Jie Yun.

The police officer was startled. As if backing up Jie Yun's words, the phone possessed by the police officer suddenly rings.

Ring. Ring.

Clicked!

"Yes, Officer Shen is speaking! EH!? Captain Ying Wu!"

Then the police officer personally received a call from an unknown number calling himself Officer Ying Wu. The weather these days is so bad that call reception is very affected by it. There would be more flinching sounds whenever having a conversation on the phone.

"Yes, I understand. I will bring more comrades with me to protect the target."

"Actually, captain. One of Prosecutor Ye's team members is here. Yes, he just arrived."

"No, it is not a young man in hoodies. But an adult man in a suit. Yes... I will give him the phone!"

Passing the phone to Jie Yun, Police Officer Shen said, "Police comrade, Captain Ying Wu wanted to speak with you on the phone."

{Since when did you get there. Did he say something about the second victim?}

“I only dropped by to check if she is okay. How was the other one?” asked Jie Yun. He indirectly changes the topic and prevents Police Officer Ying Wu from asking him why he is here.

Police Officer Ying Wu responded, {Too late. She was already gone by the time we arrived. We are trying to search the whole area as the killer must have not gone too far. Please stay there and protect the last surviving victim. Are others with you?}

Jie Yun responded, “No. I don’t know. I came alone.”

{I thought you can with someone. I would have loved to ask for another helping hand to catch traces of the serial killer on the run.}

“He would only leave if he finds things interesting or you buy him food. I will check on the last victim. Continue your work.” said Jie Yun as he returned the phone to the police officer and proceeded to meet the lady who is supposed to be his elder sister from the same orphanage as she.

Ding. Dong.

He rang the doorbell but the person who came to meet him wasn’t the lady owner of the house but instead a man.
