Chapter 1371 Dinner with the Silverbane Family

It was his accidental discovery of Roselynn's unique charm, he speculated that even Roselynn herself was unaware of where her shining point lay!

The words his mother had just uttered were simply absurd!

"Be quiet! You foolish son!"

Althea was truly exasperated by Julian's antics.

She was so incensed that she couldn't make out a single word. The more Julian spoke, the more she felt as though Roselynn had put a spell on him!

"What kind of love potion did that woman give you? No! I must take you to break the curse! I will spare no expense to bring in the best priest in Onza right away!"

Althea seized him and was on the verge of leaving.

"You're out of your mind and unreasonable!"

Julian felt embarrassed to have such a mother. He scolded her, pushed her away, and drove off from home.

"Julian! Julian!"

Althea couldn't stop him. She stamped her feet in frustration and then redirected her anger toward Lexi!

"Hmph! It's all because of the Quillen family. They are the ones responsible for the Summerton family's current predicament. I will never let the Quillen family off the hook!"

After uttering those words, she shot an angry glance at Lexi before storming into the villa in a fit of indignation.

Zaiden also sighed and entered with a troubled mind.

Lexi was also at a loss. She had initially come to resolve the conflict between the two families, but inadvertently further fueled Althea's animosity toward the Quillen family.

Nevertheless, despite the issue, she did not depart empty-handed!

On the other side, Emmanuel and Mackenzie were already seated in an opulent private room in a restaurant.

In a spacious chamber, beneath a crystal chandelier, Emmanuel, Mackenzie, and the grandfather and granddaughter from the Silverbane family were seated facing each other.

Mackenzie harbored some doubts about this alliance with the Silverbane family, but as a guest, she refrained from posing questions.

"Haha! It's truly a pleasure to have the Quillen family visit the Nuthana Chamber of Commerce today! Allow me to propose a toast to both of you!"

As the host, Stanley rose and raised his glass to Emmanuel and his wife.

"Old Mr. Silverbane, you're too kind. I'm truly flattered."

Mackenzie quickly smiled and raised her glass as well.

"Grandpa, your health isn't suited for excessive drinking!" Angela advised from the side.

“Haha. It's all right! It's all right!”

Stanley waved his hand and remarked, “After meeting old friends today, I simply can't contain my happiness!”

“Oh? Old friends?” Mackenzie inquired as she was intrigued,

“Yes. Indeed! Didn't your grandfather inform you? We were close friends many years ago!” He responded.

She smiled and shook her head slightly while feeling somewhat embarrassed.

“Well, it's your grandfather's fault then!”

, Stanley's demeanor was somewhat akin to Terence's, but he was more o q « forthright in his speech. “When the

Was fist I invited him to co-manage it with me, to uphold a fair business environment for Nuthana merchants, but he declined.

Moreover, the Quillen family has been reluctant to join the chamber of RIP commerce for so many years!” Mackenzie nodded in understanding. If he hadn't disclosed it himself, she wouldn't have been aware of her grandfather's past experiences.

su He suddenly changed the topic. “So, when I saw the Quillen family submit their application, I was oyerneyed re dc tie family also has a son-in-law. The Quillen family joining the Nuthana Chamber of Commerce would undoubtedly be a blessing for the business community in Nuthana!”

“Son-in-law?”

Mackenzie hesitated for a moment, then gestured toward the man next to her and asked, “Are you referring to him?”

Emmanuel couldn’t help but touch his nose and a bitter smile formed in his heart.

Mackenzie's actions and tone were so surprising. It made him feel a bit embarrassed.

“Exactly,” Angela chimed in when Emmanuel was mentioned. “Last night, Mr.

Lowe saved us. And today, he exposed the Tanner family’s scheme. Without him;

we wouldn't be here enjoying this delicious food.”

“I see,” Mackenzie added before shooting Emmanuel a discreet glare as if to say,

“You did this and didn't even tell me?”

Emmanuel could only smile bitterly.

He was afraid of revealing his .

identity, so Mackenzie himself?

He never expected the Silverbane family to be so unscrupulous by selling him out like this. Luckily, both the grandfather and granddaughter were wise and understanding.

They chose not to further expose Emmanuel's identity.

Chapter 1372 The Tale of Teddy Tanner

They led Mackenzie to believe that he was rescuing them as Emmanuel.

With limited information, she could only assume so. Simultaneously, she pondered that without his association with Stanley, the Quillen family might not have successfully passed the membership application review today!

"Ms. Quillen, with a son-in-law like this in the Quillen family, you are bound to shine in the Nuthana Grand Martial Showdown. I've heard that the Quillen family has secured a 75 million contract with Diamond Titan Military Technologies. If the project prospers, the Quillen family will undoubtedly ascend to become the leading family in Nuthana. Becoming an official member of the chamber of commerce is simply a matter of time. By then, the responsibility of restructuring the Nuthana chamber of commerce may fall on the Quillen family!"

"What? Is that so?"

Upon hearing Stanley's enthusiastic words, Mackenzie was slightly surprised and smiled wryly before responding, "President Silverbane, the Quillen family has only just been approved for membership in the Nuthana chamber of commerce.

We are not even official members yet. How can we be expected to take on the responsibility of restructuring the Nuthana chamber of commerce?"

Before she could finish her statement, Stanley waved his hand promptly. "Ms.

Quillen, there's no need for modesty. I may not know the Quillen family's intentions in joining the chamber of commerce at this time, but I have high expectations for the Quillen family!"

"President Silverbane, what do you mean by that?"

Mackenzie grew increasingly curious. Initially, she had believed that Stanley had no interest in the Quillen family whatsoever, considering that in the eyes of the Tanner family, the Quillen family held little significance. The Silverbane family was a more influential presence than the Tanner family!

Similarly, Emmanuel was also curious, yet he chose to remain silent.

“That's an excellent question and that is precisely why I have invited both of you here to discuss!”

Stanley suddenly rose to his feet while speaking with great solemnity, “The Chanaea Chamber of Commerce may be on the brink of its darkest hour!”

Mackenzie was slightly taken aback. While the Quillen family had never been a part of the chamber of commerce and she was not well-versed in its affairs, she was aware of the intense power struggles and intrigues that took place within it.

This had led the Quillen family to avoid joining the chamber of commerce for many years, fearing entanglement in its complexities.

However, for the Quillen family to progress and thrive further, joining the chamber of commerce was inevitable!

Stanley began by discussing the broader scope, “The Chanaea Chamber of Commerce is divided into the Onza Chamber of Commerce, the Nuthana Chamber of Commerce, the Rycroft Chamber of Commerce, the Javana Chamber of Commerce, and the Zovince Chamber of Commerce. These five chambers of commerce span the entirety of Chanaea and oversee all commercial activities within the region!”

“The influence of the chamber of commerce is vast, almost capable of determining the fate and future of a business entity. Furthermore, after years of operation, it has established deep military-business partnerships, political-business alliances, and even military-political-business tripartite collaborations, with highly intricate and undisclosed chains of interests!”

“Money serves as the foundation for all these relationships and business acts as the primary conduit for acquiring wealth. Consequently, power struggles within the chamber of commerce have never ceased..”

Mackenzie nodded in agreement as she listened. Even though she was already familiar with this information, she found it intriguing to hear it directly from Stanley!

Emmanuel, whose triple-S class mission was closely intertwined with the chamber of Sow pegged)

"I presume Ms. Quillen is also acquainted with the tale of Mr. Tanner, the current head of the chamber of commerce, correct?"

Stanley's direct mention of the head of the chamber of commerce left Mackenzie feeling a bit uncertain for a moment.

This kind of topic was considered taboo in the business world and she was a cautious person. Today marked her first encounter with Stanley, and she was unsure if she could broach such matters with him.

« .), ”

Ms. Quillen, please don't worry, Angela reassured Mackenzie when our savior. Why would we harm you?

Emmanuel also nodded in agreement with Mackenzie. Utilizing his counter-surveillance skills, he did not detect any suspicious activity in the private room.

Mackenzie finally nodded and replied, "I've heard that Mr. Tanner used questionable methods to secure his position as the head of the chamber."

Hmph! It's more than just questionable!" Stanley suddenly became animated and slammed the entirely honest, but at least he didn't have such ambitions. Mr. Tanner orchestrated an assassination attempt on his own brother and then manipulated his way into power.

Every step he took was stained with WX pa blood!"

Chapter 1373 Hiding Something from Her

"Since he took office, I have lost count of the despicable acts committed by his followers, the number of businesses and families destroyed by him, and the lives lost in misery! Teddy's motto is simple-obey him and thrive or oppose him and perish. Because the Nuthana Chamber of Commerce refuses to comply with his demands, he has resorted to sending assassins after me and even plotting to replace me!"

Mackenzie empathized with Stanley's outburst and gently interjected, "I understand, Old Mr. Silverbane. Please calm down."

"I apologize for my outburst!"

Stanley took a deep breath, expressed his regret, and settled back into his seat.

"Ms. Quillen, you must be aware that the Tanner family from Onza is also aligned with Teddy. They are leveraging every resource to recruit other factions into the Nuthana Chamber of Commerce, slowly undermining its integrity, with the ultimate goal of impeaching me and seizing control. But as long as I breathe, I will not allow them to succeed. Please assist me, Ms. Quillen!"

"Me?"

Mackenzie pointed to herself in confusion while questioning if he was overestimating her abilities.

“Yes!”

He remained steadfast in his belief that a woman admired by the hero of the Northern Region would possess a strong sense of justice. “Despite the infiltration of other chambers of commerce, the Nuthana Chamber of Commerce remains under my influence. I seek the aid of the Quillen family and Mr. Lowe to eradicate the malevolent forces within the chamber, establish fair regulations, and secure a prosperous future for Nuthana’s business community!”

Despite his impassioned plea, Mackenzie struggled to fully comprehend the situation.

Having faced dark forces like the Tanner Family from Onza and the Witchona Chamber of Commerce before, she lacked a deep-seated animosity and was unsure how to proceed.

Emmanuel, who had been silent, finally spoke up in support of Mackenzie.

“Indeed, we are now members of the Nuthana Chamber of Commerce and reaping its benefits. It is only fitting that we contribute to upholding its rules and fairness.”

How could he refuse?

Stanley's objective aligned closely with his own, both aiming to bring down Teddy.

It made perfect sense for them to collaborate and support each other!

Although Emmanuel’s response did not entirely satisfy Stanley, Stanley chuckled happily and raised his glass once more. “Cheers to the Quillen family!”

The four of them clinked their glasses again.

However, Mackenzie couldn't shake the feeling that Emmanuel was becoming increasingly enigmatic.

He must be concealing something from her...

After bidding farewell to the Silverbane family, the two couples headed home.

Upon exiting the car, Mackenzie couldn't contain her curiosity. "Why did you save Old Mr. Silverbane and his granddaughter from such a big trouble and not say a word to me about it last night?"

"Uh, well..." Emmanuel hesitated briefly before offering a sheepish smile. "I returned late last night and didn't want to disturb your rest."

She found his explanation unsatisfactory!

She chose not to pursue the topic further, so she suddenly turned cold and questioned, "Emmanuel, are you keeping something from me?"

Mackenzie hadn't anticipated that it would now be used against her.

"Well, just make sure I don't find out, or you may not like my reaction!" Mackenzie warned wearily before walking ahead alone.

She realized that Emmanuel wasAs : ; oh foolish; he wouldn't ee IR from. 2 1.ike) Byedmiting Ha, wasn't he already confessing that he was hiding something from her?!

Mackenzie now simply wished to remain ignorant of tose Jipce pd, hoped that Whatever Ke was concealing was something she could come to terms with. However, with her intelligence, she doubted the latter. If Emmanuel believed she could accept it, why lie and deceive her?

They returned to the house in silence while lost in their own thoughts.

Although Beatrix had not yet returned, Mackenzie still secluded herself in the room.

Barf!

Just as she was about to sit down, she was suddenly overcome by a wave of nausea.

Chapter 1374 The Dark Night Elf

Strange?! Did I eat something bad?

Mackenzie pondered over the bread and milk she had for breakfast this morning, as well as the meal she shared with the Silverbane family at noon in that upscale restaurant. There shouldn't be any food issues, right?

Or is it my stomach acting up again? Should I ask that fool to take a look?

She considered opening the door, but hesitated with her hand on the handle.

The feeling of nausea had subsided.

And just now, the dynamic between her and that fool didn't seem quite right, so she decided to give both sides some time to cool off.

However, as soon as she sat down, she noticed a buttered bread on the table and the feeling of nausea surged up again.

Mackenzie suddenly had a surprising thought! It appeared that her period was delayed by 2 weeks. Could it be that she's pregnant?

But it had only been almost a month since that night with the river water incident.

Could she have a reaction so soon?

She felt like she should discuss this with Emmanuel as he was a gynecologist and must be knowledgeable. Yet, when she opened the door and stepped out, she discovered that the man had actually left home.

"Damn it! Where did that fool go at this time?"

She felt a bit frustrated for a moment.

Meanwhile, Emmanuel was unaware of his wife's situation and headed to a private club.

The private club was named Dark Night Elf. It was not well-known among the ordinary people of Onza, but Eve knew that it was a very secretive major stronghold, concealing a small underground city filled with gold!

Emmanuel didn't inquire about the details as for why she knew. In any case, she mentioned that she would be negotiating with an underground big shot here tonight and asked him to come over to make an appearance if he had time.

Upon arriving at the door, he realized that despite the remote location of this private club, the facade was anything but low-key. It appeared to be a paradise for men to indulge in.

“Sir, please present your membership card!”

The two burly security guards at the entrance halted Emmanuel from entering and requested proof of entry qualifications

“I don't possess a membership. May I enter now?”

Emmanuel didn't wish to force his way in and spoke politely Because their primary objective for coming today was to inspect the other party's

The two security guards continued to scrutinize him, when a seductive woman in a green camisole emerged from inside.

“Hehe. It's you?”

Emmanuel looked up at the sound of her voice and recollected who this woman was. Wasn't she the one who attempted to seduce Julian that night?

It seemed her name was Ava!

Judging by her appearance, she appeared to be a special service worker at this club?

Ava sized Emmanuel up and although he appeared respectable, she didn't exude a wealthy and classy aristocratic aura. She couldn't help

Let me advise you to spare yourself the trouble. You're simply not or Ta qualified!"

"Ava, who is he?"

"Yes. Do you know him? He has a good physique!"

Two more women followed and whispered.

Dressed similarly to Ava, they were both very enticing, with one even sporting long ear accessories, evidently the "Dark Elf favored by the wealthy bosses.

They didn't perceive Emmanuel as a rich kid or a big shot, but his physique and appearance were quite impressive. If given the chance, they would also like to engage in business with him!

"Don't know him. He's just a nobody. Why should I bother getting to know him?"

Dream on. Heh..."

Ava didn't hold back in ridiculing Emmanuel as she aimed to drive him away to avenge the last time he disrupted things for her.

Emmanuel had matured significantly since his last visit to The Paradise.

He was no Sh pave young 1

.)their eyes, a man's charm was often equated with wealth. As he pondered whether to display some charm, a voice suddenly called out from inside. "Hey, isn't that Emmanuel?"

Emmanuel recognized the voice immediately and turned to see none other than Samuel entering the club. It was a pleasant surprise to see Samuel there.

Despite not having seen each other in a while, Emmanuel wondered why :

the was in Onza for business.

Samuel approached with a wide grin on his face, accompanied by a few of his associates.

Chapter 1375 Destroy the Wolf Warrior Society

"Hello, Mr. Webber!"

The two women behind Ava immediately bowed to Samuel. Their clothes were thin and the fruits hanging on their chests seemed about to fall off..

"Hello, Mr. Webber!"

The two security guards were even more respectful to Samuel.

Emmanuel also sighed. It seemed that Samuel had a high status in this circle.

Could he be the boss here?

"Mr. Webber!"

Ava trembled as she greeted Samuel because she heard Samuel addressing Emmanuel politely! If Emmanuel complained to Samuel, she would be in big trouble!

“Mr. Webber, is that you? Why are you here now?”

Emmanuel also smiled lightly in response to Samuel.

Their relationship was not very good, but they had some acquaintance. They could be considered friends after exchanging blows!

However, Emmanuel did not know that Samuel admired him very much, always treating Emmanuel like a brother, and even thinking about whether he could hire Emmanuel. If successful, their strength would greatly increase!

“Haha. It's a long story! Come in. I happen to have something to discuss with you!”

Samuel put his arm around Emmanuel's shoulder warmly while inviting him in.

“But...”

Emmanuel deliberately hesitated, glanced at Ava, and said, “She said losers are not allowed in. How about we find another place to talk?”

Samuel immediately glared at Ava and his face was full of anger. “Damn it! How dare you look down on Emmanuel?”

“Huh?”

Ava's face turned pale with fear as she waved her hands repeatedly. “I... I didn't know he was here to see you, Mr. Webber. Otherwise, how would I dare?”

“Damn you!”

Samuel slapped her on the back of her head. If it weren't for needing her to serve clients, he would have swollen this kind of woman's face!

“Enough, Mr. Webber! It's not right to hit women. Let's go inside and talk!”

Emmanuel just wanted to teach Ava a lesson, but since there was no deep hatred, it was enough for her to learn her lesson.

“Haha. Great timing, Emmanuel! Tonight, we will make a fortune together!”

“Haha. Great timing, Emmanuel! Tonight, we will make a fortune together!”

Samuel looked excited. It was clearly a pleasant surprise for him to meet a strong person like Emmanuel at this time!

“What? You want me to help you deal with Eve?”

After entering the Night Elf, Emmanuel listened to Samuel's words and roughly understood the situation.

It turned out that there was an unpleasant conflict between Samuel's forces in Yeringham and the Wolf Warrior Society. He was unable to compete with the Wolf Warrior Society, so he had to leave Yeringham with his subordinates and seek refuge with the Dark Night Club in Onza!

He was a man of the underworld and he truly treated Emmanuel as a brother. He even explained the - origins of the Park Nightclub 1 !

EMrRantsr He said that the club had the support of a financial consortium and even foreign forces, with deep connections and strong power.

Joining the Dark Night Club now was definitely a good opportunity to make a fortune and establish a foothold in Onzal

“That's right, Emmanuel! The leader of the Dark Night Club not only values loyalty but also respects me. He has appointed me as a gang master. Now he is gathering his men to kill the boss of the Wolf Warrior Society tonight!”

Even though last time when he pressured for the secret of the shareholders of the Terence Group, Eve told him that Emmanuel was her boss, but he still didn't believe that Emmanuel was truly her boss. He only thought that Emmanuel must have given Eve some benefits, and the Wolf Warrior Society helped him out, so they just said that out of courtesy.

After all, Samuel used to be in the underground world of Yeringham, and Wolf Warrior Society had always been under Eve's control. When did they have a boss?

Moreover, Samuel had done similar things before. When a boss of a shopping mall paid him a lot of money to do something, he would also call the other party “boss” to help them gain popularity.

At this moment, in an attempt to persuade Emmanuel, Samuel employed a combination of gentle and forceful tactics. He said, om oe boss 6F Bark Nightbas declared that whoever eliminates Eve will be appointed as the head of the Yeringham branch and take up the Wolf Warrior Society in Yeringham! Emmanuel, assist me in achieving this goal tonight with your exceptional skills and Yeringham will be under our control in the future.”

Upon noticing Emmanuel's lack of response, Samuel couldn't help but furrow his brow and remark, \

Eve retry collaborating, and tonight you intend to support her against the boss of Dark Night Club?

If that is the case, you are heading toward a dead end tonight. As I still consider you a friend, I do not wish to witness your demise.” Emmanuel could only manage a bitter smile.

He and Eve had arrived tonight to negotiate with the boss of Dark Night Club, hoping for a mutually beneficial outcome. However, he had not anticipated the other party's intentions to harm Eve.

Chapter 1376 The Man from Creuburg

If it weren't for the advance notice from Samuel, Eve might have been in big trouble tonight!

Although Samuel had conflicts with Eve, he was still quite reasonable. So, Emmanuel didn't want to treat him as an enemy. He planned to get in first and then figure things out.

"How about it, Emmanuel? If I become the boss of Yeringham in the future, I'll let you be my right-hand man. This is a great opportunity for us to make a fortune and rise to power! If you make the wrong choice, you will regret it for a lifetime!"

Samuel was excited as he spread his arms wide. He believed in the friendship between himself and Emmanuel, as well as the huge potential benefits.

Emmanuel would definitely be wise enough to seize the opportunity and give up on Eve!

"Where is Eve now?"

Emmanuel neither agreed nor refused. He just wanted to quickly meet up with Eve.

Upon thinking that Emmanuel had agreed, Samuel became even more excited.

"That woman is upstairs in this club. Let's go! We'll go up now and when the boss of Dark Night Club gives the order, we'll strike first!"

Emmanuel nodded without saying a word before following Samuel upstairs silently.

As they went upstairs, he secretly sent a message to Sage and Ashton in case of an emergency!

In a large room upstairs in the club was already packed with people when Emmanuel followed Samuel up.

On one side were the members of the Dark Night Club, numbering in the dozens, each looking like they were up to no good.

On the other side were Eve's group, along with Eve herself, totaling only eight people!

The two bosses sat on opposite sides of a glass table, each on a red sofa. It seemed that the formal negotiations had not yet begun.

Eve looked cold and aloof, with a hint of tension and alertness. When Emmanuel followed Samuel in and stood silently at the back of the crowd, she finally relaxed a bit. At the same time, she couldn't help but wonder what Emmanuel was up to.

Was he trying to play dumb to catch her off guard?

But when Emmanuel had carried out missions in the Northern Region before, he had done this kind of thing a lot, so she wasn't surprised!

According to the art of war, one should attack when least expected!

"Mr. Hogan, what do you mean by this?"

Eve, who had been silent all along, suddenly spoke up. "We agreed to negotiate.

Do you really need so many people to show up? Are you that afraid of just a woman like me?"

Skyler Hogan was the boss of Dark Night Club and Dark Night Elf. He was a man in his forties who seemed a bit overweight and didn't look like a ruthless figure from the underworld, but more like a cunning old businessman.

Most of the people behind him were standing, except for a man in a white casual suit, holding a gorgeous woman sitting next to him as if he were the only one there.

Emmanuel couldn't believe his eyes when he saw her!

Emmanuel couldn't believe his eyes when he saw her!

Isn't that gorgeous woman Elena from The Paradise? What's going on?

Although Yeringham and Onza were neighboring cities, it was unlikely to run into so many familiar faces in one night, right?

Samuel stood beside Emmanuel and noticed his expression. He

: « . p whispered, “Haha. Did you expect it? You? Idi? ite did you? Idi xpect it either. I used to pursue Ms. Lyle relentlessly in Yeringham, but later I found out that this woman has a big “What background?” Emmanuel asked curiously.

He could tell that the man holding Elena was very proud and his appearance and energy were not like those from Chanaea. The way he dressed, he was probably someone from Creuburg.

And he must be a fighter!

“She probably has some connection with the international organization Hellfire Club, but even I don't know the details!” Samuel whispered in his ear.

Emmanuel nodded and realized that the secrets of this Dark Night Club ran deep!

However, it was normal. Which major force didn't have complex relationships with other forces?

In this era of globalization, the entire world could be viewed as one vast village!

Chapter 1377 Failed Negotiation

Skyler chuckled in response to Eve's words.

“Mr. Hogan, don't flatter me. Since your people are all ready, let's get down to business.”

Her expression remained cold and firm. Despite knowing the other party's malevolent intentions, and even in the face of their gathering forces to pressure and intimidate her, she remained unfazed!

But behind her, only Snake Master wore a mask to conceal her expression.

Christopher and one or two others were not as composed.

The negotiations proceeded smoothly, but Snake Master and Eve were prepared for any potential violence, while the others seemed vulnerable.

“Eve, tell us your terms.” Skyler had a demeanor that was half rogue and half refined, but still carrying a hint of businessman’s aura. He gestured with a wave of his hand.

“Okay! Let's not waste time. Wolf Warrior Society wants to expand to Onza and acquire your club as our new base. What's your price?”

After Eve finished her sentence, chaos erupted among Skyler’s group.

“What? Wolf Warrior Society wants to expand to Onza?”

“And they want to take over our territory? That's too arrogant!”

“The Wolf Warrior Society doesn't take our influence in Onza seriously? They want to go to war, huh?”

The crowd grew restless as they brandished weapons and turned the once-warm atmosphere cold.

Christopher regretted coming with Eve. If the negotiation failed, he might not make it back to Yeringham.

“Eve, did you hear that?”

Skyler shrugged and his tone turned less friendly, even bordering on a cold sneer. “We have our rules in the underworld, each with our own territories, and we don't interfere with each other’s business. By doing this, your Wolf Warrior Society is clearly trying to encroach on our territory, isn’t that right?”

“Mr. Hogan, please don’t misunderstand!”

Eve's primary purpose for coming to negotiate tonight was to help Emmanuel take over the underground city and establish a secret factory. Therefore, she didn’t want to start a war. She patiently explained, “Nowadays, it's long past the era of territorial disputes. The Wolf Warrior Society wants to operate legally. I'm interested in your clubhouse and want to take it over! Anyway, the price will be satisfactory to you and it’s a win-win situation, isn't it?”

“Damn it! This woman wants to buy the Dark Night Club’s headquarters. Isn't it just a disguised form of encroachment?”

“They're underestimating us too much!”

“Tonight, we must make her regret coming here!”

“Hehe. I think she’s quite hot. Maybe we should keep her here to serve men? I have a buddy who really wants her to serve him!”

The group of people started cursing loudly!

“Hene. I think she’s quite hot. Maybe we should keep her here to serve men? I have a buddy who really wants her to serve him!”

The group of people started cursing loudly!

Skyler smirked. “Eve, did you hear that? My men’s opinions are my attitude!”

“Damn it! These people are too arrogant!”

Behind Eve, one loyal subordinate shouted.

Christopher also went from panic to anger as he gripped the handle of his knife.

These guys wanted his sister to stay and serve men? How outrageous!

But Eve quickly waved her hand. She felt that the other party had no intention of negotiating with her and that continuing to negotiate would just be a waste of time.

However, it was obvious that the other party was well-prepared tonight. In this situation, resorting to violence was clearly not a wise choice!

So, she quickly stood up and said expressionlessly, “In that case, I'll take my leave!”

After saying that, she wanted to leave with her people.

“Wait!”

Skyler called out with his head lowered as she passed by him.

She had no intention of listening to him until someone else. She turned Skyler said coldly, “The Dark Night Club is the underground, not Drain others can covet! It's also not a place where you can come and go as you please!”

“Damn it! Do you guys want to fight?”

Giovani Houghton, who was beside Eve, was known for he kicked the chair beside him while roaring angrily. Anyway, this place tonight wasn't theirs; it didn't matter if they smashed it to pieces!

“Giovani, don't act rashly!”

Eve stopped him. She was not afraid of starting a fight and did not want her subordinates to get hurt, let alone get into any accidents.

As the leader, she turned back calmly and asked, “So, Mr. Hogan, what do you want now?”

Chapter 1378 Vihaan Clay

Skyler maintained a sneer but refrained from speaking. He simply clapped his hands and gave a signal.

In the next moment, a familiar face emerged from the crowd and smirked at Eve.

“Eve, do you still remember me?”

Eve took a closer look and recognized Everett, who had caused a commotion at the Wolf Warrior Society headquarters not long ago, Everett raised his right arm with the support of his left hand, and said through gritted teeth, “Thanks to you, my arm is now useless! I've been plotting my revenge, and I never expected you to come courting death! Today, I will either render all your limbs useless or have numerous men take turns humiliating you to quell my anger!”

His agitation led him to kick the chair beside him..

With a loud bang, the chair shattered!

The atmosphere on the scene escalated once again. It was tense and volatile, with a sense that a battle could erupt at any moment.

Samuel quickly whispered to Emmanuel, "Emmanuel, if Skyler orders an attack, you go and eliminate Eve first to claim the credit!"

Emmanuel remained impassive and his gaze was fixed on Eve.

Thinking Emmanuel was prepared, Samuel said no more. Like everyone else, Samuel was ready to seize the opportunity for revenge!

"Hmph! A cowardly lackey dares to boast?"

In truth, Eve noticed that Everett had clearly honed his skills during their time apart!

Despite the confrontation between their forces, she strategically belittled her opponent, using provocation to say, "Are you attempting to overpower the few with the many today? Bring it on!"

"Hahaha..."

Skyler chuckled heartily.

The Dark Night Club did indeed aim to eliminate Eve and expand into Yeringham to annex the Wolf Warrior Society's territory. However, they were concerned about their reputation, particularly Skyler. Winning people's favor without a sense of righteousness would be challenging!

Although he was not known for his righteousness, he still had to maintain a facade of respect, upholding a sense of righteousness and discussing the martial world's rules.

"We, the Dark Night Club, do not prey on the weak, especially women!"

Skyler smiled proudly. "However, Everett is not a member of the Dark Night Club.

He and Mr. Clay are merely my acquaintances. If they seek vengeance, there is no need for a one-on-one battle then, correct?"

The Wolf Warrior Society members were on the verge of agitation, but Eve gestured for silence.

She then glanced at the man who had been quietly seated while holding Elena.

He was confident and composed. He exuded an air of importance!

The Wolf Warrior Society members were on the verge of agitation, but Eve gestured for silence.

She then glanced at the man who had been quietly seated while holding Elena.

He was confident and composed. He exuded an air of importance!

Could he be the Dark Night Club's secret weapon tonight?

At that moment, Everett laughed once more. "Hehe. This is Vihaan Clay, one of the Hellfire Club's top ten fighters in the Underworld. He ranks just below the Big Four Kings of the Hellfire Club! He is also my master! Aren't you afraid of us outnumbering you? Come at us together. If my master handles all of you alone, I bet you'll die without regrets, right?"

As he finished speaking, Vihaan also made a provocative gesture toward Eve by raising his thumb and then forcefully pointing it downward.

This gesture caused the members of the Wolf Warrior Society to flush with embarrassment.

Giovani roared while leaping out furiously. "The people from Creuburg should not flaunt their prowess in front of us Chanaea individuals. Allow me to demonstrate proper behavior!"

Whoosh!

He unleashed a barrage of punches at Vihaan with full force.

Many onlookers from the Dark Night Club secretly sighed. The Wolf Warrior Society was formidable. They doubted they could withstand even a single punch. However, Vihaan effortlessly blocked Giovanni's attack with just one hand, completely outpacing him in speed!

Giovanni appeared astonished. How could Creuburg produce such a skilled fighter?

With a resounding smack, Vihaan deflected Giovanni's high-speed kick with a karate-style kick, sending Giovanni hurtling through the air!

"Giovanni!"

The other members of the Wolf Warrior Society rushed and found him spitting out blood and his chest stained red. He looked utterly defeated.

"Haha! Useless! I'm in a hurry, so why don't you all come at me at once!"

After swiftly defeating Giovanni, Vihaan taunted the entire Wolf Warrior Society.

"Enough!"

The members of the Wolf Warrior Society were men of honor and witnessing Giovanni's severe injuries, they were prepared to charge forward as one.

Chapter 1379 The Fight

Emmanuel couldn't bear to watch any longer and was ready to make a move.

However, at this moment, Eve stopped the members of the Wolf Warrior Society.

She stared at Vihaan coldly and said, "The Wolf Warrior Society has never been one to outnumber the enemy. Let me avenge Giovanni myself!"

In addition to anger, there was a resolute look in her eyes!

Giovanni and Henry were blood brothers, both of whom had followed her through dangers for many years. They were her trusted confidants and now that Giovanni had been injured so badly, she had to seek revenge for him as his boss!

Emmanuel felt that Eve was a bit forced to take action, but in this enclosed building, the Snake Master's abilities were greatly reduced, and Eve was determined. He could only refrain from intervening for now.

And the outcome of the battle sometimes depended not only on martial arts skills. Just like before, he chose to trust Eve once again!

Rip!

Eve was wearing a pair of black cropped skinny pants today, paired with lace-up leather boots. On her upper body was a black tight-fitting top, but she tore off the lace collar and sleeves, revealing her fair arms and ample cleavage.

If judged by the standards of a normal man, the only flaw in her beauty was a shocking scar on her chest!

But by warrior standards, the scar complemented her fierce eyes, adding a touch of killing intent and energy. It was chilling!

The members of the Dark Night Club were all amazed by the aura of this woman.

It seemed that as a woman, she could lead over a thousand members of the Wolf Warrior Society, truly showing her capabilities!

Even Elena admired Eve. Elena appreciated this super cool and fierce woman!

“Hehe. I didn’t expect Chanaea to have a woman like you. Not bad!”

Unfortunately, the men of Creuburg do not show mercy to women under their command!”

Vihaan sneered at Eve.

“Well, that's good. I'm afraid you'll come up with all sorts of excuses when you lose! Prepare to die!”

Eve was burning with anger and immediately drew her whip from her waist and struck.

A black lightning bolt instantly struck Vihaan’s proud face. She was determined to shatter it!

But Vihaan easily dodged by sidestepping.

Emmanuel was secretly surprised. This was the leaf body technique of Chanaea’s ancient martial arts, not the martial arts movements of Creuburg Taekwondo!

Eve continued to whip several times.

Her whip carried a terrifying whistle, like a black storm roaring and sweeping everything in its path!

Smack!

Emmanuel was secretly surprised. This was the leaf body technique of Chanaea’s ancient martial arts, not the martial arts movements of Creuburg Taekwondo!

Eve continued to whip several times.

Her whip carried a terrifying whistle, like a black storm roaring and sweeping everything in its path!

Smack!

It hit!

A stream of blood instantly oozed from Vihaan's palm.

But before the members of the Wolf Warrior Society could get excited, their expressions froze instantly.

Vihaan had only taken the hit to grab Eve's whip. The next moment, he shouted and forcefully pulled.

Eve gritted her teeth!

She knew that without her whip, she couldn't win in close combat against the opponent. She could only tightly grip the whip, but there was a clear difference in strength between them and she was being dragged toward him.

"Die, woman!"

Vihaan delivered a spinning kick with his full strength. He intended to kick Eve to death!

Christopher and the others were stunned to see this move! If she was kicked, she would die!!

Surprisingly, Eve had no intention of dodging, but instead, with a :

Cea she fe1dhSed her grip on the whip, fingers together, and made a stabbing motion directly toward the' Hs opponent's heart!

She knew that even if she dodged the, ; opponent's kick, she had no aL in close cee ey thar being dafeated hd umiliated, she would rather exchange her life for revenge for Giovanni and uphold the dignity of the Wolf Warrior Society!

“Eve!”

Christopher and the others exclaimed in shock, but their voices were stuck in their throats due to excessive astonishment.

The audience stared wide-eyed, ready to witness a brutal scene.

Samuel sighed secretly. It seemed that the opportunity to kill Eve tonight was gone!

But at a crucial moment, a figure suddenly darted past him and charged toward the two.

Emmanuel?!

Samuel was astonished to see that Emmanuel’s skills had improved significantly.

If he had utilized this skill that night, they might not have survived!

“Emmanuel is truly remarkable!”

Chapter 1380 Real Boss of the Wolf Warriors

As for those people from Creuburg...

Samuel was unaware of the connection between the Dark Night Club and the Hellfire Club. However, since everyone present was Chanaean. Who would believe this Creuburgian?

Little did he know that Emmanuel suddenly stepped forward not to confront Eve, but to swiftly pull her away and save her life!

What was happening?

Samuel, who was initially prepared to be thrilled, was left speechless!

Were we not supposed to eliminate Eve together and then divide the Wolf Warrior Society? Did you just betray me halfway to our goal?

Everyone was momentarily stunned, as no one expected a busybody to appear at such a crucial moment and disrupt their plans!

“Boss!”

Eve whispered, gazing at Emmanuel with a complex expression.

“Ms. Thompson, you are too impulsive! Was it necessary to engage in such a destructive confrontation tonight?”

Emmanuel scolded her.

In partial acceptance and partial stubbornness, Eve turned her face without uttering a word!

“Eve, are you alright?”

It was only then that several members of the Wolf Warrior Society rushed forward in slight shock.

Elena observed Emmanuel with astonishment.

When she first encountered Emmanuel at The Paradise, she thought he appeared like a loser. However, he was actually skilled in both knowledge and martial prowess. He was a hidden threat, but she still did not anticipate that he would evolve into what he was tonight!

Who is he really?

A strong sense of curiosity filled Elena, causing her to gaze at Emmanuel with a hint of fascination.

“Hmph, all you Wolf Warriors know how to do is gang up on your enemies when they're outnumbered. Pitiful!”

Vihaan suddenly shouted.

He had just discerned Eve's resolve to fight to the death and had taken precautions against it so that the inevitable outcome would be Eve's demise while he was just injured.

However, Emmanuel ultimately saved Eve, which naturally displeased him.

The members of the Wolf Warrior Society could not tolerate hearing this and immediately wanted to argue with this arrogant outsider.

Emmanuel, however, gestured for them to cease.

He then looked at Vihaan with a faint smile. “Didn't you just claim that it didn't matter how many Wolf Warriors -fought you at once? Now, you're contradicting yourself. Aren't you essentially mocking yourself?”

Vihaan trembled slightly at this, then sneered. “Hey, I did say that, but I didn't anticipate a Wolf Warrior hiding behind the Dark Night Club and launching a sneak attack. How deplorable!”

“Damn it! When has Emmanuel ever launched a sneak attack on you?”

“Exactly! Who do you think you are?”

“If Emmanuel wanted to ambush you, you would be a corpse by now!”

The Wolf Warriors could not contain themselves and began berating this shameless foreigner.

However, Vihaan simply sneered and disregarded them. His demeanor provoked Chanaeans from the Dark Night Club and made them itch to beat him up.

After all, factional disputes were one matter, but national disputes were another!

“Clay, I'll face you alone! If you lose, I have one condition for the Dark Night Club to agree to!” Emmanuel smoothly declared.

The members of the Dark Night Club immediately grew restless. A confrontation between the fighters of the Hellfire Club and the Wolf Warrior Society had nothing to do with them. This was absurd!

“Hehe, so you admit defeat?”

Without waiting for Skyler to respond, Vihaan smirked and spoke up in order to gain leverage.

“Everything that belongs to the Wolf Warrior Society of Yeringham will belong to you!”

Emmanuel firmly stated.

Everyone expected Eve and the Wolf Warriors to object to his words.

Surprisingly, no one objected!

“Eve, can we trust his words?”

Skyler could not help but inquire.

“He is my leader. Whatever he says, goes!”

Upon hearing Eve's reply, Skyler froze in shock.

The members of the Dark Night Club glanced at each other as Who a have guessed that the real boss of the Wolf Warriors was someone else? Samuel immediately felt like he had been deceived as he grabbed his head in agony.

He had just opened up to Emmanuel, believing they had a connection.

Now, he disco stele Emanuel!

of the Wolf Warriors! When Eve called him boss before, she did it not because she was paid to do so, but because she obeyed his orders. This guy really knows how to act clueless!

Elena was also surprised. She kept casting glances at smiling, . . . , sensing that the night's events were becoming more and more intriguing.
