Wrong Table 1454

Chapter 1454

“Please don’t touch me!” Yosef suddenly scanned all the women in the room with a lukewarm glare, leading to these women reading the room and walking away from him.

Indeed, this was the power of righteousness and nobility. The man in front of them would not move a bit even if they stripped to seduce him.

Frederick immediately recognized this side of Yosef, which he was familiar with. This guy was just like Emmanuel when dealing with women!

“Go away from me!” Aidan was dissatisfied with the result and vented his anger on these gorgeous women, kicking them away with his big feet.

“Master Harper, I wonder what your type is. Let me know, and I will meet your requirements!” Aidan asked with a flattering smile.

“Listen up, Tanner!” Yosef looked aloof, not even looking at Aidan as he spoke, “I don’t care who you are or what rewards you offer. Since I have joined the Tanner family, I will participate in the Grand Martial Showdown as a member of the Tanner family. Don’t try anything funny!" Yosef walked away after saying that, leaving Aidan and the rest bewildered.

"D*mn, he's a weirdo!" Aidan couldn't stand Yosef's behavior. Which subordinate didn't work for Aidan for money and chicks? He worried that Yosef, with his aloof demeanor and rebellious attitude, would betray him at any moment.

"Mr. Tanner, you don't have to worry at all." His advisor, Robin, the crooked-mouthed man, leaned in and whispered in his ear, "As far as I know, someone like Yosef would hold himself accountable and value their promises. He would honor his words sin said so."

Aidan nodded, putting on his sinister smile once again.

Seeing Yosef leave, Shane and Frederick debated whether to rush out and deal with Aidan. Suddenly, they saw another familiar face.

"Isn't that Manuel's cousin? What is he doing here?" Shane muttered immediately.

Frederick's curiosity was piqued, too. As far as he knew, the Lowe family should have gone to his house for the housewarming party. Why was this guy showing up here now?

Jack was still in his new villa in this seaside area just fifteen minutes ago. Mackenzie and Emmanuel's guesses were not wrong. The Tanner family was the one supporting Jack's family behind the scenes.

The Tanner family didn't have to do much. All it took was a small villa worth a few hundred thousand and a struggling small company to get Benny and Jack to work f them.

Jack had no idea about the true intentions behind the Tanner Family's recruitment of them. He came to look for Aidan, not upon instruction but his initiative.

Putting aside the embarrassment and the fact that she had lost money thanks to Emmanuel yesterday, Mackenzie went with Emmanuel's family to the villa. Jack took the opportunity to strike up a conversation with Mackenzie when she was alone.

What happened next? Mackenzie completely ignored him. Unfortunately, Cherlynn saw it and asked Jack if he was trying to seduce Mackenzie. She even mocked him, making him feel very embarrassed.

Struggling to swallow this insult, Jack went out to find his backer. While he thought.

dealing with Cherlynn would be easy, he knew he didn't stand a chance to deal with Mackenzie with his abilities!

"Haha, are the Quillen sisters also here on my turf?" Upon hearing Jack's words, Aidan couldn't help but feel a surge of excitement. If one were to ask him who caught his attention at that moment, it would undoubtedly be Mackenzie! This woman had once embarrassed him at a meeting at the Chamber of Commerce. To make matters worse, Terence Group took over the Hadley factory he had been eyeing.

Of course, what struck Aidan was Mackenzie's stunning beauty! Despite having been involved with numerous women, not even belles like Beatrix could impress Aidan.

However, Mackenzie managed to pique his interest. Now that this beauty was in his territory, he couldn't resist the urge for revenge and to admire her beauty. Aidan couldn'

help but have such thoughts.
