Wrong Table 1463

Chapter 1463

Mackenzie stopped her movements and smiled. “Young Master Tanner, I’m really sorry!

How about I come back next week?”

With that, she turned around and tried to leave.

“Wait!”

Aidan quickly called out. When Mackenzie turned back, he smirked with a wicked arc.

“I’m afraid you’ll be too busy with official duties next week to come over!”

Mackenzie raised her eyebrows slightly. “How could that be? If you don’t believe me, how about I write you a guarantee?”

“A guarantee won’t do!” He smirked triumphantly. “By then, you’ll bring a group of bodyguards. Especially since I heard your husband is quite capable, I’m afraid it will ruin our fun if he comes along!”

Finally, Mackenzie furrowed her brows and asked coldly, “What should I do for you to let me go back?”

“Go back? I think it’s better not to go back. I have good food and accommodation here.

Why don’t you stay here for a few days?” Aidan said while approaching her again with his hands grabbing thin air. There was also a lascivious smile on his face. “Your lower body is inconvenient, but I can still admire the upper body first. We can get comfortable, can’t we?”

“You jerk…” Mackenzie couldn’t help but curse as she did not know how to deal with the situation this time.

Fortunately, Emmanuel’s vigorous voice came from outside the building at this moment.

“Mackenzie!”

“Mackenzie!”

Aidan suddenly trembled slightly. He did not know how far away this voice was coming from. It even echoed!

“Emmanuel?”

Mackenzie’s beautiful eyes suddenly flashed with a hint of brightness as she replied loudly, “Emmanuel! I’m here! I’m right here!”

“Mackenzie!”

Emmanuel, who was outside the building, seemed to hear his wife’s voice vaguely, with his extraordinary hearing. He rushed into the building like a madman.

“Stop-”

Outside the building, the Tanner family’s bodyguards wanted to intercept, but before they could even finish their words, they were punched away by Emmanuel!

Seeing their companion being slammed against the wall by Emmanuel’s fist and unable to get up, the other bodyguards were stunned and trembling all over.

His punch had a thunderous power!

Even Blake, who followed behind, couldn’t help but exclaim in shock, “This guy is too ruthless!”

But Emmanuel didn’t have time to consider the consequences. His wife was pregnant with his child! If anything happened to them, he didn’t know what depths of madr he would plunge into!

“Quick! Stop him!”

From inside the building, someone shouted. The group of terrified bodyguards snapped out of their stupor and rushed forward.

However, as they approached, they were met with a one-man onslaught. Those who went in were sent out flying!

Emmanuel’s fighting style now was like nothing Blake had seen before. He was in a state of berserk frenzy. Whoever dared to provoke him would face death!

He was so terrifying that even Blake, a highly skilled martial artist himself, didn’t dare to underestimate him. Yet, these lackeys of the Tanner family still dared to confront him, essentially marching to their deaths!

“Mackenzie!”

“Mackenzie!”

After knocking down a large group of people, Emmanuel didn’t care about the others who were still standing there in fear. He just rushed into the building.

Suddenly, a sword stabbed toward him from the side!

Emmanuel was slightly surprised. He evaded with a move resembling a swallow flipping backward and retreated three meters

“Emmanuel, you can’t go in!”

It was Yosef again. He was holding a sword in front of Emmanuel.

But this time, Emmanuel’s eyes were slightly red, and he didn’t have the patience to talk nonsense with this friend from Hero’s Village anymore. He roared angrily, “Get out of my way!!”

Roar!

Suddenly, a hair-raising dragon’s roar rang out.

Seventh Palm of the Dragon-Breaking Palm-Wind Chasing Dragon!

Yosef’s lips curled up slightly as he finally saw the full power of this friend from Hero’s Village.

But the power was still insufficient!

He prepared to use the Dragon Splash to counter but found that Emmanuel's palm was faster than he had imagined and attacked him before he could react.

What was going on?!

Yosef was secretly shocked. Only then did he realize the mystery of this palm. It was not about pursuing high explosive power and speed killing but highlighting an unstoppable momentum!

Under this palm, he didn't even have time to react and could only use a move of Eight Trigrams Rotating Step to avoid getting hit.

When he reacted, Emmanuel had already rushed in from the side.

"Haha! Can't handle it, can you?"
