Wrong Table 1484

Chapter 1484 Congratulations!

“Okay. Please stop bickering and just relax!”

Zaiden was becoming irritated!

Thankfully, Malakai and Lexi were present tonight and they brought some positive news!

“Zaiden, from what I understand, the Tanner residence has just been attacked, so they won’t be able to focus on the Summerton family temporarily. Moreover, the elite of the

Tanner family has already been mobilized, and those who participated in the Grand

Martial Showdown before cannot participate again, so there’s no need to worry al them causing trouble for us!”

Zaiden was indeed relieved by this news.

At that instant, he looked over to the VIP section, where Yasmine had also brought a group of people.

The individuals behind her, all exhibiting determination and energy in their eyes, outperformed even some of the fighters who had made it to the finals.!

Zaiden and Yasmine made eye contact, and when he noticed Yasmine nodding and smiling at him, he felt even more relaxed.

He was concerned that Airspace Group would send people to cause trouble tonight because of Old Mr. Summerton refusal to cooperate last time. So, he had some business dealings with Yasmine tonight. Even though the two families had not yet agreed to cooperate, it appeared that Yasmine would ensure that Airspace Cup's fighters would not be present tonight.

With this in mind, would anyone dare to provoke the Summerton family tonight?

"Uncle Zaiden, Blake has signed up for tonight's competition. It appears that the Summerton family can only secure one spot for advancement at most!"

Just when Zaiden felt relieved, Lexi suddenly brought him some bad news.

"Blake?"

When Zaiden heard this name, he didn't react for a moment. When he quickly checked the list of participants for tonight, his facial expression suddenly changed.

Blake unexpectedly represented a company, and it was the Aerelle Group!

At this moment, the arena suddenly became lively, and many men were screaming excitedly!

“The Four Beauties of Zovince have arrived in Nuthana!”

“Is that Hattie, who is hailed as the most beautiful rose? Even from this far, she looks incredibly beautiful!”

“The most important thing is her temperament. It’s so refined! I’m in love! I’m so in love!”

The Summertons also looked over.

Zaiden was so surprised that he even tightened his fists. Despite all his calculations, he couldn’t have anticipated that the woman from the Zelinsky family of Zovince would be present at the Summerton family’s arena tonight!

“Haha! Ms. Hattie, take a look! It seems like the Summerton family of Onza has some opinions about us!”

Blake also felt the gaze of Zaiden and others and couldn't help but laugh heartily.

Even Ashton frowned slightly. Although she didn't think it was despicable for Blake to sign up for the competition tonight, she couldn't understand why Blake targeted the Summerton family. Didn't she hear that Blake had made peace with Emmanuel?

Moreover, even if she were bursting with confidence now, she would have no chance of winning against Blake alone!

At this time, Emmanuel and Mackenzie also arrived at the arena, followed by Sage.

Upon seeing that Blake had signed up for tonight's boxing match, the couple didn't express any surprise as the Summerton family did.

Emmanuel made it clear that Blake, who had always been savvy about the ways of the street, had a complete falling out with Yosef due to the situation involving Tommy.

Furthermore, Abellyn admitted that if Blake had not saved her during that incident, she would have likely been killed by Yosef.

The winner tonight would face the winner from the Tanner family's side in the first match of the finals. That was why Blake decided to join the competition tonight-to have another face-off with Yosef!

Following a brief break, the competition for tonight started promptly.

“Ms. Quillen, nice to see you again!”

Hattie wasn’t focused on the match, but she instead took the initiative to approach

Emmanuel and Mackenzie with a smile on her face.

“Ms. Zelinsky, I’m surprised to see you showing interest in this event as well.”

Mackenzie no longer held any animosity toward Hattie and engaged in conversation with her.

Despite having been enemies in the past, they simply had different goals and there w no intense hatred between them. As for Emmanuel’s enmity with Magnus, it couldn’t be attributed to Hattie.

“I came to see what was happening because Blake is involved.”

Hattie even took Mackenzie’s hand gently before asking like a close friend, “I heard you’re pregnant.”

Mackenzie nodded.

Hattie smiled brightly. “Congratulations! When the child is born, I will definitely give him a big gift! Congratulations to you too, Mr. Lowe. Your responsibilities will be even greater in the future!”
