Chapter 1485 Cooper Byers

Emmanuel smiled casually. Since Mackenzie didn't take Hattie as an enemy, he wouldn't either.

Hattie suddenly changed the subject. "Have people from Airspace Group and Holy Fire Organization approached you recently?"

Mackenzie nodded, then continued, "A woman with the last name Morgan from Airspace Group approached me not long ago and said some strange things. They wanted the child in my belly!"

"What?"

Emmanuel was suddenly astonished as he held her other hand tightly, "Mackenzie, why didn't you tell me about this kind of thing?"

Mackenzie apologized. "I'm sorry. I was upset before, and then I forgot! Now that Ms.

Zelinsky is here, it's a good opportunity to mention this."

Emmanuel nodded and sighed. He thought to himself, This is why spouses shouldn't quarrel or have cold wars. Otherwise, troubles might easily arise!

Sage listened silently behind them. Although he didn't dare to interject easily, he was also quite anxious!

He had also heard of Airspace Group. Their strength and background were unfathomable. If they set their sights on Mackenzie's child, there would probably be a lot of trouble in the future!

However, Hattie was not surprised by Mackenzie's words at all. She even directly told Mackenzie, "The woman you mentioned should be Yasmine, right? She is a senior consultant of Airspace Group with great power, and she is also Blake's sister!"

"What?!"

The couple was shocked again. They did not expect Yasmine to have this relationship with Blake.

"So, Blake was originally from Airspace Group?" Emmanuel asked.

Hattie didn't hide it either and nodded directly. "Since Blake is not here, let me say something blunt. He is actually a cast-off from Airspace Group."

“Cast-off?”

Emmanuel was shocked. Even he highly appreciated Blake’s strength. Such a person was a cast-off from Airspace Group?

Mackenzie quipped jokingly. “Was he cast off because he was too ugly?”

Hattie covered her mouth and chuckled. “No. Blake used to be a handsome guy, too.

His looks were no less than your husband’s!”

“So, he wasn’t lying?” Emmanuel also laughed along.

The three of them chatted in a relaxed and harmonious atmosphere. If an outsider were to see them, they wouldn’t know that the three of them had once been mortal enemies.

It would seem as if it was just a husband accompanying his wife’s friend for a chat.

“Yes. Airspace Group’s goal is to create super warriors and dominate the world! So, they are eager for martial talent, and the child in your belly has a unique bloodline, which is definitely their target!”

With this statement, Hattie successfully piqued Mackenzie’s interest, and Mackenzie immediately asked, “Ms. Zelinsky, so you know the details of Emmanuel and I?”

There were only a few people around, so Mackenzie didn’t hesitate.

She really wanted to know what her identity was. Her father was not a martial artist, so the only rare bloodline could only be her mother!

“Ms. Quillen, I can only tell you that your mother’s identity is very special. As for how special it is, it’s difficult for me to explain right now, and I’ve only heard about it, so I can’t confirm it for you!”

Hattie’s words made Mackenzie feel a little uncomfortable.

In fact, as clever as she was, combined with the words of Felicity and Hattie, she had already guessed her true identity! It was highly likely that she was the Saintess of the Holy Fire Organization, not Sarah!

Of course, this was just her speculation, and she needed solid evidence. Moreover, she knew nothing about what made the Saintess special!

At this moment, the highly anticipated match on the stage began.

The audience was in an uproar!

“Look! It’s the ace of the Summerton family entering the stage!”

“This is one of the favorites to win this tournament. His name is Cooper Byers. He’s a master-level expert! The guardian of the Summerton family!”

“Yes. His record in Onza is too well-known. He has almost won every battle, and it can be said that the Summerton family’s current reputation and status are all thanks to bim!”

The voices from the audience seats could be heard clearly by Emmanuel, and he couldn’t help but feel a bit excited.

He had seen Cooper before. Cooper always guarded behind Zaiden and his wife.

Although Cooper was silent, Emmanuel could still feel his expert aura.

However, it was quite unfortunate that his opponent tonight was Blake!
