Wrong Table 1486

Chapter 1486 Huge Gap

No wonder the audience was so passionate because Blake was a renowned fighter from the Zelinsky family of Zovince, and many people in the audience had heard of his name.

This was destined to be an exciting match tonight, and it unexpectedly unfolded so quickly!

Emmanuel couldn't help but glance in the direction of the Summerton family. Zaiden.

and Althea were both focused on the stage. Their eyes were fixed without blinking, showing signs of nervousness!

Unfortunately, luck was not on their side. After a fierce battle, Cooper still couldn't break through Blake's defenses and was defeated by Blake!

Hearing the boos directed at the Summerton family from the audience, Zaiden and Althea turned pale.

This defeat not only meant losing the match but also tarnished the reputation of the Summerton family!

The Summerton family was still the vice president of the Nuthana Chamber of Commerce. If they couldn't even secure a spot in the finals tonight, their reputation would inevitably plummet in the eyes of major families and forces. It was uncertain whether they could retain the position of vice president in the upcoming election next.

month!

"Hehe. The Summerton family's fighters are indeed impressive! Not bad!"

Blake still said a few polite words to the Summerton family on the stage for the sake of Emmanuel.

But it was all in vain!

The disdainful voices toward the Summerton family continued wave after wave.

Steven even approached Zaiden and Althea deliberately before saying coldly, "Mr.

Summerton, Madam Althea, is the Summerton family still going to protect the Quillen.

family and oppose the Tanner family? Don't blame me for not reminding you. Once you lose the position of vice president, the Tanner family will never let you off!"

After the threat, he left with a sneer.

He deliberately came to pressure Zaiden and Althea. If Ashton continued to use her official power to protect Emmanuel and prevent them from seeking revenge for Aidan, sooner or later, the Tanner family would make the Summerton family suffer!

Althea was about to speak to her husband when Bobby arrived. He controlled his volume to speak to them, “Zaiden, for my sister’s sake, I’ll give you another chance.

Promise to help me win the position of president now, and I’ll find a way to help the Summerton family retain the position of vice president. Otherwise, the Summerton family will soon decline irreversibly!”

Bobby was Althea’s older brother, so he was well aware of the situation of the Summerton family.

They were just maintaining the facade of the Summerton family. If they were of no use or failed to meet the requirements of hiding the Summerton family, they would be wiped out and replaced at any time!

Zaiden's facial expression turned dark, but he still didn't respond to Bobby.

At this moment, Ashton had also left her seat and appeared in the preparation area.

Although she couldn't hear what Steven and Bobby were saying to her parents, she could guess that they were putting pressure on her father, so she couldn't help but send a message to her father.

'Dad, I'm still around! I will definitely help the Summerton family secure a spot in the finals!'

Seeing this message, Zaiden felt somewhat comforted.

Cooper was a fighter sent by the Summerton family, but he was still not their own.

However, Ashton was his daughter. If Ashton could secure a spot in the finals, Zaiden would truly have some honor and prestige for the Summerton family.

So, with this hope in mind, he still chose not to respond to Bobby and Steven even after Althea whispered something in his ear.

He was a man and not a coward who would be intimidated by a few words!

Unfortunately, today's matchups were not friendly to the Summerton family. Anothe fighter from the Summerton family soon faced off against Blake..

The result was self-evident-a complete defeat!

Fortunately, Ashton was impressive. After mastering internal strength, her capability was no longer the same as before. She defeated strong opponents consecutively and advanced to the top four!

Sage, watching from the audience, felt relieved. Ashton was a very talented martial artist, and she was still young. As long as she continued to work hard, her martial arts capabilities would eventually catch up to a person with poor health like him.

At the same time, he admired Emmanuel. No matter how he taught Ashton, he couldn't help her master internal strength. But as soon as Emmanuel took over, Ashton immediately made rapid progress. This was the huge gap between him and Emmanuel!

Emmanuel also looked at Ashton differently, but her prospects for advancement di look good to him because he had noticed another fighter today.

It was Everett, who had challenged the Wolf Warrior Society twice in the past!

Everett's strength posed no threat to Emmanuel for sure. Even Sage could easily deal with him. But it was difficult for Ashton to face him now!
