

Y. Goddess 100

Chapter 100 Winter End?

A giant white fox with nine tails hanging down frightened some people who saw it.

Princess Anastasia looked shocked and almost fainted with Ciel's frightening presence like that.

Her teeth, sticking out and looking sharp, looked like a predator ready to pounce on its prey, but I could see her nine tails wriggling with joy.

My mother who was busy casting a defensive magic spell slowly prepared to act when the situation got out of control.

A giant red dragon and a huge white fox showing its nine tails. Of course, it was a sight like fighting a scary beast with a magic staff in her hand.

I watched Ciel and Sia who were seen playing on the snow while emitting their holy magic energy. As Saintesses who have pure holy magic energy that comes from their Goddess directly, their overflowing holy magic energy looks very dangerous in the eyes of normal people.

Even Hana who was observing this incident could only be silent when she felt the overflowing holy magic energy of the other Goddess.

To defuse the situation that seemed dangerous like this, I immediately stepped toward Ciel and Sia who were playing around on the snow using their original giant bodies.

With light footsteps, I approached Ciel and Sia who started running around chanting holy magic energy that melted the snow in winter and the ground that was once again covered in green grass.

"Ciel..."

"Sia..."

I called out to Ciel and Sia in turn while carrying the hope of stopping their little game.

"Winter still needs to last a few more days before spring comes, don't speed it up by polluting this land with your overflowing holy magic energy!" I shouted to stop their little game that used their giant body sizes.

I don't know what has happened lately.

Alice and Alyssa were seen having a small fight using their magic energy in a snow fight.

Alyssa and Princess Anastasia used their words to argue lightly about something inside my tent.

Mio and Noel seemed to be competing to prove their worthiness as Exclusive Maids who accompany my life every day.

Princess Anastasia and Hana seemed to be friendly for some unknown reason.

And now... I saw Ciel and Sia playing around in the snow with their holy magic energy overflowing.

Is there something that caused them all to act strangely like this?

I lowered my head and thought for a moment.

[It seems like you don't realize what happened, Lily-chan.]

My Goddess seems to know something about this.

[I do know, but it makes me excited about your future love life, Lily-chan.]

I frowned after hearing that.

Is there something that caused the people closest to me to act strangely like this?

[I don't know how to answer, but it has something to do with your growth after becoming a young woman, Lily-chan.]

Huh? Tell me in more detail.

[In short, it's because your body has grown into a teenage girl who can attract other girls to be more serious... uhh... in pursuing a romantic relationship?]

The answer I heard from the Goddess was very ambiguous.

It didn't explain this strange situation, which coincidentally happened again before my eyes.

[Lily-chan, have you never looked in a mirror before?]

Why did our conversation suddenly go in another direction?

[No, this is still the same topic. Have you never looked in a mirror before, Lily-chan?]

Shouldn't my Goddess herself know that I don't pay much attention to my already ugly appearance like this?

[Uhh... it seems like I have to make Lily-chan see the reality that Lily-chan has become a beautiful girl.]

Huh? What does she mean by that?

I doubted my Goddess' own words.

I... became a beautiful girl?

What is this nonsense?

My vision was suddenly filled with a translucent text screen that only my eyes could see. The text screen came from the Yurification System that had been perfected by my Goddess and the Goddess Aurora.

The combination of blessings from two different Goddesses made my Yurification System develop in an uncertain direction.

[Of all the blessings that Lily-chan had, I had given a blessing of honor and a blessing of authority that could change the mindset of other girls around Lily-chan.]

[Alice, had viewed Lily-chan as a respected older sister because Lily-chan had helped her study the magic book with Lily-chan's handwriting which was easy to understand if read carefully.]

[Alyssa, has viewed Lily-chan as a beloved older sister because of Lily-chan's fair treatment that does not discriminate against anyone and helps her satisfy her curiosity about magic through the translation of the magic book that came from the handwriting of the Great Hero. It can be said that Alyssa is completely captivated by you, Lily-chan.]

[For Mio, Lily-chan is her life goal that deserves her loyalty and self-sacrifice.]

[For Hana... uhh... the Goddess Aurora is too shy when discussing her own Saintess' feelings with me. But I can assure you that the Goddess Aurora allows her Saintess to have romantic relationships with girls.]

I almost choked on my breath when my Goddess talked about Hana.

[For Noel, Lily-chan is a Master who deserves her trust to bring out her maximum potential as a Maid who works in the shadows.]

Uhhm... I think Noel doesn't like her position of working in the shadows right now.

[That's because Noel is jealous of Mio who is always by your side, Lily-chan.]

[Then for Princess Anastasia... should I shorten it to say that she can do anything for you, Lily-chan?]

Now I feel like my body is filled with a heavy burden.

The blessings given by my Goddess and Goddess Aurora feel very heavy for me.

I had talked to Goddess Aurora several times to discuss something about the Yurification System because I had been actively stealing other women's personal information such as their three body measurements and listening to their hearts.

That blessing might be useful when I can control my composure. But that was too much for a girl who was only seven years old at that time.

Now, I want to understand the hearts of those who always fight like this.

[It's also mostly your fault, Lily-chan.]

Hmm? Why is it my fault?

[Lily-chan... do you realize that your body that has grown into a teenage girl looks so beautiful that it fulfills sexual desires and gives sensual temptation to every other girl who pays attention to Lily-chan?]

Uuhh... is it really like that?

[Yes, especially with... your breasts that have developed to the point where I want to bury my face between your cleavage.]

My Goddess... I've thought about this before.

Haven't you become a perverted Goddess lately?

[Eh, what's wrong with being perverted to my own Saintess?]

"Ugh..." I let out a disgusting expression after hearing the confession from my own Goddess.

Ciel and Sia who were still playing with the snow made a roar like an avalanche that slowly came towards me.

"Mama... can you spread your defensive magic chant now?" I said while looking at my Mama's magic staff that had glowed storing magic chants that could be released at any time.

Pingggg...

Swwaaasshh...

My Mother immediately created a giant wall from the pile of snow.

The avalanche that was created after Ciel and Sia played around with their giant real bodies had brought about a natural disaster created by the clash of their holy magic energy.

The avalanche hit the snow wall created by my mother.

Baaamm...

Swwwiisshh...

Their clashing holy magic energy suddenly created an explosion that spread in all directions. The explosion of holy magic energy melted the snow in the main mansion area of Marquess Rommel and was replaced by spring that suddenly appeared.

"Winter is almost over but they force spring to come faster using their holy magic energy. Should I correct them so as not to disrupt the laws of nature that should run using the order of nature?" I stepped back towards Ciel and Sia who had finished playing.

"Nee-sama... long time no see! I have brought spring to come faster to clean Nee-sama's residence!" shouted Ciel with a smile and her fox tail wagging.

"M-My body feels weak after so long not breaking the natural law of making spring come early and making winter end early in certain areas," Sia tidied up her messy hair and rubbed her dragon horns that were covered in snow.

Ciel and Sia looked at me with smiles on their faces.

I, who wanted to scold them, suddenly stopped scolding them after seeing that smile.

"Welcome to my family's territory, Ciel... Sia..." I greeted their arrival with a smile on my face.

I immediately transformed my body into a fox girl and spread my nine tails that looked like a giant fan.

Ciel immediately ran towards me after seeing my body change into a fox girl.

Buughh...

Ciel hugged me and gave me a small kiss on the lips.

After the soft kiss was released, I immediately changed my appearance into a dragon girl who resembled Sia.

"Ah, my cute little sister has grown up now," from a distance, I could hear Sia say that sentence and slowly approach me.

After Sia stopped in front of me, I could feel the soft touch of her hand that was hugging my head entering the cleavage of her breasts.

"Your sister really misses you after not meet you for so long time, did your family vacation go well?" Sia said that while stroking my hair and kissing my dragon horns which looked small compared to her horns.

I answered her with a nod.

After this reunion, I planned to introduce Hana, but...

I had to postpone it after seeing people confused because winter ended early and was replaced by spring which came suddenly.

I could see Marquess Rommel's main mansion filled with green grass and plants that had come back to life after absorbing the pure holy magic energy that came from the Saintess.

"You guys are exaggerating, spring should be here in a few days, right?"

Ciel and Sia just smiled at me.

"Wouldn't it be better to repair the house in the warm spring rather than in the cold winter where it's hard to do anything?" Sia and Ciel said at the same time.

There was some truth to what they said.
