

Y. Goddess 119

Chapter 119 Provocative Fight

In the midst of the heated situation caused by the two adventurers fighting each other, I stepped towards the two of them, who were lying helplessly after being silenced by Mio.

Mio bow her body towards me then threw a small knife at them as a small warning.

Swiingg...

Staabb...

One movement of Mio's small knife stopped around their bodies who were trying to stand up.

As I stepped towards them, I noticed my parents watching me from a distance. Thanks to the command baton given by my father, I now had the authority equal to the words of Marquess Rommel himself.

"Why both of you just stay silent without explaining what happened in this place?"

"I am not a blind person who will stay silent after seeing my residence being damaged again by a group of adventurers who participated in the Golden King Bear hunt."

In emphasizing my words, I immediately released a gripping magical energy that made an A-class adventurer seem to have become accustomed to seeing this magical energy that I released.

Booosshh!!!

Wuuusshh!!

My burst of magical energy didn't seem to be much of a threat to them.

"Still no answer?" I said coldly and stopped walking when I was in front of the two adventurers who had caused trouble earlier.

"Is that so? If this magical energy pressure isn't enough to give you the strength to answer my question, then..." In a tone filled with ambiguous sentences, I issued a small code for Zoe to release her magical energy to cast a magic that could control someone's behavior by heavy punishment.

Ctaakk...

I snapped my fingers making a loud sound and gave a signal for Zoe who slowly released her large magical energy.

"I didn't want to do this but you guys have forced me to do this because remained silent..."

Slowly, I could feel the air pressure and my weight increase.

"Good job, Zoe. Increase this threat beyond their body's limits by excluding Mio and me," I whispered to Zoe.

"Don't forget to give me a sumptuous dinner as a reward, Master," Zoe replied with a whisper that sounded in my ear.

Booosshh...

Waaamm!!

The overflow of my magical energy that formed a butterfly wing made the bodies of the two adventurers scream until they formed a human body print on the ground. Meanwhile, Mio who accompanied me by standing gracefully seemed unaffected by the magic chant given by Zoe.

"Gaaahhaa!!"

"Guuuhuukkk!!"

Receiving the magical pressure given by Zoe, the two adventurers' bodies felt a weight pressing on their bodies until their bodies slowly fell to the ground. The funny-looking human body print made me laugh sarcastically.

"Pffttt... I didn't expect that A-class adventurers had no manners and so easily accepted the punishment I would give."

"Well, that makes my burden feel lighter to punish you guys who have damaged someone's residence."

"Ooh!! Even though our mansion is in such a shabby state. It doesn't mean it's uninhabited! We just got back from a family vacation and didn't have time to clean it because there was a threat of attack from the Golden King Bear herd, you know!"

I briefly scolded them and gave them the first stage of punishment unilaterally.

"Zoe, you can use magic that manipulates the weight of objects with the gravity magic formation that we have learned together, right?" I whispered to Zoe.

"Yes, that is the first magic chant that we have developed together, my Master..." Zoe replied in a cheerful whisper in my ear.

Pooosshh...

Paaaamm...

When the air pressure and body weight pressure manipulated by the gravity magic chant stopped, I immediately looked at them with a cold and tense expression.

"Stand up and follow me to carry out your punishment!" I said with an expressionless sentence and suppressed my expression to remain cold.

My sharp gaze seemed to have made the two male adventurers who caused the trouble speechless and unable to move properly after crawling out of the hole that was the size of their bodies.

"Haaahh!! I almost died of suffocation!!" said one of the male adventurers with a stupid look on his face.

"This is your fault, idiot! Don't try to throw your fault at me!!" said one of the male adventurers with a stupid face without any guilt.

"What did you say?! You were the one who attacked me from behind first!"

"You even blocked it, idiot! If only you didn't fight back, we wouldn't be caught in this stupid fight!"

"You started provoking me by saying that my adventurer party is filled with prostitute slaves!"

"Aren't they the prostitute slaves you bought in the Capital? What's the difference between a prostitute and a prostitute slave? Its a same, idiot!"

"Shut up! I don't want to hear that from a pervert who's only interested in sexually teasing married women!"

"You want to fight again, huh?!"

"Who's scared? Let's finish this until one of us dies!"

"Come here, you bastard!"

"No, you... come here, you bastard!"

When they had reached the same ground as me, I kicked their bodies again after hearing their stupid conversation until they fell into a hole that was proportional to their bodies.

Duugh...

Daaghh...

"Fuck! My legs are cramping!" shouted one of the men I kicked with the leg he was supporting out of the hole.

"Bastard! What's wrong with this noble girl? I'll kill her!" cursed one of the male adventurers whose face I kicked until he fell back into the hole with his head first which fell until it hit the floor of the hole.

"Zoe, use your gravity magic formation ability to make them... almost die," I whispered to Zoe while looking down on them like they were the trash of society that should have been thrown away from the start.

Tapp... Tapp...

Srriieekk...

"Lily-sama, it seems very unfortunate that we have lost one of the A-class adventurers. May I build a trash can in their grave?" asked Earl Timoti who seemed annoyed after hearing the conversation of the two adventurers with their vulgar mouths that were not educated by polite words.

"For the time being, let them... almost die first, Earl Timoti," I said while smiling coldly at Earl Timoti, my undaunted gaze had stared at the two adventurers with a look that belittled their self-esteem.

"Mio..." I called out to Mio to say something but it seemed that there had been a misunderstanding in Mio's perception.

Tookk... Tookk... Tookk...

"I understand, Lily-sama. For the time being, this hole will be their prison full of insults," replied Mio who was tapping the wooden board with a small hammer in her hand.

I don't know when and how... I saw Mio who swiftly build a wooden board that said "Pee Toilet" and "Trash Can" on the hole created by the two adventurers.

I felt like it was a bit excessive...

But somehow it suited their trashy personalities...

Yes, this was much more fitting than I expected.

As a guarantee for them to stay in the hole, I could see Zoe's gravity magic formation circle actively moving in the exit hole and glowing.

Wooosshhh...

Paaamm!!

Taaamm!!

The magic circle formation created an air vacuum that seemed to suck dust and dirt into it. The air pressure generated by the magic formation had officially become their punishment.

"Hold on for a week in there, you ungrateful punks!" I said with my gaze peeking at their suffering from above the hole that formed the mold of their bodies.

Fliipp...

Fliipp...

After this one issue was resolved peacefully without further fighting, I immediately turned around and looked at the remaining adventurers around me while letting the wind sway the cape engraved with the Marquess Rommel family crest.

Srriikk...

I took out my katana and took a relaxed position to talk to party adventurers.

"Do any of you have any objections to the punishment I gave?" I asked with an intimidating tone and a fake smile that wanted to attack them.

"..."

"..."

Thudd...

From the many crowds who were afraid of my question, one of the adventurer parties in the crowd raised hand in the air.

It seemed that the intimidation I gave had made one of them dare to defend one of their own party members.

"Oh, it seems that one of you has an objection, may I know yourself?" I asked in a flat tone and put on my firm attitude.

From behind the crowd of adventurer parties, a little girl from one of the fox races was seen staring at me with a sharp glare. Her shabby and dirty body condition had given her a bad assessment from me.

Her fox ears and fox tail looked unkempt.

Beside her thin body that seemed to have no threatening power, the little fox girl pulled a small sword from behind her back.

"Let go of my Master!" the little fox girl shouted without knowing the situation.

Swwiirlll!!

Piinngg!!

A sharp blade was thrown towards me but was parried by Mio using the Sakura Dash move.

Traanngg...

The sharp blade flew into the air and fell in front of me.

"Release our Master right now, you bitch!"

Right behind the crowd of other adventurer parties, I could see several fox girls who looked ready to fight for their Master who was undergoing punishment from me.

"Kukuku... How interesting..." I unconsciously laughed like a villain after seeing them.

"You want to fight? Do your best and entertain me... little foxes..."

While saying that light provocation, I immediately changed my body into a nine-tailed fox girl.

Booosshhmmm...

Bwwaaamm...

My nine-tailed fox girl transformation caught the attention of the fox girls, making their eyes widen as my nine tails expanded in front of them like fan.

Releasing the Sakura Domain and the pressure of magical energy from my nine-tailed fox girl form, they stood still without moving.
