Chapter 160 The Warm of Wraps Fox Tails

Cold sweat flowing down my back immediately wet the cosplay uniform I was wearing. In the whistling winter wind that was so cold hitting my back, I could feel every touch of the coldness that indicated the journey of my cold sweat flowing down to the lower part of my back.

The bad feeling I felt became clearer by Ciel's behavior who was now busy wagging her nine fox tail in front of my face.

As one of the fox races with nine tails, giving all nine of her tails to be wagged towards my face is unusual behavior, isn't it?

"C-Ciel... what are you doing?" I said while pressing one of Ciel's fox tails that was covering my face.

"Is there something wrong with me, Nee-sama?" replied Ciel while continuing to play with her nine fox tails that continued to wag in front of my face.

"Don't you feel cold after doing this?" I asked further, now feeling that Ciel's nine fox tails were starting to feel cold and heavy.

The nine soft tails filled with cold air hit my face again intending to fill my entire body in the soft embrace of her nine fox tails.

"I don't feel cold at all after getting used to it for a while," Ciel replied in a fast tone.

As soon as I heard that answer, I could feel a small lie from her by my fox girl instincts.

Woosshh ...

Her nine fox tails that were covering my face and body suddenly stopped after the winter wind blew against her body.

Brrrttt ...

The small vibrations from her nine tails and Ciel's body that was hit by the winter wind immediately showed her small lie that was not used to winter like this.

"Ciel, you can pull back your nine fox tails if you feel cold," I said, not wanting to see Ciel pretending to be strong from the cold brought by the winter wind.

"W-What did Nee-sama say? I was just playing with my nine tails to cover Nee-sama's body," replied Ciel who was still stubborn in maintaining her sweet lie.

I could only exhale my light breath which was now covered by heavy steam due to the cold air given by the morning winter.

The sunlight that had shone seemed unable to provide enough warmth to remove the cold air that had covered the Marquess Rommel Mansion again.

The spring given by Ciel and Sia in their special blessing as a Saintess had completely disappeared.

All that was left today was a winter morning with snow falling covering the ground of the Marquess Rommel residence.

"Ciel..."

"You don't need to force yourself when you feel cold like this."

I gave a soft word to Ciel after feeling her nine thick tails suddenly harden. Her tails which looked softly arranged after being combed by her hands puffed up again like a little fox who felt cold.

While saying such gentle things to Ciel, I also gave a gentle touch and felt the tips of her tail hair that stood stiff like needles that were exposed to cold water.

"Brrttt... N-Nee-sama..." Ciel screamed in surprise when she got a small touch that hit her fox tail.

Ciel's response made me laugh a little after seeing her like a small fox curled up in the cold of winter.

"I-Is Nee-sama teasing me who looks like a fragile fox girl in winter like this?" Ciel muttered a little while moving her nine fox tails to get away from stroking my face and body.

The warmth given by Ciel's nine fox tails had disappeared quickly and the cold air of the winter in the morning was felt hitting my body again.

Brrtt...

The cold air in the winter morning had made my fox tail scream suddenly and every strand of my fox tail hair stood up.

"This cold makes my body want to warm itself up by sleeping on my bed," I muttered softly while closing my fox ears which were too sensitive to the winter wind blowing in the morning.

Feeling the cold that began to spread throughout my body, I suddenly felt a naughty little idea like Ciel did earlier.

With my face covered by a naughty little idea, I immediately deployed my nine fox tails to cover Ciel's body which looked cold.

Slluurttt...

Pooofff...

My nine warm fox tails were now slowly circling Ciel's body.

"Nee-sama?" My actions seemed to have caught Ciel's attention who was standing with a confused expression on her face.

Pooofff...

My nine fox tails had filled her body and left Ciel's head looking like a panicked fox girl.

"Uuhh... Nee-sama..."

"D-Did I do something wrong?" asked Ciel who seemed to not understand what I was doing to her body which was entangled in the warmth of my nine fox tails.

When my nine fox tails had surrounded her body and provided warmth, I could feel what Ciel had felt before.

The fox tail of a sensitive fox girl could easily vibrate when feeling changes in the air around her.

I felt the changes in the air around me thanks to my sensitive fox tails.

Twitcch...

Twitcch...

By moving my nine fox tails that began to wrap around Ciel's body tighter and provide additional warmth to her body, it looked like I was trying to make Ciel being dominated with my fox tails.

"W-Wait a minute... Nee-sama..."

"I-I'm still not ready to feel the love that Nee-sama will give..."

I heard Ciel's babbling voice along with the wraps of my fox tails that pressed even tighter against her body.

The wraps of my nine fox tails seemed to make Ciel look like a fox girl who was being bullied by me.

I didn't do this at all to bully Ciel.

I was just giving the sweet reply that Ciel had given before.

However, for some reason, it looked like I was dominating Ciel's body which was currently in the soft embrace of my nine fox tails.

"Nee-sama..." with a look of sparkling tears and a wide smile on her face, Ciel gave a very surprising facial expression.

A fox girl who seemed to enjoy every wraps of my fox tails gently stroked her body along with a soft smile on her face that was starting to be filled with a blush that could make other people misunderstand what I was doing.

"Nee-sama's soft fox tail..."

"It's like I'm on vacation in Nee-sama's heaven..."

Ciel's words made Sia and Hana swallow their saliva and cover their eyes with their hands.

Glluupp...

Gluupp...

As if she was watching my actions that seemed indecent to Ciel, Sia began to move her dragon tail to cover Hana's eyes who was having trouble controlling her small screams.

Small whispers immediately occurred because Hana looked like a Saintess girl who was excited about something.

Umm... am I doing something that makes Hana look that excited?

I could even see her facial expression filled with blush and her body shaking as if she wanted to separate my nine fox tails from Ciel's body.

And Sia... she looked like she was having trouble holding back Hana's movements who seemed to want to run to hug me immediately.

By controlling her dragon tail that restricted Hana's movement, I could hear a small whisper from Sia who was trying to calm Hana down according to the agreement that had been agreed upon by fellow Saintess girls.

I don't know what agreement happened between Hana, Sia, and Ciel.

But I could feel something bad when I was being unfair to them.

"Puuhhaaa... Nee-saaaa..." With her breath catching as if inhaling the smell of my nine fox tails, Ciel looked like she was drunk after smelling my fox tails.

"P-Please give me more... your love..." Ciel suddenly asked with an expression on her face that looked like a fox girl who had just been drunk by the smell of my fox tails.

Twitthh...

Twitthhh...

Umm... my fox tail doesn't have a smell that can make Ciel drunk, right?

What's going on?

Why do I feel like the actions I took were provoking something inside Ciel that didn't match her as a Saintess girl from the nine-tailed fox race?

Seeing Ciel's changes that were becoming more and more obvious before my own eyes, I could feel that Ciel looked like a fox girl who had submitted and tamed by me.

"Ciel, is it just me or do you look like you're enjoying the wrapping of my nine fox tails?" I asked while pressing her body tightly using my nine fox tails that had wrapped around her body.

Srrttt...

A small jolt from my nine fox tails now covered Ciel's face.

With her snore breathing and following the direction of the wraps of my nine fox tails, now I could see Ciel's facial expression filled with satisfaction after smelling the scent of my nine fox tails until her saliva dripped which began to wet my fox tail.

It looked so weird and somehow it made my fox tail want to wrap around her body even tighter.

"Nee-sama... Ahhh... Nee-sama... I really feel every love given by Nee-sama..."

"Please give Nee-sama's love even tighter to my body..."

My fox ears twitched when hear a whisper from Ciel's mouth that I accidentally heard.

With her breath starting to relax along with her nine fox tails that went down until touch the ground, I could see that Ciel had been completely trapped in the prison of my nine fox tails.

Ciel seemed to give a smile of pleasure after feeling the soft wrapping of my nine fox tails that had filled her entire body without any gaps.

"Will it be okay if I do something that looks dangerous and naughty like this?" I asked while directing my gaze to Sia who had held Hana tightly so that she wouldn't run towards my body.

Sia just smiled and gave a small nod indicating that what I had done wasn't that dangerous.

Although I was a little doubtful about the answer given by Sia, my nine sensitive fox tails said otherwise.

"Nee-sama..." through Ciel's small whisper that blew out of the prison of my nine fox tails.

I could see that Ciel enjoyed every caress of my nine fox tails that had locked her movements.

Without giving any signs of wanting to release the trap caused by my nine fox tails, Ciel felt every soft strand of my fox tail that touched her skin until I felt a strange sensation from her lower body that began to feel warm.

"Ciel, is this just my feeling or are you using my fox tail to rub your lower part until it's wet like this?" I asked while loosening the wraps of my fox tail to see what Ciel was doing to one of my fox tails.

Swiipp...

Swiipp...

After I loosened my fox tail to see what Ciel was doing, I accidentally saw her lower body that had been... wet?

A scene that made my eyes widen and almost scream happened before my eyes.

When my fox tail wrapped around her lower body.

It seemed that it had made Ciel feel comfortable until she rubbed one of my fox tails on her lower sensitive part.

Realizing Ciel's actions that looked naughty and perverted like this, I blushed and tried to control this shame fill over my face.
